ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1886.

From the Brooklyn Eagle. ABE WALLACE. A Story of the West After the Manner of Bret Harte.

What a matter did you? demanded Abe Wallace, with a most unnatural petulance under the circumstances. 'What yer yerin' around that visage or mine for? Can't yer rasp that countenance? Obviously he had in the last few minutes been struck by a bolt of lightning, and he was now in a state of high nervousness.

Mother Ship's Prophecy.

That our people may have another warning of the last day, we produce the following prophecy, which has been kept before the people for some four centuries: Carriages without horses shall go. Around the world thoughts shall fly. Water shall yet wet no more. Through hills man shall ride. And horse power shall be his side.

Price Sayings of Children.

The clever London parrot, Truth, advertised to give a prize of £25 to the child who could say the most words beginning with the letter 'P'. Several hundred contributions were sent in, and I select a few of the most pointed: 'As we were talking one day about the weather, my mother said, "It was a little bit remarked that he had seen a christening, a funeral and a wedding, but he had never seen a divorce."

Torture at Harvard University.

A report has come to us from the city of Cambridge, which we trust is untrue, that the Chinese instructor at Harvard College had published a volume of poems on the subject of an American critic, since there is no western scholar who can interpret its tenor. The poems, it is said, were published in 200 years ago, and were a fearful torture in itself, and resulting in making the child a cripple for life.

The Inventor of the Wheelbarrow.

It takes a great man to do a little thing sometimes. Who do you think invented that very simple thing called the wheelbarrow? It was Leonardo da Vinci, who painted the Mona Lisa and who was one of the greatest geniuses of the world.

The Power of Silence.

What strange power is silence! How many resolutions are formed—how many sublime conquests effected—during that pause when the lips are closed, and the soul seizes the eye of his Maker upon him!

Among Our Exchanges.

The Buchanan Record has the following: "The editor of the Dowagiac Times is recovering very fast from the effects of his railroad collision experience. Although he was pretty badly hurt about the back and head, about two thirds of the scalp was taken off and turned over on his shoulder. He has placed his case in the hands of Hon. J. J. Van Riper for settlement with the railroad company."

State Sittings.

Three Rivers is agitating the purchase of a steam engine for the purpose of running the Alma has lost her flour mill by fire. Loss, $18,000, no insurance. Greenville people are troubled with big jaws just now. Got the mumps. All the boats of the famous Wah-wah-ah-ah club have been ordered sold.

The ice crop, which is being harvested, is clear and nice, and being about 10 inches thick makes it nice for handling and packing.

The mayor being absent last Monday night at the opening of the council meeting, Ald. Beasler, of the 21 ward, was called to the chair.

Henry Duck, aged 14 years, charged with obtaining goods under false pretenses, was sentenced to the reform school until 18, by Judge Morris.

A scaffold on which four men were at work, at the railroad bridge just west of the city, fell last Friday, quite seriously injuring all four of the workmen.

The trial of Patrick Carlin, on the charge of assault and battery alone, resulted in his conviction, and he has been sentenced to two months in the county jail.

Many of the show windows look beautiful and tempting to the pocketbook. There is plenty to select from if the purse is sufficiently long to reach them.

The township of Ann Arbor has recently built a new bridge across the mill race at Geddes. It cost one hundred dollars. Henry Stoup was the builder.

The number of arrests the past month by the police of the city were 11, classified as follows: Drunk and disorderly, 8; disorderly, 1; larceny, 1; crazy, 1.

At the council meeting Monday evening, the saloon bond of Geo. Clarken, with H. Kitredge and Emanuel Luik as surety, was presented and referred to city attorney.

The vacant lots in the rear of the opera house have been rented to the city for a wood and hay market, and a warrant ordered drawn in favor of H. R. Hill for $75 to pay rent for the same.

The board of health, through Dr. W. F. Breakey, asked leave of the council at the last meeting, to purchase a desk for the preservation of its papers and records, and the request was granted.

The papers throughout the state where Elroy M. Avery has lectured upon "The Electric Light," speak very highly of the effort. Mr. Avery was at one time "yo local" of the COURIER.

Give your boys tools to work with, and teach your girls how to be good cooks, and they will be much happier in the years to come than as though you let them grow up to weeds and crochet work.

The weather for the past few days has made the tears run down the cheeks of even the hardened, wooden-headed criminals who hold out bunches of cigars to passers-by in front of stores.

The Gregory house is to be thoroughly overhauled, and put in tip-top shape. If Messrs. Booth, as host, and DeForest, as clerk, can't succeed in keeping hotel, then just show us the men who can.

The bills of the various fire companies for attending the fire at the residence of Rev. Wyllys Hall, as allowed by the council, figure up $46.50, and for services in testing the new steamer $12.00.

It is expected that the new Episcopal chapel will be ready for use by February 1st. The parsonage will not be erected until spring, and will be built of stone instead of brick, as formerly intended.

Some of the church societies this year are to have the Sabbath school children exemplify the biblical saying, "It is more blessed to give than to receive," by having each child make a present as well as to receive one.

The little Daily News appears regularly, looking bright, with plenty of news, in acceptable shape, and deserves the support of our citizens. As hundreds of other places, not so large as Ann Arbor, support a daily, why shouldn't she?

An exchange announces with big!!! that the mortgage on the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Grand Trunk R. R., is only $2,260,000. That's nothing. Vanderbilt could buy that up and then have enough left to purchase 40 or 50 more just like it.

The M. E. Sabbath school realized something over $40 as their share from the proceeds of the recent concert given by the Tennesseans. A snug little sum, and the audience who gave the amount felt amply repaid for the time and money expended.

The city marshal has expended the following amounts the past month for the poor of the city: In the 1st ward, $33.70; 2d ward, $11.34; 3d ward, $8.13; 4th ward, $33.00; 5th ward, $15.03; 6th ward, $10.50; city, $6.00; making a total of $117.85.

Company A had on their new uniforms at their general inspection and drill last Monday evening, and made a fine appearance. The captain's badge was won by private Martin for the greatest proficiency in the silent manual. Sergeant Dietz, however, was a close second.

Cliptomani. Why isn't that a better word than "unblushing thievery" which the Adrian Press uses to describe the peculiar characteristics of some of the fatigued editors of 4 to 6 p. patent sheets? It is far more enlivened and expressive and not so stinging and brusque. What do you say?

The people in the 14th ward, living near Luik's factory, are again waking up the council respecting a pump in the city's well in that locality. We haven't heard that property owners in the vicinity of Maynard and Liberty sts., have made any move for a pump in the well in that locality, but they ought to.

The union school temperance association will celebrate its second anniversary by an entertainment to be given in the opera house, on Friday evening, Dec. 10. The programme will consist of readings and recitations, vocal and instrumental music, tableaux, etc. All are invited. Admission 10 cents.

Last Monday the Ann Arbor agricultural company held an election of officers with the following result:
President—J. Austin Scott.
Secretary—Percy Knight.
Treasurer—J. W. Knight.
Directors—Austin Scott, Henry W. Rogers, J. Knight, John Finnegan, M. T. Howard, E. W. Moore, and Moses Seabolt.

A young lady was heard to ask her "dear Gawgw" if a safe lock would be opened if the combination should happen to be lost or forgotten? "Gawgw" thought not, and asked why? "I was only thinking," said she, "how nice it would be to be safely locked in your arms, and the combination forgotten." He tumbled—ed.

W. E. Walker, P. Winegar, H. E. H. Bower and 14 other residents of the third ward have petitioned the common council to have the coal sheds of the T. A. & G. T. R. R., on Miller avenue, removed 30 feet from the street, asserting that as at present located they are "an intolerable nuisance, and dangerous to pedestrians."

An exchange suggests that Euphrosyne, the sweetest of the three Greek Graces, "is ever queen of the winter, and she reigns right merrily." Well, when coal is worth $7.00 a ton, with a fair prospect of a rise, and wood proportionately high, the old form of Hades stares some of the people in the face, and all the pretty goddesses shiver at the prospects.

Boys, boys, wake up? Trot out your petitions, and see if you can not capture at least one of the messengers in the coming legislature for Ann Arbor. There are 17 such boys needed, and it has been a long time since Ann Arbor has been recognized in this connection. There have been only about 10,000 applications for the positions yet reported.

The defence hook and ladder company are to give their fourth annual hop on New Year's eve, at the army hall. Don't forget that New Year's eve comes on the evening of Dec. 31st, 1880. Prof. Lang's orchestra is to furnish music, and a general invitation is extended to all who desire to trip the toe. These anniversaries of the boys are always enjoyable.

The county jail statistics for the month of November were: Drunk, 97; drunk and disorderly, 11; larceny, 3; petit larceny, 12; vagrancy, 4; selling liquor to minors, 2; assault and battery, 5; grand larceny, 2; petit larceny, 4 burglary, 2; entering rail road car, 2; insane, 2; and one each for threats, bigamy, highway robbery, witness, embezzlement and false pretenses.

In pursuance of the call published last week, a number of ladies have associated for a winter's study of the laws of Michigan pertaining to women. The first meeting will be held at Mrs. Israel Hall's, on Washtenaw avenue, Saturday, Dec. 11th, from 3:30 to 5 o'clock. The subject for this meeting will be the laws relating to education. All ladies interested are cordially invited.

The secret work of odd fellowship was very materially changed at the late session of the sovereign grand lodge, and special sessions of the grand lodge of Michigan are to be held in the different parts of the state during the present month, for the purpose of imparting the work to subordinate lodges. The new work will be in force from and after January 1, 1881, and no other will be recognized after that date.

Many of the audience in attendance upon the play at the opera house last Wednesday evening were uncomfortable from the cold, even with overcoats and furs on. Had this been the first occasion of the kind people would feel more disposed to overlook it, but such has been the case at several entertainments this season. We have heard the question quite frequently asked if there are any heating facilities for this building?

See here, Mr. Evening News, what do you mean by uttering such slanderous, insinuating words as these, from your issue of Tuesday evening:
"Last evening about the time the theaters were out, a gang of some 40 or 50 men marching up Woodward avenue in a column of fours. At the corner of Congress street, by the intersection of the right and left sidewalks, they formed in line across the avenue and proceeded on their way, making night hideous by howling out the 'Hell Moon chorus.' The demonstration had all the earmarks of a riotous drunk. An Ann Arbor man who witnessed the affair, said he 'fell more at home' in Detroit than ever before."

At a meeting of the Washtenaw county pomological society, held at the court house last Saturday afternoon, the regular election of officers was conducted with the following result:
President—S. W. Dorr, Manchester.
First vice-president—J. D. Baldwin, Ann Arbor.
Second vice-president—A. Conklin, Manchester.
Third vice-president—George Sutton, Northfield.
Executive committee—Emil Bairr, J. P. Parrish, E. L. Page, and Chas. Woodruff, Ann Arbor.

At the last meeting of the common council the finance committee reported the allowance of the following bills from different funds: 1st ward fund, $100.72; 2d ward, $43.04; 3d ward, $51.75; 4th ward, $7.61; 6th ward, $90.90; general street fund, $151.29; contingent fund, $411.74; and the general fund committee, reported the allowance of bills to the amount of $1,700; making a grand total of $2,557.05 expended during the month of November. The reason for the extra amount is accounted for by election expenses, supervisor's salaries, etc.

The Battle Creek people say they are fond of good performances, and enjoy the theater, but kick in a lively manner over giving $1 for a ticket to the same. In which they are sensible, and all troops asking $1 admission ought to be "froze out." There isn't a theatrical company or a concert company, or any other company in existence that can give a person the value of a dollar for one performance, and might give for which even fifty cents would not be a far greater sum than they are worth. Of course people will go, if an actor or actress has been well advertised, but that doesn't alter the facts in the case any. People pay too much money and receive too little in return in the line of traveling amusements. There ought to be a reaction in this respect.

Here is a recipe for making tatters: Take a handful of weed called Runabout, the same quantity of root called Nibbleton, a sprig of the herb Back-bite, (either before or after dog-day) a spoonful of Don't-you-tell-it, six drachms of Malice, a few drops of Envy, which can be procured at the apothecary of Miss Tabitha TenTableard and Miss Nancy Night-walker. Stir them well together, and simmer them half an hour over the fire of Discontent, kindled with a little Jealousy; then strain it through the sieve of Misconception, cork it up in the bottle of Malvolence, and hang it up on a skein of street Yarn; shake it occasionally for a few days and it will be fit for use. Let a few drops be taken before walking out, and the subject will be able to speak all manner of evil, and that continually—Exchange.

Mrs. Louisa F. Grossman, wife of Michael Grossman, died at her home in the 3d ward of this city, at ten o'clock p. m., on the evening of Tuesday, December 7th. The deceased was born in Wurtemberg, Germany, Feb. 15th, 1826, and was consequently 54 years of age. She was married shortly after coming to this country, and had resided in this city over 23 years. She leaves a family of four children, the youngest, George Grossman, having been an employe in the composing room of the COURIER office for over three years. One son, William, resides at Saginaw, another, Michael Jr., lives in the city. In this, the greatest affliction which can be given a family, they have the sympathy of many friends. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon from the Bethlehem Lutheran church.

A very large audience assembled in university hall last Friday night to listen to the Little concert company. The culture, the fashion, the chic, and the mediocrity were well represented, and the criticisms upon the entertainment were as mixed as were the tastes of the audience. Upon one point, however, all agreed, that the rendition of "The Last Rose of Summer," by Miss Little, was in itself a rich remuneration for the time and money expended in attending, and disclosed a voice of remarkable beauty, clearness and sweetness. The writer is frank to confess that it was superior to anything of the kind he had ever before listened to. The operatic airs, of which the vocal portion of the entertainment was exclusively composed, were highly appreciated by musicians and others whose tastes lie in that direction. Miss Hattie McLean has a remarkably rich contralto voice, while Cleveland and Grove possess good voices and rendered their parts well. Mr. Hoffman executed the piano waltzes in a manner commendable. Mr. John Skelton had a cornet which dazzled the eyes of the audience with its polished surface, and the manner in which he made the notes chase each other out of the same enchanted the ears of the hearers. He is certainly an excellent artist, and being repeatedly encoored, the audience evidently appreciated his efforts. Taking the concert as a whole, the auditors were evidently quite well pleased, and did not regret attending. The tremendous and long continued applause which followed the singing of the one American song, proved conclusively to us, however, where the real taste and appreciation of the audience lay.

Very many of our citizens who have standard rooms would gladly favor the erection of a gymnasium if it would keep the boys from making a gymnasium of their rooms as they frequently do now.
The laboratory was visited by the members of the Pomological society last Tuesday, who evinced great interest in the work of the students, a few of them exhibiting genuine Yankee curiosity in quizzing some of the students who were at work.

The next entertainment in the student's course will be a lecture upon "Alexander Hamilton," by John Clark Ripdath, at the university hall, to-night. The lecturer will not be new to an Ann Arbor audience, and past lectures certainly lead us to believe that the effort to-night will be to which our people will be very glad to listen to. It is hoped a large audience may greet the professor.

The Ann Arbor school of music, under the direction of Prof. Galvin B. Cady, is a new feature at the university—Musical Times and Standard.
A little misapprehension seems to exist in the mind of our cotemporary. The Ann Arbor school of music is an entirely separate institution from the university being presided over by Prof. Cady however, occupies the chair of music in the university aside from this school.
The number of students now in attendance upon the university just reaches the 1,500 which the COURIER predicted at the opening of the session, and are divided in the different departments as follows: Literary department, 505; medical, 372; law, 264; pharmacy, 86; dental, 88; homeopathic, 82. This is far larger than the attendance upon any similar institution in the United States. Don't look much as if our university was going to the "demition bow-wow's," does it?

A society, to be known as the Hahnemannian, has recently been organized in the homeopathic department, and the following officers chosen: President—Prof. T. P. Wilcox; vice president—H. H. State Horticultural Meeting.
Last Monday evening, at 7 1/2 o'clock, a good sized audience, consisting largely of people from abroad, interested in agriculture in the various departments, assembled in the circuit court room of the court house, in this city, the occasion being the annual meeting of the state horticultural society. The room was quite tastefully decorated with flags, flowers, etc., while upon several tables were fine displays of fruit, jelly, etc. An address of welcome was made by Judge P. L. Page, of this city, and responded to in a very pleasing and complimentary manner by Mr. T. T. Lyon, of South Haven, the President of the state horticultural society.

Then followed an interesting and instructive paper upon "The Oaks of Michigan," by Prof. W. J. Beal, of Lansing, who figured out 300 distinct species of oaks in our country. Prof. J. Beal Steere, of this city, followed with a paper upon "The Migration of Michigan Birds," which was received with marked attention, and showed to the audience the benefits derived from these winged wanderers. After reading these papers the treasurer, Mr. S. M. Pearsall, of Grand Rapids, reported the condition of the finances, the secretary announced the program for the remainder of the session, and a social ensued.

Tuesday morning at 9:30 the society again assembled, and Dr. Warder, of Ohio, read a paper upon "Landscape Gardening," which was highly applauded, and Mr. McNaughton, of Jackson, read a paper upon "The Value and Culture of the Less Common Vegetables," which elicited considerable discussion. The next paper presented was upon "New insect enemies and new methods of fighting certain noxious insects," by Prof. A. J. Cook, of Lansing, which was listened to with a great deal of interest, and was heartily applauded. The afternoon was spent in visiting the university, upon invitation of Prof. Frieze, secretary pro tem of the faculty.

After returning from the university the society again assembled in the court room and listened to the reading of a paper written by S. W. Puter, upon the subject: "Shall tree agents be encouraged?" A discussion followed concerning about two hours.

In the evening President Lyon called the meeting to order. "The difficulty of maintaining pure and good seed" was the subject of a paper read by W. W. Tracy of Detroit. After some discussion Prof. D. Putnam, of Ypsilanti, followed with a paper upon the subject of "The School Garden," which spoke of the necessity of ornamenting the school house and grounds. The matter of life membership was presented by Mr. Fuller. Prof. Winchell then presented a paper upon "Climatology of Michigan," illustrated by maps.

Wednesday morning the society indulged in discussions upon different subjects, mainly "How to utilize our fruit crop to make it the most remunerative." The reports of the officers were then read, accepted and adopted. The old officers were then re-elected for another year.

President—T. T. Lyon.
Secretary—Chas. W. Garfield.
Treasurer—S. M. Pearsall.
Executive committee—W. K. Gibson, of Jackson, E. F. Guild, of Ypsilanti, and J. J. Augustus, of Lansing.
One vice president from each county was selected.
H. D. Adams, of Galesburg; S. B. Mann, of Adrian; and Prof. W. J. Beal, of Lansing were appointed delegates to the meeting of the association of agricultural societies, to be held at Lansing, Jan. 26th.

After extending a vote of thanks to Prof. Harrington for remarks made, and a request that he reduce the same to writing, Mrs. N. H. Pierce read a paper upon "Reciprocity," and Mrs. A. McPeayolds one upon the "Origin and Advantages of Association," followed by A. C. Glidden, of Paw Paw, with a short paper upon memorial trees.

As Jas. Satterlee, of Greenville, then gave an account of a trip to the agricultural college, when adjournment to evening was made.

The evening session was taken up with a business meeting principally, though several excellent talks were had upon different subjects, that upon jellies, especially, by Miss Fletcher. A memorial upon the life of the late president, J. P. Thompson, of Detroit, was presented, and after passing resolutions of thanks the convention adjourned. We regret that our space forbids a more complete report.
