Permanent Organization and Order of Business-J. F. Schuh, J. S. Forsythe, F. E. Mills.

The committee on permanent organization and order of business reported in favor of making the temporary organization permanent, and that the chairman and secretary of the county committee be elected by ballot. They also reported a plan vesterday and in fact was a spectator for the election of delegates by wards and townships so that each part of the county would be represented. This plan had been strongly advocated by P. G. Sukey, J. F Schuh, H. Lighthall and others of the county committee and results showed that it gave general satisfaction as allowing each section of the county to be represented. The convention sat down on one or two attempts to slightly change this order of business during the election of delegates.

A ballot was taken for chairman of the county committee and resulted: James R. Bach 41, Arthur Brown 50, F. E. Mills 14, J. F. Schuh 10, F. P. Bogardus 3, Wm. G. Doty 1, Chas. Dwyer 1, W. E. ills I

Small-Pox at Ypsilanti.

This morning Dr. Batwell was walking down the street and noticed a colored man named John Harris very peculiarly blotched out. He questioned him and examined him. It did not take long to determine that the man had a genuine case of smallpox and he was immediately ordered back to where he makes his headquarters when in the city, which is in the McAndrew building in the alley way back of King's store. Health Officer Owen was immediately notified and the promptness with which the city officials took action was immediately guarantined and not a person was allowed ingress or egress. There are numerous persons living in the same building and Dr. Owen immediately proceeded to vaccinate every one of them. Harris will be removed to what is known as the Hog Bank" in the southern part of the city tonight. When discovered Harris had seven or eight sores on his face. By noon he had 100, brought out by bathing with chloride of lime.

Harris, it seems comes to Ypsilanti off and on and several of his acquaintances stated this morning that he was mingling with the people on the streets in Justice Bogardus' court yesterday. There is no telling how many persons have been exposed and the doctors will probably be kept busy for the next few days vaccinating people.

Mayor Seymour, Marshal Ross and the deputies are taking all precautionary measures to prevent the disease from spreading.

Every person in the neighborhood of the McAndrew building was vaccinated by order today

The city authorities have established free vaccination quarters in Engine House No. 1 .- Daily Times.

Rousseau was essentially a landscape painter, and it was in the woods that he found his favorite themes. The splendors of the setting sun or sheltered nooks in the woods were subjects he was fond of painting. Beautiful effects like these enraptured him, and naturally he sought to reproduce them. In his mind it was man who played the principal part, and to his eyes the landscape was the stage on which the drama of humanity was represented. The continued labor which the life of man demands, his sufferings, his pains as well as his joys, his pleasures, his weariness, his rest, his peace-these were the conditions that appealed most strongly to Francois' imagination, and it was these which he felt himself driven to paint .-

It is not a fairy tale that I am going Miss Agnes McGuire died at the to tell you, though I do take you far home of her father Wednesday, June away to the orient, to the land of the lotus flower, the land of the pyramids, of the obelisks and the Nile, but a story true in word and fact.

It is the story of a key, before which vast treasure houses, impenetrable for ages, opened their doors. And when the portals were thrown wide the searchers gazed upon vistas containing riches of never dreamed.

It is not a key of gold, though its value is more than its weight in that precious metal, nor is it shaped like a key at all. And the wealth it unlocked is not only for its finders, but for all that desire to partake of it, for all posterity, for you and for me. I speak of the Rosetta stone, which is now in the British museum.

Many ages ago Ptolemy Epiphenes, king of Egypt, paid the arrears of taxes and other debts of the priesthood of Egypt, and in thanks and to show their respect for his consideration the priesthood, at a synod held in Memphis, passed a decree commemorating it. The decree was cut into stone, as that was the mode of preserving a record of historical events. This happened about 195 years before the Christian era.

You must know that the Egyptians had a different mode of writing from ours. They used hieroglyphics or picture writing, and this, after great research, has been discovered to be the written interpretation of sounds.

That a record of Epiphenes' deed might not be lost the Egyptians had the decree written in three different languages, the hieroglyphic, the demotic and the Greek. This was done as a precaution, because, as the country had many dialects, a language once in use was likely to die out in time. So by making this trilingual copy of the event, each a translation of the other, it was likely to be preserved.

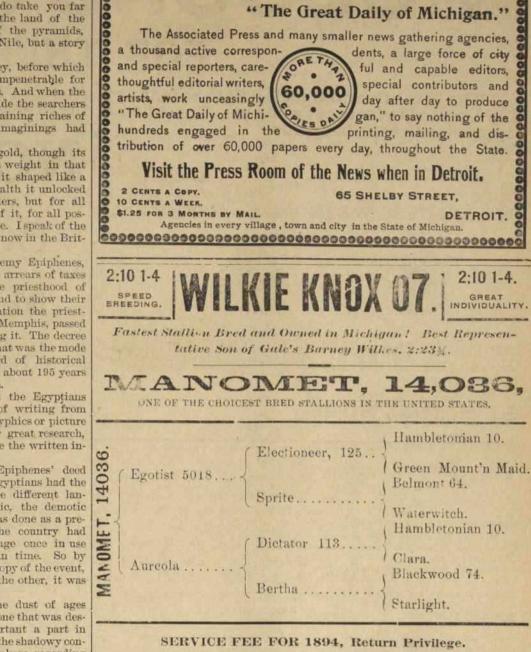

Years passed, and the dust of ages baried from view the stone that was destined to play so important a part in throwing a light upon the shadowy conceptions of modern thinkers regarding the past life and manners and customs of the Egyptians.

This is the origin of the Rosetta stone, but no one in the modern world knew of its existence until the time of Napoleon. He carried his conquering arms all over Europe, and not content with his victories there he invaded Egypt, where he fought the brilliant Egyptian campaign. While stationed near Rosetta, in lower Egypt, some of the soldiers with the French engineer, M. Boussard, found, while excavating in the historical soil, a block of stone of black basalt, about 3½ feet in length and a little more than 21/2 feet in width. On it they saw strange and unintelligible wirting or drawings. It was the Rosetta stone, so called from the name of the place where it was found, but they did not dream how precious their discovery would prove.

And it was not until about 15 years had passed that even one word was translated. Dr. Young in 1815 made out the word Ptolemy, and he it was who discovered that the writing was phonetic and not ideographic, as had been supposed. But the key had not yet done its work, for, like Aladdin and his lamp, the talisman had not yet been conquered.

home market. Senator McMillan made a strong plea, recently, in the senate against putting wool on the free list. The senator knows that a blow at the farmer is a blow at all productive industries, and is doing all he can to protect wool

Yes the Canadian Senator has done much to protect the wool men -from having any profit on the production. Wool lower every year since the increase of the wool tariff.

A proposal, recently submitted to the referendum in Switzerland to insert in the constitution an affirmation of the right of every citiz n to employment, which, had it been voted, would have practically carried with it the obligation of the government to furnish employment for the idle, was rejected by a vote of 300,000 against, to 85,000 for. Evidently the people of Switzerland are not ready for any such socialistic scheme.

Protection exports more wheat than the United protecting itself against itself and its protected labor, with the tarifftaxed pauper coal of Canada and Wales is a pathetic "tariff picture' which the New York Press and the Hillsdale Leader seem to have missed. It is now costing protectionists 75 cents a ton to illustrate some of the beauties of their own theory. The tariff is a tax.

> The coal barons and other advocates of protection have been wontto deceive the labor of the country by claiming that protective duties were laid for the benefit of the laboring men and were necessary to cover the difference between the wages of foreign pauper labor and and home wages. The recent experiences of the coal miners ought to afford the workingmen some light upon the subject. It will be observed that while there is a duty of 75 cents a ton on coal, the miners of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Illinois and and Indiana are to receive, under the new scale fixed by the operators and the union, the handsome sum of 60 cents a ton for mining it. In other words the duty pays the entire labor cost and gives the mine operators 15 cents a ton as a bonus. If the protectionist theory is true, therefore, foreign coal laborers should pay their employers a bonus of 15 cent a ton for the privilege of work- pox.

In March there was a loss of ten per cent. and in April of 22 per cent. Argentina's exports during ing February increased 16 per cent., more than doubled during March and increased 86 percent during April. Great Britain and Ireland alone take 8,000,000 bushels of Argentine wheat a month. Notwithstanding the enormous exports Argentina still has 40,000,000 bushels of last year's crop for exportation. Mr. Ellis Charges Witness Wood With Perjury.

STATEMENTS ABSOLUTELY FALSE.

Ex-Senators Chauncey Wisner and Peter Park Testified to a Conversation With Postmaster Frank Healy, During Which He Told Them About His Good Work on the Salaries Amendment.

MASON, June 20 .-- In the Ellis trial Tuesday Frank Healy was called to confess that he knew ex-Senators Chauncey Wisner and Peter Park, and said he had a conversation with Mr. Wisner in the presence of Mr. Park, during which he asked Mr. Wisner to support the Thirty-second district judicial bill, but did not remember urging as a reason for this support the fact that he had done great work for the salary amendment bill, nor did he think he had said he had just brought down the returns, for he did not do so. Neither did he remember when the returns arrived, or anything about their arrival

Peter Park remembered Mr. Healy's making such a request, and also his saying that he had just brought down the returns. Mr. Wisner remembered this same

Mr. Wisner remembered this same thing in reference to the returns. The ex-senator also saw the attorney gen-eral in Saginaw on April 27, 1891. Mr. Wisner said he was the father of the amendment, and he remembered the conversation because Mr. Healy was the first man to tell him that it had availed and thet Gozbie head corrid carried, and that Gogebic had carried it. Mr. Wisner said he had hard time convincing Mr. Barkworth that the judiciary bill was a good thing, but after several interviews fetched him, and he reported the bill. Mr. Ellis took the stand and took up the thread of his alibi. He left Port Huron at 1 o'clock on April 25. 1891, ar-riving at Lansing at 4 o'clock, and re-maining there until 7 o'clock in the wenning, when he left for Ionia. Mr. Ellis knows Mr. W. H. S. Wood, and characterized as absolutely false every statement made by that witness concerning the changing of the Gogebic returns. He finished his emphatic declaration by saying: "They are falser than h—l a good deal." Mr. Ellis never asked Miss Harty to make any changes and never had the returns in that office. He never told Mr. Wood not to say anything about the changes, and never introduced Healy to Wood.

Mr. Ellis said there was no need in asking him in detail concerning Mr. Wood's testimony, as it was a clear case of perjury throughout. This declaration was repeated many times. Referring to the $1,000 certificate of the defunct Lansing bank, Mr. Ellis said he felt compelled to tell Mr. Wood that the certificate could not be accept-ed as cash in settlement of his industrial school accounts.

Mr. Ellis said the reason he did not testify before the grand jury at Mason was because at the same time he was invited, he got word that he had been indicted, and had better furnish bonds. He thought at this time it was too late. The proceedings in the afternoon were not of a startling character. The respondent was upon the stand nearly the entire time. His denials continued be of the most positive character. Testimony to show his efficiency and that he had saved the state $15,000 per year was excluded by the court and 10,30000 objection taken. It was intimated that 13,56800 the conduct of his office was not on cided by an almost unanimous vote to inaugurate a teneral strike of the Go-gebic range employes. The skilled miners, who are mostly nonunion men, have so far resisted all attempts at striking. Should they attempt to go to work now it is believed the unionists will prevent them. The general impression is that this means a stubborn fight and that 3,000 men in this district will be out.

Foreign Miners In Pennsylvania Ready For a Fight.

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., June 20 .- All is quiet at Horatio, and 20 carloads were mined Tuesday, but at Walston the foreigners, Italians and Hungarians, are on the rampage. They are well armed and patrol the railroad on the lookout for trains bearing new men. A mob attacked a couple of Italians who were suspected of being spies. They were beaten, and one is now held prisoner in one of the houses. The post-master from Walston came here in search of a house. He says Walston is a dangerous place, as the foreigners are in possession, have thrown up embank-ments, dug trenches, and in every way prepared themselves for a battle should the company attempt to start the mines with new men.

CORRESPONDENCE READ IN COURT.

light of Defense to Introduce New Witnesses In Rebuttal Discussed-A Bessemer Paper Offered as Evidence-Witness Wood's Testimony Corroborated by Experts-Both Sides Rest.

MASON. June 21 .-- When court convened Wednesday morning Otto Kirchner offered to read the correspondence of M. M. Riley, received in reference to the 1891 frauds. First was a telegram from C. E. Baxter telling Riley to watch Ellis in his January northern trip, and an answer from Riley saying the vote would not be changed. There was then a letter from Mr. Riley to Mr. Baxter, in which it was said that Ellis tried to retain the legal firm of Riley & Cooper, but when Mr. Cooper learned the character of the services required he gave back the retainer. Mr. Riley also said the returns had undoubtedly been changed in Lansing. This is practically as Mr. Riley and Mr. Cooper testified.

J. F. Hambitzer replied, retaining Mr. Riley for the state central com-mittee, to investigate suspicious circumstances, and said the salary amendment returns were received 11 days later, but in an additional letter said they were mailed at the same time as the regent's return, and there was nothing but surmise to show when the changes had been made. In the next letter Riley said he was satisfied that Ellis either committed the frauds, or knew who did.

Nearly an hour was consumed by at torneys in discussing the right of the defense to introduce new witnesses in rebuttal. A recess of 10 minutes was taken, and the judge said he would rule at once upon the indorsement of any new witnesses

A copy of The Pick and Ax of Bessemer, printed in April, 1891, was intro-duced to show that the vote on the sal-ary amendment as reported was 319 aye and 28 nay. This evidence was introduced through Conrad Carlson. Alex Strum said that when Ellis called in January he examined the records and returns at the same time. He said that the last lines written in the Gogebic record book was on April 26, 1891. In the afternoon expert testimony was introduced to the effect that the changes in all the Gogebic county returns were made by the same parties, which corroborated Witness Wood's testimony that he changed all, and contradicted the defense experts that they were not made by one party. L. E. Rowley swore that Ellis told him that he first got information that something was wrong in Gogebic from something was wrong in Gogenic from J. B. Barry. Ellis testified that it first came from an anonymous letter, the parentage of which is somewhat in doubt in the minds of the prosecution. Both sides rested and the arguments begin today and are limited to six hours on each side. It will probably go to the jury Friday afternoon.

Will Not Get the Money.

FLINT, June 20.-A year ago Mrs. Catharine H. Stone died, and in her will bequeathed to the Old Ladies' home of this city, when such an insti-tution should be established, $500: to the Old Ladies' home of Detroit, $500; to the Orphans' home of Detroit, $500, and to the Congregational church of this city, $500. These bequests were to have been paid out of a fund which deceased said was held in trust by her son, George L. Stone. The final ac-count of the executor has been filed in probate court and reveals that no such fund existed, so the institutions named will not get the money.

On Sunday when she went to church she told her husband to look after the children as he would never see her alive again. When she returned from church she seemed to have forgotten all about her threat.

Shortly after dinner yesterday her husband mi ed her for about five min utes, and on looking for her found her lying in the woodshed with her throat cut and the blood pouring from the wound. An ordinary breadknife lay beside her, showing that she had used it in the deed.

Dr. Henry called the Emergency hospital ambulance and she was taken to that institution. Dr. Hal C. Wyman examined the wound and said she had severed the win ipipe completely. He dressed her wounds, but gives little hope for her recovery.

NO ONE INJURED.

A Head-End Collision on the Flint and Pere Marquette.

PORT HURON. June 21.-A head-end collision between an east and a westbound passenger train on the Flint and Pere Marquette occurred near the Chicago and Grand Trunk junction, three miles west of this city. The engineer and fireman of each train jumped when it became apparent that a collision was unavoidable and escaped injury. Both engines were dismantled, but the passengers only sustained a severe shaking up. The trains in collision were the one leaving here at 9:18 a. m. and one due to arrive here at 9:50. They were to meet at the junction and it seems that the westbound train took the wrong track, and when the incoming train came around the curve it was too late to bring it to a standstill. New engines were sent out from here and traffic was not much interrupted.
