ANOTHER BIG WRECK.

Twenty-two Killed at Battle Creek on the Grand Trunk this Morning.

THE AGED OHIO HORSE THIEF SENTENCED.

The Verdict in the Pulver Murder Trial.—Other Proceedings of the Circuit Court.—What Prisoners are Put in Jail For.

The Battle Creek Wreck.

It was reported over the telephone this noon that a great wreck had occurred on the Grand Trunk at or near Battle Creek this morning. Two regular trains collided with terrific force and both trains are a complete wreck. The wreck took fire immediately after the collision and an heroic gang of rescuers are at work attempting to stay the flames and rescue the injured. Already 22 bodies have been taken from the ruins, some of them burned beyond recognition. It is thought that the Assistant Superintendent of Construction on the Grand Trunk is in the wreck, as no news can be obtained concerning him. Details are meager, and are hard to obtain at this writing, the presses being stopped to insert this intelligence. Friday seems to be an unlucky day for railroads and travellers.

A Great Offer.

The Argus has decided to offer its readers a great opportunity to obtain a great state paper without additional cost. To every subscriber, new or old, who pays for their paper a full year in advance we will send twenty-six numbers of the semi-weekly Detroit Free Press. This offer will be open for but a short time, and we urge all our readers to take advantage of it and to spread the good news among their neighbors, inviting them to join the circle of Argus readers. Remember that $1.00 will secure the Argus for one year and the semi-weekly Free Press for three months.

A Pioneer Celebrates His Birthday.

Jacob A. Polhemus, one of Ann Arbor's pioneers today celebrated his 82d birthday anniversary. He is enjoying good health and can relate many interesting stories of the past. He arrived in Ann Arbor on the night of April 17, 1835, which he spent in the old Washtenaw house, on the north side. It had not yet been finished, there being no doors hung to any of the rooms. The next day he came up town and stopped at the old Goodrich house, a small frame building. Where the Masonic block is there was an old log cabin. He walked out to Freedom where his father resided, going by way of Saline. There were only three houses in Freedom at that time. Mr. Polhemus has seen many changes in Washtenaw county since his arrival.—Washtenaw Times.

What They Were There For.

During the year preceding September 8, 1893, there were confined in the county jail 368 persons, of whom 168 have been confined during the past six months and 200 during the first six months. The number of females thus in the jail during the year has been 11, of whom 2 were charged with drunkenness; 2, larceny; 2, truants; 2, keeping houses of ill fame; 1, receiving stolen goods; 1, jumping board bill; and 1 insane. The men were charged with the following offenses: drunk, 190; larceny, 50; assault, 20; vagrancy, 41; begging, 4; violation of city ordinance, 6; boarding train, 6; bastardy, 3; gambling, 4; receiving stolen goods, 1; disorderly, 13; jumping board bill, 1; insane, 3; burglary, 3; false pretenses, 2; truant, 1; rape, 3; non-support, 1; murder, 1; arson, 1; destroying property, 1.

In the Circuit Court.

The circuit court after disposing of the Pulver murder trial, took up the general work of the term. The plaintiff in the McGraw vs. Whiting was required to give $50 security for costs.

Lyman Brown, the old man from Salem, charged with rape, was arraigned, pleaded not guilty and his bail was fixed at $1,000.

The cases against Fred J. Boughton and Miles Linklater were nolle prosequed.

The civil case of George Lawton vs. John Gillen was tried Monday and a verdict of $180 rendered. The verdict in Milton S. Lawton vs. John Gillen was $153.

A non-suit was entered in the case of Manchester vs. Warren Kimble.

A judgment of $160 was rendered in the case of Sophia Burkhardt vs. William Ross.

A judgment for $176.36 was rendered in the case of Charles F. Kayser vs. Adolph Hoffstetter.

The Argus Speaks for Itself.

The attention of the public was forcibly called in drawing the Hand jury to the wide circulation of the Argus. Three times as many of the jurors questioned read the account of the Pulver murder in the Argus than had read it in any other Ann Arbor paper. This is not the first time that questions to the jurors has developed the same state of facts. In fact one panel of a year ago was found in which nearly every one was a reader of the Argus. Our readers will bear us out in the assertion that we have not been given to boasting of our large circulation, although as a matter of fact the Argus has the largest circulation of any English paper, at least, published in the county. The Argus has gained its large circulation not by idle boasting, but by attending strictly to business, endeavoring to give the news of the county more completely and more accurately than any other county paper. This is the task to which the Argus will re-devote itself, with the purpose of still further increasing its list.

The Cramer-Burke Slander Suit.

The slander case of Densmore Cramer vs. William Burke, was called in the circuit court Wednesday. Considerable interest was taken in the case, Mr. Cramer suing for $5,000 damages. After a jury had been empaneled and the witnesses sworn, Mr. Cramer conducting his case in person, John F. Lawrence for the defendant objected to going on with the case any further on the ground that Mr. Cramer had not made out any prima facie case in his declaration, that the words alleged to have been uttered were not actionable per se, and the innuendo could not be used to amplify the induction of the declaration. In other words that Mr. Cramer had neglected to state in his declaration his occupation, and had neglected to alleged damage to himself in that occupation. Judge Kinne gave Mr. Cramer until after dinner to obtain authorities in opposition to Mr. Lawrence, and after the recess, threw the case out of court on the ground of a defective declaration.

The Jury Disagreed.

The Hand murder trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury, which was out for forty-seven hours, coming in Monday night at nine o'clock and reporting that they had not agreed and that there was no prospect of their agreeing. The case was ably argued Saturday by Prosecuting Attorney Kearney and T. A. Bogle for the people and Chas. R. Whitman and J. C. Knowlton for the defense. The jury on going out stood 7 for conviction and 5 for acquittal. On the second ballot, which was taken soon after the first, they stood 9 for conviction and 3 for acquittal and remained of the same opinion until discharged. They came in several times and reported their inability to agree. This is probably the longest any jury has been kept out in this county. Prosecuting Attorney Kearney has been receiving many compliments for the ability with which he conducted the case.

Hand was remanded to jail for trial at the next term of the circuit court.

Mrs. Ormiston Chant at the Unity Club.

It was doubtful for a long time last evening, whether or not, Mrs. Ormiston Chant would address the Unity Club. At 8:20, Mr. Sunderland announced that Mrs. Chant had been since eight o'clock in the morning getting to Jackson from Chicago, and that they had received word that her train would surely get to Ann Arbor in about an hour. In the meantime, while waiting for the charming English woman, Miss Cole sang several selections, and Mr. Bilby rendered several pieces on the violin. Mr. Sunderland also read one of Mrs. Chant's pleasing and touching poems.

It was twenty-five minutes past nine when she finally came, but she was present body and soul, and for an hour interested her audience in a most charming way, by telling of her American trip. Since in this country she has been from Boston to San Francisco, stopping at Chicago for the world's parliament of religions, her main purpose in coming to America. She spoke mostly of California and its resources, many western cities where she stopped and seemed to see everywhere missionary and philanthropic work to do. And as to travel she said, "I can't help but think that part of Christianity will be through travel." Everybody in the large audience was good natured during the long wait and all appeared well paid for the time. Mrs. Chant continued her journey to Boston on the late train last night.

For Next Monday Evening.

At the next meeting of the Unity Club, Monday evening, at the Unitarian church, a fine concert will be given with Mr. Robert Luderer, of Berlin, Germany, as baritone; Mr. E. N. Bilbie, violinist; and Miss Minnie Davis, pianiste. The following program will be presented:

- I. Rondo Brillante.....C. M. von Weber, For Piano.
- II. Wolfman's First Song in the Tournament From the Opera Tannhauser..... Wagner.
- III. 2nd Polonaise.....H. Wieniawski, For Violin.
- IV. a. Spring's Blooming Hope.....F. Ries.
b. Blue Eyes of Spring.....
- V. a. Romanoe.....Moszkowski.
b. Liciliano.....For Piano.
- VI. Aria from Joshua.....Handel.
- VII. Two songs by Greig arranged for Violin.....by Emile Laurent.
a. Ich Liebe Dich.
b. Polish Song.....H. Wieniawski, For Violin.
- VIII. a. Old Heidelberg.
b. Voices of the Woods.

This promises to be a fine entertainment as Mr. Robert Luderer is an eminent opera singer.

The Horse Thief Sentenced.

Christopher A. Mason, alias William Hudson, the old man seventy-nine years of age, who stole the horses from Charles Rose, Comstock Hill and others in this county, has been sentenced in the Fulton county, Ohio court, to a term of five years in the Ohio state prison at Columbus. The judge in sentencing him said that he deserved a sentence of fifteen years. His great age, however, was taken into consideration in passing sentence upon him, as he will now, if he lives to serve his time, be 84 years old when freed. When the old man tottered through the gates of the prison he said, "Good-bye, fair world." A Columbus, Ohio, dispatch thus sizes up his depredations:

"He stole three horses and buggies, with robes, whips, etc., from people in Washtenaw Co., Mich., and a horse in Fulton county. After being arrested in Tiffin, the Michigan sheriff and three owners of horses came on and identified their property, which had been sold to Tiffin parties, aggregating a total value of $1,000."

Only one older prisoner was ever sent to the Ohio state prison. He was eighty years old, and, strange to say, was sent for his fourth term for horse stealing. Mason is also an old offender.

Supervisors in Session.

The Board of Supervisors have been in session all the week. Their proceedings may be briefly told as follows:

On Friday last, the building committee reported an expenditure last year of $1,300.93 for repairs of the court house and jail and the fixtures therein. The principal item of expense had been the fixing of the roof of the court house.

The superintendents of the poor reported expenditures for the year at $4,932.63, of which $695.73 was for outside relief and $234.02 for old orders. The farm products for the year amounted to $1,436.30. The total number of paupers during the year was 135, of whom 98 were men and 37 women, while the average number was 74. Their nationality was as follows: American, 70; German, 24; Irish, 19; English, 5; Scotch, 2; colored, 8; Italian, 1; Canadian, 6. The number of deaths were 11, births 3. The average cost of maintaining paupers per week exclusive of the product of the farm was $1.11 1/4. An appropriation of $5,500 is hinted for.

Mr. George H. Pond was unanimously elected school examiner for two years.

There was quite a contest for the janitorship of the court house. The first ballot resulted, Marvin Davenport 12; Mrs. J. H. Starks, 7; M. J. Howard, 6. The second and deciding ballot resulted, Davenport, 14; Howard, 9; Stark, 2. On motion of Supervisor Gill, the salary of janitor was fixed at $475.

On Monday, after the clerk had been allowed $35 for preparing copy for the printer, Elisha Loomis was unanimously elected superintendent of the poor. Then followed a discussion over printing the proceedings of the board. After a number of motions the board adjourned until Tuesday.

On Tuesday, the proceedings were ordered printed in the Hausfreund for $70.

On motion of Supervisor Watkins the treasurer was instructed to collect $20 a month rent from Brown & Kearns. In the afternoon this motion was reconsidered and indefinitely postponed.

On Wednesday, a number of criminal claims were allowed. Supervisors, Oesterlin, Case and Sage were appointed a committee to report to the board the amount of fees to be allowed the sheriff for board and care of prisoners at the county jail. The justices' bills allowed during the day were Bogardus, $152.40; Doyle, $5.25; Webb, $20.75; Rust, $4.05.

On motion of Mr. Case, the superintendents of the poor were instructed to spend $25 a year on the highway running past the county house.

Supervisor Dancer moved that the committee on determining the fees to be allowed the prisoners, report a bill of fare to be given non-resident prisoners.

The supervisors yesterday elected a county drain commissioner. Supervisor Duncan presented the name of Daniel W. Barry, of Northfield. Supervisor Gill presented the name of E. M. Cole, of Superior. Supervisor Forsyth presented the name of Harrison Ruthruff. The vote stood Barry 14, Cole 5, Ruthruff 7, blank 1. Mr. Barry was duly declared elected.

Choral Union Series.

The Choral Union series of concerts is about to enter on its fifth season. During the four successful seasons that have preceded the one about to open every concert given in the course has been recognized as an event in University life. It is needless to mention the names of those performers who have appeared on its programmes for it is well known that only the best artists and orchestras have been invited to appear in University Hall.

The expectations of music-lovers, who have been looking forward to another musical treat this year, will not be disappointed in the announcement of those already secured for the coming season. The first concert will be on Nov. 16. Lillian Nordica, America's most gifted soprano, Maud Powell, "the greatest living violinist," and J. Erich Schmaal, well known to Ann Arbor audiences, may be heard in one evening. Handel's Messiah, which was given last year just before the Christmas holidays, will be repeated by the Choral Union this year. The date will probably be Dec. 19. The fact that Max Heinrich has been heard here for the past two seasons, will only increase the desire to listen to him again, when he appears here on Feb. 16. He will be assisted by Hermann A. Zeitz, violinist, instructor in the School of Music. No Choral Union course would be complete without the Boston Symphony Orchestra and this great orchestra will be heard as usual sometime in May. The fifth concert will be by the Choral Union, assisted by a full orchestra and distinguished soloists. The Manzoni Requiem, one of the greatest productions of the famous composer Verdi, is the work selected, and the concert will undoubtedly be one of the finest ever given by the Choral Union.

One date has been left vacant and will be filled later. Each year, after the course has been made out, opportunities to secure distinguished performers have presented themselves, and of necessity have been allowed to pass by. This year it is hoped that any unusual attraction of the kind may be secured without extra expense. Course tickets are placed at the low price of two dollars, and no one at all interested in music should fail to buy one.

The October number of the Michigan Law Journal is just out.

Our Grandmothers Way

Was to steep roots and herbs and use it every night. We can do the same by using Parks' Tea. Nothing acts as promptly and without discomfort. Not a pill or a cathartic but moves the bowels every day. Sold by Eberbach Drug and Chemical Co.

The bride had just left the altar and the dear old grandma was kissing the fresh cheek of her blushing young descendant. "And now, my dear," whispered she of the white hair and time-worn face, "remember that life's cares must be life's pleasures."

It is Strange

That people suffering from Piles will endure them for years or submit to dangerous, painful, cruel, and expensive surgical operations, when all the time there is a painless, certain lasting cure, which gives instant relief and costs but a trifle. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure and can be found at all drug stores. Any druggist will get it for you if you ask him.

Rev. S. S. Thompson's Experience

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills Prove Their Merit.

"I think I would have been in my grave several years ago had it not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was a United States soldier; served three years in the Union Army and was with Sherman in his

March to the Sea.

While in the service I contracted asthma, bronchitis and catarrh, which have become chronic diseases. I find that Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills are the best medicines I can use for these complaints. They have certainly prolonged my life. I earnestly recommend the medicines as just right for what they are advertised. I am satisfied they save many lives every year." Rev. S. S. Thompson of the M. P. church, Attila, Illinois.

Modern cutlers despair of reproducing the ancient sword blades of feudal Japan, as modern artificers in iron despair of imitating the artistic sword guards of that country. According to tradition the test of the ancient Japanese sword was even more rigid than that of Saladin's blades. It was enough if the latter would cut in twain at a single blow a down pillow, thrown in the air, but the Japanese blade, suspended horizontally beneath a tree must sever any leaf that, falling, should accidentally light upon the edge of the weapon.

NEVER A FAILURE.

The Red River Valley of Minnesota and North Dakota has never had a failure of crops.

It produced 30,000,000 bushels of wheat besides other cereals in 1890.

Farms can be had on the crop plan, or long time cash payments.

It is not an uncommon thing to pay for a farm from the proceeds of one crop.

It has all of the advantages of an old country in the shape of school, church, market, postal, & railway facilities and all the chances of a new country in the way of cheap lands, rich soil, and increase in values.

It is one of the most fertile and promising regions in America not yet fully occupied.

In the rush to the far west, however, this rich valley has been over-looked.

It has room for a million more people.

Stamping out—blood-poisons of every name and nature, by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

It's a medicine that starts from the beginning. It rouses every organ into healthy action, purifies and enriches the blood, and through it cleanses and renews the whole system. All Blood, Skin, and Scalp Diseases, from a common blotch or eruption to the worst Scrofula, are cured by it. For Tetters, Salt-rheum, Eczema, Erysipelas, Boils, Carbuncles, Sore Eyes, Goitre or Thick Neck, and Enlarged Glands, Tumors, and Swellings, it's an unequalled remedy.

Don't think it's like the sarsaparilla. They claim to be good for the blood in March, April, and May. "Golden Medical Discovery" works equally well at all seasons. And it not only claims to do good—it guarantees it. If it doesn't benefit or cure, in every case, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get. Can you ask more?

Don't commit suicide on account of your "incurable" blood disease. The sensible thing for you to do is to take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. If that fails, why, then—keep on trying, and it will not fail. The trouble is, people get discouraged too soon. "Try, try, try again."

Much is expected of the use of electricity to deaden sensibility in teeth that are to be filled or extracted. As to extraction, it is announced that already the use of an electric current delivered through electrodes containing cotton saturated with cocaine or ether has produced complete local anesthesia so that teeth have been extracted without pain.

A STRANGE CASE.

How an Enemy was Foiled.

The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest: "I cannot describe the numb, creepy sensation that crept over my arms, hands and legs. I had to rub and beat those parts until they were sore, to overcome in a measure the dead feeling that had taken possession of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indescribable 'gone' feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis, from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half steadily, but with no particular benefit. When I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, I procured a bottle and began using it. Marvelous as it may seem, but a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest indication of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 170 to 137. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been as satisfactory in their cases as in mine."—James Kane, La Rue, O. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, or sent direct by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. It is free from opiates or dangerous drugs.

BEAKES & CURTISS, PROPRIETORS.
TERMS.—$1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE.
OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1893.

The greatest living authority in this country on constitutional law is Judge Thomas M. Cooley of this city. His great work on Constitutional Limitations made his reputation not only in this country but wherever the English tongue is spoken and English law enforced. It is quoted as authority in all the courts of this country and is almost the only American law book of living American authors quoted as authority in the decisions of the higher courts of England. Judge Cooley has devoted much of his life work to the study of constitutional points and the words of no man go so far in settling such points in dispute in this country. In an interview recently with ex-Mayor Hodges, of Baltimore, on the obstructive tactics adopted in the U. S. Senate to prevent the repeal of the Sherman law, Judge Cooley said:

"It is a fundamental principle of representative government that the majority shall rule. It was the intention of the founders of our constitution, and embodied in the constitution, that the majority in each house of congress should control the deliberations of that house, any exception to this rule being specifically stated. Now for a majority of the senate to concede, for any reason, that a rule of practice in debate, or of senatorial courtesy, makes it possible for a minority to prevent legislation by indefinitely protracting debate, is equivalent to revolution. It is as much revolution as though accomplished with arm and violence. "If the minority can postpone legislation for one session they may for a second, and so on. The majority cannot constitutionally concede the existence of a rule or custom which is subversive of their right and duty of legislation."

The published interview formed the topic of the leading editorials of most of the great papers of the country. Nowhere has the real point at issue, the right of the majority to rule, been more succinctly stated. The few words above quoted cover the whole ground. The majority in this country shall rule, and to recognize and enforce a doctrine which puts the policy of the government in the hands of a minority is nothing less than a revolution in the fundamental principle of our government.

The County Overdrafts.

There is considerable misinformation afloat concerning the overdrafts in the county funds, and some of the county papers have spoken of them as running up as high as $40,000. This of course was purely an estimate on their part. The actual figures are as follows: The county overdrafts on October 1st of this year were $8,465.15. This is a decrease of over $11,000 in the overdrafts over last year, as the overdrafts on October 1, 1892, were $19,582.89. The county tax raised last year was $35,000. If the supervisors should raise the same amount this year, there would be no county overdraft at this time of the year. The overdrafts grew out of a bank fight for the funds some years ago, when the supervisors raised much less money than they knew would be used. The last and the present board have been called upon to make up this amount.

Modjeska.

If Shakespeare in his etherealized form has been able to follow the fortunes of his dramas for nearly four hundred years past, he must feel a deep regret that he did not have Modjeska to play his heroines when he, himself, was one of the "Lord Chamberlain's Servants." Poor Shakespeare never saw any woman play his heroines, for in his day it was always a boy who played them, and, as Master Slender says, "A great lubberly boy." It was about sixty years after the Merchant of Venice was first produced that women began to impersonate female characters and that date also marks the beginning of the regeneration of the stage from the questionable jokes with which even Shakespeare thought it no harm to interlard his masterpieces. There is no doubt but that the boys who played the role of "Portia", in the first half of the 17th century were sufficiently masculine to appear in court and plead for the release of Antonio from the penalty of the bond, but no Portia since women began to play has ever been more radiant than Modjeska, nor can one hope to see a more tender one. She will appear at the Grand Opera House Saturday night, supported by that sterling actor Otis Skinner, who will essay "Shylock."

MANY MILLIONS LOST.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN NEW YORK CITY.

The Entire City Was Illuminated by the Glare of the Conflagration—Private Residence, Tenement Houses and Factories Burned to the Ground.
NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—One of the most destructive fires this city has seen since the fire of 1878 occurred Wednesday evening. It extended from St. Raphael's Catholic church on Fortieth street to the north side of Forty-second street. The loss will amount well up into the millions. The fire was discovered at 8:10 p. m. by a watchman employed by William Campbell & Company, wholesale manufacturers of wall paper, at 512 to 518 West Forty-second street and 505 to 513 West Forty-first street. The fire started in the boiler-house and had gained great headway before it was discovered. It spread to the adjoining building, occupied by Nevins & Haviland, also wall paper manufacturers, on Tenth avenue and Forty-second street. Both firms were entirely burned out. Other buildings burned were 560 Forty-second street, occupied by Dr. Leighton; 508 West Forty-second street, occupied by J. Wheelan; 520 West Forty-second street, a dwelling occupied by F. V. Buskirk; 524 West Forty-second street, occupied by Arthur Short; 526 West Forty-second street, occupied by McGuire, all of which were totally destroyed. The boardinghouse of Mrs. McRoney at 524 West Forty-second street was partly destroyed. The loss sustained by Campbell & Company is estimated at $500,000, but Mr. Campbell says that it will, as near as he can figure, reach $2,000,000. Nevins & Haviland lost $175,000 and George A. Shastay & Sons $250,000.

The glare of the conflagration illuminated the whole city. Factories, tenement houses and private dwellings were burned to the ground, and the efforts of the firemen were directed early to preventing the spread of the fire over a still larger territory. The fire originated in the engine room of Campbell & Company, manufacturers of wall paper. Sexton, the watchman, who discovered the fire, ran for a fire alarm box and sent in an alarm. He then ran back to the building to warn four other men who were working there. He fell in the hallway, overcome by smoke, and a policeman pulled him out, where he soon revived. In a minute the whole building was in flames, for its inflammable contents proved the richest kind of fuel, while a strong breeze helped on the destruction.

The damage by the fire on West Forty-first street in the rear of the Campbell factory was about equal to that in West Forty-second street. The immense 6-story cabinet works of George Schastay & Sons, manufacturers of south side, was caught by the flames in the early stages of the conflagration and succumbed completely. V. Loewers Gambrinus' brewery on the north side of the street was saved, but the enginehouse connected with it was destroyed. Loewers' stable and 15 horses that were stabled there were burned and two tenement houses on the north side were consumed.

In the rear of the cabinet works of Schastay & Sons, fronting Fortieth street, is St. Raphael's. An assistant priest was holding services in the church in the presence of a large congregation. He was in the act of pronouncing the benediction when the church caught fire from the rafters. The congregation dispersed quietly. The building was not much damaged. The vestments, etc., were taken to a place of safety.

When the fire started there were in the Campbell factory four men, who were working overtime. They were Richard Stefers, James Bambrick, John Brill and a man whose name is not known. Whether they escaped with their lives is not known.

Slavery Abolished in Bolivia.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—It is stated here through a private source that the legislature of Bolivia has passed a bill abolishing slavery in that country. While the peons have been practically free for some time and the legislative enactment is more a matter of form than the outcome of a crying demand, the fact is an important one as showing the advance in legislation and progressiveness of the South American republics.

cars and the tender of his engine coming into contact with such force as to smash the tender and several of the cars. It was a number of hours before the wreck was cleared.

The Regents' Meeting and President's Report.

The Board of Regents was in session the greater part of Wednesday and transacted considerable business of importance. Pres. Angell read his annual report for the year ending Sept. 30. He showed that the number of degrees conferred was 699, the largest recorded in the history of any American University, but that number is now exceeded by 46. The number of students in attendance was 86 more than in the previous year, this increase being chiefly due to the increased number from Michigan, which was 79 greater than in previous years, a gratifying appreciation by the state of the advantages the University offers to her sons and daughters.

The attendance of women was 15.6 per cent greater than the year before, which shows that every year more and more women are obtaining an academic or collegiate education. In his report Dr. Angell says: "it is indeed becoming a question whether a generation hence there will be as many college trained men as college trained women in this country. The educational, intellectual and social consequences of this forward movement in the training of women we may not be able to foresee fully, but that they must be very important no and can doubt. I cannot but think that they will be very beneficial."

Librarian R. S. Davis read his annual report, showing that over a thousand volumes had been presented during the year to the library. He also showed that more space was needed in the library for books, or the removal of the Rogers art collection to some other place.

At the suggestion of Mr. Davis, the sum of $300 was appropriated for an assistant in cataloging in the library and $40 for a case for a catalogue of medical works.

Other reports were presented, among which was an estimate of the expense of motors for electric lights on the campus.

Treasurer Soule's annual report showed that the disbursements have been: Special, $94,428.58; general, $281,559.10; total, $375,987.68.

Considerable amusement was created by the suggestion that a committee on titles be appointed. Dr. Kiefer called attention to some apparent misstatement of titles, and Regent Kiefer said they wanted to have the titles correct, no matter what the salaries were.

The sum of $1,238.91 was appropriated for the deficiency caused by keeping open the University (allopathic) Hospital during the summer.

Eugene Sly, of Dexter, toyed with a revolver till the sly thing went off and "blip" went one of Sly's fingers.

Oscar Sober, of Superior, is very ill with fever, but the physicians say they will relax nothing in trying to keep Oscar Sober.

They are having great fun at foot ball over at the University, a student's leg having already been broken, which is considered a capital start for the surgeons.

The pride of Chelsea, is at present centered in a small donkey, purchased of the Whitney show. The donkey is to Chelsea what the sacred bull was to Egypt.

So many changes have been made in the homeopathic branch of the university that the faculty must be uncommonly astute, if it recognizes itself, without an introduction.

Miss Bower, great record keeper of the lady Maccabees, has opened her office in Ann Arbor. The "queen bee" can be found in her ample cell in the Hamilton block.

In striving to climb the greased pole of knowledge, seventy University freshmen have slid down after examination. But perhaps they are safer at the base than the pinnacle.

The new Maccabee-hive at Ypsilanti, has been dedicated. The walls of the room where the "goat" is kept, contains a swinging maul for the brute to practice on between initiation.

Northville claims to have the best system of water works in the world. To lay successful claim to such a distinction, requires considerable "main" strength; but Northfield seems to have it.

There are 40 more pupils in the Third ward school, Ann Arbor than there are seats. This of course insures prompt attendance in the morning, and it is bad luck for the forty who miss a sit-down.

Nine Washtenaw county pioneers have recently died, their average being 82 years. Sturdy people those first Washtenaw settlers. They usually live till blown up by a gasoline stove or kicked by a horse.

George W. Bowlsby who died at Monroe, left a scheme for a military balloon, which was published by the Democrat and is now engaging the attention of the war department. It has no parachute drop.

The carp, planted in the Monroe marshes, are getting in the same kind of work that is noticeable at Sandusky. They are rooting out the wild rice and celery. A carp will eat anything except a stone fence.

Over at Whittaker, the sleuth hounds of the law are hunting down George Bryant with a view to depriving him of his liberty on a charge preferred by his wife, for the trifling offense of having held her against a hot stove till she was done on one side. Bryant took to a swamp, but they will have the poor fellow yet.

At a recent meeting of the Ann Arbor city council, the sum of $1,500 was appropriated with which to furnish the city offices. The wainscotings will be gross-grained and there will be damask carpets and elegant Japanese fans for those who go in to swear at the council for its extravagance.

The editor of the Ann Arbor Register raised this year, squash vines which made a growth of 203 feet and 2 inches. When it is considered that the editor did this and fought an injunction on the paper to keep from "squashing" financially, it must be admitted that Moran is "some pumpkins."

Thirty dozen frogs have been furnished the University by one Rushton Clark, of Green Oak. These frogs are not for the palates of the president and professors; they are "too flip,"—that is, the frogs. Poor fellows! they are going through the University for the benefit of science, not expecting to make a cent out of it.

Charles Woodruff, of the Sentinel served thirty years on the school board of Ypsilanti. Mr. Woodruff may not be in sympathy with some of the "dude" educational systems of the day, but has more practical knowledge of the real needs of the hour than some of those people who in dark closets are engaged in hatching conundrums and spring them on unsuspecting teachers, disguised as examination questions." Mr. Woodruff should be made an honorary member of the Andescensit club in this world and have a crown with a nimbus in the next.

Editor Smith, of the Milan Leader, will soon be doing business in a "brand spanking" new office. On this account he is basely suspected of having been one of the Kendallville train robbers; but we know he is not one of us. His wealth was honestly got and we are glad to see virtue prosper. Wipe your feet on the door mat before going in.

A six-year-old escape from the Detroit Orphan's home tumbled out of a train at Ypsilanti, the other night, and began cursing and swearing in a manner to make one or two hardened old toughs who heard him turn pale. The sheriff bundled the infantile blasphemer back to Detroit. It is thought by his language, that he had smelled the 'Slanti mineral water.

The Advertising

Of Hood's Sarsaparilla is always within the bounds of reason because it is true; it always appeals to the sober, common sense of thinking people because it is true; and it is always fully substantiated by endorsements which, in the financial world would be accepted without a moment's hesitation.

Hood's PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, sick headache, indigestion.

PASSING PLEASANTRIES.

"Do you believe in fate, Pat?"

"Sure and phwat would we stand on without 'em?"

"Blinkerton is going into litigation."

"What about?" "He got hurt in a duel and wants to collect his accident insurance."

George—Have I come too early, dear? Laura—No, George. We have just had tea, and u always ought to come right after t.

Telegram from Nym Rodd, to the man's wife—Your husband met with an accident and was killed. Her Telegram—Send on the remains. The Answer—There are none, he met a bear.

Jeweler—You don't need a key for that watch. You just turn the crown, so, and it will go. Farmer Field—Just like a durned cow, ain't it? Give her tail a twist an' she gits up and gits.

Father—But you have no means and no prospects. If I give my daughter to you, what is to become of her? Suitor—Well, sir, you are a wealthy man, and you are surely not going to see your daughter starve.

"Did you hear about the theatrical company that got stranded on a cannibal island?" "No." "Well, it happened, and the head of the tribe said afterward that the best part of the meal got away while he was eating the supe."

Mrs. Lafferty—Oi was a big fool to marry yez, so Oi was. If it wasn't for me yez'd starve to death. Mr. Lafferty, haughtily—Don't be so stuck up, Mrs. Lafferty. Yez needn't t'ink dthere air no other fools in this wor-rld besides yerself.

Jim—Honesty is her best policy arter all. Bill—How? "Remember that dog I stole?" "Yep." "Well, I tried two hull days to sell 'im, an' no one offered more'n a dollar. So I went; like a honest man, an' giv 'im to th' ole lady what owned 'im, an' she giv me $5."

A coal dealer asked some law students what legal authority was the favorite of his trade. One answered "Coke." "Right," said the coal dealer. Another suggested "Blackstone." "Good, too," said the questioner. Then a little man piped out "Littleton." Whereupon the coal dealer sat down.

Strictly Pure White Lead

The market is flooded with spurious white leads. The following analyses, made by eminent chemists, of two of these misleading brands show the exact proportion of genuine white lead they contain:

Misleading Brand

"Standard Lead Co. Strictly Pure White Lead. St. Louis."

Materials Proportions Analyzed by Barytes 93.86 per cent. Regis Chauvenet Oxide of Zinc 34.18 per cent. & Bro., St. Louis. White Lead 6.46 per cent. St. Louis. Less than 7 per cent. white lead.

Misleading Brand

"Pacific Warranted Pure [A] White Lead." Materials Proportions Analyzed by Sulphate of Lead 4.18 per cent. Ledoux & Co., Oxide of Zinc 45.04 per cent. New York. Barytes 50.68 per cent.

No white lead in it.

You can avoid bogus lead by purchasing any of the following brands. They are manufactured by the "Old Dutch" process, and are the standards:

"Armstrong & McKelvy"
"Beymer-Bauman" "Eckstein"
"Fahnestock" "Anchor"
"Kentucky" "Morley"
"Southern" "Shipman"
"Red Seal" "Collier"

A New Certain Cure for Piles.

We do not intend to endorse any except articles of genuine merit; we therefore, take pleasure in recommending to sufferers from Piles in any form, a prompt and permanent cure. The following letters speak for themselves.

Mrs. Mary C. Tyler, of Heppner, Ore., writes: One pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely cured me of piles from which I have suffered for years, and I have never had the slightest return of them since.

Mr. O'Brien, Rock Bluffs, Neb., says: The pkg. of Pyramid Pile Cure entirely removed every trace of itching piles, I cannot thank you enough for it.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is a new, certain, painless cure for every form of piles. It is safe, sure and cheap. Any druggist will get it for you in you ask him.

Busbells of fish, carp, pickerel, rock bass, suckers and many other varieties, ranging in size from four to thirty inches, clogged the huge turbine wheel that furnishes the power for running the machinery of the Mayor Bros. pottery at Beaver Falls, Pa. It took an hour to get the fish out.

GOOD HEALTH.

IS YOUR BLOOD IMPURE? Are you suffering from any Kidney or Female Complaint? Have you a Cough, Cold or any disease of Throat, Chest or Lungs? Is your Liver performing its functions properly? If you have any of these complaints it will certainly pay you to try the medicines mentioned below, which are warranted.

A REMARKABLE CURE.

MESSRS. FOLEY & CO., Chicago.

GENTLEMEN:—I had a serious taint of the blood from childhood. An ulcer began on the side of the nose, having all the appearances of a most malignant cancer, became about the size of a silver dollar and ended a thin, offensive matter. The agony of mind I suffered cannot be described as I contemplated the progress of the disease.

I was induced to try the Clinic Sarsaparilla; it appeared to neutralize the poison in the blood, the ulcer ceased. The diseased tissues in the bottom and edges of the sore seemed to loosen and the natural flesh to take its place. Thus the cure continued until an even surface remained. No part of the disease remains.

Mrs. H. B. ADAMS,
1609 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

SUFFERED 27 YEARS.

Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampico, Ill., writes, August 10th, 1891:

MESSRS. FOLEY & CO., CHICAGO.

GENTLEMEN:—Your Kidney Cure is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I, myself, am able to testify to its merits. My face to-day is a living picture of health, and your Kidney Cure has made it such. I had suffered twenty-seven years with the disease, and today I feel ten years younger than I did one year ago. I can obtain some wonderful certificates of its medicinal qualities.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR COUGH SYRUP

The Japanese Alumni.

President Angell received a letter recently from some of our Japanese alumni, telling of the formation of an association, which shows that the memories of alma mater still remain warm in the hearts of the men of Japan who received their education at our university. The letter is a very complimentary one to Dr. Angell and as we feel sure it will be of interest to all, we print it in full.

KIOTO HOTEL, KIOTO, JAPAN.
September 10, 1893.

Our Beloved President:

We have pleasure to inform you that we, the graduates of the Michigan University, met this evening to talk of our old University days. We are very sorry that we have failed to write you about ourselves on account of our daily business and various changes of circumstances. But we are all one in the memory of our beloved President, of the learned faculty who have introduced us into the path of knowledge, and of many sympathetic friends, who have treated us so kindly while we were strangers there. This tie will bind us forever, and we thought it would be a good thing for us who live within a hundred miles to organize a kind of alumni association. With this understanding we met here today and have spent very pleasant hours in talking over Ann Arbor and our old friends. We have made agreement to meet twice a year hereafter.

It may be a matter of interest to you to know our present situation. Fujikawa, LL. B., of '84, is now a judge in Kabe Local Court. Irige, LL. M., of '90, has been a judge in the Court of Appeal in Asaka and is now an attorney in the same city. Shirafgi, M. D., of '86, is the professor of biology in the Doshisha Harris Science School. Otsubo, LL. B., of '89, is the principal of Kioto Commercial School. Ono, Ph. D., of '89, is now lecturing on Economics and Finance in the Doshisha School of Political Science and Law. What we are doing now does not amount to very much. However, we live in hope that we who represent the high culture of the Michigan University in this country, are all anxious to exercise some important influence in the grand movements which are going on around us. We are very glad to hear that the University is making very rapid progress in every respect, and we wish some day might come when we could visit it again.

Hoping that our beloved President and the fellow members of his faculty are enjoying good health and grace of our Almighty Father, we remain,

Your most faithful servants
FUJIKAWA,
IRIGE,
OTSUBO,
KODAMA,
F. ONO.

Prof. Gayley's New Book.

Charles M. Gayley, professor of English Language and Literature in the University of California, and formerly assistant professor of the same subjects at the University of Michigan, has edited a work which has just been published by Ginn and Co., which will be of great service to students of English literature.

The title of the work is "Classic Myths in English Literature," and has for its basis Bulfinch's "Age of Fable," which was written in 1855. It was Prof. Gayley's design, and he has succeeded in it most admirably, to make his work suitable for a text-book on the subject. Consequently this work fills a long felt want, and it cannot but meet a hearty reception at the hands of students of English literature who want a short and concise treatise on classical myths, which enter so freely into the English classics.

She Could Never Come To Want.

The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, has just issued an entirely new form of policy, by which the Company will pay to the beneficiary a fixed amount each year for life, after the death of the insured. Any one who will send his age, (nearest birthday) will receive, free, a proposal which will illustrate what can be done. The Mutual Life is the largest and oldest Life Insurance Company. Assets over $175,000,000. Schuyler Grant, General Agent. Address, W. H. & H. C. Brearly, managers for Eastern Michigan. Number 80 Griswold St., Detroit, Michigan.

I have a fine farm near Ann Arbor which I will sell cheap, or will take a small farm or house and lot as part payment. For particulars address Box 1254, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Frederick Krause, auctioneer, will attend to all sales on short notice at reasonable charges. For further particulars call at the Argus office.

A New Pile Remedy

has created a sensation among physicians by its wonderful effects in speedily curing every form of Piles. It is called the Pyramid Pile Cure. It is cheap and simple to use, but nothing removes the diseases so quickly, safely and surely. Any druggist will get it for you.

RIVERSIDE MISSING.

A DETROIT SCHOONER THOUGHT TO BE LOST.

No News Received From Her Since She Left Kelly's Island—Owners Have Little Hope That She Escaped the Violence of the Gale.

DETROIT, Oct. 19.—It is greatly feared that another disaster, with loss of life, must be added to the long list that has resulted from the fearful storm of last Saturday.

The schooner Riverside of this port, with a cargo of 670 tons of stone, left Kelly's island last Friday morning, bound for Tonawanda, and not the slightest trace of her has since been heard of.

The owners have been hopeful that she had found shelter somewhere on the north shore of Lake Erie and would yet turn up in safety, but so long a time has now elapsed since she sailed that they have scarcely a hope that she escaped the violence of the gale. The arrival of the Leighton, however, which had been given up as lost, will encourage the friends of the crew of the Riverside to still entertain hope that she is afloat.

The crew of the Riverside was composed as follows:

CAPTAIN D. J. FARRINGTON and wife of Detroit.

JOSEPH HARGREAVES, mate, of Detroit.

JOHN HARGREAVES, seaman, of Detroit.

WILLIAM RAMOND, seaman, residence unknown.

JOHN PAIGE, seaman, residence unknown.

WILLIAM WHEALAR, seaman, residence unknown.

The Riverside is owned by J. M. Jones & Son of this city; rates A2, with a valuation of $5,000, with two-thirds of the amount covered with insurance.

DISASTROUS WRECK.

Shocking Rear-End Collision on the Michigan Central at Jackson.

JACKSON, Oct. 14.—In a moment's time the pleasurable anticipations of several hundred world's fair excursionists were turned into anguish and sorrow. At 9 o'clock Friday morning the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western special on the Michigan Central was standing in front of the depot, having made a 20-minute stop for breakfast. The passengers had nearly all completed their meal and taken their seats in the cars when another train was seen coming down the track at lightning speed. There was a sickening crash, a horrible grinding of timbers, a loud explosion, a cloud of escaping steam, and then a moment of awful silence which was broken by cries of anguish from the ruins. Two cars lay upon the earth ground into a pile of splinters and twisted, dismantled iron rods.

Both of the trains in collision were world's fair specials going west, and had come to the Michigan Central from the east, with none but New York passengers on board. One of them was known as the "Oswege" special.

The first or Oswege train had stopped 26 minutes in Jackson for breakfast, with the semaphore properly displayed a short distance behind it, and was just pulling out for Chicago when the other train came along and crashed into the rear cars.

Twelve were instantly killed, while a great many were seriously injured, one of whom has since died.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

Boydell's Paint Warehouse and Harmonie Hall Go Up In Flames.

DETROIT, Oct. 16.—The paint warehouse of Boydell Brothers at 40 to 46 Champlain street, Harmonie hall and a portion of the plug department of the Globe tobacco factory were destroyed by fire early Sunday morning.

George Boehnlein, a member of the Harmonie society, was caught in the falling timbers while trying to rescue property and burned to death. Morse Rohnert, who was with Boehnlein, had a narrow escape with his life and was badly bruised.

Several parties sustained severe shocks from the electric light wires which fell into the crowd. The loss is estimated at $200,000.

FOUND DEAD IN BED.

Peculiar Circumstances Connected With the Death of a Young Man.

JACKSON, Oct. 17.—Erving Ford, aged about 20, was found dead in his bed. The surroundings indicate suicide. There were two envelopes in a drawer in the dresser. One contained 2-grain capsules of quinine, the other 2-grain capsules of morphine.

Young Ford had been employed by the Tucker Music company for three months as bookkeeper. He was studious, sober and had no bad habits. His father is Charles A. Ford, who runs a general store at Hanover, and is a wealthy man. The friends of the dead young man are loth to believe he committed suicide, but prefer to believe that he took the drug to ease pain, as he was in poor health.

Stone Nominated.

DETROIT, Oct. 17.—James H. Stone was nominated for congress by the Republicans of the First district at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon. The convention met at Germania hall in the cold and nothing but the brisk contest between the three candidates, James H. Stone, Colonel William A. Gavett and Senator J. R. McLaughlin, kept the delegates warm. The result was assured from the first. When the name of James H. Stone was presented he was endorsed by delegates from the Third, Seventh, Fourth, Thirteenth, Eleventh and Tenth wards. There were but two votes. Upon the formal ballot Mr. Stone was elected. The ballot stood; James H. Stone, 25; J. R. McLaughlin, 2; William A. Gavett, 12.

Will Investigate the Lynching.

LANSING, Oct. 18.—Governor Rich and Attorney General Ellis were in conference together several hours talking over the charges brought by the latter against Sheriff Jacobs of Shiawassee county in connection with the lynching of William Sullivan at Cornuna last May, and the governor has issued a formal order directing the attorney general to take charge of the investigation. The law requires the testimony to be taken before the judge of probate or one of the circuit court commissioners. Judge of Probate Bush, whose home is in Vernon township, three miles from Durand, where most of the lynchers are supposed to reside, says his health is very poor, and the investigation will therefore probably be conducted before Circuit Court Commissioner J. G. Knight of Owosso. The attorney general will proceed in the matter as soon as possible and will make a very searching investigation.

Mrs. Stubb's Strange Death.

SAGINAW, Oct. 18.—Michigan Central section hands found the body of a woman lying on the track near the German planingmill. The feet were bare and no headwear could be found. The left arm had been cut off and the head had been badly cut and bruised. The police were notified and an investigation showed the remains were those of Mrs. F. J. Stubb, living at Walnut and Ninth streets. How Mrs. Stubb came to her death is merely a matter of conjecture. About two weeks ago her son was arrested charged with maliciously letting down a pair of bars on the farm of a Bridgeport resident and letting out some cattle. A day or so ago the lad was discharged in the police court, but the matter had so preyed on the mind of Mrs. Stubb that she became deranged.

Thought She Was a Bear.

ALPENA, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Mary Gould, wife of a farmer living five miles from Hillman, Montmorency county, was shot and fatally injured by a hunter named Timothy Hatch, who mistook her for a bear. Mrs. Gould was returning from the home of a neighbor and stopped to pick up some beechnuts when Hatch saw her and fired. The ball struck the shoulder and passed down into the body. She is still alive but cannot recover. Hatch is an old man with very defective eyesight. This is the fourth accident of this kind in this section in recent years.

Attempted Burglary.

SAGINAW, Oct. 19.—Burglars entered the postoffice and store of L. K. Clark of Oakley and attempted to get into his burglarproof safe where he had considerable money and stamps. They blew off the outer door of the safe only and did not get into the strong box. The explosion was terrific and knocked the whole front out of the store. This scared the robbers away as nothing was missing from the store. Two tramps were seen hanging around the village the previous afternoon and they are suspected of doing the work. Officers are hot on their trail.

Died While Gathering Chestnuts.

MARSHALL, Oct. 17.—Amos Hadden, a farmer at Rice Creek, fell dead while gathering chestnuts from under trees near his residence. The deceased was 84 years old, and one of the very first pioneers of Calhoun county. In 1835 he settled on Section 36 in the township where he has since resided continuously for 60 years. It is generally believed that he had secreted about his premises large sums of money which he is known to have accumulated. Owing to his sudden death its location remains a mystery.

Foul Play Feared.

GRAND RAPIDS, Oct. 19.—William Monroe, a highly respected citizen of Canisota, left that village with $800 in his possession to visit this city during the Maccabee review. It was supposed that he had deposited the money in a local bank and had gone to the world's fair, but no trace of either man or money can be found. His friends are greatly alarmed, fearing foul play. He was 74 years old and a pensioner of the rebellion.

Deal Gently With the Erring.

We have just received a copy of the greatest song ever published in this country. The privilege of publishing in America alone cost $2,000 in gold. It is a song that will reach the heart of every Christian in the land. The melody is perfectly beautiful; can be played on piano or organ. We give our readers the first verse and chorus:

FIRST VERSE.

Deal gently with the erring!
Ye know not of the power
With which the dark temptation came
In some unguarded hour.
Ye may not know how earnestly
They struggle nor how well,
Until the hour of weakness came,
And sadly thus they fell.

CHORUS.

Forget not thou hast often sinned,
And sinful yet must be!
Deal gently with the erring one
As God hath dealt with thee.

Price 40 cents per copy; can be obtained by addressing the publisher, F. W. Hemlock, 265 Sixth Ave., New York.

Our readers will receive a copy by sending 20 cents in postage stamps.

Sealed Proposals Wanted.
