VOLUME XXII.—NO. 25.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JUNE 22, 1888.

WHOLE NUMBER, 1148.

MICHIGAN.

STATE NEWS.

Daniel Dorsey, one of Homer's very first settlers, and a constant resident for 59 years, died very suddenly while riding in his buggy through one of our principal streets, at the age of 77 years.

A decision by the Supreme court of the state in the case of Hugh Peoples against the Evening News of Detroit. This has the effect of nullifying the law in the Whittier murder case.

The Union prisoners of war association, Greenville, on the 14th and 15th inst was a wonderful success as an occasion of reunion of all veterans of the war of the rebellion.

Mrs. Johnson and child of East Saginaw were struck by the cars at that place and fatally injured.

The Detroit Pioneer Society had its annual meeting in Lansing on the 19th and 20th inst. The attendance was large and the interest manifested all that could be desired.

Time and Doctors' Bills will be saved by always keeping the Regulator in the House!

IT IS PURELY VEGETABLE. This medicine is a thoroughly safe, purgative, alternative and tonic.

A Governor's Testimony. Simonson Liver Regulator has been in my family for some time, and I am satisfied it is a valuable addition to the medicine chest.

That this work has been thoroughly done the examination papers before the writer show most conclusively...

We trust that the School Board will do all in their power to retain his services. The committee of award thought there ought to be a fourth prize, and this Mr. Douglas generously paid out of his own pocket...

The editor of the Ann Arbor Courier in his critique on the production of 'Iolanthe' as lately given in the 'Athletic West' does not seem to fully appreciate the music as there rendered...

The impulsive youth who wrote the above armed his quill with useless irony, for he entirely misunderstood the force of our critique...

In this idea we are backed by the benefactors of Boston themselves, for while they have submitted to 159 representations of 'Iolanthe', and to 450 representations of 'Pinafore', and some 250 of the 'Pirates'...

This is proof conclusive to show that the musicians of the Hub entirely agree with us. Another proof lies in the fact that nearly every one who has heard the two operas can hum or whistle four airs from 'Pinafore' to the Courier...

Bilious Colic Cured by RHEUMATIC SYRUP. W. Coler, N. Y., June 18, '82. Rheumatic Syrup Co.

Gents—A few weeks since, while suffering with bilious colic, which rendered me unfit for business, I was advised to try a bottle of your Syrup. I had no faith in it at all, at that time, for the reason that I had tried so many things in years past without receiving any relief, but before the first bottle was emptied I was feeling better than I had felt for many years. I know, now that I have tried it, that it is the greatest remedy that exists in the world, and I feel proud to recommend the Rheumatic Syrup to all sufferers from bilious colic, for I am satisfied it has cured me. Wishing you every success with your most wonderful Syrup, I am sincerely yours, WALTER W. WHITE.

J. N. Sutherland, Esq., Dear Sir—It is a pleasure in being testimony to the efficacy of your Rheumatine. Last spring I was completely disabled by Rheumatism, and tried various remedies, baths, &c., and finally had your cure. I purchased and used three bottles of it, and it effected a complete cure, for I have not had a return of the disease since.

Estate of Franklin S. Hemingway, STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, held at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, on Tuesday, the nineteenth day of June in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three. Present, William D. Harrison, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Franklin S. Hemingway, deceased. B. L. Huber, executor of said estate, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to settle the final account as aforesaid.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Tuesday, the seventh day of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the devisee, legatees and heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

And it is further ordered, that said executor give notice of the aforesaid proceedings in said estate, of the pendency of said account, and of the hearing thereon by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Detroit Free Press, a newspaper published and circulating in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A true copy.) WILLIAM D. HARRISON, Judge of Probate. 1148-1151.
