

Published Every Friday, Has a Large Circulation among Merchants, Mechanics, Manufacturers, Farmers, and Families generally.

A VERY DESIRABLE MEDIUM FOR ADVERTISERS.

R. A. BEAL, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

Terms: $1.50 a year in advance; $2.00 if payment is delayed. Single copies, five cents.

Entered at the Ann Arbor Postoffice as second class matter, October 10, 1879.

BOOK AND JOB PRINTING OF EVERY DESCRIPTION. CHEAPER THAN AT ANY OTHER HOUSE IN THE WEST.

Office: Nos. 41 and 43 North Main Street.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

- Baptist Church. Rev. S. HASKELL, Pastor. Sabbath services, 10 1/2 A. M. and 7 P. M. ... Presbyterian Church. Rev. F. D. BROWN, D. D., Pastor. Sabbath services, 10 1/2 A. M. and 7 P. M. ...

BUSINESS CARDS.

HENRY R. HILL, ATTORNEY AT LAW. Real Estate Broker, AND INSURANCE AGENT. No. 1 Opera House Block.

W. M. C. STEVENS, M.D., Physician and Surgeon. 352 Washington Street, Ann Arbor, Mich.

JOHN L. BURLING, Attorney and Counselor at Law. Over National Bank.

DENTIST. Office over Bach & Abel's. Entrance by First National Bank.

WILLIAM HERZ, HOUSE, SIGN, ORNAMENTAL & FRESCO PAINTER. Papering, Glazing, Gilding and Decorating.

THE ANN ARBOR Savings Bank, Ann Arbor, Michigan. TRANSACTS GENERAL BANKING BUSINESS. CAPITAL, $50,000.

Organized under the General Banking Law of this State, the stockholders are individually liable for an additional amount equal to the stock held by them.

For the following reasons: 1st. Our work is of first class. 2d. Mr. Beal is the best writer in the State who gives a perfect fit without trying on.

Prof. Reuben Kempe, Having just graduated from the Conservatory of Music at Stuttgart, Germany, where he received a thorough education.

GO TO WINANS & BERRY. For the following reasons: 1st. Our work is of first class. 2d. Mr. Beal is the best writer in the State who gives a perfect fit without trying on.

Prof. Reuben Kempe, Having just graduated from the Conservatory of Music at Stuttgart, Germany, where he received a thorough education.

GO TO WINANS & BERRY. For the following reasons: 1st. Our work is of first class. 2d. Mr. Beal is the best writer in the State who gives a perfect fit without trying on.

COURIER OFFICE

VOLUME XIX.—No. 9.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 20, 1880.

WHOLE NUMBER 974.

Sea-Waves.

BY COUSIN DORA. Life of gray mist, from the sea, Sees the bright waves from me. See! his little, and the sea, Tips with glory every one.

POOR ROGER.

BY KATHARINE S. MACQUOID. I was market-day in a gay old Breton town, full of quaint stone houses.

A WEARISOME JOURNEY.

Weeks have gone by, but Joseph and Roger have yet reached the coast. He seemed turned to stone; for he had never realized how sick Roger was till he saw him sink down in that terrible coughing fit.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH.

From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE.

The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

on; and although the flute-player's gesture plainly told his meaning, the farmer shrugged his shoulders, and peering out of his narrow black eyes through the long hair that nearly reached his waist, he gave the bear such a piercing glance of dislike that poor Joseph turned away and went sorrowfully back to the little cabin, leaving the river where he had rested a little the night before.

"My poor Roger!" he said; "if those foolish people only knew thee and thy good, kind temper, they would welcome thee at once, and give thee a seat beside the hearth in their rough dwellings. Never mind, old friend! Our wanderings here will soon be done, and then we will go back to the good home of my father, and there thou shalt have plenty of straw and dry fern to rest on."

The bear moved his head from side to side, and again gave a low, satisfied growl; the name of Roger had evidently struck a special charm for him; but his pace grew slower and slower, and when his master stopped beside the river, he lay down at once quite exhausted.

Joseph did not venture to leave his faithful friend to starve in a deserted house, he ceased or irritated by some of the barfaced children of Quimper, so he leaned against the rock and smoked his pipe. All at once Roger snorted, and then he coughed and sneezed, and then he sneezed and coughed, and he felt alarmed. He went back to Roger, and felt his nose; it was dry and burning, and his poor swollen feet felt like coals.

Weeks have gone by, but Joseph and Roger have yet reached the coast. He seemed turned to stone; for he had never realized how sick Roger was till he saw him sink down in that terrible coughing fit. He had a look at Roger, and his face was as white as a sheet, and his eyes were closed.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

listering, he went on. "But it is long since we left our country, sir. I think it was in March, for we found snow on the ground, and it carries me back, as it does in our country we had only seen it on the mountain-tops. We have wandered in Auvergne, and in Burgundy, and in Touraine, and in Normandy. Ah, sir, we are better everywhere than in this country, where it always rains. But for my poor Roger's illness we had begun our journey home."

The old cure shook his head. "Your poor bear cannot travel," he said. "I fear his journeys are over, poor fellow. Is it possible that you have been traveling on foot from March till now? Why, we are in September, my poor man. How long ago you must be!"

Joseph wiped his eyes again, for the cure's kind words called up vividly the memory of his wife, Liline, and his dear little Roger. He thought the cure was gentle, and how could he go back to them without Roger? He forgot the cure's everything but his dear dead suffering friend—and flinging himself on the ground beside Roger, he sobbed aloud.

Roger raised one paw and laid it gently to his master, and then he feebly tried to rise, but he could not do so. The cure took out his handkerchief again and vigorously blew his nose.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

filled up with Irish names. Troops are now stationed round, which exactly squares with the old saying, "A mile of Irishmen will be a mile to add that I am yours in haste, B. R." [Chamber's Journal.]

Whenever the son of a Boer goes a courting he proceeds in the following somewhat singular manner: He attires himself in his gayest apparel, puts his best pipe in his mouth (without his pipe the Boer is neither here nor there) mounts the most spirited horse he can lay his hands on, to make a chivalrous impression on the object of his affection, and finally proceeds himself with a long and tedious train of suitors.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

THE BRAKEMAN AT CHURCH. From the Burlington Hawkeye. On the road again, more with Lebanon fading away in the distance, the fat passenger drumming idly on the window pane.

THE ORIGINAL TONGUE. The clergyman of New York, as a rule, are not to be beaten in the telling of a good story. A number of them were gathered together one evening last week.

Closing and Opening of Mills.
Mills leaving Ann Arbor, East and West, will close as follows:
GOING WEST.
Way Mail, leaving Ann Arbor, at 8:30 a. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, leaving Ann Arbor, at 9:00 a. m.
Way Mail, leaving Ann Arbor, at 9:30 p. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, leaving Ann Arbor, at 10:00 p. m.

Travelers' Guide.
Trains arrive and depart from the Michigan depot at this city as follows:
Trains leaving:
Atlantic Express, 8:00 a. m.
Michigan Express, 8:30 a. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, 9:00 a. m.
Way Mail, 9:30 a. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, 10:00 a. m.
Way Mail, 10:30 a. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, 11:00 a. m.
Way Mail, 11:30 a. m.
Chicago and West Michigan, 12:00 p. m.

LOCAL.

Mr. Wm. Clute, of Dundee, was in the city last Tuesday.
Mr. J. T. Jacobs sent us a fine rose bud picked by him in Florida.

The regular meetings of A. O. U. W. have been changed to the first and third Fridays of each month.
John Bettler, of Hamburg, Livingston county, died on Friday, Feb. 13, of inflammation of the bowels, aged 38 years.

The remains of D. W. Martin were received here on Monday, and funeral services held at his wife's residence on Fifth street on Tuesday.
The Baptist society will hold a social at Prof. Beaman's this evening. Those attending will be entertained with music and readings.

As Washington's birthday comes on Sunday, Monday, the 23d, has been declared a legal holiday in this State and the banks will then be closed.
Mr. A. L. Noble left this morning for New York City, taking with him his son Clarence, a bright eyed boy about four and a half years old.

Mr. Emanuel Mann has purchased of Mrs. J. C. Risdon the city acreage property on South Main street for $5,200, and will remove thereon.
Miss Etta Dealy, teacher of the Northville village school, Jackson county, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Burke, at Whitmore Lake.

Religious services have been held in the M. E. Church every evening this week, and will be held this evening. Considerable interest is being manifested by those attending.
Next Sunday afternoon Mr. John Clark Hopkins, professor of belles-lettres and his wife, in Ashbury University, located at Green Castle, Indiana, will address the reform club.

A red ribbon social was held on Friday evening last, at the residence of Mr. Morris Galpin in Dixboro, which was attended by 70 people. The sum of $6.50 was realized for the club.
Mr. David M. Finley, of Scio, met with an accident last week that may cost him the use of one eye. He was driving a nail, when the head flew off and struck him in the eye.

The only celebration of St. Patrick's day (which occurs on Wednesday), March 17 in this city, will be by the St. Lawrence temperance society, they giving a supper at Hangsterfer's.
Lottie M., wife of Chas. A. Colby, telegraph operator in this city, and daughter of Mrs. A. M. Traver, of the fifth ward, died Monday, Feb. 16, of inflammation of the bowels, in her 26th year.

Last Saturday Evening Board of New York, addressed St. Patrick's temperance society of Northfield, and succeeded in securing 21 new signatures to the pledge, the society now numbering 64 members.
Rev. Henry Ward Beecher coined a new word in a Lincoln memorial meeting held in New York last week. Referring to General Grant, whom, by the way, he heartily endorsed for the Presidency, he called him a "four square man."

We have received a communication from some one who observes himself as us under the signature of "A Subscriber." Now we have a great many subscribers, and if this one desires his communication published, we will do it over his own name.
The reform club of Superior is holding and next number 121 members, 26 additional names having been secured last Sunday, the speakers being J. Schumacher, Frank Hangsterfer, J. B. Saunders, and Mr. Essinger. This club is in a flourishing condition and have recently paid for a $65 organ.

Misses Stone & Parsons have purchased of Frank Boylan the wooden building recently occupied by him on East Huron street, for $100, and have raised it up and will enlarge and thoroughly repair and fix it up for an office. Mr. Boylan has removed his stock of goods in with Charles Boylan on Main street.
Mr. Hamilton Rogers and family have moved to Jefferson City, Missouri, which will be their future home. Mr. Rogers has been a resident of this city for 36 years, and starts for the West in order to be with his sons, one of whom is superintendent of the schools of that city and the other practicing medicine.

They must water their cider quite freely in Saginaw, as a jury recently decided that it is not an intoxicating drink. This reminds us of an old farmer who thought he would fix things for a sheep herder, who brought a flock of sheep and deep potatoes to the desired effect, and toward night he remarked: "A man might drink enough of this to bust and he couldn't get drunk, the old man has watered it so much."

Mr. James Ottoman has purchased some sixteen acres of land just south of the county house, in Ann Arbor township, and not having an outlet, is circulating a petition among the free holders to have the road commissioners lay a road extending north on the section line to River road, coming out near the Col. White farm, the distance being one and one half miles. This will necessitate the building of a bridge across the Huron river, which will be quite expensive.

On Saturday evening at about 9 o'clock six tramps put in an appearance in front of Mr. G. L. Tuomo's place, on the middle Ypsilanti road, and coolly proceeded to tear down his fence and build a fire. Not liking to see his property burned up, Mr. Tuomo notified Sheriff Cass, who went out and arrested the jolly crew, who were keeping their spirits up by pouring whiskey down. On Monday three were sent up for six months, two for four months and one for 30 days.

Judge Harriman is now busily engaged hearing the A. K. Clark case, at a two of the hours, as previously notified in our preceding issue. Wednesday and Thursday was consumed by the contestants in putting in their evidence, and the proponent is now putting in theirs. The Clark estate is variously estimated to be worth from $35,000 to $75,000, the lowest figure being the minimum estimate. According to the provisions of his will his two girls, Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Rouse, are each to receive $5,000 in cash, when collected, in connection with the surrender of their notes of $1,000 for money loaned them by Mr. Clark, deceased, and three village lots in this city, and the remaining heirs, Milton and Frank Clark, the balance of the estate, and to take care of their mother who is now in a feeble health, while she lives. The points claimed by the contestants are, that their father never intended making a will, leaving the heirs to share alike, and that he did so on his death bed, when mentally incompetent. The case will probably go to the circuit court.

Grant Haywood, of Ypsilanti, the boy artist, has on exhibition in the probate office a crayon drawing entitled "A knotty point." The scene is laid in a lawyer's office with all the necessary accompaniments of books, papers, files, etc., in moderate confusion, while seated by a table is a gray haired, fine looking, dignified attorney with spectacles on his nose, quill pen in mouth, intently scanning a torn manuscript which he holds in his hands; he is unconsciously frowning at the same, so intent is his study. Seated by his side is an old gentleman whose whole appearance forms a marked contrast to that of the attorney. He is attired in a suit of clothes manifestly out of fashion, while one hand grasps a cane the other is half extended toward the attorney, (whom he is evidently consulting) while his long snuffer face is lighted up with a knowing smile, as with half parted lips, showing some large and other defective teeth, he prepares to explain the intricate parts of the document. By the side of the old gentleman is his old battered hat, which with the pose assumed by him completes the picture which any one will heartily enjoy looking at.

The Michigan Christian Advocate of the 14th contained the following marriage notice. As the contracting parties were former students in the high school, the notice will be read with interest by many: "One of the most prominent social events ever witnessed by the people of Oscoda and An Sable was the marriage of Mr. E. Loud and Miss Annabelle Amnack, January 28th. The bridegroom, a son of Rev. H. M. Loud, is an active official of the M. E. Church Sunday school, and the bride, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Amnack, is the accomplished and worthy popular organist of the M. E. Church. The marriage ceremony was celebrated in the M. E. Church at 8:30 p. m., the pastor officiating. The friends had exhibited the best of taste in decorations. A large arch covered with intertwined evergreen twigs, and decorated with festoons, vines, plants and flowers, was erected immediately in front of the altar. Suspended from this was a good representation of the "Marriage Bell," beneath which the ceremony took place. The church was thronged with friends and spectators, and the reception at Mr. Amnack's, immediately after the services at the church, was likewise very largely attended. An unusually large collection of rich and costly presents attested the high esteem with which Mr. and Mrs. Loud are regarded. They are promised an honored place in society, which they are competent to fill."

At the business meeting of the reform club, Wednesday evening, the committee on buildings and grounds reported, that the Fuller property had advanced $300; or, in other words, that $3,800 more was asked for the same. Mr. Laubengayer, of the committee, stated that the $300 could be raised from property owners in the vicinity of this site, and wished to know if the committee should close the bargain for the same. Propositions equally as good were made in connection with other pieces of land, and, on motion of J. B. Saunders, committees were appointed on the different pieces of property selected to see how much could be raised toward purchasing the same in the localities where such sites were situated. The following gentlemen were appointed on such committees: On Fuller place, John Schumacher, Henry Laubengayer, on Burke property, Chas. Boylan, John Gall; on Unitarian Church, John Boylan and Isaac Dunn; on Colby property, (opposite Cook's hotel), E. C. Spencer, C. M. Jones, and B. F. Water, on lots in rear of Gregory House, Wm. Copeland and Geo. Marsden; lot on northeast corner of Ann and Fourth streets, J. B. Saunders and Thomas Kearns; lot on southeast corner of Ann and Fourth streets (Goodrich lot), John Boylan and Isaac Dunn. Preparations are being made on a large scale for the coming anniversary, and some of the most noted men in the temperance work in the country have been corresponded with, some of whom will lend a hand. It is now proposed to hold the first of the series of meetings Saturday, March 27th.

University Items.
Law commencement March 24th.
A club has been organized for glass ball shooting.
Dr. Dorrance, of the dental department, has been elected president of the Huron Archery Club.
The general library has been fitted up with curtains, which have been much needed for a long time.
The money which has been collected for prosecuting the student suits against the city is being refunded.

The annual reunion and banquet of the Phi Delta Phi Society takes place at Hangsterfer's this evening.
No one is now admitted to the dissecting rooms of the medical department unless they have a ticket. A policeman brings the usual number of freshmen here each year on an important business, and will be unable to return during the second semester.

The remains of the president last Monday morning in referring to the sudden death of Mr. Bullock, were very appropriate, and were listened to with deep interest by the students.
The homeopathic department will extend the completion of their new hospital and ambulatory by appropriate services, and will be conducted by Dr. W. H. Wyllie, Hall, address of welcome, include a full address; addresses will also be made by J. N. Eldridge of Flint and A. J. Sawyer of Monroe.

The class in chemistry experience quite a pleasing change in passing from the lecture of the professor of physics to those of the professor of chemistry, as it is so much easier for them to understand the explanations of the latter. It is not because Prof. Weed does not try, but because he has not the faculty of clearly explaining the formulae and principles of that study which prove a stumbling block to so many.

The Alpha Nu has elected as officers for this winter: Mr. Hodge, president; Mr. Williams, vice president; Mr. McNamee, secretary; Mr. Murray, treasurer; Mr. Townsend, editor; Miss Mary Bell, journal critic; Mr. Gentry, librarian; Mr. Gibbs, assistant librarian; Mr. Cole and Miss Darling, editors. The Adelphi has called Mr. Smith to the presidential chair, Mr. Houseman to the secretary's chair, Mr. Betts to the treasury and Mr. Waller to the library.

A farewell banquet was given Prof. Geo. S. Morris, Monday evening, by the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He left on Wednesday for Baltimore, where he has received the appointment of lecturer in Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Morris has occupied the chair of modern languages in the University since 1870. Prof. Edward L. Walter, who has been for the past six months pursuing studies in Paris, has returned and is Prof. Morris' successor. Prof. Walters has previously spent several years in pursuing studies in Leipzig, where he received the degree of Ph. D.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture in the Hall on Sunday evening, Feb. 22d, subject, "The Moral Heroism of Temperance." Mrs. L. lectures under the auspices of the Y. W. C. T. U. of U. of M., which interpreted means "Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of University of Michigan." Mrs. Livermore is no stranger to Ann Arbor audiences, who testify to her talents as a public speaker; and now that they have an opportunity to hear her on one of the live topics of the day for the sum of ten cents, will not fail to embrace the opportunity afforded.

At last the Palladium of 1879-80 has appeared, and notwithstanding its tardiness, has met with a ready sale. It is larger than the one of last year, and is more complete in that it has a history of the fraternities and lists of their chapters, also a list of the books written by the members of the faculty. It is also more inferior in every respect to the one of 1879-80. The Palladium, and there are more errors in the reading matter, due to the carelessness of those who furnished copy, or to the proof readers. However, take it as a whole, this year's number is worthy to stand by the side of those that have appeared before; and as a book of reference, it should be kept by all college men.

Occasionally the literary societies vary their usual programmes, and instead of the sober debate, the philosophical essay and the stirring oration, they give them selves up to fun and merriment. Such a time did they have last Friday evening, when they resolved themselves into the U. S. Senate. The question was that long suffering Woman's Suffrage, and in their arguments the distinguished Senators made many very excellent hits. Our space permits us to mention only one of them. The Senator from New York had the floor, and when the water was passed to him, he quietly but firmly refused, giving as a reason, that "whenever I'm in a hurry, I'm in a hurry."

The dental department of the University presents the appearance of a lively one, so industriously do the students employ their time. In the operating room are 27 chairs, each of which is provided over by a student, and they have so many applications for work that engagements are often made two weeks ahead. Prof. Walling can be seen busily going from student to student giving such practical information and assistance as is necessary in cases, besides general instruction, while Prof. Taft is no less effectively employed in imparting information in his particular branches. The dental department is a success, and is attracting students from all parts of the country; beside there is no lady student who came from Germany expressly for the purpose of attending this college, who will return home to practice her profession after graduation.

Psi Upsilon Society House.
The question at the meeting of the college secret societies erecting buildings to be used by the members thereof for a society home, instead of their rooming in dormitories, or private houses, as the case may be, has been discussed to a considerable extent, and, judging from present indications, the innovation is meeting with almost universal favor. Eastern colleges have for some time adopted this plan, and its growing in popularity would seem to indicate that it has been altogether successful. It is not designed that all the members of the fraternities shall reside therein, but only such as feel disposed, as far as the accommodations of the building will admit, while all the members consider it a home, the lodge room occupying a portion of the building.
The society houses and the management thereof is vested in members of the fraternity who are graduates and professors; so that the success of such enterprises is not so doubtful as some outsiders have supposed.

Any one passing southward along State street cannot help but observe the new society house of the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, which is being erected on the site of the old building. It is of a Gothic style of architecture, and is much admired for its originality and beautiful proportions. The building is of brick, with terra cotta and stone trimmings, and is of a black brick, now so popular in brick buildings, and around the same. The corner stone in the northwest corner bears the following inscription on the State street side: A. D. MDCCCXXXIX; and on the north side, of Anna of the XXVI, Copied XV.

The remains of the president last Monday morning in referring to the sudden death of Mr. Bullock, were very appropriate, and were listened to with deep interest by the students.
The homeopathic department will extend the completion of their new hospital and ambulatory by appropriate services, and will be conducted by Dr. W. H. Wyllie, Hall, address of welcome, include a full address; addresses will also be made by J. N. Eldridge of Flint and A. J. Sawyer of Monroe.

The class in chemistry experience quite a pleasing change in passing from the lecture of the professor of physics to those of the professor of chemistry, as it is so much easier for them to understand the explanations of the latter. It is not because Prof. Weed does not try, but because he has not the faculty of clearly explaining the formulae and principles of that study which prove a stumbling block to so many.

The Alpha Nu has elected as officers for this winter: Mr. Hodge, president; Mr. Williams, vice president; Mr. McNamee, secretary; Mr. Murray, treasurer; Mr. Townsend, editor; Miss Mary Bell, journal critic; Mr. Gentry, librarian; Mr. Gibbs, assistant librarian; Mr. Cole and Miss Darling, editors. The Adelphi has called Mr. Smith to the presidential chair, Mr. Houseman to the secretary's chair, Mr. Betts to the treasury and Mr. Waller to the library.

A farewell banquet was given Prof. Geo. S. Morris, Monday evening, by the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He left on Wednesday for Baltimore, where he has received the appointment of lecturer in Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Morris has occupied the chair of modern languages in the University since 1870. Prof. Edward L. Walter, who has been for the past six months pursuing studies in Paris, has returned and is Prof. Morris' successor. Prof. Walters has previously spent several years in pursuing studies in Leipzig, where he received the degree of Ph. D.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture in the Hall on Sunday evening, Feb. 22d, subject, "The Moral Heroism of Temperance." Mrs. L. lectures under the auspices of the Y. W. C. T. U. of U. of M., which interpreted means "Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of University of Michigan." Mrs. Livermore is no stranger to Ann Arbor audiences, who testify to her talents as a public speaker; and now that they have an opportunity to hear her on one of the live topics of the day for the sum of ten cents, will not fail to embrace the opportunity afforded.

At last the Palladium of 1879-80 has appeared, and notwithstanding its tardiness, has met with a ready sale. It is larger than the one of last year, and is more complete in that it has a history of the fraternities and lists of their chapters, also a list of the books written by the members of the faculty. It is also more inferior in every respect to the one of 1879-80. The Palladium, and there are more errors in the reading matter, due to the carelessness of those who furnished copy, or to the proof readers. However, take it as a whole, this year's number is worthy to stand by the side of those that have appeared before; and as a book of reference, it should be kept by all college men.

Occasionally the literary societies vary their usual programmes, and instead of the sober debate, the philosophical essay and the stirring oration, they give them selves up to fun and merriment. Such a time did they have last Friday evening, when they resolved themselves into the U. S. Senate. The question was that long suffering Woman's Suffrage, and in their arguments the distinguished Senators made many very excellent hits. Our space permits us to mention only one of them. The Senator from New York had the floor, and when the water was passed to him, he quietly but firmly refused, giving as a reason, that "whenever I'm in a hurry, I'm in a hurry."

The dental department of the University presents the appearance of a lively one, so industriously do the students employ their time. In the operating room are 27 chairs, each of which is provided over by a student, and they have so many applications for work that engagements are often made two weeks ahead. Prof. Walling can be seen busily going from student to student giving such practical information and assistance as is necessary in cases, besides general instruction, while Prof. Taft is no less effectively employed in imparting information in his particular branches. The dental department is a success, and is attracting students from all parts of the country; beside there is no lady student who came from Germany expressly for the purpose of attending this college, who will return home to practice her profession after graduation.

Psi Upsilon Society House.
The question at the meeting of the college secret societies erecting buildings to be used by the members thereof for a society home, instead of their rooming in dormitories, or private houses, as the case may be, has been discussed to a considerable extent, and, judging from present indications, the innovation is meeting with almost universal favor. Eastern colleges have for some time adopted this plan, and its growing in popularity would seem to indicate that it has been altogether successful. It is not designed that all the members of the fraternities shall reside therein, but only such as feel disposed, as far as the accommodations of the building will admit, while all the members consider it a home, the lodge room occupying a portion of the building.

The society houses and the management thereof is vested in members of the fraternity who are graduates and professors; so that the success of such enterprises is not so doubtful as some outsiders have supposed.

Any one passing southward along State street cannot help but observe the new society house of the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, which is being erected on the site of the old building. It is of a Gothic style of architecture, and is much admired for its originality and beautiful proportions. The building is of brick, with terra cotta and stone trimmings, and is of a black brick, now so popular in brick buildings, and around the same. The corner stone in the northwest corner bears the following inscription on the State street side: A. D. MDCCCXXXIX; and on the north side, of Anna of the XXVI, Copied XV.

The paragonies of terra cotta which do duty as water spouts on the tower are quite ornamental. The corner is very substantial as well as ornamental, being constructed of the lower part of the tower. The terra cotta, and the granite ornaments, the roof is of slate, while the main part of the building is of brick. The north gable is constructed of terra cotta of diaper

The remains of the president last Monday morning in referring to the sudden death of Mr. Bullock, were very appropriate, and were listened to with deep interest by the students.
The homeopathic department will extend the completion of their new hospital and ambulatory by appropriate services, and will be conducted by Dr. W. H. Wyllie, Hall, address of welcome, include a full address; addresses will also be made by J. N. Eldridge of Flint and A. J. Sawyer of Monroe.

The class in chemistry experience quite a pleasing change in passing from the lecture of the professor of physics to those of the professor of chemistry, as it is so much easier for them to understand the explanations of the latter. It is not because Prof. Weed does not try, but because he has not the faculty of clearly explaining the formulae and principles of that study which prove a stumbling block to so many.

The Alpha Nu has elected as officers for this winter: Mr. Hodge, president; Mr. Williams, vice president; Mr. McNamee, secretary; Mr. Murray, treasurer; Mr. Townsend, editor; Miss Mary Bell, journal critic; Mr. Gentry, librarian; Mr. Gibbs, assistant librarian; Mr. Cole and Miss Darling, editors. The Adelphi has called Mr. Smith to the presidential chair, Mr. Houseman to the secretary's chair, Mr. Betts to the treasury and Mr. Waller to the library.

A farewell banquet was given Prof. Geo. S. Morris, Monday evening, by the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He left on Wednesday for Baltimore, where he has received the appointment of lecturer in Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Morris has occupied the chair of modern languages in the University since 1870. Prof. Edward L. Walter, who has been for the past six months pursuing studies in Paris, has returned and is Prof. Morris' successor. Prof. Walters has previously spent several years in pursuing studies in Leipzig, where he received the degree of Ph. D.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture in the Hall on Sunday evening, Feb. 22d, subject, "The Moral Heroism of Temperance." Mrs. L. lectures under the auspices of the Y. W. C. T. U. of U. of M., which interpreted means "Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of University of Michigan." Mrs. Livermore is no stranger to Ann Arbor audiences, who testify to her talents as a public speaker; and now that they have an opportunity to hear her on one of the live topics of the day for the sum of ten cents, will not fail to embrace the opportunity afforded.

At last the Palladium of 1879-80 has appeared, and notwithstanding its tardiness, has met with a ready sale. It is larger than the one of last year, and is more complete in that it has a history of the fraternities and lists of their chapters, also a list of the books written by the members of the faculty. It is also more inferior in every respect to the one of 1879-80. The Palladium, and there are more errors in the reading matter, due to the carelessness of those who furnished copy, or to the proof readers. However, take it as a whole, this year's number is worthy to stand by the side of those that have appeared before; and as a book of reference, it should be kept by all college men.

Occasionally the literary societies vary their usual programmes, and instead of the sober debate, the philosophical essay and the stirring oration, they give them selves up to fun and merriment. Such a time did they have last Friday evening, when they resolved themselves into the U. S. Senate. The question was that long suffering Woman's Suffrage, and in their arguments the distinguished Senators made many very excellent hits. Our space permits us to mention only one of them. The Senator from New York had the floor, and when the water was passed to him, he quietly but firmly refused, giving as a reason, that "whenever I'm in a hurry, I'm in a hurry."

The dental department of the University presents the appearance of a lively one, so industriously do the students employ their time. In the operating room are 27 chairs, each of which is provided over by a student, and they have so many applications for work that engagements are often made two weeks ahead. Prof. Walling can be seen busily going from student to student giving such practical information and assistance as is necessary in cases, besides general instruction, while Prof. Taft is no less effectively employed in imparting information in his particular branches. The dental department is a success, and is attracting students from all parts of the country; beside there is no lady student who came from Germany expressly for the purpose of attending this college, who will return home to practice her profession after graduation.

Psi Upsilon Society House.
The question at the meeting of the college secret societies erecting buildings to be used by the members thereof for a society home, instead of their rooming in dormitories, or private houses, as the case may be, has been discussed to a considerable extent, and, judging from present indications, the innovation is meeting with almost universal favor. Eastern colleges have for some time adopted this plan, and its growing in popularity would seem to indicate that it has been altogether successful. It is not designed that all the members of the fraternities shall reside therein, but only such as feel disposed, as far as the accommodations of the building will admit, while all the members consider it a home, the lodge room occupying a portion of the building.

The society houses and the management thereof is vested in members of the fraternity who are graduates and professors; so that the success of such enterprises is not so doubtful as some outsiders have supposed.

Any one passing southward along State street cannot help but observe the new society house of the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, which is being erected on the site of the old building. It is of a Gothic style of architecture, and is much admired for its originality and beautiful proportions. The building is of brick, with terra cotta and stone trimmings, and is of a black brick, now so popular in brick buildings, and around the same. The corner stone in the northwest corner bears the following inscription on the State street side: A. D. MDCCCXXXIX; and on the north side, of Anna of the XXVI, Copied XV.

The paragonies of terra cotta which do duty as water spouts on the tower are quite ornamental. The corner is very substantial as well as ornamental, being constructed of the lower part of the tower. The terra cotta, and the granite ornaments, the roof is of slate, while the main part of the building is of brick. The north gable is constructed of terra cotta of diaper

The remains of the president last Monday morning in referring to the sudden death of Mr. Bullock, were very appropriate, and were listened to with deep interest by the students.
The homeopathic department will extend the completion of their new hospital and ambulatory by appropriate services, and will be conducted by Dr. W. H. Wyllie, Hall, address of welcome, include a full address; addresses will also be made by J. N. Eldridge of Flint and A. J. Sawyer of Monroe.

The class in chemistry experience quite a pleasing change in passing from the lecture of the professor of physics to those of the professor of chemistry, as it is so much easier for them to understand the explanations of the latter. It is not because Prof. Weed does not try, but because he has not the faculty of clearly explaining the formulae and principles of that study which prove a stumbling block to so many.

The Alpha Nu has elected as officers for this winter: Mr. Hodge, president; Mr. Williams, vice president; Mr. McNamee, secretary; Mr. Murray, treasurer; Mr. Townsend, editor; Miss Mary Bell, journal critic; Mr. Gentry, librarian; Mr. Gibbs, assistant librarian; Mr. Cole and Miss Darling, editors. The Adelphi has called Mr. Smith to the presidential chair, Mr. Houseman to the secretary's chair, Mr. Betts to the treasury and Mr. Waller to the library.

A farewell banquet was given Prof. Geo. S. Morris, Monday evening, by the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He left on Wednesday for Baltimore, where he has received the appointment of lecturer in Johns Hopkins University. Mr. Morris has occupied the chair of modern languages in the University since 1870. Prof. Edward L. Walter, who has been for the past six months pursuing studies in Paris, has returned and is Prof. Morris' successor. Prof. Walters has previously spent several years in pursuing studies in Leipzig, where he received the degree of Ph. D.

Mrs. Mary A. Livermore will deliver a lecture in the Hall on Sunday evening, Feb. 22d, subject, "The Moral Heroism of Temperance." Mrs. L. lectures under the auspices of the Y. W. C. T. U. of U. of M., which interpreted means "Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union of University of Michigan." Mrs. Livermore is no stranger to Ann Arbor audiences, who testify to her talents as a public speaker; and now that they have an opportunity to hear her on one of the live topics of the day for the sum of ten cents, will not fail to embrace the opportunity afforded.

At last the Palladium of 1879-80 has appeared, and notwithstanding its tardiness, has met with a ready sale. It is larger than the one of last year, and is more complete in that it has a history of the fraternities and lists of their chapters, also a list of the books written by the members of the faculty. It is also more inferior in every respect to the one of 1879-80. The Palladium, and there are more errors in the reading matter, due to the carelessness of those who furnished copy, or to the proof readers. However, take it as a whole, this year's number is worthy to stand by the side of those that have appeared before; and as a book of reference, it should be kept by all college men.

Occasionally the literary societies vary their usual programmes, and instead of the sober debate, the philosophical essay and the stirring oration, they give them selves up to fun and merriment. Such a time did they have last Friday evening, when they resolved themselves into the U. S. Senate. The question was that long suffering Woman's Suffrage, and in their arguments the distinguished Senators made many very excellent hits. Our space permits us to mention only one of them. The Senator from New York had the floor, and when the water was passed to him, he quietly but firmly refused, giving as a reason, that "whenever I'm in a hurry, I'm in a hurry."

The dental department of the University presents the appearance of a lively one, so industriously do the students employ their time. In the operating room are 27 chairs, each of which is provided over by a student, and they have so many applications for work that engagements are often made two weeks ahead. Prof. Walling can be seen busily going from student to student giving such practical information and assistance as is necessary in cases, besides general instruction, while Prof. Taft is no less effectively employed in imparting information in his particular branches. The dental department is a success, and is attracting students from all parts of the country; beside there is no lady student who came from Germany expressly for the purpose of attending this college, who will return home to practice her profession after graduation.

Psi Upsilon Society House.
The question at the meeting of the college secret societies erecting buildings to be used by the members thereof for a society home, instead of their rooming in dormitories, or private houses, as the case may be, has been discussed to a considerable extent, and, judging from present indications, the innovation is meeting with almost universal favor. Eastern colleges have for some time adopted this plan, and its growing in popularity would seem to indicate that it has been altogether successful. It is not designed that all the members of the fraternities shall reside therein, but only such as feel disposed, as far as the accommodations of the building will admit, while all the members consider it a home, the lodge room occupying a portion of the building.

The society houses and the management thereof is vested in members of the fraternity who are graduates and professors; so that the success of such enterprises is not so doubtful as some outsiders have supposed.

Any one passing southward along State street cannot help but observe the new society house of the Phi Chapter of the Psi Upsilon fraternity, which is being erected on the site of the old building. It is of a Gothic style of architecture, and is much admired for its originality and beautiful proportions. The building is of brick, with terra cotta and stone trimmings, and is of a black brick, now so popular in brick buildings, and around the same. The corner stone in the northwest corner bears the following inscription on the State street side: A. D. MDCCCXXXIX; and on the north side, of Anna of the XXVI, Copied XV.

The paragonies of terra cotta which do duty as water spouts on the tower are quite ornamental. The corner is very substantial as well as ornamental, being constructed of the lower part of the tower. The terra cotta, and the granite ornaments, the roof is of slate, while the main part of the building is of brick. The north gable is constructed of terra cotta of diaper

IMPORTANT TO EVERYBODY.

Rochester, N. Y., January 22nd, 1880.
Goods you have yearly purchased of us, we consider our duty to post you of the condition of affairs as they now exist in the Woolen Market. All classes of Goods that go to comprise a ready-made Coat, Pant, or Vest, have advanced from 15 to 35 per cent. within ninety days, and you cannot possibly replace your stock under 25 per cent. above its cost. Buy Spring Goods early, when and where you can save the advance, for as soon as wool, bought at present high prices, is made into piece Goods, then will you begin to appreciate this, what, we trust, will be to you, as a first-class merchant, a timely warning.

We are, my dear Sir, Very truly yours, A. L. NOBLE, ESQ.

The above is from one of the largest, if not the largest, Youtis', Boys' and Children's Clothing Houses in the United States. In anticipation of the advance, I bought largely, late in the season, of

PLAIN AND FANCY CASSIMERE SUITS FOR MEN AND BOYS. CASSIMERE AND WORSTED PANTS, FINE WORSTED COATS AND VESTS IN PRINCE ALBERTS AND CUT-AWAYS.

And an now showing a greater variety of styles and qualities than most Houses carry during the busy season. Customers will look to their interests by making their purchases in the next sixty days.

OVERCOATS AND ULSTERS Will be closed at a great reduction, as I have not the room to spare to carry over.

THE STAR CLOTHING HOUSE. A. L. NOBLE. SPECIAL OFFERINGS THIS WEEK AT THE CASH DRY GOODS HOUSE OF BACH & ABEL.

We offer handsome BLACK SILKS at 70, 80 and 90 cents. Our greatest bargain is our $1 Black Silk. Our $1.25, $1.39 and $1.56 Black Silks are unequalled in price for the same grade of goods.

Our 1.75, 2.00 and 2.25 Black Silks cannot be matched in this or any other city. In BLACK CASHMERES we still take the lead. Cashmeres, all wool, forty inches wide, at 45 cents per yard; never sold in this market before, or any other, for less than 55 or 60 cents.

We also offer ten pieces of 48-inch Cashmere at 65 and 75 cents per yard. While we are on the Cashmere subject, let us say: Our Black Cashmeres are sold with the guarantee that, if our prices can be bettered anywhere in Washtenaw County, we will refund the money. Our one dollar Black Cashmere we positively guarantee as sold in this city at $1.15 and $1.20. If not so, call on us to refund the money.

Just opened 25 pieces of Fancy Brocaded DRESS GOODS at ten cents per yard - very cheap. Just received 100 more of our celebrated SPRINGER CLOAKS AND DOLMANS, which we will sell this week at prices never before named. Handsome Cloaks at 2.50, 4.00, 6.00, 8.00, 10.00 and 12.00. We can show more styles of Cloaks than all other houses in the city together. If you do not say so when you visit our Cloak Department, you need never visit it again.

Special bargains in Hosiery, Ladies' and Gent's Underwear, Flannels, Blankets, Comfortables, Napkins, Towels, Table Linens, Fancy Ribbons, Ties, Laces, Ruches, Fancy Buttons and Kid Gloves, 2, 3, 4 and 6 buttons. We are selling Domestic, Bleached and Brown Cottons, Tickings, Demins, Cheviots, Brown and Bleached Canton Flannels, at New York Commission House Prices.

To those who have read our advertisement month after month, and as yet have failed to examine our goods and learn our prices, we can only say that your parity costs you many Dollars. We offer inducements that no other House in the County can match - prices that are far beyond the bare whisper of competition. Come and see us, and we will convince you in a very short space of time of the difference between CASH and CREDIT.

BACH & ABEL. CASE DRY GOODS HOUSE. 1880. WITH THE BEGINNING OF THE NEW YEAR DRESS GOODS CLOTHS, Carpets, Oil Cloths, Hosiery, Gloves

ALL KINDS OF TRIMMINGS, IS FULL AND COMPLETE. Notwithstanding the large advance in All Dry Goods, we will continue to sell at old prices until the first day of March next.

