SCHAIER & MILLEN

CONFESSED HIS GUILT

Glenn A. Trowbridge Arrested Sunday Night for

ROBBING THE MAILS

Had Carried On the Practice for More Than a Year,

Cleverly Dodging All Decoy Schemes. He Took $200 in This Way, and a Trifle More Than That From the P. O. Safe.

"Mr. Beakes I am the man who has been robbing the Ann Arbor postoffice." Such were the words which greeted the postmaster when he answered the bell at his residence at about 11 o'clock Sunday night and found Glenn A. Trowbridge, the assistant mailing clerk, standing there.

For some months it has been definitely known that some one was abstracting money from letters in the Ann Arbor postoffice and also government funds from the office. These thefts were periodic and it was not until recently that they became numerous enough to afford the necessary opportunities for detection, the more especially as all the thefts were very cleverly done and all the usual decoy schemes carefully avoided. A vast amount of work was done on the case and the tolls were gradually but surely woven around the guilty party, when the confession of Sunday night terminated the long strain under which the heads of the office had been laboring and for the first time revealed to the office force the watch which had been kept over them during the past year.

Trowbridge was taken in charge by Marshal Sweet and Officer Collins before morning but was not placed under arrest until in accordance with prearrangement he accompanied the postmaster to Detroit Monday morning, being met on the train by Postoffice Inspector Larmour. He was arraigned before Commissioner Graves and held under $1,000 bail to await the action of the grand jury in June, the bail being furnished Wednesday.

Trowbridge acknowledges taking about $200 from letters, principally incoming mail, and an amount slightly larger from the postmaster, which was taken from the postoffice safe. Drafts or checks, which he obtained, were destroyed and complaints of the loss of these were much more numerous than that of the loss of money.

Trowbridge was 21 years of age last November. He had none of what are ordinarily termed the small vices and had the good opinion of all who were acquainted with him. He had been a clerk in the postoffice since September, 1894, having passed the highest civil service examination ever passed at this office. He was a very efficient workman and a young man of much more than ordinary intelligence and information. In another month or two, had he been strictly honest, he would probably have been promoted to a position drawing double the salary he was getting and would then have been receiving a larger increase in salary than his peculations were amounting to.

CALVE REGRETTED

That Her Manager Had Slurred Ann Arbor Hotels.

Mlle. Emma Calve was the guest of the Cook house for several hours last Friday evening and went her way with the warmest of praise for the treatment accorded her while in our city. The parlor and Landlod Wilcox's two private rooms at the Cook house were given over to her use and lunch was served in her rooms, both of which she declared through her maid were "as good as the Cadillac," referring to Detroit's noted hostelry. She was much grieved at the slur cast by her manager at Ann Arbor hotels and begged Mr. Stewart, of the orchestra, to straighten the matter up with the newspaper men, which he obligingly promised to do. Calve made many friends during her short visit, not alone by her magnificent singing at Friday night's concert, but also by her gracious manners and kindly treatment of all with whom she came in contact.—Times.

But Mr. Stewart never saw the newspaper men and had it not been for other parties Calve's regrets for his slurs would never have reached them. The authorship of the slurs rests with Mlle. Calve's manager, and he alone.

DEATH OF THOMAS KEARNEY.

He Passed Away Very Suddenly Yesterday Morning.

Thomas Kearney, the father of ex-Prosecuting Attorney Thomas D. Kearney, died very suddenly of heart failure at his home No. 4 Forest ave., in this city, yesterday morning. He had been in failing health for a year or more, but his condition was not considered especially dangerous. He was on the streets in his usual health on Wednesday and the many persons with whom he conversed on that day and the friends who have been accustomed to see each morning his familiar form, his pleasant face and receive his friendly greetings were greatly shocked to hear of his sudden death.

Mr. Kearney was 72 years of age. He was born in Tipperary County, Ireland. In 1840 his entire family, consisting of father, mother, five brothers and three sisters, left Ireland and settled in Webster in this county, where the parents and two brothers are buried. In the early days of the gold excitement, about 1851, Mr. Kearney and James Duffy, whose sister, Catherine M. Kearney afterwards married, went to California. Mr. Duffy acquired a fortune and distinction in California and died there a few years ago. After about four years, Mr. Kearney returned and with the small fortune which he had made there by working in the mines he purchased the farm in Northfield which he still owns. About four years ago Mr. Kearney moved to this city where he has since resided.

He leaves five children, Julia, the wife of Con Tuomey, two sons, Thomas D. and John, and two daughters, Mary and Kate, who were living with their father at the time of his death.

Mr. Kearney was the soul of truthfulness, integrity and honor. His word was as good as his bond. Money has been put into his hands by candidates for office to be expended for their benefit and to their amazement, returned after the election. Candidates for office know very well that money placed in the hands of a person for such a purpose is rarely seen again. Thomas Kearney was a faithful friend and his friendship never bore a money price. His California experience demonstrated well the solid uprightness of his character. Going there in an early day when there were scarcely any legal or social restraints and when temptations for gambling, drinking and other vices were simply tremendous, he withstood them all and came home upright, self-respecting and clean, to marry the girl of his choice. He was a kind husband. He was an affectionate father. He was an obliging neighbor. His memory will be held as a sacred inheritance by his children and many friends not connected to him by ties of blood will drop a tear at his grave.

ABANDONED HIS WIFE

And Taking Their Infant With Him a Student Skips Out.

Mrs. H. L. Cone, of this city, applied to Sheriff Judson on Monday for relief in a rather peculiar case. Her husband, who has been a student in the medical department of the university, has abandoned her in absolute want and kidnapped their 15-months old child. Investigation shows that Cone cleaned out the living apartments of himself and wife last week, selling off all the books, furniture and clothing for which he could find a buyer and on Sunday taking the baby and baby went to Toledo, and from thence presumably to Florida where he lived years ago. The couple formerly resided in Battle Creek. Mrs. Cone says that her husband was badly in debt. Sheriff Judson can do nothing since the man is outside of the state and the woman is unable to follow her husband and child, not having sufficient means.

A Seemingly Unprovoked Assault.

Charles M. Smart, a rag peddler, whose wife died about seven weeks ago, was arrested by the officers for an assault and battery on his sister-in-law, Mrs. Almeda Killenbach, of Willis. Smart went to Mrs. Killenbach's house on Friday night last and left his little 18 months old daughter on the doosteps. Since his mother died the child had been living with someone in Plymouth. Mrs. Killenbach thinking a transfer had been agreed upon took the little one in and next day came to Ann Arbor and obtained advice to hold the child and take care of it if she wished.

On Saturday Smart accompanied by his son went to Mrs. Killenbach's and demanded the child. The little one clung to her aunt and begged to be allowed to remain and Mrs. Killenbach was willing she should remain. Smart would not have it that way and assaulted Mrs. Killenbach by striking her on the head with his fist several times felling her to the floor. Mrs. Killenbach swore out a warrant for Smart's arrest and Deputy Sheriff Ross who went to Willis to serve it hunted for Smart until 9 o'clock Sunday, but had no success in finding him.

Smart returned to Whittaker Monday morning and the deputy sheriff arrested him. He was taken to Ypsilanti and arraigned before Justice Joslyn. He pleaded not guilty to the charge and was released on bail to appear June 1.

Emanuel Wagner will open a billiard room over Lindenschmitt & Apfel's store in the near future.

IT OPPOSED REMOVAL

Michigan Senators Voted on the Homeop. Question.

BILL KILLED 15 TO 10

All Kinds of Arguments Used on Both Sides.

Senator Mason Talked Long and Died Hard.—Senator Campbell Aably Contested the Passage of This Very Selfish Bill.

It is not likely that the homeopathic department of the University of Michigan will be removed from Ann Arbor to Detroit yet awhile to judge by the action of the senate on Wednesday evening, as at that time in spite of the strenuous efforts put forth by Senator Mason, who fathers the bill, ably seconded by the senators from Wayne county and others, the bill was defeated by a vote of 15 to 10.

The bill came up on the general order in the senate Wednesday afternoon. After an amendment had been voted down to substitute Gladstone, the home of Senator Mason, for Detroit, as the place to which the department should be removed, Senator Campbell moved to strike out all after the enacting clause. He claimed the bill was being pushed for personal reasons out of spite, referring to the interest manifested in the matter by Dr. MacLachlan, of Detroit, who stepped out of the university faculty, together with Dr. Oetz. He contended that the removal of any department of the university meant the disintegration of the great institution of learning.

Senator Mason said the homeopathic department had always been discriminated against at the university, and he maintained that the attendance of the department would be increased five-fold if the removal were to be made.

Senator Loomis said the legislature had no business to interfere with the regents' conduct of the university. He opposed the measure on "general principles," as he expressed it, and he had employed a homeopathic physician in his family for 20 years, too. The department removal amendment is tacked on as a rider to the law, providing the one-sixth of a mill tax for the benefit of the university and linked with it is the provision that the regents should carry out the mandates of the legislature regarding removal or secure for university benefit only such relief as would be obtained by a tax of one-twentieth of a mill. Senator Loomis deprecated this linking of gift and threat and was warmly applauded for his remarks.

Senator Thompson made a strong plea for the passage of the bill. He expressed himself as one of the firmest friends which the university possessed. He regarded its teachings necessary for the putting down of socialism, which he declared was rampant in the state and was being fostered by those in high authority. He said the homeopaths had been treated with unfairness, neglect, contumely and contempt and the only way to correct this was a tightening of the purse-strings. He mentioned the offer of Senator James McMillan, Dexter M. Ferry and other Detroit citizens of a suitable site for the department in the event of removal.

Senator Coleman was against removal and Senator Moore for it. No action was taken.

At the night session the senators did lots more talking over the bill. Senator Mason was very bitter in his remarks in favor of its passage. Senators Holmes, Lawrence, Mudge, Hughes and Thompson also talked for removal. The discussion came to an end after Senator Mason had made the statement that there were men on the board of regents of whom the people should be rid, and that there had been much opposition to the nomination of Regent Barbour at the spring convention because of his stand in the removal matter. The bill was then put on its passage and was defeated by the following vote:

- Nays—Barnard, Barnum, Bostwick, Campbell, Coleman, Covell, Jibb, Loomis, Maitland, Merriman, Robinson, Savidge, Teeple, Wagner, Youmans—15.
- Yeas—Hadsall, Holmes, Hughes, Lawrence, Mason, Moore, Mudge, Thompson, Westcott, president pro tem—10.

To Amalgamate Alumni Societies.

During Commencement week of last year an alumni committee consisting of Regent L. L. Barbour, J. E. Beal and Prof. George Hempel, was appointed for the purpose of devising some suitable plan for amalgamating the several alumni societies of the university. The committee had a meeting Thursday of last week, at which all the members were present, also Regent W. J. Cocker, and L. P. Jocelyn, president and secretary respectively of the U. of M. Society of the Alumni, and L. A. Pratt, of the Michigan Alumnus. After a lively discussion of the matters in hand it was decided to call a meeting of leading alumni, representing all the university societies, for June 2, in the faculty room at University hall, when it is expected that a plan will be decided on which will be satisfactory to all concerned.

WHEAT THIEVES ARRESTED.

Their Very Suspicious Actions Was What Led Up to It.

Friday of last week Sheriff Judson and Deputy Canfield arrested Arthur Calkins, of Cherry Hill, and Frank Boyle and John Whitman, of Green Oak, on the charge of stealing a quantity of wheat the night previous. At an early hour Friday morning the men went to the Kyer Milling Co.'s mill and offered 15 bushels of wheat for sale. They received a check for $11.80 in payment for it which they tried to get cashed at Dean & Co.'s store. They were so anxious to get it cashed that they finally discounted it 80 cents and took $11 for it. Their actions when they sold the wheat and subsequently were so suspicious that N. J. Kyer informed the officers he thought the wheat had been stolen. They called on A. R. Peterson, who bought the wheat of the men to identify them, which he did. The three men started off towards Ypsilanti, followed by the officers, who were more than ever convinced as they proceeded and saw the actions of the men that all was not just right and they accordingly arrested them on suspicion.

On being arrested Calkins at once confessed that they had stolen the wheat from the barn of Mrs. Philip Dunlavy, of Webster township. This Boyle and Whitman strenuously denied, but they were brought to Ann Arbor and placed in jail. Mrs. Dunlavy swore out a complaint against them and they were taken before Justice Pond on Monday. They waived examination and were bound over for trial at the next term of the circuit court.

STAEBLER-PAUL.

A Big Wedding at the Paul Homestead in Scio.

Mr. Michael Staebler, the well known coal and agricultural implement dealer and proprietor of the American house, was married on Tuesday afternoon to Miss Rosa K. Paul at the old Paul homestead in Scio township, three miles west of the city. The brief but impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. John Neumann in the presence of their relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Paul acted as groomsmen and bridesmaid respectively. During the afternoon and evening fully 300 people were present at the house and tendered their hearty congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Staebler. A sumptuous wedding dinner followed the ceremony. During the evening the Lyra Maennerchor went out from the Ann Arbor and surprised the couple with a pleasant serenade. A mandolin and guitar trio also gave some selections during the evening.

On Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. Staebler left for a brief wedding trip and on their return will take up their abode at the American house. The Argus extends to Mr. and Mrs. Staebler its best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

POWERLESS TO HELP.

A Mother Sees a Barn Burn Unable to Save Her Childres.

Two children of John Welch, who lives near Milan, met a horrible death Thursday evening of last week by being burned to death in a little log barn, in which they had gone to play. They had built a fire in the place and the flames made such headway their exit was cut off. Their cries alarmed their mother, who was in the house, and the poor woman was frantic when she found she could not assist her little ones. The building burned to the ground and nothing but the bones of the children were recovered from the ruins. The victims were aged 6 and 8 years, respectively.

It is understood that the company's agents some time ago offered Mr. Stewart $150 for the damage which he claimed had been done by filling up the runway on his farm and under the railroad.

Judge Kinne dismissed the jury for the May term Wednesday morning. The balance of the term will be devoted to the hearing of chancery cases.

Yesterday morning the motion to grant bail to Wm. Larkins, Ed. Lyon and Rupert Jones, the Richards suspects, was argued and Judge Kinne issued an order admitting them to bail on bonds of $5,000 each. It is understood that the bonds will be furnished by friends of the young men.

A beautiful pipe organ, made by the firm of Farrand & Votey, of Detroit, has been purchased for St. Mary's church, Chelsea, and will be placed in position in a few days. The cost will be $1,500. The organ will be formally dedicated on Tuesday evening, June 1, with a fine concert, both vocal and instrumental, given by eminent Detroit talent. Prof. Freytag, one of the best organists in the state, will preside at the organ. Dr. Reilly, of Adrian, will give a short address on the "Genesis of Music."

James B. Lord, living one-half mile east of the Island school house, in Augusta township, died Saturday, May 8, after a sickness of two weeks. He had been in poor health for several years. Mr. Lord was an old resident of the state, having come here with his parents in 1836, and has lived here since, except a few years spent in mercantile pursuits in Buffalo. He took up the farm of 80 acres on which he died 27 years ago, it being then in a wild state but he made a fine farm out of it. Nine children survive him, Mrs. Lord having died some years ago. He was a charter member of Fraternity Grange and was buried according to the ritual of that order.

THE BLUES.

A Graphic Description of the Dreadful Feeling.

What Is Meant by This Form of Acute Misery—Where Doctors Make Mistakes.

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the blues, it is a sad picture.

It is usually this way:— She has been feeling "out of sorts" for some time; head has ached, and back also; has slept poorly; been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart has beat very fast; then that bearing-down feeling. Her doctor says, "cheer up, you have dyspepsia; you'll be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right." She grows worse day by day, till all at once she realizes that a distressing female complaint is established.

Her doctor has made a mistake. She has lost faith in him; hope vanishes; then comes the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting blues. Her doctor, if he knew, should have told her and cured her, but he did not, and she was allowed to suffer. By chance she came across one of Mrs. Pinkham's books, and in it she found her very symptoms described and an explanation of what they meant. Then she wrote to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice, feeling that she was telling her troubles to a woman. Speedy relief followed, and vigorous health returned.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound instantly asserts its curative powers in all those peculiar ailments of women. It has been the standby of intelligent American women for twenty years, and the story recited above is the true experience of hundreds of women, whose letters of gratitude are to be found on file in Mrs. Pinkham's library.

The pink shirt waist laughs lightly as it passes the winter coat.—Washtenaw Times. That was during the first "warm spell." INTEREST UNABATED.

The Cuban Question Brings People to the Senate.

MASON DELIVERS AN ADDRESS.

He Predicts That This Country Will Yet Send a La Fayette to the Island of Cuba.—President McKinley Urged to Make Changes in Certain Branches of the Civil Service.—Other News from the National Capital.

Washington, May 18.—There was no abatement of interest in the Cuban question in the senate Tuesday and the galleries were well filled when the session opened at noon, although the Morgan resolution was not in order until 2 o'clock. Stewart of Nevada gave notice of an amendment which he would offer to the tariff bill. It provides that there shall be, at all times, a reserve fund in the treasury of $50,000,000. That whenever the available balance in the treasury shall exceed $50,000,000 it shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury to invest the surplus over the sum in United States bonds, and that when less than $50,000,000 is in the treasury he shall issue legal tender non-interest-bearing notes, to make up the deficiency.

Redemption of the Notes. That such notes shall be redeemable out of the first surplus over $50,000,000; that in case insufficient coin to meet the coin obligations of the United States shall come into the treasury through the ordinary sources of revenue, the secretary shall exchange the silver certificates for the coin which is in the treasury for their redemption; that the conversion of the silver certificates shall discharge the coin obligations of the United States; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the treasury to coin sufficient of the silver bullion purchased under the law of July 14, 1890, to supply all deficiencies in the supply of coin (under these provisions) to meet and discharge all coin obligations presented.

Bills and Resolutions Passed. The calendar was taken up and the following bills and resolutions passed: Authorizing a bridge across the Pearl river, Mississippi; amending the act authorizing the building of the Duluth and Superior bridge over the St. Louis river, so as to modify the conditions as to dredging; authorizing the construction of bridges across the Missouri river between its mouth and the mouth of the Dakota or James river and across the Mississippi river between the mouth of the Minnesota river, in Minnesota, and Donaldsonville, La., and across the Illinois and Desplaines rivers between the mouth of the Illinois and Joliet, Ills., and to prescribe the character, location and dimensions of the same.

Mason Talks for Cuba. The Morgan Cuban resolution was taken up at 2 o'clock and Mason of Illinois spoke in its support. Mason read President McKinley's message of Monday to prove that a state of war exists in Cuba. "If there is not war," he said, "then there ought to be with us." He said the Americans in Cuba needed to be defended with bayonets as well as with bread. He said that during the last campaign he had felt the pulse of thousands of people and was satisfied there was a deep general interest among the people in the interest of Cuban freedom. He was for Cuba not for commercial reasons or for the acquisition of territory, after the English fashion, but for better reasons. Mason predicted that this country would yet develop a Lafayette for Cuba.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORMS.

President Urged to Make Changes in Certain Branches. Washington, May 18.—Great pressure has been brought to bear on the president for changes in certain branches of the civil service, especially since the meetings of the senate committee investigating the workings of the civil service. The main propositions in the reforms demanded are briefly as follows:

- 1. The abolition of the rule allowing reinstatement of government employes without examination only within one year from the time of their removal from the service.
2. The exception from examination of all chiefs of divisions, superintendents and foremen, and all officials whose duties are of an executive character.
3. The issuing of a general order rescinding all extensions of the classified service made since President Harrison's administration.

The president has given no intimation as to what course he will pursue.

Notice to Absentees. Washington, May 18.—General Grosvenor of Ohio, chairman of the Republican house caucus, has sent word to all the absent Republicans of the house impressing them with the importance of being present at the session of the house on Thursday, when a special order will be brought in to secure action on the joint resolution for the relief of Americans in Cuba. It is expected that the Democrats and Populists will seek to force a vote on the Morgan resolution by some parliamentary expedient and the Republicans desire to have their full strength present to vote down any proposition designed to complicate the question raised by the president's special message.

Income Tax Explained. Washington, May 18.—Representative Cochran of Missouri introduced a resolution for submitting to the legislature of the states an amendment to the constitution, which is as follows: "An income tax shall not be construed as a direct tax within the meaning of section 2 and section 9 or article 1 of the constitution, but the congress shall have power to lay and collect a tax on incomes derived from any source whatever without regard to apportionment or enumeration."

New York Fashion Letter.

As the season advances we find that Eton jackets and the bolero are becoming too ordinary for the ultra fashionable and in order to get away from these shapes double breasted effects are being rapidly adopted. Outside coats, dress waists and even evening bodices are being fashioned after this style. The evening bodices are draped in soft folds which cross at the waist line, and are fastened with fancy buckles or buttons, giving much the same idea that the surprise used to have. This style is very becoming to almost any figure and gives an opportunity of showing a V shaped piece in the front of the bodice, which can be made of fine lace or embroidered chiffon.

Mosquitario sleeves continue to be very popular. Even the summer lawns and organdies which are not lined are made up in this style. In making up these sleeves it is necessary to use a tape on the inside seam of the sleeve to which the fullness can be tacked. Another idea is to make a seam on the back as well as the front of the sleeve and stitch the seams double so that a soft cord can be drawn through the seam, and the fullness distributed carefully and then caught to the cord with invisible stitches. The hand trimmings are made of lace, chiffon or embroidered muslins and in many cases fall down over the hand almost to the knuckles.

The collars for light summer gowns become more and more elaborate as the season advances. Dressmakers now spend almost as much time originating new ideas for collars as they used to spend in designing a whole gown. A pretty neck trimming, beyond a doubt, is a very necessary feature in the summer dresses.

Ribbons are used in great profusion not only for collars and belts but as waist and skirt trimmings. They are used to make a pretty contrast with the color of the dress, rather than to match it. One very pretty imported gown is now on exhibition at one of our prominent modistes. It is made of Nile green organdie over heliotrope silk. The bottom of the skirt is trimmed with three rows of inch wide ribbon, each row being of a different shade of heliotrope. Three rows of the same ribbon are applied around the hips, and bows made of loops of the different shades of heliotrope are used to trim the waist and sleeves. The effect is very pleasing and artistic.

For the above information we are indebted to A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th st., New York, who publish the only cheap imported Fashion Journal sold in this country. "La Mode de Paris" is $3.50 a year, 35 cents a copy, and "French Dressmaker" is $3.00 a year, 30 cents a copy. These journals make a special feature of lessons on practical dressmaking each month. During the next six months they will give a series of lessons on bicycle costumes which will be of great interest to both professional and amateur dressmakers. If you cannot secure these books at your newsdealers, send direct to the publishers.

Mayor Caldwell to Hold Over. Columbus, O., May 18.—The supreme court Tuesday pronounced a special act constitutional which was passed in 1896 extending the term of the mayor of Cincinnati to July 1, 1897. The result is that John A. Caldwell, present mayor, will hold over and make important appointments, some of which continue beyond the term of Gustav Tafel, who was elected mayor this spring and who went into the courts to obtain immediate possession of the office.

TURKS HAVE DOMOKOS

Constantine and His Army Are Forced Out.

NEXT STAND OF GREEK TROOPS.

May Stake Everything in the Famous Pass Which Leonidas Held Against a Huge Russian Army—Russia Takes a Hand in the Game and Causes a Sudden Change in the Political Situation—Panic Prevails at Arta.

Athens, May 18.—Disregardful of the powers' promise to check Edhem Pasha's army while peace terms were being discussed, the sultan's forces have never for a moment halted in their advance upon Athens. Greece is not wholly blameless; Colonel Manos' latest effort to snatch victory in Epirus was as much in violation of the temporary armistice as was Edhem Pasha's victorious attack on the Greeks' Thessalian headquarters in Domokos Monday. These are the principal developments of the last twenty-four hours: Edhem Pasha's army has occupied Domokos, from which Prince Constantine's Greek army of 35,000 men, after a desperate all-day battle with 50,000 assailants, has retreated. The Greeks have abandoned Almyros, which has been occupied by 1,500 Turks. General Smolenski is retreating on Kephalloni. Colonels Vasos and Limbricis started for the front with the whole of the garrison of Athens.

Next Stand of the Greeks. It is expected the next stand of the beaten, ill-officed, poorly-equipped but magnificently courageous Greek troops will be in the pass of Thermopylae, which Leonidas, with 300 Spartans, successfully defended against a huge Persian army. The Greek fleet, which has been ignominiously inactive throughout this war, will be able to shell the mountain defiles through which the invading Turkish army must move to attack the pass. The fact that the whole Athenian garrison has been sent to the front proves that the government is at last convinced of the futility of parleying with the victorious Turks, and means to stake everything on a final battle in the pass where the most glorious page in all the history of the Hellenic people was written.

RUSSIA SHOWS HER HAND.

Germany and Turkey Forced Out of the Game by the Bear.

Constantinople, May 18.—There was a sudden and unexpected change in the political situation shortly before noon Tuesday. Russia quietly showed her hand and thereby forced Germany and Turkey out of the game to all intents and purposes. Monday night and early Tuesday morning Turkey, supported by Germany, was practically defying Russia, France, Austria, Great Britain and Italy, insisting upon the annexation of Thessaly in addition to a huge war indemnity, and seemingly was determined to march upon Athens. The ministers received official advices from Sofia Tuesday announcing that orders had been issued for the partial mobilization of the Bulgarian army possibly, at the instigation of Russia. There was a hurried consultation of the ministers. The war party was for further defiance, but in the end pacific counsels seemed to have prevailed, for at 11:30 a. m. orders were telegraphed to Edhem Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief in Thessaly, to cease hostilities. The peace negotiations will now be undertaken in real earnest, and the Greeks will most likely be spared any further humiliation.

Decorated by the Sultan.

Constantinople, May 18.—The sultan has decorated commanders of the various corps of Turkish troops which have been operating against the Greeks in Epirus. The ministry of public works has decided to dispatch engineers to Thessaly for the purpose of rebuilding the railroads which have been damaged during the course of the campaign. Telegrams from Volo are now coming in Turkish characters.

Panic Prevails at Arta.

New York, May 18.—A special from Corfu says: The Greeks have retreated to the Turkish frontier of Epirus after a heavy fight. About thirty-four officers and 1,000 men are killed or wounded. A panic prevails at Arta, on the Greek frontier, as a Turkish invasion is feared. Colonel Manos has been recalled and Nicholas Sholenski, brother of General Smolenski, takes command.

Instructed to Co-operate.

Berlin, May 18.—It was announced Tuesday afternoon that the German ambassador at Constantinople, Baron Saurma von Jeltsch, has finally been instructed to co-operate with the other ambassadors in the efforts to secure an armistice between Turkey and Greece.

For bronchitis, asthma or kindred troubles of the throat or lungs, take Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, a household specific for all these complaints.

Appalling Destitution. Manchester, England, May 18.—The Guardian publishes a dispatch from its special correspondent with the Greeks, which says: The destitution of the Greeks in Epirus is appalling. Everything they had in the world has been burned or pillaged. The scenes in their fight were dreadful. Young girls flung themselves from the rocks to escape outrage, and a youth shot his two sisters to save them from outrage. A boy who was captured by the Turks had his lips, nose and ears cut off and his eyes torn out before he was killed.

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE

William H. Jewett Wedded on His Death Bed at

HIS EARNEST DESIRE

To Miss Florence McDonough Who Was His Clerk.

Now the Widow May Have Trouble in Getting Her Share of His Estate. Jewett's Son Will Contest All Her Claim to It.

The death of William H. Jewett, a former well known Ypsilanti, who died in Detroit Wednesday of last week and was buried in Highland cemetery, Ypsilanti, Friday afternoon, has disclosed a somewhat romantic incident in his death bed marriage with Miss Florence McDonough, of Detroit, a young lady whom he had known for two years and who had been for several months employed in his office.

The marriage ceremony was performed at 358 1/2 Grand River ave., Detroit, where Jewett was lying in bed sick. Mrs. Jewett will receive $10,000 insurance which Jewett carried on his life, and will also receive a widow's pension, as Jewett was a pensioner. She is also entitled to a third of her husband's real estate.

William H. Jewett was born in Belleville, about 65 years ago, and after being admitted to the bar, removed to Ypsilanti, where he resided until three years ago when his wife and daughter died, their deaths occurring very close together. His wife and son and daughter were the only members of the family. He ceased his farm to his wife, and when she died it was left to his children. Then his daughter died and she left the property to her brother. Soon after the death of his wife and daughter, Jewett removed to Detroit and went into the insurance business.

About two years ago he met Miss Florence McDonough, whose interests he was looking after in the settlement of her mother's estate. He became very much attached to her, and wanted her to marry him long ago. When he was taken sick Miss McDonough went to his room and cheered him up, and helped to nurse him. He was afraid he was going to die, and was determined to marry Miss McDonough. Rev. John Reid was called in and performed the ceremony. Mr. Jewett died exactly one week afterwards.

After the marriage Mr. Jewett made over to his wife the $10,000 worth of insurance that he carried and also wanted to send for his lawyer to deed over to her his other property, but she dissuaded him from that proposition.

Saturday morning Mrs. Jewett went up to the room at 358 1/2 Grand River ave., where she was married and where her husband had lived. She was exasperated to find that it was locked and that a notice had been served on the landlord from Judge Durfee prohibiting him from permitting any person to enter the room or disturb its contents. Mrs. Jewett was compelled to abandon hopes of getting into the room, but she indignantly asserted that it was "outrageous to put a woman out of her own home—the only home her husband had provided for her."

"It just shows what certain people are, to resort to anything like that," she added. "Well, I warn them that they will regret that they ever molested me in any way. I will fight this matter to the bitter end, now. I was willing to give up all my rights to the farm at Ypsilanti, but my generosity has not been appreciated, and I can tell you that not a person will get a cent that the court doesn't allow them. If Don Jewett had acted differently I would have consented to almost anything, for peace and quietness, but now that he has shown a disposition to embarrass me, he will find that he has no easy person to deal with."

The bride and widow will likely experience some difficulty, however, in obtaining possession of what she says belongs to her, as D. C. Jewett, the only son of the deceased, it is expected, will not submit to having his father's estate go to the woman he married on his death bed.

Frank T. Lodge, his attorney, says "It is not likely that Mr. Jewett is going to sit quietly by and allow his father's property to be turned over to another without a contest. I think steps will be taken at once to prevent the payment of the insurance."

Very Sudden Death. Mrs. Forbes Ballard, of the township of Augusta, died very suddenly on Monday of spinal meningitis. She was in Frank Smith's store, Ypsilanti, about 10 o'clock Monday morning looking at some wall paper and complained of feeling dizzy. Mr. Smith helped her to a chair and in a moment she had lost consciousness. All efforts to revive her were without avail and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon she was removed to her home. She never became conscious and twelve hours later she died. She was 58 years of age and was very highly respected having been prominent in Grange circles. The funeral services were held at her late home yesterday.

DELIGHTED WITH ANN ARBOR.

Calve Was Somewhat Afraid of Her Audience.

In an interview with the Detroit Journal reporter Calve said she came to Ann Arbor under protest, and from her other utterances to him it is to be inferred that she also left under protest—that she could not stay here longer. She was charmed with everything, the streets, the trees, the people, and even the dogs. "Oh, it is so delightful!" she said to the scribe, "the trees, the grass, all so, so, green. Ah, 'tis indeed like a village in my southern France. Here people live with nature, not with the wine bottle. It is so beautiful, heavenly."

Asked if she was afraid of her audience, she said "Oh, yes, I was afraid. I was more afraid than I have ever felt in this country. I was more afraid that night than on my first appearance in America at New York. You are critical. I have heard of you. Campanari had told me that I might be hissed. My heart almost stopped beating. My throat seemed to burn. But then it passed and I sang." And Calve smiled as much as to say, "When I sang I had them for good."

"Michigan, where I have travelled, is so beautiful. It is so green. And Detroit," she spoke almost enthusiastically. "It is a beautiful city. The drives are so clean, and Belle Isle so country like. Yes, Detroit is very, very attractive. I should like to spend a week there. But this city pleases me more. It is small, and when I was told that they were to bring me here I cried. It seemed so very small. But now I know different. New York could not turn out a greater audience nor an audience more cultivated. They know music, ah, yes, they know music in this—what place is it, mademoiselle—ah, yes, Ann Arbor. And they said the hotels were so poor. If I had known they were so good as they are I should not have remained behind in Detroit. I have never been more courteously treated anywhere on this trip than here. They have all been good to me, and I like them, yes, very much."

"Did your voice hurt your throat Friday night when you stopped to try for a high note?" asked the Journal. Calve smiled, and would you believe it, she winked. "Yes," she said with a giggle that would have driven an Ann Arbor school girl pink with envy, "it hurt me very, very much, bad. It does sometimes—when I want it to." Then Calve broke forth in a laugh.

An Attempt to Get Even.

This is the way in which the bard of Willis gets back at Seward Cramer, of the Times, in last week's Ypsilanti, for some of the digs that gentleman has given him:

"We understand that Mr. C. of the Washtenaw Evening Times has taken out a life insurance policy on the inhabitants of a Limburger cheese. Should the death-rate create a panic commensurate with his increasing love of the beautiful, he will undoubtedly consecrate the emotion in his mind's eye to the mistress of his unmeted expectations of which he sings. Hear him!

"It is life-like to dream of the future, Events cast the shadows before, We are painting a beautiful picture Of home in the bright evermore. That is kept by a sweet little fairy Whose step is elastic and light, Whose voice is like murmuring water Repeating that sweet word, Good-night."

Seward, after that rap you had better keep still.

The Change Would Not Improve It.

"A. Swindle" is the name that appears over the office door of a struggling lawyer in the city of Stratford, Ontario. A friend of the unfortunate gentleman suggested the advisability of his writing out his name in full, thinking that Arthur or Andrew Swindle, as the case might be, would sound better and look better than the significant "A. Swindle." When the lawyer, with tears in his eyes, whispered that his name was Adam, the friend understood and was silent.—Exchange.

Al. G. Field's Darkest America.

The Southern States of America, and the dusky denizens thereof, have a peculiar interest and fascination to those who have never lived or travelled extensively through the South. The negroes of the south are an interesting race. Their habits, customs, home-life are but little known outside of the section where they dwell. As natural musicians, they are not excelled by any people on earth. There is a charm to the negro southern melodies that has made them popular the world over. There is a distinctiveness to their music possessed by no other music. Many of the most popular songs of the world have had their origin in the South. A large company of real southern negroes has been formed and will tour the north under the title of Darkest America. The basis of the entertainment is music, singing and dancing, the representation of home-life in the south as it actually exists in the cities and on the plantation. Wherever these people have appeared in their entertainment, press and public alike have vied with each other in pronouncing it the most unique and pleasing thing of the kind ever presented on the stage. Their entertainment appeals to all classes. There is nothing of the "Uncle Tom" character or the persecution of a down-trodden race nature in their entertainment. It is entirely different from all other negro shows.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

Fill a bottle or common glass with urine and let it stand for twenty-four hours; a sediment or settling indicates a diseased condition of the kidneys. When urine stains linen it is positive evidence of kidney trouble. Too frequent desire to urinate or pain in the back, is also convincing proof that the kidneys and bladder are out of order.

WHAT TO DO.

There is comfort in the knowledge so often expressed, that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root, the great kidney remedy, fulfills every wish in relieving pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passages. It corrects inability to hold urine and scaling pain in passing it, or bad effect following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to get up many times during the night to urinate. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases. If you need a medicine you should have the best. Sold by druggists, price fifty cents and one dollar. For a sample bottle and pamphlet, both sent by mail, mention the Argus and send your full post-office address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Roy E. Beastle, a university student, took his sister for a drive to Ypsilanti, Sunday, in a rig hired from Walker's livery stable. While going down Cross st., Ypsilanti, on the north side of the street car track, Mr. Beastle attempted to get in ahead of another carriage and his buggy was struck by the car which was going in the same direction. The result was he and his sister were thrown out of the buggy, which was completely demolished. Mr. Beastle sustained some cuts about his head and on his hand but the young lady was not hurt.

Jesse Kilpatrick, a resident of Ann Arbor up to 1865 when he removed to Grass Lake township, died there Tuesday of last week aged 92 years lacking 11 days. He had been married to his wife, who survives him, for 71 years. He was strictly temperate in all his habits never using liquor or tobacco in any form and was highly respected by all who knew him. His remains were taken to Canandaigua, N. Y., for interment.

"I would like to ask," said a lady in Howell Saturday evening, "who has the right to the sidewalk, a person walking or the one riding a bicycle? This is the third time this evening," she said, "I came near being run over by one of those bicycle riders."—Howell Democrat. And if bicyclists were allowed to ride on the sidewalks in Ann Arbor, ladies would be asking the same question here. The best thing to do is to keep the ordinance as it is now and allow them the use of the road as at present, all remonstrances to the contrary, notwithstanding. The sidewalks are for pedestrians not for bicyclists.

Karl Harriman, a young scribe with a bright and spacious future, a newspaper pyrotechnic of brilliant parts and son of Judge Harriman, of Ann Arbor, is mentioned as possible private secretary to Minister Angell, who goes to Turkey. The appointment should occur. In every contest that Karl has had with turkey he has come off first best. He prefers the white meat but can play any part with ease, and at the close of the conflict only the calcareous remains of the fowl attest its previous existence. He is a bright writer, an exhaustless worker, keeps close to the etymology of truth and would reflect credit on his appointment.—Adrian Press.

The man who opened a big hotel at Clark's Lake a few days ago has got a head on him! He at once sent free season tickets to the Jackson clergy. Then he started Sunday ball playing, with three special trains running from Jackson to his resort on that day. But this evokes no protest from the aforesaid watchmen on Zion's walls, who seem oblivious of the Sabbath-breaking scheme of the wily rascal who so politely remembered them.—Grass Lake News. After this assertion Carleton should send a copy of his paper containing the above item to the aforesaid reverend gentlemen, and he may get some free advertising of the kind he is not looking for.

Don't Buy Blind

We say a man is blind when he doesn't use his eyes or mind when he parts with his money without being sure of getting the thing he is after.

HE WANTS SPRING CLOTHES, FOR INSTANCE: He puts off buying till some warm day compels him to buy. Then he turns in at the handiest place wherever he happens to be, or is pulled in by some fool-catcher. In either case he is blind.

The way to buy wide-awake is to go to a proper merchant that deals honorably and generously, corrects mistakes, his own of course, yours too, one that gives you your money back if you want it. Look, try on and buy with your eyes and mind.

TOO MUCH WORK

For a Healthy Existence.—That's Why the Kidneys so often Fail.

Nature has provided a certain amount of work for every organ of the human body; overtax them and disease eventually follows. There is not one portion of our organism that is so overworked as the kidneys; on them is placed the important function of filtering the blood of the impurities which naturally form in the regular action of life and digestion. The kidneys are consequently termed the sewerage of the system; clog up this sewer, and the blood becomes tainted with poisonous uric acid, which brings on disease in many forms. The back is the first to show this stoppage. From there comes the warning note; it should be heeded, and the kidneys receive prompt attention. Doan's Kidney Pills will right the action of the kidneys quickly, relieve the back of pains and aches, and cure all troubles of kidneys and bladder. Read all troubles of kidneys and bladder. Read all troubles of kidneys and bladder.

Mr. Wm. Nelson is a well-known business man of Kalamazoo, he resides at 829 Portage Street, and his business is that of a grain buyer. He says:

"For five years I have suffered from an inability to urinate, which resulted from what was said to be a stoppage of the bladder. During these years I have taken mineral and electric baths and used other means in expectancy of getting better, but they all proved unavailing. Some months ago I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, which I had heard highly recommended, and I can now say that the flattering reports were not greater than they deserved. I got better right along, and I am free from any trouble now. I feel better than I have done for three years past. If Doan's Kidney Pills were well known all over they would do an immense amount of good."

AN ORDINANCE

Authorizing the Construction, Maintenance and Operation of an Electric Telephone Exchange Within the City of Ann Arbor.

The Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor ordain:

Section 1. That the New State Telephone Company, a corporation organized under the Laws of the State of Michigan, be and hereby is licensed and given permission and authority to construct and maintain in the City of Ann Arbor an electric telephone exchange and for this purpose to erect, maintain, operate and use in the public streets, avenues and alleys of said city necessary poles, masts, wires and other apparatus, and to rent and collect rent there for telephones, subject however, to the conditions and limitations in this ordinance contained.

Section 2. All poles, masts and wires shall be placed and erected under supervision of the board of public works of the City of Ann Arbor, whose duty it shall be to see that such poles, masts and wires are erected and constructed and maintained in such manner as not to annoy or interfere unnecessarily with the owners or occupants of property in said city, or with shade trees, and in such manner as not to interfere with the traffic upon the streets, avenues and alleys of said city.

Section 3. Whenever said New State Telephone Company, or its successor or assigns, shall propose to enter upon any street, alley or avenue in said city for the purpose of erecting poles and masts therein and stringing wires therein, it shall, five days previous to the delivery of any poles in said street, avenue or alley, and five days previous to the erection of any pole or mast or the stringing of any wire in said street, avenue or alley, give notice to the board of public works of its purpose and intention in this behalf; and the board of public works shall have the right, and it shall be the duty of said board to prescribe such reasonable regulations and rules for the setting of any such posts, poles or masts and the stringing of wires in said street, avenue or alley, and concerning the digging up of said street, avenue or alley and the restoring of the surface of the same, as it shall deem proper and necessary. Such notice to the board shall be in writing, and shall designate the street, avenue or alley proposed to be entered upon and the distance therein by blocks that it is proposed to erect poles, masts or other electric apparatus, and as nearly as possible the places in said streets, avenues, or alleys where it is proposed to set or erect posts, poles or masts. The rules and regulations made by said board concerning the erection of such poles, masts and wires, shall be by resolution and entered upon its minutes.

Section 4. Wood or iron poles or masts may be used. If wood, the poles or masts shall be reasonably straight and shaven and painted the entire length thereof, and shall be set upright in the ground, and such may be hereafter provided for by a general ordinance affecting all such poles or masts within the City of Ann Arbor. On all paved streets such poles, posts or masts shall be placed between the curb and the sidewalk, and upon all parked streets said poles, posts or masts shall be placed in line with shade trees upon said parking, except where such position is occupied by poles not belonging to the New State Telephone Company. All wires shall be strung at least twenty feet from the surface of the ground except when entering buildings. Plant, wires, insulators and all apparatus shall be modern and first-class in every respect. No wire or wires shall be attached to buildings except by consent of the owner.

Section 5. All poles, posts and masts erected under this ordinance shall be subject to, and this ordinance is granted expressly upon condition that the city may use the top twenty-four inches of any and all of said poles, posts or masts for the purpose of stringing thereon and supporting electric wires for fire alarm and police purposes, without charge to said city and without compensation to said New State Telephone Company, or its successor or assigns and said New State Telephone Company shall leave the top twenty-four inches of each pole vacant. Such use of said poles, posts or masts to be in all cases without interference with the carrying on of the business of said New State Telephone Company or its assigns.

Section 6. The said New State Telephone Company and its successors and assigns, shall at all times furnish to the City of Ann Arbor, free, and without cost to said City, ten telephones and ten other telephones at half the regular cost of same to said City for official use and fire protection with the necessary and proper service, said telephones to be placed in such offices and places as the Common Council shall by resolution direct. If more than said twenty telephones are required by the said City at any time, the price charged said City for any number of telephones in excess of twenty shall be one-half the price fixed by this company for business places and no more.

Section 7. The maximum rates or rentals to be charged by said New State Telephone Company for its telephones, including all service except out of town messages, shall be: For telephones used in business places or offices, twenty-four dollars per annum; and for telephones used in residences, eighteen dollars per annum. The rentals herein prescribed may be collected by said telephone company quarterly in advance.

Section 8. Said New State Telephone Company shall, before beginning the construction and erection of its plant in the city of Ann Arbor, deposit with the city clerk of said city a bond "in a sum of two thousand five hundred dollars", satisfactory to the Common Council, conditioned to save said city harmless from any liability or expense of any nature for or on account of any claim or claims, suits or actions against said city growing out of or based upon any carelessness or negligence of any of the officers, agents or employees of said New State Telephone Company on the erection or operation of its said plant or exchange.

Section 9. The right is reserved to amend or alter this ordinance at any time and to make such other and further rules and regulations as public convenience or necessity may require concerning the extension, operation or construction of the plant and apparatus of the said New State Telephone Company, its successors or assigns, and if said New State Telephone Company shall at any time fail to comply with any of the conditions of this ordinance or any reasonable and proper regulation made by the board of public works as provided in this ordinance, or shall at any time neglect or refuse to comply with any amendment to this ordinance or any further rule or regulation of the Common Council concerning the extension, operation or construction of the plant and apparatus of the said New State Telephone Company, the common council, by a two-thirds vote of its members elect, may declare this ordinance to be void and all rights of the said New State Telephone Company, its successors or assigns, to be forfeited, and may require the said New State Telephone Company, its successors or assigns, in a proper manner to remove its poles, posts, masts and wires from any street, avenue or alley of said city, and upon the failure of said company after sixty days notice to so remove any such poles, posts, masts or wires upon the direction of the Common Council to remove the same at the expense of the said New State Telephone Company, its successors or assigns: Provided, That no regulation shall be made hereafter by the Common Council or the board of public works under this section, that does not also apply to all other telephone companies operating within the city limits.

Section 10. In case said New State Telephone Company should consolidate with any other person, company or corporation then this franchise shall be and become null and void.

Section 11. Whenever the New State Telephone Company shall extend its lines to and open an exchange in the city of Ypsilanti, said company shall furnish communication between subscribers in Ann Arbor and subscribers in Ypsilanti without extra charge. Whenever said company shall extend its lines to Detroit it shall furnish communication between Ann Arbor and Detroit for ten cents for the privilege of talking over said line for five minutes.

Section 12. This ordinance shall not become operative unless: First, the said New State Telephone Company shall within the same time file with the Common Council of the city the acceptance of said New State Telephone Company of this ordinance, to be shown by resolution of its board of directors. It shall within thirty days, after two hundred and seventy five subscribers have been secured, have provided material for and begun the construction of a plant, poles, wires and other apparatus. ATTEMPT AT MURDER

Ex-Senator McPherson Has a Very Narrow Escape.

VAN AKEN TRIES TO KILL HIM.

He Grasps the Feeble Man, Draws a Revolver, but is Prevented from Using It by McPherson's Secretary, Edward F. Low—The Crime Attempted in the Office of the Ex-Senator in New York City—The Assailant Under Arrest.

New York, May 18.—An attempt was made Tuesday to kill ex-United States Senator J. R. McPherson in his office in the Aldridge building, this city. William E. Van Aken, who made the attempt, is partly blind and is said to be interested in a suit in which the senator is also involved. Van Aken had an accomplice in the matter whose name is unknown and who escaped. Van Aken was arrested. Senator McPherson, who represented New Jersey in the senate of the United States for about eighteen years, is now president of the Western Stock Yards company with offices in the Aldridge building. The ex-senator occupies an inner office, while the outer office is for his secretary, Edward F. Low. Both men were in their usual places about 11 o'clock Tuesday morning when two men entered. One was Van Aken, well built man about 5 ft. 10 in. in height. The other man was somewhat smaller. Both men walked through the secretary's office past Mr. Low and into the inner office, where Senator McPherson sat. Senator McPherson was looking over some papers at his desk and sat with his back to the door. Both men walked up to him and spoke to him.

Is Weak and Feeble.

Just what they said is not known, as the senator has not quite recovered from the shock and cannot yet tell what really happened. He is so weak and feeble that a nurse always accompanies him to his office. Mr. Low, the secretary, says he heard Van Aken say something to the senator about wanting him to settle a suit. Mr. Low says that both men seem to have an interest in a suit over the Belle Meade stock farm, on the Lehigh railroad in New Jersey. Mr. Low remembers Senator McPherson tell Van Aken that he could say nothing about the suit and must refer him to his lawyer. After that Mr. Low took no further notice until a minute or so later the private office door was suddenly pushed open. With a cry of alarm the aged ex-senator came quickly out into the front office. Creeping his way in a fury of blind haste, Van Aken followed. His companion was endeavoring to guide him through the doorway, but Van Aken hurried ahead, putting his hands out in front of him to feel his way. Before Mr. Low could rise from his seat Van Aken clutched the ex-senator with his right hand and fumbled with his left behind his back.

Had His Revolver Out.

Van Aken's companion at this juncture hurried out of the room. When Low caught Van Aken's arm the half-blind man had succeeded in pulling a revolver from his pocket. He had raised it until the muzzle was almost against the trembling old man's heart. With a quick movement Mr. Low knocked the weapon up. In doing so he managed to get his finger caught in the trigger. Van Aken, still clutched the senator, who was shouting for assistance, pulled madly at the pistol, which now was pointed at the ceiling and rendered harmless by Mr. Low's finger in the trigger. In answer to the shouts other tenants came crowding in. After a short struggle Van Aken was disarmed and overpowered. Before a policeman arrived Van Aken desisted from struggling. He was taken over to the Center Street police court. He is a well-dressed man and gave his address at a Tenth avenue hotel, this city. After Senator McPherson had somewhat recovered from the effects of the shock he said he had never seen Van Aken or his companion.

GOOD CITIZENS MEET.

Small Attendance at the First Day's Session at Nashville.

Nashville, May 18.—The National Good Citizens' convention met Tuesday with a small attendance. Rev. R. W. Binkley, pastor of the Russell Street Cumberland Presbyterian church of this city, was elected chairman and delivered a short address. S. T. Nicholson of Washington was chosen secretary. Prayer was offered by Rev. W. E. Beattie of Nashville, and committees were appointed. The convention held a session at night at which addresses were delivered by Rev. W. D. C. Kelly of Columbia, Tenn., and Hon. S. T. Nicholson, president of the Good Citizens' League of Indiana. The convention will be in session three days and prominent men from various states are expected to be present and deliver addresses.

The Luertgen Murder Case.

Chicago, May 18.—The police won the first victory Tuesday before Justice Kersten in the sensational wife murder charge against Adolph L. Luertgen. When the case was called Inspector Schuack wanted a continuance, while Luertgen's attorneys demanded an immediate hearing. For nearly an hour a battle was waged and charges against Luertgen were made. After listening patiently to the attorneys Justice Kersten continued the case until next Saturday morning and remanded the prisoner to the county jail.

Fight Ended in Kentucky Senate.

Krankfort, Ky., May 18.—The fight in the state senate that promised such bitter and sensational results is over, so far as the bone of contention—the fusion bill—is concerned. All agree that the bill cannot now become a law before Friday and all thought of attempting to extend the session beyond the constitutional limit has been abandoned. The silver minority has won its fight against the fusion bill, not only by its own good generalship but because a part of the Republicans were lukewarm in their support of the gold Democrats, who originated it.

Hoisted the White Flag.

Athens, May 18.—The Turks have hoisted the white flag at Artta, from which it is judged that the Turkish commander has received instructions that an armistice has been agreed upon.

WOMAN IN THE CASE.

Rev. D. Scoville in the Mysterious Death of N. B. Clark.

Milwaukee, May 18.—Persons who are investigating the mysterious death of N. B. Clark, the Grand Rapids, Mich., man whose body was found on Ivanhoe place, between Lake and Terrace avenues, Saturday morning last, promise that the mystery will probably be cleared up within the next twenty-four hours. The developments Monday were such that his Masonic friends in this city became convinced beyond a doubt that he was murdered, but before proceeding to bring the guilty persons to justice the relatives of the murdered man, they say, will be consulted, and if they sanction making public the facts that have come to light, all the circumstances surrounding Clark's death will be made known.

Enough evidence has been gathered by Mr. Clark's friends in this city to convince them that a woman figures prominently in the case. It is said the name of the woman is in the possession of the persons conducting the investigation independent of the police, who still maintain that Mr. Clark committed suicide. His movements Friday night have been traced in part until two hours before he was shot, and it is known that he was with a woman several hours before his death. He has been traced with the woman within a few blocks of where the body was found, and his friends hope to secure evidence which will enable them to place the facts before the district attorney.

Townsend Found Guilty.

Lancaster, Wis., May 18.—Mark W. Townsend, who was arrested in Adams county, Wash., and brought to this place for trial on a charge of murdering his wife about eight years ago, was found guilty of manslaughter in the fourth degree Tuesday and sentenced to the penitentiary for two years. Townsend married again in Washington, but quarreled with his wife and she gave away the story of the guilty act of his past to the authorities.

Suicide of a Woman.

Houghton, Mich., May 18.—Mrs. A. D. Pettit, wife of Editor Pettit of the Hancock Progress, committed suicide Monday by hanging herself to a beam in the cellar. Her family relations were harmonious and pleasant. Prolonged watching at the bedside of a friend sick with typhoid fever undermined her health and she has lately been treated for mental diseases. Fear of permanent insanity, it is thought, caused her to take her life.

Dr. Angell has been a most earnest friend to the organization ever since its beginning, and by his departure for Turkey, it will lose a strong supporter and one who has always been ready to aid by his counsel and action in the work of the association.

A young resident of Church st. dressed himself up as a woman Sunday morning and appropriating his aunt's bicycle went out for a ride. When the wheel was missed Sheriff Judson was notified, as the rest of the family thought it was stolen, and the young joker came near being arrested. Appreciating the unpleasantness of his position the lad made haste to return the wheel and getting into his room he got rid of his pursuers.

A number of the friends of George E. Apfel attempted a surprise party on him Monday evening, it being the 35th anniversary of his birth. As he was leaving the house, however, he noticed two or three couples making their way thither and then forthwith proceeded to surprise them a little in turn. When summoned to go home he had dressed himself in fashionable evening attire and with eyeglasses astride his nose he made quite a dudsish appearance as he stepped in among his friends. A very pleasant evening was passed playing progressive pedro. Dainty refreshments were served about midnight.

CAPTURED THEM ALL

Calve's Enthusiastic Reception Friday Night.

A GLORIOUS SUCCESS

This Festival Surpassed Any of Its Predecessors.

All the Artists Were Accorded a Full Meed of Praise.—The Urgent Necessity of a Larger Hall Was Very Apparent.

The fourth May Festival of the University of Michigan Musical Society ended Saturday evening and from an artistic standpoint was the greatest success of any that have been held. Financially, it is believed that the society will come out whole and may have a small surplus. The number of outsiders who attended the concerts was larger than ever before and the way in which University hall was packed at the Calve concert Friday evening was argument enough to show the need of a larger auditorium in which future events of this nature may be given.

The admirable training of the chorus as shown by its work in the rendition of Rossini's "Stabat Mater" on Thursday and Bruch's "Arminius" Saturday night is excellent proof of the character of the work done at the School of Music and of Prof. Stanley's superb abilities as a leader, teacher and conductor. As in his efforts in pushing to such phenomenal success the several festivals that have been held his wonderful energy has been shown to the public, so his energy and inspiration has been equally tireless and exhaustive in training his classes and the chorus.

The success of the first concert on Thursday evening, was followed Friday afternoon by the symphony concert in which the orchestra again showed its great capabilities in the highly classical program laid out for it. Indeed, all through the series of concerts the playing of and the selections played by the orchestra were of a totally different character to any it has ever given before in Ann Arbor, and were appreciated accordingly. Mr. McKinley was unable to sing on account of a bad cold and Miss Rose Stewart, who is a great favorite with an Ann Arbor audience, took his place and was accorded an enthusiastic encore for her clear bird-like tones, to which she gracefully responded. Prof. Alberto Jonas was greeted with great applause and at the conclusion of his number was presented with a beautiful bouquet of pink roses by his admirers.

The concert of the series, however, was that of Friday evening in which Mlle. Calve, Mrs. Katherine Bloodgood, Mr. Barron Berthald, and Mr. Heinrich Meyn appeared. It was the cap sheaf of all the concerts that have ever been given in Ann Arbor and it will long before we shall hear its like again. It is difficult to describe the impressions left on the audience of 4,000 people by the impassioned singing of Mlle. Calve in the several numbers that she sang. The audience went wild with enthusiasm and in place of the three numbers she was to sing, Calve sang five times, something she has not done in any concert before. The U. of M. yell given by the students seemed to startle her somewhat and she looked as if she did not quite understand it. The order of her program was changed entirely, and her first selection was the aria from "Le Perle du Bresil." In this selection Mr. Charles K. North accompanied her on the flute and it was at times difficult to tell which note was the flute and which that of Calve's voice. Such a burst of applause as followed has never been heard in Ann Arbor. Again and again it burst forth and in response to it she sang the aria from "Carmen" which was originally set down for her second number. Her next was the mad scene from "Hamel." She sang magnificently, and again the applause rang out. Twice she tripped back to the stage and bowed her thanks, but the applause kept on. Rushing down the steps she wildly beckoned to Messrs. Berthald and Meyn, who were to sing the last number, the concluding trio from "Faust," with her, to come on, which they quickly did. The three great artists had to repeat the beautiful music after they had sung it the first time, after which with a wave of her arms above her head and the single word "Vola," Calve made her final bow and left the hall.

The concert opened with the overture from Wagner's "Die Meistersinger," and it was followed by Pogue's address form the same opera, which was sung by Mr. Meyn.

The orchestra played three charming little pieces, a suite de concert by Th. Dubois. Then Calve appeared. Mrs. Bloodgood was unfortunate in following Calve, but her rich contralto voice was heard with charming effect in the Gluck aria.

Berthald, the tenor, sang in magnificent style Siegmund's love song from "Die Walkure," the same aria that he sang last year. In response to an encore, he sang an aria from "Lobengrin."

The concluding number of the program was the "Marche Heroique" by the orchestra.

The orchestral matinee Saturday afternoon and the oratorio concert Saturday night brought the delightful series to a close. In the afternoon Prof. Herman Zeitz covered himself, and incidentally the School of Music, with glory by his talents as a violinist. He was accorded a perfect ovation and had to twice bow his acknowledgements from the platform. A magnificent bouquet of pink roses was presented to him by his enthusiastic admirers. Heinrich Meyn sang the "Valentine" song form "Faust" and in response to repeated recalls gave Schumann's "Two Grenadiers." Miss Spencer sang Gluck's "Che Faro" and for an encore an aria from the opera "Fatima." By its beautiful playing of Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Nights' Dream" the orchestra again came in for a full share of attention.

In the evening when Prof. Stanley made his appearance as conductor of the dramatic oratorio "Arminius." He was met with round after round of applause, the U. of M. yell, and other tokens of approval and good will for his efforts in aid of the greatest event in the musical history of Michigan. The soloists Mrs. Bloodgood, Mr. Berthald and Mr. Gardner S. Lamson did nobly and were ably seconded by the Choral Union and orchestra, the choruses being given in an exceedingly prompt and forceful manner. Mr. Lamson had two beautiful floral offerings given him by his friends who were particularly pleased at his fine singing of the heavy parts which fell to his lot.

W. R. C. Memorial Day Orders. The following Memorial Day order has been issued by Department President Louise A. Turck, W. R. C., to the various corps of Michigan:

Memorial Day with all its sweet and hallowed associations draws near, and the precious memories inseparably connected with its observance rest upon this nation in tender benediction. It is our privilege to assist the Grand Army in the labor of love, to weave bright garlands in memory of those who sleep in the southland, to cover with flowers the graves of their comrades who sleep in our own "silent cities."

Let us also do all in our power to make the day truly national in its significance, remembering always that it does not belong exclusively to the Grand Army and Women's Relief Corps, but to all who love our country and the memory of its defenders. Give the children a part in the exercises. Let them tell in song and recitation the story of love and loyalty which saved our dear land in the hour of peril, and thus awaken in their young hearts patriotic devotion to "One country and one flag."

Let the corps of this department attend the services of Memorial Sunday, and thus show their appreciation of the beautiful custom.

In accordance with Grand Army general orders of this department, Monday, May 31, will be observed as Memorial Day.

A SIMPLE TIRE REPAIR.

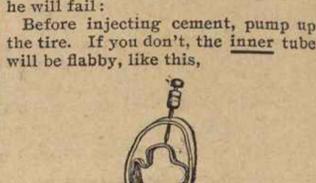

Punctures in the well known Morgan & Wright tire are mended about as easily as a man would close a hole in his finger with a bit of court plaster. Inside of the inner tube of the tire lies a long strip of patching rubber, like this:

By injecting M. & W. quick-repair cement through the puncture into this inner tube, and then pressing down on the tire with the thumb, like this,

the repair strip inside is picked up by the cement, thus closing the puncture, like this:

Very simple, but—now every rider should remember these two "butts," or he will fail:

Before injecting cement, pump up the tire. If you don't, the inner tube will be flabby, like this, and the cement will not get inside of it, where the repair strip lies. When you have a puncture, get right off. Riding a tire flat, when it has a tack or nail in it, may damage it considerably.
