A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

We are proud of the talent in Ann Arbor Civic Theatre. Through the years, we have grown into the largest theatre group in the area and one of the most successful civic theatres in the country. In over 30 years of Ann Arbor Civic Theatre, I have seen many of our own stars go on to Broadway and Hollywood and many make return appearances on our stage. We are enthusiastic about playing the Michigan Theatre and invite your participation in making AACT an asset to our city. We hope that you will join our organization.

Ted Heusel
Director

THE CAST

(In order of appearance)

Ida	Margie Cohen
Miss Skillon	Marina Seeman
The Rev. Lionel Toop	Charles Sutherland
Penelope Toop	Susan Dawson
Corporal Clive Winton	Richard Roselle
The Intruder	Joseph Medrano
The Bishop of Lax	John Stephens
The Rev. Arthur Humphrey	Bev Pooley
Sergeant Towers	David Harbison

ABOUT THE CAST

MARGIE COHEN (Ida) returns to the Michigan Theatre having appeared in last season's production of Harvey as Mrs. Chauvenet. She has chaired props for many shows, including The Chalk Garden. Margie has recently finished a three-year stint on Civic's Board of Directors. She first appeared in You Can't Take It With You as the maid. When not occupied as a part-time secretary at the U of M, she likes to cook, read and spend time with her family.

SUSAN DAWSON (Penelope Toop) joined AACT six years ago when she was cast in Little Mary Sunshine. Since then she has been on our stage in Guys and Dolls, The Devil's Disciple, Follies, A Little Night Music, Carousel and The Robber Bridegroom.

DAVID HARBISON (Sergeant Towers) is celebrating his 24th year of off-and-on performances on stage for Civic Theatre. His roles extend all the way from the Captain in Mr. Roberts through the gambit of melodrama, musicals and serious drama. Those of you who enjoy farcical comedy will remember David as Ferraillon, owner of the brothel, in Civic's production of Flea In Her Ear in the 80-81 season. He appeared last year as the cockneyed Peter Shirley in Major Barbara. David is President of Metal-Tronics, Inc., a sales representative firm in Ann Arbor.

JOSEPH MEDRANO (The Intruder) has been a Civic member for over 20 years, having appeared in many different shows as various characters including Italians, South Americans, American Southerners, New Yorkers and others. He also has performed other duties including props, set-building and painting, as well as designing. His most recent contributions were the portrait of Harvey and set design for Witness for the Prosecution. Joe is a member of the Dexter Kiwanis and teaches in Allen Park.

BEV POOLEY (The Rev. Arthur Humphrey) has appeared in several AACT shows, most recently as Andrew Undershaft in Major Barbara. He has also appeared with U of M Gilbert and Sullivan Society productions in a variety of roles, including Bunthorne in Patience and Major General Stanley in Pirates of Penzance. Bev is a Professor of Law and Director of the Law Library at U of M.

RICHARD ROSELLE (Corporal Clive Winton) has appeared in numerous AACT production in the last few years. You may remember him as Malcolm in Bedroom Farce; Joshua, the ancient butler, in Ring Round the Moon; Pellinore, the loveable old king in Camelot (for which he won the Best Supporting Acting award); or Jamie Lockhart, the bandit of the woods, in The Robber Bridegroom. Richard is a salesman by profession but dreams of someday getting paid for doing what he loves, acting.

MARINA SEEMAN (Miss Skillon) has been a Civic Theatre member for 16 years. She has also appeared in summer stock and with Livingston Players, Ypsilanti Players, Tecumseh Players, and at Eastern Michigan University where she majored in theatre. Among the 12 plays she did at EMU were Cabaret (Fraulein Schneider) and The House of Bernarda Alba (Martirio). Her appearances with AACT include Hogan's Goat (Maria Haggerty), Separate Tables (Lady Matheson), The Madwoman of Chaillot (Mlle. Gabrielle) and last season's Witness for the Prosecution (Romaine). Backstage for Civic she has worked as Assistant Director (The Crucible), helped build sets and worked on make-up and costume crews. Marina is a word processor operator at the Rackham Graduate School.

JOHN STEPHENS (The Bishop of Lax) will be making his 18th appearance on our stage with this show. He has played a variety of roles throughout his 14-year membership. This is his second time on the Michigan Theatre stage, having played Doctor Chumley in Harvey last fall. His latest appearance on Civic's stage was in the role of the judge in Witness for the Prosecution. John is President of West Devices in Brighton, where he likes to sail with his wife, Chris, on Woodland Lake.

CHARLES SUTHERLAND (The Rev. Lionel Toop) has most recently produced and done sets for Summer '82 shows The Robber Bridegroom and The Rainmaker on our Main Street stage. He has graced our stage in the roles of King Arthur in Camelot and Doolittle in My Fair Lady. He has an extensive background in Gilbert and Sullivan. Charles also directed Bedroom Farce and has been instrumental in setting up AACT's Main Street Theatre.

ABOUT THE STAFF

DARREN NELSON AYRES (Producer) marks his first assignment as producer with See How They Run. However, he has been involved in theatre both on stage and off. Darren has served as choreographer for the Saline Area Players production of How to Succeed In Business Without Really Trying and as costumer for Civic's Main Street production of A Life in the Theater. Darren graduated from Oberlin College in 1979 and hopes someday to write for the musical stage.

SOPHIA FARAH (Make-Up Design) is a long time, hard-working Civic member. She is best known for her co-ordination of the make-up for AACT and the U of M School of Music operas. She has also served on the AACT Board, as SPOTLIGHT Editor, Corresponding Secretary and Social Chairperson. Sophia is currently teaching a make-up workshop for Young Peoples Theatre.

CHRISTOPHER FLYNN (Properties) has played in several AACT productions as well as having directed Sandcastles and The Chalk Garden. Before coming to Ann Arbor, he performed throughout the country as dancer-actor-singer in ballet, modern dance musical comedy and night clubs. He was a resident player at Vanguard Playhouse in Detroit. Chris is currently on the faculty of the U of M Dance Department and is ballet master for the Detroit City Dance Company.

MIKE LIMMER (Lighting Design) has been on many lighting crews for AACT over the past three years. He designed the lights for Harvey, Major Barbara and Witness for the Prosecution last season. Mike is our Lighting Chairman this year. When not spending all his time at AACT, he manages the Burger King on Stadium Blvd.

RUNELDA MEDRANO (Assistant Director/Stage Manager) is a long-time member whose list of functions includes Board Member, Treasurer, Recording Secretary, Editor of the SPOTLIGHT, Social, Head Usher, and more. She ventured into acting in the first production of Oklahoma and Mame but prefers the roles of assistant director and stage manager, which she has performed for over 15 productions. Runelda is a professional business manager when not taking care of her two St. Bernard pups and being involved with the ladies group of the Dexter Kiwanis.

GWENN ANGLE PROEGLER (Costume Design) is a 1960 graduate of Carnegie Mellon's Theatre Design Department. This is her fourth show for Civic and she is the 1982-83 Season Chair for Show Publicity.

BOB SEEMAN (Co-Set Design) has been a member of AACT for 22 years during which time he has built many of its sets and served on the Board of Directors (four terms). In the past three seasons, he has designed or co-designed sets for The Devil's Disciple, The Crucible, Bedroom Farce, Look Homeward, Angel and Witness for the Prosecution. Bob currently serves as Production Design Co-ordinator and when not working back stage he is helping renovation activities for AACT's Main Street building.

SARA L. WARBER (Co-Set Design) can list this as her second AACT production. Sara designed the sets for last season's Camelot. She earned her BFA in Drama at Illinois Western University where she costumed such shows as The Effect of Gamma Rays on Man-In-The-Moon Marigolds, The Ghost Sonata and The Thirteen Clocks. She served as General Assistant at the Kalamazoo Civic Players and as Costume Co-ordinator at the Little Theatre-on-the-Square. Sara has recently begun a career as a nuclear medicine technologist at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

DON HALLER (Organist) began his theatre organ playing career in the 1950s as a member of the U.S. Navy Band after graduating from the Wisconsin Conservatory of Music and the U.S. Navy School of Music. In addition to playing at the Michigan Theatre, he has played for BOBLO Cruises, at the Royal Oak Music Hall, Redford Theatre, Henry Ford Museum Theatre and for various Midwest organizations. He is a graduate of Michigan State University where he studied Music Therapy and the U of M where he received his Master of Social Work degree. Don is the Director of Marriage and Family Counseling for the Washtenaw County Circuit Court.
