Death of Mrs. Galey-Brown.

Mrs. Sarah Galey-Brown died this morning at five o'clock, at her home, No. 23 Monroe street. The cause of death was heart failure, with which she has been troubled for several years. The funeral arrangements can not be made until the time of arrival of her children can be ascertained.

Although the disease that has ultimately resulted in Mrs. Brown's death is of long standing, she considered it for a long time of a minor nature, expecting that it would be overcome. Gradually, however, it had strengthened its grip upon her, until last Sunday, while on her way to church, it reached its culminating point, and she fell on the sidewalk in a dead faint. Yesterday there was a second fainting spell and the third one this morning a five o'clock, was too great a shock, and she fell back on her pillow dead.

Thus it ended the life of one of the most prominent, active and useful women of Ann Arbor. Ever since her home has been in this city she has been among the first in every movement among the women of the city that was calculated to lead to ultimate good to themselves or to the world. She was the organizer and the mother of the Woman's League of the University, which has done so much to bring together the women of the institution into closer acquaintance and friendship.

But it was in missionary work that her chief interest lay. In this branch of church work she was very active and earnest and an inspiration to her associates. At the time of her death she was president of the local Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, of which she had been long a member, and also president of the Detroit Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Society. For ten years she was, together with her husband, a missionary in China. At present she has a brother, Rev. C. R. Mills, who is a missionary in the same country. From the fact that she has been so intimate in this work, has grown the demand upon her time for missionary addresses and talks for which she was constantly in requisition.

Withal she was a woman of unusual talents, which she invariably put to good use. For several years she had been at the head of a large University girls' Bible class in the Presbyterian church. This year she felt obliged to give up this work.

Mrs. Galey-Brown was a woman of about fifty-five years. She had been twice married. Her first husband, Mr. Galey, died in China, when a missionary there. Her second husband, Rev. Mr. Brown was once pastor of a church in Ireland, whence he came to this country and settled in Iron Mountain, Mich., where he was pastor until his death, about 1887. Upon his death Mrs. Brown and her family moved to Ann Arbor, where her son by her first husband, Prof. Chas. M. Galey, was then engaged as instructor in English in the University. Besides Prof. Galey, who is now at the head of the department of English in the University of California, at Berkeley, there were several children by the second husband, the following of whom are now living: David Brown, formerly assistant with Prof. E. D. Campbell, but now head chemist in a big iron manufacturing plant in Cleveland; Andrew Brown, a teacher in Chicago; Miss Sarah Brown, now a student in the University; and the youngest son, John Brown, seventeen years old, who is in the high school.

The Needle Work Guild of Ann Arbor.

This is a new enterprise for this town that seems destined to become a household word in many a family if the activity of the Guild members is any indication. The only condition of membership is the contribution of two new articles of clothing, suitable for men, women or children.

This society was organized late this fall, and work has been necessarily crowded into a few weeks, which ordinarily can be done leisurely during the year. It was thought best however, to make the effort to support our own poor with comfortable garments for the winter, and accordingly a meeting will be held sometime during the first week in December and a distribution made of articles collected. It is desired that all who know of needy ones, report them to Mrs. W. S. Perry, 61 Washington st. In this way it is hoped to learn what classes of garments are in greatest demand that more intelligent work may be done another year.

This society does not interfere with any other charitable work, but is intended to support what is already organized. To this end reports are solicited from every charitable worker and organization in town, with the confident hope of helping all.

The Choral Union Series.

The Choral Union, encouraged by the success of the first annual May Festival, has presented a series of concerts which surpasses any series yet offered. The course will include a Festival of the same character as that of last season, giving in all seven concerts, of which five will require the assistance of a full concert orchestra. Eventually it is expected that all the concerts in University Hall will be orchestral and it is hoped that the way may be prepared for such an enlarging of the scope of the series as to give us a fine orchestral or choral concert each month in the University year. The management of the Seldi Orchestra at the last moment summarily canceled all western engagements, and as a consequence the series will be opened by Theodore Thomas and his celebrated Chicago Orchestra. This change adds very materially to the expenses of the opening concert, but will strengthen the course rather than weaken it. It was only by great good fortune that this substitution could be made on such short notice and are confident that this great conductor who stands nearer to the hearts of the American people than any other, will be greeted by a large audience. The date of this concert will be Monday, November 19th. The programme will be given by us as soon as possible. We have not the space to emphasize the remaining features in the course, but wish to urge upon our students the duty of supporting this series which has already become famous.

Trouble in the County Treasurer's Office.

Yesterday there was a number of substantial men of the city and county in close consultation in the county treasurer's office, with looks upon their faces indicating that they were not happy, nor even pleased.

Although they were very secretive, and not given to talking, yet it was learned that they were bondsmen for the present county treasurer and that that official was alleged to be short in his accounts, and at home sick.

One of the bondsmen informed the writer that the amount of the default in the treasurer's office he thought was about $3,000, with some $8,000 more in some way involved, but just how, it was not stated.

As there are a large number of bondsmen, 32 in all, the loss if not made good, as Mr. Sweeney says it certainly will be, so we are told, will not fall heavily upon any one man.

Residents of the north side are wondering when the Michigan Central bridge will be fixed. It is in unsafe condition.

The Columbian Organ.

The University Record for November contains the following notice of the Columbian organ much of which will be new. "During the past summer the University Musical Society arranged for the purchase of the great Columbian organ, which stood in Festival Hall during the Exposition. This instrument, which is now being set up in University Hall, is the largest of its kind belonging to any educational institution in the world. In point of mechanism it embodies all recent improvements, and is one of the most perfect organs ever made. It contains 3,901 pipes, the largest of which measures 32 feet in length. The bellows are placed in the basement of the building, 132 feet from the organ; air is conveyed from them to the instrument by means of large flues, of sufficient strength to withstand the pressure. Power to work the bellows is furnished by two electric motors, one of five, the other of two horse-power. The organ will be known as the Frieze Memorial Organ, being named in honor of Professor Henry S. Frieze. The value of the instrument is reckoned at $25,000. The Columbian Exposition Company paid $10,000 for the use of it during the Exposition. The price agreed on with the University Musical Society is $15,000, which is to be paid in three annual installments; these, so far as they are not met by the proceeds of special organ concerts will have to be provided for by private subscription. Several of the alumni and friends of the University, have already made generous contributions to the organ fund. The first concert will be given in December. This organ, standing in the auditorium of the University, will be a source of pride, not only to students, but to citizens of Michigan as well; for it will be remembered that the firm which received the commission to build it for the Columbian Exposition was the Farrand & Votey Company, of Detroit; and the electric motors are also a product of Michigan skill, having been made by the Detroit Motor Company. The value of the organ in a musical way both to the University and to the state can hardly be overestimated.

Death of Mrs. Arthur E. Mummery.

Mrs. Arthur E. Mummery, wife of the Washington street druggist, died Sunday morning at 6:30 at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Arthur J. Kitson, 21 Geddes avenue. She had been suffering for six months from consumption, which resulted directly from an attack of pneumonia experienced a little over one year ago. About ten days ago Mrs. Mummery was taken up to Mr. Kitson's residence for a brief visit, and moving rapidly worse, could not be grooved to her home at 111 W. Huron st. The funeral will be held from Alderman Kitson's residence Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and it is expected that Rev. Camden M. Coburn will officiate, Mrs. Mummery having been a member of the Methodist church and a beloved member of the Epworth League.

Mrs. Mummery's maiden name was Miss Jennie E. Fitzpatrick and her home was in Geddes. Three years ago she was married to Mr. Arthur E. Mummery, of this city, and the happy couple went to Detroit, where they lived until about a year ago, when they returned to Ann Arbor, Mr. Mummery opening his drug store on E. Washington st. Mrs. Mummery's age was twenty-five years. She leaves a son only a little over one year old, and a grief-stricken young husband, who has the sympathy of many friends in his bereavement.

The freshman team went down to Ypsilanti Saturday to play the Normal eleven but the latter played with the freshmen to the extent of 18 to 0. The grounds were in poor condition and much fumbling was done. Touchdowns for the freshmen were made by Olson, Rice, Marsh and Friedlander. Marsh hicked one goal.

A DOCTOR'S OPINION

Muffled Throat and Ears and Unprotected Feet and Ankles Conducive to Disease.

"You newspaper men talk about almost everything you see," said a well known doctor to the writer a few days ago.

"That's where you are mistaken, Doctor. If we talked about everything we saw and knew of, there would be livelier times, almost every day, than we have, that's sure."

"Well, I didn't mean exactly that. You talk about things that tend to the public good, usually, so I would like to call your attention to that lady," pointing to a very stylishly dressed damsel crossing the street.

"Just notice how that fur collar covers up her neck, throat and ears, almost, then notice her feet. Thin shoes, with the most delicate rubbers to be purchased, the ankles practically unprotected, in this terrible slush and mud. Its a great wonder that those so dressed—and too many ladies dress that way—do not die oftener than they do from such exposure. The feet and the ankles are vulnerable points of attack for diseases of many kinds. Keep them dry and warm and other portions of the human body can stand considerable exposure and hardship. But much of the pneumonia, and so-called 'quick consumption,' and other kindred diseases, are the result of allowing the feet and lower limbs to become cold and damp. Such days as these are terrors to good health, and help fill the pocket of many a physician. But then, it doesn't do any good to talk," continued the w. k. d., "for fashion is stronger than good sense, and almost any woman would imperil her health rather than appear on the street comfortably attired, if such an attire conflicted with fashion."

"Don't you think, doctor, that if every one dressed as good health demanded, and did other things in accordance with the same rules, that there would be some other way to undermine the health, not thought of now?"

"Perhaps so. We have all got to die in every way, I suppose, and perhaps everything is for the best as it is."

"Yes, you know we all admire a stylishly dressed lady."

"No, not all. There are people who admire a sensibly dressed lady; and when you see one, you know the minute you look at her that she is an intelligent person, with whom it is a pleasure to meet and converse."

"That's owing to one's tastes, you know, doctor. But I will tell the Courier readers what you have said, and perhaps they may heed the warning, and cut off some of your fairly good income."

"You never fear about the income. That'll be all right. Good day."

"Good day, doctor."

The Star Laundry on E. Liberty street, was closed Saturday to satisfy a chattel mortgage of $1,812.60 given by the proprietors, Bowdish & House, to Robert Hunter, of whom the plant was originally bought. The fixtures will be sold at sheriff's sale next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The foreclosure of this mortgage brought on the creditors of the firm of Bowdish & Matteson, of State st., and McGraw & Co., of Detroit, attached the stock of boots and shoes and furnishing goods. Mr. Matteson states that he will continue the business alone, as soon as the matter can be satisfactorily settled.

As the sewer contractors have been troubled considerable with earth falling into the ditches, Titus Hutzel thought up an ingenious frame work of gas pipe which holds the boards in place much more solid and safe than by jacks. If they had had his arrangement in building the main sewer, the two men who were killed would have been alive to-day. It holds boards of any thickness and as many or as few as necessary. The men can work much better when they feel secure from getting buried.

The Pops didn't save Barkworth.

A solid republican delegation in congress from Michigan.

John Donovan, of Bay should be canonized or canonized.

Is Michigan a doubtful state? Well, it doesn't look like it, does it?

Are the populists in the center of the road, or where are they at?

The London, Eng., Standard feels bad about the results in this country last Tuesday. It sadly remarks:

And now the democrats are trying to prove an alibi. Well, there is one who can not. Editor Smith, of the Argus, voted.

It paid Gov. Rich richly, to stand by his honor, the honor of his party and the honor of the state. Such things always pay.

The Free Press is authority for the statement that "the democratic party is still alive." It does not furnish affidavits, however.

Prof. Wilson will not be banqueted any more by foreign manufacturers and merchants. It was a pretty expensive banquet for him.

"We are sorry the democrats were so soon sent back to the wilderness. On the whole, they deserved a better fate at the hands of the people."

And now comes the statement that Grover Cleveland is not disheartened at all, but proposes to act as a Moses to lead his party to victory in 1896.

And now it is hoped that the next congress will meet, transact such business as may be necessary, and then adjourn, and its members return home.

And now just let the people of Illinois get a whack at that miserable anarchistic governor, Altgeld, just once, and he never will know what struck him.

Hon. John J. Robison, of Sharon, is in the city to-day. He isn't rejecting particularly, and still he doesn't appear as melancholy as some of the faithful.

It isn't all happiness, by any means. There are some very sad hearts, and now that the battle is over the sad ones have the sympathy of political friends and enemies alike.

The police force of Chicago has been reduced an even 500. That's too bad—a Chicago policeman is such a fine looking fellow, you know—such a dude of his kind. It's too bad to spoil him.

There are 30,000 school children in New York City without any schools. Now that Tammany, the great Tammany has been driven from power things may be different.

Now that the Tammany tiger is really caged, the bars to his cage should be so riveted that they can never be torn off and the animal escape to again subsist off the hard earned property of the good people of New York.

The father of Peck's Bad Boy took the Royal Bumper Degree last week Tuesday. It was worked in a magnificent manner too, by the Wisconsin brother. Peck will never take it again. He's dead now. It killed him.

Prof. Wilson, the famous author of the infamous Wilson bill, has been repudiated in his own district and his republican antagonist elected over him. West Virginia will also have a republican U. S. senator.

Both constitutional amendments are carried in this state. As both of them are right, there is a general good feeling in respect thereto. It is certainly an approach to the millennium when a constitutional amendment can be carried.

BURROWS' MISTAKE.

Harry H. Smith is at the Morton House.

It might be well to state, for the benefit of those who are so unfortunate as not to be acquainted with him, that he is no common, everyday Smith.

He is ex-deputy register of the U. S. treasury, was famous as the journal clerk of the national house of representatives, and the best one it ever had, was the clerk of the senate sugar trust investigation committee, was the confidential friend of Austin Blair, Michigan's war governor and was one of the owners of the Kalamazoo Telegraph before Mr. Dingley discovered it.

His latch string was out this morning, as it always is to newspaper men, and for an hour he discoursed on the topics of the day.

Regarding the senatorial situation he said that he was the most surprised man in Michigan when he arrived in the state and learned that Congressman Burrows had entered the arena for the United States senatorship.

"Don't you know," said he, "that Mr. Burrows told me in Washington just before he left there that he would not accept the senatorship under any consideration. And why should he? Reed is to be the next speaker of the house, no question about that, and then Burrows will be chairman of the ways and means committee and in the event of Reed's being made senator or nominated for the presidency Burrows would become speaker of the house. I think he has made a mistake, a sad mistake, and I told him so. I regard Mr. Burrows—and pardon my seeming egotism, I am accused of being an authority on such things—as the ablest parliamentarian in congress excepting Reed, and as speaker or as chairman of the ways and means committee, he could do Michigan incalculable good."

"A few weeks ago Senator Sherman asked me about the senatorial situation in Michigan, and I told him that McMillan and Patton would undoubtedly be returned to the senate, and he said that he sincerely hoped so, as Michigan could not very well lose McMillan, and as for Patton, he regarded him as a strong and growing man—cool, level headed and attractive."

"As I said, Michigan is especially interested in having Burrows as chairman of the ways and means committee, on account of the tariff legislation which will inevitably come up in the next congress, as the Wilson-Gorman bill must be revamped."—Grand Rapids Evening Press.

It is semi-officially given out at Washington that the government has decided to issue fifty or one hundred millions more of 5 per cent gold bonds, to keep up the expenses of the government. And still the national debt grows! A national debt is a national blessing, certainly.

It is thought that we will not be afraid of Japan, even when the vessels which are now in process of construction are completed which will make the new navy of the United States consist of forty-one vessels, ranging in size from 11,300 tons down to 120 tons displacement.

It has been said—by Tyndall, was it not?—that the three ideas that will make our century memorable in future ages are the doctrine of the conservation of energy, the doctrine of evolution, and the germ theory of disease. To the above might be added the great republican earthquake of 1896.

The last election was fought on national grounds. Whenever the republican party fights a battle on that line it wins. When it gets off off on temperance, silver or some other hobby or fad, it gets whipped. The party should learn this lesson: Stick to national issues.

Only one democrat elected to the next State House of Representatives. This poor, lonesome fellow is John Donovan, of Bay county. John will be the pool-bah and the bright and shing Koh-i-nor of the legislature. He can hold his party caucuses, and dictate nominations to suit himself, and no one can raise a finger in opposition. His picture should be framed and placed in Representative Hall as a souvenir.

The republican members of the coming legislature owe it to the people who elected them to give them a business session. If they dally along, and prolong the session way into May or June, they will disappoint their constituents and their party. And when the next election rolls around they will hear from it. A short session, with just as little legislation as possible is demanded.

The chairman of the ways and means committee of the House wields more power and has more influence than any official in the nation, the president not excepted. And Michigan would be prouder of Julius C. Burrow's there than in the Senate. And he could be of far greater service to the state in that position than he could as Senator. He is too good a man to send to the Senate to rust out.

A QUEER DECISION.

The supreme court handed down a decision yesterday in a Bay City case that will, if strictly adhered to by the board of canvassers, throw out as invalid more than half of the split ballots cast in this county at the recent election, and possibly give a majority to candidates not receiving a majority. The very fact that a name has been erased or crossed off, where an elector has desired to vote for some candidate on another ticket, constitutes a marked ballot and must be thrown out.

The court says that the true rule regarding the methods of voting under the Australian system is, "that any mark upon a ballot other than one appropriate and necessary under the law to designate the intention of the voter, must be regarded as a distinguishing mark. Any other rule would result in endless confusion, and would make the local inspectors judges of the voter's intention, and lead to bitter controversies. It was the evident purpose of the legislature to provide against the necessity for this by laying down rules for the guidance of the voter, and providing a simple method of registering the vote, and while, in some instances, a rigid adherence to the prescribed method would result in throwing out honest ballots, we have not been able to find any safe middle ground to occupy."

This decision may be right, but it would seem to the ordinary man, that anything that deprives a voter of his right of franchise, is wrong, and that is just what this decision does. The intent of the voter is what should govern, not his knowledge of petty technicalities.

KEMPF FOR SPEAKER.

Ex-Senator Reuben Kempf has again won the fight for the legislature against great odds. Thereby the counsels of the next session will gain the ability of one of the best business men in the state as well as of one of the best statesmen.

Taking the for-orn-hope nomination in 1884 for state senator, with an adverse majority of over 1,100, he won by nearly 600. At Lansing he made a fine record, showed himself a leader in that able body both as a tactician and parliamentarian, and returned home having made a strong impression on legislation benefiting the state and its taxpayers.

This fall, when no one wished the apparently hopeless nomination for representative, the party convention again called upon him, and he accepted, against his personal wishes. He made an effective canvass, winning by 500 against a democratic majority of 500.

Born in Pennsylvania in 1835 he has lived in Michigan thirty-three years. Commencing as a tinner he has mastered success steadily until now he is one of the foremost in commercial interests.

All these experiences have amply equipped him for the speakership of the next House of Representatives. Therefore the Courier brings forward his name as a candidate, than whom no one could be better fitted, even among the large number of capable men who will organize the house in January.

Mr. Kempf has the bent of mind, conservative, fair and straight forward, which is necessary in a presiding officer who shall command the respect and support of the body over which he sits. His decisions would be prompt and fair—such as he would stand to without wavering.

We believe these qualities will so appeal to the members of the house that they will be glad to avail themselves of his services as speaker.

Tom Barkworth to his Ionia friend: "My dear Sir: If you ever hear of my running for office or accepting a nomination or entering politics, you send me a telegram at once, at my expense, notifying me that I am a self-convicted ass." Oh Tom! If you had better not convicted yourself, how much hotter off you would have been! A good resolution, once formed, should never be broken.

For President in 1896, subject to approval of the national democratic convention:

JOHN DONOVAN, of Bay.

Now that Hill is gone and, Wilson obliterated, and Bynum is lost, and Morrison is sunk, and Bland is snowed under, and Bryan is drowned, and Jerry Simpson has been jerked out of his socks, and our own Voorheis has been so badly Gibsonized, John seems to be the only available man left.

The people of New York City and Brooklyn voted by a handsome majority to adopt the consolidation scheme, by which the city of New York will eclipse Chicago in population, and will contain about 3,000,000 souls. It will make a city containing 317 square miles in area. This will make it the second city in the world, in all respects, being excelled only by London. Now what Tammany is dislodged, Miss Brooklyn will probably feel better about marrying Father Knickerbocker.

BEST FOR SHIRTS.

THE PROCTER & GAMBLE CO., CHICAGO.

FOUND OUT THEIR MISTAKE.

From the election returns it is quite evident that the German Americans who changed party affiliations a few years ago, have sakened of their change, and returned to the party where they naturally belong. A German, with the intelligence, industry, economy, honesty and thrift that are characteristic of his people, is as out of place in the democratic party as an angel would be rambling around in Tammany Hall. A trial has probably convinced them that they were where they did not belong politically, and that the party they left for no reason but because of a democratic rooraback and scare crowd, is the only party that can intelligently administer the affairs of this government.

They have found that the southern doctrine of free trade means cheap labor, cheap wages, cheap manhood, and commercial death to the industries north.

They have found that protection to American industries is protection to the American farmer, and laborer as well as to the mechanic and manufacturer. They have found that a blow struck at the capital of the north is a blow at the products of their own labor, and consequently at their own pocketbook.

It will be some time before affairs can be fully righted, and a reign of prosperity again come to the nation. To be sure the republicans have the House at Washington, but the rattle-brained theorists known as populists have the balance of power in the senate, and a human icicle is in the presidential chair, thus preventing any legislation such as the great majority of the people of the nation demand.

But some things are certain. There can be no more objectionable legislation. Neither can there be any more free trade enactments. There can be no further damage done. And because of that business will commence to improve. Slowly, to be sure, but it will improve, for capital will come out of its hiding place and seek investment, and go hand in hand with labor once more, on the highway known as Prosperity. We may certainly hope for an improvement in all the arteries of business and trade, but it will not be with a rush, however, for the depth of inactivity has been so great that it will be only by slow degrees that recovery will be made.

WHAT IT MEANS.

The people have spoken in as plain terms as possible, and told their servants that there must be no more un-American tom-foolery down at Washington.

No more shutting off of reciprocity treaties; no more Queen Lill episodes, and no more tinkering with the tariff in the way of adopting free trade schemes.

There never has been such a rebuke as this administered to a party before in this nation. It is overwhelming and more eloquent in its effective presentation than any orator could conceive.

The people mean business. They demand honorable, conservative, intelligent legislation from congress, and a species of patriotism at the White House that can not be controlled by any petty jealousy or spite.

What is demanded of public servants is honesty, purity, patriotism, a fair inclination to work, and enough good homely common sense to enact laws that shall benefit the whole nation not a section of it, and the administering of these laws with wisdom and judgment.

The people do not require impossibilities, but they do demand ordinary honesty and industry of their officials.

China has asked the good offices—now don't all you politicians jump—of the United States in its trouble with Japan, and would like to have your Uncle Samuel arrange a treaty of peace between them. He is just the fellow who can do it.

We Pay $10 Each for Ideas

We need TWENTY or MORE original and striking designs for Newspaper Advertisements of SANTA CLAUS SOAP. The manufacturer, The N. K. Fairbank Company, authorizes us to pay TEN DOLLARS EACH for approved drawings with appropriate reading; or $5.00 each for designs or reading matter only. This offer is open to all. The competition will close December 1. As soon as possible after that date we will pay for accepted designs and return the others. Remember, for complete, acceptable advertisements we pay

Directions.—Make drawings with black ink on heavy white paper, or card board. Do the work in outline. Elaborate shading will not print well. Space in papers will be four inches square. Draw to larger scale if you prefer, but have design square. The idea is most important. If that is good we can have it redrawn and still give you credit. Avoid poetry. Get up an ad. that would make you by the article. Points.—Santa Claus is a pure, high-grade soap—made for laundry and general household use—a favorite wherever known. Merits generous praise. Sold by all grocers, wholesale and retail. Do your best, and send results promptly. Address (only)

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

An attempt is being made at Dexter to raise enough enthusiasm, wind and money to reorganize the cornet band. A reading circle, holding weekly meetings, has been organized at Dexter. The works of Lowell are now being read. Frank R. Buchanan, law '93, has opened an office at Dexter, and is ready to attend to any business entrusted to him. The Dundee Reporter is authority for the statement that a drove of wild deer are dodging about the woods in that vicinity. Bro. Munger, of the Dundee Ledger has a libel suit for $5,000 on hand. My, but some candidates do value themselves high, don't they? There were about thirty young men in Scio township who voted for the first time Tuesday. The record shows that they must have voted right.

The editor of the Dexter Leader found a new hat, and with heroic honesty advertises it. Must have been too small. Perhaps it was a democratic hat. "It seems like ancient history now to speak of the recent campaign," remarks the Dexter Leader. Yes, but mighty interesting ancient history just the same.

There was no knock-downs in Brighton on election day, whereat the Express sadly remarks: "Times are not what they once were on election day." Too bad, isn't it?

Milan sports are to have a prize punning exhibition and wrestling match at their opera house, on Saturday, Nov. 24th. Miss May McGregor has returned home to Milan after an extended absence at Olivet.

Perhaps the Northville Record man has never tried those "Northern Michigan Resorts" in the winter time. If he has not, he had better do so. They are not to be excelled in the world and fishing and hunting is always good there.

They held a school of instruction at the public schools in Milan on Tuesday last week, showing the pupils how voting was done. Result: Republican 56 democrat 15, prohibition 5, populist 2. Even the kids have been struck with the political cyclone.

A young merchant prince in Mooreville is strictly original in names of some of the modern undergarments. While the head of the firm was eating supper Tuesday evening, this scion rushed into the dining room and shouted: "Pa, what's the price of these cotton batting drawers?"—Milan Leader.

Next Saturday evening, Nov. 17, there is to be an old time supper at Milan, in Gay's vacant store, given by the old timers themselves. A very distinguished guest, in the person of Princess Italia, the 7th daughter of the 7th daughter, will be present, and tell the fortunes of those desiring to know their future.

The oldest voter in York township is probably Daniel Aylesworth, and he was out to the polls Tuesday morning and cast his ballot. He has been a voter for 63 years, and cast his first vote in York 57 years ago, and has not missed an election since. He entertained the early voters with a song he learned in 1812.—Milan Leader.

It is coming. Just listen to his: Those who study omens say another long, cold winter, filled with blustering storms, is ahead. The goosebone is nearly all white, and snow, they say, will be on the ground from early December until April or later. Corn husks are more than usually thick. Woodchucks and chipmunks are already fat enough to kill and their fur is dense, fine and soft. They, too, predict cold weather, and will seek winter quarters early. Muskrats are usually busy, cranes are flying southward, squirrels are laying in extra stores of provisions, and hornets' nests are hung low.

WALTER CAMP ON FOOT-BALL.

Are Foot-Ball Men Good Students? The Great Critic Says Yes.

In a university like Lake Forest the final success of any sport and particularly that of foot ball, depends upon the class of men who go in for it. In no game is the quality of the material with which the captain and coach have to deal so important. The interest, too, manifested by the non-playing students in the work of the team must always be greatly dependent upon the type of men making up a team. One cannot, therefore, urge too strongly the necessity of interesting the best men in the sport and making it in every way as attractive as possible to them. For this reason the hours of practice should be so arranged as to conflict as little with studies as practicable, and set to come at a time when the men are expected to devote an hour to open air exercise. One of the most prominent Yale professors told me last year that more of the high standing men at New Haven had gone into foot ball than into any other of the sports, and that the average standing of the foot ball men of last season was above the average standing of the highest stand class that ever graduated from Yale. It may seem sometimes that victory of a single year depends upon brawn rather than brain, but it will be found in a series of years that the team winning the most times is the one that has the highest class of material both as to pluck and brains. This is not in any way to disparage a heavy weight team, but to insist upon their courage and wits being up to the standard. And the best kind of courage or "sand" is the kind that knows what it is facing and never flinches.

The second point I would make is the necessity of teaching a team to play under and abide by the rules strictly. There seems to be a popular fallacy among some teams that it does not pay to stick to the rules. I have seen that fallacy exploded, in fact only a few years ago I assisted in correcting it. At New Haven we had never been greatly troubled by men concluding that infringing upon the rules was good policy, but in this particular instance there were two or three men who had become possessed of that idea. It wanted but ten days to the Harvard game and I was convinced that heroic treatment was necessary. In the practice, therefore, I stationed an umpire at each end of the line and one directly behind the 'Varsity, with instructions to call and to give to the scrub side five yards for every infringement of the rule, no matter how slight. The captain of the team was almost the first to be called for using his arms and hands in interference. He was quite sure that he had not done so but the umpire said he had. We kept up this system for five days and at the end of that time the team played strictly under the rules. When we met Harvard their men were repeatedly called for use of hands and arms, which meant five yards for us every time.—Walter Camp in Lake Forest Student.

Gibson Elected Justice by 235 Majority.

Andrew E. Gibson will be the justice of the peace to fill vacancy caused by resignation of John W. Bennett. He was elected yesterday by a majority of 235 over Wm B. Voorheis. Mr. Gibson's run was a remarkably good one. He came after Gov. Rich in number of votes. The ballot stands as follows:

Try the New Fig Honey. Honey mixed with a nice extract of California figs, etc., make "Honey of Figs," the most delicious of all gentle cures for Constipation, Colds, Fevers, Nervousness and Disordered Kidneys. Californians greatly prefer it to simple syrup. Old folks enjoy it and babies love it. The Fig Honey Co., of San Francisco make it. No other laxative is so soothing or sells so well. Large bottles (50 doses) 50 cents. Trial size 10 cents. In this age of progress be wise and get the best. Eberbach & Son, Agents for Ann Arbor.

Look Out for Cold Weather, but ride inside of the Electric-Lighted and Steam-Heated Vestibule Apartment trains of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway and you will be as warm, comfortable and cheerful as in your own library or boudoir. To travel between Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis, or between Chicago, Omaha and Sioux City, in these luxuriously appointed trains is a supreme satisfaction; and, as the somewhat ancient advertisement used to read, "for further particulars see small bills." Small bills (and large ones also) will be accepted for passage and sleeping car tickets by all coupon ticket agents. AN OPPORTUNITY—WILL IT BE SEIZED.

Now is a glorious time for the people of the Catholic church to make themselves strong politically. Heretofore they have not shown themselves wise in unifying almost unanimously with one political party. With rare exceptions they have all ways been found in the ranks of the democracy. Now the bars are down. They can divide up now and throw a portion of their forces with the party of advancement and progress in this nation.

It is quite natural for a foreigner to be "agin the government," but when they are here in free America, they should be for the government, when the government is of and by the people. Besides there are thousands in that church who are native Americans, and they are good students of the times, and ought to be sufficiently shrewd not to place themselves all in one party where by a combination of conflicting interests they can be entirely shut out from a voice in the affairs of state. By dividing politically they can wield a much greater influence than they can by always being in one party.

The attitude of the South, which is being continually rebuked by a solid north, illustrates the same fatal error. Should the South divide and elect officials of both political parties, how much stronger she would be in the councils of this nation. Her action keeps her almost entirely in the minority party without influence or power. If some of the statesmen could throw aside the old slavery ideas and race prejudice, long enough to come out for their true convictions in regard to the policy of protection, what an influence the South would have in the councils of the nation! But alas, her people appear to be blind! Blind to their own interests! Blind to the nation's interests!

Gen. Spalding need not put that in his name unless he wants to.

The Coldwater Courier celebrated the recent republican victory by printing on its first page a fire red eagle. It is perfectly proper to paint the eagle red now, if any one wants to do so.

Wm. Sohmer, a Tammany brave who ran for sheriff at the recent republican ratification, makes affidavit that he spent $14,980.40, and then got most beautifully whaled. Some other Sohmer, not this Sohmer, the people the told him.

The Courier is indebted to Private Secretary Henry T. Thurber for an advanced copy of the "Report on the Chicago Strike of June-July, 1894, by the United States Strike Commission," etc. It will be given to the public tomorrow through the associated press.

Sweeping as the republican victory is, there is no occasion in it for democratic discouragement.—Mt. Clemens Press. If such a defeat as that is not discouraging, we should be pleased to know just what would be considered discouraging.

Ohio's law permitting females to vote at certain elections has developed a most remarkable fact. Every woman who has registered was born in 1873. She is just old enough to vote, and no older.—Northville Record.

What sort of a law is it that requires a voter to register his or her age? It's an outrage upon our fair equal suffragists.

It is an easy matter to throw away money on advertising, but it is nearly as easy to make it a paying investment. In the first place have something to advertise. Unless that point is fixed there is no benefit in printer's ink. When you have caught the rabbit proceed to skin him. That is to say, when you have got something to sell, announce the fact to the people who want to buy. Don't go into any snap scheme at solicitation of some traveling sharpener; but go right to your own local newspaper office and make a bargain for the space you want. If you have no idea as to the best announcement to make in order to induce people to come to your place of business, tell the newspaper man what you want and what you have to sell and get him to help you out. In this way you will find that advertising will pay.

Pro. A. A. Stanley showed us a letter this morning from the management of the Anton Seidl orchestra, which was engaged to play here Nov. 22, saying that owing to the hard times the orchestra must cancel all its western dates and offering to substitute some other and inferior attractions. This management of the Choral Union course objected to and at once telegraphed the Theodore Thomas orchestra management of Chicago, for a date. After considerable telegraphic correspondence the date for the Thomas orchestra has been fixed for one week from next Monday evening, Nov. 19. This enterprise on the part of the Choral Union management is to be commended, for the change in their program will not only result in giving the patrons of the course an equally good orchestra, but will add over $100 to the cost of the course.

HOW IT WAS DONE.

Here are the Official Figures of Washtenaw County as Compiled to-day.

The following figures are the official ones, tabulated from the official returns, by the Board of County canvassers, in session at the court house to-day. They are great souvenirs to be kept in loving remembrance by the republicans of the county.

Each one of our readers is at liberty to count them at his leisure, and to deduct any conclusion therefrom that his pleasure may dictate.

These figures are the icebergs of Greenland, rayless and cheerless for our democratic friends, but full of warmth and hope for the republicans. Take them as you like. Here they are:

And now the question is: Who struck Davy Hill?

Ann Arbor high school will play Detroit Athletic Club next Saturday in Detroit.

Quite a number of property owners are paying their sewer tax and saving interest.

The Courier has just received an order for printing a book of some 200 pages for an Ypsilanti author.

The registration at the Ann Arbor High School is 610. This is nineteen more than last year at the same time.

The Lady Maccabees give their annual banquet to-night, for which they have made elaborate preparations.

Miss Kimball, formerly of New York, has opened a "school for backward boys," in the Rathbone residence, on N. Division st.

The American House is putting in a 25-horse power boiler with which to heat their house, the old boiler having been disabled.

Allan H. Frazer, lit. '81, was re-elected prosecuting attorney of Wayne county on the republican ticket yesterday.

Prof. Levi D. Wines has an offer of a fine position on the Brooklyn N. Y. high school as head teacher in mathematics.

There were 960 people who enjoyed the Michigan Central excursion to Detroit yesterday. Something over sixty took the train from Chelsea.

The thirty-fourth annual convention of the Michigan Sunday school association will be held in Grand Rapids Nov. 13, 14 and 15.

On Wednesday, George Perry, died at his home in Ypsilanti, aged 96 years. He was a native of Connecticut, but had lived in Ypsilanti 28 years.

Mrs. Theresa Schaub, mother of Mrs. Caspar Ramsey, of this city, died at her home in Detroit, Thursday, aged 71 years, funeral services being held to-day.

John R. Mäner did not have enough to do so he has been appointed county treasurer for the present. There is nothing like keeping a man's time employed.

In the township of Scio, Spalding received 207 votes, McKinstery, republican for register of deeds, and his opponent Hughes, for the same office, received the same number, 207. That was a curious coincidence.

"The religious Beliefs of John Greenleaf Whitier," will be the morning topic in the M. E. church next Sunday morning. Dr. Cobern has had access to much new material on this subject, furnished him by the poet's relatives and others.

"Shall Women be Eligible to Election to the General Conference." This question may be voted on by all members of the M. E. church over 21 years of age, on Wednesday Nov. 21st, from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m., in the prayer meeting room of the church.

members are under 15 years of age, if they can defeat Ypsilanti's team of Youngsters, the oldest of whom is 14 years of age."

The amount of primary school moneys just apportioned to this county is $8,421.80. The total amount apportioned in the state is $460,021.07.

Bro. Thompson of the Dexter Leader, refers to the county capitalists as Ann Arborese. That's quite easy, but Ann Arboreans is more esthetic, don't cher know.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Presbyterian church will give a social next Friday evening in McMillan Hall, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing six months.

It had been thought in the past that Judge Kanne was a pretty fair republican runner; but pshaw! he doesn't know the first rudiments! Spalding carried Monroe by over 800 majority!

D. F. Sutherland, division superintendent of the Michigan Central, was in Ann Arbor yesterday inspecting the yards and buildings of the company. Of course he found everything all right.

Hereafter it will be Hon. Emory Townsend, of Saginaw, as he was elected to the state senate Tuesday by over 700 majority. Many Washenawians will rejoice over his success.

A. O. Wheeler, who was counted out as state senator in Manistee Co., four years ago, by the squawbuck sympathizers, has the satisfaction of being returned this year by a handsome majority.

The social given by the ladies of St. Andrew's church, at Harris Hall last evening, was a great success, as far as people, receipts, supper and a social time was concerned. The sum of $40.60 was taken at the door.

Fred T. Stimson fell off a box at his home this morning and alighted in such a manner as to break his left arm near the wrist. Dr. Darling set the broken limb, but it will be some time before Fred can use his arm again.

The writer of this wrote this item with a pencil 11 inches long and in the same proportion every other way. It was imported by George Wahr, and probably presented to us to write up the great republican victory with. It's a daisy.

Wm. A. Lovejoy, of Detroit, the oldest past master of Golden Rule lodge, who made Zachary Roath a mason, attempted to attend the funeral, but missed the first train out Sunday afternoon, and arrived in the city just after the services were over.

The Educational Club held its annual election of officers Wednesday the result being as follows: President E. Cora De Puy; vice pres., Mrs. E. Pardon; 2d vice pres., Mrs. P. W. Moore; 3d vice pres., Mrs. M. E. Duncan; secretary, Miss Helen Paul; treasurer, Miss Helen Baul.

Philip Bach has survived no less than eight partners in business, the list so far as we know them, being: Henry Hewitt, John W. Thompson, Chas. B. Thompson, Chauncey H. Milen, Isaac S. Pierson, Peter H. Abel, Eugene B. Able, and Zachary Roath. Mr. Bach is still a hale and active business man, on duty every day.

Mr. Stafford, ex-general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., of Windsor, Ont., has been in the city a few days looking over the Y. M. C. A. situation here with a view of becoming local secretary of the association. At a meeting of the board of directors of the association, this evening the matter will be decided.

Peter D. Woodruff, one of the pioneers of this city and county, died at the home of his son, Frank A. Woodruff, in Saginaw, yesterday, Nov. 9. The remains will be sent to Ann Arbor for burial, and funeral services will be held from the T. A. A. & N. M. depot, Monday noon. Rev. J. M. Geiston will conduct the services.

Dundee Reporter: "Lawyer Seth C. Randall was elected prosecuting attorney of Washtenaw county Tuesday. He will make an efficient and popular official. His new position will probably take him out of the practice of his profession in Monroe county, and consequently will be missed among his numerous friends at and Dundee and in the county. Congratulations to him for his election.

It is merely a suggestion, but if the republicans who wanted to burn powder and have a big pow-wow over the election, would take the money and do as the republicans have concluded to do in Harrisville, that is buy turkeys, together with other necessities, and present one to each needy family in the place, they would do not only a wiser thing, but a kinder thing. In fact we move that the republicans in every city and village in Washtenaw county, return thanks for the recent glorious victory, by doing that very thing. It would be far better than burning up good money, and shouting like loons over a bonfire.

For sale! A job lot of roosters! They are not handsome birds. Are pretty well stripped of flesh and feathers. Too sick to crow, and too old to fight. But they are for sale all the same. The owner has no further use for them. Inquire at the Argus office.

Rev. A. W. Mann, the deaf-mute preacher, has recently returned home to Detroit from a trip to Europe, and is expected to resume his work in the mission to deaf-mutes, at once. It is understood that he will preach to that class in St. Andrew's church, in this city in the near future.

Those drawing books from the Ladies' Library please notice that after Nov. 10th, the library will not be open on Tuesday during the winter. It will be open an hour longer on Saturday, from two to five p. m., instead of from two to four, and from ten to twelve a. m. as usual.

George H. Hammond, who owns the great stock farm at Ypsilanti, has purchased a stock farm at Pleasanton, Cal., and will ship his noted Stallions, Simmocolon and Sidney to that place at once. The Ypsilanti farm will hereafter be used to acclimate colts reared on the California ranch.

Carrie Louise Baxter, daughter of Mrs. Henry Baxter of this city, and sister of Mrs. Clarence Henderson, of Mason, died at the residence of her sister Mrs. David Inglis, 111 Edmund Place, Detroit, Thursday, Nov. 8th. The funeral was held in Detroit today. Miss Baxter was formerly a teacher in Ann Arbor city schools.

There is much difference of opinion as to the value of a personal canvass for election, and the fluctuating vote for local candidates compared with the state ticket, is quite a study. Those candidates this year who staid at home, and did not ask a soul to vote for them, did quite as well as those who made a hustle. There have been years, however, when a personal canvass counted.

By action of the Board of Directors of the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Ins. Co., the insurance of all members who have not paid their assessment has been suspended, until such assessment is paid. There are not many of these, but the few who have neglected to pay their assessment could never recover any insurance should their property burn. It is best for them to "look a leedle out."

On Wednesday evening, Nov. 21, there will be opened in the Baptist church at Ypsilanti, what is termed "A Worker's Conference." It will continue the day following. Representatives from all the Baptist churches of the Washtenaw Association are expected. Superintendent of State Missions, C. E. Conley, and Dr. H. E. Jameson, of the Home Mission Society, will take part in the Conference. The purpose of the meeting is to promote evangelist work in all the churches of the Association.

George M. Henon, who has been dangerously ill for some days, died this morning at 8 o'clock. The funeral services will be held Monday, at 10 o'clock a. m., from the family residence, No. 43 Thompson st. Mr. Henon was one of the old and well known citizens of Ann Arbor, having resided here a quarter of a century or more. His children had all been called here some days ago, and were present at the time of his death, and have the sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

Here boys, listen to this from the Ypsilanti. Will you let that ball go unclaimed: "Wm. Reader has offered to give a new foot ball to any foot ball team in Ann Arbor, whose Four weeks from to-morrow, December 9, will occur the dedication of the new Evangelical Lutheran Zion church, corner of Washington st. and Fifth ave. There will be German services in the morning and afternoon. In the evening there will be an English service, at which Prof. M. Boy, D. D., of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, will preach. This service has been arranged in order to give the English people an opportunity to see the church.

It cost over $150 to heat the city offices last year and the owner of the building offers to heat it for the same price next year and furnish a janitor. The city offers $100 and because he does not want to accept this, the city council propose to move to some other place, which with a purchase of safe, cutting down that $1200 furniture and other moving expenses would come to $300 or $400. That is one way to save money but not a popular one in hard times, as private individuals when they have a choice between paying $50 or $400 for the same article prefer to pay the $50. Ultimately the city will want its own offices, probably in the city hall, which needs enlarging, or in the 1st ward where a building is needed for election purposes. Until that is done there is not much use in moving around every year.

A writer in the New York World in discussing "the economy of poverty" comes to this conclusion, which many will prove: "One trouble in this country is the large number of people, rich and poor, who would rather be rich than decent."

The Physician and Surgeon for October has an article entitled "The Primitive Instincts of the Modern Child," that is of great interest to every mother in the country. That article alone is worth the price of the journal for the year.

After Jan. 1st next the court house will become quite thoroughly republican. Only one corner of it being held by the enemy, the judge of probate's office. And the democratic janitor will proceed to make it hot for republican occupants in a few weeks now.

The boycott litigation growing out of the troubles the T. & A. A. R.R. had with its employers a couple of years ago, has just been ended in the circuit court of appeals in Ohio. The decision of Judge Taft of the lower U. S. court, restraining Chief Arthur from issuing any further order to enforce a boycott against the road has been sustained.

"Don't you see how the heavens weep frozen tears over the republican triumph?" said a good democrat yesterday, pointing to the snow that kept falling all day. "You're mistaken," said the jubilant republican addressed. "The heavens are simply doing a deed of charity in covering up the democratic remains with its pure white mantle." And then they both passed on.

"Picturesque Europe" will be the subject of an highly illustrated stereopticon lecture delivered in Newberry Hall Nov. 15, by Dr. G. G. Bennett, of San Francisco, Cal., in the interests of the English Lutheran church. It is said to be an exceptionally fine entertainment, and all who attend will undoubtedly be pleased and will aid a worthy cause to the amount of the purchase of a ticket.

Here's a chance for another fight. Hear this from the Detroit Journal: "Now let us renew hostilities against those theater bonnets that are so awfully stuck up. If moral suasion is powerless to bring the ladies to time let retaliation be tried. Let the gentlemen wear high silk hats and keep them on during the entire performance. Severe measures are necessary sometimes to bring about needed reforms."

PRESIDENT ANGELL DELIVERS A VERY INTERESTING LECTURE.

The Graduate Club held a very interesting meeting at the home of Harrison Soule, on S. University avenue, last evening. There was a very large attendance of the faculty were present. At the close of the lecture a pleasant social time was enjoyed and the club was well entertained by Mrs. Soule.

The subject discussed by the lecturer was the Chinese, Japanese and Korean governments, with incidental remarks about the war now in progress in that region. President Angell spoke from personal observation gained while minister to China. He said the war was properly regarded as a matter of great importance by the people of this country, first from the number of people involved. It was perhaps not too much to say that one-third of the human race was directly interested in the outcome of the war. The war was also interesting to us in America because of its commercial importance. It was interesting because it was a contest between modern and mediaeval civilization. To an audience like the one assembled last night it could not fail to be interesting on account of the effect it would have upon missionary efforts.

President Angell cautioned his hearers not to be too credulous in accepting the truth of war reports. War bulletins were notoriously unreliable in all nations, and this would especially be true when the Chinaman was mixed up in them in any way. Most of the news had to come by way of Japan, and the Japanese had many inducements to color it, although the facts were probably favorable to them without coloring.

SOME FACTS ABOUT JAPAN.

President Angell described the Jap and his country as exceedingly progressive. He was always ready to assimilate any new idea from the West. The traveler through Japan would be struck by the eagerness of the Japanese to acquire new ideas. He would receive such extreme courtesy from the Japs as to give the suggestion that the traveler was conferring a great honor on the country by going through it.

"But Japan has been trying to do in forty years what it has taken Europe 800 years to accomplish," said President Angell, "and it is not strange if she has not entirely succeeded. It is an impossibility."

President Angell described the present government of Japan, with its emperor and houses of legislation.

"They have been trying to carry on a parliamentary government," said he, "and it is no reflection on them if it has not been a brilliant success. They met twice a year when once was enough. They found themselves with so many discordant elements that the emperor was compelled to dissolve the house about once a year to keep the politicians from plunging the country into civil war. I can't help thinking that the cabinet was quite willing to go into this war in order to unite these elements. The Japanese are natural fighters and have shown their bravery through all history."

"Then Japan has had some very delicate diplomatic problems to solve which may have made her willing to plunge into this war. The treaties between her and many other countries are somewhat like those gained by European nations from China at the cannon's mouth—very one sided. She has been prohibited from levying more than a 5 per cent duty on imports. She has been without power to try citizens of other nations who have committed crimes in her territory. This was entirely proper under the old judicial system of China and Japan in which the judge was also prosecuting attorney and jury, and was in the habit of torturing witnesses until they gave such testimony as he wanted, but Japan has adopted a criminal code somewhat like the 'Code Napoleon,' with Europeans to administer it. Japan has perhaps become a little bumptious and conceited, and perhaps ambitious to show that she is the dominant nation of the East. If she does this she will perhaps gain a decided advantage over other oriental nations in securing favorable treaties."

CHINA'S PECULIAR GOVERNMENT.

President Angell described the form of government of China, which is an absolute monarchy, but with provincial governors of such authority that the government is decentralized, making China one of the weakest nations on the face of the globe. He paid a high compliment to Li Hung Chang, with whom he had a personal acquaintance. He gave many incidents showing the incapacity of China to seize upon western ideas and prepare itself for a war with such a country as Japan.

The speaker did not give much credit to the reports of Li Hung Chang's degradation. He said such things as depriving the viceroy of his yellow jacket were quite common, but they were usually to be taken in an entirely Pickwickian sense.

Pres. Angell said the war would establish new prestige for Japan. Beyond that there were various results possible, and he was not able to prophesy which one would come. He said he had information from high Japanese sources that Japan intended to divide China into four provinces but he did not think England would allow such a thing to occur. He also had information from high Chinese sources that the overthrow of the Manchu family was contemplated, with the enthronement of Li Hung Chang, but he did not think Li would permit any such thing. He thought China would be forced to open her doors to western civilization.

A Memorial for George Wm. Curtis.

Ann Arbor November 7, 1891.
To the Editor of "The Courier;"

A large number of the friends of the late George William Curtis united some time ago in appointing a committee of eminent gentlemen to consider the best method of commemorating him. This committee have voted to raise a fund of $25,000, to be devoted in part to the erection of an appropriate artistic monument in the city of New York, and in part to the foundation and endowment of an annual course of lectures on the duties of American citizenship and kindred subjects, under the title of the Curtis Lectureship, the lectures to be annually published for distribution. I have been asked to call the attention of persons in this vicinity to this movement and to invite subscriptions to the fund. I shall be very happy to take charge of any such subscription or they may be addressed directly to William L. Trenholm, Treasurer, 160 Broadway, New York. It is to be hoped that Michigan will not be unrepresented in paying this tribute to one who was so highly esteemed in this State, as everywhere.

JAMES B. ANGELL.

The Girl Whom Everybody Likes.

Of course all our girls desire that they should be regarded with esteem and respect by those who know them. But how shall they be so regarded? This is a question that awakens thoughts that are certain to lead to goodness and amiability. There is one type of girl that everybody likes. Nobody can tell exactly why, but after you have met her, you turn away to some other woman and say: "Don't you like Miss Soandso?"

Now, the reason you like her is a subtle one. Without knowing all about her you feel just the sort of girl she is.

She is the girl who appreciates the fact that she can not always have the first choice of everything in the world.

She is the girl who is not aggressive and does not find joy in inciting aggressive people.

She is the girl who has tact enough not to say the very thing that will cause the skeleton in her friend's closet to rattle his bones.

She is the girl who, whether it is warm or cold, clear or stormy, finds no fault with the weather.

She is the girl who, when you invite her to any place, compliments you by looking her best.

She is the girl who makes this world a pleasant place because she is so pleasant herself.

And, by and by, when you come to think of it, isn't she the girl who makes you feel she likes you, therefore, you like her?

Resolutions by Welch Post, G. A. R.

At a regular meeting of Welch Post, G. A. R., Department of Michigan, held at their hall Friday evening, Nov. 9, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That in his late command in arms, Jerome A. Freeman, and feeling it our duty to express our respect for the departed, be it

Resolved, That in him this community has lost one of its best and most worthy citizens, and Welch Post, No. 137, G. A. R., a good member and beloved comrade, who was ever ready to join hands in works of charity, fraternity and loyalty.

Resolved, That we feel deep sympathy for his widow and family, in this their hour of sorrow, and that we mourn with them the loss of a good husband and father, in expression of which the insignia of mourning shall be attached to the flag of this Post for thirty days.

Resolved, That the adjutant of this Post cause these resolutions to be spread upon its records, and also that they be published in the city newspapers of Ann Arbor, and transmit a copy of the same to the family of the deceased.

THE MILLS DIDN'T GRIND RIGHT.

How one of Our Ex-Representatives Got Too Previous.

News comes from Lansing of a good one on F. Elmer Mills, the gentleman who has represented the 2d district of this county in the legislature. He never dreamed of such a thing as defeat, and thought he had a clinch on re-election. A Lansing friend of his was in Ypsilanti a few days ago.

"Oh, by the way, when you go back to Lansing I wish you would go to Marcus Peterson, clerk of the board of auditors, and select for me a good seat in the house of representatives," said Mills.

"Great Scott!" was the reply, "don't you know that Peterson has not been clerk of the board for nearly a year?"

"Hadn't heard of it," said Mills. "If that's so, have the present clerk reserve a seat for me. I didn't put in my bid in time last year, and had to take a seat way back against the rail."

When the Lansing man returned he went to Clerk Jackson and made the request, only to learn that Mills' vote in the last legislature had contributed to the enactment of a law providing that hereafter the seats be apportioned among the representatives by lot after the organization of the house. Under the old system of first come first served, no one but a few of the earliest birds was satisfied with his position.

Deputy Sec'y Selden is being overwhelmed with letters, thus early, from representatives-elect on this subject, and they all may as well understand that he can do nothing for them. Clerk Jackson has secured a box containing 100 marbles, numbered consecutively, and these will be used in apportioning the seats, each member taking the seat bearing a number corresponding to that on the marble he draws.

Crop Report for November.

The rains from the 3d to the 10th of September made it possible to sow wheat at about the usual time of seeding in this state. The area seeded is reported at 86 per cent of the area seeded one year ago.

In condition the growing wheat is reported at 91 per cent in the southern counties, 98 in the central and 100 in the northern, comparison being with average years. The average for the state is 94. The average condition is higher in all sections of the state than one year ago.

The total number of bushels of wheat reported marketed by farmers since the October report was published is 1,144,654 and in the three months, August-October, 3,620,728. This is 1,033,292 bushels less than reported marketed in the same months last year.

Corn is estimated to yield in the southern counties and the state, an average of 40 bushels of ears per acre. The area of clover seed harvested in the state is about 55 per cent of the area in average years. The yield is estimated at 1.31 bushels per acre. Compared with a full average crop, potatoes are estimated at 53 per cent in the southern counties, 54 per cent in the central and 47 per cent in the northern counties, the average for the state being 52 per cent. Live stock is in fairly good condition.

The following statistics are from the farm statistics for 1893-4: Acres of wheat, 1893, 1,533,071; bushels, 24,432,201; yield per acre, 15.94 bushels. Acres of wheat in May, 1894, 1,287,865. Acres of corn in 1893, 797,797; bushels of ears, 37,761,594; average per acre, 47.33 bushels. Acres of oats in 1893, 843,406; bushels, 22,233,976; average per acre, 26.47 bushels.

Acres of clover seed raised in 1893, 174,949; bushels, 170,792. Acres of potatoes in 1893, 172,225; bushels, 13,589,202. Acres of hay in 1893, 1,762,768; tons, 2,282,538.

The number of each class of live stock in the state in the spring of 1894 was as follows: Horses, 426,573; mch cows, 388,896; cattle (other than mch cows), 262,659; hogs, 311,083; sheep, 1,898,994.

The number of sheep sheared in 1893 was 2,068,063; pounds of wool 12,692,926.

What Bon-ton Equality is.

The B. Y. P. U. held what is called a bon ton equality social at the Baptist church last evening. There were a large number of people present notwithstanding the unpropitious weather. There was considerable amusement in choosing partners. Names of characters were written upon cards and passed upon plates, one for the gentlemen another for the ladies, and each one in the congregation drew a card with a name upon it. For instance "Betty" was upon one card on the plate passed to the ladies, "And I," was upon a card passed to gentlemen. The two securing these cards had then to find each other, and after doing so, the gentleman had to be weighed and the lady had to pay 5 cents for each 100 lbs., or fraction thereof. Then the height of the lady was taken and the gentleman had to pay 5 cents for the first five feet and one cent for every inch over and fractions counted. An average lady would cost about 8 cents. In this deal the gentlemen seemed to have the advantage of the ladies.

SCINTILLATIONS OF WIT.

FROM THE ARGUS.

It sometimes takes adversity to bring out the true stuff in a man, and the recent political whirlwind has set the wit of the Argus man at work in a lively manner. That paper takes it philosophically as these bright paragraphs show:

Licked, b' gosh!
Our Hill is hollow.
We move to make it unanimous.
Bet 'em ten they can't do it again.

Talk about the Johnstown disaster!
We seem to be in the ratio of about 16 to 1.

As to congressman, what was our bark worth?
The democratic Schuh wouldn't fit.
Good Schuh, too.

"The sad autumn winds—how they wait as they pass!"
Won't somebody throw us a life preserver? Do, please!

For sale: A choice job lot of democratic campaign fireworks.

The democracy should sue Gus Peters for breach of promise.

Senator Hill can now turn his attention to a hair restorative.

Now watch the republicans climb into the trough with both feet.

We don't appear to have made a single "touch-down" in this county.

Most of our party is still below, searching for the body of McGinty.

The cause of the defeat of the democratic party was emotional insanity.

Congressman Griffin's impaired hearing is greatly to his advantage, just now.

Will the fellow who borrowed Mr. Fisher's white horse please return him.

Mr. Fisher had his foot in a "frog" when Rich's special passed over the road.

Brethren, together let us unite in singing: "Solemn strikes the funeral chime."

Those dem prohibitionists will find out after awhile that they can't lick the democrats.

True, in two years we shall lick them, but that does not cut any pie for this Thanksgiving.

Bro. Populist Peters, will you please lead us in prayer? Touch as lightly on "the winning combination," as possible.

Gentlemen, we don't mind being knocked down and rolled around in the mud; but won't some half a dozen of you please get off of our stomach!

To reach the nearest fixed star one must travel 20,500,000,000 miles, and, if the velocity were equal to that of a cannon ball, it would require 5,000,000 years to travel that distance. Fellow democrats, it is a great undertaking, but let us go! Arise, such of you as can get up.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merit to make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale. Dr. King's New Discovery, for consumption and Colds, each bottle guaranteed.—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Bucken's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at the Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's Drug-store and Geo. T. Haessler, Manchester.

Cabinet makers—Newspapers. A regular skin—the Chamois. A perfect shame—Humiliation. Of no earthly use—Comets.

In Our Great Grandmother's Time,

big bulky pills were in general use. Like the "blunderbuss" of that decade they were big and clumsy, but ineffective. In this century of enlightenment, we have Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which cure all liver, stomach and bowel derangements in the most effective way.

Assist Nature a little now and then, with a gentle, cleansing laxative, thereby removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels, toning up and invigorating the liver and quickening its early action, and you thereby remove the cause of a multitude of distressing diseases, such as headaches, indigestion, or dyspepsia, biliousness, pimples, blotches, eruptions, boils, constipation, piles, fistulas and maladies too numerous to mention.

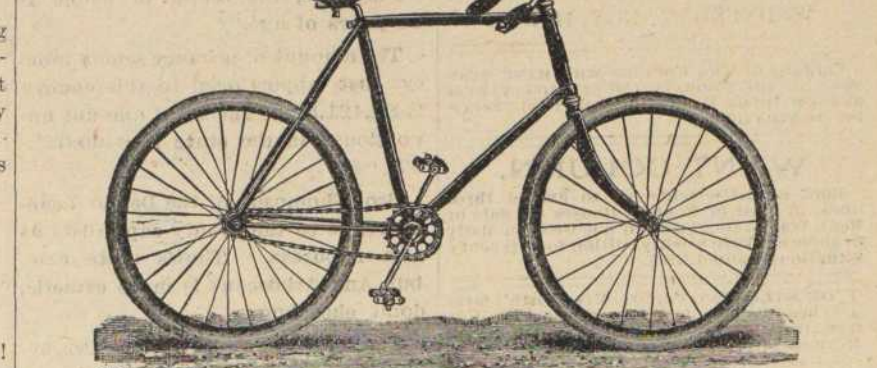

If people would pay more attention to properly regulating the action of their bowels, they would have less frequent occasion to call for their doctor's services to subdue attacks of dangerous diseases.

That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequalled, is proven by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and indigestion.

A free sample of the "Pellets," (4 to 7 doses) on trial, is mailed to any address, post-paid, on receipt of name and address on postal card.

Why Not Say the Kind Words Now?

Recent sad events have given rise to some thoughts that it may not be out of place to record. There are a great many peculiar things in this life, and one of them is that after people are dead, and can in no way be benefited thereby, we are very apt to tell our friends and the friends of the departed one what has been treasured up in our hearts, and left unsaid all these years.

We send beautiful flowers, emblems of purity and all that is sweet and fragrant in life, to decorate the coffin of a friend to whom we never carried one little pansy even, while in life.

There are moments in every one's life, and many moments too, when a kind thought or a kind deed would lift a heavy load from the heart.

Do not keep your love and tenderness sealed until your friends are dead. Fill their lives with sweetness. Speak approving, cheering words while their ears can hear them, and while their hearts can be thrilled and made happier by them. The kind things you mean to say when they are gone, say before they go. The flowers you mean to send for their coffins, send to brighten and sweeten their homes before they leave them.

If you have alabaster boxes laid away full of fragrant perfumes of sympathy and affection, which you intend to break over the dead body of a friend, that friend would rather have a plain coffin without a flower, a funeral without an eulogy, than a life without the sweetness of love and sympathy. We should learn to do for our friends beforehand for their burial. Postmortem kindness does not cheer the burdened spirit. Flowers on the coffin cast no fragrance backward over the weary road traveled by him or her who lies therein. Practice what Christ taught, every day of His life, and it will not only and sweetness to the lives of your friends, but make your own pathway less weary.

The fact has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the people that the democratic party is not competent to run this government. The people have turned once again to the great party that has so many times taken them safely through dangers, and that party will not disappoint them. It never will allow legislation for one section against another, and it never will tolerate any legislature that seeks to enrich the foreign merchant, mechanic or manufacturer at the expense of the American farmer and laboring man. That is what free trade always has done, and always will do.

It Hits the People and is Free.

Every ailing and suffering person who is wise will instantly accept this generous offer. Coming from the very highest authority, as it does, gives it the greatest weight, and people know when they see a good thing like this. Everybody knows of Dr. Greene, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. His successful system of treating patients through letter correspondence is attracting great attention. All you have got to do is this. Write him a letter about your complaint, tell him how you feel, and he will answer it, giving a thorough explanation of your case and telling the surest way to get well.

He gives most careful and explicit attention to every letter, and explains your case so comprehensively, that you understand immediately exactly what ails you, and just what to do for yourself. And for all this he makes no charge. He is also the discoverer of that remarkable medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. This splendid offer is being taken advantage of by thousands, and they are getting well. The very best thing you can do, reader, is to write the doctor immediately, it will cost you nothing, and it will probably be the means of making you well and strong. Don't delay until it is too late, but write now.

PASSED OVER THE RIVER.

Death of Zachary Roath of the Firm of Bach & Roath, Yesterday.

Up to a few days ago one of the healthiest and most pleasant looking business men one would meet on Main street, was Zachary Roath, of the firm of Bach & Roath. About ten days since he was taken ill with inflammation of the bowels, and although having the best of care and medical attendance, he failed to rally, and died at about 4 o'clock yesterday p. m. At one time he seemed to improve, but it was only a false hope held out.

The death of Mr. Roath comes as a shock to his many friends, who can hardly realize that they never shall meet him any more, for he has always been strong and well, and bid fair to live to a good old age. He was conscious to the last and called about him his companions, bidding them all good by, and asking them not to feel bad over his departure. His last moments were very affecting to the friends gathered about his bedside. Before his death he made a will, disposing of all of his property as he wished it to be divided among his relatives.

Mr. Roath was an unmarried man and leaves three sisters, Mrs. Helen Huston, of Lansing; Mrs. Mary E. Cole, of Jackson; Mrs. Laura Heavener, of Herkimer, N. Y.; a brother, Jay Roath, of Jackson; and a half-brother, James E. Carr, editor of the Reporter at Dundee, all of whom are in the city.

He was a native of Ann Arbor, having been born in the city in June 1851, and had he lived until his next birthday would have been 44 years of age.

The deceased commenced his business career in a printing office, but soon gave that up as not being to his taste, and entered the dry goods house of Bach & Pierson, then doing business in the store now occupied by H. J. Brown. He entered into partnership with him a few years ago. Mr. Roath commenced as a poor lad, without anything to commend him but his honesty, frankness and a willingness to do whatever came to him to do. By economy and strict attention to business he accumulated, after many years, sufficient property to buy a quarter interest in the firm of Bach, Able & Co., which was enlarged to a half interest or more upon the death of Mr. Able.

He was a member of Golden Rule Lodge F. & A. M., and of Washtenaw Chapter Royal Arch Masons. The funeral services have been appointed for Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Congregational church.

Members of Golden Rule and Fraternity lodges and Washtenaw chapter are requested to meet at Masonic temple at 1:30, so as to be able to start the line of march at 2 o'clock promptly.

The honorary pall bearers will consist of the members of the Keystone Club, and active bearers selected from the ranks of Golden Rule lodge.

His remains will be interred in Forest Hill Cemetery.

The pall bearers will be Dr. A. C. Nichols, C. S. Millen, T. D. Kearney, A. W. Gasser, Jas. L. Stone, N. J. Kyer.

The honorary pall bearers will be John R. Miner, Chas. E. Hiscock, W. W. Watts, Jas. R. Bach, Sam Langsdorf, A. P. Ferguson, W. H. Whitmarsh, Ed. H. Eberbach, Dr. John Kapp.

Grand Opera House Nov. 16.

"A Crack Jack" which title savors of the south and southwest is a four act melodramatic comedy treating of love and hate and intrigue, still it is permeated with a vein of humor that at times is infectious, carrying the auditor at frequent intervals from scenes of thrilling excitement to situations intensely laughable. It is a modern blending of the serious and comic, and while it may not chime with the true spirit of dramatic art, it is just what theatre goers want and prospers accordingly.

An Odd Collection.

A man in Colorado has a quaint collection of bottles. It is divided into two sections. Section one is large. Section two is not. Section one contains hundreds of bottles, the contents of which his wife swallowed hoping to find relief from her physical sufferings. Section two contains a few bottles that once were filled with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It was this potent remedy that gave the suffering wife her health again. It cures all irregularities, internal inflammation and ulceration, displacements and kindred troubles. It has done more to relieve the sufferings of women than any other medicine known to science.

Pile tumors, rupture and fistula, radically cured by improved methods. Book, 10 cents in stamps. World's Dispensary Medical Association, N. Y.

SOME INSIDE FACTS.

SUCH MATTERS ALWAYS LEAK OUT This Time it Carried the Great News Far and Wide.

Many Families all Over the Land are Deeply Interested in the Matter.

There are many things in the lives of persons and families which when they are known become matters of public interest. People always want to know those things which personally concern them, which add to their welfare, their looks or their comfort. Here is a piece of news which coming from such high authority makes it of more than ordinary interest.

Mrs. Charles H. Heaton, residing at 143 State street, Montpelier, Vt., is a most lovely and accomplished lady. The family has the very highest social standing. Her husband has held many offices of trust in the city and in politics, and among the Masonic fraternity stands at the head. Her husband's father is president of the Montpelier Savings Bank and Trust Co., the largest bank in the city. Her father is a prominent railroad man. She writes as follows:

"Two years ago we had a terrible experience with La Grippe and by overwork in taking care of my children and the results of the disease I was left in a very exhausted condition, in fact I was nearly prostrated. I was so weak that upon the least excitement I would feel nauseated. I was as near nervous prostration as anyone could be.

"Someone recommended Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to me and I immediately began its use. I am happy to say that it completely cured me. I think it is the best medicine I ever knew of for any form of nervous or chronic disease. I have recommended it to many and shall do so upon every occasion."

This letter is of the utmost importance to you for it tells you just what to do to be cured. If you are nervous, weak, tired, sleepless, if you have headache, indigestion, kidney or liver complaint, poor blood and weak nerves, you can surely regain your health and be as well as you ever were by taking Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy.

The strengthening and curative power of this remedy is wonderful. Use it and you will be made well and strong. It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted by all at his office, 35 West 14th street, New York, free, personally or by letter.

"How Well You Look"

Friends Surprised at the Wonderful Improvement.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Dear Sirs:—I take pleasure in writing the good I have received from taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every spring and summer for six years or more, my health has been so poor from heart trouble and general debility that at times life was a burden. I would become so Emaciated and Weak and Pale that my friends thought I would not live long. I could do scarcely any work at all and had to lie down every few minutes. I began getting worse in January, losing my flesh and feeling so tired. I thought I would try Hood's Sarsaparilla and I am happy to say I am in better health than I have been for a number of years. My friends remark to me: "Why how well you look!" I tell them it is Hood's Sarsaparilla that has done the work. I would have all suffering humanity give this medicine a trial and be convinced. This statement is True to the Letter." MRS. JENNIE DECKER, Watseka, Ill.

COVERED HEAD & NECK

Eczema of Worst Type. School and Society Abandoned. Felt Death Would Be Relief. Cuticura Soon Put An End to all Sufferings.

Ever since I was three years old I have been troubled with Eczema of the worst type. It at times completely covered my head and neck. I have tried all sorts of medicines, and have been doctored by many very eminent physicians, but with no favorable result. Sometimes my head was one mass of thick scab that would run and bleed, and in summer would be so much worse; my ears looked as though they would fall off. I could not go to school or mingle with society, as the disease smelt so bad. I felt at times that death would be a relief, suffering and itching until I hardly knew what to do. I got your CUTICURA REMEDIES the 20th of January last, and used them according to directions, and can now say that they soon put an end to all my suffering. Words can never tell my thanks to you and your valuable medicine, and I shall always recommend them to whoever I see suffering from the terrible disease. I had spent money and tried the best of doctors with but little relief.

Mrs. LYNNAH WARREN, 1427 George Street, La Crosse, Wis. WAS IN CONSTANT AGONY I have suffered from a severe attack of what is called Prurigo. The disease produced an intense burning and itching sensation that kept me in constant agony all the while, so that I got but little rest day or night. CUTICURA cured me entirely in a few weeks. I cheerfully recommend it for like troubles.

THE MOTOR LINE.

Gratifying Report at the Annual Meeting—Election of Officers.

Last week the Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti railroad stockholders held their annual election of directors. They elected H. P. Glover, D. L. Quirk, Wm Deubel and Dr. Watling, of Ypsilanti, J. E. Beal, C. E. Hiscock and J. T. Jacobs, Ann Arbor.

The reports show the road carried over 80,000 passengers last year, and its receipts paid all operating expenses, including the maintenance of track and rolling stock, which are in first class shape. This is a surprising thing when the times are considered and especially that for eight months of the year there was no street car connection at the Ann Arbor end. Now that the electric cars are running, business is rapidly increasing. But few roads in the country make a better showing for 1894.

The express business is increasing to the advantage of the United States Express Co., the railroad company and especially to the citizens of Ann Arbor who have been getting better service and cheaper rates than formerly. In fact the road is proving in many ways of great benefit to the cities it unite.

The officers were re-elected as follows: Pres., J. E. Beal; vice pres., H. P. Glover; secretary, J. T. Jacobs; treasurer, D. L. Quirk.

John H. Grant, 44, '82, law '83, was elected judge of probate of Manistee county yesterday, to fill vacancy by over 300 majority. It is not customary for the republicans to win up there, but they liked Gov. Rich's appointment so well that they concluded to ratify it in that way at the polls. This is gratifying to both the judge and the governor.

Cyrus A. Lewis, formerly a boot and shoe merchant of this city, died at his home in Bridgewater, Mass., on Sunday, Nov. 4th. Mr. Lewis was at one time a partner of Homer P. Finley, and later conducting the business for a number of years alone. He was a very genial gentleman, and will be remembered by many of our citizens.

Here is a record that our state can well feel proud of: Michigan has 75 building and loan associations, not one of which has reported a net loss during the last year. The number of shareholders runs from 9,708 in a Detroit association, to 38 in a Ludington association. The real estate held by Michigan associations is valued at $5,087,137. The profits are $1,025,864. And the beauty of these associations is that the shareholders divide the profits. Ann Arbor has two of them.

When the salary question was being talked over at the recent session of the board of supervisors, the committee reported a cut of $200 on the office of prosecuting attorney. The present incumbent of that office made an eloquent plea for a return to the old salary, and was so convincing in his representations and arguments that the board restored the salary to the old figures. Some one suggested to Tom that he might be doing some gratuitous work for his competitor. "Never you fear about that," was the reply, "I shall be re-elected." For once Tom was not a good prophet.

Work on the Fifth street sewer is progressing rapidly. The work is now being prosecuted between Washington and Williams streets. The Liberty street portion is now completed as far as Fifth street, while the excavating extends almost to Division.

The Detroit Tribune's New York football letter contains the following notice of the 'varsity eleven: "The great showing against Cornell by the University of Michigan raises the Michigan educational institution much higher in the estimation of football players in the East. Michigan will yet be heard from."

Rev. Dr. Cobern's Visit to Baltimore.

Rev. Dr. Cobern returned last night from his eastern trip. He was the official visitor from the Detroit Conference to the Woman's College in Baltimore. This institution is more largely endowed than any other of its size in the United States. Official visitors from France, Germany, Sweden and other foreign countries have acknowledged that it is the best Woman's College they had ever visited.

While in Baltimore Dr. Cobern was entertained by Dr. VanMeter, Dean of the College. He was invited to preach in the First M. E. church of Baltimore, but declined because he did not desire too much work during his vacation.

Last Sunday Dr. Cobern spent in Washington, D. C. He attended the 25th annual Memorial Exercises, at Metropolitan M. E. church, where Bishop Newman conducted the services, both morning and evening. Mrs. Newman and Mrs. Gen. Logan also spoke in the evening. Among other distinguished members of the congregation was Mrs. Gen. Grant. He dined with Rev. Dr. Johnson, pastor of the Metropolitan church, who a few years ago accepted a call to the M. E. church in Ann Arbor, but failed in securing a transfer from his conference in Canada. Coming home he was in two railroad collisions in one night. In the first of which there were five killed and three injured; in the second one three were injured, all being in the same car with him. He received a slight cut but nothing serious.

Weather Proverbs for November.

As November, so the following March. If on Nov. 1 the beach acorn is dry, we will stick behind the stove in winter; but if it is wet and not light, the winter will not be dry but wet.

If on Nov. 11 the geese stand on ice, they will walk in mud at Christmas.

If the leaves of the trees and grape vines do not fall before Nov. 11, a cold winter may be expected.

When in November the water rises, it will show itself the whole winter. Clear autumn, windy winter.

If there be ice in November that will bear a duck, There will be nothing thereafter but sleet and muck.

Flowers in bloom late in autumn, indicate a bad winter.

Thunder in November indicates a fertile year to come.

When beach acorns thrive well, and oak trees hang full, a hard winter will follow with much snow.

As Nov. 21, so the winter. Much fog in autumn, much snow in winter.

After a warm autumn, a long winter. An early winter is surely winter. When the winter does not come early, it will not continue late.

If on Nov. 11 it is fair, dry and cold, the cold in winter will not last long.

As on Nov. 25, foul or fair, so will be the next February.

THEY WERE SUSPICIOUS.

The Lady Promised, But the Boys Wouldn't Trust Her.

It happened at one of the island lake resorts of Wisconsin. A young man from Chicago was stopping there with his wife, and the wife had wandered down to the shore of the lake to enjoy the evening breeze. A short pier jutting out into the lake looked inviting, and she went on to it, unmindful of several small urchins who were hovering about the boat house at the shore end of the pier. A few minutes later her husband came to the lake to join her, but was intercepted by one of the urchins.

"Say, mister, is that your girl?" asked the boy.

"She is my wife," replied the young man.

"Well, you tell her to go home, cause we boys wants to go in swimmin'," said the youngster, and, thinking that would settle the matter, they all retired to the boat house to undress.

The young man promptly informed his wife of the request, but she was enjoying herself and was not anxious to leave. She laughed, and called to a new arrival at the boat house:

"Tell the boys," she said, when he had come to her, "to run out and jump in the water if they wish to. I won't look."

The little fellow hurried to the boat house with the message, and there was an immediate council of war. At its conclusion he returned to the end of the pier and said:

"Please, ma'am, the boys say they don't risk it."

A MAN'S POCKET.

Filled With an Account Staff That Ho Treasures.

"Men are fond of laughing at the little ways and whims of women," said our sprightly hostess, "but I wish some man would explain to me why he carries unimportant papers about with him for months, wearing them out in so doing."

"I have often watched my husband carefully change the contents of coat or trousers pockets from one suit of clothes to another. Soiled, worn envelopes and folded papers are tenderly transferred, and for a long time I was impressed with the importance of the operation, and drew an involuntary sigh of relief when the operation was over. One day my curiosity got the better of me, and I begged for a sight of those mysterious documents guarded with so much care."

"To please me my husband examined them. He found several unrecipited bills—some that had been paid and receipts filed; a note from a friend, dated three months back, regretting that he didn't find him in his office when he called; one or two business cards of firms he had no recollection of knowing; several advertisement circulars, a play bill of last season's performance, preserved for some forgotten temporary reason, and perhaps three really important papers among the whole lot. And I honestly believe if I had not prompted the investigation he would be treasuring those worthless bits of paper to this day, under the impression that they were of value."

How They Go. Cigar Dealer, disconsolately—I've lost another steady customer for my imported cigars. Friend—Who? "Wilkins." "Dead?" "No; gone off on a wedding tour." "He'll come back." "Yes, and then he'll begin smoking 'two-fers.'"

Can This Be True? Mrs. Hayseed—These city boarders is awful big fools. Mr. Hayseed—What has they bin doin' now? Mrs. Hayseed—That New York lady wants fresh milk for the baby from one cow, and lots of fresh eggs all from one hen.—Texas Sittings.

How the Police Got on to Him. "How did der police ged on to you?" asked the sympathizing friend. "I don't know," responded Mr. Schwindelman, sticking his nose between the bars. "I took der name of Patrick Hoolihan ven I vent away, pudt somehow it didn't work alrehty."

THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE SOUTH

Is being furthered by the Queen & Crescent Route by means of a special series of Monthly Excursions to Southern points at One Fare for the Round Trip. These rates are in effect from Cincinnati, Ohio, and Lexington, Ky., on November 6th and December 4th, good twenty days from date of sale for return. They are sold on these dates to all points in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida (except Key West,) and to New Orleans, and all points on our line in Louisiana.

Stop-overs are permitted on these excursions at any point south of the Ohio River, within the final limit of the tickets. This offers an excellent opportunity to those who desire to go South to look into the present great movement of Northern farmers to that section.

The Q. & C. has over a million acres of farms and timber land for sale along its line at $3.00 to $5.00 per acre, on easy terms.

Send us your name for advertising matter and any information you may want as to lands and immigration to the South.

Northern Michigan Resorts

Few places offer so many advantages for tired people as do the popular resorts on the shores of Lake Michigan and its tributary bays.

Bay View, Petoskey, Harbor Springs, Charlevoix, Traverse City, and Grand Traverse Bay Resorts are peculiarly inviting during the hot weather she bracing air, cool nights and freedom from dust contribute to make this region a natural healthium, for the recuperation of exhausted energies.

To those interested, Bay View offers special advantages in the great Chataqua course and Assembly, held in July and August, the program of which will be of unusual excellence this year, comprising classes in many branches of learning and lectures by noted professors and teachers from the highest colleges and universities of this country.

The Way to Reach these RESORTS IS VIA THE CHICAGO AND WEST MICHIGAN RAILWAY, which runs through the entire region, and is known as "The Seaside Line," on account of the beautiful scenery through which it passes, traversing the shores of lakes, rivers, and bays, for miles, which, with the splendid service offered by this line makes the trip a delightful one.

Through parlor and sleeping cars from Detroit to Petoskey and Bay View, are run during July, August and September, via the Detroit, Lansing & Northern Railroad to Grand Rapids, thence via the C. & W. M. Tourist tickets at reduced rates are sold at principal stations on these and other lines from June 1st to Sept. 30—good to return until Oct. 31.

Just a Trifle Mixed. In a little New England village, not very many miles from Boston, either, there is a circulating library which generously and hospitably offers its privileges to the stranger within its gates. One such strolled into the room lately, on its only open day of the week, commenting upon the privileges of the towns-people, and admiring the reading instinct which made the library possible in a place so small. A dignified looking woman, a "leader" in village society, was looking over the catalogue, helping a friend to select a book.

"Here is 'The Autocrat of the Breakfast Table,' by Holmes," she said, holding up the book. "I've never read this one, but everything that Mary J. Holmes writes is sure to be good."
