The Years are Passing By.

The years are passing by!
We watch, as from open door;
Their passage through Time's corridor;
Each shadow, in its falling, slopes Across the grave of buried hopes;The pulse of being slows down Through Winter's snow, through Summer's heats,And faith and hope and love grow cold As we grow old—as we grow old!

The years are passing by!

Time's record hath such pages blurred
With hasty deed, with bitter word;Such mad mistakes mark all life's years;
We scarce can read because of tears;

we see dead faces on the walls;

we hear dead voices in the halls;

We kiss some lips on bended knee;

The years are passing by!

Mr. J. D. Irish challenges the statement of Gen. Clark as being the person who has resided the longest continuously under one roof. Mr. Irish has so done since Sep. 1838 and exceeds the time of the General by one year and one month. And when January 6th arrives he and his better half propose to celebrate the 60th mile post of their nuptial journey in golden style.

The new hotel at Mount Clemens will be opened for guests July 15th, will be managed for the company building by James F. Avery, the builder and former proprietor of the Cool House of this city. The hotel fronts on three streets and is surrounded by a piazza 50 feet in length. The widely-known mineral qualities of the mineral water of this city, used as an aperient, and especially as a bath for the last five years, with great success in blood and diseases, from whatever cause, as in rheumatism, gout, neuralgia, epilepsy, salt rheum, chorea, St. Vitus dance, scrofula, erysipelas, various diseases and general debility, forms a large number of invalids there for treatment. Mr. Avery's brother has come to Detroit on business and prospered by disease was induced to visit Mount Clemens where relief followed so promptly that he undertook the construction of the present large hotel and the principal streets. A grand display of fireworks in the evening.

Universal Peace and Prosperity to Follow the Election of Hancock.

The following letter from a gentleman who has resided temporarily at Detroit and Port Huron, explains itself:

ATLANTA, Ga., June 25, 1860.

Hon. Chas. H. Richmond, Ann Arbor, Mich., Dear Sir: I want to congratulate you on your re-election.

It is like Hancock—superb. My home is now in the section of our country where we are awaiting orders to march upon both the actors. I fought in the union army and tried to do my duty and now that the union party has passed into the hands of stay-at-home warriors, whose bravery consists in shouting and waving the bloody flag, I would try to help them deep and for good, and over their grave write "No Resurrection." Under Hancock our country will be undivisible, and surely we can hope for peace and prosperity and God's blessing on our country.

As one of the people, and hoping to know you again thank you for your part in this nomination, and the hope it gives to those of us who have braved through war, the blessings of peace.

Sincerely Yours, E. W. S. N.E.F.
