SHOT OVER THE HEART.

Alembert Edwin Keith Killed Himself Last Saturday Night.

Alembert Edwin Keith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Keith, of 17 S. Thayer street, and mail carrier No. 5 of the local post office, committed suicide last Saturday night under the most distressing circumstances. Blinded by the despondency and desperation of unrequited love he ended his own life under the window of the young girl who was the object of his devotion. With a fatal pistol wound just over his heart and his life blood fast ebbing away, he died whispering his reason for the rash act in the ears of his sweetheart, "For you."

Saturday evening Mr. Keith and Miss Lizzie Covert, went to dancing school at Granger's Academy, and returned to Miss Covert's home, 76 N. Main street, about 10:15. Mr. Keith went into the house, and there in a few moments the two had an understanding as to their future relations. Keith was dismissed as a suitor. He asked her if it was her final decision. She answered that it was. He told her that then he had nothing more to live for. There their courtship ended and Keith stepped out into a despair darker than the night, a despair that was shortly to end his life.

He went home, evidently throwing off his coat with an intention of retrieving, but his feelings overcame him and throwing on his carrier's uniform coat he jumped on his bicycle and rode back to Miss Covert's home.

A pistol shot rang out on the night air, and Miss Covert, who sat by the stove down stairs all ready for bed, ran to the window and looked out. "My God it's Ed!" she cried, and raising the alarm she ran out to him in her night-dress and barefooted. Mr. Covert got up, Keith was carried into the house the neighborhood was aroused and Dr. John Kapp was summoned. There was a wound about two inches above his heart made by a 32-calibre pistol. The blood was flowing from his mouth and it was evident that only a few minutes of life remained to the young man. The shot was fired at 11:40 and he died a few minutes after 12 o'clock, just as Dr. Kapp arrived.

The body was at once placed in charge of Coroner Ball, who summoned a jury, viewed the remains and adjourned until 4:30 Sunday. The body was taken to his home on Thayer street at once by his parents after being viewed by the coroner.

Yesterday afternoon the inquest was held in the undertaking room of O. M. Martin. The following jury was impaneled: Walter Clark, Samuel Smith, V. J. Lathrop, Henry Schultz, Fred Cleaver and James Hession. Prosecuting Attorney Randall conducted the examination of the witnesses. Mr. and Mrs. Covert, Miss Fitzgerald and Lizzie Covert testified to the facts as given above. James Harkins, who was first upon the scene, swore that only one shot was fired in his judgment, although Miss Covert and Miss Fitzgerald were certain that there were two reports. The houses are very close together and they doubtless heard an echo of the report. Officer Collins testified to picking up the revolver near the window with two chambers empty. They were not, however, consecutive chambers and could not have been fired by Keith at the time he shot himself. The appearance of his clothes and wound was positive evidence that only one bullet entered the body. Marshal Banfield, Dr. Kapp and Mail Carrier O'Hearn were also sworn. The evidence certainly indicated suicide and a verdict to that effect was given.

Mr. Keith was twenty-one last Thursday, and had been a mail carrier for two years.

This young man, who has given such a fearful warning to other young people, to young ladies far more than to young men, was one of the salt of the earth. He was pure in morals, scrupulously honest, industrious and prompt in his duties, and lead a life that brought no tinge of shame to the cheeks of himself or his kindred. Even the little vices that so often creep into the lives of city boys whom we class among the best, never crept into his life, and he was an honor alike to the young manhood of this city, and to all those near and dear to him. The very manner of his death proved the grand determination and strength of his character. There was nothing that could swerve him when he believed himself right, and yet he was one of the most companionable of young men, never having differences with his associates, and never complaining whatever he was called upon to do in his daily labor.

Postmaster Bakes speaks very highly of this element of his character, and states that although the youngest on the force he was entrusted with one of the most important routes, one that formerly required him to carry heavier loads than most of the other carriers, and yet he never murmured or even compared his work with the work of the other carriers. Devotion to duty was a grand element in his character, but this same devotion was the means of his death.

Some eighteen months ago Mr. and Mrs. Keith were called upon to bury their second son, Clarence, and in this terrible affliction it seems as if they were called upon to bear more than their share of sorrow. They have the most sincere sympathy, not only of friends but of the entire community in their great grief.

The funeral services will be held on Tuesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock, from the family residence No. 17 S. Thayer street.

About Gambling.

ANN ARBOR, March 7, 1895.

Hon. C. G. Darling,
Mayor.

Dear Sir:—As an observer and being desirous of seeing your administration a success, I feel it my duty (as a member of the Municipal Club), to bring to your notice some facts relating to gambling dens within the city limits. I believe you do not know of such a place and think you ought to be posted regarding them. Sometimes I have thought your officers were knowing to the facts and certainly if they do not they are not fit to hold their positions.

There exists a full fledged gambling den where students and others congregate and gamble for money during Sundays and nights, also run a bar on the upper floor after hours and Sundays. I would suggest to you that you hire a private detective for a week and gather your information outside of your marshal as I cannot but believe that he knows of the facts. The good morals of the city demand that all such hell-holes be squelched and the offenders brought to justice.

Our students and young men of the city should be protected in some way from being robbed and ruined by that class of dens. I had thought to put an article in the papers but in justice to you, thought the best plan was to call your attention to it first.

Yours respectfully,

Observer.

The above is a sample letter of the anonymous letters the mayor occasionally gets. If the writer will go to the city marshal at any time that efficient officer stands ready to take the complainant through the rooms referred to and show him there is no bar or gambling lay-out. No students or young men are to be found there, and there is nothing to corroborate the statements. When people hear rumors going about it is always best to go to the mayor or marshal, tell them about it, and what seems out of place oftentimes may be explained. [Ed.]

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS.

They are Having an Enthusiastic Convention in the Disciples' Church.

The eighth annual convention of the Washtenaw County Sunday School association opened in the Disciples' church, at 7:30 Monday eve., with a devotional service conducted by Rev. J. W. Bradshaw, of the Congregational church. At eight o'clock the address of the evening was given by Rev. Dr. J. M. Patterson, of Westminster Presbyterian church, of Detroit. The subject of his address was "Soul Winning." He gave the Sunday school people a rousing and inspiring address. He pointed out the motives to soul winning, his central idea being to magnify Christ and minimize self. In almost all lines of work, he said, there was a selfish motive. In Sunday school work the selfish motive was lost. There was also the motive of reward. This at first would seem a selfish motive, but even Christ "looked forward to the recompense of his reward." Dr. Patterson's fine address seemed to leave the Sunday school people in exactly the proper spirit for a successful convention.

At 9:30 this morning the convention reconvened and for fifteen minutes a praise service was led by B. H. Kroeze. Rev. M. W. Fairfield, of Ypsilanti, the president of the association, then took charge of the program. Reports were listened to. Rev. H. M. Morey, of Ypsilanti, who has acted as county secretary for the year, made a report, showing the condition of things in the county. Reports from township presidents were in order, but only a few of them seemed to be present. Wm. Gray, of Chelsea, reported six schools in Sylvan township. In the half dozen schools were 585 pupils enrolled. Mr. Smith, of Salem, reported five schools in that township. Rev. Morey said that in Ypsilanti there were 1,689 children of school age and the Sunday school enrollment was 1,349. Besides this, he said that the Catholic schools must be taken into consideration.

Ann Arbor was reported as having 2,929 children of school age and 1,336 only are in the Sunday schools.

Rev. C. C. Marshall, of Saline, was on the program for a paper on "The Duties of the Teacher of the Class Room." He was reported to be somewhere in Kentucky.

D. F. Mertz, general secretary of the Students' Christian association, being next on the program, read a paper on "Sunday School Extension." He said that it was not his intention to evolve any new and impracticable Sunday school theory. He considered the question of reaching out in Sunday school work and of influencing a larger circle of children. He considered how to do this. The poor children, he argued, could not be gotten into the big church Sunday schools. They thought themselves too poor, or had not good enough clothes to wear. "They will not come to us; we must go to them. We must meet them on their own level. A school must be started in their own quarter. Our methods must be adapted to their wants. They cannot be gotten out simply by ringing the school bell. We must go straight to their homes and get them." Mr. Mertz then related some of his own interesting experience in Sunday school mission work to prove his ideas. The paper was very instructive along the line of mission work.

E. A. Hough, of Jackson, then began an address on "Consecration for Service." Consecration, he said, was the most important thing in the Sunday school work. There must be a being, a doing, and a suffering. In the first place there must be a new creation, then naturally there comes activity, and of necessity there will be suffering. Mr. Hough's address was an earnest, stirring appeal for more zealous efforts in Sunday school work.

Following his talk was discussion on the papers that had been read, and the question drawer ended the morning session. This afternoon's session began with a song service at two o'clock. Miss Jennie Moore, of Ypsilanti, was on the program for a paper on "Infant Class Teaching."

This evening at 7:30 there will be a song service and about 8 o'clock Rev. E. W. Ryan, of Ypsilanti will give an address which he calls "A Defense of the Boys."

REPORTERS WERE CORNERED

Fraternity Initiation in One of the Buildings on the Fair Grounds.

The Sigma Sigma high school fraternity held an initiation on the fair ground Friday night. It took place in the octagonal building on the south side of the ground, where one or two nocturnal "jamborees" have been held before. The Courier and two other press representatives went up to take in the exercises and were not accorded that degree of hospitality and welcome that is supposed to be the just due of the press. In fact their presence was looked upon as an intrusion.

The fraternity applied several days ago to the management of the fair ground, asking for permission to make use of the octagonal house last evening. They were refused. When asked why they wanted that particular building, no reply was made. But there is a shower bath in it. The management told them the water was turned off, but the boys said they knew how to turn it on. They said that one of the directors had given his consent to using the building, but upon inquiry he said he had given no such consent, and wanted the whole lot arrested for trespass if they entered the grounds. But upon looking the matter over it was decided that such a course would create a useless scandal. So to see that no harm was done, the newspapers thought it best to keep an eye on the situation. They did not get initiated, but came awfully near it.

The exercises of initiation are very systematic. When the members of the press arrived, there were two of the fraternity boys there to receive them. Instead, however, of giving the grip, they passed coldly by on the other side. This was about eight o'clock. Soon two more members came. Others put in an appearance, and finally two others came with the initiatory sacrifice. He was blindfolded. One of his escorts climbed the high fence, and the others pushed and threw the initiate over. He went down with a dull thud. Soon another bevy of members came, and by 9:30 the fun began. The press, instead of being given seats in front, were obliged to make provision for themselves.

The victim inside was evidently having a warm time. Apparently he was being made to run the gauntlet and every time he went through someone had a whack at him, while the whole lot bleated like a goat. First, there would come a vigorous slap, and immediately a subdued "Ouch!" The initiate was to all appearances in decolleté attire. The shower bath had not yet been brought into requisition. One of the press gang became too interested at this point in the program and unceremoniously lowered his dignity by attempting to crawl into the window. He broke a slat off and in an instant the war cry resounded inside and the press took to its heels. The whole fraternity took after three huzzies and defenceless newspaper men. The latter had two barred wire fences to get over. The reporter who had raised the alarm was behind, and when he came to the first fence his pursuers were close upon him. Shaking them off he went over the fence, leaving a generous portion of his left pantalon leg. The three reporters went over the second fence just in time to escape capture, and pursued by the rabble they ran into the office of the street car barns, followed by cries of "Kill the spies," "Break in the door," "We'll stay here all night."

They were armed with ferocious looking clubs, and fearful looks, indicative of a wild vengeance, wrinkled their brows. There were between twenty and thirty such brows wrinkled. The three frightened(?) newspaper men cowered in one corner of the office in expectation of an awful fate, perhaps that of being smoked out. They pleaded(?) with the street car men for protection. A small 2 x 4 Scotch terrier volunteered assistance, and the reporters grew gradually calmer. Finally someone went to the telephone and called for Marshal Banfield to come up and finish the initiatory program. Then a car got ready to start for the city and the three reporters walked tremblingly(?) out to the car. They were not even shot at.

At the end of the spur that leads to the barn, another car was met containing Marshal Banfield and part of his force. They proceeded to the fair ground and broke up the initiation, taking twenty names and an inventory of articles used in the course of the program, some of which would better not be mentioned in polite society.

Thus ended the first chapter. This story may be continued and it may not. The boys promised in all sincerity of purpose to see the newspaper people again.

F. E. Mills denies emphatically that he gave the boys a written permit to go on the fair grounds last night, or gave them keys to the building, as the boys are reported to have told Marshal Banfield and others that he did.

AGAIN CHASING A SHADOW.

The people of this nation go from one phantasy, one craze to another with alarming rapidity. They are quick, nervous, full of unrest, and when things do not go right they look about for a cause, and grasping hold of some plausible scheme, they do not wait to ascertain whether they have the right thing, or not, but rush frantically ahead bound to force their new theory into practice without inquiry as to results.

Once it was free banking, and the "wild cat" times resulted.

Once it was greenbacks. The craze seized a great many people and some of them are afflicted with it yet. They argued that the only thing needed was the government stamp to make money. The craze went on until the thinking portion of the people so afflicted began to think, and then the bubble burst.

The next craze was free trade. This went so far that it was partially made into law, and we are "enjoying" its results to-day. The people did not begin to think quick enough. They were sure their theories were right, and turned the government over into free trade hands. But when they came to feel the result of their crazy work how quick they turned back to the old, substantial party that had taken them through so many troublesome times in safety.

It will be just so now. The people are chasing the ignis fatuus of free silver. They can not wait to reason the matter, to think it over, but rush like a flock of sheep. They will go until they either jump over the precipice of disaster and tumble headlong into the chasm of ruin, or perhaps until they come to a fence, erected by the conservative masses, over which they cannot climb.

For the true ground in this, as well as in everything else, is the great middle ground between the two extremes. It is not free silver, with all that metal mined in the world dumped upon us, nor is it the single gold standard, but a combination of the two metals with favor to neither. That will be the solution of this question, and that is the position of the great republican party to-day.

When all the leading nations of the world agree to the free coinage of silver, then that scheme can be realized, and not until then. Anything else means business and commercial disaster for any nation that adopts it.

It is neither a theory or a condition that confronts us now but a predicament.

If partial free trade for two years has caused such wide spread disaster to the business of this nation, what would the complete thing do.

Chas. A. Dana, of the N. Y. Sun, has always been a plain spoken man, and has always set down on a man or scheme of whom or which he did not approve, severely. Now he has to answer to a charge of criminal libel, and the case looks serious against him.

The name of Senator J. R. McLaughlin, of Detroit, is mentioned for the position of Lieutenant governor, made vacant by the nomination of the present incumbent for congress, in the 3d district. The Senator certainly has the good wishes of old Washtenaw, and no better choice could be made.

Have you noticed of late how the Detroit Tribune is forging ahead as a newspaper. For years the Free Press took the lead, and many republicans were forced to take it in order to get the news. Now the table seems to be turned, and even the democrats are forced to take the Tribune to obtain the news.

When Senator Sherman said the people would give 120 for the gold bonds that President Cleveland secretly contracted to deliver to the foreign syndicate for 104.50, he was laughed at by some who didn't have sense enough to know what they were laughing about. Senator Sherman's statement is verified even before a single bond has been disosed of by the syndicate. It has refused offers which means that before the people can get the bonds they will have to pay more than 120.

It looks as though many of the Germans would desert the g. o. p. if the present legislature should submit a prohibition amendment to the vote of the people. This would be a blow to the machine, and for that reason any discussion as to the right or wrong of the matter is out of order and the question will be dropped.—Detroit Free Press. Now what the people would like to know, is the position of the Free Press and the democratic party on the question. Do they favor submitting the question?

The wife of President Dole, of Hawaii in interceding with her husband in behalf of ex-Queen Liliuokalani shows herself to be an enlightened and Christian woman. Her attitude is much in contrast with that of the semi-savage friend of Mr. Cleveland who wished to make it a condition to her restoration that she should be permitted to chop off the head of this woman's husband, together with the heads of such of his friends as she might elect. The chances are that Mrs. Dole herself would have been led to the chopping block.

Miss Leiter, of Chicago, is also to marry the son of a titled foreigner, and a lot more of our hard earned money will flow over the ocean. The Leiter money came in by way of the yard stick, but its outgoing will be measured by the forty-foot pole. There are rich girls in Europe, who, outside of their wealth, are worth the wooing. It would seem to be the duty of our patriotic young men to see that the wedding dowry does not always sail from the same side of the ocean. Just now the balance of trade in this line is much against us.

We sincerely hope that the bill recently introduced in the state legislature relative to the sale of patent and proprietary medicines, will pass. There should be some judicious regulation to prevent injurious nostrums being palmed off upon innocent people. The country is flooded with patent and non-patent stuff which does much injury and but little good. Thousands of dollars are spent by people of this state that ought to be saved.—Manchester Enterprise. That's right. The patent medicines are often composed of narcotics or liquors, and instead of curing diseases, lead people to form bad habits and cause much suffering.

Some of the French savants claim that the year 1895 will be a remarkable one, both from the astronomical and religious point of view. On Good Friday next (April 12), the heavenly bodies which gravitate round the sun will be in exactly the same position they occupied in the firmament the day Christ died on the cross. It will be the first time that such a thing has occurred since that great day, just 1862 years ago. That was the thirty-third year of the Christian era, which dates from the birth of Jesus Christ. At 4:02 in the morning, Paris time (about 11:20 p. m. on April 11, New York time), the moon will pass before Virgins (Spica) and hide that constellation for more than an hour.

The democrats are not good at providing a revenue, but they are master hands at spending more than they can get.

Cleveland can serve out the rest of his term with the comforting reflection that he cannot be snubbed any more by a democratic congress.

The south now has four of the cabinet offices, and will thus be compelled to bear her proper share of responsibility for the follies and mistakes of the Administration.

The cotton crop of Texas is the largest that has ever been produced, but at the same time the price is the lowest that has ever been known. It seems to be impossible to carry out the idea of reducing the acreage; and the next best thing, obviously, is to establish local manufactures and vote for the protection policy.

The democratic senatorial convention as its session in this city, deliberately kicked out of the democratic party all its members who believe in honest money, or in other words who do not believe in the free silver craze. Will these democrats lick the head that smites them, or will they step out after being kicked out?

The Railway Age says 38 roads were placed in the hands of receivers in 1894, involving mileage 7,025 bonds $196,547,000, stock $199,144,000, total $395,791,000 against 74 roads in 1893, with 29,340 miles and total securities of $1,781,046,000. In 1894, 42 roads were sold, representing 5,643 miles, $164,216,000 in bonds, $154,783,000 stocks, or a total of $319,999,999. The number was exceeded only four times in twenty years, mileage equaled only once and the securities involved were more than any year except 1866 and 1867.

The Spaniards are evidently getting somewhat scared. The news comes from Madrid that a bill to give Cuba a measure of home rule is likely to pass is an acknowledgement that the situation in the colony requires something more than military repression. The Cubans have been far more patient under heavy taxation than Americans were in the colonial period. A drain to Spain of over $20,000,000 a year has exhausted Cuba, and the policy of shooting or imprisoning the inhabitants will not lessen their discontent nor restore prosperity.

The New York Sun says: Now that so much of the West has ceased to be distinctly new country, and presents in general the social and business conditions of the Eastern States, the idea of migration thither offers fewer attractions to young men in New England, and they show an increasing tendency to try their fortunes at home. This is especially noticeable in Maine, where trade and agriculture are stimulated by markets created by visitors drawn thither by hunting and fishing and its summer resorts. It is estimated, on official authority, that the population of Maine is now 722,000, a gain of 71,000 in four years, and the remaining years of the decade promise to show even more rapid increase.

TO ENTERTAIN LEGISLATORS.

What the Program Will be During Their Presence in Ann Arbor.

The legislature will certainly have a good time during their visit to the University this week. The program, although not definitely arranged will be about as follows. Thursday, upon the arrival of the train in the evening, the whole body will be taken in carriages from the Michigan Central depot to Granger's academy, where supper will be served. In the evening there will be grand concert in University hall, in which the Choral Union and the glee and banjo clubs will participate and Prof. Stanley will play on the organ. Friday morning will be spent in visiting the laboratories and various buildings. At 11 o'clock all the students will gather in University hall, together with the legislature and faculty, where speeches will be made. The remainder of the day, or until train time, will be spent in looking over the University.

Democratic Senatorial Convention.

The democratic senatorial convention for this district, to nominate a candidate to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator John W. Watts, of Jackson, assembled in the supervisor's room of the court house, at noon last Thursday.

Elbert Kirkby, of Jackson, was made chairman, and Sid W. Millard, of Ann Arbor, was made secretary. An adjournment was had until 1:30 o'clock p. m. When the convention reassembled the temporary officers were made permanent, and the convention then got down to business.

On motion of M. T. Woodruff, the secretary was instructed to cast a ballot for John A. MacDougall, of Superior, the gentleman selected by the Washtenaw caucus.

That gentleman being called upon made a very sensible speech, touching no vital question of the day, but promising, if elected, to do his level best to do nothing that would cast any discredit upon the democratic party or any citizen of the state. He deemed the most efficient legislator the one who studies and examines the bills, and determines his vote thereon from the standpoint of common sense rather than politics.

Then came a bomb. M. T. Woodruff, as usual, fired it off. After the convention had refused to appoint a committee on resolutions, he offered a resolution approving of the state ticket nominated at Saginaw, and readopting the platform adopted by the state convention.

This brought John V. Sheehan of this city on his feet at once. He had come there hoping that the convention would take no false step. There were 300 democrats in this county, good, reliable democrats, who could not and would not vote for the nominee of this convention if he was forced to stand upon the platform adopted by the state convention. He had come to the convention as a democrat in hopes that no such lunatic resolution would be offered.

A delegate from Jackson talked back, and Dr. McLachlan, of York, scored Mr. Sheehan in a truly Shakesperian manner. He did not believe that the 300 democrats belonging to Mr. Sheehan's wing, represented all the honesty and all the intelligence of the party. The party had followed the lead of those fellows and been defeated; they had followed their lead in voting for Grover Cleveland when they didn't want to, and now he believed in the 300 following the lead of other people awhile.

Woodruff came to the rescue of his resolution and believed that the sooner the sheep were separated from the goats the better.

Capt. Manly, though not a member of the convention, scored Mr. Sheehan, and told about how once down in the 5th ward John had started his mouth going and went off and left it.

Then Philip Duffy in a calm and pleasant way tried to pour oil upon the troubled waters, and begged the convention to take no action, but his smooth and pleasant words were hardly finished when Michael J. Martin jumped to his feet and stirred them all up again. He thought the bondholders and money men ought to get out of the party if they wanted to.

And it ended by the chairman declaring the resolution carried when in reality the vote was just about even.

Mr. MacDougall could not have been very happy over the prospect for harmony in his party.

Ald. Bodmer's Funeral.

The Methodist church was crowded Sunday afternoon during the hour of the funeral of the late Pierson L. Bodmer. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. M. Coburn. He read a biography of the deceased and commented upon his life and what he had accomplished in the four years of his residence here. The remains were placed in the vault in Forest Hill cemetery.

The Maccabees were in attendance at the funeral, about seventy-five of them going in a body. The common council also attended together, their floral offering being very beautiful. It consisted of an arch of roses with the word "Council" worked in blue flowers in the base. The pallbearers were Messrs. C. H. Worden, W. W. Whedon, W. J. Booth, F. H. Belsler, A. J. Kitson and T. J. Keech.

SCRATCHED 3 YEARS

Suffered, Scratched, and Bled. Doctors No Relief. Cured by Two Sets Cuticura Remedies.

I wish to express my thanks for the benefit I have derived from using CUTICURA REMEDIES. Nothing like them was ever manufactured.

For three years I have suffered with a sore head. I would break out all over my head with pimples which would form a watery matter, and I would have to scratch until I would bleed. After doctoring with two doctors for three years, more or less, I finally made up my mind to try your CUTICURA REMEDIES with result entirely satisfactory to me. After using two sets of CUTICURA REMEDIES, I am entirely cured. I have recommended your remedies to several persons, and they all tell me they use No. 1. Our druggist is doing a nice business with CUTICURA REMEDIES, since my cure. I have given him the privilege of using my name as proof of their efficiency. I enclose my portrait.

C. M. STONE, 141 State St., Chicago, Ill.

My wife has been troubled with the salt rheum for four years. During this time doctors of Wisconsin, Illinois, and the most eminent doctors of Chicago, failed to give relief. I bought the CUTICURA REMEDIES, and she used only one box of CUTICURA SOAP, and half a bottle of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and these have cured my wife completely.

Income Tax Returns.

G. W. Wilson, acting commissioner of internal revenue, has prepared and sent out to collectors the following explanation of changes made in the provisions of the income tax law:

"By joint resolution of congress, approved February 21, 1895, the time within which income tax returns for the year 1894, may be legally made has been extended from the first Monday in March, to April 15, 1895. Other provisions of the income tax law have been modified or construed by said resolution which is copied in full for your guidance, as follows:

"Joint Resolution—Extending from March 1, 1895, to April 15, the time for making returns of income for the year 1894, and for other purposes.

"Resolved, by the senate and house that the time fixed by existing law for the rendering of income returns, to wit: 'On or before the first Monday of March, in every year' (Section 35, Act of August 28, 1894, and Section 3,173, revised statutes, as amended by Section 34 of that Act) is hereby extended, with reference only to returns of income for the year 1894, so that it shall be lawful to make such returns for that year April 15, 1895.

"Resolved, That in computing incomes under said act the amount necessarily paid for fire insurance premiums and for ordinary repairs shall be deducted.

"Resolved, That in computing incomes under said act, the amounts received as dividends upon the stock of any corporation, company or association shall not be included in case such dividends are also liable to the tax of the two per centum upon the net profits of said corporation, company or association, although such tax may not have been actually paid by said corporation, company or association at the time of making returns by the person, corporation or association receiving such dividends and returns or reports of the names and salaries of employees, unless called for by the collector, in order to verify the returns of employees."

Why February Is Short.

"I suppose you know how the month of February happened to have but twenty-eight days?" said the snake editor to the horse editor.

"Yes, I do," was the reply. "When Julius Caesar revised the calendar he named a month after himself, July. The following month was left with its old name, Sextillis, or sixth month, for that was its number in the Roman calendar. When Augustus became emperor he thought he had as good a right to have a month named after him as Julius had, so he renamed Sextillis and called it August. At that time Sextillis had but thirty days while July had thirty-one. Augustus thought his month should have as many days as Julius', and one was taken from poor little February to accomplish the object."

"I always supposed that something of the sort happened, but my idea was that Augustus had been working so hard one February that he took a day off, and it never was replaced."—Pittsburg Chronicle - Telegraph.

True Blood Purifier
Prominently
In the Public Eye
Today and that One Is
Hood's Sarsaparilla

These letters tell of Wonderful Cures by Purified Blood.

The world has never seen such marvellous cures accomplished by any medicine but Hood's Sarsaparilla. The secret of its success is that it is the best blood purifier ever produced. It is king over all torments of scrofula, salt rheum and all other blood diseases.

It is the only medicine of which can be said: IT CURES by making pure, rich red blood. Read these letters:

Saved Her Sight

Another Wonder Performed by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"My little girl Hazel is now four years old. Two years ago she had the grip. After recovery her eyes grew inflamed and suppurated. For over seven months she had to have her eyes bandaged and stay in a dark room. The family doctor and an oculist did everything possible. She did not improve and even grew worse. At last after six months he gave us the discouraging opinion that the corner of one eye was destroyed.

And Sight Entirely Gone. That it was doubtful if she would ever be able to see any with the other, as the sight was rapidly being destroyed in that also.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Do not be induced to buy any other. Insist upon having Hood's Sarsaparilla.

We thought her doomed to permanent blindness. She suffered intense pain and kept her head buried in the pillows most of the time. If light was admitted to the room she would cry as if burned with a hot iron. As she was badly run down we thought before continuing the treatment we would try to build up her system and renew her strength. We began giving her Hood's Sarsaparilla. She began to

and by the time she had finished taking the first bottle we were able to remove the bandages and found that she could bear the light and that the sight was returning, much to our delight. She took several bottles and then was as well as ever. It is now a year since, and her eyes

Are Permanently Cured.

She can see perfectly, has had no signs of any further trouble and is in every respect perfectly healthy. We have great faith in Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. H. BUTTERFIELD, 1496 Hastings St., Detroit, Mich.

Salt Rheum Cured.

"Three winters ago salt rheum broke out on my hands and became very troublesome, making large sores. I saw several doctors and tried various remedies, but all failed to afford much relief. A few months ago I commenced taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and the trouble has entirely disappeared." Mrs. H. W. BUSHNELL, Lyon Brook, Oxford, New York.

Blood Poison.

"I became poisoned with ivy. It would break out on me, spring and fall. I had doctors but was not relieved. It would break out into sores and pimples on me and form scabs. If it had not been for a neighbor recommending Hood's Sarsaparilla to me I do not think I would be alive day. I used two bottles just fall and three to his spring and it has cured me." FRANCIS A. PAYETTE, Mishawaka, Ind.

A Baby Boy Cured.

"I have used several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla for my little boy, three years of age, who has been troubled with eczema very badly. It has entirely cured him, therefore I recommend it to all mothers who have children suffering from eczema." Mrs. PETER A. JOHNSON, Cranbury Station, New Jersey.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours truly, C. W. HORNBICK.

AFTERNOONS WITH GREAT MEN.

Dr. Coburn Gave an Interesting Lecture on Oliver Wendell Holmes and Wendell Phillips.

A good-sized audience greeted Dr. Camden M. Coburn at the M. E. church last Friday eve. Dr. Coburn spoke on "Afternoons with Great Men."

He began by saying: "If one cannot be great, the next best thing is to know some one who is. If one cannot be Johnson, there is some satisfaction in sitting awhile in Boswell's chair. Tonight I shall sit for an hour in Boswell's chair and chat with you concerning three great men with whom I have been permitted to spend several afternoons.

"We have all spent afternoons with great farmers, great tradesmen, great heroes. I never weary of repeating that true greatness often walks the streets of our town, yes, and sits by our own firesides, and we are not always great enough ourselves to know it. Vast Napoleonic brains are beating all about us, fighting successful battles against poverty between the plough tails or behind the counter. Mute, inglorious Miltons are our next door neighbors, whose souls are full of music, but whose lips have never learned to sing."

After this introduction, and after speaking for a short time concerning his visit to John Greenleaf Whittier, Dr. Coburn declared that two distinct types of the highest New England culture and worth were represented in Oliver Wendell Holmes and Wendell Phillips. Oliver Wendell Holmes was the representative wit and literary man of New England, who never forgot that very rich blood flowed in his veins. He was a self-appointed autocrat of every polite gathering—in Boston, and filled the place so charmingly that no one disputed the right. Wendell Phillips was a representative orator and reformer, an austere by birth, but reborn a republican, one of the stiffest sort. He gave up a birthright of ease and luxury and honor to devote his unparalleled gifts to the cause of a race who could not speak for themselves because the gag of the slave driver was between their teeth.

The next speaker in the Epworth League Lecture course will be Dr. S. A. Steele, of Nashville, Tenn., on March 23. Dr. Steele's subject will be "Backbone."

It's a Grand Success.

The fact has been demonstrated by the thousands of testimonials the Mayers Drug Company, of Oakland, Md., has received since it has sent its famous Mayers Magnetic Catarrh Cure out to the sufferers of catarrh. No medicine has received such an endorsement from the people in so short a time as it did. The makers sell the medicine on business principles, and a patient is not requested to buy the medicine by the dozen to get a cure. The Mayers Magnetic Catarrh Cure sells for $1.00 per bottle, one bottle to last for a three months treatment. 3 bottles is the highest record ever required to complete a cure. General catarrh one bottle is guaranteed. No cure no pay.

This is an unequalled offer and if you are a sufferer from catarrh get a bottle from your druggist, if no benefit derived costs you nothing. A prominent R. R. conductor speaks:

CUMBERLAND, Md., April 29th, 1893. To The Mayers Drug Co., Gentlemen—Yours to hand, in reply will say that I have the highest regard for your Catarrh Remedy, my trouble is in a chronic form and expect to use more than one bottle. I used one bottle which removed the trouble from the head in good shape and am on the second bottle for throat trouble. If I could succeed in the latter as I did in the former I shall write you again in the near future. Hoping it will do for the suffering humanity what it did for me, I remain Yours truly, G. J. SCHMUTZ.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.

You've heard of the fellow that's lost his hold Who lives in our town? It's the same old story so often told—Keep him down, keep him down.
There is the man on the sea of finance Who's now about to drown, He's made his own music so now he must drown—Keep him down, keep him down.
The wicked who've slipped from the paths of the true, You must look at and frown, They cut their own pathway—its nothing to frown—Hound them down, hound them down. —Atlanta Journal.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.

What is Being Done by the Association and its Needs.

Last evening occurred the regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A., at which reports were received of the work done by the various departments and committees of the organization.

General Secretary Hull reported that seventy names had been added to the association roll since Dec. 1st, about one-third of whom had taken out tickets and become active members.

The regular average attendance at the men's meeting during the past month was 86, at Thursday evening meetings 24, at training class 4, bible class 8. There had been three conversions. The average number in attendance upon reception and reading room 30. At the last monthly meeting of the association 14 associate and 17 active members were admitted.

The educational department of the work reported an average attendance upon the class in German of 20, the class of free hand drawing 5, penmanship and bookkeeping 14, shorthand 6.

We submit to our good citizens if that is not a good record. Nothing phenomenal about it to be sure, but there are over forty young men who are educating themselves evenings, who do not find it possible to do so daytimes with the regular public school pupils. They are being helped to knowledge, to better ways and a better life, to become good citizens and fill places of trust and honor perhaps in the future.

The work done by the Y. M. C. A. is work that can not be measured by dollars and cents, yet it takes dollars and cents to continue it, and our association here is hampered for the want of money. It makes a dollar go a long way, and refuses to do anything it can not pay for. It will never go down under a cloud of debt as such institutions some times do, but when funds are not forthcoming it curtails its work and cuts its garments according to its cloth. It needs your help, it needs everybody's help who have in their hearts a love for their brothers. Every penny given is used for the benefit of the whole community. Not a person in it but is benefited by the work done.

To be sure these are hard times, it is not easy to get hold of money, yet there is a very large class of people here in Ann Arbor who can give and give liberally for this work, and we believe when they see and realize what is being accomplished they will give.

The directors will make an effort this week to secure sufficient funds to keep the association work running for the year on its present foundation. Treat them kindly and give them all the encouragement possible, both financially and morally.

NATIONAL TEACHERS' CONVENTION.

Supt. Perry Announces Some of the Arrangements Made for Michigan Teachers.

Supt. W. S. Perry, of the high school, who is state manager of the interests of Michigan teachers in the National Teachers' association convention, to be held in Denver during the second week of July, has nearly completed arrangements for the transportation and care of Michigan teachers. His associates on the committee are Superintendent of Public Instruction H. R. Pattengill, of Lansing, and Principal Gleason, of Grand Rapids high school. Mr. Perry says that Michigan teachers will travel over the Northwestern and Union Pacific railroads in a body, the company being supplied with palace cars, and being given one half the prevailing rates of the time. Michigan teachers will leave on Saturday, July 6. Arrangements have been made for Michigan headquarters at Denver in Hotel Broadway. It is probable, too, that a western excursion will be taken, after the convention, the Rio Grande and Northern railroad having offered very cheap rates to Utah, around the Circle and to Pike's Peak.

The alleged picture of the unfortunate young man, A. E. Keith in last night's Evening News, was a misrepresentation that should not have been allowed. The fact is there is no picture of Mr. Keith in existence, he having had no photographs taken since he was a young lad. Under the circumstances the publishing of these pictures is in extremely bad taste, even if the portraits given were from the originals, which in the case of the young man certainly was not.

The ladies' edition of the Ann Arbor Courier, excellent otherwise, was spoiled by the foolish fad of printing it in red and blue. In more than forty years of experience in the printing business we have never found a colored ink that would distribute evenly and work clearly in newspaper letter press. For job work they can be handled, that is what they are designed for. Fine black ink, and careful press work, would have made the Courier far more pleasant to the reader, and just as patriotic.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

Assessor O'Hearn has been making some estimates, and has ascertained that if the new tax law now before the legislature passes, it will take a cool million dollars from off the tax rolls of this city, and raise the rate from $1.40 to about $2.90 on $1000. That is, if a man pays $14 taxes now on $1,000 assessment, he will have to pay $29 on the same property if this new law passes. It will be a nice thing for capitalists who have their money in mortgages, stocks, bonds, etc., but pretty tough on the people who own houses and taxable property.

Spring is the time of year when everyone has a house cleaning streak and fixing up propensity. It caught Mr. A. J. Sawyer at his office the other day, and he had some new book cases made running the entire length of the south side of his office. Each shelf contains 180 books and there are six shelves, and not a vacant place. Then there are some 200 other books in other cases, and about 500 more vols. at his home, making a total of 1,700 vols., or thereabouts. Some of them are very valuable, Parker's Criminal Reports are probably in no other private library in the city. Then he has the American and English Railroad Cases, several vols., all of the New York Reports including the entire system, from the early term reports of 1790, to the latest, constituting over 500 vols. He also has the Maine Reports and the Michigan Reports all complete, with a list of other works that no one on earth but a lawyer could keep track of any way. And what is peculiar about his books is the fact that they show that they are used, in fact many of them really need to go to a bindery and be repaired. This, no doubt accounts for the gentleman's success in his profession. When he has a case he goes to the bottom of it, and is prepared before he goes to the court room to fight until the last ditch is reached.

They are guaranteed to cure or your money refunded. A. E. Mumery, your druggist, will tell you there are none half so good. Price reduced to 25 cents per box.

The Sackett-Dancer case that had called them there was settled by the litigants and they were denied the exquisite and thrilling pleasure of listening to whatever nastiness might be brought in evidence.

Auditor-General Turner has submitted to the legislature a statement showing the names and salaries of all persons on the pay roll of the state University at Ann Arbor. Their number is 241 and the total pay roll for 1894 was $256,944.54.—Jackson Citizen.

There's no use of holding an election in Ann Arbor this spring. The Register has already declared who will be the next mayor and clerk. Better install them at once, and divide the expenses of election among the newspapers of that city. It would save a good deal of worry, too.—Adrian Press.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Granger will give a most artistic and attractive production of "Cinderella," at the opera house some time in May. Special scenery and handsome costumes coupled with the fact that the little people who will take part are among the very cleverest in the city, insure an entertainment worthy of good patronage.

Rev. Dr. Cobern began a series of sermons Sunday eve., the general subject of which is: "If I Had My Life to Live Over Again." His remarks were based on answers to questions sent out some time ago, asking what changes the respondents would make if they had their lives to live over again. Dr. Cobern said that the answers were all well-written and gave food for thought, even to the man who answered that he would drink no beer; only whisky; would smoke only cigarettes, would attend dancing school and church socials, and gave these three rules of life: Don't bother other folks; ask no questions, and mind your own business. The first question was in regard to change in companionships. Some said they would make no changes. Nearly all said they would drop evil companions and keep good ones. Most of them said they would avoid smoking and drinking.

"A little farm well filled, A little cedar well filled, A little wife well willed."

What could you wish a man better than that? The last is not the least by any means, but how can a wife be well willed if she be the victim of those distressing maladies that make her life a burden? Let her take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and cure all painful irregularities, uterine disorders, inflammation and ulceration, prolapsus and kindred weaknesses. It is a boon and a blessing to women. Thousands are in the bloom of health through using it, when otherwise they would be under the soil. Are you a sufferer? Use it, or some day we may read—

The SIMPLETONS may be expected to arouse enthusiasm not inferior in degree to that which has marked Trilby—the most successful story of the year. Another leading feature will be the PERSONAL RECOLLECTIONS OF JOAN OF ARC, by the Sieur Louis de Conte, Her Page and Secretary, under which guise the most popular of living American magazine writers will present the story of the Maid of Orleans, in the January number. Also appear a profusely illustrated paper on CHARLESTON AND THE CAROLINAS, the first of series of Southern Papers.

Harper's Weekly.

IN 1895.

HARPER'S WEEKLY is a pictorial history of the times. It presents every important event promptly, accurately and exhaustively in illustration and descriptive text of the highest order.

In the manner in which, during 1894, it has treated the Chicago Railway Strikes and the China-Japanese War, and the amount of light it was able to throw on Korea, the important country was directed to its little-known country, are examples of its almost boundless resources. JULIAN RALPH, the distinguished writer and correspondent, has been sent to the seat of war, and there joined by C. D. WELDON, the well known American artist, and for many years resident in Japan, who has been engaged to co-operate with Mr. RALPH in sending to HARPER'S WEEKLY exclusive information and illustration.

During 1895 every vital question will be discussed with vigor and without prejudice in the editorial columns, and also in special articles by the ablest authorities in each department. Portraits of the men and women who are making history, and powerful and apt caricatures of public characters will continue to be characteristic features. "This Busy World, with its keen and kindly comment on the lesser doings of the day, will remain a regular department."

FICTION. There will be two powerful serials, both handsomely illustrated—The Red Cuckoo, a stirring romance of olden days by STANLEY J. WEYMAN, and a novel of New York, entitled The God of His Father, by BRADNER MATTHEWS—several novellas, and many short stories by popular writers.

THE T. A. A. & N. M. R. R.

How the Ashleys are Roasted by the Reorganization Committee.

The Daily Financial News, of New York City, of a recent date has a four column article on the situation of the Ann Arbor Road, the greater portion of the article being an affidavit made by one Allen B. Smart, of that city, setting forth many smart things that the Ashley management of the road is charged with doing.

It seems that a General Reorganization Committee of the T. A. A. & N. M. R. R. was appointed some time ago, to look into the affairs of the corporation. Mr. Smart was an attorney, was employed to do the work, and his report is an exhaustive one, setting forth many transactions, which if true, will reflect seriously upon the Ashley management.

The News says editorially: "The evidence which the accountants have obtained from their examination of the books, and as presented by the counsel of the stockholders, certainly can not now be characterized as 'too shadowy and indefinite,' as the grossest kinds of irregularities by the former officers of the Ann Arbor road have been discovered, and are presented in affidavits by the accountants, which accompany the petition. It will be remembered that in the plan of reorganization promulgated by the stockholders' committee it was declared that the stock was absolutely worthless and contributed nothing to the cash resources of the company. The accountants' report, however, shows that such a statement is without foundation, and if the road had been honestly conducted the stock would now be on a dividend basis and selling in the neighborhood of par. Whether the stockholders' committee succeed or not is a matter that the future alone can determine; at any rate, the stockholders owe their committee a debt of gratitude for what they have already unearthed, and their investigations can not help but benefit the holders of securities in all American railroads, as it will tend to bring about better management and wake up security holders from the apathetic condition in which they have been for so many years."

It is also claimed that the amount of bonds issued far exceeds the limit per mile, and that some fifty bonds are entirely unaccounted for. This is one side of the story. The Ashley management, which is still practically in control of the road, no doubt has another side.

Weather for March and April.

April 1, 3—Fair and warmer. (Ice will probably go out of river about now.) 4, 5—Cold rain; 6, 7—Changeable, some rain; 8, 9—Fair and warmer; 10, 12—Rain and some snow; 13, 14—Changeable; 15—Warmer and fair; 16, 17—Clear and warmer; 18, 19—Snow and rain; 20, 21—Colder and snow; 22, 23—Fair and warmer; 24, 26—Rain, snow; 27, 28—Fair; 29—Snow storm; 30—Warmer with snow.

Prof. Sattler adds as a footnote: "The weather as here given may be considered entirely reliable, as Prof. Sattler's past predictions have been verified in every instance, and at the present time negotiations are in progress from a leading European nation to secure the professor's services."

TO BE HEEDED NOW.

IN THE SPRING YOU ARE ALWAYS RUN DOWN.

This Will Tell You Just What to Do For Yourself.

And Just Why You Should Follow Exactly This Plan.

In the spring everybody needs to think about taking a spring medicine. Not only is this a common practice, but a very necessary and healthful one. It is a fact which physicians acknowledge and the people recognize generally, that a spring tonic taken during the months of March, April and May is more conducive to the restoration of health, in cases of those who are sick, than any other course of treatment that could possibly be adopted.

It is further understood by everybody that even for those who call themselves well, it is very important at this season of the year, if they would maintain good health and vigor, to take a spring remedy to strengthen and invigorate the nerves, tone up the action of all the organs, and thus, by creating a healthy condition of the nerves, blood, stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, assist nature in the efforts she always makes in the spring to cleanse, purify and invigorate the system.

In the spring there are a great many and important changes going on in the body. Perfect health cannot be maintained while the system is clogged and the organs sluggish, and the person has a languid and weakened feeling, with more or less nervousness and debility.

Now in regard to what you should take. The best spring medicine, indorsed and recommended by physicians, druggists and the people, is Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. In proof of this, thousands of testimonials are being constantly published in the papers. The following is from Mrs. Etta Sumner, of Goodells, Mich.: "I have been afflicted," she says, "with nervous debility for a year. My nerves were completely prostrated, and I suffered at the slightest excitement, with great headache. At times I was entirely overcome by this disease. I would stay in the house alone, and despise the sight of my own people. My entire nervous system was shattered, and my life was a wretched and a burden to me. I was advised to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and while on the first bottle, began to recover. My friends were very much surprised."

MRS. ETTA SUMNER.

"Before I had finished the second bottle I could sleep with a quiet mind, and eat with a steady and refreshing appetite. I have taken three bottles and am entirely cured of all my sufferings. I have found Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to be exactly what it is represented to be."

"I cannot speak half highly enough of it. I cheerfully and earnestly recommend it to everyone afflicted with disease. What gives people absolute confidence in it, is its being the discovery of one of our best known and most successful physicians."

No remedy in the world is so sure to bring back bloom and color to the wan and faded cheeks, the brilliancy to the hollow and haggard eyes, the lightness and elasticity to the weak and weary steps, the strength and vitality to the unstrung shattered and worn-out nerves. It is, indeed, the greatest of all spring medicines, for it makes the sick well and strong."

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

SECRETARY'S REPORT.

The swiftly passing months again bring us to the time when we must review the work of a year. The record of visits made and received and of families assisted indicate less done than during the preceding twelve months; but this, we feel sure, is not due to diminished activity on the part of the workers in the Union, but rather to the fact that there have been less suffering and need, and therefore fewer appeals for help.

This is, of course, a cause for rejoicing. One hundred and ninety-one visits have been made by the ward visitors and 103 received by them. The number of visits made last year was almost the same, namely 192, but there were 160 received. Between 30 and 40 families have been assisted, while last year there were at least 50. The average attendance at the eight monthly meetings held has been 10, a gain of 2 upon recent years. We have of late missed the presence of some who formerly were most faithful in attendance upon the meetings. Mrs. Steele and Mrs. Butts, our vice-presidents, and long most valuable workers, during the greater part of the year have been prevented by physical infirmities from meeting with us. Several new members have joined us, and through their activity the work in the various wards is energetically carried on.

Second-hand clothing, valued at $75, has been distributed, and also a large amount of new clothing, the value of which has not been estimated. These new garments were placed at our disposal by the recently organized Needlework Guild of the city, which has thus proved of great service to the Union, and we take pleasure in acknowledging our indebtedness to it. In the Sewing School, new garments valued at $7.50 have been distributed.

Fewer donations than last year have been made to us, but at that time it was generally felt that there was great need, and there was a strong and universal desire to meet it, though our receipts during the past twelve months have been less, we yet have been able to meet the demands made upon us, and just when the treasury was becoming somewhat alarmingly low, a generous gift from President Angell replenished it and indebted for gifts of money also, to Judge Cooley, Mrs. Angell, Mrs. R. A. Beal and Mrs. Calkins, and as usual the Thanksgiving offering of the churches was given to us for distribution. Christmas gifts consisting chiefly of provisions, were received from the Congregational and Methodist Sunday Schools, and at Thanksgiving time we were enabled to send dinners to 51 families.

As heretofore food and clothes have been given when needed; medicine and attendance have been provided for the sick, rent and taxes have been paid and in some cases money has been spent for the purchase of articles which should enable poor people to earn something for themselves as peddlers. So far as possible, we wish to help the needy to help themselves, and to glad to use our resources to tide over hard places, rather than to support those who must always be maintained by charity, and who often would be best cared for at the county house. Our work varies but little from year to year, and there must therefore be a sameness in the yearly review.

In closing this report we wish, as in preceding years, to express our thanks to the various newspapers of the city for their continued courtesy in printing all our notices without charge. We also thank all who in any way by their interest and their gifts, enable us to relieve the wants of the destitute.

MARY W. DOOGE.
