

VOLUME XXXV.

The Ann Arbor Argus.

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING at the third story of the brick block corner of Main and Huron streets.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN.

Entered on Huron street, opposite the Gregory House.

JOHN N. BAILEY,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

TERMS, $1.50 A YEAR IN ADVANCE.

RATES OF ADVERTISING
Made known upon application at the office.

JOB PRINTING.
Pamphlets, Posters, Handbills, Circulars, Cards, etc., printed in the best style.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.
M. S. H. JOHNSON, Fashionable Dressmaker, Bond street, near Mack & Schuyler's drug store. All work promptly and satisfactorily executed.

CLARENCE TINKER, Attorney at Law and Solicitor in Chancery. Yorkville, Mich.

D. R. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Corcoran, Mich.

DONALD MACLEAN, M. D., Physician and Surgeon. Office and residence, 71 Huron street, Ann Arbor. Office hours from 9 to 2 A. M. and from 1 to 3 P. M.

W. H. JACKSON, Dentist. Office corner W. Main and Washington streets, over Dr. A. A. Ann Arbor, Mich. Anesthesia administered if desired.

JRAMEL, BREUFAFF & CORBIN, Attorneys at Law.

E. K. BREUFAFF, Justice of the Peace. All business promptly attended to. Office No. 8 East Washington street, Rinsley and Scobell's block.

HENRY R. HILL, Attorney at Law, Dealer in Real Estate and Insurance Agent.

OFFICE, No. 3 Opera House Block, ANN ARBOR.

FREDERICK KRAUSE, Auctioneer. Will attend to all sales, on short notice, at reasonable prices. For further particulars call at the office.

EUROPEAN HOTEL, Ypsilanti, Mich. New House, First-Class Table, Clean Beds, Low Price.

W. H. LEWIS, Proprietor.

J. H. NICKELS, Dealer in

FRESH AND SALT MEATS, Hams, Sausages, Lard, etc.

STATE STREET, OPPOSITE NORTHWEST CORNER OF UNIVERSITY CAMPUS.

Orders promptly filled. Farmers having meats to sell give him a call.

EVERYBODY SAYS THAT

S. B. REVENAUGH is the Boss Photographer of Ann Arbor.

Fourth Street, East of Court House, 1st floor.

THE ANN ARBOR SAVINGS BANK

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN.

Capital paid in - - - $50,000.00
Surplus - - - - - 100,000.00

Transacts a general banking business, buys and sells Exchange on New York, Detroit and Chicago, sells Sight Drafts on all the principal cities of Europe; also, sells Passage Tickets to Liverpool, London and Glasgow, via the Anchor Line of Steamships, whose rates are lower than most first-class lines.

This bank, already having large business, invites merchants and others to open accounts with them, with the assurance of most liberal dealing consistent with safe banking.

In the Savings Department interest is paid semi-annually, on the first days of January and July, on all sums that were deposited three months previous to those days, thus insuring the depositor of this city and county a perfectly safe deposit for their funds, together with a fair return in interest for the same.

Money to Loan on Approved Securities.

Transacted at the following places: W. W. Wines, D. Hartman, Daniel Hissick, H. A. Best, Wm. Deibel, and William B. Smith.

CHRISTIAN MACK, W. W. WINES, President, Vice President.

EMANUEL MANN, Druggist and Pharmacist.

59 SOUTH MAIN STREET, ANN ARBOR.

Has on hand a well selected stock of

PURE DRUGS, MEDICINES,

CHEMICALS, CHOICE PERFUMES

Patent Articles, Shampoos, Trusses, etc., which are sold at prices to suit the times.

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully prepared at all hours.

EBERBACH & SON, Druggists and Pharmacists,

12 South Main St.,

Have on hand a large and well selected stock of

DRUGS, MEDICINES,

CHEMICALS, DYE STUFFS,

Artists and Wax Flower Materials, Toilet Articles, Trusses, Etc.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS.

Special attention paid to the furnishing of Pharmacy, Chemists, School-keepers, with Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus, Robinson Chromo-lithography, Porcelain Ware, Pure Resins, etc., which are sold at prices to suit the times.

Physicians' Prescriptions carefully prepared at all hours.

Abstracts of Titles.

Some Time.

BY MAY LOUISE RILEY.

Some time, when all life's lessons have been learned,
And we sit at some forefathers' feet,
The things which our weak judgments here have
And there have appraised,
The things of earth which we grieved with, and
Which we loved, and which we loved,
Will flash before us out of life's dark night,
As stars shine more in deeper tints of blue;
And we shall see how all God's plans are right,
And how well seemed reproval was love
Most true.

And we shall see how, when we frown and Sigh,
God's plans go on as best for you and me!
Oh, when we wish the teacher had not our cry,
Because his wisdom to the end could see,
And, 'e'en as prudent parents disallow
Too much of secrets to craving boyhood,
God, perhaps, is keeping from us
Lives' best secret things, because it seemeth
good.

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's wine
We find the wormwood, and rebel and shrink,
Oh, to be with the loving Father,
Points out this portion for our lips to drink,
And if some friend we love is lying low,
Where human kisses cannot reach his face,
Do we not feel the loving Father so,
That by our sorrow with obedient grace,
And you shall shortly know that lengthened
breath,
Is not the sweetest gift God sends His friends,
And that sometimes the sickle fall of death,
Is not the worst that God can send.

And if we wish our Father's gates of life,
And stand within, and all God's workings
see,
We must interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key,
But not to-day; then be content, poor hearts,
God's plans lay like lilies pure and white—
fold—
When we are here the close that leaves apart,
There will reveal the eyes of God,
And if, through patient toil, we reach the land,
Where first feet, with sandals loosed, may tread.

When we shall know and clearly understand,
I think that we will say, "God knows the best."

ONE MIDSUMMER EVE.

BY E. L.

A Bloomsbury lodging; on the second floor, too. Everything looks dainty, mellowed down to a uniform brownish hue, the combined result of London smoke and "smuts."

Yet it is a pretty little room for all that, with a decided air of being thoroughly tenanted by refined occupants, and a certain amount of uniform furniture, the combined result of London smoke and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

longer-filled purse just one sovereign and a half here.

However, Alison Harle has not had much of the brightness of life. She knows joy only by fits—always than a few things are no worse."

It will be a help, she reflects, if she can manage to go to her uncle's at Moorfields.

"Oh, Miss Harle?"

The exclamation proceeds from the grimy maid-of-all-work, as she moves Alison in the dim hall when she arrives at the Bloomsbury lodgings after dinner.

"What is the matter, Jane?" she inquires, her smart standing still with some vague feeling of apprehension.

"Too much of secrets to craving boyhood,
God, perhaps, is keeping from us
Lives' best secret things, because it seemeth
good."

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's
wine
We find the wormwood, and rebel and shrink,
Oh, to be with the loving Father,
Points out this portion for our lips to drink,
And if some friend we love is lying low,
Where human kisses cannot reach his face,
Do we not feel the loving Father so,
That by our sorrow with obedient grace,
And you shall shortly know that lengthened
breath,
Is not the sweetest gift God sends His friends,
And that sometimes the sickle fall of death,
Is not the worst that God can send.

And if we wish our Father's gates of life,
And stand within, and all God's workings
see,
We must interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key,
But not to-day; then be content, poor hearts,
God's plans lay like lilies pure and white—
fold—
When we are here the close that leaves apart,
There will reveal the eyes of God,
And if, through patient toil, we reach the land,
Where first feet, with sandals loosed, may
tread.

When we shall know and clearly understand,
I think that we will say, "God knows the best."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

One Midsummer Eve the young mistress of Moorfields returned to her mother's old home the happy wife of Jacob Hensworth's son.

Early Rising.

Once upon a time there lived in Bloomsbury a man named Simpkins.

He lived there about twenty-five years, and during all that time he had been held up for emulation before all the youth of the town.

He was pointed out with pride to strangers as the man whose example had given life and prosperity to the place, and the busy hum of labor blessed him with its early ringing voice.

"It was a man to all the country over,"
and his name was on every lip, and his three dollars and seventy-five cents a year."

And this amount, the minister said, proved how Providence had blessed good Brother Simpkins because he had gone to the end and considered her ways and been wise.

But last season a queer dream, and on his death-bed he made a confession that startled the community and made
"each particular hair stand on end."

He confessed that about twenty-five years previous he had murdered a man in a fit of anger, and he had been whipped in a man—a total stranger—stands by him.

He raises his hat as Alison enters the apartment.

"I have to apologize for my seeming intrusion," he says, in a grave, pleasant voice; "but I found this gentleman taken ill in the street, and I have taken the liberty of bringing him home."

"What is the matter, Jane?" she inquires, her smart standing still with
some vague feeling of apprehension.

"Too much of secrets to craving boyhood,
God, perhaps, is keeping from us
Lives' best secret things, because it seemeth
good."

And if, sometimes, commingled with life's
wine
We find the wormwood, and rebel and shrink,
Oh, to be with the loving Father,
Points out this portion for our lips to drink,
And if some friend we love is lying low,
Where human kisses cannot reach his face,
Do we not feel the loving Father so,
That by our sorrow with obedient grace,
And you shall shortly know that lengthened
breath,
Is not the sweetest gift God sends His friends,
And that sometimes the sickle fall of death,
Is not the worst that God can send.

And if we wish our Father's gates of life,
And stand within, and all God's workings
see,
We must interpret all this doubt and strife,
And for each mystery could find a key,
But not to-day; then be content, poor hearts,
God's plans lay like lilies pure and white—
fold—
When we are here the close that leaves apart,
There will reveal the eyes of God,
And if, through patient toil, we reach the land,
Where first feet, with sandals loosed, may
tread.

When we shall know and clearly understand,
I think that we will say, "God knows the best."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted by refined occupants, and a
certain amount of uniform furniture,
the combined result of London smoke
and "smuts."

It is a pretty little room for all that,
with a decided air of being thoroughly
tenanted

Republicans Defeat in Maine-What Does It Signify?

The republicans of Maine sustained an overwhelming defeat on Monday. For weeks past their press has boastfully proclaimed that victory was assured, and the only thing remaining was what shall be the majority. It has been a sharply-conducted canvass on both sides. Under the personal management of Blaine, whose voice has been heard in every part of the state...

Under the inspiring news from Maine the democracy of the country will be nerve to greater exertion. It will insure to us Indiana beyond doubt, and cause grave apprehension on the part of republicans in being able to carry Ohio. These conclude the October states. Its effect on New York the pivotal state will be greatly felt, and if there has been any doubt as to Connecticut and New Jersey, that doubt is now removed.

The Philadelphia Times says: "Colonel Mosby writes home from Hong Kong that he will vote as he shall against Hancock." Mosby was the meanest kind of disunionist. He was a roving guerrilla—a bushwhacker who paid no attention to the rules of civilized warfare. He delighted to skulk about the country with his men and pick off union soldiers here and there wherever he could find them. He was on the land what a private vessel is on the high seas. He fought under a black flag. But as soon as the war closed this man Mosby became a truculent follower of Grant, and was forthwith admitted to the councils of the party—nay, he was welcomed as an accession to the republican party, and was rewarded with a fat office. He has received the plaudits of the men who are denouncing Hancock as a disloyal man. It is meet that the guerrilla Mosby should vote as he sits—against Hancock.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the daughter of the Premier, is one of the successful candidates in this year's class list of Cambridge University examinations. It is rather interesting to reflect that while the daughter of England's prime minister is admitted to the benefits of one of the greatest and oldest of universities, American girls are excluded from her liberality and her social progress, gives no such advantages to women—Harvard, after a fashion, imitates Cambridge, but offers nothing like the full and generous instruction of the conservative, English university. Yale and Columbia, apparently, can not afford to place themselves on a level with Cambridge and Oxford—N. Y. Tribune.

Our contemporary appears to be ignorant of the fact that, for ten or more years ladies have been admitted to the University in this city, in all its many departments, upon equality with males, and that hundreds of female graduates are engaged in the practice of law and medicine, scattered over the country.

There seems to be no reason why Gen. Hancock shall not be elected President by as large a majority as was Gov. Tilden four years ago. There is no reason why any man who voted for Tilden should not vote for Hancock, and there is every reason why he should. And there is good cause for thinking that Hancock will poll even a larger vote than Tilden, because of the larger number of republicans who can not endorse Garfield and his seamy record, but who will vote for Hancock, against whom no man can truthfully utter a word.

The reunion and consolidation of the democratic party in New York city places the republican press in a puzzling position. Since the split last fall these organs have been busy patting John Kelly on the back and urging him to keep up his position and refuse to harmonize. Now that Tammany and Irving Halls have agreed upon terms of union and harmony the organs feel like kicking both organizations.

Let every man who has any idea of casting his vote for Garfield stop a moment and think that if the republican candidate had his just deserts in 1878 he would have been expelled from Congress and tried for perjury. Democratic reader, when some republican tells you that Garfield is a tariff man, inform him that Garfield's utterances secured him membership in Richard Cobden's English Free Trade Club.

The study sons of the Pine Tree State have set the seal of their condemnation on Credit Mobilier Garfield, and the whole crew of returning board rascals.

Let there be no lagging now. On with the column from now until the setting of the sun November 2.

Politician. —Blaine's bloody shirt has been put to waste. —Poor, old Hannibal Hamlin! It is to be hoped the distressing news won't kill him. —It was Roscoe Conkling who declared that no republican could be elected and inaugurated but Gen. Grant—Boston Post.

—The lawn at Mentor would be an appropriate site for the monument that is to be erected to the memory of Oakes Ames.—Chicago Telegraph. —Chairman Barnum of the national democratic committee, refuses the nomination for congress in the Bridgeport, Conn., district, recently tendered him. —We propose to buy it, by G.—It was the reply of the saintly Logan, when asked at Augusta how the republicans propose to carry Maine this year.—Portland Argus.

—We have been shown a paper drawn up by colored citizens, and already signed by thirty-five of them, expressing their belief that the best interests of the people demand the election of Hancock and English.—Toledo Times. —The organs are agreed that General Hancock made a mistake in fighting while the war was going on. He ought to have saved up his energies so that he could turn in with the organs and help to put down the rebellion this year.—Philadelphia Times. —Among the curiosities of the campaign will be a "floppers" meeting, to be held in Pittsburgh, Pa., on Saturday night, under democratic auspices. John W. Forney, Benj. F. Butler and Daniel Dougherty will be the speakers, and one hundred "floppers" will serve as vice presidents.

—A tramp printer struck the office of The Democrat, at Albia, Iowa, and was taken out of the well. After a while the editor got drunk and left town, and his wife secured a divorce. The tramp traced up, edited the paper, and became a man among men. He has just married the grass-widow. —Some of the republican managers at Columbus, O., had made arrangements with Senator Blaine for early dispatches on Monday night, giving an idea of the size of the republican majority in Maine. They haven't heard a word from Jim yet, and some anxiety is felt to know just what has become of him.

—While the republicans of Indiana are profoundly disappointed and alarmed by the news from Maine, they refuse to give up hope of success in October. The campaign will be conducted with renewed energy by both parties from this time forward. In democratic circles the election of Landers is predicted with a confidence which nothing can shake.

—The example and influence of the republican party has had a tendency to introduce and establish corrupt and dangerous political methods. It is upon their money bags, and not upon their principles, that the republicans rely. The republican party has systematically purchased several states for years. It has reached a point where it does not even attempt to conceal its practice of wholesale bribery, taking it for granted that it has educated public sentiment down to its own vile level.—Boston Post.

Current News. —Leadville is threatened with riot. —Iowa's corn this year will reach 200,000,000 bushels. —A Californian has invented an "unstuffable" ballot box. —The condition of Rev. Dr. Chapin is somewhat improved. —Jefferson Davis will finish his History of the Civil War this fall. —Another daughter of Senator Sharon is engaged to an English nobleman. —Ex-Gov. English, of Connecticut, has never been sick a day in his life. —Mr. G. W. Childs is building a $100,000 house in the suburbs of Philadelphia. —James H. Nelson, a Michigan army paymaster is a $23,000 defaulter. Whereabouts unknown. —Bob Ingersoll offers to be one of a thousand to give $1,000 for republican campaign purposes. —There is a rumor that Judge Swayne, of the United States supreme court, will be retired his winter. —Theodore Tilton's two daughters will remain in Paris this winter to study French and painting. —Fanner the faster drew only two hundred people to hear him lecture in Boston, Saturday evening. —Marshall O. Roberts a prominent wealthy business man of New York, died at Saratoga, Saturday. —The noted caricaturist of Harper's Weekly is said to have made over $30,000 by his Tommantic performances in that paper. —The last words of Gen. Torbert, on the wrecked steamer Vera Cruz, were to a friend: "I shall go aft and meet you above."

—George W. Phillips, one of the richest farmers in Massachusetts, who died lately, left only $300 to Wendell Phillips, his brother. —The Chicago Times says Richard Trevelick has but two enemies on earth—the English dictionary and the man who wears clean shirts. —Whitwell, the violinist, has been spending the summer in the Catskills, and giving his musical services for the benefit of country Sunday schools. —Count Telfener, who married a sister of Mackey, the bonanza king, has leased the ruins of the Colosseum at Rome, and is putting them in shape to be preserved. —J. M. Killoch, charged with killing Charles De Young of the San Francisco Chronicle, arraigned on Monday, plead "once in jeopardy." A similar information was set aside in May. —Adirondack Murray's friends say that nothing but his obstinacy prevents his coming into possession of his property again, as his friends would gladly help him to anything that would be necessary to set him on his feet. —President Hayes attended theatre at San Francisco on Saturday evening. Sunday he attended church, where Bishop Simpson began to preach, but taken with congestive chills, was obliged to be removed to a neighboring house.

—Dr. Buchanan, a celebrated bogus diploma vendor of Philadelphia, who, indicted, escaped to Detroit and crossed into the Dominion, was investigated by the American side to attend a spiritual seance, has been taken to the former city to stand trial. —A congregational, catholic and Methodist Episcopal church are to be erected at Roscommon during the next two months.

—A young man who has any idea of casting his vote for Garfield stop a moment and think that if the republican candidate had his just deserts in 1878 he would have been expelled from Congress and tried for perjury.

—Let every man who has any idea of casting his vote for Garfield stop a moment and think that if the republican candidate had his just deserts in 1878 he would have been expelled from Congress and tried for perjury.

A Graphic Picture. At the grand democratic mass meeting and barbecue in Albany, N. Y., last week, Hon. S. S. Cox concluded an eloquent address with the following graphic sketch of the illustrious president-elect of the democratic presidential nominee: The first picture should be a rapid panorama, in a country at war with us, of the act of Mexico, H. H. G. Vera Cruz, and moves with the speed of our victorious little army, with its many unequal but victorious battles, to the city of the Montezuma. Up the march stands out the young Lieutenant Hancock, following the fortunes and winning his share of the honors under the command of the illustrious General. Subsequent events more none than only dwarf these scenes, amidst the cañons, mountains and plains of this wonderful land; but time has shadowed them with the chiaro oscuro. Still it was a democratic war and energized our people for the acquisitions which followed. Lift the curtain for another picture! Our republic is engaged in the throes of civil conflict. The genius and valor of millions are in the field for military. Out of these millions war names shine as resplendently as that of the young Lieutenant, called to the active, patriotic and perilous part of his profession. To the mind the mind is a whole gallery of battle pictures, of which he is the heroic center. Beginning in October, 1861, under McClellan and the illustrious General, he fought in May, 1862, following the flag to Malvern Hill in that historic summer, and in the fall at South Mountain and Antietam, and following colors, he fought his native is forever linked. How grand our soldier seems at Gettysburg, that pivotal field of the war, even to the eye of contemporary historians. It is seven years ago. He is forming the line of battle on Cemetery Hill. His plan is approved by Meade. It is in his familiar ground. The morning of the second of July dawns. He is ready for the onset of Longstreet and Lee? He commands half of that magnificent army, and he is in the field, and his only his own, but other States, nay—his country's unity—are in awful peril. —his country's unity—are in awful peril. Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia and other cities bleed for his sake, and the nation is pallid with fear. Is equal to the great trial? Equal? See him and his brave corps as they prepare to repel the 15,000 chosen soldiers of Longstreet, and his army, the air is hot with smoke of battle; missiles hail a tempest of death. The nation is in the throes of a civil war. "Banner," and out of the red tempest the majestic form of General Hancock moves down the long lines, in the face of the dreadful death-dealing cannon. Ha in hand, and cool as on a review, he inspires the sublime effort which is crowned with success, as he falls with his own hand. He is the victor! What artist can picture that scene of carnage and glory? Surround it with the after battles of the Wilderness, the Appomattox, and the final victory! What artist can picture that scene of carnage and glory? Surround it with the after battles of the Wilderness, the Appomattox, and the final victory!

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS. For President—WINFIELD S. HANCOCK, of Penn. For Vice-President—WILLIAM H. ENGLISH, of Indiana. At Large—PETER WHITE, ARCHIBALD McDONNELL. First District—WILLIAM FOXEN, Second District—HIRSH J. DEAKES, Third District—JAMES S. UPTON, Fourth District—GERMAIN H. MASON, Fifth District—HORACE B. PECK, Sixth District—JEROME EDDY, Seventh District—WILLIAM W. MILLS, Eighth District—WILLIAM R. MARSH, Ninth District—JAMES DEMPSEY.

STATE NOMINATIONS. Governor—FREDERICK M. HOLLOWAY. Lieutenant-Governor—EDWARD H. THOMPSON. Secretary of State—WILLIAM STEARNS. Attorney-General—HENRY P. HENDERSON. State Treasurer—ISAAC M. WESTON. Auditor-General—RICHARD MOORE. Commissioner of State Land Office—JAMES I. DAVID. Superintendent of Public Instruction—ZELOUS TRUESDEL. Member of Board of Education—ALBERT CRANE.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATION. For Representative in Congress—WILLIAM H. WALDBY. COUNTY NOMINATIONS. For Senator—DAVID G. ROSE. For Judge of Probate—WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN. For Sheriff—EDWIN W. WALLACE. For County Clerk—EDWARD DUFFY. For Register of Deeds—GEO. STEPHENSON. For County Treasurer—JACOB KNAPP. For Prosecuting Attorney—CHARLES R. WHITMAN. For Circuit Court Commissioners—PATRICK, McKEARNAN, GEORGE STEPHENSON. For County Surveyor—CHARLES S. WOODWARD. For Coroners—MARTIN CLARK, CONRAD GEORGE.

WIT AND HUMOR. The civil engineer would like to be monarch of all he surveys. People unable to express their feelings can send them by freight. An apple threw the first man. Since then it has sorter let the business out to the banana. A wag got hold of an editor's whiskey bottle and labeled it, "to be continued in our necks."

It was the man arrested for stealing a mirror who discovered that he had taken a glass too much. The law can never make a man honest. It can only make him very uncomfortable when he's dishonest. Men make fortunes by attending to their own business, because there are so few men engaged in that line. Kate Field asks: "Can a man get along without chin?" Certainly replies an exchange, if he has cheek enough. An old paper, in a discussion with a temperance lecturer, triumphantly asked: "If water runs your roads, what effect must it have on the coats of your stomach?"

When you see a man take his hat off to you it is a sign that he respects you. But when he is seen divesting himself of his coat you can make up your mind that he intends you shall respect him. "I wish I was worth a million dollars," said a gentleman. "What would it do you, for you don't spend your present income?" inquired a friend. "Oh, I could be economical on a large scale." A wealthy manufacturer of Connecticut, having built an elegant mansion and wishing to take a second wife, said to his architect, "Which agrees best with brick and brown stone, a brunette or a blonde?"

A rich but parsimonious old gentleman, on being taken to task for his miserly habits, said: "I don't give much, but if you only knew how it hurts me when I give anything, you wouldn't wonder." An awkward fellow planted his foot square upon a lady's train the other day. "Oh, my great train-sucker!" said the lady, angrily. "Beg your pardon, street-sweeper!" was the arch reply. There is a youth who, every time he wishes to get a glimpse of his sweetheart, cries, "Fire!" directly under her window. The alarm of the moment she plunges her head out of the win, and inquires "Where?" when he pottically pat himself on the bosom, and exclaims, "Ere, my Carolina!"

A young couple just married are passing the honeymoon in a pretty village. The husband said to his wife, "that you are not tired. I fear some of those that you regret your bachelor life." "On the contrary, my angel," he replied, "I regret it so little that if you were to die I would marry again right away."

A physician, heavily loaded with town-isms, for which he had paid only in part, hastily prescribes a box of pills for a patient, and allowed his mind to wander back to his real estate. The patient asked how the pills were to be taken. The doctor replied: "One-third down, and the rest in six or a twelve months, with interest."

The minister stopped at a house on the South Side last week, and sought to improve the time by giving an evening lecture on the subject of "Lessons in morality." "My boy," said the minister, "I have lived 45 years, and have never used tobacco in any form, nor told a lie, nor uttered an oath, nor played a card, nor..." "Giddyiddy giddyiddy!" interrupted the lady, "you ain't had any fun at all, have you?" —Ot City Derrick.

Hill's Opera House! ONE NIGHT ONLY. MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1880. Engagement of LAWRENCE BARRETT. JULIUS CAESAR. CAIUS CASSIUS. LAWRENCE BARRETT. No extra charge for Reserved Seats, now on sale at Watt's Jewelry store. Admission, $1.00, 75 and 50 Cents.

YPSILANTI OPERA HOUSE! Opening of the Season, So-81, MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 20th. Engagement Extraordinary of the Eminent Tragedian, Mr. JOHN MCCULLOUGH. VIRGINIUS. Or, The Roman Father.

Estate of Adaline Mcomber. STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY of Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday the seventh day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty. Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate. In the matter of the estate of Adaline Mcomber, deceased.

Estate of William H. Calkin. STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY of Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, on Wednesday the fifth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty.

Notice of Elections. Notice is hereby given that at the general election to be held in this state, on the first Tuesday of November next, the following officers are to be elected: Vice-presidents of President and Vice-President of the United States, a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of State Land Office, a Representative in Congress for the Second (2d) Congressional District of this State, to which this county is attached, and a Senator for the Fourth (4th) Senatorial District, composed of Washtenaw and Livingston counties, to be elected by the Legislature for each of the three Representative Districts into which Washtenaw county is divided; and a Judge of Probate for Washtenaw county, to be elected by the electors of the county.

Notice of Elections. Notice is hereby given that at the general election to be held in this state, on the first Tuesday of November next, the following officers are to be elected: Vice-presidents of President and Vice-President of the United States, a Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor-General, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Commissioner of State Land Office, a Representative in Congress for the Second (2d) Congressional District of this State, to which this county is attached, and a Senator for the Fourth (4th) Senatorial District, composed of Washtenaw and Livingston counties, to be elected by the Legislature for each of the three Representative Districts into which Washtenaw county is divided; and a Judge of Probate for Washtenaw county, to be elected by the electors of the county.

THE PLYMOUTH ROCKS, one of the best breeds of poultry, is on sale by WM. BUSH Superior, P. O. address Ann Arbor. Price $3 per dozen, or $25 per hundred. This is the best of the breed, and among the best for eggs and table.

ESTATE OF PETER S. JUNE. STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the first day of September, A. D. 1880, six months from that date were allowed creditors to present their claims against the estate of Peter S. June, late of said county, deceased, and that all claims against said estate are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the first day of March next, and that claims not so presented will be barred. This notice is given for the first day of December, and on Tuesday, the first day of December, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Standard ECLIPSE Windmills. The Strongest Mill Made. SAFEST TO BUY. Because Warranted the Best, and Warranted to be in conformity with all improvements. Price Lowest—Quality considered. Send for catalogue containing article wanted. FAIRBANKS, MORSE & CO., 111 and 113 Lake-st., Chicago.

The Universal Bath. MARY BATH. In One Room. For Sale at the Drug Store of L. S. Lerch, Cook's Hotel block, also by C. Eberhart & Son, South Main Street, and by the manufacturer, J. J. Knowlton, No. 24 North State Street, Ann Arbor, Mich. To whom all correspondence should be addressed.

R. B. GOODMAN, Teacher of Music, MILAN, Washenaw Co., MICHIGAN. No. 101. A NEW GROCERY! AT 16 EAST HURON STREET.

CASPAR RINSEY Has opened a new stock of Groceries at the above location, comprising everything in the line at bottom prices—and purchased exclusively for cash. From a long experience in the trade, retail and wholesale, he believes he can sell goods as cheap as the cheapest. CALL AND SEE HIS PRICES. All Goods Warranted First-Class.

DELI FLOUR, J. M. Swift & Co's Best White Wheat Flour, Rye Flour, Buckwheat Flour, Corn Meal, Feed, &c., &c., &c. At Wholesale and Retail. A general stock of GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS constantly on hand, which will be sold on a reasonable terms as at any other house in the city.

WANTED! PARTIES WHO WILL PUT TIES OR TIMBER. Line of the Toledo, Ann Arbor and Northeastern Railroad.

Pay the Highest Cash Price. As soon as delivered on the line of the road. They will also pay cash for ties as follows: 55 cents for Oak; 25 cents for Ash and Tamarack.

H. W. ASHLEY, Corner Washington and Main Streets, ANN ARBOR, MICH. HOLL'S BITTER MALT TONIC. Eggs! Eggs! Eggs!

RENOVATE THE SYSTEM. THE NEW TABLE BEVERAGE! HAS GREAT ADVANTAGES OVER TEA AND COFFEE. 1st. Is more healthful. 2d. Finer flavored. 3d. Cheaper. Kept by all grocers. Office and warehouse of COLONCO BEV'G CO., 15 Grand River Ave., DETROIT, MICH.

Lake Superior Transit Co. Steamers leave Detroit for Sault Ste. Marie and Lake Superior Ports on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 10 P. M. Railroad connections made at Duluth for St. Paul, Minneapolis, Bismarck, Mandak and other points North, South and West.

AETNA INSURANCE COMPANY. Capital, $3,000,000. Assets Jan 1, 1878, $6,792,649.98. Losses Paid in 55 Years, $44,760,391.71. Surplus over all Liabilities, including Re-Insurance Reserve, $4,735,092.86. Net Surplus over Liabilities, including Re-Insurance and Capital Stock, $1,735,092.86.

C. MACK, Agent, Ann Arbor.

GET YOUR PROPERTY INSURED BY EDWARD DUFFY, Wholesale and Retail. C. H. MILLEN, Insurance Agent. No. 4 South Main Street, ANN ARBOR, MICH. A Large, New, and Clean Stock of Staple & Fancy Groceries. ALWAYS ON HAND! Together with a full and complete stock of BOOTS, SHOES, AND RUBBER GOODS.

PERMANENT DESIROUS of securing the MAMMOTH TENT of the Ann Arbor Reform Club, for evening or afternoon meetings, can have terms with the committee. B. F. WATTS, C. M. JONES, JOHN SCHUMACHER.

SPAIN'S DOCTORS PRESCRIBE IT! In an unending remedy for Rheumatism, Rheumatic Pains, and pain of every description, such as St. Vitus's Dance, Gout, Lumbago, Chronic Lambe Back, neuralgia in the Back caused by early Indigestion, Cords or Muscles, Headache, Earache, Toothache, Faceache, Sprains, Cuts, Bruises, etc.

FALL OPENING! Attractive Display of NEW FALL DRESS GOODS. SILKS, SATINS, VELVETS, FRINGES, Passementeries, Laces, Ribbons, &c., immense assortment at popular prices.

EXTRAORDINARY BARGAINS IN BLACK AND COLORED SILKS. NEW STYLES IN CLOAKS AND SHAWLS. Black and Colored Cashmeres at old prices!

BLEACHED AND BROWN SHEETINGS AND SHIRTINGS, TABLE CLOTHS, NAPKINS, QUILTS, AND TOWELS, AT SPECIAL LOW PRICES. MACK & SCHMID.

REDUCTIONS In Every Department! AT THE DRY GOODS HOUSE OF BACH & ABEL. In order to reduce stock before making Fall purchases. We desire to assure the public that they can buy anything in Spring and Summer Goods from 10 to 25 per cent less than regular prices.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION IS ASKED To the BARGAINS to be had in our Dress Goods, Black Silk, Black and Colored Bunting, Fringe, Passementerie, Button, Hosiery, Lace, Merino Underwear, Embroidery, and White Goods Departments. Prices Guaranteed the Lowest! Values Guaranteed the Best!

BACH & ABEL. 26 South Main Street, Ann Arbor. My stock is full and complete, and offer these great inducements to make room for our new Fall Stock. Come in and see our NEW OPEN-FACED ELGIN STEM-WIND WATCHES FOR $10! A full line of Watches, Jewelry, Solid Silver and Plated Ware, which will be sold cheaper than ever before offered.

REPAIRING in all the branches promptly and neatly done as low as any house in Michigan.

Pumpkin pie is ripe. The days are shortening visibly. Grapes retail for 5 cents per pound. Election six weeks from next Tuesday.

A slight frost visited this city Monday night.

Dr. Stone contemplates removal to Keokuk, Iowa.

Sheriff Case lost a valuable cow Tuesday night.

100 guns were fired over republican defeat in Maine.

Mrs. E. A. Warren will address the reform club on Sunday.

Ye who have fall overcoats to wear prepare to wear them now.

The anti-Jeff Davis "independent party" did a morning.

Harriet at the opera house on Monday in the Shakespeare tragedy in six acts of Julius Caesar.

Thirty pairs of chickens, property of Messrs. Fisher and Hammond are on exhibition at the state fair.

Dr. Breakey is able to be out this week, after a confinement of three weeks from a sprained ankle.

Lutwick Bros. have secured the contract for building of wood, a residence on Madison street, for A. W. Hamilton.

Owing to the fair, this, next and the week after, the Hancock and English club was adjourned to Saturday, Oct. 1.

Services will be held at the Unitarian church on Sabbath forenoon only until Oct. 1, after which date there will be usual service in the evening.

Remember and bring something to the fair. If you have a baby under one year of age perhaps you can carry off the premium on the best looking baby.

In coupling ears Wednesday, P. H. Jones of Denton, a brakeman, had the second finger of the left hand mashed so that amputation became necessary.

Over 150 orders in this city for Johnson's Natural History the great work which Prof. Winchell pronounces "the best of its kind for general reference and family reading."

Wm. J. Blackmore of Jackson was in town last week searching for an unfaithful spouse, who was allured from her home by the blandishments of an Ann Arborite with whom she was temporarily living.

Land belonging to estate of Morris Gregg, deceased, and situated in Hiscoc's addition to this city, and sold on Monday, by the administrator, Mrs. Augusta Gregg, was purchased by A. D. Seyler for $400.

Mrs. Dr. Hillon has gone to Chicago to practice medicine. This city does not appear to be a profitable field for female physicians as Mrs. H. is the second of her sex and profession who have removed lately.

A committee comprising Messrs. G. W. Einar, C. P. Carey, John O'Mara, Daniel Flynn and Peter McNally have arranged for a ball to take place at Arroyo Hall on Friday evening, Oct. 1. Music by Minnie's orchestra.

Miss Ida M. Redson, whose death is noticed in the obituary column, died of brain disease after a protracted illness. She was a member of the University sophomore class. Her remains were removed to Saginaw for interment.

A committee consisting of Prof. Bar, J. D. Baldwin, Dr. W. W. Nichols, E. H. Scott and Dr. Conklin, will report at the next meeting of the pomological society, upon the "best means of disposing and utilizing the peach crop."

At a meeting of the junior class of the high school last week the following officers were elected: President, D. H. Ramsdell; vice-president, Miss Lottie Brown; secretary, Miss Carrie Frazer; treasurer, A. E. Jenkins; marshal, Mr. Smith.

For interest manifested in behalf of the reform club, particularly for the entertainments it has arranged which resulted in adding a new sum to its treasury, Frank Hanzsterer was presented with a gold cane by the club at Friday evening's social, Prof. Wilson being the presentation.

The Humboldtian mare "Oulita" owned by Dr. Donald Maclean of this city was the first premium at the state fair Wednesday in the race for speed and buty combined, five-year olds. Premium $50. This mare has been under training of Charles Lewis of Ypsilanti, and driven by him at Detroit.

H. J. Brown & Co., proprietors of the drug house on corner of Main and Huron streets, will open a branch store Oct. 1 on State street, in building adjoining Henderson's grocery. A competent person will be engaged to take charge of it. This will be an accommodation to people on the hill they ought to appreciate.

John Barney is a colored resident of Superior, ninety years of age, and deformed in hands and limbs. Still a warrant against him was procured and he was held to bail in $200 to keep the peace. Mr. T. B. Goodspeed of Superior came to town on Wednesday, entered the ball, and the aged barkeeper returns home, it is hoped hereafter to make no more assaults.

At a meeting of the board of school trustees on Tuesday evening, for the election of officers for the ensuing year, W. D. Harriman, secretary, Wm. Whedon, treasurer, L. Gruner, the committees are: Teachers and text books, Messrs. Harriman, Mack and Smith; buildings and grounds, Messrs. Gruner, Donovan and Whedon; finance, Messrs. Bach and Hall.

The Elmira (N. Y.) Gazette greets the oyster month as follows: "Four months of less name are gone, cheerful September now comes on. The oyster from his ocean bed now raises up his shapely head. His long vacation now is over; we gladly welcome him once more. Through fiery trials though he's passed, he's sure of safe retreat at last; and though to martyrdom he go, lack of warmth shall ever know. Too gladly we will ever raise a welcome to September days; they bring us midst the fruits of fall, the noble oyster, best of all."

At the reform club social held in the tent on Friday evening there were about one thousand persons present. Not long after the program was opened seats on one side gave way under severe pressure, precipitating to the earth a number of spectators, but not with serious injury to those who were thus summarily and promiscuously damped. Later on and just before conclusion, seats on the opposite side gave way with similar result, except severer bruises. Those injured are Mrs. P. Mead, Mrs. S. A. Howe, Mrs. Garlinghouse, Nellie Seabolt, daughter of Mrs. Seabolt, Philip Schumacher and Mrs. Drake.

ORGANIZATION AND VICTORY!
Hancock and English Club Formed with 222 Signers, and several more to hear of.

Under the inspiring news from Maine's election on Monday the democrats gathered at the court house on Tuesday evening on short notice, to organize a Hancock and English club, and rejoice over republican defeat in the Pine Tree state. The city band furnished music for the occasion and cannon heralded forth at rapid intervals, the news of victory, beyond the limits of the city.

The meeting was organized by the selection of Hon. Chas. H. Richmond, chairman, Wm. G. Doty and Frederick H. Harris, secretaries. Mr. R., exceedingly hoarse in voice, spoke briefly, referring to the purpose of the meeting, the glorious victory in Maine, and predicted the ideas of November would bring a national victory.

Organization of a club was then perfected as follows:

President, Hon. H. W. Rogers.
Vice President, Chas. H. Manly.
Secretary, Wm. G. Doty.
Treasurer, A. D. Seyler.

Appointment of executive committee was postponed to the next meeting of the club. Those having petitions circulated in the wards for signatures re- named enrolled. Petitions unreported with probably as many more signatures attached, will be presented at the next meeting. The chairman called upon Hon. W. D. Harriman, who addressed the meeting for thirty minutes. His remarks are synopsized. He said:

"It gave him satisfaction and pleasure to speak a few words on this occasion. For the first time in twenty years the democratic party was thoroughly united in support of a presidential candidate, and the outlook was promising from every point of view of the political compass. The republican party never constituted a majority of the voters of this country. Its first president was chosen by a plurality, and the franchise of 1876 was spoken of at some length, as well as the criminals by whose action the will of the majority of voters was nullified. Louisiana, South Carolina were thwarted. If it was wrong to go behind the returns in those states, Maine's that action is as consistent as most of the acts of that party."

It seemed but a day to him since he stood as a pall-bearer to the federal, kno-wing, and un-kno-wing, and which party, and a required no peculiar gift of prophecy to predict it would follow the republican party also to its grave. Maine's that action is as consistent as most of the acts of that party."

It seemed but a day to him since he stood as a pall-bearer to the federal, kno-wing, and un-kno-wing, and which party, and a required no peculiar gift of prophecy to predict it would follow the republican party also to its grave. Maine's that action is as consistent as most of the acts of that party."

Hon. Wm. H. Waldby was next introduced by chairman Richmond. He said:

"This is my first visit to your city since our re-union. I rejoice with you over the victory obtained in Maine and I trust it is a fore-runner of another in October in Indiana and Ohio, and a greater one in November. Mr. W. said he was not a public speaker, simply a plain business man, nominated as such, and invited an inspection of his record with those with whom he had long lived."

Mr. Manly being called by the audience, thanked them for the honor they had done him. He referred to 1861 when he went forth a boy to fight for his country, returning as he then appeared. He felt grateful to the voters of the county for repeated honors at their hands. His first vote was cast for an union general and in November he was proud to say, he should vote for another. Mr. Manly spoke at considerable length detailing his experience at the front, where Hancock was, and with whom he risked his life.

The club thereupon adjourned to Saturday evening, Oct. 2.

Local Political Notes.
On Wednesday evening last Messrs. Gilman, Joslin and Chas. R. Whitman of Ypsilanti addressed the citizens of Augusta at the Thompson school house.

Delegates from Augusta, Pittsfield, Saline, York, Ypsilanti town and city, met in Saline village to-day, to nominate a democratic candidate for representative.

At Superior town house, Messrs. Charles R. Whitman and Patrick McKernan spoke on Friday evening to a fair sized audience. Some republicans misbehaved themselves but Mr. Whitman ex-manor them into keeping quiet.

Ex-Mayor Cramer returns from Livingston county where he spoke at Howell and Brighton, highly pleased with the reception he met with at the hands of his former friends and neighbors. Large and enthusiastic audiences greeted him at both places. The Free Press of yesterday reports: "Hon. D. Cramer of Ann Arbor, spoke at Howell Tuesday evening to one of the finest audiences that has gathered during the campaign. It was the ablest speech that has yet been delivered here, and republicans admit that Mr. Cramer treated his subject very fairly and cordially. He demolished Bob Frazer, who delivered a speech here for the republicans a few days ago, with a very few words." Mr. Cramer has been invited to speak at Lansing.

Real Estate Transfers.
WARRANTY.
Edward Treadwell to Thos. and S.A. Hewitt, Ann Arbor city property, consideration $350.
Wm. Hearty by admr. to Wm. A. Burt, Ypsilanti city property, $1400.
G. W. Slayton to Wm. A. Caplin, 80 acres in Ypsilanti town, $4900.
Patrick Wall to Charles Kitson, Ann Arbor city property. Consideration—$120.
Nathan Carey to Anna Condon, Ann Arbor city property, $8500.
W. R. Merwin to Henry A. Austin—100 acres in Ann Arbor town, $4000.

QUIT-CLAIM.
Chester O. Arnold to Seth O. Arnold, Ypsilanti city property, $1000.
Elijah W. Morgan to Polly Ann Dunn, Ann Arbor city property, $5.
George L. Unterkercher to L.D. Watkins, Manchester village property, $20.
Harrison Hay to L. D. Watkins, Manchester village property. No consideration given.
F. M. Harlow to Cornelius C. Henry, Dexter village property, $130.
E. W. Morgan to Chas. E. Green—Ann Arbor city property, $25.

THE CASH CITY TEA STORE, No. 5 South Main Street—The Front, The Kettle Sign—is where you will find me now selling Fresh Teas, Coffees, Spices and a general variety of Family Groceries. Many are coming to show goods—no hurt if you don't buy. Selling every day, the reason why: I buy for cash and sell for cash, so you see the money goes right over. I pay cash for my produce.

M. D. L. BRANCH, Proprietor.
Ann Arbor, June 8, 1880. 23-1

Personal Glimpses.
—Mrs. Ellen M. Lusk of New Haven is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fall.
—S. Newell Henion of Bay City, formerly an Ann Arborite, is in town visiting relatives.
—Rev. Mr. Richmond, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Ypsilanti is sick with malarial fever.
—Mrs. G. J. Osgood and Miss Hattie Wilson of Adrian, are guests of Mrs. Henry DeFoe of Pittsfield.
—Profs. Tyler, Franklin and Ford have returned from vacation and are again visible upon the street.
—Prof. J. B. Davis of the University is engineer-in-chief of a bridge 300 feet long, building at Lyons, Iowa county.
—Miss Anna Condon, who has spent the summer visiting relatives returned to her home at Buffalo, N. Y. on Wednesday.
—Gerhardt Josephans, salesman at Mack & Schmidt's dry goods store, is home in York township, Ill. with malarial fever.
—Miss Ella M. Hill of this city has been called to the chair of modern languages in the Rockford, Ill., female seminary.
—George Dobine, attorney-at-law, mother and infant daughter spent several days last week guests of Lyman Wood of Lodi.
—Rev. W. W. Washburne, late pastor of the M. E. church of Ypsilanti, has been appointed presiding elder of the Detroit district.
—Years since foreman of the Courier office, Mr. John Harris has engaged in a similar position in the Commercial office of Ypsilanti.
—Hon. Wm. H. Waldby of Adrian, our nominee for congress, spent Tuesday in the city, making the acquaintance of our citizens.
—Henry B. Mastin of this city went to Toledo on Monday to attend the tri-state fair in the interest of the Ann Arbor agricultural company.
—A. B. Miller, who has been studying medicine with Dr. R. E. Sutton, has gone to Ann Arbor, Mich., to attend a Medical College.—Bome, (N. Y.) Sentinel.
—A. McMillan, editor of the Bay City Press, formerly editor and proprietor of the Dexter Leader, is the greenback candidate for county clerk of Bay county.
—Last evening Rev. Mr. Golder of Cleveland, O., formerly pastor of the German M. E. church in this city, was in town in marriage with Miss Ida Schlottberck of this city.
—Henry A. Shurtlett, son of S. W. Shurtlett of Ann Arbor town, the past year located at Unadilla in the practice of medicine, has removed to a village near Marshall, Mich.
—At M. E. conference held at Bay City last week, Rev. John Alabaster was appointed to remain in this city another year. A. F. Bouras to Ypsilanti, W. J. Campbell to Dexter.
—After a residence of twenty years, Mr. John P. Little, long a prominent member of the masonic fraternity, with his family, have removed to Three Oaks, the southwestern corner of Michigan, Berrien county.

Gov. Felch at the State Fair.
The managers of the state fair which closes to-day at Detroit, introduced a novelty into its proceedings. They set out to have a "Governors' Day" on Wednesday and thereupon invited to present the executives of the thirty-eight states of the union, the ex-governors of Michigan, present governor, the candidates before the people, and those who entered the list for nomination. Few were present however. Among them were ex-Gov. Felch, one of our distinguished and esteemed citizens, whose remarks are noticed by the Free Press:

Gov. Felch said: It is one of the pleasures of existence to know that we are surrounded by a world of active industry. He alluded to his connection with the government of the state, and his long residence in Michigan, beginning even before it was a state. Dwelling for some time on the importance and utility of agriculture, and the magnitude of the agricultural interests, Gov. Felch thought the time would never come in which the people would cease to glory in the occupation of farming.

The remarks of Gov. Felch were well received. He had intended to make an extended speech, but the circumstances were not favorable to speaking in the opening. His address will be published in the transactions of the society.

MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENTS.—The following appointments for the Adrian district for the year ensuing were made at the Detroit M. E. conference held at Bay City last week:

W. H. SHIER, PRESIDING ELDER.
Clinton and Macon, Jesse Kilpatrick, Manchester, J. A. McIlwain.
Sharon, Duke Whiteley.
Saline, D. R. Shier.
Ann Arbor, John Alabaster.
Augusta, W. E. Dunning.
Chelsea, J. L. Hudson.
Dexter, W. J. Campbell.
Dixboro, Thomas Sealey.
Lima, W. Shank.
Grand Lake, A. B. Wood.
Milan and Oakville, A. R. Laing.
B. F. Cocker, professor in Michigan University, and member of Ann Arbor Quarterly Conference.

DETROIT DISTRICT.—W. W. Washburne, Presiding Elder.
Belleville, S. L. Ramsdell.
Ypsilanti, A. F. Bouras.
Salem and Northfield, B. F. Hoedger.
Brighton, J. H. Kilpatrick.
Pinckney, A. S. Fair.
Hamburg and Whitmore Lake, A. F. Hoyt.

Women As Lawyers.
Though old Mr. Fogy has long questioned woman's fitness to practice law, and her opinions concerning legal matters, no one has ever questioned her opinion concerning Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For women freely admit that the Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for those "dragging-down" sensations, and the many diseases and Weaknesses peculiar to their sex. The Favorite Prescription is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee.

Dr. P. V. Pierce, March 14th, 1879.
Dear Sir—I was treated by our different physicians without avail for disease of the liver and uterus. Some time ago I commenced the use of your Favorite Prescription and Discovery, being at the time, confined part of the time to my bed. At first my improvement was slow, but I now find myself well after the use of four bottles of each of the medicine. With many, many thanks.
I am, very respectfully,
Mary E. Grace.

"Look here, my little fellow, said the lecturer to the boy who was disturbing the orator by constantly coughing, "here's a quarter to get a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

The University.
The regents on Tuesday evening appropriated $850 for strengthening the new museum building, which has been recently re-shingled, owing to leaks through the put on by the contractors.

After a lengthy session Tuesday, during which the question of confirming the appointment by the executive committee of Dr. H. C. Allen professor of materia medica was considered, the regents compromised by appointing him lecturer in the homeopathic college one year at a salary of $1,050 per annum. Several physicians of the school in Detroit were opposed to the appointment on the ground of non-success as a physician; that for some years he abandoned the profession for air insurance agency. Friends of Dr. Jones petitioned for his re-appointment, and those opposed to Allen preferred Dr. Arndt of Grand Rapids.

The regents met on Wednesday and transacted the following business:

Frank H. Tyler was appointed as assistant to the dean of the homeopathic college, without salary.

Dr. U. B. Billmeyer was appointed assistant to the chair of clinical dentistry in the dental college, at a salary of $200.

Patrick E. Nagle, M. D., was appointed assistant in qualitative analysis and James F. Geisler, Ph. C., assistant in pharmaceutical preparations, for one year from Oct. 1, at a salary of $250 each. Byron W. Cheever, M. D., now assistant in chemical laboratory appointed instructor in applied chemistry at $800 salary.

President Prizer announced to the board that ex-Gov. Bagley had written that he had ordered to be sent to the University, portraits of all the Presidents of the United States from Washington down to the present time, with the suggestion that they might be placed in the museum or library as thought best.

Regent Shearer, from the committee on buildings and grounds, reported that drawings, etc. had been prepared for the additional story to the laboratory building at Detroit, and contracted for all the work and material, except such as was required for heating, ventilation and plumbing, for $9,655. Some extras might be necessary, however; $50 had been appropriated to give the south wing a greater pitch. The sum of $150 would cover all extras. The building would be ready for occupancy by October 1. The new portion of the walls needs stopping and penciling. This will cost about $450, and to finish the entire walls in the same manner $800. These additional expenses it was decided not to present to incur.

A petition signed by over 100 homeopathic physicians of the state, asking for the appointment of Dr. S. A. Jones as an honorary professor, was received and referred.

W. A. Tolchard, treasurer, submitted the report of the transactions of the treasury from June 26 to September 11, 1880:

Balance on hand June 26.....	$10,194.77
Received from State Treasurer, U. Interest.....	12,875.05
Received from Michigan Treasurer, State Interest.....	15,750.00
Received from Michigan Treasurer, House Interest.....	2,000.00
Received from Michigan Treasurer, House Interest.....	245.99
Received from students' fees.....	2,749.91
Total.....	$32,775.02
Disbursements for salaries.....	28,494.07
Disbursements for general expenses.....	15,463.43
Disbursements for printing.....	2,628.73
Disbursements for postage.....	45,788.83
Balance on hand.....	$10,999.79

DEMOCRATIC MEETINGS.
[All meetings in the evening unless otherwise stated.]

SATURDAY, SEPT. 25.
Milan—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
Chelsea—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
Bridgewater—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
TUESDAY, OCT. 5.
Saline—C. H. Richmond.
Chelsea—B. F. Granger.
Manchester—C. R. Whitman.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 6.
Freedom—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
Mooreville—C. H. Richmond, W. D. Harriman.
THURSDAY, OCT. 7.
Sharon Town Hall—C. R. Whitman, C. H. Manly.
Webster Town Hall—B. F. Granger.
Stony Creek—W. D. Harriman, C. S. Gregory.
FRIDAY, OCT. 8.
Iron Creek Church (Manchester)—Chas. R. Whitman, C. H. Manly.
Tremper School House (Scioto)—W. D. Harriman.
SATURDAY, OCT. 9.
Salem Station—Wm. D. Harriman, Chas. H. Richmond.
MONDAY, OCT. 11.
Sylvan Center—C. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
TUESDAY, OCT. 12.
Chelsea—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
Delhi—C. H. Richmond, W. D. Harriman.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 13.
Lyon—C. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
Superior—W. D. Harriman, C. H. Richmond.
THURSDAY, OCT. 14.
Hudson—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
Manchester—B. F. Granger.
Milan—W. D. Harriman, C. H. Richmond.
FRIDAY, OCT. 15.
Lima Center—Chas. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
Peebles' Corners—W. D. Harriman, P. McKernan.
Dexter—C. H. Richmond.
Bridgewater—B. F. Granger.
SATURDAY, OCT. 16.
Mooreville—C. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
MONDAY, OCT. 18.
Lodi—C. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
TUESDAY, OCT. 19.
Wall's School House (Northfield)—Chas. R. Whitman.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 20.
Walsh's Cor's (Northfield)—C. R. Whitman.
THURSDAY, OCT. 21.
Webster Town Hall—C. R. Whitman.
FRIDAY, OCT. 22.
Whitmore Lake—C. R. Whitman.
TUESDAY, OCT. 23.
Stoney Creek—Chas. R. Whitman, John N. Bailey.
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 27.
Delhi—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.
THURSDAY, OCT. 28.
Peebles' Corners (Salem)—C. R. Whitman, P. McKernan.

Local committees will please make arrangements for holding the meetings, secure rooms and give the necessary notice.

Third District Convention.
The democrats of the Third Representative District of Washington County, will hold a convention to nominate a candidate for the Legislature at 7 o'clock A. M. in the village of Chelsea, on Saturday, the 25th of September, 1880, at 11 o'clock A. M. Townships are entitled to the same number of delegates as years ago.

Dated, August 30, 1880.
ORIN THATCHER,
J. D. COREY, District Com.

The County.
—Farmers are very busy putting in wheat.
—Washtenaw county is well represented at the state fair.
—Public school of Chelsea opened last week with about 250 scholars.
—Fair at Ypsilanti next week. County fair in this city the week following.
—Mr. John A. Bentley of Northfield raised over 2300 bushels of wheat this season.
—A complimentary ticket from Frank Joslin, secretary of the Ypsilanti fair, is acknowledged.
—Hon. J. D. Corey and Dr. A. Conklin were elected last week trustees of Manchester's school.
—Rev. J. B. Gilman left Manchester for Macomb, Ill. last week where he is engaged in the ministry the coming year.
—Contract for building Oak Grove cemetery vault in Manchester township was let to Greenman and Jacquemin for $350.
—Apples lie on the ground in the orchards throughout the county, the crop being so plenty that prices do not warrant their being cared for.
—George Anthony Gussenheimer of Bridgewater will apply to probate court Nov. 13, to have his name changed to George Anthony Gosmer.
—Employees of the Lowell paper mill of Ypsilanti, gave one day's pay to Joseph Penek, who lost both feet by being run over by the cars.
—Messrs. Cornelius and Clark Cornell of Ypsilanti, bid in several parcels of land located at Geddesburg in Ann Arbor township, sold at Sheriff's sale on Saturday.
—Charles Bush an employee in the Ypsilanti woolen mill, skipped out on Saturday in debt to his boarding house, physician, clothier and many others. He came from Detroit.
—Some individual entered the premises of Alonzo Linden, of near Ypsilanti, one night last week, and cut off the manes and tails of his horses and the tails of two fine cows.
—Prosecuting-attorney Emerick disposed of the case of the woman Silms of Sharon, charged with bigamy, by promising not to prosecute provided she left the county. She accepted.
—Jacob Raab of Bridgewater fell through the stairway of a building in Manchester, bruising his head and person otherwise considerably. His friends in this city are pleased to hear his injuries are not serious.
—Mat. Dolan of Ypsilanti, who was suspected of having harmed or maddened away with one Earl of Van Buren township, Wayne county, has been released from custody, Earl having been seen since Dolan was chasing him about the county.
—There isn't enough activity in the markets to warrant the space usually devoted to a weekly report. Scarcely any wheat moving. The price for the best being 86 cents farmers are disposed not to sell at present. Besides they are very busy seeding.
—Subscribers will observe the date on the label of their paper, showing to what time they have paid. For instance, "John Doe Jan 79" means that John Doe is indebted from the first of January, 1879, now nearly two years, and there are many such in arrears on our list. Those indebted for 1879 and 1880 will please call during fall week, an excellent time to square accounts with the publisher.
—As expected, Rev. Father DeBeverre reached Ypsilanti on Thursday evening of last week, where a large crowd awaited his arrival. An address of welcome was delivered by Nicholas Cordoray in behalf of the congregation and some others he presented Father DeBeverre with a handsome carriage. Father DeBeverre responded happily, giving a brief account of his visit abroad and the places he had seen. He feelingly expressed his thanks for the cordial welcome and reception which had been extended to him.

York.
—Tom Ingle and wife a boy, Sept. 10.
—H. M. Burt and wife a boy, Sept. 13.
—Dr. Bessac has the frame of his new house up.
—Mr. Sly is putting in shelving on the east side of his drug store.
—Jin France of Mansfield was in Milan Sept. 12, visiting a friend here.
—A case has been heard less than 18 inches in length bearing peaches, one of which weighs five ounces.
—Edwin Willis of Monroe will address the republicans of Milan and vicinity on Friday evening, Sept. 17.
—Mr. Reynolds of Saline has put a stock of shelf hardware in the harness shop of W. Woolcott, which Mr. Woolcott is selling for Reynolds.
—W. W. Schurtz, whose lease of Milo Haight's meat market has expired, will retire from the business and Milo will continue the trade therein.
—The barber business has been transferred from Charley Birch's to the billiard saloon of B. F. Thomas and is carried on by Charley McGhan.
—The Brick and Tile Co. of Milan are pushing the work of manufacturing brick and tile to the furthest extent, their machinery, and will probably have no stock on hand at the close of the present season.
—It would be very difficult to fix a political status for either the republican or democratic parties in the township of York at the present time. The greenbackers have apparently made many converts to their party in this vicinity lately. But many of those recently budded do not have the hue of perfect political health, and are likely to drop off before the ices of November.

Married.
MILLER—DEERYK—In Clinton, September 7, by Father Wallace, Mr. George Miller of Bridgewater and Miss Rosa Deeryk of Franklin.
LAMKIN—CHAMBERLAIN—In Ypsilanti, Sept. 10, by Rev. J. R. Hubbard, D. D., of Detroit, Miss L. Chamberlain and Charles Lamkin, Jr., of Tiffin, Ohio.
Died.
LAWSON—In Detroit, Sept. 1, Fannie Lawson, daughter of Joseph W. Lawson of this city, aged about 15 years.
MOWIE—In Ann Arbor township, Sept. 7, of general debility, Harriet A., wife of H. M. Mowry, GAIN—In Northfield, of cholera infantum, Jno. T., son of James Cain, aged 3 weeks.
KEESON—In Ann Arbor, Sept. 12, of cholera infantum, Ida M. Keeson, aged 19 years.
HILL—In Ann Arbor, Sept. 12, of diphtheria, Ursula, daughter of Mrs. John Hill, aged 9 months, Colfax.
PETERSON—In Ann Arbor town, Sept. 11, of influenza, Mrs. J. J. Peterson, wife of Alfred Peterson, aged 1 year 10 months, Colfax.
GADWELL—In Superior, September 6, of consumption Mary Call well, wife of Henry Caldwell of Lansing, aged 30 years, 8 months and 25 days.
HARRINGTON—In Augusta, Sept. 8, of old age, H. B. Harrington, aged 75 years.
RANDOLPH—In Belleville, Sept. 8, of diphtheria, Charles Randolph, aged 14 years.

Dexter Department.
JAMES MCNAMARA, Editor.
—Chas. R. Whitman was in town last week.
—Bankrupts like criminals are too highly-noted.
—The inhabitants of Dexter should invariably be Dexter-ans.
—Miss Lizzie McGinness is visiting relatives at Eaton Rapids.
—E. R. Tyler succeeded in sending the first load of wheat over the new bridge.
—The way to effectually lay out a red-hot radical republican is to ask him if he has heard from Maine.
—According to reports the coming winter will turn out a great many Beneditts in and about our village.
—Miss Mariah Phelps has gone to Olivet, Mich., where she has engaged as assistant teacher in O. S. C. College.
—Rev. T. McNamara C. V. Co. has assumed the editorship of that spicy little college paper: The Notre Dame Scholastic.
—A certain conceited sport of Dexter was seen out of $30 at Ann Arbor last week. Cause—too much draw-poker.
—The Ladies' Library association have rented the rooms over B. Alley & Co's store, and moved thither all their property.
—Invitations have been issued to a limited number of friends for a wedding of some magnitude at Pinckney on Tuesday next.
—Miss Carrie McGoffin left for London, Ont., Wednesday last where she will enter the church school at that place for the ensuing year.
—We understand that W. P. Carson is an efficient and enterprising citizen will leave for Florida next week on a prospecting tour. Should a favorable location be reached he will permanently settle.
—The wheat market seems to have become discouraged and will not advance to gladden the farmers heart.—The present price 83 cts. has but little inducement for the farmers and consequently our market is not over-loaded.
—The M. E. conference has enacted a change in the M. E. ministry at Dexter. Rev. W. J. Campbell late of St. Clair will occupy the pastoral residence at Dexter, vice Rev. L. P. Davis who has been assigned a church at West Bay City.
—The Courier correspondent laments in a terrible state of anxiety over the alleged transgression of a Dexterite who has "fenced in the public streets." It is hard for the c. e. to realize what a man can do with his own property.
—A disgraceful row occurred in front of red ribbon hall during the exercises there last Sunday evening, but as nearly all the participants were red ribbonites we suppose it did not create the "bad impression" it would have done had it been otherwise.
—A large number from here intend to attend the state fair, and a greater number are thus industriously employed this week. But after all, there will be perhaps, half the amount of humanity from this part of the country as there was last year.
—Eddie Lawton a twelve-year-old son of Jerry Lawton, accompanied by another boy of his age, went clandestinely to have a swim last week. Eddie was carried into deep water and would have taken his last bath but for the timely arrival of a student visiting Fr. Slater, who plunged in and rescued him as he was going down the last time.
—Marshall Tubbs was endeavoring to extricate the hind leg of one of his mules when it abruptly extricated itself and planted its hoof square in the face of the marshal. A complete back summersault, the loss of five teeth, and a badly bruised face were the consequences. He says the mule didn't mean it, and we believe him, for it is not characteristic of a mule's nature to do such things.
—Jim Blaine, of Maine, Can it be, are you sane!
To let these Democrats, Aye, growing autocrats! 'Midst all the commotion And republican lotion Step in without trying, Or bribing, or buying, But by an honest Demo-Greenback gain, Carry thy own sweet state of Maine?
—A fellow named Viney who had made himself conspicuous by exhibiting his pugilistic propensities about town for the last few days, formed the acquaintance of a man from Waterloo named Randolph and wishing, mutually, to progress in acquaintanceship, indulged in a big drunk. Randolph being the possessor of a fine horse and carriage invited his newly-formed, drunken friend to take a ride. This being agreed on they started out that night and the only portions of the pleasant journey Mr. R. has any recollection of, are of finding himself in the road next morning, where his new-found friend had (having undoubtedly bidden him adieu) evidently left him, and taking the horse and carriage left for parts unknown, leaving his benevolent friend to bemoan his loss and brace up on the bitter experience.
—The monotony which the announcement of a red ribbon lecture produces among our inhabitants, goes far to show that the good and charitable efforts of the advocates of temperance are but lightly appreciated by our average citizens. It is a patent fact that the old enthusiasm which was wont to fill our halls with interested audiences, has through some unknown agency, partially died out. Last Sunday evening was a painful illustration of this continued apathy. A speaker of considerable ability was engaged to address the mass meeting but the mass portion of the meeting was very slim. Lectures of this kind are very unprofitable and would soon create a bad state of affairs in the treasury department of the club. Something must be done, and we would advise the club to have longer intervals between lectures and advertise them more thoroughly.
—Those republican papers that professed that the Hancock boom would soon die out are yet waiting patiently for the first sign of its weakening. It grows and enlarges in all parts of the country day by day.

There seems to be no let-up to republican conversions to Hancock. Exchanges from all parts of the country are filled with records of such conversions. Let them come! The more the merrier!

Saline.
SALINE, Sept. 9.
—Mr. Milton Webb has settled with his bride at his residence on Henry Street.
—Miss Cora Conklin of Detroit is in town on a visit to her sister Mrs. Wm. Dowdinger.
—Mr. J. H. Bortle will move into his new quarters on Chicago Street next week if nothing happens.
—Mr. Harry Heller of Saline has just invented the best thing in the shape of a car-coupler that we have ever seen. There is no danger of getting all 'broke up' with his kind of a coupler, and he has also an arrangement for uncoupling that we think will come into universal use in the course of a short time. There is with his invention, no use of getting between the cars, to either connect or cut off at any place in the train where his invention is used. Mr. Heller will have his patent before the public in a short time, and any one wishing to see how it works can do so at any time by calling at the shop of W. Heller on Ann Arbor St.

SALINE, Sept. 14.
—Wheat is coming in quite brisk, but commands only 85 cents.
—Our Marshal, Wm. Brainard has been and is still quite sick.
—C. B. Woodruff of Ypsilanti gave us a short call on Saturday last.
—Mrs. Geo. Lindersmith has gone to Cleveland on a three weeks visit.
—Mr. Dick Matsh and family have gone on a visit to friends in Illinois.
—We hear that the pole that has lain in the street so long will be raised off Friday next.
—Dr. Sam. W. Chandler and family will return home from their 'tramp' on Saturday next.
—Wilts Berdan has sold one of his new houses to Mr. W. E. Blackburn, our enterprising barber.
—Amos Y. Kidder and Henry Ortmann were to-day arrested for selling spirituous liquors under a bad license.
—W. P. Carson has purchased the property on the S. W. corner of Lewis and McKay Sts., known as the Parsons house.
—Davenport and Son have repainted their store front, and are about to paint the balance of the wood-work. They will do so as soon as they can get their paints, which are ordered.
—We took a trip across the country to Bridgewater station on Saturday last and the farmers were all so busy getting in their wheat that they would not look at anybody, as much more stop to talk. They mean business, those Germans do.
—At the annual school meeting Sept. 30th, there were two trustees elected in place of Mr. M. Webb and Chas. Buckhart. Those elected were John W. Hill and Dr. Daniel Hall. There was a tax of three thousand seven hundred dollars voted but some of the tax payers are a little inclined to "kick," but they may as well keep cool, it won't do them any good. It is too late in the day.

Scioto, Sept. 14.
—Frost is expected every night and farmers are busy securing their corn.
—The farmers of this vicinity are delighted to gain near the Scioto mill humming her old tune.
—C. M. C. Peters arrived home on Saturday, and intends to pursue his studies in the law school.
—J. Jelele, Jr., of this town, had his hand almost severed by a knife in the hands of the band cutter, while threshing last week.
—John Cunningham whose illness was announced in a previous issue, died on the 10th inst., in his 63d year. His funeral was attended by a number of relatives from Owosso.
—A lively time ensued at our school meeting last week. Our annual candidate, who at a former election sternly denounced one of the aspirants for office for voting for Lincoln, embraced the N. Y. express.
—At the cadetship examination at Monroe, for the appointment of a West Point cadet for that district, Charles Muir of Erie was the successful candidate. There were nine contestants.
—Frank Cole, an old and respected resident of Wheatfield, Ingham Co., was recently found dead in his barn. He had hung himself with a small cord. The jury returned a verdict of suicide.
—Fifty-seven Mexican veterans Michiganians met in Detroit Tuesday for their annual re-union. The burden of speeches made related to the propriety of pensioning the soldiers of the war of 1847.
—Thomas Clayton of Flint received a piece of a percussion cap in his eye while on picket duty in Petersburg, Va., in 1864, and has carried it there until a few days ago, when a physician removed it.
—The friends of Mrs. Mary Barker, of Jackson, who was on the burned steamer Marine City, and lost her wardrobe except the clothes she wore, have presented her with a complete outfit.
—Alison does not take kindly to political honors. Her candidate for governor declined that honor, and now the citizen whom the democrats nominated for congress, Mr. Jas. W. Sheldon, has declined.
—Geo. Royer of Deerfield, an old and respected citizen of the place, suicided by taking poison and jumping into the river. Sickness in his family and an accident that crippled him had made him desperately discontent.
—A "well-to-do farmer of Morenci, Lenawee county, who is too poor to take a newspaper, took instead of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000 has returned for a new kind of washing-machine, and is not happy to find that his commission is a note for $150.
—The Michigan Central company are erecting a large brick dry kiln at their shops near Detroit Junction for the purpose of drying the lumber used in them in the manufacture of cars. It has a chimney over 100 feet high.
—The Trusteller of Detroit is no more, having been absorbed by the Grand Rapids Lever now the only temperance paper in Michigan. The man who starts a temperance or greenback paper should at once begin to fast a la Tammer.
—Ex-city treasurer Hall of Toledo, who absconded after becoming a defaulter to the extent of about $40,000

