

FRIDAY, JUNE 25, 1880.

Closing and Opening of Mails.

Mails leaving Ann Arbor, East and West, will close as follows:

GOING WEST.
Way Mail.	8:30 a. m.
Through and Way Mail.	10:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.
Way Mail between Ann Arbor and Jackson.	8:30 a. m.
Chicago and beyond.	7:30 p. m.
GOING EAST.
Pack Mail.	8:30 a. m.
Through and Way Mail.	10:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.
Way Mail between Ann Arbor and Jackson.	8:30 a. m.
Chicago and beyond.	7:30 p. m.

Travelers' Guide.

Trains arrive and depart from the Michigan Central Depot in this city as follows:

TRAINS EAST.
Atlantic Express.	2:05 a. m.
Night Express.	8:30 a. m.
Way Mail.	8:30 a. m.
Way Mail between Ann Arbor and Jackson.	8:30 a. m.
Chicago and beyond.	7:30 p. m.
TRAINS WEST.
Way Mail.	8:30 a. m.
Through and Way Mail.	10:30 a. m. and 4:30 p. m.
Way Mail between Ann Arbor and Jackson.	8:30 a. m.
Chicago and beyond.	7:30 p. m.

Friends of The Courier, who have business at the Probate Court, will please request Judge Harrison to send their printing to this office.

LOCAL.

The Schutzenbund had a regular practice Monday.

Jas. Shirley, janitor of the first ward school house, has resigned.

The rifle team of Co. A. have elected Sam Rasmussen as their captain.

The committee propose to expend $700 and over for the coming celebration.

Co. A. will leave on the Toledo and Ann Arbor road for Monroe on the 5th prox.

A party of 15 students went to Toledo last Thursday to have their "picture taken."

Five brass bands are to compete for the premiums on Saturday, July 3d, in this city.

Court adjourned last Saturday until Tuesday, the 6th day of July, next, at 9 o'clock a. m.

The Ann Arbor Savings bank recently declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

Excursion tickets over the T., A. & N. R. R., are good for the 3d and 5th of July.

A new house is being erected in place of the old one, on Prof. Perry's lot on Saginaw street.

The new fire engine is to be delivered here July 1st, just in time for the celebration of the 3d.

The concert of the Beethoven Gossing ver-ten at the opera house will be well worth hearing. The society are taking unusual pains in the preparation of their programme and mean to surpass anything of the kind yet given in the city. Go and hear it.

The students who have received instructions from Prof. Cady in music, are to give him a benefit next Monday evening, the 28th inst., at university hall. The professor is said to be an enthusiast in his work, and deserving of a "benefit as a benefit."

A car load of pupils from the school for the deaf and dumb and blind, at Flint, passed through the city on the mail train going west last Thursday, in charge of two guides. Their lively conversation on their finger tips attracted considerable attention.

Last Thursday the pupils in Miss Elbridge, Miss McDivitt's and Miss Beal's rooms, of the 1st. ward school, repaired to Miller's Grove at about 9 o'clock a. m., and spent the day in the woods, taking nicely filled baskets along to quench hunger.

Station agent Pilcher informs us that there is to be a change in the time table on the T., A. & N. R. road next Monday. The train now leaving at 8:08 a. m., will hereafter depart at 7:30, making it much more convenient, and affording Monroe passengers sure connections.

It is to be hoped that Prof. Tyler will not again repeat a quotation from the poets in a speech, for nearly every paper we pick up has the same thing, and the beauty of the thing, they all claim it to be original with themselves. The last semi-playwright is the N. Y. Tribune.

A despatch on the bulletin board, which attracted as much or more attention than anything else last Wednesday, read something like this: "One of the peculiarly attractive features is a large army of little boys passing her to delegates." Is it possible that any democrats distrust?

One of those level headed individuals, who think an editor capable of explaining everything, stopped us on the street the other morning and wanted to know about "them air sun spots on Jupiter." We referred him to the sporting editor, but he got it all mixed up with the axes and ten spots, and was unsatisfactory in his explanation that the interactor was last seen enquiring for the "boss of the medical vault." He said he had read about the "arcuate vault" and he thought that fallar could make it clearer. P. S.—The man has not since been seen. It couldn't be possible! That—no—no—they don't take them alive.

The pharmacy class of '80 held its class supper at Hanger's last evening. The programme, after the bill of fare had been properly disposed of, consisted of:

Oration.—F. W. R. Perry.

Class history.—J. C. Reeve.

The following were the toasts and respondents, C. W. Teeter acting as toastmaster:

U. of M.—J. A. Allen.

Class of '80.—J. C. Reeve.

After music the president delivered his farewell address, which closed the evening's exercises.

Among the attractive features of commencement week we notice the concert announced for Monday evening, by the university musical society and choral union. Remembering the pleasure which their previous performances have given to their appreciative audiences, it is with confidence that we urge the friends of good music to avail themselves of the opportunity to spend a few thoroughly enjoyable moments and to help in a good way, for we understand that the proceeds are to be presented to the able and energetic conductor, Mr. C. B. Cady, as a reward for his untiring and unrequited services.

On Saturday afternoon a runaway occurred on South Ingalls street, which was attended with fatal consequences. Charles Steffy who gathers slops in that section of

One day last week, Catharine Schult's husband obtained a divorce from her on the ground of cruelty, and the succeeding Saturday a Detroit man named Preskhour, took her for his wife.

The manufacturing statistics of this city will be gathered by William A. Clark, our worthy ex-recorder, who received notification of his appointment as special census enumerator last Saturday.

The schools of our city are to close to-day and a vacation of twelve weeks will ensue. The hard and over-worked teachers will enjoy it, probably as well as will many of the pupils who need the rest.

The enthusiasm for the 4th begins to bubble over, and every little while a sky rocket or Roman candle is seen to go up—of its own accord, undoubtedly—because of joy for the coming celebration.

On Thursday, the 17th, Miss Eugenie J. Johnson and Alex. T. Hurst, were married by Rev. Wyllis Hall. The bride is a daughter of E. J. Johnson, and the ceremony was performed at his residence.

What has become of the Ann Arbor boat-club that was to be resurrected this last spring? There ought to be sufficient interest in this most excellent sport to form a good club here, and to keep it up, too.

The Detroit dailies now leave that city on a fast mail train on the M. C. R. R., at 4 o'clock a. m., including Sundays. This will be of incalculable convenience to the reading public and business men generally.

Geo. Hutzol, of Pittsfield, raised a large barn 40x80 feet last Wednesday, and had some one or two hundred friends from this city and vicinity to assist him. It was one of the old fashioned enjoyable times.

Have you seen the nice new hack just put in by J. A. Polhemus & Son? It is a beauty, and will add considerably to the turn-outs of the city. It was purchased of Cunningham & Son, of Rochester, N. Y.

As will be seen by the council proceedings, the old court house will be to be opened up for public use. Now the next thing is to hire a policeman and station him at the well to prevent the horse watering nuisance.

Something has combined with the strawberry rust, probably the weather clerk—to keep the price of this delicious fruit up to 10 cents per box—by courtesy called a quart. And the berries are very small at the last.

Saline and Lodi are making great preparations for the 4th of July celebration in this city, while in the meantime other towns are quietly preparing to capture that beautiful $25 flag for the largest procession, upon that day.

Now that vacation is at hand, and all have plenty of time to arrange their books, and get their pamphlets together which need binding, they should not forget that this is the very best time in the year to have their binding done.

The concert of the Beethoven Gossing ver-ten at the opera house will be well worth hearing. The society are taking unusual pains in the preparation of their programme and mean to surpass anything of the kind yet given in the city. Go and hear it.

The students who have received instructions from Prof. Cady in music, are to give him a benefit next Monday evening, the 28th inst., at university hall. The professor is said to be an enthusiast in his work, and deserving of a "benefit as a benefit."

A car load of pupils from the school for the deaf and dumb and blind, at Flint, passed through the city on the mail train going west last Thursday, in charge of two guides. Their lively conversation on their finger tips attracted considerable attention.

Last Thursday the pupils in Miss Elbridge, Miss McDivitt's and Miss Beal's rooms, of the 1st. ward school, repaired to Miller's Grove at about 9 o'clock a. m., and spent the day in the woods, taking nicely filled baskets along to quench hunger.

Station agent Pilcher informs us that there is to be a change in the time table on the T., A. & N. R. road next Monday. The train now leaving at 8:08 a. m., will hereafter depart at 7:30, making it much more convenient, and affording Monroe passengers sure connections.

It is to be hoped that Prof. Tyler will not again repeat a quotation from the poets in a speech, for nearly every paper we pick up has the same thing, and the beauty of the thing, they all claim it to be original with themselves. The last semi-playwright is the N. Y. Tribune.

A despatch on the bulletin board, which attracted as much or more attention than anything else last Wednesday, read something like this: "One of the peculiarly attractive features is a large army of little boys passing her to delegates." Is it possible that any democrats distrust?

One of those level headed individuals, who think an editor capable of explaining everything, stopped us on the street the other morning and wanted to know about "them air sun spots on Jupiter." We referred him to the sporting editor, but he got it all mixed up with the axes and ten spots, and was unsatisfactory in his explanation that the interactor was last seen enquiring for the "boss of the medical vault." He said he had read about the "arcuate vault" and he thought that fallar could make it clearer. P. S.—The man has not since been seen. It couldn't be possible! That—no—no—they don't take them alive.

The pharmacy class of '80 held its class supper at Hanger's last evening. The programme, after the bill of fare had been properly disposed of, consisted of:

Oration.—F. W. R. Perry.

Class history.—J. C. Reeve.

The following were the toasts and respondents, C. W. Teeter acting as toastmaster:

U. of M.—J. A. Allen.

Class of '80.—J. C. Reeve.

After music the president delivered his farewell address, which closed the evening's exercises.

Among the attractive features of commencement week we notice the concert announced for Monday evening, by the university musical society and choral union. Remembering the pleasure which their previous performances have given to their appreciative audiences, it is with confidence that we urge the friends of good music to avail themselves of the opportunity to spend a few thoroughly enjoyable moments and to help in a good way, for we understand that the proceeds are to be presented to the able and energetic conductor, Mr. C. B. Cady, as a reward for his untiring and unrequited services.

On Saturday afternoon a runaway occurred on South Ingalls street, which was attended with fatal consequences. Charles Steffy who gathers slops in that section of Henry Neumann, who works in Keek's factory, caught the middle finger of his right hand in the "whittler," Wednesday afternoon, and had to have the same amputated. The other fingers were badly injured.

There was no shouting or hurrahing or enthusiasm yesterday when the nomination of Gen. Hancock was made. What was the matter with our democratic friends? We hope they will get up enough enthusiasm to make the campaign lively.

A copy of the list of inhabitants of every township and ward of the county has to be deposited with the county clerk, for the use of such officials as may need them. Up to the present time the following townships have been reported: Bridgewater, 1,257; Dexter, 869; Lodi, 1,378; Lyndon, 733; Northfield, 1,272; Sharon, 1,161.

The last issue of Harper's Monthly has an article upon "American colleges and German universities," by Richard T. Ely, in which occurs this sentence: "To learn what a wise system of state action can do, we have but to look to Michigan, whose educational system, ending in the university at Ann Arbor, is an honor to the country."

On Monday morning last, of inflammatory rheumatism, Mrs. Margaret Starr, wife of O. F. Starr, of the 3d ward, died, aged 45 years. She was a sister of Philip Winegar, and in her death six little children are left motherless. One almost guesses the ways of Providence, when so many little ones are deprived of a mother's care.

A centenary service commemorative of the work of the Sunday school and its establishment by Robert Raikes one hundred years ago, will be held at the Baptist church next Sabbath morning at 10:30. This will be the only morning service, the Sabbath school not coming together until half past ten. Addresses will be given by Prof. E. Olney and others.

Sunday evening Rev. Jas. Walsh, of Detroit, is to deliver a temperance lecture at St. Thomas' church in this city, having for his subject: "Temperance, its pleasures and influences." Father Walsh is a gifted orator and one who will draw a large audience. He is also a firm believer in temperance principles, and the people will do well to hear him.

Nearly every evening now members of the gentlemen's driving association are upon the track in the fair grounds, making a lively scene. Work is still progressing, and the gentlemen's secretary and treasurer Mr. E. B. Hall, thinks if the rains ever hold off long enough for a completion of the job, they will have the finest driving track in this section of the country.

W. P. Groves, of Northfield, has fifteen acres of rye in which the army worm is at work. He obtained the seed from a local dealer, and says it is western seed. Mr. Groves desires to know how the worm propagates, and if it was possible for the germ or larva to come in the seed. The worm was never in this county before to his knowledge. Will the agricultural college authorities please answer?

Messrs. J. S. & D. C. Casement, of Painesville, Ohio, have taken the contract of building the branch of the Wabash R. R. from Butler, Indiana, to Detroit, and are to have the same completed by December 15th, next. This is the famous Butler road which Detroit has been in labor pains over for so long back. The Casement brothers are well known in this county.

To add to the grandeur of the procession on the 3d, the merchants of this city are to have a great many industrial chariots, which added to the fire companies and engines, the military, civic and secret societies, will make what is already promised, a procession three miles long. It must be remembered that every brass band in this county—five in all—will be present to furnish music for the day.

As there are in this city several graduates or former pupils of the school for the deaf and dumb at Flint, they may be interested in the fact that a grand re-union and basket picnic is advertised to take place on July 5th. The picnic at Grosse Ile, the boat leaving the Griswold street wharf at 10 o'clock a. m., and the reunion at St. Andrew's hall, Detroit, in the evening.

Prof. D. A. Simpson, of St. Louis is to be the orator.

The success of the republican cause depends less on whop and hurrah campaigning than on sober thought. The principles of the party are sound, and its candidate first class; both invite and will bear the closest scrutiny. The thing to do is to get the facts fully before the people, and the sure fruitage will be a republican success in November. In order to do this it would be well not only to subscribe for the COURIER yourself, but see that it is properly circulated among your neighbors. A better campaign document can't be brought forward.

One of those level headed individuals, who think an editor capable of explaining everything, stopped us on the street the other morning and wanted to know about "them air sun spots on Jupiter." We referred him to the sporting editor, but he got it all mixed up with the axes and ten spots, and was unsatisfactory in his explanation that the interactor was last seen enquiring for the "boss of the medical vault." He said he had read about the "arcuate vault" and he thought that fallar could make it clearer. P. S.—The man has not since been seen. It couldn't be possible! That—no—no—they don't take them alive.

The pharmacy class of '80 held its class supper at Hanger's last evening. The programme, after the bill of fare had been properly disposed of, consisted of:

Oration.—F. W. R. Perry.

Class history.—J. C. Reeve.

The following were the toasts and respondents, C. W. Teeter acting as toastmaster:

U. of M.—J. A. Allen.

Class of '80.—J. C. Reeve.

After music the president delivered his farewell address, which closed the evening's exercises.

Among the attractive features of commencement week we notice the concert announced for Monday evening, by the university musical society and choral union. Remembering the pleasure which their previous performances have given to their appreciative audiences, it is with confidence that we urge the friends of good music to avail themselves of the opportunity to spend a few thoroughly enjoyable moments and to help in a good way, for we understand that the proceeds are to be presented to the able and energetic conductor, Mr. C. B. Cady, as a reward for his untiring and unrequited services.

On Saturday afternoon a runaway occurred on South Ingalls street, which was attended with fatal consequences. Charles Steffy who gathers slops in that section of the city, had on his cart his two little boys at the time mentioned, and the horse in some way became unmanageable, and one of the boys, named Charlie, aged about 9 years, fell between the horse and the wagon, and received wounds on the head from which he died on Monday noon. He was immediately taken to the university hospital and received all the attention competent medical skill could give him, but to no purpose. The boy was motherless, we understand, and never received many of the kindnesses only a mother knows how to give, and a child so much longer.

The members of the Athletic club of the university are persevering and "chuck" full of go-ahead, and deserve to be successful in their undertakings. Their sports upon the fair grounds, on "Field Day," next Tuesday, will be well worth seeing, the contests are to commence at 9 o'clock, and extend to 5:30, with an hour and one-half intermission, at noon.

By the request of Grand Master Sessions, of the State lodge A. O. U. W., all of the organizations of that order in this county were requested to meet with the Ypsilanti lodge, last Wednesday night, to learn the new work which has been brought forward and adopted for the running of subordinate lodges. Seventeen members went from this city, and every organization in the county, with one exception, was represented.

After the meeting the Ypsilanti brethren set up the ice-cream, strawberries, etc., and a right jolly and social time followed. The order is quite prosperous in this county and State, and the amount of good done by them for the past few years is large. It is the poor man's means of insurance.

The state normal school at Ypsilanti, has issued a circular for the summer class for teachers, in vocal music, drawing, natural philosophy and chemistry. Course of instruction in these branches, with special reference to the needs of teachers, will be given at the normal school for five weeks, beginning Monday, July 12, and closing Friday, August 13. The instruction in music will be given by Prof. Pease, in drawing by Miss Goffe, and in physics and chemistry by Professor McLaughlin, teachers of these branches in the normal school. The fee for instruction in any one of these departments will be six dollars. Private pupils will be charged one dollar per lesson in instrumental music. Further information can be obtained by addressing Prof. F. H. Pease, Prof. McLaughlin, or Miss Fanny E. Goffe, at Ypsilanti, Mich.

Respecting the name of our sister city down the Huron, the Sentinel says: "We have been requested once more to give the origin of the name of this city and township. We therefore repeat, that this township and city, are named after the Greek General, Demetrius Ypsilanti, who was being much spoken of in 1825, when the Detroit proprietors, bought out the French claims and laid out the village. The Greek revolution, that was ended by the destruction of the Turkish navy at Navarino, and the independence of Greece was in progress, and the bravery of Gen. Ypsilanti, was conspicuous. In the same war the Grecian Island of Scio was laid waste by the Turks, and sympathy felt for the cause of the Greeks, induced the pioneers of the western part of the county to name their township Scio, as it is to this day. When this city was first named some proposed to spell it Ipsilanti, as it was thought the pronunciation would be easier seen; but this soon fell into disuse and the correct spelling, "Ypsilanti," prevailed. One advantage of this name is that there is not another place of any importance bearing it, on the continent of America. There is a post office of the same name in Mississippi we believe, but so little known that it must be sought in postal guide books."

Personal Notes.

O. M. Martin is recreating at Bay City this week.

Gov. Ashley returned from Boston and the east yesterday.

Mrs. N. R. Waterman, of Bay City, is visiting in the city.

Wm. Coupland attended the red ribbon convention at Jackson.

Geo. W. Croysey attended the Cincinnati convention this week.

W. H. Potter, of Kansas, is visiting friends in the city and county.

Will C. Carman, of Flint, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Pond, of this city.

Dr. Vaughan left for Missouri last week, where he intends to remain during the summer.

Mrs. Chas. LeSueur, of Boston, is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Davison, and other relatives and friends in the city.

Rev. Carl Schlenker is visiting friends in the city. He is pastor of the largest German Lutheran church in Toledo.

Mr. H. E. Pilcher leaves for Rouse's Point, N. Y., to-day, where she intends to remain for the summer, returning Oct. 1st.

Rev. J. T. Sunderland, of this city, was chosen as director of the Western Unitarian conference, at its recent session at Milwaukee.

J. L. Witmyer, law class of '80, was understood to be engaged in the practice of law at Bridgeport, Conn. He is deserving of success.

Henry E. Bower, of the Democrat, attended the Cincinnati convention, returning yesterday p. m. He reports things hot down there.

Chas. W. Taft, of the graduating class, has been engaged as principal of the Sheboygan, Wis., schools for the coming year, at a salary of $1,200.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holmes, of Grand Rapids, were in the city the first of the week visiting friends.

Mr. Holmes is one of Ann Arbor's old boys.

County treasurer Fairbairn has been spending a few days at his old home in Sharon. He reports all crops as "bum-bum" in that section.

Miss Mary A. Beal has declined re-accepting a position of teacher in the first ward, and will enter the university next year to complete her education.

Hon. R. E. Frazer, Chas. H. Worden and John Schumacher attended the state convention of red ribbon clubs, held at Jackson on Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Patrick O'Hearn, at one time a merchant in this city, and supervisor of the 4th ward, has gone to Howell to reside. He is book-keeper in his brother's store at that place.

Frank Woodruff returned to Rossmore last week, having been at home for some time suffering from an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, with which he was seized on his way there last spring.

Prof. John Eastwood, professor of natural sciences in Bethany, W. Va., university, arrived in this city last Saturday, and is visiting his father, Rev. N. Eastwood.

Prof. Eastwood is a graduate of the university class of '71, and subsequently passed three years in the laboratory, since which time he has been connected with the Bethany University. He is to leave next Tuesday in company with his parents for Charlottesville, where he is building a summer residence.

University Items.

We learn that Asst. Prof. Hudson will start next week for a trip to Europe, and will spend the summer there.

The details at the meeting of the Board of Regents will ask for an addition to their building which will be as large as the part recently erected.

An exchange of tropical land shells for rare minerals, worth about $50 has recently been made by Prof. Steere with Mr. A. E. Foote of Philadelphia.

Mr. J. W. Barnhardt of the class of 1875 was in town the latter part of last week. He is now the Superintendent of the Schools at Fort Wayne, Indiana.

At the convention of the Beta Theta Pi, to be held in Baltimore the last week in August, Messrs. J. H. Grant, and J. E. Beal will represent the chapter at this University.

The Michigan University Book containing a list of all the professors and students of the Literary, Law, and Medical departments with something of their history, will be on sale next week.

Because of the examinations and the consequent inability of the members to practice sufficiently, the fencing club will not take part in the exercises on field day. However there will probably be a contest for the prize.

The editors of the Palladium for next year have been elected, and are as follows: M. K. Perkins, Chi Psi; E. H. Bowman, Alpha Delta Phi; F. C. Mandell, Delta Kappa Epsilon; C. F. Brace, Zeta Psi; E. H. Osmon, Sigma Phi; C. H. Johnson, Psi Upsilon; O. F. Hunt, Beta Theta Pi; C. R. Buchanan, Phi Kappa Psi.

Red Ribbon Items.

Don't forget the annual election of officers and other important business of the reform club next Wednesday.

There will be no meeting at the opera house next Sunday afternoon, the "boys" all desiring to help the Dixboro meeting along.

J. C. Bonteson and John Schumacher spoke at South Lyons last Sunday, and woke them up considerably, securing 25 signers to the pledge.

At Lodi on Sunday, Messrs. C. A. Towne and E. E. Gatchell, from the students temperance club, spoke to a good audience, and made good speeches.

Don't forget the mass temperance meeting at Dixboro next Sabbath, the 27th. R. E. Frazer, Dr. T. P. Wilson, Mrs. O. B. Schuyler and others will make ringing speeches.

At Ypsilanti last Sunday, the large tent of Col. Fiske—father of the famous "Jim Fiske"—was filled full, and the colonel himself and R. E. Frazer made stirring speeches.

At Superior town house Fred. Esslinger and Chas. Boylan spoke to a live audience last Sabbath. The club appointed delegates to the Jackson convention, and raised funds to pay their way.

The meeting at Lodi, although it was a busy time among the farmers, was well attended, and a very enjoyable time was had, and the Lodi club will clear some $40 by the move. Rev. Dan R. Shier opened the meeting and acted as chairman upon the occasion, and together with Prof. J. Beal Steere, Mr. L. L. Witmyer and Chas. Boylan constituted the speakers.

High School Class Day.

The class day exercises of the graduating class of the high school occurred at Whitmore Lake, on Wednesday the 23d, at 7 o'clock p. m. The exercises consisted of an oration, "crumbs," by Harry Bitter; poem, "a trip to the moon, or a century hence," by Bessie P. Hunt; class history by Carrol M. Coe, Class president; by Lois T. Angell—read by Jessie B. Wood, in the absence of the writer; president's address, singing of the class song, written by Miss Millie S. Knowlton, of Ann Arbor, after which came supper and toasts. The following is a list of the toasts, of which Chas. H. Cooley acted as master:

THE CLASS OF '80.
"On their own merits modest men are dumb."
Response by J. A. CASE.THE PROFESSORS.
"Not praise them, praise them more."
Response by CHARLES S. ASHLEY.THE LADIES OF THE CLASS.
"These maidens true, praise them more."
Response by CHARLES HARTZELL.THE VICTORIES OF THE CLASS.
"The spirit of children shall be child."
Response by HARRY BITTER.THE GENTLEMEN OF THE CLASS.
"We are men, my boys."
Response by BESSIE P. HUNT.THE SPIRIT LAMB.
"Some children are born with a lamb."
Response by CAROL M. COE.OUR ALBERT CARRIAGE.
"Whose words are all our hearts."
Response by CLYDE L. HUGHESON.THE CLASS OF '80.
"Within this awful volume lies the mystery of life."
Response by RICHARD M. DUFF.

City Census.

The different census enumerators for the city of Ann Arbor completed their work last night, and we find the number of inhabitants to be as follows:

First ward 1,800

Second ward 1,200

Third ward 1,200

Fourth ward 1,200

Fifth ward 1,200

Sixth ward 1,200

Total 7,300

As compared with the census of 1870, the city shows a healthy growth, which compares favorably with any of Michigan's cities for the past decade. The following are the figures for 1870:

First ward 1,700

Second ward 1,100

Third ward 1,100

Fourth ward 1,100

Fifth ward 1,100

Sixth ward 1,100

Total 6,700

The census of 1860 gave us a population of 5,097.

These figures may disappoint some of our people, but we have full faith that the enumerators have done their work faithfully and well. By rights there are 1,400 people who ought to be counted in the population of this city. They are with us the greater part of the year, and are in reality a portion of the inhabitants of this city. But the enumerators have not included these in their lists. Adding their number to the above we have a population of 9,428, which is in reality just about what we are entitled to.

