COUNTY AND VICINITY.

Frederick C. Barnham, of Milan, has been granted an original pension.

Isaac B. Hall, of Manchester, has been granted an original pension.

Samuel Osborn, of the Sharon schools, is attending the summer school.

The vested choir of St. Luke's Ypsilanti, will go in camp at Huronia Beach July 23d.

German-American Day will be observed by the Germans of Washtenaw county in Ypsilanti, on Thursday, August 22.

The commissioner appointed to assert the damages sustained by Fred Hutzell by the burning of his wheat field a few days since, allowed him $170 therefore. This will be paid by the T. & A. A. R. R.

Robert Schmid, aged 29 years, died at the home of his father John C. Schmid of Pittsfield, on Tuesday, July 9th, of consumption.

A man riding through town on a load of hay is counted the wealthiest man in sight and expects the common herd to lift their hats as he drives by.

Richard R. Putnam, son of Prof. Putnam, is home from Ann Arbor. He will teach chemistry in Ypsilanti state normal next year.—Kalamazoo Gazette.

A wagon having wide tire wheels can carry one-third to one-half more weight than narrow tire, and be a benefit to the road it travels instead of a detriment, and yet the people cling to the narrow tires because they are a trifle cheaper.

Eliza B. Harper, wife of J. C. Harper, of Milan, Mich., died Friday, July 12th, of cancer and other affections, aged 58 years. The remains arrived here on the T. & A. A. at 4:15, and were interred in Forest Hill cemetery.

The dwelling house and ice house at the pulp mills owned by the Cornwell Co., just above Dexter on the Huron river, burned to the ground last Thursday. Insured in the Washtenaw Mutual, $280 on dwelling and $50 on ice house, which was about two-thirds of value.

A facetious dealer says: "Hay is selling this week for 1 3/4 cents per pound. Next week it will probably be sold by the quart, and just when it will get to the pint where it will be tied up in dozen bunches and sold three for a quarter depends on the time when every horse owner gives the animal away."

The Ann Arbor Courier wants the natural and artistic beauties of the Central Railway depot gardens in this city, transplanted at the county seat.—Ypsilanti Commercial. You're another. We do not covet any of Ypsilanti's beauty, but would like to have the Central's grounds here made to correspond with the Central's passenger station.

A lady in whose housekeeping experience we have great confidence, says that she has found in powdered cloves an effective agent for putting the carpet bug to rout. There is no copyright on this bit of information, and we hope our lady readers will give it a trial on the fuzzy beast who is just now getting in his most destructive depredations.—Ypsilanti-an.

Some of the old soldiers will remember Capt. Peter Kilmer, of the 28th Inf. He was here a few hours Monday visiting old comrades, being on his way from Jackson to Louisville, Ky., on foot. He started out without a cent and is to walk all the way and beg his living, arriving there by the first of September.—Manchester Enterprise. Isn't this begging one's way from somewhere to somewhere or from nowhere to somewhere, getting to be altogether too much of a fad? In other words, aren't there enough tramps in the country without respectable people going into the business?

Wm. K. Childs has secured an increase of pension for Eugene Donovan, of South Lyon.

The plum orchard is always benefited by the fowls having the run of it. It lessens the damage from curculio.

Newspaper men always know more than they write; they always yield more than they expose. The man who trusts a newspaper may rely upon the fact that he will be treated fairly. It is the hypocrite that the newspapers are after. No manly man was ever hurt by a newspaper; and no man is quicker to see the manner of man one is than the newspaper man who studies men and their actions day unto day.—Livingston Democrat.

The old, fossilized and long since discarded method of working out road tax by plowing up the surface soil and scraping it into the center of the street, has been resumed on a portion of the South Ypsilanti road, making it a disgrace to a civilized community. Any pathmaster who will allow that sort of "work" should be compelled to make it good or be incarcerated in a dungeon, or be compelled to ride on the road, or something else fully as horrible.

H. O. Wills with his gospel wagon and male quartette will hold a grove meeting at the Crittenden school house grove, six miles east of Saline and five miles southeast of Ann Arbor, commencing Thursday July 18 and continuing till Sunday night. Services morning, afternoon and evening illustrated with banners. Saturday, children's day. Sunday afternoon, Wills' prison life, illustrated with instruments of punishment. Admission 5c for defraying expenses. Bring lunches and stay all day.—Saline Observer.

SUMMER NORMAL NOTES.

An Interesting Batch of News About the Summer Normal and Those Who are Attending it.

Five new students registered yesterday and three others are expected this evening.

Prof. J. A. Chisholm, county commissioner of schools for Schoecraft county, has arrived and will teach orthography and orthoepy.

School will open at 8 a. m. the remainder of the term.

The classes in geometry and algebra are doing heavy work. Prof. Keeler enjoys the work hugely.

Supt. Cavanaugh will organize a class in general history, and will give lectures on methods of teaching and school law. Quite an exciting time in the arithmetic class this morning.

Miss McCutcheon is absent to-day on account of sickness. She is an excellent student.

Mr. Foster's head is out-growing his hat. He hasn't the "big head" either. Too much geometry.

Among the new arrivals are the following: Miss Ella Morton, of Ann Arbor; Miss Anna Bross, of Dexter; Miss Clara Schmid, of Dexter; Miss Gertrude Leland, Emery, and Miss Anna Fellows, Saline. Among the number present are several graduates of the University, and of the various high schools of the county, and also many experienced teachers from other counties.

Splendid work is being done in all the branches taught and the teachers have manifested great pleasure and interest in the work.

The school is proving an excellent aid to those who desire to review. The class in grammar under the charge of Prof. Chisholm are evincing great interest in the work.

Miss Hosmer is the latest arrival at the summer normal.

A list of 3rd grade students will be given in these columns in the near future.

A private letter received by a friend from Postmaster Beakes, who with his wife is taking the great State Press excursion. He was then in St. Paul, and stated that the odors along the line had given such an entertainment that there was not a moment to spare. He could scarcely get time to write a note.

OUR CITY FATHERS

Meet in Regular Session and Transact Considerable Business—A Brief Report.

The regular meeting of the city council last night was in many ways a model one. It lasted from 8 to 9, a good amount of business was transacted and every alderman was in his seat, though several of them were a little tardy.

Three petitions were presented and quickly referred to their proper committees.

The first was signed by David Wild and fifteen other residents and tax-payers from the second ward asking that the tile on south side of W. Jefferson st. at Second st. crossing be enlarged and that the gutters on First st. be graded down. This went to the sidewalk committee.

J. E. Burke and ten others from the fourth ward asked for a cement crossing across Fourth st., on south side of Ann st., and also across Ann st., east side of Fourth. Sidewalk committee.

Win. Biggs and thirteen others prayed that a walk be laid across Elm st. on north side of Wilmot and on Washtenaw on north side of Wilmot. Sidewalk committee.

Next came the reports of regular committees.

Committee on streets, asking B. P. W. to prepare plans and estimates and report at next regular meeting for grading State st., between Catharine and Fuller sts., so that gutters will carry surface water.

By same committee, asking that B. P. W. be directed to extend the gutter on Catherine st., no further east than at a point opposite the east end of pavement in front of hospital.

The committee also recommended that $175 be appropriated from the street fund to grade Chubb Road and Hamlin st.

These three reports were adopted.

Alderman Coon for sidewalk committee made a long report ordering plank sidewalks at numerous places over the city. Also ordering tar walks repaired in many places. Stone or cement walks were ordered on Washenaw ave. in neighborhood of Judge Harriman's residence. This was adopted without dissent.

Committee on Parks, recommended that five water boxes be put in Felch Park and that the dead boughs be trimmed off the trees and also that one water box be put in each triangle of Hanover Square. Adopted.

Committee on finance recommended separation of lateral sewer accounts on treasurer's books and suggested payment to secretary of $30 or less for such work. It was so ordered.

The committee on streets and finances asked that the matter of raising wages paid for team work to $3.50 per day be referred to B. P. W. This was done.

Under the reports of city officers, came Chief Siple's usual report—at no time had the water pressure been below the standard. City Assessor O'Hearn turned over to the council for review the assessment rolls for districts No. 3 and 4, the Hill and Huron st. districts.

Alderman Almendinger offered two resolutions which were adopted after some discussion.

The first stated that the iron pipes on south side of Washington across T. & A. A. tracks are too small and ordered railroad company to put in larger ones.

The second authorized the B. P. W. to buy 300 loads of stone, 8 in. and under, and to crush them and all stone available from sewer ditch, in the stone crusher, and use them upon our streets.

Alderman Snyder offered a resolution requesting B. P. W. to raise price of team labor to $3.50 per day. Some discussion, but President Hiscock declared the resolution out of order.

The special committee on printing reported that "inasmuch as the Argus and Courier have cheerfully rendered this service to the city for the past several years, the bid of the Register and the Democrat at 20 cents for 1000 ems. for each paper be accepted." Adopted.

On motion of Alderman Butterfield it was resolved that the Council should sit as a board of review of the assessment rolls for districts 3 and 4, at 9 a. m., July 29.

Alderman Taylor offered resolution authorizing B. P. W. and Street commissioner to macadamize a block of street to test the utility of our road roller and stone crusher. Also to put said machines through such a series of tests as they may consider necessary. Adopted.

Alderman Brown, resolution directing City Treasurer to advertise and sell city bonds to amount of $30,000 for constructing lateral sewers in districts 3 and 4. Adopted.

Council adjourned.

THE PRINTERS FIGHT IT OUT.

A Lively Base Ball Game Yesterday in Which the Register Printers Win—Score 17 to 20.

For some time have been heard in printing circles the mutterings of a rising storm. The printers at the Register office began to play ball a little and emboldened by a fair degree of success began to tell around town that they were not afraid to meet any team the other printers of the city could muster together. In fact they went so far as to publish a challenge to this effect. The advocates of the art preservative in the other city offices literally and figuratively sprang to arms. Cook, of the Argus, was constituted captain and preparations for a battle royal began.

Yesterday the two teams met at the Athletic Field and fought it out before an admiring crowd. Sid Bangs twirled the sphere for the Register people during one inning, Meyers caught; but five runs were made off him. Rice Davis succeeded him. For the opposing team Stoll, of the Hausfreund, pitched for six innings, and was followed by Sage, of the Courier. Bitske caught.

Of course the game was remarkable. People must look for remarkable things from printers. The errors were not infrequent—no proofreader could follow them all. No one lost his temper—that is, not very much. The score by innings is as follows:

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
City	5	4	1	2	1	0	4	0	0-17
Register	2	1	0	3	2	6	1	5	0-20

The nines lined up in this way:
Myers.....c.....Bitske.
Bangs and Davis.....p.....Stoll and Sage.
Cooper.....1b.....Waesch.
Davis and Bangs.....2b.....Bishop and Stowell.
Parr.....3b.....Sage and Bishop.
Healy.....ss.....Cook.
Wells.....lf.....Heintz.
King.....cf.....Schultz.
Holland.....rf.....Cole.
P. J. Lehman, umpire.

A new delivery wagon that travels about the streets announces that it is in the interest of a grocery on Elizabeth st.

City Treasurer Manly deposited in the bank as his first day's collection of taxes $578.78. In 1893, $641.07 was deposited on the first day for city taxes, and in 1894, $701.52.

The Allegan Gazette tells of the marriage of James Perrine Hamilton, of Battle Creek, with Miss Carrie Young, of that place, recently. The groom is blind, but is perfecting himself in Italian, Greek and Hebrew, and after studying a year at Athens, Greece, and other places in Europe the couple will return to Ann Arbor, where Mr. Hamilton will continue his studies.

A wag, who always sees the funny side of everything, hands in the following, with a request to please publish: "When the breezy blooming bloomers are universally the go, how will the tailors press the creases in them, I should like to know? When the baby's head is nodding and it wants to take a nap, how can mamma lull her darling in a bifurcated lap? How can Bridge shoe the chickens with no skirt to flop and fling, when the creatures go a grubbing in the spring? But the question most annoying that our speculations catch, can she vie with men action when she goes to scratch a match?"

We feel it a duty to caution Mr. Cleveland against the free coinage of girls, as a thing likely to destroy the parity of the sexes.

The United States built fewer ships in 1894 than in 1893, but the tonnage was greater. Some of the craft turned out are splendid specimens, and are not unlikely to make a new record on the ocean.

Notwithstanding the decrease in circulation in the past year and the increase in business, money is plentiful and cheap at the financial centers. It was lack of confidence that made money scarce in 1893.

A 700-pound cannon blew up at Northville on the 4th of July, but never phazed Bro. Neal of the Record a mite, you see he can affect almost any sort of a blow. He is used to it. He knows how to take it too, and that's a good deal.

Japan's entire force sent into the field against China, both on sea and land, they report as 60,979. One of the old divisions of either the Union or Confederate army in 1862-4 would have wiped it all out before the sun went down on the first day.—Inter Ocean.

Mr. Cleveland has given hostages to fortune in a degree which does him credit, and the fact that they are all girls is an assurance that they will never cause the democratic party as much trouble as it has had with their father.

The value of American sheep on Jan. 1, 1893, was given at $125,909,264, and the value of American flocks on Jan. 1, 1895, was given at $66,885,667, a decline of nearly $60,000,000 in two years of democratic administration. It is a good thing for Mr. Wilson that he is to be postmaster general and not a letter carrier down in southern Ohio. The old rams would have a picnic with the author of the new tariff law.

Call loans have been down to one-fourth of 1 per cent. in London recently. This comes near breaking all records. In New York, too, rates have been and are still very low. Money was never so cheap before when business was as active as it is now. The "contraction" which the Stewarts and the Blands predicted as a consequence of the repeal of the Sherman law did not come in this country. All over the world there is a plethora of cash in the trade centers.

England is the only country in the modern world which has been benefited greatly by colonies. France has made very little out of her foreign possessions. Her best property in that line she lost over a century ago, when she was driven out of Canada, and that which she has now is not of much advantage to her. Spain, too, lost the most valuable of her colonies long ago, and her hold on Cuba appears to be weakening every year. Rome was the great colonizer of the ancient world, and England went to school to Rome.

At a recent meeting of the Woman's Press Association, the following was adopted:

"That the women of the Association express their approval of and interest in the importance of physical culture and hygienic dress and diet.

"That we use our influence to place in the hands of our young people only moral literature, and that our best efforts be put forth toward the attainment of purity in literature."

The first paragraph of which means that all the women in Michigan should take hold and help on the Woman's Gym.

Hill predicts that the democrats will succeed next year; but there is not the least reason to suppose that he means what he says.

The monthly deficits are likely to be smaller hereafter, but there is no assurance that they will disappear until the republicans resume control of the national finances.

If the republican party takes a notion to nominate a southern man for vice president next year, it can easily elect one. For instance, H. Clay Evans, of Kentucky, or Wm. O. Bradley, of Tennessee.

When Shakespeare wrote his plays the English language was spoken by only 5,000,000 people. The number now who use English is 115,000,000, and more than half of them are in the United States.

Japan's whole army employed against China numbered only 60,979 men. Perhaps the best way to state the case historically would be to say that Japan made a reconnaissance of a neighboring nation of 400,000,000 and found that they wouldn't fight.

The Kaiser's observation that the seas now connect, instead of divide, is not far from right when the rapid and luxurious transit on the ocean greyhound is considered. A railway journey of six days is not much faster and far less comfortable.

As the case now stands, the democrats can not hope to carry a single northern state next year, and the situation is likely to grow worse rather than better to them, on the theory that they have not yet exhausted their capacity for doing the wrong thing at the right time.

Only four survivors of the battle of Waterloo are now to be found in Europe. The vast armies of Napoleon, Wellington and Blucher are gone, and it is not on record that in their declining years they ever came in contact with an official like Hoke Smith.

It is announced that the Belmont-Morgan syndicate is under specific contract to protect the national treasury gold reserve until October. The people will be glad to hear this, but at the same time it is humiliating to know that under democratic rule the public credit has to be maintained by private individuals.

A company has been organized in France to build a ship railway from Bordeaux to Narbonne, a distance of about 300 miles. Engineers have reported that the cost will be less than that of a ship canal, and the transit five times as rapid. The twentieth century promises to be the era of wonderful internal improvements.

The United States is shipping iron ore to Germany and steel to England. These exports have not reached large proportions yet, nor are they likely to in the near future. One or two varieties of ore found here and not in Europe, which are in especial demand in Germany are going out. The steel exports have not reached as high figures as the ore shipments, but doubtless they will increase.

The late Prof. Huxley was the originator of the term "agnostic," which he used to define his position with regard to the Christian religion. "It came into my head," he wrote, "as suggestively antithetic to the 'gnostic' of church history, who professed to know so much about the very things of which I was ignorant." The word took and has since been incorporated in the standard English dictionaries.

Ex-Mayor Grace's ultimatum to Senator Hill of half the delegates to the coming state convention or war shows that more trouble is ahead for the New York democracy. Hill will probably refuse this favor. Grace's faction is not so powerful as Hill's, but it is strong enough to make mischief for its party. If it is not "placated" the republican majority in New York will be as large in 1896 as it was in 1894.

A large number of bicycles are in use by the Signal Corps, and several prominent army officers say they are preferable to horses for many kinds of service. It is likely, therefore, that soldiers on wheels will soon become a regular feature of the military establishment. Really, wouldn't you like to see Company A mounted on wheels and going through the manual of arms at the same time?

The biography of James G. Blaine by Gail Hamilton, which has just been published, contains a letter from Garfield dated January 17, 1881, in which occurs the following suggestive passage concerning a matter of much present interest and importance: "How do you feel over the financial outlook? Think of $1,300,000,000 of money in circulation, with silver certificates increasing indefinitely, the coinage of 89-cent dollars going on ad nauseam, and from every unknown crack and cranny of the world the old fractional silver, antedating 1860, coming back to us, perhaps being manufactured beyond our jurisdiction, and shipped here at a profit of 25 per cent, and no law for retiring it. How many miles above Niagara are we?"

The Treasury deficit in the fiscal year which has just ended is about $25,000,000 less than it was in the year which closed twelve months ago, or a round $45,000,000 in all. Let us hope that in the year coming this embarrassment and discredit will end.

The Empress of Germany delivered a long speech the other night at the 150th anniversary of the regiment of Queen's Cuirassiers. The new woman in America is hardly advanced enough to be a Colonel of a regiment, much less a Kentucky Colonel, but then this country lacks several centuries of being as old as Germany.

The fact that the complete report of the census of 1890 will be in the hands of the public two years and a half sooner than was the report of the census of 1880 speaks well for the executive ability of the Superintendent and the industry and efficiency of his subordinates; and the fact is to be added that the report is a model of statistical excellence.

England has no fear of large undertakings in the commercial and industrial world. For several years it has been working up the tea production of India and Ceylon, and has increased its consumption to nearly 30,000,000 pounds a year. Tea culture is but fifteen years old in Ceylon, yet 280,000 acres are devoted to it, with a capital of $55,000,000.

The legislature would not appropriate money for a hospital for consumption at the university, but it sat day after day chewing tobacco, charging up time to the state and making the most pitiable spectacle for gods and men that ever drew unavailing tears from the statue of Liberty. Tuberculosis seizes the lungs of the whole pestiferous crew! The hospital will be built by private subscription.—Adrian Press.

Ex-Chancellor of the Exchequer Harcourt again shows that the Democrats can get no favor from the liberal party. That party, however, will be beaten in the coming elections, and the Tories will get into power. The Tories will soon have to show where they stand on the silver question. Some of their leaders are friendly to the double standard, but nobody knows what proportion of the party is on that side.

Harper's Bazar, published on June 15th, is distinguished by the variety and beauty of its summer toilettes, and men will find in its columns an article especially adopted to their needs, giving information about negligee costumes, and indicating how one can be perfectly comfortable and still shock no conventionally during the heated terms which we may expect. A story by Edith V. B. Matthews, entitled, "Little Miss Busybody," is very bright, and has an original situation.

That $120,000,000 of new debt which Spain has contracted is all on account of the Cuban insurrection. Spain was already staggering under the debt burden which she carried, and the present addition to the load is hardly the last that she will have to make before the rebellion is put down. Wars, even of the sort under way in Cuba, are costly things in the modern age, but nations governed under sixteenth century ideas cannot avoid them. As a question of mere dollars and cents it would pay Spain to give Cuba her liberty.

The jury in the Dr. Seaman case at Detroit, found him guilty, returning their verdict at 12:45 o'clock Sunday morning. This was a surprise to the doctor and his lawyers, but the people who have kept posted about the case believe it to be a just verdict. Dr. Seaman was charged with causing the death of Emily Hall, the girl whose remains elicited so much speculation by remaining unburied so many weeks to test an undertaker's embalming fluid. It will be remembered that investigation proved her to be a respectable girl who was sent here from England by one Rev. Bell, to shield him from exposure and disgrace, and came to her death in a lying-in "hospital" of Detroit, Dr. Seaman being in charge of her case. It is thought that her case was only one of many that had met the same fate, and that it was time some one was punished for the wicked and nefarious business.

"Ungraded Schools" was the subject of a paper read before the national council of education in Denver on Saturday. The "fad" in school reform among the city school superintendents is that the school district system should be abolished and the unit plan adopted. This was the plan recommended by the writer on the above subject, Henry Sabin, of Des Moines, Ia. The general tendency in educational matters is toward centralization of power. It will be a very unfortunate thing for this country when we take the control of these matters from the people, instead of trying to bring the people up to a proper realization of what privileges they may enjoy, there are too many who wish to dictate to the people what they shall do. In a popular government the educator and the intelligent citizen must with patience work to improve what already exists. To do anything else is to weaken and destroy the love of popular government.—Coldwater Republican.

The new woman should not forget to credit her predecessors with doing some things very handsomely. In the year 1840 the women of Boston held a fair for the Bunker Hill monument, which netted $30,035, and Manny Ellisler added $569 to the fund by illustrating the poetry of motion.

The Orthographic Union organized in New York has a large number of members prominent in literature and college work, but why doesn't it spell orthographic with the proper final letter? The greatest humbug in the alphabet is the letter "c." The new society has failed to grasp its business at the start.

A Minnesota paper has made a calculation which shows that in 1882 it required 324 bushels of wheat to pay for a self-binding reaper, while the same reaper, or a better one, can be bought this year for 187 bushels. It does not appear, therefore, that the farmers have been hurt very much by the demonization of silver.

Claud Meeker, the American consul at Bradford, England, has discovered American cloth in that market. It Mr. Meeker would come home and count the American sheep he would find that there are 5,000,000 less of them now than there were in 1893. The beauties of free trade are easier seen in England than in America.

Herbert Spencer has been defining his position again on the private ownership of land, which he holds is indefensible in theory and impregnable in fact. "The burden of compensation," he says, "would outweigh the benefit of possession." It is settled that the philosopher was not cut out for a Populist.

The completion a few years ago of the object-glass of the Lick refractor, with a diameter of 36 inches, was rightly considered an important event in astronomy, but the Yerkes lens, now ready at Cambridge, Mass., is 4 1/2 inches in diameter, and is without an equal in size. When it is mounted at the Lake Geneva, Wis., observatory the attention of astronomers throughout the world will be turned in that direction as the most probable point of new discoveries.

This week, one of the largest religious gatherings that has ever been known in this country is being held at Boston. It is the annual convention of the Christian Endeavor Societies, comprising over 50,000 delegates and representing a total membership of 2,500,000. The growth of these organizations is one of the wonders of the period, and their influence is second to that of no other religious agency. Michigan is represented by over 300 delegates.

The effect of the Chicago drainage canal on lake levels is still under discussion. One of the leading engineers in charge of the work assures the Secretary of War that the reduction of the lake level when the canal is taking its maximum of 10,000 cubic feet of water a second will never reach 6 inches, and that the average reduction throughout the year will not exceed 3 1/2 inches. So far as definite data has been submitted, it appears that the Lakes will feed the canal without a change of any consequence in their levels.

A rabbit parliament is a new thing under the sun. It has been held in Australia, and spent four days in considering proposed remedies for the overproduction of rabbits in those colonies. New South Wales once offered $125,000 for the best plan to keep down the rabbit pest, and though 2000 schemes were submitted the meek little animal has triumphed, and roams over 7,000,000 acres of abandoned land it has conquered from the farmers. The parliament reached no conclusion except to recommend strong fences, and to transfer the suppression of rabbits from the State to private landowners. Australia's experience with rabbits is at least an assurance that the world's meat supply is not likely to fail.

How Soon Great Men Are Forgotten!

The following article, taken from the Dundee Reporter, goes to prove the old adage: "out of sight is out of mind," and that the grave buries the memory of the great as well as the small. It hardly seems possible, however, that a man who once occupied so exalted a position in the commonwealth, and that too, within a few years, should be so soon forgotten, and his last resting place so neglected that no stone should tell where he lies. That fact does not speak well for the people whom he served.

The deed of the woman which is related below is a commendable one, and speaks volumes in her praise:

"One day last week Mrs. Mary Christianity, M. D., visited Dundee and the old Christianity farm—now owned by B. E. Bullock—which was her birth place and early home. Her father was Perry Christianity, a brother of the late Isaac P. Christianity. She has lately returned to this country from India, where she has been residing, and her home now is at Hickory Corners, Barry County, this state. Visiting the family burial lot in the orchard upon the old farm, and finding nothing marking the grave of her uncle, Judge Christianity, while the grave of the other members of the family there were marked with marble slabs, she set about to supply the missing designation of the grave of the once illustrious statesman and citizen. She arranged to have a large hardhead boulder, laying upon the farm, and weighing between two and three tons, placed at the head of the grave and an appropriate inscription carved thereon. This work will soon be performed."

A Joyful Reunion.

Mrs. J. P. Vaughan, of Dallas, Tex., and Mrs. Milo S. Paley, of this city, are sisters, and they met at the M. C. R. R. station Tuesday eve, for the first time in thirteen years. One can imagine somewhat the pleasure such a meeting would bring.

Mrs. Vaughan was known here in girlhood as Miss Nellie Drake. She married a student here, graduating in the law department in '81, and they at once removed to the Lone Star State, where she has lived ever since.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Many years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., compounded this medicine of vegetable ingredients which had an especial effect upon the stomach and liver, rousing the organs to healthy activity as well as purifying and enriching the blood. By such means the stomach and the nerves are supplied with pure blood; they will not do duty without it any more than a locomotive can run without coal. You can not get a lasting cure of Dyspepsia, or Indigestion, by taking artificially digested foods or peepsin—the stomach must do its own work in its own way. Do not put your nerves to sleep with so-called celery mixtures, it is better to go to the seat of the difficulty and feed the nerve cells on the food they require. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness and Nervous Affections, such as sleeplessness and weak, nervous feelings are completely cured by the "Discovery." It puts on healthy flesh, brings refreshing sleep and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. K. HENKE, of No. 866 North Halsted St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I regard my improvement as simply wonderful. Since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in connection with his 'Pleasant Pellets' I have gained in every respect, particularly in flesh and strength. My liver was dreadfully enlarged and I suffered greatly from dyspepsia. No physician could give relief. Now, after two months I am entirely relieved of my disease. My appetite is excellent; food well digested; bowels regular and sleep much improved."

THE TIE THAT BINDS.

It United Two Lives Last Night With Pleasing Attendant Ceremonies.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Densmore Cramer, parents of the bride, on E. Huron st., on Wednesday evening July 10th, at 8:30 o'clock, a ceremony was performed that united the lives of Prof. Willard Kimball Clement, of Idaho, and Miss Alice D. Cramer, of this city, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Densmore Cramer.

Rev. Dr. C. M. Coburn officiated, using the regular form of the Methodist Episcopal church, with ring.

At the appointed hour the minister marched slowly into the room where the guests had assembled, to the wedding march of Handel, played by Miss Ruth Durheim, followed by the young nephew and niece of the bride, Donald and Bessie Waite, who acted as ring and flower bearer respectively, then came the bridesmaid, Miss Kate Cramer, followed by the bride leaning on her father's arm. She was dressed in cream tinted white silk, and was met by the groom under the floral wedding bell pending from an arch of green.

The ceremony was then read by Dr. Coburn in a very impressive manner, and proper responses made. After this came the congratulations of friends, which was followed by the serving of delicious and dainty refreshments in a rather unique way, each guest having the dainties handed them on a hand-some tray.

The decorations were pink and green, with a profusion of roses, ferns, carnations, and mullax, in banks and festoons, as were appropriate.

The presents were of more than ordinary value, and consisted of articles both for use and ornament.

Among the guests present were Hon. Byron S. Waite and family of Menominee; Prof. Olcott, of Ishpeming; Prof. and Mrs. Kelsey, Prof. and Mrs. W. W. Beman, Mrs. C. L. Pack, Mrs. Vosmos, Mrs. Henry DePay, Miss Southmayd, Misses Genevieve and Mary Duffy, Miss Ruth Durheim, and others of Ann Arbor.

The bride is a young lady of culture and refinement, a native of Ann Arbor, and a graduate of the University with the literary class of '93. Probably but few young ladies in the city are better known or more generally respected.

The groom was formerly in Ann Arbor and became acquainted with his bride while pursuing studies which gave him a doctor's degree in 1894. At present he is professor of Languages in the State University of Idaho, located at Moscow.

The couple left for the east on the 10-30 train, going via the St. Lawrence river to Brandon, Vt., where Mr. Clement's mother resides. They will remain during vacation and returning will make a short stop at Ann Arbor, reaching their future home in Idaho before work in the University opens.

A Business Change.

Papers were made out yesterday and signed, whereby the old established firm of Mack & Schmid is no more. Walter C. Mack has purchased the interest of both Christian Mack and Frederick Schmid, and has leased the store now occupied by the firm, together with the large store now occupied by Martin Haller, when his lease is out, for a period of ten years.

Mr. Mack has also formed a partnership with John Koch and the two have leased the entire Koch block for a period of seven years.

This block will be fitted up with a new front, for which the owner will pay one-half the cost and the lessees the other half.

It is understood that this means a large department store, where almost anything wanted can be obtained. After the fashion of Siegel, Cooper & Co., Chicago, for instance.

In conversation with Christian Mack this morning, the Courier was informed that all plans had not been completed as yet, and that his interest had not been purchased, but no doubt would be. Just what Walter intended to do he did not know, but would probably fit up the Koch block with housekeeper's goods, besides furniture.

Mr. Koch would take a vacation in a short time, and spend a month or so in recuperating his health.

In a week or two, Mr. Mack thought, everything would be adjusted and all plans permanently made. Until then there was little to say about the matter.

A CHARMING EVENT.

A Home Wedding that was a Delight to Many Relatives and Friends.

Last evening, July 9th, there occurred, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Boylan, at the corner of N. Fifth Ave. and Catherine St., one of those happy events which should always take place in every one's life, and which does take place in most lives. It was a marriage ceremony with attendant festivities.

The bride, Miss Minnie A. Boylan, is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Boylan, who are numbered among the oldest families in the city. She is more than commonly endowed with nature's gifts in form and feature, and possesses a grace and cordiality of manner that wins people to her, and as a consequence has a far more than ordinary list of friends, all of whom will wish her God speed in this new life that she now enters upon.

Elmer E. Beal, the groom, is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene E. Beal, and from having served as money order clerk during the time his father was postmaster, is known to most of the people of the city. He is in every way a fitting groom for the charming bride he has won.

There were perhaps a hundred or more relatives and friends who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boylan last evening, to witness this event. Rev. Dr. Camden M. Coburn tied the bans, using the ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal church; a ring placed upon one of the bride's fingers by the groom being the crowning act.

The groom's brother Rice A. Beal officiated as best man and his little sister, Miss Alta Beal, was the bearer of the ring that played so useful a mission. Miss Anna Muma was bridesmaid.

Guests were present from Ypsilanti, Dexter, Northville, Mt. Clemens, Detroit, Howell and elsewhere.

After the ceremony the usual congratulations followed, and then the guests repaired to the dining room, where a very tempting array of edibles were served by the young lady friends of the bride, each arrayed in pure white.

The ushers were Mr. George R. Barker, of Flint, and Miss Bertha McOmber, of this city, who with much grace performed the task of introducing the guests most of whom were relatives of the couple.

The young ladies who served the supper were Misses Addie and Bessie Stevens, Miss Anna McOmber, and Bertha Rose.

The presents were many in number and consisted of the useful, the needful, and the ornamental.

The bride was arrayed in white satin, made in the prevailing style, and the bridegroom was dressed in the conventional black.

The decorations were beautiful, being entirely in green and white, roses and daisies being quite prominent.

The couple had intended to leave the city for a short trip, but owing to the unfortunate fact that the groom had been quite ill for a day or so gave up the idea, and repaired to the home of Mr. Beal, where they will remain for the present. They will probably go to Boston with the Knights Templar.

These two young people who are to tread life's pathway together hereafter, are unusually fortunate, not only by reason of the kindly gifts of nature, but in having so many friends who wish them well, and who would do any service to make their journey through life one of continual happiness.

A WORTHY ENTERPRISE.

The June issue of The Physician and Surgeon contains the following article that will be of interest to the people of Ann Arbor, and one in which said people will certainly join with hearty amens as well as with their dollars:

Doctor C. E. Stroud, of Sandusky, Ohio, has written urging that we advocate the erection of a bronze statue of Professor Ford, America's greatest anatomist, to be placed upon the campus at Ann Arbor. Doctor Stroud adds:

"There is not a physician or dentist who heard this great teacher lecture, but that would consider it a great pleasure to contribute his mite—say one dollar—towards the erection."

There is little doubt that while the way of the monument builder is often hard Ford's name would be found a talisman with which to secure funds, and a statue to Ford could probably be erected before that of Benjamin Rush adorns the grounds of the Capitol in spite of thirteen years start by the latter project.

Doctor Ford's name is one that certainly should be remembered in some permanent way. The Physician and Surgeon will gladly lend its aid in securing so desirable a project to the attention of the public, and will assist a committee in the promotion of the work.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours truly,
C. W. HORNICK.

Mr. Hollister is past 89 years of age, is a son of a revolutionary soldier, and as far as he knows, is the only surviving son of a revolutionary soldier. He considers himself the best preserved man physically of any man of his age in the state of New York. He left his home in New York about May 1st, since which time he has been visiting among his relatives, going from place to place alone and unattended. He is now on his way to the Dakotas where he expects to spend the balance of the season with relatives living in those states.

Col. Thompson and Judge Harriman returned Saturday night from their fishing expedition at Crystal Lake. The writer of this thought he had heard some fish stories in the past. In fact he has narrated some that were considered pretty fair tales, but he is now silent. The stories told by these two gentlemen of their success with the fluky tribe, makes us stand speechless. The Judge has faithfully promised to write his experiences for the Courier and we hope to give our readers the benefit in a day or two.

We have received from Judge E. D. Klane, a copy of the Nantucket, Mass., Journal, of July 11, containing a detailed account of the big celebration which that little island town has been indulging in, which it termed its "Centennial and Bi-Centennial." We looked over the paper, column after column, in vain for the Judge's speech, and have come to the conclusion that either his modesty would not allow its publication, or that it was of such an extended nature as to take the entire edition of the next week's paper, all to itself. Of course he made a speech! The map of the Island accompanying the head of the paper denotes that the island is not large enough for one to get lost upon.

It is encouraging to note the enthusiasm of the students who are taking the courses in law at the summer school. Especially noticeable is the popularity of the course given by Instructor Hughes. He has sixteen students registered in his class and there are still others coming. We need never fear for a meagre attendance at the school in view of its present great popularity and success.

People visiting Whitmore Lake will find things very pleasant and exceedingly convenient at Weidemann's grove. They can be accommodated with rooms, or board, or with beautiful grounds, and everything necessary to make an outing pleasurable is supplied by Mrs. Weidemann. People who do not care to pitch tents and prepare their own food, or those who do, will find it to their advantage when they go to the lake to call on this lady.

"If Ann Arbor would have her principal streets sprinkled, it would be an inducement to summer vacation roamers that would more than pay for the outlay, to say nothing of the benefit of the health and property of residents. Put that in your paper for an item," said a prominent citizen this morning, upon being asked: "What do you know?" By the way, what has become of the committee appointed by the council to investigate and report upon some plan to make street sprinkling possible next year?

The reputation the University School of Music is securing by reason of retaining in its faculty the best talent to be obtained, bids fair to bring many students from abroad next season. Prof. Jonas' reputation at St. Louis is an indication, and those seeking a musical education soon ascertain where the best is to be obtained. Consequently it is wise to get the best and keep it.

This item may be of interest, though this county sends very few to that institution in comparison with some other counties: "The Industrial School for Girls at Adrian is overcrowded. The Ann Arbor Courier is kicking against the Michigan Central because the grounds at the depot in Ann Arbor are not kept in better condition. Of course they do look a little bare to one who has seen those at Ypsilanti, but then, the Courier can't expect the Central to furnish a Laidlaw for every flag station along the line.—Ypsilantian-Of course not. With Ypsilanti supplied the Central could not pay attention to its other flag stations. But it is under some obligation to the cities, and especially to Ann Arbor.

A young couple from Ann Arbor aroused Justice Webb from a sound sleep Tuesday night, and presenting proper credentials, asked to be made husband and wife. BIG PROFITS ON SMALL INVESTMENTS.

Returning prosperity will make many rich, but nowhere can they make so much within a short time as by successful speculation in Grain, Provisions and Stock.

$10.00 FOR EACH DOLLAR INVESTED can be made by our Systematic Plan of Speculation originated by us. All successful speculators operate on a regular system. It is a well-known fact that there are thousands of men in all parts of the United States who, by systematic trading through Chicago brokers, make large amounts every year, ranging from a few thousand dollars for the man who invests a hundred or two hundred dollars up to $50,000 to $100,000 or more by those who invest a few thousand.

It is also a fact that those who make the largest profits from comparatively small investments on this plan are persons who live away from Chicago and invest through brokers who thoroughly understand systematic trading.

Our plan does not risk the whole amount invested on any trade, but covers both sides, so that whether the market rises or falls it brings a steady profit that piles up enormously in a short time.

WRITE FOR CONVINCING PROOFS, also our Manual on successful speculation and our Daily Market Report, full of money-making pointers. ALL FREE. Our Manual explains margin trading fully. Highest references in regard to our standing and success. For further information address

Kaiser Wilhelm carries with him a small but serviceable revolver, either in his pocket or in his belt, when he is in uniform. His majesty is extremely skillful in the use of the weapon, and his chasseur, who accompanies him everywhere, inspects it every morning to make sure that it is in working order.

PRINTERS' INK.

One word may make or mar an ad. Some papers have good circulations, and some papers have good circulation lars.

Too much shouting in advertisements may frighten people with money and sensitive nerves.

The man who does not advertise in summer is like the man who does not sprinkle his lawn in dry weather.

Brevity in ad construction is effective. No and Yes are the most moving, most pregnant words in our language.

The Washington Times offers a marriage license and a marriage ceremony in exchange for a coupon cut from its columns.

When a person is in need of an article he goes and buys it, but he also often buys what he doesn't need, because it is attractively advertised.

It is a curious fact that the man who thinks "advertising doesn't pay" is the one who is most ready to talk about a libel suit if a paper publishes something he doesn't like.

Have you ever noticed what a little cause will start a crowd, and how quickly it disperses after the cause is removed? and how advertising draws a big crowd to a store, but the crowd melts away when the advertising stops?

The style and wording of an advertisement should be determined upon after the medium, or class of media, in which it is to appear has been selected.

An advertisement that is profitable in a high-class publication can hardly be expected to be so in one of a very different class.

Boston and Baltimore have about the same population, yet Boston has 50 per cent more daily papers than Baltimore; San Francisco has 50 per cent more than Cincinnati, and Dayton, Ohio, has twice the number in Atlanta, and three times the number in Memphis, although the relative population of the cities is about the same.—Printer's Ink.

STATISTICS.

The estimated population of the world on January 1, 1895, was 1,500,000,000.

The microscope shows that the human body is covered with scales, each scale covering 500 pores.

Huxley's tables show that the human body is made up of thirteen different elements, of which five are gases and eight solids.

Figures by experts in vital statistics prove that not less than 4,847,500,000 human beings die on our globe each century.

The latest anthropological statistics prove that in America the daily, monthly and yearly number of births exceed the deaths in the ratio of 3 to 1.

Taking the world over, there is an average of one death and one and one-fourth births per second. Only one-half of all who are born into the world live to the age of seventeen years.

Vital statistics prove that, taking the world over, there are 109 women to every 100 men. Out of every nine sudden deaths reported, eight of the number are men.

HUMAN NATURE.

Lying is seldom done to cover up the faults of a friend.

A bluff will work as a substitute for everything except brains.

You can see a man every day and then not know much about him.

Speaking of queer sensations, did you ever shake hands with a man who had two fingers off?

A man laughs when he is amused; a woman laughs when she thinks people think she ought to.

It is impolite to interrupt a man who is talking, and you will not have a chance to have your say if you don't.

The Ann Arbor Commandery, having opened the doors of their excursion to the public, the public will be interested in knowing all about the trip. Consequently we publish the following, taken from a circular letter addressed to the Knights of the county and vicinity. It gives all the information possible to obtain at present:

Arrangements have been made for transportation with the Grand Trunk Railway and connections, by special train of Wagner Palace Cars, leaving Ann Arbor Thursday, August 22, at noon, and arriving in Boston, Monday, August 26, at 10 A. M. The trip going will occupy four days and will be via Port Huron, Kingston, down the St. Lawrence by boat to Montreal, by rail to Quebec, Gorham, and the White Mountains. Old Orchard Beach and Boston. The return trip can be by same route or Old Colony R. R. to Fall River, Fall River line of steamers to New York, West Shore, Lehigh Valley, D. L. & Western or Erie to Niagara Falls, Grand Trunk to Detroit, or Fitchburg Railway via Saratoga to Albany or Troy, Hudson River line of steamers to New York, returning by any of the lines mentioned above. Michigan Central from Detroit to Ann Arbor. Meals will be served at dining stations along the route. Fare for the round trip, $21.00; St. Lawrence River trip, $3.00 extra; returning by rail to New York, $29.25, tickets good for 30 days. Sleepers to Boston, lower berths, $10.00; upper berths, $8.00; section, $18.00. Sleeping car charts are now in the hands of Chas. E. Hiscock, chairman of committee to whom application should be made at once to secure berths. The privilege of securing sleeping car accommodations will be reserved to members of the Commandery until July 1st, when all berths not taken and paid for will be offered to the public. It is hoped that members will act promptly, as there are many outside the Commandery who desire to avail themselves of the pleasures of this trip.

In accordance with instructions of the Commandery there has been engaged the beautiful modern stone dwelling, Nos. 701 and 703 Massachusetts Avenue, in the city of Boston. It will accommodate 115 people. We have 22 rooms and four double parlors; rates per day, for four days, $1.00. Persons can remain longer if they wish at the same rate. Lodging will be assigned in the order in which payment is made for same. The house is near South Bay and is within a few minutes ride of Boston Common, the Public Gardens, Masonic Temple and the business part of the city.

A Michigan Man in Hard Luck.

The Rev. E. B. Sutton, who with his family were nearly killed by desperadoes in Washington state recently, was formerly a Free Methodist clergyman, and roamed over this county for a while, but was better known in Tuscola county, where at one time he had considerable influence.

He was a man greatly given to the isms of the day, and each one would gain his enthusiastic support as it came along until the bubble would burst, when he would be ready to take up with a new one.

At one time, when the writer of this item was publishing a paper up in "The Thumb" this same Rev. Sutton attempted to read him out of the republican party because he would not turn his paper into a prohibition organ. It is needless to say he did not succeed. Neither did he succeed in turning Tuscola county over into the hands of the democratic party soon thereafter as he so energetically attempted to do, because the republicans refused to be led by the prohibitionists.

When he failed in that he took up the organizing of Patrons of Industry, or something in that line. It was while engaged in the latter business that he traveled about over this county, we believe.

He had been lost track of for several years, until the papers a day or two ago told of his being waylaid and nearly killed out in Washington.

He had been organizing A. P. A. lodges in that state, and it is thought that the attempt to assassinate him was because he was engaged in that business.

He was a man of great nervous force, and had devoted his energies to the cause of the Saviour, preaching Christ's one doctrine of Love, with Peace on Earth, Good Will to Man, he might have arisen to considerable eminence. But when one so far forgets the teachings of the Saviour he professes to serve, as to attempt to crush out one class of Christians because they do not conform in all things to his own particular ideas, then he better take up his Bible and read it with special reference to what Jesus spoke and taught while He was here on earth.

Now is the time, when you have a little leisure, to get your magazines and pamphlets together and have them bound. The Courier bindery is ready for this class of work now, and having excellent workmen and the best of material, it can give satisfaction. Prices are very reasonable.

OUR FARMERS SHOULD HUSTLE

If they Desire to Have a Farmer's Institute Held at State Expense.

By act of the last legislature the State Board of Agriculture is authorized to hold a farmer's institute in each county in the state desiring one. These institutes are to be two days in length. The board will furnish speakers, with all expenses paid, to occupy one-half the time in the institute. Local speakers will be expected to occupy the other half of the time; and local expenses, such as hall rent, heating, programs, etc., will have to be furnished by the institute society.

Counties desiring an institute must first organize an institute society under the provisions of the law. To organize at least twenty residents of the county, without regard to sex but of legal age, shall meet and adopt a brief constitution, forms for which will be furnished, and by-laws, in harmony with the state law and rules of the Board, and shall proceed to elect the following officers: A president, a vice-president from each township in the county, and a secretary who shall also be treasurer. When any county already has an institute society, this society may be accepted by the Board for institute purposes, by agreeing to conform to the rules of the Board. A good active county agricultural society may also become an institute society by making a similar agreement.

These societies must be organized by Sept. 20, 1895, and the earlier the better. If the farmers of this county desire an institute next winter, with help from the state, they should immediately begin getting ready to organize. We advise those interested to arrange for a meeting at an early date, so as to be in line with other counties.

Particulars regarding organizing can be obtained by writing to Kenyon L. Butterfield, Agricultural College, Mich., who is superintendent of institutes.

A Common Sense Use of the Bicycle Will Injure No One.

There is one muscular structure which bicycling, like every form of physical exertion, compels to do extra work—the heart—and upon its integrity depend not only health and physical vigor, but also life itself. It has often been asserted that wheeling is apt to injure the heart. Is this so? I can only say that, theoretically, it is impossible for such harm to result in sound people, save from attempt to attain a high rate of speed, or from prolonged and fatiguing rides, or from climbing hills which are either very steep or very long; and practically I have been unable to find authentic records of any case in which heart disease has been caused by the use of the wheel in a sensible and moderate way. It may be added that the existence of organic heart disease does not, in the opinion of a number of physicians of great ability, always debar cycling. Indeed the wheel is actually recommended by some as a valuable aid in the treatment of certain affections of this organ. There is a striking resemblance between bicycling and walking, so far as their effects on the heart are concerned, either may be healthful or harmful. Excessive exertion in either is dangerous, moderate exertion is beneficial. That cycling is more apt to do harm than walking can hardly be denied. It is much more temptation to ride than to walk fast on the level; and the hill climbing on the machine, even at a moderate speed, is more of a strain than walking up the same hill at a speed proportionately moderate, and very few people seem to have sense enough to get off and walk when going up hills. It is safe to assert that for a person capable of acting with common sense no harm will come from either, and certainly no more from the one than from the other.—From "A Doctor's View of Bicycling," by J. W. Roosevelt, M. D., in Scribner.

Bad Fire for the W. M. F. I. C.

Monday morning, at about 7:30 o'clock the two barns, hog house, etc., with contents, of Addison Carryell, located on Section 6 of Ypsilanti, about two and one-half miles northwest of Ypsilanti and five and one-half miles east and south of this city, were burned to the ground. The buildings were insured in the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Ins. Co., for $1,250, which is considered two-thirds of their value. There was an insurance of $700 on farm personal property, which will probably cover two-thirds of the loss.

One horse, two mules, several hogs, and a number of fowls were burned, although all the animals but the mules were got out of the barn once, but turned back again in spite of all efforts, and were burned up. The loss is estimated at upwards of $3,000.

How the fire occurred is a mystery. Neither Mr. Carryell or his workman ever smoke, and the barns were kept clean and neat. The only theory is that some tramp dropped a match in the stall by the mules, which was stepped on and lighted.

Thrashed the Thimble-Rigger. Following in the wake of the steple-shasers at Belmont was a horde of shell game manipulators, who plied their trade in every fence corner and cross-road leading to the park, says Philadelphia Record. One more venturesome thimble-rigger ensconced himself inside the park, at the stables, and was soon doing a thriving business. A would-be sport dropped $32 in short order, but complained of being cheated as his last dollar disappeared in the pocket of the shell man. Hot words and blows followed, and the dupe, being the better man, soon had his antagonist on his back. Before letting him up he compelled the vanquished one to hand over all his winnings. The cappers tried to interfere but a look from the pugilist sent them scampering over the high board fence.

Nasturtium Grows Everywhere. The nasturtium is one of the most satisfactory flowers that can be raised,asmuch as it will grow anywhere and blossom as graciously in the back yard and on the roof as on the carefully kept lawn. The plants will appear fifteen days after the seeds are planted, and seeds in June will blossom in August; for later flowering plant the seeds in July. One little plant will produce as many as 150 blossoms and sometimes more.

A WESTERN STORY.

Blanchard Sewed His Trousers with Willow Bark.

Jim Blanchard is a veteran prospector, who tells some queer stories of his experience in the west, and when in a talkative mood is always in demand. While sitting at the hotel the other evening he was the center of an interested crowd. One of the characteristics peculiar to travelers, in the mountains especially, being unquestioned veracity, no one would think of casting reflections upon the truthfulness of Jim's statements. He was telling of a trip from Deming, N. M., on the Gulf in Lower California. He was accompanied by James Hanigan, a Californian. Everything went well until they got about 275 miles south of Deming. Here they halted at a spring. Blanchard tethered the horses, while Hanigan prepared a meal. As they expected to make a dry camp that night, Hanigan suggested that the water cask be refilled. To do so, Blanchard thought the handiest way would be to get the burro close to the spring and fill the cask without removing it from the burro's back. The burro demurred and threw Blanchard into the stream. In falling, he tore his trousers from the hip to the knee. Having neither needle nor thread, he took the bark of a willow sprout and sewed up the rent. Now, the Mexican willow has a peculiar nature, and in the wet season a young sprout has been known to develop into a good sized tree over night. On awaking the next morning Blanchard found a willow tree growing from his leg. The bark which he had stripped from the sapling had taken root and sprouted. There was a stifled gasp heard among the auditors which seemed to disturb the speaker's serenity for a moment. He looked inquiringly for the cause, but not a word was spoken. "It's a fact, gentlemen," he concluded, "that there tree got so blanketed cumbersome in two days that Hanigan was obliged to chop it down to relieve me."

Crop Report For July.

For this report on wheat more than 1,100 returns have been received, representing all parts of the State. The correspondents estimate the yield per acre in bushels and not in percentage of previous and average crops. The average of the estimates for the State and each section is as follows: State, 9.88; southern counties, 9.14 bushels; central counties, 11.13 bushels, northern counties, 11.82 bushels, and upper peninsula, 14 bushels. The estimates for the State is the lowest ever made July 1; it is nearly 6 bushels lower than the estimate of July 1, 1894, and nearly 7 bushels lower than the average yield in the eighteen years, 1876-1893.

The light crop is mainly on account of the drouth that has prevailed all the season and still continues, yet other causes have worked more or less injury. A correspondent well says: "Light top last fall, freezing and thawing in spring, frosts in May, and drouth in April, May and June." To these should be added extensive damage by insects.

The number of bushels of wheat reported marketed in June is 522,311 as compared with 866,351 reported marketed in June, 1894, and the amount marketed in eleven months, August-June, is 10,569,800 bushels as compared with 14,298,306 bushels in the same month last year.

The acreage planted to corn is slightly in excess of the acreage, and the condition is 91 per cent of condition, in average years.

Oats are estimated at 61 per cent of an average crop. The average for the southern counties is only 57 per cent.

The acreage planted to potatoes is 6 per cent in excess to average years, and in condition the crop promises 86 per cent of an average. Corn and potatoes seem to have stood the drouth remarkably well. If an abundance of rain comes soon both crops may be expected to yield fairly well.

Meadows and pastures were probably never in poorer condition at this date, and the spring seeding to clover is nearly all lost.

The outlook for apples and peaches is not encouraging. The farmer promises perhaps one-third, and the latter five-eighths of the average crop.

HE WILL WIN $1,500.

On a Walk From Denver to Detroit For Above Wager.

A very hungry young man took supper at a Huron st. restaurant last night. He was Alfred B. Cline, who is walking from Denver, Colorado, to Detroit on a wager of $1,000, beating his way. He loses if he does not reach Detroit before July 15. If he gets there by Thursday noon his backer gives him $500 extra.

Cline is a young German, 26 years old, whose home is at Cripple Creek, Col. Colfax, a big Denver gambler, is his backer, and the wager was made with another Denver man, T. A. Wycokoff. He is given 75 days to make the trip, and must beg his board and lodging.

He carries a satchel weighing 42 pounds, altogether too large a weight. Yesterday he walked from Jackson, but his average is not over 27 miles.

He has lost 35 pounds of flesh during the trip and looks as lank and lean as a consumptive. He says people have usually treated him well, but considers New Buffalo and Buchanan, this state, the worst places he has struck. A printer by trade he has depended largely on aid received from members of his craft.

Another man, a miner, started with him on his trip, but gave out soon. Cline thinks because he drank whiskey. Says he has succeeded in holding out because he would drink nothing but water.

ATTENTION NATIONAL GUARD.

Gen. Hawley Issues Orders in Connection with the Coming Encampment of State Troops.

The Lansing Republican publishes the following, in which all the military and their friends will be interested: Brigadier General Hawley has issued orders for the guidance of troops at the coming encampment of the Michigan national guard at Island Lake Aug. 6, in general orders No. 4. Captains will receive them today.

While en route to and from camp, the senior officers present with troops will assume command, and will be held responsible for the good conduct of the troops for the time being. Guards will be stationed at the doors of each car, and enlisted men will not leave the car without permission of company officers.

Citizen's clothing must not be taken to camp. The fatigue uniform, with leggings, haversacks and canteens, will be worn to and from camp. Helmets and uniform coats should be packed and forwarded with other stores; extra baggage or unnecessary stores will be dispensed with.

Every man will have the cross-guns, with number of regiment and letter of company on his fatigue cap before leaving home station, and under no circumstances will they be removed or destroyed.

Ladies will not be invited to remain in camp except for the day, and no quarters can be provided.

No part of the state uniform will be worn by waiters, cooks, or in fact any employes, while in camp.

It is very important that company officers impress upon the minds of the men that it is their duty to salute every officer, also the respect due to the colors, that they keep the fatigue coat buttoned and shoes properly blackened. Colored or tennis shoes must not be worn.

Regiments will camp from right to left as follows: 5th, 1st, 4th, 3d, 2d, and companies in every regiment by seniority of captains, as prescribed by drill regulation.

Tossing in blankets and all unseemly noise is positively forbidden. Men will be required to repair to their tents at the sounding of taps and remain there until reveille. A check roll call will be held in each company immediately after taps, and absentees will be reported by name to these headquarters.

Company commanders will see that all needed supplies for camp are brought with their companies or the arrangements made to purchase the same on the grounds, as no excuses will be entertained for company quartermasters to make this an opportunity to go to Brighton.

A SPRING ATTACHMENT.

Which Pushes a Bicycle up Hill and Winds Itself up While Running Down Hill.

Edison has invented a little attachment for a wheel that may come into general use, and that in the near future.

It having been reported at various times of late that Thomas A. Edison had invented an electric attachment for propelling bicycles, the "wizard" was interviewed by a newspaper man a few days since, and denied that he had even tried to do such a thing.

"I know how the story started," he said. "I have been experimenting with an attachment to a bicycle for my own personal use and for special conditions. My house in Llewellyn Park, Orange, is about one-sixth of a mile from my laboratory and 80 feet high up on the mountain side. So, in order to save myself a heavy pull when I went home in the middle of the day I designed a heavy spring just large enough for the purpose, which was to be wound up by power from the laboratory engine and attached to the bicycle before I start up the hill. I wanted this spring to supply most of the energy for the ascent. Of course, there is nothing electrical about it at all; it is a purely mechanical construction.

"The device is to be so arranged that when riding down hill, or even on the level, the rider can at will throw the spring into gear and by degrees wind it up to its limit. Then when a hill is to be climbed, or the rider wishes to stop working for a short distance on the level, he can turn on the power and let the spring give back some of the energy stored up in it. It can be arranged so that the spring can be wound up gradually so as not to make pedaling much heavier when on the level, and should, I think, be of sufficient power to carry a rider a thousand feet or so on a good road with no up-grade without his doing any work."

Encore.

The bicyclist who was riding a very high wheel took a genuine header and "burned an almost complete somersault. After he had recovered himself and wiped the dirt from his face and clothes he was very much astonished to hear one of two small boys on the sidewalk say:

"Mister, do that agin, will yer? This fellow didn't see it."

Ed. Courier:

I noticed a wise suggestion in a recent issue of your valuable paper in reference to the passing of an ordinance by the common council, making it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment I should suggest, for any person or persons to throw any glass, tacks, thorn bushes or anything of the kind that would puncture the tires of bicycles, upon the streets or walks of the city.

There is an ordinance, as a number of wheelmen have found out, against riding a bicycle upon a sidewalk. That is all right. It is for the protection of pedestrians, especially women and children, and the ordinance should be enforced.

Now the wheelmen are entitled to protection, also, from the deeds of people who sometimes out of spite, and sometimes in a spirit of devilry, or for other reasons perhaps best known to themselves, throw things upon the street that will injure and perhaps destroy the rubber tire now used on bicycles.

The wheelmen of the city should organize, appoint a committee to draft the ordinance, and have it, in the language of Will Carleton, "made good and stout," so that there may be no loopholes for sharp lawyers to pull violators through it, so to speak.

Although there has been no trouble here of any extent, I notice that there has been a great deal of trouble in Indianapolis, and that it was not safe for a wheelman to ride upon the pavement there.

There has been trouble in other places, also, and it is wise to be prepared.

Allow me to suggest, through the columns of the Courier, that all the wheelmen of the city meet in convention, soon, the sooner the better, and organize. There are other interests, also, to be served by such an organization, and in organization there is power.

The wheel has come to stay. Its position under the law is not known. Wheelmen have assumed rights, but whether all rights assumed could be maintained in a court of law, is a question. As all people who ride a wheel are interested I should suggest that this meeting be a mass meeting with ladies invited to participate, and should be held just as soon as sufficient notice can be given, say within a week or ten days. All owners of wheels to be invited to participate.

While begging your pardon for taking up so much of your valuable space, I trust the matter will be of enough consequence so that you will give it place and that something of value to wheelmen may come from it.

Very Truly Yours,

CYCLER.

Andrew Hiller of the Second Ward Shoots Himself.

Andrew Hiller, an old German carpenter, living alone in a little hovel at 53 S. Seventh St., committed suicide yesterday evening at about 4 o'clock.

At two o'clock he was at the home of his son-in-law and was then considerably under the influence of liquor. From there he went home. At about four o'clock he was noticed by a neighbor lady laying on his face before his house. She went for help and then it was discovered that he was dead.

Coroner Ball was sent for and he found that the old man had committed suicide. Beneath him lay a little Dauntless 22 calibre revolver and a small hole just over the right ear told the rest. Sitting before his door he had evidently placed the little revolver against his head and pulled the trigger, dying instantly.

No cause for the deed has yet been assigned. Hiller was a hard drinker and several persons have heard him when in his cups threaten to take his own life. It is supposed that the deed was committed while he was crazed with drink, or in a fit of despondency because of drink.

At 9 o'clock this morning Coroner Ball impaneled the following jury: J. D. Ryan, M. J. Lehman, Wm. Sturgeon, Frank Legg, Truman Waterman and P. J. Lehman. Several examinations were made, but little information elicited. There were no witnesses to the deed. It was finally determined to render a verdict of "accidental suicide" and this was done.

TRAPS ENGLISH SPARROWS.

They Make Very Good Eating Baked in a Potpie.

If every public-spirited citizen who has grieved over the almost total loss of song birds through the pugnacity of the sparrow would follow the example set by Jack Durney, a downtown youth, it would not be very long before the feathered songsters would return again in full force, says the Philadelphia Record. On the roof of a building in the back yard of the Durney homestead a sparrow trap is erected and is in full swing night and day.

Not only are the feathered pests captured by the dozen, but all the friends of the Durney family for squares around will testify to the fact that nothing on earth compares with fat sparrows when cooked in a potpie. The trap is one into which the birds hop to get the grain and bread crumbs plainly in sight. Once inside the birds did not know enough to come out. The sparrows feed more on a cloudy and windy day than on a still, bright day, but no matter what the weather is, it is a poor day when the trap will not yield fifty sparrows. Mr. Durney says he is going to get his trap patented and then induce the legislature to pay so much apiece for dead sparrows. Then he'll make his trap earn him a fortune.

Brains in the Finger Tips.

It may not be so generally known that recent post-mortem examinations of the bodies of the blind reveal the fact that in the nerves at the ends of the fingers well-defined cells of gray matter had formed, identical in substance and in cell formation with the gray matter of the brain. What does this show? It proves that a man can think not alone in his head, but all over his body, and especially in the great nerve centers like the solar plexus, and the nerve ends on the palms of the hands and the soles of the feet. The coming man will assuredly perceive and think in every part, from his head down to his feet.

Bicycle "Stoop" and Speed.

What an edifying spectacle a bicycle race would be in which all the riders would sit up straight upon their wheels. They might be a few seconds slower, but they would make up in grace, ease and dignity what they lacked in speed. —Boston Globe.

RIDING OVER AN EARTHQUAKE.

Novel Train Experience of an American Traveler.

Riding on a train over ground shaken by earthquake is the novel experience of a Constantinople correspondent of the Cincinnati Tribune. He thus describes it:

"All at once the air grew still, an oppressive silence seemed to hang on vale and hill and all the people stopped short. It seemed to me that we ran into a bad piece of track or that our train had suddenly quickened its pace. I saw a Servian woman with a child in her arms stagger, stop, take the water jug from her head and hug her frightened baby to her naked breast. Hundreds of yoke cattle were lowing, burros were braying and the whole flocks of sheep were crying on the distant downs. Meantime the curves seemed to increase, and, although we were not making more than forty miles an hour, we appeared to fairly fly. Men stood still and stared at the heavens. A Mohammedan slid down from a pack mule, spread out his prayer rug, set his face toward Mecca and prayed. Christians crossed themselves and as often as I stole a glance at the driver I found him looking at me. Till now I had attributed the action of these wild people to childish wonder at seeing the train sweep by, but when I looked at the almost pale face of the sun-browned driver I was bewildered. The things I beheld were all so unnatural that I felt my head swimming. Glancing ahead I saw the straight track take on curves and shake them out again, resembling a running snake. The valley had become a narrow gulch, and from the near hills arose great clouds of smoke, as from a quarry when the shots go off. The freeman, who had been busy at the furnace door, stood up now and gazed at the driver, who pressed his left hand over his eyes, then took it off and tried to see, but made no attempt to check the speed of the flying train. As a drunken cowboy dashing down a straight street sways in his saddle—as a wounded bird reels through the air—did this mad monster of a locomotive swing and swim over the writhing rail. Suddenly a great curve appeared in front of us. This time the stoker, who had left off firing, saw it, and made the sign of the cross. Again the driver hid his eyes, and again I felt my brain growing dizzy trying to understand. We could hear and feel the engine wheels rise and fall on the twisting rail with a deafening sound. At last she settled down and began to glide away as a boat glides down a running stream. 'What is it?' I asked of the French freeman. 'Tremblement de terre,' he said, shaking himself violently and fainting to the floor, and then I understood that we had been riding over an earthquake. The driver was either too proud and brave to stop, or too frightened to be able to shut off steam; I don't know which."

MILLIONS OF SQUIRRELS.

John L. Killian, of Vansycle, stated to a reporter that the squirrel problem has become one of grave moment to the farmers of Umatilla County. Mr. Killian says that one who has not traveled over the fields and observed the myriads of ground squirrels which are literally eating the crop of the county, or of many parts of it, has not an adequate idea of the amount of damage being done. He says:

"The situation is desperate indeed. I would hesitate to sound such a note of alarm, but, under the circumstances, it is the duty of everyone who knows the facts to speak, and speak emphatically. Imagine the situation the worst you can, and you will not form an exaggerated idea of the havoc being played in our wheat fields. I believe I am in a position to know, and I have no fear of overstating the facts. The squirrels travel in enormous colonies and make clean sweeps as the pass along. I would not give three coppers for the piece of wheat they have worked in for a day or two.

"Some of our farmers are putting forth every effort to stamp them out, but owing to the fact that many show no disposition to resist the ravages of the pests, and that a large area has been deserted by farmers, their efforts are practically unavailing. Louis Anderson, one of the heaviest wheat growers in the county, is working early and late and making a noble effort to save his crop, but they are defying his attempts and fairly devouring his broad acreage of grain. I have done my best to check them, but am compelled to see my efforts come to naught."

A Graveyard of Heroes.

When Mr. Rhodes visited London in the late autumn he found time to arrange for a memorial to the gallant men who died with Wilson when Lobengula turned at bay. The remains of the band were found where they had fallen, rifle in hand. Mr. Rhodes had them collected and conveyed a distance of 200 miles for sepulchre in the neighborhood of one of the old temples of Central Africa. While in London he commissioned a well-known sculptor to cut medallion portraits of each of the thirty-two men. It is intended, when these are completed, that they shall be set in a stone wall surrounding the little cemetery, each bearing the name of the gallant fellow of whose face the medallion is a counterfeit presentment.

HOT WEATHER.

An Easy Way to Keep Comfortable.

It is only through food that the human body is sustained. Food makes good blood if it is properly digested. The proper operation of the organs of the body will be carried on perfectly as a rule if one will abandon the habits of tobacco, Whiskey, coffee, etc. Stomach quickly recovers itself and does its work correctly.

Those who find it hard to give up coffee can do so easily if they will use Postum Cereal in its place. This is made of pure grains but looks and smells like fine coffee, while it has only the elements of wheat, etc., which are nourishing and fattening.

Postum Cereal is eminently the drink for hot weather as it contains all the elements of food necessary for the body and helps one stand the nervous strain on the system during the heated term.

Great Merchants' Shabby Deeds.

As a rule the head of any large and long-established concern has the shabby desk in the room, says Chicago Times-Herald. Business men have a kind of superstition on this point, at least many of them do. They feel like clinging to the old desk, which has witnessed so many of their financial triumphs, and are half inclined to believe, perhaps, that it might break the spell if they should part with these old partners of their joys and sorrows. Henry Clews, in his "Twenty Years in Wall Street," remarks that Jay Gould transacted all his business at a desk "which never ought to have cost over $25," and everybody knows the story of A. T. Stewart, that when he removed from the old store in which he began his career to the new one which he built later on he insisted on taking along the old apple woman who had been carrying on her small mercantile transactions near his door for so many years and whom he grew to associate with his business success.
