Bressler Brought Up Standing.—The Fun Begins at Saline—Only $25,000 Wanted.—The New Society House. A Lost Sister.

Quick Returns from an Advertisement.

A gentleman living in the country lost a pocket-book containing thirty dollars in Northfield last week. Like an intelligent man he came to the Argus office to insert an advertisement for it in our twenty-five cent column, offering five dollars reward. Even before the advertisement had been inserted, the finder had been discovered through the instrumentality of this office, the reward paid and the pocket book and money restored to the owner. The finder came to this office to see if an advertisement had been inserted for a lost pocket book. Moral—If you have lost or found anything, advertise in the ARGUS.

Have You Heard Them?

If not don't fail to hear the eminent artists who will sing in University Hall on Monday evening, Nov. 26. Miss Emma Juch the leading lyric soprano, in the late national opera company; Miss Hope Glenn, the admirable contralto whom the English have bribed away from her native land, so passionate for her singing are they; Mme. Teresa Carreno, the incomparable pianist, who comes again after many years to delight our people, and finally Mr. Leopold Lichtenberg, one of the first violin virtuosos of America. Do not let this splendid chance pass. It is not likely they will be seen or heard again. Remember the tickets are only $1 and a family ticket can be had for $5.00

Lost Trace of Her Sister.

Mrs. Bridget Downing, of Chicago, Illinois, writes to the mayor of Ann Arbor making inquiries concerning the whereabouts of her sister, Margaret Riley or O'Reilly. Mrs. Downing states that Margaret Riley came to Ann Arbor, when five years old, from a place called the Crosses of Robins, town Navan, County Meath, Ireland, with her grandfather who was a stone mason and who engaged in business in Ann Arbor. This was forty-five years ago. Mrs. Downing with three other sisters went to Leeds, England, and lost trace of her sister. If any of our readers remember the family and can give any information concerning their whereabouts, they may lead to the reunion of two sisters. The address of Mrs. Downing can be obtained at the ARGUS office, and we should be pleased to hear from any reader who remembers anything concerning the family.

Didn't Know Turkey.

They tell a good story on one of our well known grocers. When he was around taking orders last week, he told the lady of the house, that he had a very fine young turkey he could send her. She said she was in the habit of looking at turkeys before purchasing, but as he assured her the turkey was a very fine one, both young and tender, she concluded to take it. The "turkey" arrived in good season and turned out to be a hen well advanced in years, which, after some hours parboiling before roasting, was finally placed upon the table. The next day the grocer's man appeared for further orders. "What was it you brought here yesterday?" asked the lady, "Why a young turkey?" and in spite of her claim that it was a hen he stuck to the assertion until the wishbone was produced which settled the dispute. Some one had palmed off a patriarchal hen on the grocer, who is waiting for that somebody with blood in his eye.

Another Parrot Story.

Do parrots think? Let the reader of the following decide for himself. Many years ago a lady well known in this city was the owner of a fine one whose favorite perch was a dead branch of an old plum tree, where hidden among the leaves he seemed to amuse himself by laughing at the passers by, causing them to look about in vain for the person who was ridiculing them; calling "co-boss, co-boss" for an invisible cow to come home, etc. One day a lady passing by with a friend, a stranger in the city, said to Mrs. —, who was in the yard, "I wish you would make the parrot talk"—before she could reply his birdship said "I won't do it!" Mrs. — turned to him and said "You won't eh?" "No! I'll mind my own business!" was his quick and sharp response; which of course ended the interview. This was a pious parrot, that often quoted scripture, and has since lived next door to a profane one, and the interchange of opinion was highly amusing and wonderful.

Sudden Death of an Ann Arbor Boy.

Says the Chicago Inter-Ocean of Monday last.

Fred Proctor, a carpenter, 30 years of age, came to this city from Ann Arbor, Mich., three months ago. At a few minutes before 7 o'clock last evening he stepped into a little eating house, at 82 South Western avenue, and ordered a cup of coffee. He took one sip of the coffee and sank back in his chair apparently lifeless. The patrol wagon from the West Madison Street Station was called, and Proctor was first conveyed to the station, a block distant, where Dr. Falls was called to attend him. He died, it is thought, while in the wagon on the way to the station. Dr. Falls said the man died from heart disease. His body was taken to the Morgue. Proctor had been in the employ of P. D. Armour & Co.

The remains were brought to this city for burial, the funeral services being held Wednesday from his father's residence on Geddes avenue.

The New D. K. E. Building.

Charles Moore in Haphazard in the Detroit Journal contains the following description of the new D. K. E. building in process of erection in this city.

Among the various fraternity buildings are various fine structures; but the D. K. E. building, now fast approaching completion, is by all odds the handsomest one of its class. The stone is laid in dark mortar, and each stone goes into the building preserving the shape it had when taken from the field. The building is thus made to look like a pile of stones roughly framed into a house.

The building has a wide hall with a parlor on one side, a library on the other, a dining room behind the library and the house keeper's rooms behind the parlor, with solid walls between in order that the housekeeper's rest may not be disturbed by any noises that may chance to occur in the main part of the house. Up stairs are the rooms for the upper classmen who are Dekes. It is not considered advisable to allow freshmen the luxury of living in the fraternity house, because their habits of study have not been formed and they might find the arm chairs too comfortable and the views from the windows too alluring.

At present the D. K. E. boys are quartered in a frame house in the rear of their new building, where they enjoy a good table and have plenty of fun in their own way. A piano in the living room, with plenty of college song books scattered about, suggests social evenings.

Not a Lengthy Meeting.

The common council held an adjourned session last Monday evening, at which they finished up the November business. Petitions were presented from State street merchants asking for permission to cover their wooden out-buildings. They were given permission to encase them with brick walls four inches thick and cover the roofs with metal. J. D. Baldwin and J. Sheehan were given permission to erect brick sheds fourteen by nineteen, with walls eight inches thick and doors and roofs covered with metal. A fire alarm caused a recess of ten minutes so that the captain of protection hose company and the chairman of the fire department could attend the fire. As the sixth ward didn't extend miles enough in the direction of Ypsilanti, the aldermen soon returned.

The city attorney was instructed to get the deeds of the lots necessary to open Second street through from West Jefferson to Madison streets, which had been promised in case the street would be opened. The street was declared open.

City Engineer, J. B. Davis, who was present, described to the council his survey of the new road running along the bluffs in the fifth ward. His grades had followed the surface of the ground as much as possible, and he thought the road might be made at an expense of $1500 to $2,000 with a grade at no place steeper than ten feet in a hundred. It is not the intention to complete the road this year, but only to work on it as the means of the city would permit. When completed it will give the prettiest views of any road in the city. It will also open a number of eligible building lots with fine outlooks.

As no business was pressing upon the council, it then adjourned.

German in Five Weeks.

A rare opportunity is offered our citizens for acquiring a practical knowledge of the German language in speaking, reading, writing, and the ability to think in German. "Language is the expression of thought," therefore Professor Haupt, author of "Haupt's Natural German Method," insists on teaching German in German, not allowing a word in any other language than the one being learned. In order that all may have the opportunity to hear Dr. Haupt, he lectures at 10 a. m. 7 and 8 p. m. next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday in the Ladies Library, to which the intelligent public is cordially invited. All wishing to know this more and more useful language for business purposes, or as an accomplishment, should attend one of these lectures, explanatory of Haupt's method which has been favorably received in all the larger cities of our country.

Bishop T. U. Dudley, Diocese of Kentucky, says: "I have attended Prof. Haupt's five weeks' course and am amazed at the results."

Mrs. H. C. Springer writes at the close of the course in Buffalo: "I never studied German previous to taking your five weeks' course. I can now talk with Germans an hour at a time without using a word of English. To me it is wonderful."

All wishing to take Professor Haupt's course should register on the above days.

She Sues for $25,000.

Mrs. A. Terry is striving through the medium of the circuit court to mulct Thomas F. Hill to the tune of $25,000. The suit was brought by summons for trespass understood to be assault. The circumstances out of which the suit grows are about as follows. Mrs. Terry has been having considerable trouble with her neighbors on both sides and with the city concerning the lines of her lots, her understanding of where her lot begins and where it ends differing from the understanding of the city engineer and others. For some time she has been endeavoring by various acts to show an ownership in land owned by Mrs. Hill, such as driving stakes in the lawn, etc. culminating in building a small embankment, as is claimed two feet or so over the line. After she had put the gravel on, Mr. Hill went out with a shovel and shoveled it off. She came out with a large pan which she filled with earth to again build up the embankment. Mr. Hill told her not to put it on his land, when she attempted to throw the gravel in the pan in his face. He warned it off by striking the pan with his shovel in such a manner that the pan was sent into the street, the gravel going over his shoulder. Mrs. Terry didn't let go of the pan quickly and came near falling to the ground in consequence. She went for a shovel to shovel the earth back that Mr. Hill was shoveling on. He shoveled one way and she the other for a minute, when the ridiculous business of the whole affair caused him to get in the house. The mound was built up and Mrs. Terry commenced the $20,000 suit for damages. When the case comes up for trial there will be fun in court.

Bressler Arrested.

About three years ago A. L. Bressler, son of the Detroit millionaire, went to Germany for pleasure and to study the army. Prior to his trip he attended the law school at Ann Arbor and dabbled somewhat in journalism both in Ann Arbor and Detroit. He took with him abroad a letter of introduction to United States Minister Pendleton at Berlin, and also a letter from the secretary of war, attesting that Bressler was interested in army matters. While in Ann Arbor he joined the state militia and was elected a second lieutenant in Co. A. He procured two or three uniforms of his rank and word came back that he was cutting quite a swath in German army circles with his fine military clothes and bearing, the generous display of wealth, and the letters he had with him from prominent government officials and citizens of the United States.

It was understood in Detroit that Mr. Bressler, sr., allowed his son $200 a month for the expenses of his foreign trip; also that young Bressler was engaged in writing a book on military affairs. The report from Munich that he has been arrested there for making false representations and neglecting to pay divers bills is a great surprise, not only to the members of his family, but to all his acquaintances, and furthermore the charge is not believed. Certainly the story about him having resorted to doubtful methods to "raise the wind" should be taken with very much allowance, considering the total absence of any necessity on his part, so far as known, to do anything of the sort. If his allowance of $200 per month was insufficient for any purpose he could easily have obtained an increase for the asking, his indulgent father never having refused any reasonable request.

During Mr. Bressler's absence he has been in continued communication with his people here. His letters have contained rather glowing accounts of the way he was being lionized, and in proof of this a large number of invitations received by him from nobles and other big bugs have been sent home for his folks to see. C. T. Bressler, the father, sailed for Germany last week, is now on the ocean, and has not yet learned of his son's predicament.—Detroit Journal.

The statement that Bressler was a Lieut. in Co. A is untrue. He had an itching for military honors but did not attain them. He was in the University for six years.

An Interesting Will Contest.

An interesting will contest was begun in the probate court this week. Some years ago, James Clancy who resided on the old Taylor farm north of the city, sold the farm for $100 an acre and moved to Paw Paw, where he increased in wealth, besides inheriting $40,000. He died leaving a will which made a son and a lawyer named Breck, of Paw Paw, executors. This will eventually divide the property equally among the heirs but they contest the validity of it, and are striving to get the property out of Breck's hands. Edward Duffy of this city was appointed special administrator. The will was offered before Judge Harriman this week for probating. The validity of the will is denied by Mrs. Clancy on the ground that Mr. Clancy was incompetent at the time of making it. She is represented by Sawyer & Knowlton and J. F. Lawrence, while Mills & Osborne, of Kalamazoo, appeared on behalf of Breck. Breck set up a copy of a will made four years ago, which had been destroyed, claiming that if Mr. Clancy was incompetent to make a will, he was also incompetent to destroy one. These are the legal points. The two wills are not materially different, both making Breck an executor and putting the property in his hands for a long period of time. He drafted both wills. The last will divides sixty per cent of the property equally among the heirs at the time the youngest child arrives of age, and the executors then hold the balance of the property to do with as they please until a year after the death of the widow, who is comparatively a young woman yet. Under the will Breck would be relieved from strict accounting. The will provides that if any attempt is made to contest the will, the heir so contesting shall lose his or her inheritance. All the heirs under the will are agreed in endeavoring to get the property out of Breck's hands and we have the peculiar situation of one executor fighting for the validity of a will, which the other executor and all the beneficiaries under the will deny. The estate is worth about $100,000.

Hustling for the Saline Postoffice.

It is said that some tall hustling is going on over in Saline to supplant John Gillen as postmaster. If the hustlers can hustle as Gillen can, when need requires it, then indeed will politics be lively over in Saline. First among the applicants for the postoffice is R. H. Marsh, secretary of the republican county committee, who put up the money for some of the big republican bugs and won some wagers from the poor democrats. He, it is said holds a mortgage on the place, claiming a promise from the redoubtable Capt. Allen, upon whose head the crown of success will be made to rest uneasily by applicants for postoffices. Then there is J. H. Bortle, a prominent G. A. R. man, who devoted himself to bringing the Saline Post into politics and pulling the boys in line for Garrison. He claims his reward. Then there is E. R. Aldrich, prominent republican and hustler on general principles. He has hustled so long and so strong for the party that he might at least have a postoffice. Then cometh Sam Van Duzer, who has returned to the republican party bringing many of his prohibition friends with him, a vote making process, the good effect of which was shown by the Saline returns. If the republicans wish to swallow the prohibition party, they have now a chance to show it. Sam Josenhans ought not to be left out of the list. He is after the office and his friends for him. He is a German republican and surely the Germans have a right to be recognized once in a while. John McKinnon would make a good postmaster but that isn't saying that he is going to be—not by a long shot, or in other words not if Marsh, Booth, Van Duzer and the rest of them can help it. Perhaps they can't—who knows? W. H. Smith, an old soldier, who gets a $24 pension for the loss of an eye, in a blacksmith shop, its said, is on deck for the office. He is a nursery agent and hence is versed in the kind of cheek needed by an office seeker. Here's a fine chance for Mr. Allen to recognize the old soldiers. We must not leave Howard Nichols out of account. He has a drug store in a location, that, they say, is all right, has money to loan and can hustle for the party at a lively rate. Then there is G. B. Mason, postmaster for twenty-four years. We don't know as he is after it, but he ought to be, for Saline was suited with his administration. If the republicans want to recognize their new found allies among the democrats, now's their time. For is not Oscar Briggs ready and willing to accept the honor if it be thrust upon him?

Donations Wanted.

The sewing school will meet Saturday, November 17, over Mr. Cropsey's store. All children interested in this free school are invited to be present. It is hoped the people of Ann Arbor will help us to carry on the school successfully and to do this we will need money and teachers.

Donations of any kind gratefully received.

COUNTY.

Ypsilanti has a registration of 1414. Whooping cough lingers about Clinton.

Dr. Holmes has removed from Stony Creek to Saline.

About $2,000 was lost and won in Saline on the recent election.

Charles Stoner, of Bridgewater, has given up his meat market in Clinton.

Charles Clark, of Clinton, raised 40,000 cabbage heads on nine acres this year.

A "Sweet Home" entertainment was given in Smith's hall in Saline, last evening.

Whaley & Son, of Milan, are filling a thousand wooden pails with apple butter.

Samuel Casey, of Superior, died October 28th, in the eighty-sixth year of his age.

G. J. Nissly, of Saline, has shipped four carloads of chickens to New York this year.

Thomas Byron, of South Lyon, was severely injured by a log rolling on him last week.

Mrs. Julia Porter died of old age in Manchester, November 6. She was eighty years old.

Miss May Champion, daughter John Champion, of near Ypsilanti, died Nov. 4, of a congestive chill.

There are eighteen scholars attending school in District No. 7 of Sylvan, and twelve in District No. 10.

Mrs. Mary Rodger died in Green Oak, November 3, from the cancer from which she had suffered many years.

Rev. Mr. Richmond, formerly of Ypsilanti has been called to the pastorate of a Presbyterian church in Detroit.

Editor Smith, of the Ypsilantian, is taking a two week's vacation which he is spending in Missouri and Illinois.

A little son of Otis Cushing, of Webster, was recently injured by two wheels of a wagon passing over his body.

Joseph Lotharius and Miss Viola A. Hoffman, of Ypsilanti, were made one last Thursday by Rev. J. Venning.

Dr. John Gauntlett, who left York a year or two ago to practice in Walton, Kansas, has returned and will locate in Blissfield.

The Clinton Local don't believe in killing skunks. Possibly Blosser has some unsavory memories of an occasion of that kind.

Stephen Stocking died in Chelsea, Nov. 4, aged seventy years. The funeral services were held on Wednesday of last week.

Mathew Zinser and Miss Mary Richardson, both of Lima, were made Mr. and Mrs. Zinser, Nov. 5, by Rev. Henry Voelker.

Four Dexter nimrods, according to the Dexter Leader, one day last week, bagged 69 birds, 2 woodchucks, 84 partridges, 33 quail and 3 rabbits.

A wedding occurred in Lima, the day before election, when Matthew Zinser and Miss Maria Richardson were made man and wife by Rev. H. Voelker.

Michael Hoy, of Chicago, and Miss Marion Gallagher, of Webster, were married in St. Joseph's church, Dexter, November 7, by Rev. Fr. Loughran.

W. E. Boyden, of Delhi Mills, attended a sale of blooded shorthorns in Jackson last week and paid $105 for a six year old cow and $95 for a two year old heifer.

The Enterprise of Manchester offers a year's subscription for a bona fide case where a Michigan girl has proposed marriage this year. This is leap year but Blosser don't believe that the girl's propose.

Henry Hayes, of Dexter, and Miss Ella Johnson, of North Lake, were united by Rev. Dr. S. H. Adams in Dexter on Wednesday, November 7. Mr. and Mrs. Hayes have the hearty congratulation of friends.

The Ypsilantian gives as a reason why it did not bid on the supervisor's proceedings that it did not care to make a charitable contribution to the county, and the Ypsilantian is right. The ARGUS would have lost money had its figures on the work been taken, and the Register must lose about $10 more.

Among the election bets paid in this county was one made by Mr. Demosh, of Ypsilanti, who according to an agreement, drew Mr. Quimby, of Boston, in a road cart around the principal square of Ypsilanti. The cart was decorated with stars and stripes. Mr. Quimby sat erect in triumph, bearing emblems of victory, while Mr. Demosh was dressed in deep mourning.

The board of Supervisors last week accepted the bid of the Ann Arbor Register to print the proceedings of the Board and 1,500 pamphlets, for $9.50. This is not over half of what the job is worth. Just why the Ann Arbor papers continue year after year to make the county a present of about $100 in this one matter, is something of a mystery.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

The Dundee gas well was down 1,400 feet Tuesday and rapidly going Chinward. The Dundee people will soon find out whether they are to have natural gas or not. The Nogar well which was bored last year to the depth of 2,200 feet and then suddenly closed, is currently believed to have been a good oil well, purchased and closed by the Standard Oil Company. If this be true, the Standard Oil Company may soon have the privilege of purchasing another well.

The Southern Washtenaw Farmer's club met at J. P. Lapham's November 3. There was a large exhibit of fruit and farm products and a big dinner. President Merrithew didn't think fall plowing for corn advisable. J. G. English had never succeeded in finding an ear of corn with an odd number of rows. Prof. G. W. Loomis thought the present system of county superintendency of schools preferable to town superintendency. R. B. Green thought farming lands in Southern Michigan would never be lower than now. B. G. English attributed his success in grass sowing to an annual application of plaster on his land and the destruction of weeds. He sowed clover seed as early in the spring as possible. J. G. English spoke strongly for woman's suffrage.

Milan.

Mrs. Hearn is very ill this week. Mrs. Blinn is on the sick list this week.

Mr. Dexter, of Ypsilanti, visited Milan Monday.

Mrs. Paterson left for Grand Rapids Monday afternoon.

Election is over and some are poorer, weaker and wiser.

F. Leonard was home from Williamston the first of the week.

Mrs. McGregor is enjoying the mysteries of the chill and fever period.

Mrs. O. E. Hawkins, of Saline, is the guests of her mother, Mrs. Crolius this week.

Miss Menzie and Miss Peckham return to their home in the east the last of the week.

The Bible day exercises at the Baptist church Sunday evening, were very interesting.

C. M. Fuller, of Ann Arbor, came down to attend Charles Moore's funeral Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calkins, of Weston, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Chapin, Monday.

Quite a goodly number of sick people in Milan greatly to the benefit of the medical profession.

Business is lively in Milan. Farmers are marketing their produce, notwithstanding the rain and wind.

A large party of Milanites will take advantage of the excursion rates to attend the Art Museum in Detroit.

The Baptist social at J. C. Rouse's residence Wednesday evening was a very pleasant event and there were a large number of people out.

Friday evening Mrs. Pyle gave a select party in honor of her sister, Miss Menzie and her friend Miss Peckham, of Niagara, N. Y.

A republican ratification meeting was held Monday evening greatly to the enjoyment of the young people. The banners were quite good and the spelling of some very bad.

Charles Moore, one of our most genial merchants, died last Friday evening after a week's illness. He leaves a wife and three children and a large circle of friends to mourn his loss. He was buried Monday afternoon, the I. O. O. F., of Milan, taking charge of the funeral. The remains were taken to Stony Creek for interment.

Saline.

Mrs. Hawkins is visiting at her daughter's in Deerfield.

The republicans are preparing for a big blow out in the near future.

Mrs. Robinson, one of the oldest pioneers of Saline is very sick.

John Ottmer who has been very sick with typhoid fever is on the mend.

Thomas Spears, one of Saline's old soldiers, is sick and not expected to recover.

It is reported that the owner of the Observer is about disposing of his business here.

Dr. H. A. Nichols and John H. Bortle, started last Monday on a hunting excursion up in the north woods.

Daniel Reeves harvested five thousand bushels of corn this fall. Is there a farmer hereabouts that can beat that.

Dennis & Glover our live merchants, are making six of their little daisy engines. They are already contracted for.

It would not be surprising if Saline should have four or five new post masters, if the hurry for names to petitions indicate anything. Don't be in a hurry boys to step into John's old shoes. I am afraid they would not fit you he has worn them too well the last four years to make them an easy fit for you.

The democrats hereabouts are preparing their boats to go up Salt river. They will keep them in good repairs to sail back in four years.

C. M. Fellows, of Sharon, has rented his farm and will on Tuesday November 27th sell at auction his personal property including horses, cows and ninety head of pure bred merino sheep.

Worth Knowing.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold attended with a distressing cough and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures, as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it.—Trial bottle free at Eberbach & Son's Drug Store.

Lodi.

The following are the names of scholars in district number 2, Lodi, who have not been absent or tardy the past month. Minnie and Johnny Drislane, Bertha Otto and Herman Laubengayer, Sammie, Amanda, Carrie, Henry, Robert and Lydia Jedele, Herman Enos, Christian and Katie Hirth. Those marked with a star have been tardy. The number of scholars was 15. The number absent during the month was one and the cause sickness.

Chelsea.

All farm produce is dull and lower.

Business has been very dull here since the election.

Get your turkey ready for the 29th of this month.

The apple evaporators will get through work this month.

Some buckwheat has been bought here at 72 cents per bushel.

There has been very little wheat here the past week at $1.05.

The ladies of the M. E. church have an art loan at the town hall next week.

Prof. Snyder organized a singing class among our young people last Tuesday night.

The democrats here take their late Waterloo very quietly and philosophically.

Five car loads of onions have been shipped from here and there is one more to go.

The ladies of the Congregational church have a fair at the town hall the first week in next month.

There is a great amount of corn yet to husk in this vicinity and there will probably be some cold fingers before it is done.

A large amount of money changed hands here in bets on the result of the late election. The fool killer is sadly needed here.

The band and a large number of people from here with torches and banners went to Ann Arbor Tuesday night to the republican celebration of their victory.

A colored boy, from Atlanta, entertained the boys on the street Tuesday night, singing, dancing and imitating thirty-five different birds with his whistle.

The republican triumph is the victory of the trusts, the monopolies, the corporations the syndicates and personal liberty as understood by the liquor dealers. It means no relief or protection for the farmer or any other laboring man.

The Republican blow out here last Saturday night was slimly attended on account of the rain. Captain Allen made some appropriate remarks but did not explain the barbers and trades that got them New York.

Jon Jackson, a pioneer in Unadilla, but more lately of Pinckney, died very suddenly last Saturday night at his residence in that village of something like apoplexy. He was over eighty years of age and leaves a wife and three sons and four daughters to mourn his loss. He was an excellent citizen and a kind husband and father and will be much missed by the family and the community.

Willis.

Quite a number of the friends and relatives of Charles Moore went to Milan last Monday to attend his funeral. Mr. Moore formerly lived near Ypsilanti.

Winter term of the Morgan school begins next Monday with Miss Crittenden, of Macon, as teacher.

D. Russell hired a number of men and teams and drew the brick last Friday to build a coal-kiln. He is also about ready to stock up his new store.

Mrs. Lydia Butts, of this place, has gone to London, Monroe county to visit her son.

The Lady Godiva must have had exceptionally long hair since it completely concealed her lovely person. Since Aver's Hair Vigor came into use such examples are not so rare as formerly. It not only promotes the growth of the hair, but gives it rich silken texture.

Catarrh

May affect any portion of the body where the mucous membrane is found. But catarrh of the head is by far the most common, and the most liable to be neglected. It cannot be cured by local applications. Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, working through the blood, eradicates the impurity which causes and promotes the catarrh, and soon effects a permanent cure. At the same time Hood's Sarsaparilla builds up the whole system, and makes one feel renewed in strength and health. If you suffer from catarrh, be sure to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"I used Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and received great relief and benefit from it. The catarrh was very disagreeable, especially in the winter, causing constant discharge from my nose, ringing noises in my ears, and pains in the back of my head. The effort to clear my head in the morning by hawking and spitting was painful. Hood's Sarsaparilla gave me relief immediately, while in time I was entirely cured. I am never without the medicine in my house as I think it is worth its weight in gold."

Mrs. G. B. Gibb, 1029 Eighth St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

"I was troubled with that annoying disease, nasal catarrh, and never found relief till I took Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. L. ROBERT, Marksburg, Ky.

Renews Her Youth.

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley, Peterson, Clay Co., Iowa, tells the following remarkable story, the truth of which is vouched for by the residence of the town: "I am 73 years old, have been troubled with kidney complaint and lameness for many years; could not dress myself without help. Now I am free from all pain and soreness, and am able to do all my own housework. I owe my thanks to Electric Butters for having renewed my youth, and removed completely all disease and pain." Wheat has greatly improved in appearance during the past two or three weeks but needs several weeks of mild weather yet to insure it against the coming winter.

Our cider men, Fiegel and Araz, are still pressing out that good temperance drink, cider. Poor humanity it seems must have something to drink occasionally and cider is better than any worse drink.

Our onion men feel bad at present! The tearful bulb makes them weep in more ways than one; too cheap, that is the trouble but those who buy onions feel better.

Boils, carbuncles and other skin eruptions indicate that the system is endeavoring to reject poisonous acids, and that Ayer's Sarsaparilla is imperatively needed. It is the most reliable of all blood medicines. Ask your druggist for it, and take no other.

"Well, my young gentleman, and how would you like your hair cut?" "Oh, like papa's please—with a little round hole in the top."

Barber (suavely): "Does this razor shave well, sir?" Customer (with considerable irritation): "Well enough, but you don't."

"I wonder Grimes has any friends—His manner grows so surly; No matter where we chance to meet, Or whether late or early, 'Tis just the same; he cannot stay. And barely answer a 'good-day.'"

Now this is a bad case of misconception. It is not Grimes' disposition which is at fault, but his liver. He can't appear jolly when he feels miserable. If he would take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great liver, stomach and bowel regulator, he would soon be the same happy fellow as of old—agreeable to himself and the world generally.

$500 Reward. The former proprietor of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, for years made a standing, public offer in all newspapers of $500 reward for a case of catarrh that he could not cure. The present proprietors have renewed this offer. All druggists sell this Remedy together with the "Douche," and all other appliances advised to be used in connection with it. No catarrh patient is longer able to say, "I cannot be cured." You get $500 in case of failure.

One Fact. Is worth a column of rhetoric, said an American statesman. It is a fact, established by the testimony of thousands of people, that Hood's Sarsaparilla does cure scrofula, salt rheum, and other diseases or affections arising from impure state or low condition of the blood. It also overcomes that tired feeling, creates a good appetite, and gives strength to every part of the system. Try it.

$40,000 Lost. "I lost forty thousand dollars by a periodical attack of nervous sick headache," said a Chicago capitalist to a correspondent, pointing across the street to a corner lot. "That lot was sold for ten thousand dollars at public auction five years ago, and I intended to buy it, but was too sick with the headache to attend the sale, and it is now worth fifty thousand dollars." If he had known of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets they would have removed the cause of his headaches—biliousness—and he would have made the money. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets cure sick headache, bilious headache, dizziness, constipation, indigestion, and bilious attacks, 25 cents a vial by druggists.

The Whitechapel Butcher Described to the Police

BY A MAN WHO SAW HIS FACE

And Followed Him and His Last Victim to Her Room—Menacing Letters Received by Judge and Counsel in the Parnell Case—The Times Documents to be Produced—Further Testimony—Carl Schurz Banquetted—French and German News Items.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Justice Hannen, Sir John Day, and Sir A. L. Smith were promptly on hand to preside at the session of the Parnell commission yesterday. Justice Hannen said the court had decided to admit all of The Times' documents, even those which the paper's solicitor had thought to be spurious, in order to assist them in their search for the truth.

Sir Charles Russell stated to the court that he had received menacing letters in consequence of his connection with the proceedings before the commission. Justice Hannen replied that he also had received threatening letters, as probably had other persons interested in the case.

The examination of witnesses was then resumed, Edward Flannigan testifying that he was present at meetings held in Pittsburg and New York. The late Stephen J. Meany presided and collected funds for the purpose of buying fire arms for use in Ireland.

James Mannion deposed that both Fenians and Leaguers had taken part in outrages and moonlighting. All of the moonlighters he knew were members of the league.

Peter Flaherty, of Galway, testified that he was not ashamed to confess that he had often engaged in moonlighting. Moreover, he said, he was ready to perform the same duty again.

A CLUE TO THE FIEND.

London Police Get a Description of the Supposed Whitechapel Butcher.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—The hopes of the police of catching the Whitechapel murderer, which had almost entirely died out, were raised to the acme of buoyancy yesterday in consequence of the testimony at the Kelly inquest of George Hutchinson, a groom, who had known the victim for some years, and who saw her with a male companion shortly before 2 o'clock on the morning of the murder. Hutchinson testified that he saw a well-dressed man with a Jewish cast of countenance accost the woman on the street at the hour mentioned on Friday morning, and the circumstances of his acquaintance with her induced him to follow the pair as they walked together. He looked straight into the man's face as he turned to accompany the woman, and followed them to Miller court, out of mere curiosity. He had no thought of the previous murders, and certainly no suspicion that the man contemplated violence, since his conspicuous manifestations of affection for his companion as they walked along formed a large part of the incentive to keep them in sight. After the couple entered the house Hutchinson heard sounds of merriment in the girl's room and remained at the entrance to the court for fully three-quarters of an hour. About 3 o'clock the sounds ceased and he walked into the court, but finding that the light in the room had been extinguished he went home. During the hour occupied in standing at the entrance to, or promenaing the court, he did not see a policeman.

There is every reason to believe Hutchinson's statement, and the police place great reliance upon his description of the man, believing that it will enable them to run him down.

France and the Vatican.

PARIS, Nov. 14.—In the chamber of deputies yesterday an amendment to the foreign budget was introduced, abandoning the French embassy at the Vatican. M. Goblet opposed the amendment, saying it was necessary to maintain diplomatic relations with the vatican for the training of clergy, appointing of bishops and cardinals, etc. Moreover, rival powers dispute the French protectorate over certain eastern countries, and the friendship of the pope is therefore precious. France, he said, had no intention, however remote, to intervene to restore the pope's temporal power, but the more the pope was deprived of power the more France ought to honor him. The amendment was rejected by a vote of 307 to 217, and the budget approved.

Farewell Banquet to Carl Schurz.

HAMBURG, Nov. 14.—A grand farewell banquet was given yesterday to Mr. Carl Schurz on the occasion of his departure from Hamburg for the United States. CATARRH. Catarrhal Deafness, Hay Fever—A New Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the lining membranes of the nose and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N.B.—For Catarrhal discharges peculiar to females (whites) this remedy is a specific. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. DIXON & SON, 303 West King St., Toronto, Canada.—Scientific American.

Sufferers from catarrhal troubles should read the above carefully.

There is at least one oasis in the Sahara of defeat. Now that the official returns are in, it will be clearly seen that the republicans have nothing specially to crow over in Washtenaw county. Let us compare the majorities with previous presidential years. Four years ago the democrats and greenbackers fused on electors. It will be remembered that there was one democratic elector who was not on the greenback ticket and one greenback elector that was not on the democratic ticket. The vote in this county stood Cleveland 4,983, Butler 332, Blaine 4050, St. John 619. The plurality of the democratic elector over the Blaine elector was 933. It will take over nine hundred years at this rate of gain for the republicans to revolutionize this county. This year the Butler vote has gone back to the parties from which it came, and many prohibitionists have returned to the republican fold. Four years ago the democratic coroners had 703 plurality. This year they have 927. The lowest candidate on the democratic ticket is 1121 better off in plurality than the lowest candidate on the democratic ticket four years ago. Let us go back farther. In 1872, the republicans carried this county for Grant by 1076 plurality. In 1876, Tilden carried it by 548. In 1880 Hancock's plurality was only 329. Certainly the democrats have no need to be ashamed of their showing this year. Cleveland's in this county this year is 498 larger than it was in 1884 and 175 larger than the combined Cleveland and Butler vote of 1884. Harrison's vote is 490 larger than Blaine's while Fiske's is 77 less than St. Johns and 272 less than Dickie's two years ago.

MICHIGAN has five hundred and thirty weekly newspapers, six semi-weekly, two tri-weekly and forty-four daily papers. They are published in 304 towns. There are as many weeklies published in this state as are published in Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Maryland. There are only twelve less weeklies published in Michigan than in all the Canadian provinces put together. It will be seen that our people are a reading people.

WE DON'T always agree with the Detroit Evening News but we must say for it, that its chief editorial writer handles a quill unequalled in Michigan. We often differ from his conclusions and we would like it better, if he could say some things before election, which he says afterward. Since the News has endeavored to lift itself from the sensationalism which at one time disgraced it, it has become a real, live and spicy newspaper and one which is always read with interest. It keeps up with the times.

CAPT. ALLEN has now run three times for congress. He is a popular man and given to running well in his own county. But every time he runs he gets fewer democratic votes in this county, although he still seems to have a hold on the prohibition electors. Now for the figures to prove this assertion. Four years ago Eldridge had 241 less votes than the Cleveland-Butler electors in this county. Two years ago Salisbury had 199 less votes than Yale and this year Stearns has only 74 less votes than Cleveland. Every time Allen has run, the prohibition candidate for congress has fallen far below his party vote.

THE DETROIT Journal is a usually a well informed journal, but it exposed a vast deal of ignorance Tuesday evening in discussing politics in this city. Said the Journal: "There lived in Ann Arbor a number of old-time veterans in the cause, whose services in the past have been valuable, and who gave time and money while the state's dispenser of democratic patronage wore swaddling clothes. They and their friends could not help but dislike the situation, and gave vent to their feelings by a silent vote; which vote disappoints the enemy."

The text for these observations is the fact that Washtenaw didn't give the democratic ticket a majority of 2000. If the Journal man had been posted in Ann Arbor politics, he would know that it is but a very short time since Ann Arbor was regarded as a republican city. In fact, in 1884 when Cleveland barely carried the city, it was regarded as a great achievement. This year Cleveland carried the city by 97, a substantial increase over four years ago, and in spite of the desperate efforts of the republican leaders, who had raised quite a pool of money for work in the city on election day. If the same ratio of gain had been kept up throughout the state, Michigan would have been democratic by over 10,000. The "old time veterans" of whom the Journal speaks didn't express any disapproval of Cleveland by a silent vote in this city. In fact many of them did most excellent service for him. The tale that the Journal would unfold is one built only in the imagination of some member of the Journal staff.

The republicans are already boasting of their ability to carry the country four years hence. Four years is a long way off and there will be many quarrels over the offices in the meantime. The following from the Lansing Journal shows that the republicans are not too sure of the country in 1892, especially as a change of one or two votes in each election district of the doubtful states will make them democratic:

The Detroit News says that if the republicans control the next House they will admit North and South Dakota, Washington, Wyoming and Idaho, which will give them ten additional United States Senators and about 25 additional members of the House. It is not so certain that the republicans will be in a hurry to admit Wyoming and Washington, which are democratically inclined territories. They will probably erect North and South Dakota and Idaho into States, which will give them six new Senators and perhaps eight new Representatives. That will make a total of 14 additional republican votes in the electoral college. This will not be sufficient to insure the perpetuation of republican power provided the democrats can carry the solid South and New Jersey, Connecticut, New York and Indiana in 1892. The present number of electoral votes is 401. The 14 additional would make the whole number 415, necessitating the securing of 208 votes in order to elect. Cleveland obtained 219 electoral votes in 1884 or 11 more than would be necessary if the three republican territories were admitted. There is certainly nothing in the situation to justify the News' dolorous predictions regarding the future of democracy. That glorious old rock-ribbed organization, undaunted and hopeful even in this dismal November day, shall yet behold a new morn on its mid-day risen. It was beaten much more badly in 1880 and yet it came up smiling in 1884 and collared the prize. That is what it will do in 1892.

"My Story of the War."

In this new and superbly illustrated work of 700 pages the world-famous Mary A. Livermore narrates her personal work and experiences as a hospital and field nurse during the war of rebellion. Mrs. Livermore spent four years as a nurse in hospitals, camps, at the front and on the battle-field, and these four years were packed with pathos, glory and sacrifice probably never paralleled in the life of any other woman. Her narrative presents a vivid inner picture of the womanly side of the war, more especially of her own work and thrilling experiences, with many pathetic and humorous incidents portraying the lights and shadows of hospital life. These are described as only an eye-witness and a tender-hearted woman could describe them.

It lifts the curtain and shows how heroic and devoted and blessed woman's work was. It is full of the deepest pathos, the richest humor, the most touching tales, the most stirring anecdotes and incidents, and through the whole runs the story of the adventures and striking experiences of its illustrious author. Stranger stories are here told than romance ever dreamed of, every one of them drawn from real life by a woman's hand. In every chapter she weaves in anecdote after anecdote, incident after incident, story after story, and the reader's attention is held breathless to the end of the volume.

But the illustrations! An able critic recently said: "This is the most richly embellished work ever published in America." There are splendid steel-plate portraits of famous nurses of Union soldiers, and many plates illustrating hospital scenes and thrilling incidents in a woman's army life. There are also splendid fac simile plates of famous old battle-flags, from photographs and paintings made from the original flags, printed in sixteen colors from one hundred and twenty-eight engraved stones. They show all the colors, tints, blood-stains, rents, shot-holes and splintered staves, exactly as they appear in the original flags.

This grand volume has no competitor. It is sold only by agents, and is meeting with an enormous sale. Agents who introduce a work of such sterling merit ought to be cordially welcomed. Put it into your homes. It will be read over and over again by old and young, with increasing pleasure and lasting profit, and will be prized by all.

A Most Remarkable Letter.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 5, '88. DEAR SIR: Before taking your course in German, I could not speak one word, but after five weeks under your tuition I talk for hours to Germans in the language. Germans who know me seem utterly astonished at such a result, some even doubting that I was not familiar with the German language before I came to you. Has been gained entirely under your rapid and unique system in five weeks.

Your Respectfully, ALBERT MORRIS. To Professor Haupt, Masonic Temple. This course of lessons opens in Ladies Library next week Wednesday. To enable all to attend one hour daily, Prof. Haupt gives three hours 10 to 11 a. m. 1 to 2 p. m. and 8 to 9 p. m. No one is required to attend the same hour daily. All are cordially invited to free interesting lectures on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know salt from sugar; read what he says.

Toledo, O., Jan 10, 1887. Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co.—Gentlemen:—I have been in the general practice of medicine for most 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience, have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by you. Have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of Catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly, L. L. Gorsuch, M. D. L. Office 215 Summit St. We will give $100 for any case of Catarrh that cannot be cured with Hall's Catarrh Cure. Taken internally. F. J. Cheney & Co., Props., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists, 75cts.

Bach & Abel.

Weather indications;
The next 4 years probably very chilly.

One Dollar and Twenty-Five cts a yard saved on a reliable Silk Striped Velvet, is like finding money.

Six Pieces Striped Velvet, 75c a yard, the $2 kind. They ought to go flying. The Velvet is below real value. Of course somebody loses money. That somebody is back of us. We simply pass the goods on to you at a small margin. They won't last long.

We are going to make quick work with a large lot of Combination Dress Patterns. Your choice this week, for $10.00. No two patterns the same. Few styles in the window on the left.

As we have a surplus of Stockonett Jackets, just for amusement, we will let a few of them go at $2 each, the $4.00 kind.

Fifty cents a yard to be saved on a Broadcloth, is worth looking out for. We can now put you in the way of doing it. A happening that is not likely soon to come about again. We can this week, give you a 54-inch Broadcloth, at $1.25 a yd. Former price, $1.75.

They say we sell more Horse Blankets than any other house in the city, and yet the counters with these goods are in the basement, and we hardly say a word about them in the papers.

Shrewd Horsemen don't think of buying until they first visit this Basement.

New Hampshire One-Strap Blanket, 80 c.

New Hampshire Two-Strap Blanket, 90 c.

White Plaid Horse Blanket, $1.10.

The "Boss" Horse Blanket, $1.60.

Square Wool Blanket, Strapped, $2 and $3.50.

All Wool Blanket, Strapped, $5 and $6.

What we are doing this week in Dress Goods. You ought to pay some attention to these prices if you think of buying a NEW DRESS.

10 Pieces of 36-inch invisible Checks and Plaids, 37½c; made to sell for 60c.

12 Pieces of Broadcloths in all of the New Shades, at $1; made to sell for $1.25.

25 Combination Suits, one pattern of a kind, at $10, $12 and $14. They are all good styles and at about half price.

25 Pieces ALL WOOL Henriettas, 42 inches wide, 37½c; made to sell for 60c.

10 Pieces Colored Silk Warp Henriettas, at $1; made to sell for $1.25.

8 Pieces FANCY PLAIDS in all of the New Colors, 42 inches wide, $1; made to sell for $1.25.

20 Pieces Fancy Suitings, 54 inches wide, at $1; usual price for these goods, $1.25.

Ladies' Cloths in all colors, 54 inches wide. 60c; usual price, 75c.

A Few Special Bargains this Week in Silks.

20 Pieces of ALL SILK Armures, at $1.10; usual price, $1.40 and $1.50. These are GRAND GOODS TO WEAR.

The best Faile Francaise in America, for $1, you will find on our counters this week. We have but a few pieces and they won't last long. LOOK AT IT.

Our Black Surah, at $1, is a great bargain.

Probably the Best Wearing and Richest Looking Silks when made up are the Pean de Soie. We have a full line of these Silks, and at prices that are as low as in any house of America. Examine the $1.35 and $2 qualities.

It has been some years since the Ann Arbor streets have been muddy for so long a time as they have been of late. The sun was not to be seen last week.

Judge Cooley will address the New York State bar association next January on "The Comparative Merits of Written and Unwritten Constitutions."

There will be music in the air this evening, the J. L. Hudson band at Germania hall and the Boston Symphony Orchestra Club in University hall.

A little daughter of C. M. Vogel fell down stairs Monday some fifteen feet, breaking an arm and badly bruising her. It was a narrow escape from death.

Chas. S. Woodward, formerly of the Cook house and more recently of the Brunswick in Detroit, has assumed the management of Poihemus' livery stable.

Prof. Steere will deliver a lecture at the Methodist church on Monday evening, Nov. 19th, Subject: "His trip to the Philippine Islands." Admission 10 cents.

James Riley was brought before Justice Pond, Friday, by officer Schott charged with being drunk on the streets. He plead guilty and was sent to jail for twenty days.

Six or eight men with teams and all the masons that could be found were at work the first of the week on the new T. & A. A. depot, which will be pushed through to completion.

A. P. Ferguson, the road cart manufacturer, is building a good sized addition to his shop on Detroit street that he may the better meet the growing demand for his road carts.

Justice Pond officiated at a wedding in this city last Saturday, the contracting parties being Martin Alfred, an Augusta farmer, and Miss Lillie Barry, an Ypsilanti school teacher.

Rev. John P. Cleveland, a near relative of President Cleveland, says the Ypsilanti Sentinel, preached a memorial sermon in this city in 1841 on the death of General Harrison.

A barn belonging to Dr. Charles Howell, near this city, burned Monday evening and Dr. Howell's pony was so badly burned that it had to be shot the next morning. There was no insurance.

Mrs. Ann Grandbois, of the third ward, died Monday, from cancer, aged forty-nine years and nine months. The funeral exercises were held Wednesday forenoon, the remains being taken to Lodi.

Edward Taylor was arrested Saturday on a complaint filed before Justice Pond by Andrew J. Scully, charged with assault and battery. He plead guilty and paid fine and costs amounting to $5.85.

Albert Kossler was arrested last Thursday for being drunk on the streets and taken before Justice Pond, where he plead guilty. He paid a fine and costs amounting to $6.20 and was discharged.

The Washtenaw Post has issued its annual almanac for 1889. It is a very neat pamphlet with a large quantity of German reading matter including a poem written by Mr. Dancer, one of the local writers of the Post.

The Tappan hall association has arranged for a series of lectures every Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, in the parlors of the Presbyterian church, by eminent divines. The first lecture is by Dev. Dr. Radcliffe, of Detroit.

The Cadillac State Democrat says that "it is announced that Harry W. Ashley, general manager of the T. & A. A., will in a few weeks be married to the daughter of Wellington R. Burt, late democratic candidate for governor."

Eight coaches filled with East Saginaw and Flushing parties were brought over the new Saginaw road to this city, Monday forenoon, leaving Monday evening to return. The party numbered 350 from East Saginaw and 50 from Flushing.

Patrick Kirk was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Schott for being drunk in the streets and was brought before Justice Pond, Monday. He plead guilty and was fined $3 and $6.20 costs, and in default of paying his fine he will remain in jail twenty days.

The large wagon containing the fireworks for the Ypsilanti republican celebration Wednesday night took fire just as the procession was starting and the fireworks went off all together and not so as to make an advantageous display. The burning wagon was run in the river.

James Reynolds, when brought before Justice Pond Monday, charged with being drunk on the streets, said he was just stopping over and was in a great hurry to get out of town and the state. He was told that after he had spent five days in jail, the quicker he got out of town the better.

It is currently reported that in one town in this county there are no less than thirteen applicants for the post-office already in the field and that in another village there are at least ten. Are there not more of our Republican friends as much entitled to the offices as those already applying?

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, of Boston, will speak at the Unitarian church in this city next Sunday, both morning and evening. Her morning subject will be "Religious Culture". Mr. Sunderland's evening lecture on the "Legends of Genesis", will be postponed a week to give place to Mrs. Howe.

Thomas Condon was arrested Friday on a warrant issued by Justice Pond on a charge of being a disorderly person or in other words of being a common drunkard and tippler. He plead not guilty and his trial was set for this morning. He was unable to give bail and was committed to jail to await trial.

In his sermon on "Ten years in Ann Arbor", published in the November Unitarian. Rev. Dr. Sunderland speaks of the work as follows: "a new church has been erected; a liberal religious library has been created; a parsonage has been built; a monthly magazine has been established, and the parish is without debt."

James Dorathy was before Justice Pond Monday for being a common drunkard. He said he couldn't conscientiously plead guilty to that charge but he acknowledged being drunk on Saturday. He was given twelve days in jail and warned that if he again appeared before the justice, he would get a year in the house of correction.

Wm. Campion, Jr., Wm. Spears, and two tramps named McDermott and Day were caught in Chelsea about midnight Wednesday night just after they had knocked a butcher down and were going through him for his money. The charge against them is highway robbery. They all ran when the marshall put in appearance but a pistol shot brought them to a standstill.

Allen Webb unhitched a horse belonging to Joseph Clay, last Friday, the horse being tied under a shed at the time, and drove away. Webb didn't mean to steal the horse but he had violated the state law and on Tuesday, Justice Frueauff sentenced him to ninety days in the Detroit house of correction. Driving horses one don't own is dangerous business.

Unity Club last Monday evening gave an interesting programme. Prof. de Pont gave a talk on the "Education of French youth," and Mr. Suzuki, one of the Japanese students in the University, one on the "Japanese University," given as they were by these gentlemen well acquainted with their subjects, the audience received much of knowledge and profit. Mr. McOmber gave a very pretty flute solo which drew no small applause from those present.

The Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad is going to build a grand new depot at Ann Arbor, which will take the shine all off the Michigan Central depot at that place.—The Center.

It is reported that the Toledo & Ann Arbor railroad is to build a new depot at Ann Arbor, which will rival, if not surpass, the Michigan Central depot.—Manchester Enterprise

Again we go away from home to learn the news which would if true delight all Ann Arborites. But unfortunately the "grand new depot" will take the shine off only the present old shed known as the Toledo depot and the old rattle trap of a building known as the Lake Shore depot in Manchester.

MICHIGAN STATE NEWS.

Ed Steele, an Alpena railway conductor, receives $3,500 accident insurance for the loss of a leg in a railway smashup.

William Ainsley, the missing Williamston postmaster, has returned, and claims the stories about his regard for another man's wife are false. He took a trip down into Indiana just because he took a notion to do so.

C. P. Farr, a Sanilac county farmer, prides himself on a barley crop that threshed 42 1/2 bushels per acre. If any other Michigan farmer can beat it, Mr. T. would like his post-office address.

John Betts was an inmate of the Montcalm county poorhouse, but became tired of his surroundings and made his escape. Wanderer out into a swamp he got stuck fast, and before he was rescued came near perishing from cold and exposure. John bets high that he'll let well enough alone hereafter.

It is announced that Frank Godfrey, of the state printing house of Thorp & Godfrey, at Lansing, has withdrawn from that firm and will engage in business at Detroit.

J. S. McAllister, a Burton farmer, laid aside 100 bushels of choice wheat for future reference, but some chap came along and relieved him of the pile in a single night.

A Cedar Springs deputy sheriff thought he was making an important haul when he captured a drummer named Brown, supposing him to be Tassot, the Chicago murderer. But he soon discovered his mistake and apologized.

Genesee county has some promising pedagogues. One of them defines cotton and woolen goods as "the defects in the articles of confederation," while another, at the same examination, said that voters "prevented people from attending to other people's business." Now revise the lexicons.

During the last week of October, 168,426 tons of ore were shipped by water from the various Lake Superior iron mines.

A $10,000 fire used up Malone & Co's box factory at Bay City on the morning of the 5th. Insurance foots up about $5,000.

A Grand Rapids girl lost an election bet with her lover and so had to help him clean out a pig-pen.

A Stockbridge girl of 14 summers, was so incensed at her mother because she was advised to change her dress that she skipped out and hasn't been seen since.

A Romeo parson gave his auditors some political advice that didn't suit 'em, and now they're retaliating by withdrawing their subscriptions. Mixing politics and religion seems to be dangerous business for the mixer.

Durand is to have a $25,000 union depot to accommodate the railroads centering at that place.

About a year ago Mrs. C. S. Stephens, a North Oxford lady, gave birth to twin boys, but both have since died. The other day she was made the happy mother of another pair of boys.

Bessemer's new court house is one of the finest buildings of its kind in the entire state. 'Twas built of brown stone, has a 130-foot tower, and is a credit to Geogebic county and the upper peninsula.

A Munith man gave a neighbor a sound flogging and then had his victim arrested on the charge that he struck the first blow. It takes a good deal to satisfy some people.

While the family of George Townsend, of Davidson, were attending Sunday services, some chap burglarized their home of $90.

Nelson J. Flanders, a Moorland man, bit off a neighbor's nose, and Nelson's appetite is said to be unimpaired. Some people in this world have queer tastes.

Miss Bertha Alger, of Grand Rapids, has been appointed librarian of the Tennessee university.

While driving along a country road to Spring Lake recently, ex-Senator Thomas W. Ferry was precipitated over an embankment into the mud beneath his upturned vehicle. It required his best efforts to get out of the uncomfortable predicament.

Lenny Reynolds, a Genesee county lad of 9 summers, is peculiarly afflicted with abscesses, which nearly cover his body at times. They often obtain unnatural sizes but do not discolor the skin, though requiring to be repeatedly lanced. The afflicted child has already lost a portion of his teeth by an abscess in the mouth. The local physicians are unable to control the peculiar disease.

Thomas Bree, of Grand Rapids, accompanied by a chum, took possession of the house of a barber while the owner was away on a visit, and after selling the furniture and household goods, the pair skipped out for Chicago. But Thomas became tired of an exiled life and recently returned to the Rapids, surrendering himself to the police.

Some Marietta school boys treated their teacher to a dose of ancient eggs because he had chastised 'em, and now they'll spend a season in the reform school in consequence of their odoriferous joke.

Harbor Springs has no depot, the old one being reduced to a heap of ashes by an election-day fire. Some money and freight were also burned.

Burglars got away with $450 worth of postage stamps and cash at the Hubbardston postoffice the other night. The safe was irreparably damaged.

A wealthy farmer named Oliver, living at Jackson, became so excited over the election returns that he dropped dead from heart disease.

A Kalamazoo man kicks because the ladies wear such high hats at church. Whether he's the only man who attends church in that city, or the rest of them don't care about seeing the preacher, isn't stated.

A youthful witness on the stand the other day at Grand Rapids, was asked if he knew the nature of an oath. The answer came quick and sharp—"you bet I do, for father's lost a heap of money betting on the election."

The thrashing of election day seems to have been clean and thoroughly done—too thoroughly in fact for some people's comfort.

Archie Pelean, the man charged with criminal assault upon Mrs. Frank Marvin, of Battle Creek, was taken from the sheriff's custody by five ivy-five masked men and hung to the limb of a tree.

Cromwell merchants have formed a protective association, and hereafter the man who gets a reputation for not paying his debts will get no goods on trust.

Sensation at Grand Rapids, Mich. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 10.—A local newspaper created something of a sensation Friday afternoon by an expose of the Emerson, a reformatory institution for fallen women. About a year ago Georgia Young, a leader among the local demimonde, professed to have seen the error of her ways, and was taken in hand by several charitable disposed church ladies. The house occupied by Miss Young was rented and turned into a Magdalen institution, with the former proprietress as matron. It is now alleged that while the upper floors of the house are devoted to reformatory purposes the lower story of the building is given up to nightly revels by Miss Young and two or three chosen companions. The matter will be thoroughly investigated.

Threats of Lynching in Michigan.

MOIIE, Mich., Nov. 10.—There are two men now in jail here who may be taken out and lynched if the townspeople do not cool down. They are Joseph Rossi, a woodsman who pounded John Fowler, of Fairview so that he may die, and Albert Beadie, also a woodsman, who committed an assault on Pauline Burdette, a German girl. She had been to Pots, and was followed from there over the Au Sable river bridge by Beadie, where he attacked her. The girl fought furiously and succeeded in defending herself, but in revenge he mutilated her terribly and pounded and kicked her into insensibility. She is still alive, but her recovery is doubtful.

End of a Wrecked Life. BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Nov. 10.—Mary Canfield committed suicide Friday night at the residence of D. R. Griswold, for whom she had clerked in a dry goods store for ten years. She was the divorced wife of John Rice, who was sent to state prison fifteen years ago for robbing the money order department of the postoffice here. She has been at Romeo lately, but was called here Wednesday by a mysterious telegram. Her life has been a sad one.

COLLISION AT SEA. The Umbria Crashes into the Steamer Iberia—No Lives Lost.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The Cunard steamer Umbria collided with and sunk the Fabre steamer Iberia off Long Beach hotel Saturday at 10 o'clock. The accident was due to a dense fog. When the collision occurred the crew of the Iberia became panic-stricken. With one accord they rushed to the side of the vessel and prepared to leap into the small boats. Capt. Saugloss shouted to them to resume their places. Frozen and shrieking with fear they paid no heed to him. Seeing in a moment that desperate measures were necessary, the captain seized a belaying-pin, drawing his revolver at the same time, and leaped over the rail where some of the crew were struggling among themselves, and, at the point of the revolver forced them back.

The vessel sunk slowly, and when the Umbria hove to and began to take the passengers on board order was restored. All were taken safely and transported to the dock, where the Umbria now lies awaiting repairs.

The Iberia sailed from the Persian gulf in September. She was a first-class vessel and was owned in Marseilles, France. No blame is attached to the officers of either vessel.

Dakota G. A. R. Men Not Suffering. MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 13.—The Chicago Tribune of Monday stated that an appeal had been made to the Chicago Grand Army posts for contributions to assist Grand Army men in Dakota, 500 of whom were said to be suffering for the necessities of life, owing to the failure of the crops.

S. H. Jumper, of Aberdeen, adjutant general of the Grand Army in Dakota, telegraphs The Journal as follows: "I do not believe there is any suffering among the Grand Army men in Dakota. If there is, the Grand Army of Dakota will take care of them."

A Miner's Frightful Fall. STREATOR, Ills., Nov. 13.—Joe Pickles, a miner employed at the Star Coal company's shaft at Kangley, across the river from this city, fell eighty-five feet down the shaft Monday afternoon about 4 o'clock, falling into a pool of water. The water saved his life, although it was quite shallow, and while he is badly bruised no bones are broken. The man is resting easily. Internal injuries are feared.

The Great Fish Trust Dissolved. BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The great fish trust, known as the Boston Fresh Fish Dealers' association, came to an abrupt end Monday night. Trouble has been brewing for some time owing to the fact that some members of the association have cut under the prices fixed by the trust. An excited meeting Monday night resulted in the dissolution of the organization.

A Race War Threatened. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The Herald's Norfolk, Va., special says: All the Winchester rifles that could be purchased here Saturday were sent up to Southampton county, where the white people are greatly excited and alarmed over the threatened violence of the blacks. A collision is said to have occurred there Saturday. Southampton is the scene of the famous Nat Turner insurrection.

Serious Railway Washout. BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 10.—A serious washout occurred on the Erie railroad about two miles this side of Tonawanda, Saturday morning early. A section of about 100 feet of the road-bed and track was washed out. A Lehigh Valley freight train ran into the washout, derailling fourteen cars. Passengers were transferred over the wreck after a delay of a couple of hours.

Mr. Dana Sails for Europe. NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Charles A. Dana sailed for Havre on the steamer La Normandie Saturday. Among the passengers by the steamer City of Chester, for Liverpool, were Miss J. Emberger, Mrs. G. Graver, Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Ferrine, Miss Fannie Sparks and Miss Lucy Sullivan, who are bound for India as missionaries.

Died for Want of Nourishment. OSHKOSH, Wis., Nov. 10.—August Falk, a German, aged 50, was found dead in bed by his wife Friday morning. Dr. Corbett, who was called, says the man died for lack of nourishment. Falk worked for 50 cents a day in a coffin factory, and the family lived in one room. Only a crust of bread was found in the larder.

Switchmen Win a Strike. ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 10.—The striking New York switchmen have received the advance in wages which they demanded, and the threatened freight blockade is being rapidly raised. It is believed the fear that the freight brakemen and conductors would go out influenced the company in deciding the matter.

Sold for the Second Time. PEORIA, Ills., Nov. 10.—Saturday morning The National Democrat, Postmaster Dowdall's old paper, was sold for the second time in a month to satisfy executions. This time it was bought in by "Sandy" Stone of The Daily Transcript on his mortgage of $3,200.

The worst feature about catarrh is its dangerous tendency to consumption. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures catarrh by purifying the blood.

The Official Count.

It took the board of canvassers two days to canvass the vote in this county. E. B. Pond was made chairman of the board.

The official count proceeded slowly but surely and resulted in the figures given in last week's ARGUS being only slightly varied. Cleveland carries the county by 932, Burt by 922; Moran for lieutenant governor, 957; King for member of the state board of education, 1,377; Gorman, 907; Stearns, 681; Howlett, 1,201; Brehm, 1,042; Dwyer, 733; Lehman, 543; Seery, 896; Gregory, 87; Lowden, 543; McKernan, 893; Joslyn, 870; Woodward, 934.

There were 910 votes cast on the judicial amendment of which 336 were yes and 574 no. The banking law carried the county by 490. The vote standing 1,031 yes, 541 no.

The session of the board of canvassers was not altogether dry, a difference of opinion existing as to the proper time to adjourn for dinner, etc. Treasurer Jacob Knapp, of Freedom, led the side which wanted to adjourn and brought up the motions to adjourn every three or five minutes. Of course his side eventually won, for all the members of the board wanted dinners. Freedom's vote on the judicial amendment and the banking law also caused audible smiles. Freedom cast 265 votes "no" on the judicial amendment and 2 "yes", and 256 votes "no" on the banking law and 1 "yes." This was the only town, where nearly every one voted on these questions.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In regard to the mottoes in Tuesday evening's parade, Mr. Will Watts and some of the others seem dissatisfied; for which I am sorry as the mottoes were only intended for a joke. They were all perfect gentlemen and settled the little war between us immediately. I desire that the matter will cause no hard feelings.

Respectfully,
W. G. BURCHFIELD.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this receipt in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp naming this paper, W. A. Noves, 149 Power's Block, Rochester, N. Y.
