The sewing school will re-open on Saturday, Sept. 13, at 2 o'clock in Crosey's hall.

The engagement of Douglas Adams, Ph. D., and Miss May Beakley is announced.

It is reported that one of the new stores now nearing completion on State st. will be occupied as a boot and shoe store.

F. G. Gruber, of the post office news stand, will handle the reserved seat chart of the opera house for the coming season.

"Cardinal Newman" will be the subject of Rev. J. T. Sunderland's sermon next Sunday morning at the Unitarian church.

P. Irvin sold a four-year-old mare by Membrino Gold Dust for $500 at the exposition in Detroit last week to be shipped to an eastern stock farm.

New store sidewalks are going down in front of the stores occupied by Doty & Feiner, Gilbert Bliss, Mack Abel and Co., Wm. Allaby and L. Gruener.

The telephone company is going to do a considerable work on their lines at this place in running them more direct and not over the stores so much.

John A. Gates' gray horse took a spin down Washington st., about one o'clock Monday, and when he finished the wagon looked as though it had been struck by a cyclone.

A ton of wheat on a Pittsfield farmer's wagon bent a wheel for him in front of the COURIER office yesterday. A short delay and a new wheel and the farmer drew 92c a bushel at the mill.

William A. Tolchard was home last week and left for Washington where he has secured a fine position. Sorry to lose him but we can say that Seattle gains one of the best of accountants.

Dr. R. S. Rust, of Springfield, Ohio, will probably succeed Dr. W. S. Studley as pastor. He is a man of fine culture, and social qualities, coming strongly endorsed by three of the bishops.

At the postoffice a new desk has been placed in the money order office for the convenience of patrons; and the walls and ceiling inside show what a difference a fresh coat of whitewash can make.

The clothing, dry goods and shoe clerks who organized themselves into a "Society of United Salesmen" last week have secured the signatures of all of their employers, except one, to the early closing agreement.

Three hackmen ran up against a city ordinance Monday. The ordinance had the best of it and they met Justice Butts in an official way later. They won't know what will happen to them until next week when the case will be taken up.

There will be a reception next Friday evening given at the rooms of the Presbyterian Sunday school. All new comers and all those who do not attend any other Sunday school are especially invited. The new high school pupils are also cordially invited to attend.

Last Wednesday at Port Huron occurred the marriage of Prof. Henry C. Adams and Miss Bertha H. Wright. Both are well known and popular in Ann Arbor, and THE COURIER presents congratulations, with a hope for a long, prosperous and happy journey through life.

The other day when the democratic convention met at the court house, one of the delegates on being asked by a citizen what was going on, replied: "It is the Congressional convention." He tried to correct himself, but the crowd had already been struck with the absurdity of the mistake.

The members of Co. A drew pay last Monday for their services during the state at Gogew Lake last encampment. The boys go to Adrian Sept. 24th, which day is set apart as military day by the fair managers there. About twenty new members have been elected during the past month.

The Ann Arbor Street Railway Co. has made a proposition to Haines Bros., to carry their passengers from the city limits down town for two cents each and a half each if guaranteed five dollars per day. Haines Bros. have offered to guarantee three dollars per day and no agreement has as yet been reached.

The prospects for an excellent Washburn Co. fair this year are very encouraging. The new fair grounds have been fitted up in excellent style so that exhibits of all kinds can be seen to advantage without having to range all over the grounds to find them. The track will be in good condition for a new one, and the officers deserve much praise for their untiring efforts in fitting up the buildings and grounds in so attractive a shape and condition. The southern exhibit alone should draw all the farmers of the county to see it.

A large brick addition to the machine shop of the Ann Arbor Agricultural Company is in process of erection. The company has met with discouraging reverses in the past but the prospects are bright for getting on a firmer basis before the close of the season.

The engine and dynamo for the street railway have arrived and have been put in place in the building next to the electric light building. The cars are expected every day, the wires are rapidly going up and it is confidently expected to have them running to carry you to the fair the first of the month.

The sentiment in the democratic county convention and among the congressional delegates appointed yesterday was that Louis Llesier is the most available man to pit against E. P. Allen for congress. It also appears to be the feeling among the democracy throughout the district that the young author and journalist is the coming man.—Democrat.

The many friends of Mrs. Florence E. Case were saddened to learn of her death last Thursday afternoon in this city. Her home was in Findlay, Ohio, and she had been visiting her sister Mrs. E. B. Hall, and Mrs. Lottie Medaris. About six weeks ago she was taken ill with typhoid fever resulting in her death. The funeral services were held on Saturday and the remains were interred here.

Everybody likes John Cutting the popular traveling clothing salesman. Some time ago the Clothier and Furnisher offered a prize of an elegant twenty-five dollar alligator skin "grip" to the clothing salesman whom his subscribers considered most popular. Mr. Cutting was the lucky winner and his smiling countenance will ornament the pages of the above named publication in its next issue.

Last Thursday night as Miss Collier who resides at 34 S. Ingalls st., was walking along S. University ave. with a friend, Miss Eddy, she missed her footing on turning the corner of Ingalls street and fell with such force as to break a leg.

The street is very dark at this point, there being no light between State st. and E. University ave., and it would seem that the amount for an extra light there would be a good investment to the city.

At a meeting of the faculty of the department of medicine and surgery held last Saturday afternoon, the appointment of Dr. Walter S. Christopher to the chair of Theory and Practice of Medicine and Clinical Medicine was recommended to the board of regents, and the board at its next meeting will make the appointment. Dr. Christopher is a man of about thirty-five years of age, a good lecturer, and has held the position of Professor of medicine for the past eight years.

Ex-Governor St. John and Mrs. Lathrop spoke Friday for the "lost cause" of political prohibitionism. Nothing was said about the temperance work, but everything was politics. One of St. John's bright remarks was that Mrs. Lathrop had a brain which if compared with Blaine's would make the latter a pigmy and that there was not a man in Congress that knew so much as she did. Both were very bitter against the republican party, and are trying to break it down so as to put in power the democrats, from whom they admit they cannot expect anything. They reason that when the republicans are beaten they will all come over to the prohibitionists. It seems strange how illogically minds will work. As the old fellow out west said: "What funny things we can see when we haven't got a gun."

Last Thursday the democrats held their county convention in the court house to send delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions. C. H. Richmond was chosen temporary chairman and S. W. Beakes was chosen temporary secretary. After selecting committees on credentials, organization and order of business the convention adjourned until half-past one. On reassembling, the temporary officers were made permanent and after a speech by Chairman Richmond the following delegates were elected:

State: Chas. B. Whitman, Edward Duffy, Peter J. Gill, J. S. Gorman, D. Cramer, J. B. Yanatta, Wm. Berte, P. G. Sukey, C. S. Gregory, Lester Swedland, P. Fleming, M. C. Peterson, J. D. Ryan, Walter Taylor, Michael Duffy, Andrew J. McFar, M. J. McFar, Wm. Krieger, J. Willard Babbitt, F. S. Kline and John T. Boringham. Congressional: Thos. Boringham, John Duffy, John J. Robinson, John Nary, Nathan Schmidt, E. F. Walker, Jacob Knapp, S. B. Rainey, Levi Lee, Edward DePay, Christian Smith, Chas. H. Richmond, Edward Cramer, C. H. Manly, E. G. Liddell, W. A. Russell, Ira Glover, Henry Landwehr, Wm. Patterson, John E. and W. L. Margaret. Senatorial: W. D. Harriman, W. H. Daner, W. B. Hudson, Henry Stump, Chas. Wm. Caspary, Walter Vorheis, Fred Seyler, Jas. Doyle, Wm. April, J. Manly Young, J. F. Gregory, Gustave Frohn, H. Stark, Fred Belser, Nathan Sutton, P. H. O'Brien, J. S. B. Stiffin, George Riebel.

After speeches by Messrs. Cramer, Manly and Gorman the convention adjourned.

Last Friday the prohibitionists of the county met in county convention to nominate a legislative and county ticket and to send delegates to state, congressional and senatorial conventions. O. R. L. Crozier was chosen chairman and O. R. L. Crozier, secretary. A committee was appointed on credentials, consisting of Messrs. Taylor, Bokus and Woodruff; on permanent organization, Conrad, Fellows and Folz; resolutions, Jennings, Dolan and Crozier.

The following resolution was adopted: WHEREAS, We do not approve the course of the old political parties in regard to temperance measures and legislation, both state and national, and in view of past legislation in the state by the party in power upon the liquor traffic, all lovers of good order and effective legislation should support the prohibition party in the state and nation.

A committee was appointed to select names for county officers. It reported as follows: County clerk, Prof. Bailey; sheriff, Chas. Boylan; treasurer, R. P. Chase, register of deeds, R. C. Reeves; prosecuting attorney, D. B. Taylor; coroners, John Folk and Jacob Bullock; representative 1st district, Wilbur Thompson; 2nd district, A. B. Derbyshire. After an address by Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop of Jackson the convention adjourned till evening. In the evening a county committee consisting of C. M. Fellows, chairman; O. R. L. Crozier, secretary; and E. B. Lewis, treasurer, was appointed, and after choosing six delegates each to state, congressional and senatorial conventions, ex-Gov. St. John addressed the convention taking up about two hours in defining the position and defending the platform of the prohibition party. The convention then adjourned.

Communication.

Ex-Mayor Robinson presented a claim against the city a few weeks ago, which was referred to the city attorney. The subpoenaed sworn statement shows this basis for his claim.

"CITY OF ANN ARBOR." JOHN J. ROBINSON, Dr.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor.

Gentlemen: Pursuant to the charter of said city the undersigned respectfully presents to your honorable body the following statement as a foundation for his claim to damages. In 1886 the undersigned bought from the County of Washington the old jail building and the land accompanying it consisting of one and one half acres, and having a frontage on North Main street of 18 rods.

The street appeared to the undersigned too high, and at the request of the undersigned the city engineer set stakes along the west side of said street showing an easier grade for the street. The next season of said council the attention of that body was called to the matter and the undersigned promised that if the street was cut to the grade as shown by the engineer's stakes then standing, he the undersigned would build on said premises at last two brick dwellings.

On the part of one of the aldermen the matter was referred to the street committee and the city engineer "with power to act," see Journal 1886 page 296.

The street committee and the city engineer met and examined the proposed cut in the street and agreed that the grade should be established as shown by the city engineer's stakes.

In proof of this the undersigned will produce the written statement of two thirds of the street committee, also a similar statement from the city engineer (Prof. B. Davis).

On the assurance of the persons in charge of the streets that this grading should be done as soon as possible after the street was removed and the rails had so moistened the earth that grading would be comparatively easy, the undersigned erected two brick dwellings as he agreed making the grade stakes in the street his line in determining the height of his cellar walls.

In response to a petition of the business men of the city asking the council to "do as it agreed" with reference to lowering said street, the council on motion of one of the aldermen re-established the old grade 1 1/2 feet (see Journal of 1888 page 621). The street remains uncut and the undersigned feels greatly wronged and damaged thereby.

JOHN J. ROBINSON. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 18th, August 1890.

E. B. NORRIS, Notary Public.

J. E. L. Miller will open a bookbinding in the Duffy block this week.

The last of the religious meetings at Crosey's hall is to be held next Sunday at 3 p. m.

Persons who saw Mr. M. M. Steffy going out West Huron st., one day last week, with a dray loaded with bedsteads, tables, chairs, crockery, etc., thought he was leaving the country, but he has done them in a house just outside the city limits and went back after another load.

The quarterly conference of the M. E. church met Friday evening and passed the following resolutions:

We the members of the quarterly conference of the First M. E. Church of Ann Arbor, Michigan, that as our beloved Dr. W. S. Sullivan has terminated his pastoral labors with the Ann Arbor church after a successful term, we tender to him our most cordial greetings and a hope for his long continuance in the work of the vineyard. We have enjoyed a prosperous period under his pastoral charge, and we have learned to love him; to continue in a growing appreciation of his scholarly earnestness and to know that he has done the church, as well as the cause of Christ, much good and we heartily commend him to the affections and regard of the brethren wherever the Lord may lead his footsteps.

The peculiar enervating effect of summer weather is driven off by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which "make the weak strong."

ENTERTAINMENTS.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle is young, winsome and thoroughly natural in her soubrette work. She sings nicely, dances gracefully and fairly bubbles over with humor. She is pretty as a picture and altogether "thistledown" is one of the finest musical comedies ever written. Every character is very strong. Portland Oregonian, Portland Oregon.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle is just "Pixey," bright, winsome, frolicsome, madcap "Pixey," as full of magnetism as a little electric battery, with a pretty face, a graceful form and a most prodigious appetite for fun.—Item, Victoria, B. C.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle sings and dances prettily and her work throughout is well done. She is hearty and grace itself.—Detroit Free Press.

Miss Bonstelle is a handsome, graceful, engaging soubrette, singing well and dances with perfect ease and grace and possessed of strong versatile dramatic talent. She is but seventeen and an exceedingly clever and promising comedy actress of strong personal magnetism.—Record Union, Sacramento, Cal.

Miss Jessie Bonstelle in "Thistledown" appeared at the opera house last night to a packed house. Her acting is exceedingly clever throughout. She is piquant in all she does and is full of life, giving zest to the performance by an impulsive, joyous style that is in keeping with her role. Her singing and dancing is something wonderful. A hearty welcome awaits her return.—Seattle Post, Seattle, Wash.

I Will Never? Allow myself to suffer again what I have suffered for the last year. That vile disease, Dyspepsia, gave me no comfort. I could not eat or enjoy anything. The doctors amounted to nothing; nothing seemed to relieve me, until I used a bottle of Sulphur Bitters. Four bottles made me well.—Joseph Butcher, Master of Schooner C. A. Bucker.

Home-seekers' Excursion.

The Mich. Cent. Ry. will sell excursion tickets on Sept. 23d, and Oct. 14th, good for 30 days to return to large number of points in Ala., Ark., Cal., Dak., Ia., Ill., Ind., Kan., La., Miss., Minn., Mont., Neb., Nev., Mex., Tenn., Texas, Utah, Wyo., Missouri at one first class fare for the round trip.
