That the names of Hon. S. O. No one within the reach of the Wash-ton County fair should fail to see the exhibit from the Southern States. The great South Atlantic States has been as if it were a sealed book to the Northern people, but now thousands of dollars of Northern money and tens of thousands of Northern people are going into that section seeking investment and homes. The opportunity for fair managers give the people of seeing at their own doors, what this country produces and what it is like, is commendable, and they should be sustained this year as they never have been before. The people in this section can only see the southern exhibit at the Wash-ton County fair as it will not exhibit at any other point near here.

There is no charge to see the display, made by the Southern States, it is free to all who enter the grounds.

The Hill-Rose Wedding.

Last evening a pretty home wedding took place at Dr. P. B. Rose's on the occasion of Miss Gertrude's marriage to Louis Hill, of Detroit, Dr. Studley officiating.

The younger sisters of the bride acted as her maids, while her brother Carlton, and his brother Edwin were best men. The bride was dressed in a blue silk, en train, with tulle veil, looking very charming as she entered on her brother's arm. Guests were present from Detroit, South Bend and other places, and the presents were numerous.

At the meeting of the school board this evening the report for the year will be submitted. The figures for the year show the following receipts and expenditures:

RECEIPTS. Cash as per Rep. business $ 531.33 Tuition for summer vacation 1.00 Interest on savings bank 2.50 For of bills sold 2.50 Library fine money 234.38 Rent of hall for social parties 3,862.25 Primary school monies 1.00 Taxes from Ann Arbor township 1,947.47 From city of Ann Arbor 284.85 From State of Mich. fund 1.00 Refunding for books 7,015.70 Total $48,340.37

EXPENDITURES. Teachers $27,311.00 Other salaries 300.00 Books and interest 4,175.40 Insurance 43.30 Janitors 1,653.38 Gas 278.85 Library books 318.89 Fuel 2,202.25 New building 6,042.80 Water rental 120.00 Improvements 1,695.73 Repairs and incidentals 2,003.44 Total $48,493.14

This shows an apparent deficiency of $3,152.06, which comes from the expenditure, during this year, of over $5,000 for the new building. At the last annual meeting the board was authorized to make a temporary loan of $5,000 to complete and furnish the new building, which they have not done. Had they made this loan as authorized there would have been a balance on hand, but it was thought best to let the annual meeting provide for the difference as it might be deemed best.

Aside from the amount necessary to finish and furnish the chapel the expenditures for the year have been about as usual.

Farmer's Picnic.

Last Saturday the 12th annual picnic of the Farmer's of Washtenaw, Wayne, Oakland and Livingston counties, was held at Whitmore Lake. The day was a trifle chilly but the vast assemblage of 6,000 or more people made the atmosphere quite humid.

Music was furnished by the Superior Grange Band which made a fine appearance in their bright, new uniforms, and executed some excellent pieces.

Dinner was served in the grove, and there was abundance for all. The exercises at the speaker's stand were opened by a song from the Walker Glee Club, of Salem, followed with prayer by Rev. J. M. Gelston, of Ann Arbor. After a song by the South Lyon Glee Club, President Russell W. Reeves, congratulated the crowd on its size and good looks, and then introduced the first speaker, Hon. R. W. Coleman the state lecturer of the Farmer's Alliance of Mississippi. He was a good speaker and kept the audience well in hand. His speech pleased the democrats very much, evidently, for they are loud in their praises thereof.

The next speaker was Hon. A. S. Partridge, of Flushing, who is grand president of the Patrons of Industry of Michigan, and candidate for governor on the prohibition ticket who of course wanted all their votes.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President—H. D. Platt, of Pittsfield. Secretary—Hiram Thayer, of Ypsilanti. Treasurer—Henry Finckney, of Webster. Executive Committee—Geo. A. Peters, Seio. Amos Phelps, Dexter. D. B. Patterson, Ypsilanti. S. P. Gridley, Ypsilanti. Peter Gump, Ypsilanti. George McDonnell, Superior. Peter Cook, York. N. C. Carpenter, Ypsilanti. E. E. Leland, Northfield. R. B. Smith, Southfield. Geo. Kenwick, New Hudson. H. Finney, Hamburg. C. M. Starks, Webster. C. Fishbeck, Howell. W. R. Hamilton, Warden. S. J. Springer, Plymouth. H. W. Burt, Lansing. H. R. Homes, Northville. C. M. Wood, Anderson. W. F. Glenn, Chelsea. C. H. Wines, Chelsea. T. DeForest, Ann Arbor. N. E. Sutton, Northfield. Wm. Ball, Hamburg. W. S. Dexter, Ann Arbor. E. A. Nordman, Lima. Giles Lee, Brighton.

The Minnie orchestra played at Steven's Lake house last Saturday for 193 couple. It is said that Ypsilanti's ice factory freezes eight tons per day of that luxurious article.

H. B. Dewey, lit. '90, was elected secretary of the Shiawassee County Board of School Examiners at Owosso, yesterday, after an all day's session.

The new refrigerator company has been hard from. It has not advanced very much. In fact the Ann Arbor stockholders have been frozen out, as it were. Duluth has lowered the temperature considerably, and the works, together with Mr. Hard will probably be hard from here no more forever. The enterprise was of short breath and easily succumbed to the cold north wind. In other words, the Ann Arbor people feel that they have been left out in the cold. The plant—or proposed plant—will go to Duluth. The grounds and partially constructed building will probably be purchased by a new furniture factory company. The outcome of the refrigerator enterprise is regretted by most of our citizens, who had hoped that a new industry would be added to our city.
