LOCAL.
Dr. Georg lost a fine horse last Monday.
Remember the registration day, Tuesday, Oct. 26th.
November 8th is the date the juryman are summoned for.

The masonic association of the university is to elect officers this evening, at 7:30 o'clock, to which all the masons in the university are invited to attend.
Wheat throughout the county is looking remarkably well. Early sowed pieces especially, have obtained a fine growth, and everything looks encouraging.

At a meeting of the county temperance committee last Monday, R. H. Marsh, of Saline, resigned the chairmanship, and Prof. T. P. Wilson was elected in his stead.
Seven wood yards in this city, and more in prospect. At the rate some of them sell their wood, and the size of their cords, their owners all ought to get rich by spring.

Evening services begin in the Unitarian church next Sunday evening. The Student's Bible class will also commence next Sunday. Time of session from 12 to 1 o'clock.
Mrs. Dr. Hartley, who lives on Thompson st., arose a few nights since to answer a call, and by mistake opened the cellar door, and falling down the stairs, was considerably injured.

A mis-placed switch was the cause of an engine and four freight cars being off the track at the M. C. R. R. depot Saturday morning last. All trains were delayed for a few hours thereby.
A nice, large frame dwelling house is being erected upon the east side of Maynard street, near William. It has "swell" ends instead of a "swell" front, and will be an addition to that locality.

The postmaster at Ypsilanti has offered a reward of $50, for the apprehension of the thief or thieves who broke in and stole Uncle Sam's treasures in the post office of that city, on the 21st inst.
The Hon. Austin Blair is to address the people at the court house to-night. All wanting to hear an "honorable" earnest, eloquent presentation of the issues of the day, should be present.

We would call the attention of our readers to the poem upon the first page of this issue, entitled "Campaign of 1880," written by Regent Geo. Duffield, of Lansing.
It is well worth perusing.
Last Saturday night, Oct. 9th, a bay horse, five years old, with star in the forehead, was stolen from the Washenau hotel barn, and Elmer Collins offers a reward of $25 for the return of the same.

The democrats never acknowledge the "corn" when the people set down on them, but try to crawl out of it on the ground of "fraud," "colonization of voters," etc.
But the cry has no effect.
A youth, just launching out in trade, into a wealthy merchant said:
"Pray tell me, sir, what you profess to be the master of your success?
The nabob's eyes with pleasure shine As he replied in earnest tone:
"The secret simply is—I think You'll find it, sir, in printer's ink."

"The election of the republican ticket in Indiana next Tuesday, will give the November elections to the republicans, beyond all doubt." Just so. The republicans carried the state. Hurrah for Garfield!
Republicans in Ypsilanti will bear in mind that an entire new registration is required in that city under the charter. Do not forget it, and judge the elbow of your republican neighbor and remind him of the fact.
The freshmen and sophomores again met in football contest last Saturday afternoon, and again a tie resulted. Those witnessing the game said it was one of the finest and best contested ever played upon the grounds.

The Fenton Independent has this item:
"Rev. D. H. Taylor has removed with his family to Ann Arbor on account of the education of his children, but will continue to supply the Presbyterian pulpit in Fenton until January 1st." Anderson & Donovan have added the portrait of Gen. Arthur to that of Gen.
Garfield in our office, and any one desiring to see portraits of the next president and vice president of the United States, can be accommodated by calling.
"Jeff" the janitor, wishes us to state that not any gas, such as is made from coal, was consumed by the meeting of colored men spoken of last week. They burned oil in the band boys' lamps, said oil being purchased with Jeff's own money.
At a meeting of the township board of Ann Arbor town on Saturday, Supervisor Foster was authorized to raise by tax the sum of $1,561.00 for highways and bridges, that being the amount expended by the highway commissioner the present year.
A mahogany case containing 100 remedies has been presented to the homoeopathic hospital of the university by Foster's pharmacy, of Detroit, and Halsey & Co., of Chicago have presented the hospital with drugs said to be sufficient for a year's work.

The county pioneer society is soliciting funds, through its vice presidents in each township, for the purpose of fitting up a room in the court house to be used for the society's relics and archives. Help the good cause by a little pecuniary assistance.
It is stated that, making the excavations at Pontiac the other day, the remains of a little boy was found, beside which was a sawyer. The same old story, isn't it boys?
Methods of chastisement have not been improved upon, it seems, in all these hundreds of years.
"Walk up, tumble up, any way you get up," as a stranger said the other morning, as he attempted to walk up from the M. C. depot on the Detroit street sidewalk. There are portions of this walk, as has been previously remarked in this paper, that are extremely dangerous.
Upon last Sabbath the Evangelical Lutheran synod of Michigan, convened at the Lutheran church, in Soio. There was a general attendance, and the usual business of the synod was gone through with. A new organ in the church, made in this city by Mr. Allmendinger, was dedicated upon the occasion.

Hundreds of bushels of excellent apples are lying upon the ground under the trees in the orchards in this vicinity, the greater portion of which will decay and be entirely lost. It seems almost wicked that such should be the case when there are so many who would be glad of them.
W. W. Bliss & Co. have a great curiosity in their window in the shape of the Detroit Free Press poultry display of Oct.
1876. It has a lean and hungry look, at present, and the peculiar smile which passes over the face of the people who go to gaze upon it, is quite amusing.

The Cincinnati Times-Star says: "Congress should do something for the protection of our astronomers. Prof. Harrington, of Ann Arbor, discovered a comet last week, but neglected to clap his trade mark on it at once, and now a lot of foreign sky-gazers are scooping in the same comet." Hon. Sumner Howard, of Flint, will wake up the republicans at Saline on Monday evening, Oct. 18; at Manchester, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19; and at Chelsea, Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 20. Mr. Howard can make an excellent speech, and the people will never regret going to hear him.
Even democrats will be interested.

At the ladies' society of the M. E. church, held last Wednesday evening, over 200 people were present, and a general good time was had. This meeting was under the management of Mrs. Noble, Mrs.
Bailey, Mrs. Seabolt, and Miss Breakley, and they have the honor of having had the largest attendance of any meeting since the organization of the society.
Prof. Donald Maclean, Prof. of surgery in the medical department, arrived home from his trip to Europe last Friday evening, and the students of the medical department gave him a serenade, hiring the city band for the occasion. An address of welcome was delivered by Mr. F. D. Shepard, of the senior class, which was feelingly responded to by the Doctor.

At the recent general Unitarian conference of the U. S., held at Saratoga, Rev. J. T. Sunderland, of this city, was made one of the national council of management.
Mrs. Sunderland was elected one of the vice presidents of the national woman's auxiliary conference, and Mrs.
Prof. Langley, of this city, one of the directors of the latter body.
The Adrian Times says that work on the new reform school for girls at that place is beginning to show. There has, however, been "beginning to show" why the bid for erecting such a building made by M. Johnson & Co., of Detroit, was not out and the job given to Adrian men, for more than Johnson's responsible bid is known.

A very recherche affair came off last Friday night at the residence of J. C. Watts, on Liberty street, on the occasion of the lady freshman's annual supper, which is managed entirely by the lady students of the three upper classes of the literary department.
One hundred and twelve young ladies were present, and as no gentlemen were invited, the evening passed off very happily indeed. Choice refreshments were served, and music and dancing indulged in by the gay crowd. This custom was started by the ladies of the upper classes, so that a social and friendly spirit might be cultivated with the freshman ladies on their first arrival at the university. Could a more sensible idea have been suggested?

The following notice of a former Dexter boy appeared in the Detroit Post and Tribune of a recent date:
"By a act and appropriation of the legislature of New York a system of night medical service was established in that city. The chief executive officer of that service Dr. W. A. Ewing, formerly of Dexter, and who has since moved to New York, has been for several years sanitary inspector of the city of New York, and his efficiency there suggested his appointment to the position of chief executive officer of the night medical staff.
Under the law physicians who are willing to serve in the night corps register their names, and are subject to call, and each one is pledged to attend at any hour of the night to any patient in his precinct to attend any patient in his precinct. The fee of $3 for each visit will be collected by the police authorities from the patient. If the patient is not able to pay the fee, the police authorities will collect it from the property of the patient.
By these means prompt and competent medical aid is afforded to the sick, and the reach of every body, while the disturbed and unquieting sleep will be secured of his patient."

A new dictionary is in use by our little Wednesday contemporary, known as "Myrick's unabridged." Glancing over two or three items only, we find appeal spelled "a-p-p-a-l"; "a-e-h"; "Bishop," "B-i-p-ho-p"; "in a place of a yin gillyflower"; "in place of a in Burleigh, etc. These are only a few of the numerous instances.
Should we have extended our search over the entire paper, or a column even, it would be doubtful if one lead pencil would last to note them all. The peculiarity of this new work is the quality of ambiguity it possesses, for there is no certainty that the same word occurring twice in the same line or in both instances be spelled alike. A new treatise upon "punctuation and the capitalization of words," is also in contemplation.
We shouldn't speak of this but for our said author's continual criticism of others.

Personal Notes.
Andrew DeForest and wife returned from their eastern trip yesterday.
E. R. Powell, of the Montclair Co., Herald, published at Stanton, was a caller at the Courage office this week. While in the city he received a dispatch announcing the burning of his office.
A. B. Levesque, of Louisiana, an uncle of Mrs. Thos. Geer, of this city, was in the city over Sunday. It will be remembered that Mr. L., as a member of the Louisiana returning board four years ago, was offered $100,000 for his vote, by the democrats, and refused it.
Capt. Solomon T. Lyon, of Howell, was in the city this week. The Capt. is in the city of the "old fighting 5th," and was under Gen. Hancock for some time. He says he honors the General as a soldier, but can not swallow the party back of him. Consequently he will vote as he is fought.
List of Jurors.
The following is the list of jurors drawn for the October term of the circuit court.
They are not summoned to appear until the 24th of November:
Ann Arbor town—Wm. F. Brain, Jr., John T. Fisher.
Ann Arbor city—David Rinsley, Geo. Jacobus, Thos. F. Hill.
Ann Arbor village—John W. G. M. Sills, Brigadier Albert VanGosen.
Westland—Wm. C. 229.
Freedom—Fred Gross, Jr.
Lima—Thos. Covert.
Lodi—Joseph E. Wood.
Lyndon—Chas. J. Sawyer.
Manchester—Jonathan R. Hoopes.
Northfield—Wm. Odo.
Pittsfield—Wm. S. Miles.
Saline—Isa. Stantzer.
Salineville—Wm. G. Sandan.
Sharon—Jas. H. Hood.
Soio—Jas. Warren Donkin.
Sylvan—Hiram Pierce.
Westland—Wm. C. 229.
Ypsilanti town—Samuel Fletcher, Warren A. Allen, John S. Miles, Henry D. Stoup, Wm. R. M. Latham, George A. Newman, Cor. Wm. H. Warner, Samuel Rogers.

Board of Supervisors.
The board of supervisors for this county, met at the court house last Monday morning.
An organization was effected by choosing M. E. Case, of Pittsfield, as chairman, of a vote of 15, to be for M. L. Shuts, of Ypsilanti; 1 for Horatio Burch, of Manchester, and one for D. G. Ross, of Sharon.
The chairman has announced the following
standing committees:

A local writer who couldn't keep the public posted upon improvements that are necessary, would certainly be a blind one.
The proposition which has been once or twice brought up in the council, to have the stone walk upon the south side of the Chandler house, leading to the postoffice, widened to 14 feet, is a capital one, and if it could be done would add to the good nature of hundreds of our citizens both permanent and temporary. It would be a grand improvement. Can it be "did." The following from an exchange can be read with profit by the people of many school districts in the country: "As the og wheel of time is perfect in its construction and movement, there is no slipping back, so going over twice, consequently, the opportunity which parents have now to school their children, once past, is past forever; therefore it behooves parents and school officers to work harmoniously together, and when once employed, sustain them in all they do, by appreciating their good deeds, and not magnifying their occasional mistakes and imperfections." On Thursday last week, the republican convention for the third representative district of this county, convened at Chelsea.
C. Walbridge, of Manchester, was made chairman, and G. S. Rawson, of Bridgewater, secretary. The first ballot resulted in 16 votes being cast for James McLaren, of Lima; seven for Edward E. Appleton, of Soio; and four for George S. Rawson, of Bridgewater. Messrs. Appleton and Rawson withdrawing their names, Mr. McLaren was unanimously nominated. A district committee was appointed, consisting of Jas. T. Honey, Soio; George S. Rawson, Bridgewater; and J. L. Gilbert, Sylvan.

The construction of the Detroit, Butler & St. Louis railroad which passes through an corner of this county, taking in some considerable of Augusta, and a tiny corner of York, is progressing rapidly. The grading is completed from Detroit to Adrian, and the bridge over the Rouge will be completed some time next week. The army of men on the work have commenced laying track at Butler, and at the crossing of the Flint & Pere Marquette road, and in a few days rails will be spiked down to the road of four or five miles per day. The crossing of the line with the Michigan Central will be laid this week. It is expected that the road will be open for business by January 1st.

The chairman has announced the following
standing committees:

County Items.
STONY CREEK.
Mr. Harmon is visiting his many friends at the east.
"Scarlet fever" is posted on the house of Mr. James Vanderveken.
Rev. W. E. Dunning is announced to speak on the proposed constitutional amendment at the Methodist church next Sunday evening. Voters especially invited.
Captain Allen is to speak at Barr's hall some time this month. Every republican and democrat should hear him.
The first Methodist social is to be held next Friday afternoon and evening at Spencer Davis'.
The most of the people say that the Beal-Cooter letter is just and right.
Mrs. Clark, mother-in-law of Rev. W. E.
Dunning, is one of the losers in the late burglary of the postoffice at Ypsilanti, in a registered letter, of $30.
Mr. Drury had a vendue sale of the farming implements and stock of his farm on the 6th inst. There was not so large an attendance as when the farmers have less to do, but all went at a fair figure.
The house of the Hemmes' homestead was burned last Friday evening, the fire originated in the kitchen, and before discovered had a good start for its work of destruction.
The family had retired except William, who first discovered it. Help soon appeared and a portion of the contents of the house was saved, but the most of it was lost. The property was insured in the Washenau County Mutual Co. A sad feature of the event was that Mrs. Hemmes was sick, and very low. She had to be carried out and taken to her son who lived near. The moving started the cancer, with which she was suffering, to bleeding, and it was thought that the whole affair would make her much worse, but as yet it has resulted better than was feared.

Temperance Resolutions.
The following resolutions, respecting the assertion that the agricultural society must turn its grounds into a saloon in order to make their annual exhibition pay, were passed at a recent meeting of the Washenau county temperance association: WHEREAS, The editor of the Ann Arbor Star has published in his paper the following editorial statement, to wit:
"The fact that the large amount of the citizens of Washenau county will not attend a fair unless they can procure what they desire, viz: liquor, is a fact which is not only a disgrace and honor to the county, but is a disgrace to the State. It is a disgrace to the State, because it shows that the people of this State are not only ignorant, but are willing to keep away from fairs. The absence of a large number of our citizens from the fair, is a disgrace to the State, because it shows that the people of this State are not only ignorant, but are willing to keep away from fairs. The absence of a large but are willing to keep away from fairs." Resolved, That the above statement is an insult to the citizens of Washenau county, for if true, it is an injurious and shameful fact which public decency demands should be corrected. It is degraded to the people of this county under the domination of the liquor power, and so helplessly in bondage to beer drinking, that without an opportunity to drink the few staple remedies of the age, *Little's
