Republican County Convention.

The republicans of this county met in convention at the court house Tuesday at 11 o'clock. A. F. Freeman, of Manchester, was made chairman, and E. F. Johnson, of Ann Arbor, secretary.

On motion the following committees were appointed by the chair:

Credentials—E. F. Johnson, Ann Arbor; Capt. H. S. Boutelle, Ypsilanti; A. J. Waters, of Manchester.
Permanent organization and order of Business—Geo. H. Pond, Ann Arbor; Geo. S. Wheeler, Salem; George Rawson, Bridgewater; W. S. Carpenter, Ypsilanti; J. T. Jacobs, Ann Arbor.
Resolutions—John L. Hunter, Ypsilanti; J. F. Lawrence, Ann Arbor; W. K. Childs, Ann Arbor; James Martin, Bridgewater; Wm. Dansingburgh, Augusta.

The convention then adjourned until 2 o'clock p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Upon re-assembling the the temporary officers were made permanent, and the different committees reported, and business was commenced.

Archie W. Wilkinson of Chelsea, and George A. Damon, of Ypsilanti, were appointed as tellers.

Sheriff being the first upon the list, a ballot was taken which resulted as follows:

Wm. Burtless, Manchester	1
A. F. Ferguson, Ann Arbor	2
A. H. Fillmore, Ann Arbor	5
Frederick W. Weydemeyer, Lima	91
Total	100

Upon motion Mr. Weydemeyer was declared the unanimous choice of the convention.

For probate judge, a motion was made to the effect that the convention endorse the name of J. W. Babbitt on the democratic ticket.

Another delegate nominated Henry D. Platt, of Pittsfield, for the office. The ballot resulted:

Henry D. Platt	90
A. F. Freeman	7
A. J. Sawyer	2
J. W. Babbitt	9
Total	111

Mr. Platt was given the nomination unanimously.

For county treasurer, John Keppler, of Ann Arbor town, was nominated by acclamation, and the nomination of the following followed, all being by acclamation:

County Clerk—John Cook, of Urania.
Register of Deeds—Carlie P. McKinstry, of Ypsilanti.

Prosecuting Attorney—Arthur J. Waters, of Manchester.

Circuit Court Commissioners—D. A. Pray, of Northfield, and Darwin C. Griffin, of Ypsilanti.

Coroners—Wm. K. Childs, of Ann Arbor; Dr. Frank K. Owen, of Ypsilanti.

County Surveyor—Jerome Allen, of Ypsilanti.

The convention then adjourned, having been a live, wide awake, enthusiastic convention.

The ticket nominated is without exception one of the best ever given to the people of this county for their suffrage, and every man upon it, without exception, ought to be elected.

Republican Representative Convention.

At the convention for the 1st representative district, held at the court house, Col. Henry S. Dean was made chairman, and Glen V. Mills, secretary.

The following committee on credentials was appointed: Geo. H. Pond, Ann Arbor; John L. Smith, Amos Phelps, Scio.

The temporary officers were made permanent, the committee on credentials reported and the convention went to business at once.

I. N. S. Foster, of Ann Arbor town, and Emery E. Leland, of Northfield, were appointed tellers and an informal ballot was ordered, which resulted as follows:

Fred B. Braun	25
Frederick Weydemeyer	11
Total	36

On motion the nomination of Mr. Braun was made unanimous by a rising vote.

Henry C. Waldron, of Northfield, E. F. Johnson, of Ann Arbor, and Amos Phelps, of Scio, were appointed a committee to notify Mr. Braun of his nomination.

Geo. H. Pond, Ann Arbor, W. E. Boyden, Webster, and Archie W. Wilkinson, Sylvan, were appointed a legislative committee.

The convention then adjourned.

A Success at Last.

The fair was a great success this year, as far as fine weather and a good attendance could make it a success. The show itself was all right also, and was quite worthy of the big attendance.

The stock exhibit in all lines was excellent, while the fruit, cereal, vegetable, flower, fine art, etc., etc., exhibits were 'excellent, especially considering the year.

The managers went to great expense to secure attractions to draw a crowd, and probably found that it paid.

The failure of the wild west show was nothing that could prevent, and probably was no great loss.

The experiment of an evening exhibition was not a success, owing to the failure in placing the lights properly so that the exhibition could be seen, on the first night. The failure of the first night made the other failures in a great measure.

Judge Morse did not enter his appearance on Thursday as agreed, but Hon. John T. Rich was there Friday greeting the people, but did not make any speech.

Some of our merchants are deserving of a great deal of praise for the fine display made. Mack & Schmid in dry goods and ladies' wraps, etc., had a handsome parlor fitted up.

In Dean & Co.'s crockery display, was an object lesson in American economics. Among the beautiful sets of dishes were several of American manufacture some being of the finest china, made here in the United States. It is only a few years ago that every dish which the people of these United States used was made in Europe. To-day just as fine dishes are made here, and the prices of American China is from 10 to 100 per cent. cheaper than the imported article ever was. The cry went up when a protective tariff was put upon china and crockery ware that we could not make it in the United States. But a republican congress put on the tariff, great factories sprung up and this country is now making as good crockery as any in the world and at lower prices.

In Eberbach's hardware display, of cutlery especially, another like story could be told. Eberbach also had a display of chemicals and goods in that line, and gave away an elegant $28 gasoline stove to the lucky one who could come nearest guessing at the number of nails in a glass jar in their display.

Koch & Henne's furniture and carpet booth was very neat and attractive.

The Ann Arbor Organ Co. Showed several attractive pianos, organs and musical instruments.

The photographs of Gibson's looked almost as if they might talk to you.

J. F. Schuh had sewing machines of all kinds, and gave away thousands of fans and picture cards.

Chas. F. Staebler had a booth hand-somerly fitted up with wall furnishings and decorations for house interiors.

Misses Shadford & Corson had a case of fine millinery as did also Misses Sterrett & Michaels, the new Main St. milliners.

A. P. Ferguson had a display of carriages and road carts that made the eyes of lovers of elegant turnouts dance with delight.

Walker & Co.'s display of carriages, phaetons, delivery wagons, etc., was something unusual and elegant.

Here is something that is worth remembering: "For years," said a woman the other day, "I have never slept without seeing that a couple of silk handkerchiefs hung near my toilet stand and that the bowl was half full of water. When I was a young woman, not out of my teens, I was in a hotel which took fire. I should have suffocated if my uncle, with whom I was travelling, had not thrown a wet silk handkerchief over my face. Thus protected I followed him through the hall filled with choking smoke and down the stairs to safety. I have taught the practice to my children and it has become a practice with us all. You want good, big ones and they must be wetted thoroughly; then you may, if forced, endure the thickest smoke for a considerable time."

To be free from sick headache, biliousness, constipation, etc., use Carter's Little Liver Pills. Strictly vegetable. They gently stimulate the liver and free the stomach from bile.

To the Ladies.

Warner's Safe Yeast Co. have just completed their inspection of old yeast and replaced it with all fresh goods.

What the Democrat Thinks of a Democrat Candidate.

The last issue of the Ann Arbor Democrat, under the heading "Mr. Suekey," gives the following write up of that gentleman, which will probably not be used as an "educational document" in the coming campaign:

The readers of The Democrat will have noticed that in our summary of sketches and commendatory notes of the candidates on the democratic county ticket placed in nomination at our county convention the 21st inst., we omitted the name of Mr. Paul G. Suekey, the candidate for the office of county treasurer.

The omission was not an oversight as may be supposed. The Democrat is, and always has been, loyal to the democratic tickets and will continue to be so long as democrats are on the ticket, but when a man of Mr. Suekey's reputed political status is placed in nomination, our loyalty—not to the democracy, but to the ticket—ceases.

When Mr. Paul G. Suekey came from Germany some years ago and located in Ann Arbor, (though rumor said he came from Italy) he began the publication of a German newspaper. In a short time after entering upon his journalistic career, he distinguished himself by an unwarranted attack on our great university. Then the way our courts of justice were conducted did not meet with Mr. Suekey's views and he let us know it through the columns of his paper.

His next attack was on that eminent jurist, Hon. Thomas M. Cooley, one of the grandest men in the nation. A man whom everybody delights to honor.

The Evangelist Moody, one of the noblest men in the country to-day, who spends his life in the cause of christianity, never receiving any reward for his services so cheerfully given, even this good man did not escape Mr. Suekey's pen, when he preached to crowded houses in Ann Arbor.

His next attack was on September 15, 1892, Mr. Suekey sneeringly criticised our high school system, than which there is none better in the land.

The accusation that Mr. Suekey was a duelist in Europe may, or may not be true. But when we sat at the reporters' table in the convention of last week, when he was nominated, he said to us: "I feel now just as I did when I fought my first duel."

In dropping the sword for the pen Mr. Suekey still had the fight in his hands and the editor of The Democrat was his next victim. We replied, when he attacked us again, and we now find time and inclination to say a few words.

Mr. Suekey, The Democrat shall not support your nomination. We are not that kind of a democrat. We are an American-democrat and not an Italian-democrat, who takes pleasure in maligning our courts of justice, our institutions of learning and ridiculing our noblest men, which smells too strong of anarchy to suit us.

The Democrat will support a good German-American or other American.

For County Treasurer.

The republicans have placed in nomination for the office of county treasurer, Mr. John Keppler, of Ann Arbor town. Mr. Keppler is a German, a native of Wurtemberg, but for the past thirty-eight years a resident of the county of Washtenaw. He has lived in Pittsfield, Northfield, Scio, and Ann Arbor town, during that period. For two years he held the office of treasurer of Ann Arbor town, and for the past twelve years has been director of the school district in which he lives, District No. 5 of Ann Arbor township.

For three years Mr. Keppler has been a director of the German Farmer's Fire Insurance Co. of this county, and for twelve years he was one of its agents, and has had a great deal to do in making the company a success. He has also been one of the Board of Managers of the County Fair Association for a number of years, and in every place he has been an honest, prompt, capable, and painstaking official. He believes in schools, he believes in good government, he believes in law and order, he believes in minding his own affairs, and by so doing, and by hard work, he has made a comfortable living for himself and family, besides saving for himself a good farm and home.

Hood's Pills are purely vegetable, perfectly harmless, effective, but do not cause pain or gripe. Be sure to get Hood's.

There will be a class formed in reading music at sight. The class will meet Tuesdays and Fridays from 5 to 6 p. m. Tuition, $5.00 per semester. Students can enter by making application to Prof. Stanley.

Cleveland's letter of acceptance is as thick as its author.

The Chicago Herald has a wild eyed financial editor who advocates wild cat currency.

The old tariff reform ring appears to have been wonderfully muffled in Cleveland's latest effusion.

In speaking of Gov. Abbott, of New Jersey, you should put the accent on the last syllable: Ab-bett'.

"Gen." Adlai Stevenson has been down south, traveling over the battle fields where his substitute fought and bled.

The farmers may be "lazy devils," Mr. Judge Morse, but their votes count just the same, as you will probably find out.

The democratic platform has three declarations that the people will draw conclusions from: It declares for free coinage, free trade and wild cat currency.

It is reported that Grover Cleveland has sworn off drinking until after election. It is not stated however, whether it is on his own account or to set a good example for Adlai.

Hon. Jas. O'Donnell, of Jackson, is making a thorough canvas of this district; and has nearly every evening, from now until November 8th engaged. He is making friends wherever he goes.

The republican doctrine means new ships, new factories, new markets. The democratic doctrine means "tariff for revenue," business disaster, wild cat currency for the people. Take your choice.

It is stated that owing to the quarantine at the time Cleveland sent out his dilatory letter of acceptance, that he boiled all of his words before using them. That's why they are so squishy and mushy.

Hear Judge Morse, my farmer friend: "On the hillside God planted an acre of maple trees. All the lazy farmer has to do is to stick a spile with a hole in it for the sap to run out, but the poor fellow must boil it to make sugar, so he asked two cents a pound for his labor."

The wild, scared tone of Cleveland's letter could only be born of desperation and is really quite pitiful to contemplate. One can fairly see the drops of perspiration on the original paper as they peruse the labored letter of acceptance. It is an astonishing damp cold document.

The Ann Arbor Democrat pays its compliments to Congressman Gorman in this way: "Hon. James S. Gorman was renominated Tuesday at Monroe for congressman from this district. Could not a better man have been found? It is generally conceded that he has not done his duty."

Some of the democratic papers profess to find comfort out of the late elections in Vermont and Maine. That is just the sort of comfort that the republican party is willing to let them have. If they can rejoice over republican victories all well and good, we will rejoice with them. Shake.

Our esteemed Tennessee democrat contemporary, the Chattanooga Times, advises Mr. Cleveland to tell General Sickles to "go to the devil." Just for the way it would relieve the monotony of the democratic campaign we should like to see Mr. Cleveland follow that suggestion.—N. Y. Press.

The genius who writes the editorials for the Chicago Herald is out of place in the democratic party. He belongs with Sockless Simpson and Whiskers Pfeffer. He is a rattled brained, "clattered" jawed, abnormal winded calamity whistler, who doesn't know the difference between a gold dollar and an Argentine Republic shipplaster.

The workmen of New York State look at the $7,000,000 increase in wages in that state last year, together with $10,000,000 increase in the savings deposit for the same period, then they read over the free trade platform on which Mr. Cleveland stands, and resolve to vote for prosperity and the constitutionality of a protective tariff.

The republican neighbors of Allen B. Morse, democratic candidate for governor, are challenging him to name even one republican old soldier for whom he has voted since he left the republican party in 1872. Not being able to get any word out of Morse on the subject, they make this inquiry: "How can Morse consistently ask old soldiers to vote for him?"

"It is a shame to keep up the animosities of the war by gathering these Yankees together every year," was the greeting given the G. A. R. procession in Washington, D. C., by a "young scion of a noble house," of that burgh. The Yankees in that possession are getting fewer every year, but they will gather together annually while they live, and their sons will do the same after they are gone.

After reading the letter of that eminent democratic constitutional lawyer, George Ticknor Curtis, of New York, which declares that the tariff is constitutional, and that he shall support the republican party that supports a protective tariff, a western writer (not the Chicago Herald man) says that Mr. Curtis did not understand that the tariff plank in the democratic platform refers to the Confederate instead of the Federal constitution.

At the republican state convention in Grand Rapids last week, Judge Kinne's name was presented for the nomination of justice of the supreme court, receiving a support of which anyone may well feel proud. He entered the race long after the others had started; yet after many of his friends in other parts of the state had become committed, he received nearly a hundred votes. The second district stood by him solidly, and the Washtenaw delegation had the satisfaction of feeling that in A. J. Sawyer's speech he was presented before the convention the best of any one of the candidates.

The New York Times of Monday had an associated press dispatch to the effect that Judge Cooley, of this city, had declared for Cleveland, and that he was soon to write a letter advising his friends to vote for that gentleman. Judge Cooley promptly denied the truth of the story when asked about it Monday afternoon, and stated that he should write no letters for any candidate, or interfere with politics in any way. So much for another famous convert that hasn't been converted.

The address of retiring President Patton, of the republican league, at Grand Rapids, was a very able one, and showed that much valuable work has been done by that effective organization. Such broad and upright men as John Patton, Jr., are needed in political life, and it is refreshing to find them where there are too many self-seeking office-hunting politicians whom the spoils of office alone hold loyal. The league is fortunate in securing Senator Colgrove as its president to carry on the good work.

The Durham, N. C., Globe, a democratic paper which praised Cleveland for his anti-pension vetoes, which we quoted recently, is still alive, and speaks of the union veterans in this way: "We wish to God that there had been enough democrats in congress to have slapped the

Lousy Beggars
Of the north in their
Dirty faces.

This would have served them right. They received pay for their red-handed and wicked work—they should now subside."

The daily papers of Sept. 28, contain an account of a wonderful phenomenon. Those who saw it declare that a bright body, resembling a good-sized star, was seen moving with astonishing rapidity toward the moon and came in contact with that body with tremendous force, and seemed to burst like a bomb, darkening its light for an instant. The solution of the mystery must be that some clever artist has reflected the collision between Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Hill. As to which one has exploded and dimmed the light of the other the people will have to be the judge.

This is the free trade plank in the Chicago platform which Hill says Cleveland must not hedge on: "We denounce republican protection as a fraud, a robbery of the great majority of the American people for the benefit of a few. We declare it to be a fundamental principle of the democratic party that the federal government has no constitutional power to impose and collect tariff duties except for the purposes of revenue only, and we demand that the collection of such taxes shall be limited to the necessities of the government when honestly and economically administered." It reads just like a plank from the southern confederate constitution.

The democratic papers are re-publishing a very pathetic account of how Judge Morse lost his arm, together with a statement purporting to come from Capt. Belknap to the effect that he, Belknap, should vote for Morse who was at that time running for justice of the supreme court. If Belknap did vote for Morse he got handsomely paid for a little later on, when he was running for congress. Some one knowing that the two were comrades during the war went to Morse and asked him if he could not assist his old companion in arms by his vote. The reply came quick: "No sir! I would not vote for an old soldier on the republican ticket, even if he were my father!" A man who cares no more for his old comrades than that ought not to ask votes from them, had he?

There is no permanent place in the politics of American civilization for a party that bases its claims for confidence upon the failures and discouragements of the people. There is no honorable and permanent successful place for any party in America that appeals to the prejudice and the passion and the ignorance of the people, and bases its claims upon the failures of the people themselves. That has been the history of the democratic leaders for thirty years. Their arsenal and their armament has been the prediction of failure of republican measures and republican policies. Every republican measure and every republican policy for thirty years was predicted as a failure by the leaders of the democratic party. The war was to be a failure; the issue of greenbacks was to be a failure; the resumption of specie payment was to be a failure, and now the tariff law of 1890 is to be a failure. Their platform is a declaration of retrogression. They look backward instead of forward. They look into the night instead of into the morning.—Governor McKinley.

Diekema Makes a Friend.

From the Grand Rapids Herald.
A good story is told of the effect on one man of a political speech made by G. J. Diekema of Holland, at Brown City a few evenings ago. Mr. Diekema had closed a rousing republican speech when an old fellow rose in the back part of the hall and wished to ask some questions. Mr. Diekema gave his consent, and the querist fired at the speaker a lot of old-time greenback interrogations, which were quickly and neatly answered. The audience cheered each answer, and even the questioner seemed pleased. As he resumed his seat he said: "Young man, me an' you don't agree worth a cent on them'n points, but you're so d-d clever I'm going to vote for you anyway."

The Ypsilanti Sentinel had these allusions to the outcome of the recent representative convention in Saline: "Paul G. Suekey introduced Mr. Mill's name. If his candidate had need of any help in his speech, his canvass would not have been successful. Mr. Mills won in spite of Mr. Suekey's support, not because of it. John J. Robinson who made the speech nominating Osborne, was embarrassed by his apparent ill health. The strength of his argument was neutralized by his uncomplimentary allusions to the east end of the district. The name of Ypsilanti's candidate was introduced by John P. Kirk, whose address was the best of the day. Short, sharp and to the point, in an unpledged and unprejudiced convention, his words would have borne weight. But the nomination was secured before the convention met, and nothing could have prevented it. Superior, Pittsfield, Saline and Lodi were pledged for Mills, and formed a solid phalanx no argument could move."

As clear as mud. The following is a sentence from Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance, the length, thickness, mud-diness of expression, and incomprehensibility of which excels anything given to the American public in centuries:

These pretenses should no longer deceive. The truth is that such a system is directly antagonized by every sentiment of justice and fairness of which Americans are pre-eminently proud. It is also true that while our workingmen and farmers can, the least of all our people, defend themselves against the harder home life which such tariff taxation decrees, the workingman suffering from the importation and employment of pauper labor instigated by his professed friends, and seeking security for his interests in organized co-operation, still waits for a division of the advantages secured to his employer under cover of a generous solicitude for his wages, while the farmer is learning that the prices of his products are fixed in foreign markets, where he suffers from a competition invited and built up by a system he is asked to support.

From the Daily Times.

WITH A STEADY RUSH.

The Two Sams are Closing Out Their Ready-Made Clothing.

For the last week there has been a sight at one of the prominent business palaces of Ann Arbor that can usually be witnessed only in much larger cities than our own. In viewing the scene the writer was puzzled for a time to know if he was in the metropolis of the west or not, the surging mass that thronged the portals of this great trading emporium was wonderful to behold. It is hardly necessary to mention the firm's name to our readers as every merchant as well as citizen from the county and city stranger and student know at once that it was the popular Two Sams who were putting their very best efforts forward to supply the community with their wares.

Upon entering this great establishment we were informed that a change would soon take place that they were closing out their entire ready made stock of clothing at cost. This alone brought in thousands of people who made purchases without delay. There were not salesmen enough upon that day to tend to all parties, but we were assured that an additional force would be placed in the different departments at once. Our readers will soon see this store entirely remodeled and changed into one of the largest merchant tailoring establishments in the state. It is also contemplating adding a shoe department which, no doubt, will increase the volume of business. With their already popular and well established furnishing goods and hat trade which they will enlarge and continue, they will endeavor to place before the public the most exquisite line in the four departments, all under one roof.

The outlook for the success in their new lines is very encouraging and all their friends and customers are glad to late them upon their new departure. It is a well known fact in Ann Arbor, as well as in other cities where L. Blittz-The Two Sams—are known, that they are and have been leaders in their line. We overheard a remark from two very prominent Chicago merchants, and no doubt it's seconded by many others, that The Two Sams are ten years ahead of the times. This, of course, came about by these well known gentlemen casting an eye upon the class of garments now kept in this establishment. If this be so in the ready made and furnishings line now we can readily judge the character of their new departments. It is a well known fact with the public at large that whenever the Two Sams made an announcement it was worth looking into, now that there will be a change and they are closing out their fine overcoats and suits at perhaps the largest saving ever made to any purchaser in their line, we would be doing you an injustice not to ask you to call upon them during the next few weeks.

More Republican Prosperity.

Bradstreet's report for nine months of the year 1892 shows the following facts:

Number of failures, first nine months, 1891, 8,906; number of failures, first nine months, 1892, 7,378. Aggregate liabilities nine months last year, $138,871,000; aggregate liabilities nine months this year, $76,971,000.

This decrease of $61,900,000, or 43 per cent., in the amount of liabilities of insolvents is one evidence of republican prosperity, and was largely caused by republican protection and reciprocity.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Light-house.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Treseott are keepers of Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and are blessed with a daughter, four years old. Last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with a dreadful Cough and turning into a Fever. Doctors at home and at Detroit treated her, but in vain, she grew worse rapidly, until she was a mere "handful of bones." Then she tried Dr. King's New Discovery and after the use of two and a half bottles, was completely cured. They say Dr. King's New Discovery is worth its weight in gold. Mr. Cleveland rests uneasy-like in the free trade bed made for him at Chicago. But Mr. Hill compels him to lie there, nevertheless.

If a democrat attempts to be honest in New York they prosecute him for it, and try to send him to prison. Labor Commissioner Peck, for instance.

"Tammany's in Line," constitutes a big head line in many of our democratic papers just now. Perhaps that's so, but, where will the tiger be Nov. 8th?

The late John G. Whittier and George Wm. Curtis were each mobbed in the streets of Philadelphia by democrats for their political views, and James Russell Lowell, who has been praised for late years for his democratic aristocracy has had his writings forbidden in southern libraries for years.

At a meeting of the saloon keepers in Detroit yesterday, they resolved to vote together solidly. The only man decided against was Gerritt J. Diekema, the republican candidate for attorney general, whom they resolved to vote against, because "he is not in sympathy with the saloon interests."

A vote for the nominee of the late democratic National Convention will mean a vote for free trade. I consider the anti-protection "plank" in the democratic platform to be as false as anything that I have ever known to be asserted in a similar instrument.—GEORGE TICKNOR CURTIS, Eminent Constitutional lawyer and life-long democrat.

In the democratic senatorial convention, held at Manchester last week, there was a big fight among the Jackson county delegates between Col. M. W. Clark, who was nominated, and Rudolph Worch. There were 14 delegates who persistently refused to vote at all, and Clark only received 19 votes although there were 38 delegates. As usual, the German was "turned down."

"I am a democrat because I believe in the equality of all men before the law, equal rights to all and special privileges to none."—Allen B. Morse.

The belief is all right, but how about the practice of the democratic party? Go ask the alliance men in Alabama. Judge Morse may believe what he says, but his party in nearly one-half the states of the union neither believe nor practice it.

The statement is made that Judge Gresham will support Cleveland. We have often heard of the boy who would not play because he couldn't "boss" all his mates. The Judge is sore because he wanted the nomination for the presidency himself and the party did not consider him the best candidate. The republican party has made him what he is, given him a life position on the bench, and now he turns around and smites it. But Walter Q. does not carry the party or even a little end of it in his pocket.

It is the British Party.

The party of free trade is not the political organization to which Irish-Americans should attach themselves.—Albany Journal.

Strength and Health.

There were two accidents during the fair. The revolving swing broke down while filled with people, but fortunately hurt no one very much. The next day, Friday, one of the electric cars that had just arrived at the grounds and discharged its load of passengers, was crashed into by another heavily loaded car, and several people were somewhat bruised by the collision. It was most fortunate that none were killed, as it was quite a savage collision, sending the car that was standing at the end of the track clear across the street.

Course tickets are sold for $1.25, and single tickets for 10 cents. It is an attractive course.

The old falsehood of the New York World about the Ann Arbor Agricultural Co., of this city, have been brought up at Rockford, Ill., recently, and the Courier has answered inquiries both by telegraph and by letter. A lie set afloat is a hard thing to chase down it seems. And as usual the democrats are attempting to make capital out of false figures. They better apply to Peck, of New York, for a few statistics, if they want reliable figures.

The Two Sams cashed a certificate of deposit for $60 last Saturday for a man purporting to be George D. Smith, who had bought a suit of clothes, paying him the difference. The man had deposited $10 at the First National Bank, had changed the date of the certificate and raised it to $60. He is not here now. J. T. Jacobs & Co. have an overcoat awaiting his return, which he bought and attempted to pay for with the check, but the clerk wouldn't have it that way.

Hog cholera instead of the dreaded Asiatic kind has reached our city and vicinity. Inspector Clark has found two places where it is raging one at John Miller's in the first ward who has already lost two and fears he will lose four more. Charles Split just out of the city near the shooting park found 12 of his hogs dead Monday morning one Tuesday morning and two more dying. Strange to say three pigs in another pen right by the fatal one having eaten the same food are alive and well.

The Eberbach Hardware Co. had a glass globe filled with nails at their booth at the county fair, and took guesses on the number, the best guesser to be made a present of a $28 gasoline stove. There were two ladies of the 7,000 guessers who had been to guessing school, Miss Aggie Braun, of Lodi, and Miss Alice Walker, of Ann Arbor. The former guessed 15,003, the latter 15,001, while the jar contained 15,002 nails. The young ladies will probably divide the stove and each one take half.

The annual election of directors of the Motor line was held Monday evening, resulting in the re-election of H. P. Glover, J. E. Beal, Wm. Deuble, J. T. Jacobs, D. L. Quirk, C. E. Hiscock, and Dr. Watling. The board elected J. E. Beal, president and general manager; H. P. Glover, vice-president; J. T. Jacobs, secretary, and D. L. Quirk, treasurer. Many improvements in the road have been made during the year, and the company was fortunate in having no fatal accidents, owing to the care of the employees in running the trains.

A Pretty Surprise.

A beautifully-illustrated and charmingly-bound edition of

LONGFELLOW'S "EVANGELINE,"

The most popular long poem ever published by an American Author, and one of the most famous poems in the language, recently published, is a pretty surprise for book-lovers. It is in large type, numerous and excellent illustrations, very fine and heavy paper, gilt edges, remarkably handsome cloth binding, combining, in delicate colors, blue and white, and silver and gold. No illustrated edition has ever before been published at less than $1.50, and that is about what you might "guess" the price of this to be, but it isn't—witness our offer below. Every home in the land ought to have a copy of this Evangeline, so charmingly beautiful, as a poem, as a collection of artistic illustrations, and as a product of the book-making art.

OUR OFFER:

By special arrangement with the publisher we are now able to offer this book to the subscribers to this paper, as follows:

To each one of the readers of THE ANN ARBOR COURIER (new or old subscribers,) who will pay us one year's subscription ($1.00) in advance, after this date, we will give a copy of this excellent work of art. Or, if preferred, The New York Weekly Tribune and Ann Arbor Courier will be forwarded to your address if your subscription is paid at once to the above-mentioned date.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
ANN ARBOR, Oct. 3, 1892.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE MAYOR.

City of ANN ARBOR,
Mayor's Office, Oct. 3, 1892.

To the Honorable the Common Council:
GENTLEMEN—I have been requested by Professor W. S. Perry and the Reverend E. D. Kelly, representing respectively the public and St. Thomas parochial schools of Ann Arbor, to call your official attention to the approaching commemoration of the discovery of America. As you are probably well aware the 21st day of October has been designated by the President and by the Governor of this state, by executive proclamation, as a memorial day and in furtherance of its observance the schools have especially interested themselves to prepare such proper ceremonies as will testify the patriotic devotion of pupils and teachers to the land we love. If the City, as such, should deem it advisable to participate with the schools in any public demonstration, it is necessary that immediate steps be taken to formulate a program for the same, in order that the schools and the city may act in harmony. The time for action being now so very short, it would seem to me that the utmost our citizens can do will be to attend the school exercises and thus evidence their interest, to parade their civic and military organizations if practicable and generally to display their flags and banners in honor of the day.

Should no other plan suggest itself to your honorable body, I would respectfully recommend the above observance to the citizens. In the meantime I take this opportunity to thank both Prof. Perry and the Rev. E. Kelly and their pupils for their patriotic efforts and to assure them of our high appreciation of the same.

WILLIAM G. DOTY,
Mayor.

Accepted and placed on file:

A petition signed by John G. Schairer and sixty others, residents and property holders in the vicinity of the establishments burning soft coal near the tracks of the T. A. & N. M. R. R. Co., and between Huron and Liberty streets in the city of Ann Arbor, that by reason of the smoke arising from such establishments the property of your petitioners is injured.

Ald. Herz moved that the petition be accepted and referred to a special committee of five members, to be appointed by the chair.

Adopted.

The president appointed the following committee: Alds. Wines, Martin, Herz, Schairer, and City Attorney Norris.

A petition signed by Matilda B. Caldwell, and property holders on Church street, asking that sidewalks be ordered built on the west side of church street from South University avenue to Willard street.

Accepted and referred to the committee on sidewalks.

A petition signed by W. B. Smith and four others, residents and property holders on E. Washington street, asking that sidewalks be ordered built on the south side of E. Washington street, from Twelfth street to Grant street.

Accepted and referred to the committee on sidewalks.

Respectfully submitted.

WALTER L. TAYLOR,
WILLIAM HERZ,
Finance Com.

Ald. Kitson moved that the report be accepted and adopted, and warrants ordered drawn for the sums stated therein.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Alds. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Herz, Snow, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor, Kitson and Pres. Cooley.—10.

Chairman Taylor stated that the bills of Dr. John Kapp as health officer, and Martin Clark as inspector, had not been allowed by the finance committee, and submitted the same to the council.

Ald. Rehberg moved that Dr. Kapp be allowed the floor.

Adopted.

Ald. Taylor moved that the bills of health officer be not allowed, and that the bill of Inspector Clark be referred to the finance committee.

Ald. Martin moved to amend by referring also the bill of the health officer.

Ald. O'Mara moved to amend the amendment that the bill of Inspector Clark be allowed and warrant drawn.

Which amendment to the amendment prevailed by a ye and nay vote as follows:

Yeas—Ald. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Herz, Snow, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor, Kitson, Pres. Cooley.—10.

Nays—None.

Whereupon the amendment as amended was lost.

Whereupon Ald. Wines moved as a substitute for all motions on the question, that the bills of health officer and Inspector Clark as claimed, be allowed, and warrants drawn for the same.

Which substitute prevailed by a ye and nay vote as follows:

Yeas—Alds. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Herz, Snow, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor, Kitson, Pres. Cooley.—9.

Nays—Ald. Taylor.—1.

ORDINANCE.

The third reading, by sections, of an ordinance relative to nuisances and to regulate the confinement of swine within the city limits.

On motion of Ald. Wines the following amendment was made thereto: Section one, line two, after the word September, insert "October."

Adopted.

After which the chair having stated the question to be "Shall this ordinance pass as amended?" Therefore the yeas and nays being called, the ordinance, as amended, passed as follows:

Yeas—Alds. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Herz, Snow, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor, Kitson, Pres. Cooley.—10.

Nays—None.

The third reading by section of an ordinance relative to the use of sidewalks, and to amend section three of an ordinance entitled an ordinance relative to the use of streets, alleys, and public places.

Ald. Martin moved that the ordinance be laid on the table.

Adopted.

The third reading by sections of an ordinance relative to Nuisances and to Prevent the Burning of Refuse Matter after 12 o'clock, noon, within the city limits.

On motion of Ald. Wines the title was amended to read, "An Ordinance relative to nuisances and to prohibit the burning of refuse matter during certain hours within the city limits."

Ald. Wines moved that the ordinance be amended so as to read as follows:

The Common Council of the city of Ann Arbor, Ordains, Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to set fire to or burn leaves, rubbish or other refuse matter in any street, yard, vacant lot or other open space or place within the city limits, after the hour of twelve o'clock noon of any day or before the hour of six o'clock in the forenoon.

Section 2. Any person violating the provision of section one of this ordinance shall on conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars and costs, or by imprisonment in the common jail of the County of Washtenaw for a period of not more than ten days or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force after ten days from legal publication.

Which amendment prevailed, after which the chair having stated the question, shall this ordinance pass, thereupon the yeas and nays being called the ordinance as amended prevailed as follows:

Yeas—Alds. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Herz, Snow, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor, Kitson, Pres. Cooley.—10.

Nays—None.

STREET.

Ald. Martin of the street committee stated that the plat of the Lawrence addition submitted by the board of public works had been submitted to the street committee, and in all things approved.

On motion the plat was accepted and approved and the clerk ordered to record the deed of the streets.

Ald. Wines moved that when we adjourn we adjourn to meet Monday, Oct. 10th.

Adopted.

Ald. Wines moved that the regular order of business be passed and the Mayor's message taken up.

Adopted.

On motion the Council adjourned.

W. J. MILLER,
City Clerk.

COUNCIL CHAMBER,
Ann Arbor, Sept. 26th, 1892.

Special session.

The Council was called to order by the President, the Hon. Mortimer E. Cooley.

Roll called. Quorum present.

Absent—Ald. Herz, Ferguson, O'Mara, Rehberg, Taylor.—5.

The call of special meeting having been read by the Clerk, the following business was transacted:

Ald. Wines, leave having been granted, introduced an ordinance to amend section four of an ordinance entitled an ordinance relative to the "Licensing of Vehicles," which was read the first time by its title and referred to the Committee on Ordinance.

Ald. Wines moved that the rules be suspended and the said ordinance be given its second and third reading by sections.

Ald. Martin moved to amend that the rules be suspended and the said ordinance be given its second reading by sections. Which amendment prevailed and the original motion as amended prevailed.

The second reading by sections of an ordinance to amend section four of an ordinance entitled an ordinance relative to the "Licensing of Vehicles."

Ald. Wines moved that the rules be suspended and said ordinance be given its third reading. Which motion prevailed.

The third reading by sections of an ordinance to amend section four of an ordinance entitled an ordinance relative to the "Licensing of Vehicles."

Ald. Wines moved to amend that all such baggage to be delivered to any part of any building in the city.

Adopted as follows:

Yeas—Ald. Wines, Schairer, Kitson, Prettyman, Pres. Cooley.—5.

Nays—Ald. Martin, Fillmore, Snow.—3.

Ald. Snow moved to adjourn, which motion was lost.

After which, the president having stated the question to be, "Shall this Ordinance Pass?"

Therefore, the yeas and nays being called, the ordinance did not pass, as follows:

Yeas—None.

Nays—Ald. Wines, Schairer, Martin, Fillmore, Snow, Kitson, Prettyman, Pres. Cooley.—8.

On motion the Council adjourned.

W. J. MILLER, Clerk.

The Word "Sozodont."

Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and composed of two words, Sozo and Odontes, "SOZO" translated means to preserve, and "Odontes" the teeth—"SOZODONT" a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it. It is as harmless as water. Sold by druggists and perfumers.

Daughter—Yes, papa. He goes at 10:30 every night that he comes to see me.

Father—Humph! I mean has he any spirit in him?

Daughter—I don't think he has. He is strictly temperate.

Father—I mean has he any force, any gall?

Daughter—Gall? No; he's all honey when he comes to see me.

Father—I guess you don't catch me, Jennie.

Daughter—Never mind, pa, dear, I've caught him.

SOUTHERN FRANKNESS.

Some Sample Sayings by People Who Speak for the Democrats.

I am for the brave Buffalo man who slapped the dirty pensioners, who are for the most part beggars, in the face. They were dirty and lousy rascals who came into this country, and who abused women, who burned homes, who stole all that was in sight, and today, without an honorable scar, are bleeding this country, and I am helping to pay for it. Let the hired Yankees howl! I am of the south and for the south. The pension fraud is a theft, and we repeat that no man can honestly defend it. The south has been taxed to death to pay this Grand Army of rascals—those bottle-scarred bums who reach in the empty palm—and when Cleveland struck the beggars in the face he did a good business job. We hope to God that he may have a chance to hit 'em again. Vagrants and mendicants should be both vigorously slapped and kicked.—Durham (N. C.) Globe.

Cleveland vetoed over 250 pension bills and allowed a large number to die by what is known as the "pocket veto." Because of this work Cleveland was defeated four years ago, when he should have been re-elected.—Raleigh News Observer.

This drain of $40,000,000 is exhausting the energies of the south, and, in connection with the tariff taxes, has reduced the southern farmer to a condition of actual want. The continuation of Benjamin Harrison in the presidential chair opens the way for a still further looting of the treasury. A service pension bill will be passed before long unless the people drive off the looters.—Memphis Appeal (Dem.)

The Bird That Thrives on Calamity.

The resolution of the convention in favor of bimetalism declares, I think, the true and necessary conditions of a movement that has, upon these lines, my cordial adherence and support. I am thoroughly convinced that the free coinage of silver at such a ratio to gold as will maintain the equality in their commercial uses of the two coined dollars would conduce to the prosperity of all the great producing and commercial nations.—Harrison's Letter of Acceptance.

Another "Congratulation" on Maine.

Chairman Manley, of the Maine Republicans, evidently believes in the old adage that "he laughs best who laughs last." Anyway, he is now having his "laugh." Chairman Harrity, of the Democratic committee, sent out a congratulatory address to the Democrats on the result of the Maine election without waiting for full returns. Now that the votes are all counted Mr. Manley has his turn. He says:

"The Republican state committee desire to congratulate the Republicans of Maine upon the full and complete victory achieved on Monday last. The Democratic party, with the best organization it has had for years, failed to poll as many votes by 6,000 as it gave to its candidate for governor in 1890, and did not cast as many votes as it gave its candidate for governor in 1884, in 1880 or in 1876. Complete returns show that the Republicans have elected Henry B. Cleaves governor by 12,300 majority over the Democratic candidate; have returned to congress Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Hon. Nelson Dingley, Hon. Charles A. Boutelle and Hon. Seth L. Milliken by large majorities; have elected thirty out of thirty-one senators, 110 out of 150 representatives to the legislature, and have elected a majority of county officers in every county in the state."

It was the Republican party, under the aggressive, progressive, wise and benign policy of a generous tariff upon foreign importations for the protection of home labor primarily and the raising of revenue necessarily, that abolished slave labor and emancipated the American wage earner, of whatever color or condition, from the drudgery of pauper wages.

Effect of Reciprocity with Brazil.

On the 30th of June the reciprocity agreement with Brazil had been in existence fifteen months, and the statistics show that the imports from that country into the United States increased $56,836,205, and the exports from the United States to that country $1,704,483. The total exports to Brazil during that period amounted to $18,044,452, being an increase of 10.84 per cent. as compared with the fifteen months ended March 31, 1890. The items of exports were as follows: Breadstuffs (almost entirely flour), $6,828,704; cotton manufactures, $863,777; chemicals, drugs, dyes and medicines, $1,068,799; iron and steel and manufactures of, $3,199,650; illuminating mineral oils, $1,456,981; provisions (mainly bacon, hams and lard), $1,549,912; lumber, $1,016,288; all other articles, $3,560,701.

It is Peck, the Democratic official—Peck, the Cleveland appointee—who reports a net increase in wages for 1891 over 1890 of nearly $6,978,000. It is Peck, the Democratic official—Peck, the Cleveland appointee—who reports a net increase in production for 1891 over 1890 in sixty-eight industries, employing 285,000 persons, of $81,815,180.—New York Tribune.

It was highly creditable to Mr. Harrison that he resented the unlawful discrimination against Americans on the Welland canal.—New York Sun.

FARMERS' DISCOVERY

THEY LOOK UPON THE PEOPLE'S PARTY AS ASSISTANT DEMOCRATS.

Unwilling to Vote with the Third Party When Such a Vote Will Help Put Cleveland in the White House—Bitter Recollections of Sparks' War on Homesteaders

(Special Correspondence.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—The assistant Democratic party, called by courtesy the People's party, is finding its efforts to capture Republican votes in the west and northwest far from a success. Word comes from all the western states where the Democrats are attempting to hoodwink the Republican voters by getting them to vote for the third party ticket, that the effort is proving unsuccessful. Those who have heretofore been Republicans are beginning to see that the Democrats are merely making a cat's-paw of them by secretly pushing the third party movement among them. They find, not only that every Alliance man in congress was an assistant Democrat, but that a vote for Alliance candidates means a vote to put Grover Cleveland in the White House and the Democrats in control of the house and senate. The Third Party Merely a Democratic Assistant.

They are seeing that the third party cannot expect to accomplish anything more in the election than to weaken the Republicans and strengthen the Democrats. They see that if the third party carries any of the western states for its electoral ticket it will merely take that many votes away from the Republican candidate and not improve the situation in the slightest degree. They are beginning to realize that by casting their votes for third party electors they will help put into the White House a man much more hostile to silver coinage than is Mr. Harrison; a man much more hostile to the old soldiers who saved the country a quarter of a century ago; a man more hostile to reciprocity, which has opened new markets for our farm products to the extent of many millions during the past year; a man absolutely hostile to the protective system under which the wonderful prosperity of the past two years has been brought about; a man and a party pledged to the re-establishment of a wildcat currency under which the farmers suffered losses amounting to millions of dollars, and a man under whose former administration and by whose consent thousands upon thousands of honest homesteaders were branded as dishonest and their homes taken from them by unjust and arbitrary methods.

Farmers "Getting Onto" the Democratic Scheme.

All this the Democrats are scheming to bring about through the operations of the assistant Democrats—the People's party. And the farmers of the north-west are beginning to get thoroughly "onto" this feature of the situation. They are thoroughly understanding the game which the Democrats are attempting to play. They see clearly that there is no ghost of a show for the election of the candidate of the People's party, and that by voting for their electors they are simply reducing the chances of Republican success, and thereby increasing the prospect of a return to power of the man whose administration at a single blow attacked the title to over 40,000 homes and went out of office leaving literally hundreds of thousands of honest homesteaders unable to complete the title to the homes they had been struggling for years to make their own.

Bitter Recollections of the Cleveland Administration.

They are contrasting the experience during the past three years with those of the four years under the Cleveland administration. They remember with bitterness how Mr. Cleveland's administration of the land office by arbitrary and outrageously unjust methods destroyed the titles to thousands of homes which had been fairly and honestly earned by homesteaders. They remember that Commissioner Sparks in a single order suspended all entries of public lands in Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Dakota, Idaho, Utah, Washington, New Mexico, Montana, Wyoming, Nevada and Minnesota, throwing them all into the "fraud division," even where they had already been "proved up" for patents before the officers of the land office. This single order affected more than 40,000 homes, and during the entire period of the Cleveland administration titles for homesteads and pre-emption titles were doled out at the rate of only 2,000 or 3,000 a month, while under the present administration they have been issued at the rate of over 10,000 per month.

They Don't Want Their Homes Again Endangered.

These people, who remember the anxiety and sufferings of those long years when the titles to their homes were being unjustly attacked and rendered valueless for at least present use, are not willing to return to that condition of affairs. And they are recognizing the fact that a vote with the People's party is merely an indirect vote to put Grover Cleveland again in the White House and his methods of obstruction again in control of thousands—yes, hundreds of thousands—of homes. And they are not willing to do it.

Assistant Democrats Always.

They have been studying the record of the representatives of the assistant Democratic party—the People's party in congress—and find that they have in every instance co-operated with the Democrats, and that by electing People's party congressmen or electors they are simply strengthening the hands of the Democracy and paving the way to another attack upon the titles to hundreds of thousands of homes through the north-west.

During the eleven years the Republicans have had a majority in the house of representatives they reduced taxation $360,000,000, and during the eleven years the Democrats have had the house they only reduced taxation about $6,000,000.

Drivers who are always behind.—Hansom cabbies.

FREE TRADE FACTS.

One Day's Experience in the Life of a South Bend Carpenter.

The late Daniel Custer will be remembered by older residents of South Bend as a first class carpenter and a good Democrat. He lived on the northeast corner of Main and South streets, and some of his children yet live in this county. No carpenter in South Bend got better wages than he commanded. May 8, 1858 (which please remember was in those good old Democratic free trade times before the war), Mr. Custer did a day's carpenter work for the late Hon. John Brownfield and was credited on the books of the Brownfield store $1.50. He was charged with the following items:

9 yards calico, 12¢..... $1.08
9 yards lawn, 12¢..... 1.08
8 pounds coffee sugar, 12¢..... 96
12 pounds 8d. nails, 7c..... 84

Total.....$4.10

Deducting Mr. Custer's credit for his day's work this transaction left him in debt $2.60. If the foregoing transaction had taken place May 18, 1892, under Republican protection, it would have been vastly in Mr. Custer's favor. He would have received $3 for his day's work instead of $1.50, and his same purchases would have cost him $1.52 instead of $4.10. Instead of going in debt $2.60 he would have had $4.08 to his credit, equal to two and two-thirds days' free trade wages.—South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

INTERESTING TO FARMERS.

One Year's Work Under the McKinley Tariff.

The importations of farm products in a natural or manufactured condition fell off over $50,000,000 in value during the first full year of the McKinley law. Here are some of the figures:

	Imports in 1891.	Imports in 1892.	Reduction in 1892.

"Hell Grummetts" is the kind of bait Mr. Cleveland is reported as finding most effective for fishing at Buzzard's Bay. His friends in the west are using the People's party as their Hell Grummetts, and hope to catch enough Republican votes with it to deprive the grand old party of the electoral votes of certain states which have always been Republican. Hence a vote with the People's party merely means a vote to aid the Democrats.

The Farmers Are Satisfied.

The McKinley bill increased the tariff on the farm products, oats 15 cents per bushel, barley 30 cents, wheat 25 cents, wool 11 to 13 cents per pound. Everything that the farmer raises is now protected. As a consequence farmers of Manitoba are thrown out of the American market and the prices of those articles in Manitoba are very much reduced; oats selling for 14 cents per bushel, barley 15 cents, wheat 30 and 34 cents, wool 11 cents, and everything correspondingly low and without purchasers. In the meantime the farmers of the United States are doing a much larger business, are getting good prices, paying off the mortgages on their farms and listening to the calamity howlers who say "tariff is a tax" and if you do not buy you cannot sell, and trying to convince the "poor farmer" that he is taxed to death. They know that the cost of plows and other agricultural machinery is less than ever before. They further know that the price of wheat was not below $1 for many years until during Mr. Cleveland's term of office, and that the first year of General Harrison's term it again arose to $1.

It was and is always will be the policy of the Republican party to protect the American wage earner as against the foreign manufacturer by a generous tariff on imports. It was and is and always will be the policy of the Democratic party to reduce the rates of wages by enforcing the heresy of free trade for the protection of the foreign manufacturer and the pauperizing of the American wage earner.

Cornell on the Tariff Issue.

"The tariff issue has lost none of its effectiveness," said ex-Governor Cornell. "On the contrary, it has been emphasized by the action of the Chicago convention. We can hold on that issue every vote we had four years ago, and get some new ones too. The establishment of such new industries as the Lister silk plush factory at Jamestown, N. Y., is an object lesson in protection far more effective than reading or talking."

The plush mills of free trade England are closing down and those of protected America are opening up. The English manufacturers say it is due to the McKinley law.

Painful, but True.

It is admitted by the Democrats that the appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-second congress in the lower house, of which they have a majority of 151, amount to $507,711,131.64, which is more than $44,000,000 greater than the appropriations of the first session of the Fifty-first congress.—New York Advertiser.

Makes a long story short.—The blue pencil.

ROSES AND POLITICS.

A PEEP INTO THE WOMEN'S REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS.

The Work Being Done—Good Speakers, Good Literature and Good Sentiments for the Masses—Woman in Politics Seems a Success Already.

A sunny room with a big bay window from which one looks out over towers and spires; the pink roses on the walls half hidden by gracefully draped flags and stitken banners displaying the faces of the Republican candidates for president and vice president; palms and violets before cabinet photographs of Dudley and Allison; a crucifix twined with the stars and stripes; a worn Bible and a tin plate card receiver on the desk littered with pamphlets, letters and newspaper clippings. Such is the extraordinary jumble of religious and political features at the headquarters of the Woman's Republican Association of the United States.

Ribbons and Roses in Politics.

Ribbons and roses in politics at last! Here we have them. Ribbons tied in the dainty rattan chairs and fluttering in roseate knots on the soft, white gown of Mrs. J. Ellen Foster, president of the association. Roses on the walls, on the tables and mantel and on the breast of this gentle woman, whose face glows with the zeal of the Puritan and from whose honest gray eyes looks the spirit of Bunker Hill.

For Mrs. Foster is both a zealot and a fighter. She is of the stuff of which martyrs are made, combined with a goodly proportion of the old Adam.

"College Boys and Women."

It pleases the Democratic newspapers these days to refer contemptuously to the re-enforcements of "college boys and women," which Republicans are welcoming to their ranks. Well, college boys have votes, and women can make ballots if they can't wield them.

What is the Woman's Republican Association doing?

Talking, writing, agitating and publishing pamphlets containing good, sound Republican doctrines; trying to unite the social and educational influence of the Republican women and to enlighten "the shopping women on the McKinley bill," for the latter have been repeatedly informed by the Democratic press that Mr. McKinley is not only responsible for the awful devastation of pearl buttons and tin plates, but for the riot, strikes, bloodshed, the battle, murder and sudden death in this country, as well as the price of butter.

Mrs. Foster's Literary Bureau.

Mrs. Foster, who is an eloquent and convincing speaker, will spend New York for Harrison and Reid. At the present moment she is attending to the publication and dissemination of a series of political pamphlets. The first has already been issued, and is called "Objects and Methods." The next will be "The American Renaissance." Then will follow "The Immigration Question," "Republican Contentions and Supreme Court Decisions," written by Mrs. Foster, whose legal training eminently fits her to establish the fact that every essential principle contended for by the Republican party has been finally sustained by the supreme judiciary.

A Woman on "Finance."

Another interesting pamphlet, "Our Finances," is written by a woman—Mrs. Margaret S. Burke, of Washington, a specialist in politics and finance. This lady is more intimately acquainted with financial questions, and especially the practical side of the tariff question, than any other woman in the country. She is as familiar with the vaults of the treasury department as an employee. Her paper will be a complete refutation of the fallacies of the People's party theories. Mrs. Burke is the author of a book now being published in chapters in the Chicago Inter Ocean entitled "The Story of Hercules," being a history of the financial policy of the Republican party.

Scenes at Women's Republican Headquarters.

Whereas at the national Republican headquarters there is much confusion and masculine hubbub, at the women's headquarters business is conducted with gentle deliberation and a mild feminine flutter. Mrs. Foster's aids are pretty, refined, educated women. No one seems unsexed; no one has as yet acquired the brazen exterior popularly supposed to accompany an interest in politics. During the three hours I spent at headquarters I did not see one woman who by the mildest stretch of imagination would answer the description of a feminine "wire puller" or "ward heeler" or shrieking sister even.

There was a graceful, yellow haired girl in a biscuit colored tailor frock, Miss Romeyn Shaw, of Banghamton, who will travel with Mrs. Foster; there was Mrs. Flora Ovington, of Iowa, with wonderful soft little white curls framing a face of great spirituality and sweetness, and there was Mrs. E. E. Howard, of Boston, a handsome woman with snowy hair and sad, serious, dark eyes, who wears the silver cross upon the bosom of her stern black gown.

The rooms are constantly filled with an ever changing crowd of interested women seeking information and tracts. Of course Mrs. Foster is the most prominent figure. She is a fascinating conversationalist and speaks with enthusiasm of the coming campaign.

EDITH SESSIONS TUPPER.

Congress Commended the President.

What the president wanted from congress and what he got was a cordial acknowledgment of the justice of his position that the discrimination against Americans on the Welland canal was a violation of our treaty rights, an acknowledgment which involved approval of the use of all legitimate means of reprisal at the command of the executive.—New York Sun.

A vote with the "People's party" is a vote to put Democrats in control of house, senate and presidency. The Democratic leaders are hoping to catch Republican voters with that kind of bait.

DEMOCRATIC "HARMONY."

General Sickles on the Management of the Democratic Campaign.

General Sickles is still sarcastic and evidently still not "placated." Somebody asked him in New York the other day if he was going on the stump. He replied sarcastically: "Why should I belong to the Hill crowd and the Hill crowd don't amount to anything. That was the theory on which Cleveland was nominated. Why should we Hill men worry about the election?"

"Cleveland is all right, of course, without New York. He doesn't need New York. Mr. Vilas is going to carry Wisconsin, Mr. Dickinson is going to carry Michigan, Mr. Harrity is going to carry Pennsylvania, and Mr. Russell is going to carry Massachusetts. There is no necessity for New York, with all these states going for Cleveland, and, of course, the Hill men are not necessary to his success. This being so, why should I or any of Mr. Hill's friends get excited over the election? They said we amounted to nothing at Chicago. Why should we amount to any more now?"

"How many of the soldier boys who were in the parade do you think will vote for Cleveland?" the general was asked.

"Very few," answered the commander of the old Third corps, with a shake of his head, "very few."

PALMER'S PRAYER.

The Grand Army's Sympathy with President Harrison.

On learning that President Harrison would be unable to attend the G. A. R. encampment at Washington, owing to the serious illness of Mrs. Harrison, Commander-in-chief Palmer issued the following:

The painful circumstance which prevents the president from attending the great reunion of the veterans in Washington is deeply regretted by all his comrades in arms, regardless of party. He was a participant in the grand review of the arms in 1865, and has taken a deep interest in the coming encampment, and it was expected that he would not only participate in the march, which promises to be the great culmination of the great gatherings of the Union veterans, but in all the festivities of the week. The critical illness of his beloved wife has compelled him to remain by her bedside. Speaking out of the depth of my heart, and voicing the feelings of all his comrades, we pray that He who ruleth armies and nations give our president strength and fortitude to bear his great affliction, and that the partner of his life may be restored to health.

The Northwestern Rainbow.

The Democratic party, if intrusted with the control of the government, is now pledged, to repeal the tax on state bank issues, with a view to putting into circulation again, under such diverse legislation as the states may adopt, a flood of local bank issues. Only those who in the years before the war experienced the inconvenience and losses attendant upon the use of such money can appreciate what a return to that system involves.—Harrison's Letter of Acceptance.

Always at Par.

When a national bank closes its doors the notes bearing its name are just as valuable as those bearing the name of the best institution in the country. This is the result of the admirable Republican system of national banking, and this is the system which the Chicago convention demanded to have overthrown. The crazy declaration of that body in favor of a return to the abominable system of banking in vogue before the war, is an insult to the intelligence of the people and a menace to the finances of the country. Every vote with the Democrats or with the People's party means a return to the wretched system of state bank currency which caused millions of dollars losses to farmers and others before the present splendid system of safe and reliable currency was devised.

More Manufacturers Advance Wages.

The report of Commissioner Peck as to increased wages in New York under the McKinley law is sustained by the report of the labor commissioner of Massachusetts, whose report shows an increase of wages in over 69 per cent of the 4,500 manufacturing establishments reported upon.

FACULTY CHANGES.

Many New Men Added in all Departments.

A great many changes necessarily occur on the faculty each year, but the University is very fortunate this year in the very small number of professors to take their leave. Among the new men to assume professorships and the position of tutors in the various departments are many who have already won distinction in their chosen line of work.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

For years this department has been able to boast of a corps of instructors second in efficiency to that of no university in this country. Not a single one of the permanent rank of professors or assistant professor is missing from the list, while many well known names have been added to it.

During the past year numerous attempts have been made by various colleges to draw away some of our most prominent professors. Tempting monetary inducements have been offered to many of them, to leave the U. of M., by many universities of high standing, all over the country, notably Johns Hopkins, Cornell, and the new universities of Chicago and Palo Alto. None of these offers have been accepted.

The changes in the literary department are as follows: Asaph Hall, jr., of the National Observatory at Washington, has been appointed Professor of Astronomy and Director of the Observatory, filling the vacancy left by Prof. Harrington, when appointed head of the United States Weather Bureau a year ago.

The chair of Paleontology, which, since the death of Prof. Alexander Winchell, has been temporarily filled by Mr. Scherzer, will be held by Israel C. Russell, of the United States Geological Survey.

Assistant Professor John C. Rolfe has been appointed acting Professor of Latin, to fill the place of Professor Kelsey, granted leave of absence for one year, to pursue archaeological investigations at Rome.

D. E. Spencer, of Wisconsin University, is appointed acting assistant Professor of History, and will have charge of the work of Prof. Hudson, who also has been granted a year's leave of absence for study in Europe.

Assistant Professor Joseph Drake, who has been abroad for the past two years will resume his work in Latin this year. Among the most marked changes effected, is the revision and enlargement of the department of Political Economy, by Prof. Adams. In view of the increased work three new names have been added to this department. Fred M. Taylor, Professor of History at Albion College, has been appointed assistant Professor of Political Economy. It will be remembered that he took the place of Prof. Adams two years ago. Mr. Cooley and Mr. Dixon have been appointed instructors in Political Economy.

Mr. DeCou has been made instructor in Greek and Sanskrit.

In the French department two new instructors have been appointed, B. P. Bourland and J. R. Effinger, while all the old instructors have been retained. Lawrence LeGouth has been appointed instructor in German to take the place of B. F. Voss. Ernst Mensel, has been appointed instructor in German, in place of Mr. Zwieter. G. H. Rowe and J. O. Reed have been made instructors in Physics.

LAW DEPARTMENT.

But few changes will be made in the law faculty this year. The most important change is the resignation of Prof. Abbott, sometime Tappan professor of law. Prof. Abbott goes to Northwestern University. His place has not yet been supplied. The quiz masters have not yet been appointed.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

The changes in the medical faculty have been few and far between, but of a very important order. The department sustained a severe loss in the resignation of Prof. Howell from the chair of Physiology, in order to accept a similar, but more lucrative position in Harvard University. Those in authority found before them a problem difficult of solution. To suitably fill the place occupied heretofore by one of the most noted physiologists of the country and the day, to replace a man of untiring labor and great ingenuity in original investigation and experiment, one of large contribution to the important literature of the day, a man of exceptional ability as a lecturer, was more than an ordinary task. That Dr. Howell will have a worthy successor is very apparent to those in a position to judge. Dr. Lombard, late professor of Physiology at Clark University, will hereafter preside over the chair of Physiology in the University of Michigan. He is a man of large experience and of marked ability in this special field. He has a reputation as an original investigator and as a contributor to the literature of this department.

Dr. Huber, who has been abroad for the past sixteen months, pursuing special work in histology and physiology in the leading schools of the continent, has returned to accept the position of assistant professor of physiology. He will assume entire charge of the course in histology.

A portion of the old Homeopathic hospital has been secured for new surgical and pathological laboratories. The quarters formerly occupied by Dr. Gibbs in the medical building, will now be entirely devoted to the work in histology, and as a result the physiological laboratory will be greatly increased in size and convenience.

Dr. Abel will not return from abroad till the latter part of the month; meanwhile Mr. Muirhead will assume charge of the work in Materia Medica. Dr. Ford will again be found in the chair which he has so long and honorably filled.

Miss Bigelow, of the junior class, has been appointed assistant demonstrator of anatomy.

The present freshman class is one of the most unique and characteristic in the history of the medical department. Out of seventy-six credentials examined, five were graduates of universities, twenty-five of colleges, thirty-two of approved high schools, and the rest of college standing. One very marked improvement has been made in the work of the junior class. Five new laboratory courses in practical clinical medicine are offered, and they present advantages such as are not secured in any other college in the land.

DENTAL DEPARTMENT.

In the dental department A. W. Haidle, of the class of '92, has been appointed assistant in mechanical dentistry. The junior laboratory has been refitted and a course in continuous gum work has been added to the curriculum.—U. of M. Daily.

Pensions and Claims.

A gentleman representing Milo B. Stevens & Co., pension attorneys, can be seen at the Occidental, Ypsilanti, Monday, Oct. 3rd, day and evening; and at the Franklin House, Ann Arbor, Tuesday, Oct. 4th, day and evening, by persons desiring information concerning pensions, bounties, etc., or having claims which they desire to have prosecuted by said attorneys.

In Memoriam.

WHEREAS, Arbor Tent No. 296, E. O. T. M., is called upon to mourn the death of one of our beloved brothers, Sir Knight George Washington Allmendinger, who departed this life on the evening of Wednesday, September 14, 1892; and

WHEREAS, His gentle and unassuming manner, his purity of thought and unselfish devotion to the paternal interests of his companion Sir Knights, having been even willing to do all in his power as a Maccabee to embrace the general welfare of the order whenever an opportunity afforded or occasion arose, endeared him to all who knew him, and more especially to us; therefore be it

Resolved, that we the members of Arbor Tent unite in expressing our sincere sorrow at the grievous loss of this true and faithful brother, who was an agreeable companion, and a loving husband and father;

Resolved, that we mourn his loss as few can outside the family circle to whom he was so justly dear, and desire to express to those who will constantly view his vacant chair in the home which he loved and adorned the tenderest condolence of every member of this tent, and be it further

Resolved, that our charter be draped in mourning for thirty days, and that a copy of this humble, but sincere tribute to his memory, be engrossed and sent to the family of the deceased, and that the same be preserved in the archives of this tent and spread upon its records and also sent for publication to the city papers and the Michigan Maccabee.

The Plymouth fair last week was a big success.
Wm. Heller died at his home in Saline, Sept. 26, aged 66 years.

The Saline base ball club brags about beating the Dixboro club 13 to 12.

At Chelsea arrangements for the celebration of Columbus Day are nearly complete.

There is to be a W. C. T. U. convention at Manchester on the 6th and 7th of October.

Mrs. Pearson, of Stony Creek, was quite seriously injured recently by falling down stairs.

Perry F. Trowbridge has been appointed instructor in the Normal in Prof. Putnam's department.

H. L. Cope is president and Harry Kies is secretary of a newly organized athletic club at Manchester.

A new 800-pound-bell was placed in the tower of the Lutheran church here this week.—Chelsea Standard.

The Follett house at Ypsilanti has been rented by New York parties and will be opened again in a few weeks.

The evergreen trees in the high school yard at Ypsilanti have been cut down, making the school rooms much lighter.

The village council of Stockbridge tax pool tables $100 per year and require them to quit business at 8 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. Polly Tallman has removed from Colorado to Chelsea, recently. There are some pretty tall boys up at Chelsea, too.

Supervisor Burtless, of Manchester, once had a gold watch, but it is now lost, strayed or stolen, he don't know which.

It is said that the Stockbridge girls are so modest that they won't walk across a potato field because the potatoes have eyes.—Plymouth Mail.

We think it quite impossible for any stranger to come into our pleasant village without being quite favorably impressed with the enterprise of its inhabitants from the neat and tidy appearance of so many of its newly painted buildings, newly repaired walks and the good condition of its streets and thoroughfares.—Chelsea Herald.

Supt. Whitney, of Ypsilanti, has given notice that all smoking, dice shaking and gambling "on or off the school grounds, before or after school," by the pupils must be stopped, and the Commercial says that the order ought to be rigidly enforced.

In driving into Saline last Friday the first thing that attracted our attention was their beautiful school building, from the top of which waved proudly in the morning breeze, that flag of all flags, the glorious stripes and stars. Long may it wave!—Enterprise.

Chas. Chamberlain of Webster left on Monday morning for New York City where he will continue his studies in art. Excellent results may be expected from the cultivation of the unusual ability in that line which Charles possesses. He began his work in an art school in Detroit last year.—Dexter News.

The three little children of Mr. Ed. Hawkins, of Superior township, were playing on the porch of the house when a rattlesnake made his appearance among them and struck the baby, of 15 months, on the middle finger. The child was taken to Dr. Lemen, of this city, and treated, and is now pronounced out of danger.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

The G. A. R. company returned this week laden with relics from the deadly battle fields of the south, among them was a magnolia stalk picked from the garden of Mrs. Van Lien, at Richmond, Va. Mrs. Van Lien is the lady worthy of a life pension for liberating several of the union boys from Libby prison by secreting them in her cellar till they could make their escape.—South Lyon Excelsior.

The people who have put forth an address in behalf of the Jeff Davis movement, speak of the "ineffable valor and devotion of the most heroic soldier the world ever saw," all of which sounds very nice. J. A. Palmer, of this place, who had Davis under guard the first twenty-four hours after he was captured while trying to get away dressed in "petticoats," does not speak very highly of his "ineffable valor."—Chelsea Standard.

A strange and fatal accident occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Due, on Prospect street last Saturday evening, by which their little son, aged about one year, lost his life. The parents were absent for the evening, and the oldest child, in whose care the other children were left, carried the water pail into the sleeping room and set it in front of the bed in which the baby was. In some way the little one fell out of bed and struck head first in this pail of water, and was drowned.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

And it came to pass that a certain widower took a certain widow out for a ride, and when they were seated ready for a start the said widower laid his pipe down in the bottom of the buggy. Well, there was some fire in said pipe, and after about a mile had been traversed the lady thought things were getting pretty warm about her feet, and upon investigation they found that said pipe had set fire to the lady's dress, and it was so badly burned that it was necessary to return for repairs. Put your pipe in your pocket next time, John.—Milan Leader.

Kimble & Schmid have torn down the old foundry building. The machine shop will be dismantled, a new foundation put under it and new siding and a new roof put on. They talk now of extending the flume through the building and by setting the wheel at the east end of the building expect to get two or three feet more fall than they had before, thus making a very fine water power of it. They have now absolute control of the power and have begun drawing material for the dam. It would not be a bad scheme for our people to give them a lift.—Manchester Enterprise.

The Sylvan Center postoffice Washenaw, has "busted," for want of business. Liabilities: Ten per cent. of salary, for republican campaign purposes and responsibility for carrying the town, under penalty of dismissal. Assets: One stove leveled up with bricks (account of broken leg); box of sawdust with nicotine discoloration; printed sign, "Don't spit on the stove." Besides the foregoing are some withered expectations of future greatness, never to be realized, and a dozen blank sheets for making out quarterly reports. The postmaster thinks he will engage in some active business.—Adrian Press.

G. W. Hitchcock, drayman, found a sealed telegraph envelope from the floor of the waiting-room of the depot one day last week, on which there was no address, and on opening it was astonished to find two $20 bills. He "laid low" and awaited developments. The next day agent Debenham confided to him that he had lost $40 and was in a very discouraged mood. He had searched the office high and low, ransacked his house from cellar to garret, made a raid on the bank—but without avail. The last joke had been on Hitchcock—the mud turtle affair—so Hitchcock let Deb sweat awhile and then told him about his find. Deb was so tickled they came near having a one-sided hugging match right then and there. As Debenham had been so rattled over his loss that he could eat no dinner, and Hitchcock had been so busy he had had no time to get his dinner, they both adjourned to Stevens' hotel and dined at the agent's expense. They're even now.—Milan Leader.

Will see the Wheel go Round.

A bet made by Ed. Lacy and James Slocum, publisher of the Holly Advertiser, has laid out a tiresome journey for both. It is as follows: In case Grover Cleveland is elected Slocum is to wheel Lacy to Fenton, a distance of 10 miles, on a wheelbarrow. In case Harrison is elected Lacy will hold the handles and Slocum ride. Lacy weighs 183 pounds and Slocum 146. Lacy gives Slocum one mile off in case the latter has to do the wheeling, but that mile is not to be taken going out of Holly or into Fenton. This is done to offset the difference in weight. C. A. Wilson, and C. F. Collier are to accompany as referees and on the arrival at Fenton supper is to be served at the Roberts house at 4, to be paid by the one who rides. The wheeling is to take place within two weeks after election and 12 hours is allowed to make the journey. In case either backs out he forfeits $25. B. Starker and C. F. Collier are making a bet to furnish a band to accompany the wheelers. This bet is also based on general results.—Marlette Leader.

VOTE AGAINST CLEVELAND.

Eleven Good Reasons for Such a Political Course.

The Workingmen's Mutual Reform League of New York City has issued to the workmen of the United States eleven reasons why working-men should not vote for Grover Cleveland. They are tabulated as follows:

While governor of New York he was opposed to the following labor measures:

He vetoed the bill establishing a department of labor and making the secretary of said department a cabinet officer.

He vetoed the mechanics' lien law bill, making the wages of workmen engaged in the construction of buildings a first mortgage on the property.

He vetoed the life and limb bill, making employers responsible for accidents happening from imperfect machinery or inferior construction of buildings.

He vetoed the tenement house cigar bill, forbidding the manufacture of cigars in tenement houses.

He vetoed the bill compelling elevated roads of New York to charge only five cent fares.

He vetoed the printers' bill requiring all the state work to be done by union workmen.

He vetoed the bill making ten hours a legal day's work for all street car employees.

He vetoed the bill abolishing convict labor in prisons, although the proposition when submitted to the popular vote of the people was carried by a majority of 60,000.

He vetoed the child-labor bill, providing for the inspection of factories where children were employed and prohibiting the employment of children under fourteen years of age.

He signed a bill compelling the stationary engineers of New York City to pay a tax of $2 per year to the police pension fund or be debarred from following their vocation.

He signed a bill reducing the fees of the New York harbor pilots, which benefited only the steamship monopolies.

It would appear that Grover's labor record is something like his war and pension record, or like General Adlai Stevenson's soldier and civil service reform record, or, again, like Stevenson's union labor record. Grover would give the laborers a recompense, however, in the shape of taxed sugar, tea and coffee and unlimited British competition in the factory labor field.

During one of his visits to this country, Mr. James Bryce, the historian and member of Parliament, was riding on a railroad train, and happened to fall into conversation with one of the brakemen. In the course of his talk he let out the fact that his name was Bryce. "What! Bryce!" exclaimed the brakeman. "What! you write the 'Holy Roman Empire' and 'The American Commonwealth'?" "Yes," replied Mr. Bryce, considerably astonished to find how his fame had found him out. The brakeman looked silently at Mr. Bryce for a moment, overcome with surprise; then suddenly extending a very dirty hand, he exclaimed, in a tone of the heartiest approval, "Shake!"

CAPT. A. G. WEISSERT.

The new commander-in-chief of the grand army, Captain A. G. Weissert, was born at Canton, Ohio, and attended schools at Racine, Wis. Graduating from high school he entered the University of Michigan. Here he was a fine scholar and carried off the degree of LL. B. He joined the eighth Wisconsin infantry when the war broke out and was severely wounded at the battle of Nashville, receiving a bullet just over the knee, which he still carries. When he rejoined his regiment he did so on crutches; after four years service he was brevetted captain for meritorious service and extraordinary bravery, and Lincoln even offered him a West Point cadetship which he refused. Captain Weissert joined the Grand Army in 1866, and has filled creditably every position from comrade and officer of the day up to department commander.

Worthington Co., 747 Broadway, New York, announce for immediate publication as No. 30 in their international library, "With Columbus in America," by C. Falkenhörst, adapted by Elise L. Lathrop. With photographs. One volume, 12mo. Cloth, $1.25; paper, 75 cents. A highly dramatic historical novel which treats of the discovery and conquest of this continent. While adhering strictly to the facts of history, the author has presented here many romantic and heretofore unknown incidents in the private lives of Columbus and his followers, and these facts, together with fancies of his own, he has interwoven into a work that is at once thrillingly interesting and strikingly poetic. His heroes and heroines seem to rise before us; we are charmed by their presence and follow their adventures with breathless fascination. The narrative presents natural descriptions that are truly exquisite; the story is at times darkly passionate and possesses in an eminent degree a most weird, tragic and tender beauty. This volume is going to be followed by two others: 2, With Cortez in Mexico, and 3, With Pizarro in Peru, both novels which partake of the excellence of the former volume. These three books form a set that ought to be in every American's library, for they impart early American history pleasantly, are healthy in tone and brightly illuminate the times in which the scenes are laid.
