REMAINS TO BE TAKEN UP

And Removed to a Lot in the Forest Hill Cemetery.

The question of the old private cemetery lot of the Weil family lying east of Ingalls street, in the lots belonging to the Grove estate is about being settled. The old cemetery was a little west of this. From this the bodies have been removed to the Fairview and Forest Hill cemetery. The Weils claimed to have a deed for their burial lot from the city. It has been claimed that by those who have looked at this deed, or examined the records, that the description of the lot, is erroneous, it describing a lot down on South Fourth ave. Negotiations have been pending, for the removal of the bodies buried there, for a number of years. As long as the heads of the Weil family lived, nothing could be done, as they were extremely orthodox Hebrews. They said that it was contrary to their religion to sanction the removal of bodies that had been buried. They are now gathered to their fathers. The younger generation see the inevitable, and feel they are showing more respect to their fathers to tacitly allow the remains to be removed to a lot in Forest Hill cemetery, than to be obstructionists. For a time a number of parties undertook to arrange the matter, but their ideas contemplated considerable cost, which is now obviated. Messrs. Groves will probably have the remains taken up next Monday.

The Weil family consisting of four brothers, Leopold, Solomon, Jacob and Moses started in Ann Arbor as poor peddlers. By their uprightness of character, they built up a large business. Their work consisted in gathering up hides, pelts and buying wool. From this they branched out into the tanning line, building a large brick tannery, now occupied by the Ann Arbor Electric Light Co. At one time upwards of 75 men were employed. Later Jacob and Moses started in business in New York City, and Leopold and Solomon in Chicago. They were all very successful and respected. They all until the time of their death, had a warm feeling for Ann Arbor and particularly for their old neighbors.

FAMILY ROW WAS AIRED

Dexter Parties who Could Not Get Along With Each Other.

A family row was aired in Justice Doty's court yesterday. The most interested parties hail from Dexter.

Mrs. Anna Huntley sued her mother, Mrs. Anna Zeeb for an alleged breach of contract. Mrs. Huntley was living in Chicago and claims that she came to Dexter from Chicago on an alleged contract to board and care for her mother, in consideration of which she was to get house rent free and use of the garden.

She arrived June 11 and a family disagreement arose so that the daughter left Aug. 22. The daughter claims the mother broke the contract and on the stand swore that she thought she ought to have at least $200 for her trouble.

A. S. Sawyer & Son represented the plaintiff and J. F. Lawrence and J. T. Honey, the defendant.

The jury was out for an hour and then returned a verdict of no cause of action.

As there is some very bitter feeling in the family, the case is likely to go into the circuit court.

BIG CHANGES IN THE ROUTES

For Free Rural Delivery of Mail.

LONGER THAN PROPOSED

The South Route Takes in Scio Instead of Pittsfield.

Special Agent Hammer, who is here to look over the proposed free rural mail delivery routes, has made several changes in what the boomers had laid out for him. He said he found that the routes did not cover as broad territories as are desirable. The department will strive to include nearly as many square miles as there are lineal miles on the routes. They will be longer than was proposed.

The Dr. W. W. Nichols route east of the city was changed so that it will go around Dixboro and north of the Northfield church and come in on the Whitmore Lake road.

The south route will be more of a southwest route, and will take in Lodi and Scio instead of Lodi and Pittsfield. Mr. Hammer, accompanied by Charles Mills, Henry Dupue and Philip Blum, went over this route yesterday. They started out on the Salem road to the Lodi cemetery; thence west two miles; thence one mile north to the Lodi town house; thence two miles west nearly to the town of Freedom; thence north to Mrs. Jacob Jedele's farm; thence east to the Beck place; thence south to Wagner's Corners; thence on Libert st. into Ann Arbor city.

LATE—Mr. Hammer has selected the southwest route as the one to be instituted.

LEGAL RATE OF INTEREST IS 5%

The law recently passed relating to the changes in the percentage of interest, legal and allowed, in the state of Michigan, went into effect Friday. Probably there were many among business men who were not aware of the fact, and some odd complications may result. Under the old law, in force up to September 22, the legal rate in Michigan was 6 per cent, with 8 per cent allowed by consent. On and after the 22nd the legal rate is reduced to 5 per cent, while the allowed rate is 7 per cent. All paper, therefore, which was executed before the 22nd bears the old legal rate, while paper executed after that date bears the new rate.

MUST STAND A NEW TRIAL

THE SUPREME COURT IN THE WUERTHNER CASE

DENIED A MOTION WEDNESDAY FOR A REHEARING OF THE CASE.

The Supreme Court has denied a motion for a rehearing in the case of Carl Wuerthner vs. the German Workmen's Benevolent Society of Manchester.

On the trial of the cause in the circuit court. Wuerthner claimed a sick benefit amounting to $78. Judgement went against him and he appealed.

The Supreme Court reversed the decision and ordered a new trial. The attorneys for the society presented a petition to the Supreme Court setting up that the judges did not grasp the situation exactly and asked for a rehearing. The Supreme Court has now said that they thought they fully understood the matter.

Now the cause must be tried again unless a settlement is affected.

FOR A STATE INSANE ASYLUM

Washtenaw Medical Society Will Advocate It.

AND TO BE LOCATED HERE

The Society Will Hold a Meeting on Monday Evening.

The advocacy of Judge Newkirk for a detention asylum for the care of those insane patients awaiting a place in state asylums is bearing better results than he had dared anticipate.

Everybody who has read the papers is well acquainted with the crowded conditions of the state asylums. Michigan must soon build an additional asylum somewhere.

The Washtenaw County Medical society will take up the matter next Monday evening at the Pathological Laboratory, when several papers will be read on the subject.

Said Dr. Wessinger this morning: "I do not think any of the doctors will favor simply a detention hospital here. They will, I anticipate, advocate the establishment of a state institution here."

Ann Arbor would probably have better claims for an institution of this kind than other city in Michigan from the fact that the University is located here. It would afford the students a clinic in this branch of the medical profession and the patients would be certain of a thorough care of their cases.
