The Capsule Factory Burns—The Common Council in Special Session—The Episcopal Convention—A Big Cattle Sale and Other Notes of Interest.

The Cornwell-Swift Case.

In the case of Cornwell manufacturing company vs. John M. Swift, the temporary injunction granted the plaintiffs, was dissolved by Judge Kinne Monday on the ground that the court would not adjudicate upon the questions in dispute in advance of hearing the testimony. In the course of his decision Judge Kinne stated that both parties were of equal credibility before the court. If the complaint can be sustained by proof, the injunction would be sustained. If it could not, the injunction would not be granted. This very important case will now be heard upon its merits the proofs of each of the parties to the suit being given in court. Some important legal questions are involved.

Ann Arbor at the Episcopal Convention.

At the annual convention of the Episcopal diocese of Michigan held in Jackson last week, Rev. Mr. Earp, of this city was made chairman of the committee on Christian Education and Christian literature. In his annual address, Bishop Harris alluded feelingly to the death of Dr. A. B. Palmer. In referring to Hobart Hall, he said the work had been carried on successfully but larger endowments were needed for lectures and ordinary expenses. Mr. J. N. Wheeler was made the lay member of the committee on the address. Rev. William Galpin was elected registrar of the diocese. The diocese was divided into three convocations and Rev. Mr. Earp was made president of the convocation of Detroit.

A Big Sale of Cattle.

Good prices were obtained at the great sale of shorthorns on the Boyden farm last Thursday, from the herds of W. E. Boyden and William Ball. About five hundred persons were present and forty-two head of cattle were sold for $4,620, an average of $110 a head. The highest price paid was $250. The following farmers of this county were among the purchasers: A. E. Phelps, Dexter, one cow, $180; D. B. Sears, Ann Arbor, one cow, $130; Thos. Birkett, Birkett, one cow, $105; Gilbert Heard, Saline, one cow, $125 and one bull, $120; S. R. Crittenden, Saline, one cow, $145; E. G. Garvin, Ann Arbor, one cow, $75; C. Brown, Ann Arbor, one bull, $50; J. A. Sperry, Ann Arbor, one bull, $70; G. W. Hull, Saline, one cow, $55; J. D. Laraway, Emery, one cow, $65; E. C. Warner, Ypsilanti, one bull, $35; Ira Crippen, Ypsilanti, one bull, $80; C. Rogers, Dexter, one cow, $75; Wm. Burnham, Delhi Mills, one cow, $115; E. N. Rook, Ypsilanti, one cow, $50; Charles Wheeler, Webster, two cows, $90 and $55.

A $15,000 Fire.

The capsule factory in the second ward burned at an early hour last Sunday. The fire was in all probability incendiary in its origin, there being no fire in the building at the time and when the fire was first discovered, it was eight feet from the engine room. The building which was a long, narrow wooden structure burned rapidly. The upper part of the building was without partitions giving the flames full sweep. The fire department did good work in endeavoring to save the building and finally extinguished the flames before the front of the building had been destroyed. The entire machinery was however destroyed and the building so nearly consumed that what was saved was of but little value. The building belonged to the Ann Arbor Improvement Company composed of the business men of the city and was erected last year. The loss on the building was $4,000, insured for $3,000. Bullis & Co., the manufacturers place their loss on machinery at $11,000 on which there was an insurance of $7,500. The firm employed 27 hands. It is not yet known whether the factory will be rebuilt or whether the manufacture of capsules in Ann Arbor will be resumed. No pains should be spared to ferret out the incendiary.

A Special Meeting.

At the special meeting of the common council, Monday night, a full council was present. As soon as the council got down to business a motion by Ald. Allmendinger instructing the street committee to set back the fence in front of the Gurdert property on First street was carried. The council decided to appoint a board of fence reviewers and the following were appointed: First ward, Conrad Krapf; Second ward, John C. Schmid; Third ward, Wm. J. Clark; Fourth ward, D. J. Loomis; Fifth ward, Newton Felch; Sixth ward, T. J. Keech.

On motion of Ald. Allmendinger, a new sidewalk was ordered on the east side of Fourth street, between Pontiac and North streets.

Ald. Kearns moved that the original grade on north Main street be re-established. After some discussion, the council decided to look at the street Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alice M. Risdon asked for permission to build a two story frame dwelling on the corner of Fourth and Liberty streets and was granted that privilege. Michael Gauss was permitted to build a small frame dwelling 10 by 12 on Liberty street adjoining Michael Braun's wagon shop, providing he covered it with corrugated iron.

An ordinance was passed requiring physicians and householders to report deaths to the board of health.

The fire committee was authorized to buy a gong for the hook and ladder truck at a cost not to exceed $20. The aldermen and police were instructed to report the dates when electric lights were out to the general fund committee.

The matter of David Henning's claim of legal redress for the closing of State street and the raising of the grade of Detroit street was talked over and the council adjourned.

The Ratification Meeting.

The democrats of this vicinity held a largely attended mass meeting on the court house square last Saturday evening to ratify the nomination of Cleveland and Thurman. From tree to tree across the square was extended a Cleveland and Thurman banner. Flags and red bandanas were plentiful and the square in front of the speaker's stand was packed with people. The University democratic club headed by a band marched down the street to the meeting, several hundred strong. The meeting was evidently an enthusiastic one and it was plain that the party was a unit in favor of its nominees. The evening was an unpleasant one, the lowering clouds, threatening rain at any minute, and high winds prevailing. That so large a crowd of people should gather under such circumstances was a token of the interest felt.

Ex-Governor Alpheus Felch presided over the meeting and was introduced by Judge Joslyn in a few complimentary remarks. Gov. Felch expressed his entire satisfaction with the ticket dominated at St. Louis. He referred to past presidential elections and said that never before had he gone to the polls to cast his vote with greater satisfaction than he expected to feel when he voted for Cleveland and Thurman. He spoke of the excellent records made by our standard bearers, and impressed the large audience who listened intently to what he had to say with the fact that such pure minded men as ex-Gov. Felch would be found yielding hearty allegiance to the democratic national ticket this fall.

Capt. C. H. Manly spoke for a few moments to the soldiers, and expressed the allegiance of the democratic soldiers to an administration which had dealt so liberally with them in the matter of pensions. In his own case, he said he had been told that a democratic administration would cut off his pension. Instead of that they had increased it.

Capt. Manly spoke in high terms of the standard bearers, praising the records they had made.

Hon. Chas. R. Whitman, fresh from the St. Louis convention, said that the convention had given us a platform that means something, one which calls for revenue reform. The democratic party believe that the tariff should be reduced so as to raise an amount sufficient for the legitimate expenses of the government. Anything over that amount was robbery. There is no way a dollar can be raised for the government revenues except it comes out of the pockets of the people, and every dollar over and above the amount necessary to carry on the government is unjustly taken from the people.

A laborer would be benefitted by reducing the costs of the necessities of life. This is what the democratic party proposed to do. The republican party says take the tax off whiskey and tobacco. The democratic party says take it off of blankets and other necessities. The address was an eloquent plea to intelligent and fair minded citizens to vote for Cleveland and Thurman.

M. J. McEniry, of Osborn, Ill., commented with the rain which came down heavily to make an eloquent address. He spoke so as to be distinctly heard by the crowds of people in the doorways across the streets, and the faithful ones who remained in the rain. Ann Arbor democrats hope to hear from Mr. McEniry again during the campaign.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for Cleveland and Thurman. Willard Stearns, editor of the Adrian Press, who was expected to address the meeting arrived on the 9:15 train after the rain had brought the meeting to a close. He had missed making connections in Detroit. The rain and high winds also prevented the great bulk of fireworks being displayed. There are some fine fireworks left for another occasion. The meeting was a decided success and the Cleveland and Thurman campaign starts out well in Ann Arbor.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

FIFTEEN HUNDRED IN A PROSESSION SATURDAY.

A Highly Successful Programme Carried Out—The Addresses at University Hall.

Children's day, last Saturday, proved a highly unique and successful celebration, and was in all probability the first of a series of annual celebrations in Ann Arbor. The idea was modeled after the annual parades of the Sunday schools in Brooklyn, and credit is due Prof. Orin Cady for starting the movement here, which culminated in Saturday's celebration. Originally it was designed to have the parade a union of the Sunday schools of the city, but after several conferences obstacles were found in the way of successfully carrying out this idea and it was finally decided to have a union of the parochial schools of the city, all the ward schools and the eighth grade, and as thus modified the parade proved a great success. To the teachers and those who had the day in charge, much credit for this success is due.

Over 1,500 school children were in line, well dressed and well behaved children, who kept remarkably perfect step. They were arrayed behind tastefully gotten up banners and were in charge of Marshal Soule and his aids, M. C. Sheehan and W. W. Watts. They started promptly on time and marched over the route planned in good order. They kept quick step, and were just sixteen minutes in passing the corner of State and Jefferson streets, where they were reviewed by Prof. Perry, the speakers of the day and others in carriages. With the second ward marched the German schools. St. Thomas' school, in charge of Rev. Fr. Fierle, had a large number in line.

Stores and business places along the line of march were decorated and gay colors were everywhere flying. The threatening clouds did not interfere with the procession at all, the rain not falling until after everyone was safely seated in University hall, and ceasing before the speaking was over.

It was a pleasing sight to see the children filling University hall, excepting the galleries, which were well filled with spectators. The remark was everywhere heard that it was not known there were so many children in the city. It was a happy sea of upturned faces that greeted the speakers of the day. The hall was handsomely decorated. Around the gallery was draped bunting in the University colors and on the stage was a large evergreen arbor, with the words in white, "Children's day, 1888". On the platform besides the speakers were Rev. Fr. Fierle, Prof. Perry, the school board, the superintendents of the Sunday schools of the city and the mayor. Many audiences have been gathered in University hall, but never a more attentive audience than that of Saturday.

The exercises opened with the hymn, "Now Thank We all Our God," sung by all the children, accompanied by the Chequamegon orchestra. Judge W. D. Harriman delivered the president's address, in which he spoke of never yet having seen an audience as interesting, as inspiring or one-half as beautiful as the one before him. "Who knows," he said, "but from among these girls may spring a Florence Nightingale, or from among these boys our future governors or presidents, or some incipient hero who shall save his country. We think a great deal of our homes and lots, our stores and buildings, but you are more precious to us than them; it is for you we work and accumulate, and for you we build our school houses, our churches, our colleges and universities, and on you depends largely our happiness or our sorrow."

After the singing of the hymn, "Angel of Peace," President Angell made a happy address in which he said: "We had all of us heard of that bright scholar in school who could stand so high and do so well if he only would, but who never did anything; now this same scholar, although bright and capable, will do the same in the world as he has done in school, and be a total failure, because the only way any success is reached is by hard work. After paying a tribute to General Sheridan's untiring industry, he continued: "Napoleon was also a tireless worker, and to a young friend he once said, 'remember, my young friend, that if you ever lose a half-hour in preparing yourself for some useful service, you will see the day when you will fail for the want of that half hour's work.'" Dr. Angell then described St. Peter's Cathedral, in Rome, with its brilliant assemblages of kings, queens, ecclesiastics and noblemen, into which a poor, ragged, dirty and barefooted little Italian boy strayed. As he stood looking at the great audience, some one touched his arm and pointing to the little boy said: "There is a temple greater and more wonderful than this, or any ever reared by the hand of man;" and it was so, for it is the temple that holds that mysterious thing, the human spirit; and made in the image of God. Each one of you should keep that temple pure and clean.

The children sang, "Nearer My God to Thee," and Rev. Dr. Earp was introduced as the last speaker of the evening. He said that this was the finest sight he had ever seen in his life. The greatest Roman emperor had emblazoned on the banners of his nation, "Let us Labor." He had not a particle of sympathy with a lazy boy or a lazy girl. He would not have such boys and girls treated as the little honey bees treated the drones in the hive, but he would have them taught a lesson in labor that they would not forget. Remember, children, that if you are to be worth anything in this world, either to yourself or to anybody else, you must work.

The children sang "America," and then the vast audience filed out. It had been arranged that they should play on the campus, but the grass was wet, so that many went home and others picked on their own school grounds. Everyone voted the day a success and the children seemed to enjoy it.

High School Doings.

As near as can be estimated, the number of graduates will be 72.

Everybody is invited to attend the graduating exercises in University hall next Friday, at 10 a. m.

There will be a base-ball game on the fair grounds to-morrow between the Detroit and Ann Arbor high school teams.

Card to The Public.

We are requested by the management of the T. A. & N. N. R'y Co. to advise all who attended the excursion to Presque Isle last Sunday, that they have fully investigated with a view of ascertaining why the program was not carried out. They find that the Presque Isle people had arranged for four boats, and were fully capable of taking care of the large crowd in attendance, and would have done so had it not been for the severe wind storm, on account of which most of their boats went aground. Of course under such circumstances it was impossible for them to carry out any program.

Presque Isle is one of the most delightful excursion points in the west, and the management feel confident of being able (in decent weather) to take care of an unusual large number of people. The T. A. & N. M. R'y will probably run several excursions to this point during the summer.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR PHOTOS.

Kelly's gallery is to be torn down and rebuilt the finest in the state and until the old one is removed he will put up fine Cabinets for only $2.00 per doz. N. B. It will be torn down about July first.

The Dexter Leader wants to know why we don't keep writing about the former loose way of running things at the county house. Simply because we consider that we have ventilated the matter so thoroughly that nothing remains to be said. To keep nagging away at one individual after the result was accomplished, would savor too much of vindictiveness.

HUTZELS WATER BACK.

A very important invention which will be hailed with delight by everybody using a stove or range for hot water circulation. After years of experience we have succeeded in producing a simple and perfect WATER BACK. It overcomes all the present troubles of extracting lime and other sediments which accumulate in water backs, often making them useless and in a great many instances becoming dangerous. The outlay of dollars is reduced to dimes. No household using a range can afford to be without it. No more trouble by using city water for hot water circulation. Can be used in any stove ask your stove dealer for Hutzels Water Back. Mason & Davis Co's. ranges for sale at C. Eberbach are provided with our improvement. Everybody call and examine this useful invention.

Chicago's Big Hall.

Where the Republican National Convention Will Meet.

PRELIMINARY VIEW OF INTERIOR.

The Brilliant Scene That Will Be Presented to the Delegates—Some Boomers on the Ground—Hill Talks to Tammany in Reply to Ingalls—State Convention Proceedings—Foraker's Remarks—Alger Indorsed.

CHICAGO, June 13.—The Auditorium, in which the national Republican convention is to meet Tuesday next, is not yet completed as to decoration, but it will undoubtedly be ready in time, and the work is so far done as to give an idea what it will be, and it is

THE CHICAGO AUDITORIUM.

[As it will appear when completed.] Not too much to say that when the delegates reach the interior of the building they will be dazzled by the brilliancy of the scene. Last night, for the first time, the vast hall was illuminated by the 2,700 Edison incandescent electric lights, which have been set in the arches and walls in various unique and patriotic designs, and the effect was beautiful and pleasing to the eye. The four mighty arches spanning the pit where the delegates will sit, and the proscenium arch, were a blaze of light. Between these, at mathematical correct distances, were twenty mighty blazing stars, each comprising twenty-two incandescent lights; then there were on each side of the walls facing the seats of the delegates thirteen smaller stars of ten lights each, forming a sort of magnificent, circular, fiery setting wherein will be placed the portraits of Lincoln and Grant. But the masterpiece of the whole system of illumination is the immense shield of red, white, and blue lights in the center of the proscenium, directly over the spot where the chairman will stand. This was, after some difficulty on the part of the electricians, swung into place shortly after 9 o'clock last night, and when the polychromatic colors of the national ensign were turned on in full power, a cheer and round of applause were heard from the little crowd of spectators present.

The national colors are seen everywhere. The coats-of-arms of the various states, profusely draped with flags, form a circle round the rail of the main balcony. The front of the chairman's desk is embellished with a portrait of George Washington. Besides these there are yet to be displayed Mulvane's picture of Logan at Atlanta and other historical attractions of artistic design. Millard Adams said in speaking of the seating capacity that it will be about 8,200, or nearly 300 more actual seats than were in the Republican convention hall of 1854.

Perhaps the most wonderful and striking feature of the hall is the compactness with which it will bring the great convention together. Every person who is so fortunate as to get a seat will be able not only to see, but also to hear. It will present a great opportunity for the orators, if any chance to come to the front.

The avant couriers of some of the "booms" are beginning to arrive. Col. Hecker arrived from Detroit yesterday. He is president of the Peninsular Car company, in which Gen. Alger is also interested. Col. Hecker is managing Alger's campaign on the most approved business principles. He has arranged to bring to Chicago six cars filled with Alger's friends from the New England states. The delegation will be headed by Hannibal Hamlin, of Maine, who will work for Alger until Michigan's favorite son is nominated, withdrawn or snowed under.

A middle-aged man of medium height, with dark hair and luxuriant beard—the ideal of a successful business man in personal appearance—is Gen. A. C. Conger, of Ohio, who brought the Sherman boom from the Buckeye state yesterday morning. "Ohio," said the general, "is solid for Sherman. We are enthusiastic for Sherman and have no second choice. It has been said of him that he will be the 'hardest man to nominate and the easiest man to elect.' That assertion was made when Blaine was a factor. Under existing conditions we expect to nominate John Sherman with the minimum of friction." W. S. Capellar, of Ohio, and Editor Hanna, of the Cleveland Leader, came yesterday to do advance picket duty for Ohio's favorite son.

Prince Roland Bonaparte is coming to Chicago to attend the Republican national convention. He telegraphed from New York yesterday to Gen. J. S. Clarkson, chairman of the sub-committee, asking the courtesy of a seat for the princess and himself. He was informed by wire that preferred places would be reserved for him, and Mavor Roche will ask the French nobleman and his wife to be his guests on Warren avenue during their stay in Chicago.

TAMMANY WAVES THE BANDANA.

Governor Hill's Reply to Ingalls' Criticism of Cleveland.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Tammany hall ratification meeting in the Academy of Music last night was very largely attended, and was an enthusiastic affair. Red bandanas and the national flag were the decorations. All the local leaders of the party were present, and among the speakers were Gen. John Cochrane, who presided; Governor Hill, and ex-Governor Abbott, of New Jersey. A series of resolutions based on the St. Louis platform was adopted.

Governor Hill, in his speech, said that Ingalls had attempted to insult President Cleveland in his recent speech by saying that his election proved that no one could be too obscure to aspire to the presidency. Ingalls had unconsciously thus paid a tribute to the president, the party, and to American institutions. It is the glory of our country that any honest citizen, however humble, is eligible to the highest position in the land. It is true that our candidate comes from the people, and we do not attempt to palliate it. A poor boy, the son of an humble clergyman, he fought the battle of life alone, successfully, courageously, and pluckily, retarded by poverty, hardships, and adversity, and it is to the honor of the Democratic party that it delights to elevate such candidates.

After further complimenting President Cleveland, Governor Hill eulogized the tariff plank of the St. Louis platform and condemned the Republican party for its insincere policy in regard to tariff reform. He paid a tribute to Thurman and said if he was too old, then Dix was too old to be governor of New York at 76, Samuel Adams to be governor of Massachusetts at 75, John Marshall to be chief justice at 81, John Quincy Adams to serve in congress at 70, Benjamin Franklin to help form our constitution at 79, and Simon Cameron to be senator at 78. Von Moltke commands the German army at 88, and Gladstone is 79. The governor closed with an appeal for a campaign based upon discussion of genuine issues and free from scandal.

The county Democracy also met and ratified the St. Louis nominations, a number of prominent politicians speaking.

REPUBLICANS OF MAINE.

Burleigh Nominated for Governor—Synopsis of the Resolutions.

PORTLAND, Me., June 13.—The Republican state convention met here yesterday and organized, with Judge A. P. Wiswell as chairman. The only business to attend to was the nomination of a candidate for governor.

Hon. J. W. Symonds, of Portland, in an eloquent speech, presented the name of Henry B. Cleaves. He devoted part of his speech to argument against nominating State Treasurer Burleigh for governor on the ground that it was unconstitutional. R. D. Powers presented the name of Burleigh. The convention then proceeded to ballot, and Burleigh was nominated on the first ballot, having 773 votes.

On motion of George D. Bishop on behalf of Governor Marble, seconded by Hon. J. H. Drummond in behalf of Cleaves, the nomination was made unanimous, and after adopting a platform the convention adjourned sine die.

The platform opposes "British free trade" and the Mills bill, favors the reduction of the revenue to the amount necessary to support the government and provide for the veterans, and for national defense, but without impairing the efficiency of the protective system; denounces the administration for surrendering American rights in negotiation of the fisheries treaty, and for abandoning civil service reform, for which latter Cleveland is charged with hypocrisy; declares for continued prohibition in this state, and sends greeting to the Republicans of Oregon and to Mr. Blaine.

Veterans for Gen. Alger.

CONCORD, N. H., June 13.—A veterans' circular letter, signed by thirty-six Republicans possessing honorable war records, and who are highly influential in civil life, was sent yesterday to the members of the New Hampshire delegation to the Chicago convention, expressing a preference for Gen. Russell A. Alger, of Michigan, as a candidate on the national ticket.

JAMES FREEMAN CLARK.

The Noted Unitarian Passes Away at a Ripe Old Age.

BOSTON, June 9.—James Freeman Clarke, the distinguished Unitarian divine, died quietly of old age at 10:55 last night at his home in this city.

James Freeman Clarke was born April 4, 1810, in Hanover, N. H. While an infant his parents removed to Newton, a suburb of Boston. His early education was supervised by his grandfather, Rev. James Freeman. A little later he entered the Boston Latin school, where he remained for five years a close student. Mr. Clarke once remarked that he learned more from his grandfather than from this famous JAS. FREEMAN CLARKE school. When 16 years old young Clarke entered Harvard. Among his classmates were Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, Hon. B. R. Curtis, of the United States supreme court; Chief Justice Bigelow, William Henry Channing, Professor Benjamin Pierce, and Rev. S. F. Smith, the author of "My Country 'Tis of Thee."

GEN. SHERIDAN'S CONDITION.

His Brother Very Sanguine and the Patient Undoubtedly Much Better.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 13.—Col. Mike Sheridan said yesterday that his brother, the general, had at no time been so ill as the public has been led to believe. Had the colonel's statements on this point been relied on the doctors' bulletins would have been useless reading. They say that he has been ill but dead several times. Yesterday his wonderful improvement continued. His coughing spells were still frequent and annoying, and he breathed with some difficulty; otherwise his condition was greatly improved.

The doctors now have hope, and they say that if his power to assimilate the small amount of liquid food given him continues to increase so that he can eat solids, he will have some chance of recovery. They do not talk in as hopeful strain as Col. Sheridan does, however, and it is not likely that Gen. Sheridan will ever be a well man again. The friends of the sick man are surprised at his changed condition, but they are constantly on the watch for a return of the heart trouble, and do not appear to be sanguine that the general will get well.

Gen. Sheridan's physicians did not issue the usual midnight bulletin last night. Up to that hour he was reported as resting quietly, with little or no change in his condition since 9 p. m.

So every organ in the body contains all the peculiarities of the blood. If the kidneys, the only blood purifiers, do not clean the blood of the waste of the system, then the various organs will give out and you will have RHEUMATISM, MALARIA, HEADACHES, AGUE, CHILLS AND FEVER, IMPOTENCY, BLADDER DISEASES, LAME BACK, NEURALGIA, NERVOUSNESS, BAD EYES, STOMACH TROUBLES, BOILS, CARBUNCLES, ABSCESSSES, APLOPEXY, PARALYSIS and in women FEMALE TROUBLES. The secret of good health then lies in keeping the kidneys well. If you don't, you can't cure any of the above diseases. They may not suspect it, but eight persons out of every ten have some form of kidney derangement. DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democrats of Michigan will meet in State Convention in the Detroit Opera House at Detroit, on Thursday, July 19th, 1888.

At eleven o'clock a. m. to nominate candidates for State Officers and for Electors of President and Vice-President of the United States, and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention.

According to the rule adopted by the state convention held at Detroit in 1886, every county is entitled to one delegate for each 500 votes cast for governor at the last general election, and one additional delegate for a fraction of not less than 250 votes, but any county is entitled to at least two delegates. All delegates must be residents of the counties they represent.

The delegates from each Congressional District will meet in caucus at 10 o'clock a. m., on day of the convention.

T. M. WESTON, Chairman. W. M. J. McGEHEE, Assistant Secretary.

It sounds rather strange when you talk of Alger's military record in connection with Gen. Sheridan's.

AND now cometh the Courier and others of that ilk holding up the Washington Post as a democratic paper, when everybody knows that it has recently been purchased by a bitter republican syndicate.

THE Courier affects to think that vice-President Hendricks died because Cleveland was cruel to him. The campaign canards have commenced, but we little thought such a steady going paper as the Courier would make such a break as that.

WHY does not the Register denounce the judges of the supreme court of Michigan as lawbreakers for deciding that the city councils have no right to refuse to accept bonds because they are signed by brewers or saloon keepers? Possibly because no one of the judges is an editor of a rival newspaper.

WHO will be the next republican candidate for president? That is an extremely hard question to answer. A much easier one would be, who president after the fourth of next March. For it really doesn't make much difference whom the republican party nominates next week. From the candidates before them, it is evident they will not place in the field so good a ticket as Cleveland and Thurman and the good sense of the independent voter will see that the name of Cleveland is once more "entwined with victory."

THE Alger boom is a manufactured one. No one of the candidates for the republican nomination has had less public experience than Alger. His only public experience was as governor of Michigan and in spite of the fact that he spent, of his abundant means to secure advisers to help him through with the duties of that position, his administration of the office of governor was not a glittering success. In fact it was generally conceded at the time that he could not be re-elected. One prominent Ann Arbor republican is said to have remarked concerning him recently that "any bumper on the streets of Ann Arbor was as fit to be professor of astronomy in the university as Alger was to be president."

Another prominent local republican thinks Alger "the biggest little man he knows of." In all this there is not a word against Alger's character. The fact is simply asserted that he has not developed those executive qualities which are required of the chief executive of this great country.

THE Adrian Times is a high protective tariff organ. It is edited by one of the republican leaders of the state. Like all other republican leaders he advocates keeping up the war taxation, and a tariff which is so high that it encourages the formation of trusts for the raising of prices. The Times lives up to his doctrine until it finds that the tariff on type enables type founders to form a combination to raise the price of type. Last week it said:

"Now, what member of congress will immortalize himself, and earn the lasting thanks of the whole people, by introducing a bill, it need not be more than ten lines, taking the duty off type, and thus protect the people against the greed of a dozen cormorants who propose to sell further increase their robber gains. The type-founders' pusillanimous little "trust" should be promptly smashed.

Which of all the patriotic members of congress will be the first to catch the speaker's eye, for the introduction of a little bill smashing it?"

This does not read like high tariff doctrine. In fact it is a very good argument against continuing the republican party in power. The Times finds the price of type increased a quarter by the tariff. The Times has to buy type and so it naturally wants the tariff off. Now the workingmen and farmers want to buy their clothing cheaper, the lumber to build their homes, their iron which goes into their tools or agricultural implements, the salt they use, the sugar they need, and the thousand and one other articles they are compelled to buy. Why should they not urge a reduction of the tariff so as to buy these articles cheaper. Why have not they the same right to find fault with the combines and trusts which make millionaires at their expense, as has the Adrian Times? The Times' point is well taken and so is the point made by those who urge such a reduction of the tariff taxation as will break up other trusts and combines to take hard earned money out of the pockets of the people.

UNIVERSITY.

Chronicle election to-morrow.

The lawn tennis association has been challenged by Toledo.

The alumni, of the dental department, hold a grand reunion this year.

P. E. Stillman is the managing editor of the oracle for next year.

The sophomores defeated the freshmen at base ball Friday by 20 to 2.

The newly elected Argonaut editors are Loomis, Winchell, Tulley, Hardy, Conrad, Millman and Misses Andrews and Prichard.

The balance of the Rogers statuary is expected to arrive the last of the month. The statues are of large size and of considerable importance.

Besides writing the vocal parts and piano score for "The Passing of Summer," Mr. Cole has composed orchestral parts for twenty-two instruments. No slight task we imagine.

Mr. Ross Cole has received high compliments for the music which he has written for the cantata to be sung at the commencement concert. Some of the best critics in Chicago praised it in very flattering terms.

RESOLUTIONS ON DR. HENDRICK'S RESIGNATION.

At a meeting of the class of '89, in the department of "Regular Medicine," the following resolutions were read and adopted:

WHEREAS, We have learned with regret that Dr. Geo. A. Hendricks has tendered his resignation as instructor in anatomy and associate surgeon to the clinic, and

WHEREAS, We deem it fitting that we indicate our high opinion touching his eminent qualities as a man and teacher, be it

Resolved—That we, the medical class of '89, of the University of Michigan, declare his resignation a loss to the University of Michigan as a whole, to ourselves and to the classes that shall follow us; and that we hereby express our unqualified commendation of his marked ability as operator and instructor and esteem of his many estimable qualities, as a scholar and courteous gentleman.

An Ypsilanti Divorce.

Mrs. Daisy Britton, of Ypsilanti, who married William Britton in July, 1850, was granted a decree of divorce yesterday. The decree was granted on the ground that William had been married to another woman in Detroit in May, 1857, and had since been living with the other woman in Canada as husband and wife. Mrs. Britton was given the custody of her three children, aged eight, seven and five years.

That Chelsea—Dexter Ball Game.

Dexter, Mich., June 11, 1888.

EDITOR ARGUS:—Among your Chelsea items in last week's issue I noticed a report that the Chelsea ball club defeated the Dexter ball club on Saturday. Now in correction of this report I wish to say first that we did not play on Saturday but on Tuesday, second, that we were not beaten as the score stood nine and nine on the last half of the ninth inning, when we were at the bat, when with one man out and a man on second base Chelsea kicked out of the game and refused to finish our last inning and thereby forfeited the game to us. I wish further to say that we are open for challenges from any second nine in the county. Respectfully,

GEORGE D. CRANE, Sec.

COUNTERFEITING A BAKING POWDER.

The public is too well informed as to the danger from alum baking powders to need any caution against using them. It is, nevertheless, a fact that many of our most prudent and careful housekeepers are, without knowing it, using these deleterious articles daily, and from them preparing for their families food which, were they aware of its nature, they would not offer to a beggar. Baking powders made from burnt alum cost less than four cents a pound. When these can be worked off in place of the Royal Baking Powder, and sold for forty or fifty cents a pound, there are many manufacturers and dealers sufficiently unscrupulous to do it.

A favorite method of selling these poisonous alum baking powders is by placing them in an empty Royal Baking Powder can and weighing them out in small quantities when the Royal Baking Powder is called for by customers. The grocer, if questioned, claims that he buys in large packages at a lower rate, and is thus able to sell below the price of goods in small cans. All baking powders sold in this way are entitled to suspicion. Analyses of many of them have been made with a view to a prosecution, and in all cases they have been found largely adulterated and generally made from poisonous burnt alum. This is selling counterfeit goods, and is, of course, an offence against the law. We are glad to know that the Royal Baking Powder Company have taken the matter in hand, and are acting in a way that will protect the public from the swindle.

The surest protection from this fraud is for the housekeeper to buy the baking powder of the brand she wishes in the original unbroken package looking carefully to see that the label has not been tampered with. The Royal Baking Powder Company announce, what is well known, that their goods are packed for the convenience of consumers in cans of various sizes, but are never sold in bulk, by the barrel or loose by the weight or measure. The cans are securely sealed with the company's trade mark label, and the weight of each package stamped on the cover. Any baking powder being peddled out by weight under the name of Royal they denounce as bogus and to be avoided.

Consumers should bear these facts in mind if they do not wish to have imposed upon them the poisonous alum stuff that is being profusely distributed throughout the country under the name of baking powder. If, however, they buy the Royal in cans with unbroken labels, they are always sure of using a baking powder perfectly pure and wholesome, and of the highest test, strength and efficiency.

TOURIST AND PLEASURE TRAVEL.

Renewed Assurance of Speed, Comfort, Safety and Luxury to all Going west Via Chicago.

Parties planning a summer trip should remember not to forget that the GREAT ROCK ISLAND ROUTE is the only line that runs fast limited vestibule express trains of palace cars (daily each way) between Chicago and Council Bluffs—Omaha—on the direct highway of transcontinental travel. Round-trip tourist tickets at greatly reduced rates, include the paramount advantages of this vestibule train (the finest in the world) to and from points in Colorado, Utah, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming. Sales every day during the season of 1888. Round-trip tickets also (at similar low rates) to and from Colfax Springs, Spirit Lake, Lake Minnetonka, and other popular resorts less remote, as well as hundreds of localities of interest to artist, sportsman, tourist and invalid.

The Great Rock Island assures to all holding its round-trip tickets the safest, speediest and pleasiest journey imaginable in its magnificent vestibule trains between Chicago and Rock Island, Davenport, Des Moines and Council Bluffs, either going west or coming east. Avoid, therefore, the discomforts of lines having inferior accommodations. See that your ticket (which costs no more) reads via the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific R'y, and enjoy the luxuries of first-class travel.

A Sound Legal Opinion.

E. Bainbridge Munday Esq., County Atty., Clay Co., Tex. says: "Have used Electric Bitters with most happy results. My brother was also very low with Malarial Fever and Jaundice, but was cured by timely use of this medicine. Am satisfied Electric Bitters saved my life." Mr. D. I. Wilcoxson, of Horse Cave, Ky., adds a like testimony, saying: "He positively believes he would have died, had it not been for Electric Bitters. This great remedy will ward off, as well as cure all Malarial Diseases, and for all Kidney, Liver and Stomach Disorders stands unequalled. Price 50c. and $1. at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store.

Stamping and Embroidery.

"Yes, Lizzie, I like to do fancy work, but I haven't felt like trying that pattern—or anything else—for a week. These awful 'dragging-down' pains are just killing me!" "I know just how you feel, and I can tell you where to look for relief. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a certain cure for those peculiar weaknesses and distressing ailments. Why! it even cured me of prolapsus, and many of my lady friends have been cured of various grave maladies peculiar to our sex by this wonderful medicine." It is the only medicine sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee from the manufacturers, that it will give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Read guarantee on bottle wrapper.

Dress the Hair

With Ayer's Hair Vigor. Its cleanliness, beneficial effects on the scalp, and lasting perfume commend it for universal toilet use. It keeps the hair soft and silken, preserves its color, prevents it from falling, and, if the hair has become weak or thin, promotes a new growth.

"To restore the original color of my hair, which had turned prematurely gray, I used Ayer's Hair Vigor with entire success. I cheerfully testify to the

of this preparation."—Mrs. P. H. Davidson, Alexandria, La.

"I was afflicted some three years with scalp disease. My hair was falling out and what remained turned gray. I was induced to try Ayer's Hair Vigor, and in a few weeks the disease in my scalp disappeared and my hair resumed its original color."—(Rev.) S. S. Sims, Pastor U. B. Church, St. Bernice, Ind.

"A few years ago I suffered the entire loss of my hair from the effects of tetter. I hoped that after a time nature would repair the loss, but I waited in vain. Many remedies were suggested, none, however, with such proof of merit as Ayer's Hair Vigor, and I began to use it. The result was all I could have desired. A growth of hair soon came out all over my head, and grew to be as soft and heavy as I ever had, and of a natural color, and firmly set."—J. H. Pratt, Spofford, Texas.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

A. L. Crawford, a Cadillac merchant who satisfied a claim held by one J. Lamb, by boarding at the local hotel, now brings a $10,000 damage suit against the latter gentleman.

With a growing population that nearly reaches 2,500 Red Jacket hasn't a church where the sermon is delivered in the United States language.

John Rawlings, a St. Clair county man who was found guilty of assaulting a little girl, will board at the Jackson prison for the next three years. Previous good reputation alone saved him from a heavier sentence.

The Holland Crystal creamery is turning out 4,000 pounds of choice butter each week, which finds a ready market. There's usually a demand for a really good article in almost any line.

A Bear Lake citizen has been taken in charge by the sheriff because he didn't know any better than to marry a girl less than 16 years old.

Sheriff Summers not only keeps a sharp eye on Mountcalm county criminals, but also finds time to run a roller grist mill at Sheridan.

While playing with a buggy a little Essex lad got his neck fastened in the spokes of the vehicle and was strangled.

Sheridan folks complain because a member of its village council spends most of his time in Detroit. And yet there are plenty of towns that wouldn't object a bit if their local lawmakers were to stay away all the time.

Harrison Baker, a Newport farmer, was killed by the collapse of a shed in which he had taken refuge from a storm last week.

The handful of Salvation Army people who were locked up by the Kalamazoo authorities for obstructing business on the streets, think they were damaged about $10,000 worth, and have begun a suit in that sum to recover.

There's such a demand for houses at East Saginaw that a comfortable cottage costs the renter $12 to $15 per month.

A Grass Lake farmer is the owner of a flock of eighty-six ewes that have brought him 106 lambs this spring. Good, healthy increase.

Burglars are making things lively at Muskegon. But they're not the only class that make the (sawdust) fly in that region.

A couple of prisoners escaped from the Grand Rapids jail by sawing off the bars of their cells, on the 27th, one of whom was a counterfeiter of Uncle Sam's coin.

A Detroit market gardener has kept a weather record since 1848, and claims that this is the most backward spring in all that time.

A Cadillac man goes into sweet seclusion for ninety days for wallowing his wife. This sort of amusement seems to be on the increase.

Monroe has a "rum" club whose members are required to chew gum from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m., but aren't allowed the consolation of talking politics the balance of the time. That's an organization that won't sweep the country—not this year.

The dog-poisoner is camping on the trail of Michigan canines in many sections of the state. If only the worthless curs fell victims to the destroyer, "Barkis would be willin'!"

Howell hens are bark on the lay. One merchant there shipped over 10,000 dozen hen fruit in a single week.

Alice Cole, a Geneva girl of 15 summers, planted 1,920 hills of potatoes for a half day's work. That's a better record than many boys of maturer age ever made.

A party of bill-posters emptied the balance of their paste in a Petersburg street. Several cows came along and partook thereof and died.

An explosion of a twenty-ton boiler at the Marquette iron works nearly destroyed that establishment, killing three men and wounding several others. Loss, $50,000. Low water in the boiler is supposed to have been the cause.

The state tax of Michigan railroads, due July 1, amounts to $701,344.

An immature cyclone rattled around in the vicinity of Capac one day last week, and did a lively business for a few minutes. Several buildings were more or less shattered and many trees uprooted.

Bronson business men have shelled out a $350 bonus for the privilege of an occasional "halloo" at Coldwater and Sturgis people. The telephone has hallooed its way right to the front.

The rickety old fence surrounding the Petersburg hotel was taken in hand one night by a local committee while the proprietor was sweetly snoozing, and when he awoke next morning was nowhere to be seen, a bonfire having consumed it.

Mrs. Robert Peterson, a Saginaw county lady, was fatally kicked by a cow that she was endeavoring to milk.

The Lansing Tribune that twinkled brightly for a time like a morning star, has gone to an early grave. Occasionally the good die young.

Over 100 persons are pegging away at Lerry-box and basket making in the Saugatuck and Douglas factories. The false bottoms in the former are fully as deceitful as in former years.

A cat that had clambered to the peak of a Muskegon church roof on a prospecting tour didn't know enough to march down again, and was rescued by the fire department after having occupied the lofty perch for several days.

F. J. Tompkins, a Girard farmer, is the owner of sixty-eight Southdown ewes that are mothering 100 fine sheep. Prolific flock.

While digging a trench at Saginaw workmen came across an Indian grave. The bones of the dusky brave were accompanied by a full hunting outfit from beards to tomahawk.

Several gaming establishments, some of which were patronized by the bon-ton of Grand Rapids society, were pulled by the police recently. The second city is marching to the tune of reform nowadays.

A Kalkaska girl who married in April, became tired of matrimonial life and left her liege lord in May. And the disappointed L. L. advertises that the folks in that vicinity needn't trust her unless they'll take the girl for pay.

The Jackson prison had 759 boarders on June 1, being seven less than the first of the previous month.

Professor J. L. Wagner has hauled the birch and ferule so satisfactory at Grand Ledge for the past nine years that he has been re-engaged as superintendent of schools for the tenth season. Some people are noted for their wearing qualities.

Burglars made a nocturnal call on Dr. Wade, of Holly, and relieved him of $100 in superfluous cash. If they'll call again the doctor will give 'em a dose of lead precipitate and not charge 'em a cent.

W. R. Hunter, now in the employ of the F. & P. M. railway, has been a conductor for the past thirty-six years. He's an old hand at the punching business.

Mrs. Bemrose, the Michigan lady who has occupied a somewhat conspicuous place in the state press of late on account of marrying a Greek, who was supposed to be wealthy, but when they reached Greece no fortune could be found, has at last reached her native heath at East Saginaw. She'll not take another matrimonial trip abroad—not right away.

Devil's Lake, a Lenawee county hamlet, is putting in her bid as a summer resort. Ought to be a good exploring field for Sunday school excursions.

L. K. Shaw, the Romeo man who wandered away from home last water and died in a swamp, left a widow and a divorced wife behind. He also left some property which just now figures as a bone of contention in the courts between the above mentioned females.

Mrs. Edward Wilman, the St. Charles lady who was shot by her husband, will recover and announces her intention of becoming an Adventist missionary.

The F. & P. M. railway is replacing its wooden bridges with solid iron and stone structures.

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION.

The Principal Business Portion of Norway, Mich., Burned.

NORWAY, Mich., June 11.—A fire that destroyed the principal business part of Norway was not under control until late in the morning. A strong wind was blowing and the flames jumped rapidly from one wooden building to another. People in all parts of the town were engaged in a mad effort to carry some of their household goods to places of safety, and storekeepers were trying to save some of their stock, but so quickly did the flames spread that in the burnt district little was saved, and careful estimates place the loss at $200,000, with very little insurance. The weather has been cold and stormy, and there has been much suffering among the homeless. The business part of Norway is in ruins, and the principal buildings were burned. More than 500 people are sufferers by the fire. The largest losers by the fire are:
C. I. McElroy, general merchandise, $30,000; A. H. Husson, hotel and fixtures, $8,000; A. Patenaude, drugs and jewelry, $6,500; J. Lindquist, general merchandise, $8,500; J. H. Gee, $10,500; F. Levy, groceries, $4,000. L. Rosenhauser, general merchandise, $13,500; Anton Odill, liquors, $16,000; S. F. High, drugs and jewelry, $12,500; Robert Johnson, $4,000; Thomas Hay, $4,500; Masonic building, $4,000.

If you have made up your mind to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla do not be induced to take any other. Hood's Sarsaparilla is a peculiar medicine, possessing, by virtue of its peculiar combination, proportion, and preparation, curative power superior to any other article. A Boston lady who knew what she wanted, and whose example is worthy imitation, tells her experience below:

To Get

"In one store where I went to buy Hood's Sarsaparilla the clerk tried to induce me to buy their own instead of Hood's; he told me their's would last longer; that I might take it on ten days' trial; that if I did not like it I need not pay anything, etc. But he could not prevail on me to change. I told him I knew what Hood's Sarsaparilla was. I had taken it, was satisfied with it, and did not want any other.

Hood's

When I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla I was feeling real miserable, suffering a great deal with dyspepsia, and so weak that at times I could hardly stand. I looked, and had for some time, like a person in consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla did me so much good that I wonder at myself sometimes, and my friends frequently speak of it."—Mrs. ELLA A. ## BROAD-CUT EUREKA MOWER

NATIONAL LEGISLATURE.

A SUMMARY OF THE WEEK'S PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Business Booming in Both Branches and Some Solid Work Being Accomplished by the Law-Makers—Record of the Past Six Days Containing All the Important Doings of Congress.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 7.—The senate passed the diplomatic and consular appropriations bills yesterday, after adopting Call's amendment increasing the salaries of our representatives to Paraguay and Uruguay.

The house was too much interested in the proceedings at St. Louis to do much business. In committee of the whole several amendments to the tariff bill were rejected, and Dingley offered one continuing existing duties on Canadian lumber as long as that country continues its present fisheries policy.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 8.—The only thing done in the senate yesterday was the delivery of a speech by Morgan in defense of the president's conduct of the fisheries negotiations, and when he had concluded the senate adjourned until Monday.

The house was again in a fever of excitement over the St. Louis convention. A bill appropriating $300,000 for a public building at Bay City, Mich., was agreed to, and a bill introduced for a building at Sterling, Ills. in committee of the whole the tariff bill was then taken up on Breckinridge's motion of yesterday relating to intercourse with Canada, and after a long debate the provision, which was an amendment to one offered by Dingley, was adopted.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 9.—The house passed a bill yesterday authorizing a bridge over the Missouri near Omaha, and adopted the resolution of inquiry as to whether Canada was discriminating against the United States in the tolls on the Welland canal. The tariff bill was then resumed in committee of the whole, the debate being on the salt schedule, and finally Burrows' motion to strike out the paragraph was rejected, as well as all other similar motions, and the paragraph was finished.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 11.—In the house Saturday bills were passed appropriating $50,000 for a public building at Jackson, Mich., and one at Ottumwa, Ia., appropriating $240,000. The tariff discussion was resumed and occupied the remainder of the day without action.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 9.—The bill for the reconstruction of the dam at Rock Island, Ills. was reported to the senate favorably yesterday. Some other business of little general interest was then transacted and Gray proceeded to speak in favor of the ratification of the fisheries treaty.

Herbert introduced a bill in the house providing for an assistant secretary of the navy and Dougherty of Florida a resolution which declared that the passage of the Mills bill was improbable and instructed the ways and means committee to report bills abolishing the internal revenue system, taxing incomes of over $500 and taking the duty off everything not produced in the United States.

WASHINGTON CITY, June 13.—The senate yesterday received a communication from the treasury asking $200,000 for repairs to the Philadelphia mint. Stewart of Nevada gave notice of amendments to the legislative appropriation bill providing for the coinage of silver to take the place of circulation surrendered by national banks not in liquidation and for the coinage of $4,000,000 per month of silver.

Robbers Meet With a Plucky Resistance—Two Men Hurt. CINCINNATI, June 9.—A daring attempt was made to rob train No. 10 on the Big Four road, due here at 10:30 last night. Just as the train was leaving Delhi, a few miles west of here, five men boarded it and attacked the express car.

Panic in a Burning Tenement. NEW YORK, June 13.—A fire in the tenement house, 43 Second street, at 1 o'clock this morning caused a panic among the inmates. Many were rescued with ladders by the firemen, but it is feared that many lives have been lost.

He's the Nonpareil Yacht Designer. NEW YORK, June 13.—In yesterday's annual spring regatta of the Atlantic Yacht club the chief interest centered in the respective qualities of the new Burgess cutter Pappoose and the sloop Banabee, designed by A. Cary Smith.

BASE BALL ATTRACTIONS.

Scores of League Clubs in the Contest for the Pennant.

CHICAGO, June 7.—National league base ball scores yesterday were as follows: At New York—New York 3, Indianapolis 3; at Washington—Washington 3, Detroit 4; at Philadelphia—Philadelphia 3, Chicago 6; at Boston—Boston 4, Pittsburg 3.

CHICAGO, June 8.—There was but one National league base ball game played yesterday as follows: At New York—New York 5, Washington 7.

CHICAGO, June 9.—The game of base ball between New York and Chicago yesterday was a Rull Run for the latter. Van Haltren was twirling the ball but was knocked all over the field. League scores were: At New York—New York 19, Chicago 2; at Washington—Washington 1, Indianapolis 2; at Philadelphia—Philadelphia 3, Pittsburg 0; at Boston—Boston 5, Detroit 11—15 innings.

CHICAGO, June 11.—Last week's base ball playing in the league left Chicago still in the lead, but Detroit is not so far in the rear as to make the contest monotonous by any means. The New York giants burlesqued the Chicago boys clawhammer uniform Saturday, and appeared on the field in linen dusters cut so as to form swallow-tail coats, and their heads surmounted with very tall old-fashioned "plug" hats.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Krook's speedy pitching gave the Chicago club another win from the New York giants, and to further help the ex-champions Boston drubbed the Detroit players. The league scores were: At New York—New York 3, Chicago 4; at Washington—Washington 3, Indianapolis 15; at Boston—Boston 14, Detroit 9; at Philadelphia—Philadelphia 7, Pittsburg 1.

CHICAGO, June 13.—The ex-champions of the National Base Ball league won the fourth game of the series with the New York men yesterday, making the series stand three to one in favor of Chicago. The league scores for the day were: At New York—New York 2, Chicago 4; at Washington—Washington 5, Indianapolis 1; at Philadelphia—Philadelphia 4, Pittsburg 3; at Boston—Boston 5, Detroit 2.

VERMONT PROHIBITIONISTS.

Fifty-Nine of Them Meet and Nominate State Officers and Congressmen.

MONTPELIER, Vt., June 13.—There were fifty persons in Capitol hall when the Prohibition state convention was called to order yesterday by Clinton Smith. W. L. Pearl, of St. Johnsbury, was made temporary chairman. After the committee had been appointed and the chairman had delivered an address, mainly in denunciation of the Republican party for its attitude on the temperance question, a recess was taken to the afternoon.

After recess the following state officers were nominated: Governor, Henry M. Seoley, of Middlebury; lieutenant governor, George E. Crowell, of Brattleboro; secretary of state, Archibald O. Ferguson, of Burlington; auditor, C. S. Parker, of Elmore; treasurer, A. B. Bixby, of Poulinsey. Congressmen: First district, Peter Daken; Second district, C. W. Wyman. Resolutions were adopted declaring the making and sale of liquor criminal; demanding prohibition amendments to the constitution favoring women suffrage; calling for abolition of the internal revenue system, and condemning the Republican party.

Sammel Dickie, of Michigan, chairman of the national committee, and other prominent Prohibitionists, addressed the convention at an evening session.

Governor Foraker Not a Candidate.

COLUMBUS, O., June 13.—Governor Foraker was interviewed yesterday by a representative of the United Press in regard to the dispatch sent out Monday night detailing a scheme laid by Whiteley Reid, with which Governor Foraker was said to be cognizant, to make Eliaine the nominee for president and Foraker second man on the ticket. "I am not a candidate and will not be," said the governor. "Of course, I can not prevent people talking about me in this connection."

ACROSS THE WATER.

In the Paris prison of detention recently a person committed as a man 54 years old, after being locked up, was found to be a woman. It was found that she had put on male clothes twenty years before, and had worn them ever since without being discovered.

There is an antiquated custom in Vienna by which house owners, instead of paying their porters properly, allow them to levy a toll of four cents on every tenant returning after 10 o'clock at night. The consequence is that the streets are comparatively deserted after that hour.

He Didn't Write "Cory Dick."

"W-I-I-I-I-a-m D-o-e-a-n H-o-w-e-l-l-s' T-o-n-i-g-h-t," spelled a New York street gamin from a placard, at which he was squinting with one eye closed.

"I say, Dinky, who's that bloke, Billy Dean?" questioned a brother Arab at his side. "Wot s'it e' howls for?"—Syracuse Standard.

An Heroic Remedy.

Mrs. Youngwife—I can't see why my bread don't raise, John. I've just tried everything. Mr. Y—(laying down his biscuit in despair)—Ever try dynamite, my dear?—Texas Siftings.

Warranted to Cure.

An advertisement tells "how to keep the scalp clean." Another good way is to go west on an Indian extermination expedition. The latter method is a little more heroic and painful, but it can be warranted every time. Beware of counterfeits.—Norristown Herald.

Not Lately.

Scene: Foreign music shop on Union square. Fashionable Lady (to German clerk)—Has Schubert written any new songs lately? Clerk—No, madam, not since he died.—Life.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
