THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD.

The Needs of U. of M. Students Clearly Stated to That Body.

At the 61st annual session of the Presbyterian Synod, held in Adrian last week, Prof. F. W. Kelsey of this city created quite an excitement by his presentation of the needs of the church here in Ann Arbor, and a statement of the number of Presbyterian students in the University. A report of the proceedings says:

"Prof. Kelsey, of Ann Arbor, then read a paper on the subject of the Presbyterian scholars of the United States as compared with the number of students at the University. He said that while the canvass showed in the first semester 401 Presbyterian students, yet more than 800 students were not reached in the canvass. His figures showed a greater number of Presbyterians at the University than at any three Presbyterian colleges. These pupils had received no recognition from the Presbyterian church of Michigan. It was claimed that the University was not a religious or sectarian institution, hence not a subject that should concern the church. He said that from 1845 to 1850 the average number of graduates going into the ministry was 24 per cent of the graduates, but it had gradually decreased decade by decade to 16, 13 and 8 per cent. Still out of 146 students going to theological institutes from the University, the Presbyterian college secured 54, and the Unitarians with all their efforts to proselyte, had obtained but three. With the establishment of sectarian colleges, and with a prejudice existing sometimes against the University and the necessity of there being special instruction for the ministry, it would be a wonder if a single graduate fitted himself for the ministry. He defended the University as a worthy place for students and allowed that with 600 Presbyterian young people to "leave the lump" the moral tone must be high.

The paper was very lengthy, but was full of points and argument and sound logic. He was warmly applauded and a motion to accept, adopt and print his report in the minutes was made and promptly objected to, but finally, after a hot discussion, the paper was ordered printed.

Rev. J. M. Gelston also read a report descriptive of the work being done by the church in Ann Arbor, giving the number of Presbyterian students at 401 of whom 90 are ladies. Besides the above there are 49 Presbyterian students in the Ann Arbor High school, and 67 unclassified.

The churches are slowly, but gradually waking up to the fact that right here at the University, where the cream of all the young people of our state and nation congregate, is the place where work is needed.

An Open Letter.

To the Common Council and especially to the Board of Public Works:

I would draw your attention to the condition of Packard street, between Hanover Square and Wells st., especially to that part from State st. and Wells st.

For nearly a month or over that street has been hardly fit to travel. There is an electric car line the whole length of the street. Cars run on the track every 15 minutes, pretty regular, and only on one side of the street is there a chance to travel with a team, and a poor chance at that.

I would suggest that the members of the common council get a good lumber wagon, and a lively span of horses, such as the city owns, and drive over the road at a good smart trot, to give the members an idea of the condition of the street.

CHRISTIAN EBERBACH.

A GREAT CONFLAGRATION!

The Court House in Ashes and all the Invaluable Records Destroyed.

NO END TO THE LITIGATION

Which Will Surely Follow—The Supervisors Greatly Censured for Not Supplying Safety Vaults.

Such a heading as the above is liable to appear any day in our daily papers. And because of that fact a resolution was introduced yesterday, in the Board of Supervisors by Mr. Scott, which deserves the careful consideration of the Board. It relates to the appointment of a committee to consider the necessity of building fire-proof vaults in the various county offices in the court house, to protect the valuable records stored therein.

The Courier has from time to time advocated this improvement, and would now more than ever urge upon the board the necessity of having those vaults constructed. There are thousands of documents and records in the offices of the probate court, the clerk, the register of deeds, and the treasurer, which if money value can be placed upon, for they relate to property, to estates, titles to land, and assessment rolls, that are simply invaluable.

And there they are, stored in wooden cases, on wooden floors, and would be destroyed in a few moments time by a fire.

"The county is running a great risk," and it is almost a piece of criminal negligence.

If these documents and records should be destroyed, think of the litigation that would surely result! It is simply appalling, and would easily run up into the millions.

It is a fact that the courthouse has been on fire two different times, the result of a defective flue. Workmen now think they have fixed it so that there is no danger, but then, they have thought so twice before, and were mistaken each time. Had the last fire occurred in the night the court house would surely have been destroyed.

If these valuable records belonged to anyone's private business they would be placed in vaults in a hurry. The abstract firm of Brown & Keans, do not allow their books to be exposed to destruction by fire. They have a vault.

Any ordinary careful business man has a fire proof safe in which to store his papers and documents. The banks all have vaults, and rent safety deposit boxes in them for private individuals.

But this great rich county of Washtenaw, worth millions of dollars, allows the books and records of the people's property exposed to destruction any day that accident may bring misfortune.

"How shiftless!" as Aunt Ophelia would say. How unbusiness like.

It would not cost this county any very great sum. We believe that $9,000 or $15,000 would erect these vaults. Now is the time to do the work, when the greater part of masons and laborers have no other work to do. Thus the labor, which would constitute most of the expense would be considerably reduced.

The vaults would need to be quite large, so as to hold all the valuable papers and records. The private rooms in the clerk's and judge of probate's and register of deeds offices would probably have to suffer some, but with the great wooden cases now lumbering up those offices removed, there would be plenty of room left for all practical purposes. Then one-half of the corridor leading to the east entrance could be used without its hurting anything. It might be necessary to take the sheriff's office for the treasurer's vault, but another place could be found for him.

The Courier sincerely hopes that the supervisors will attend to this at once, and order the improvement made. If the expense proves too great for one year extend it over two or three years. Any way to secure safety for these records and documents.

See Serpent's Overland Trip. Harvey county, Kan., reports a monster bull snake that milks cows in the pasture. It must be the sea serpent aking a transcontinental trip.

HELP THE YOUNG MEN.

They are Doing an Excellent Work and are Deserving.

The Young Men's Christian Association are carrying on a work in Ann Arbor that has never been touched before. The attention of this community has been called entirely to the welfare of the students. Enterprises in their behalf have received all the spare cash and time Ann Arbor people have had, while the young men of the city have been left alone. Now the societies and buildings for the students are firmly established, they are here to stay and are built so solidly, that only the disintegration of the University itself can in the least affect them, and it is a grand monument to Ann Arbor that such is a fact.

In view of this fact a number of the business men and Christian men, aided by a few of our Christian women have formed an association that has for its object the welfare of the young men of the town—those who are not able to attend our schools or universities; those who have to toil by day to obtain a livelihood for themselves, their families or relatives—and there are a great many such in Ann Arbor. Heretofore nothing has ever been done for them. Ann Arbor people have found their hands so full attending to the strangers that came within their gates that they have been unable to put forth any effort for the boys of Ann Arbor.

This society commenced in a modest way some three years ago and has grown continually from its inception. Its members have found that the field is greater than they thought. They have been somewhat hampered by lack of funds and proper workmen, but gradually they have been building up their work, until to-day there are upwards of 150 young men of Ann Arbor enrolled in their ranks, all using their influence for the good of their young brothers. A grand work has been established here, and every effort is being made to carry it successfully forward.

The Lyceum Course of entertainments was gotten up to help this Y. M. C. A. The committee having it in charge hoped by securing a first class lot of entertainments and placing the tickets on sale at a moderate figure, that they might sell enough to put a handsome amount into their treasury. And they now call upon the people of Ann Arbor to help a worthy cause by purchasing a ticket for this course, believing at the same time that by so doing every person who purchases such a ticket will be amply repaid, for the entertainments are of the very first order, and will surely be pleasing to those who attend.

The First Entertainment.

The following is the very attractive program for the first entertainment in the Y. M. C. A. Lyceum Course, given by the Laura Dainty Company, in the Presbyterian church, on tomorrow, Thursday evening:

1. Duet—Harp and Violin—"Kulawiak," Wieniawski. The Misses Robinson.
2. Song—"Hybras the Cretan," Elliott. Mr. William Richards.
3. Recitation {a—"How Salvaator Won" Wilcox Mrs. Dainty. b—"Selected Mrs. Dainty.
4. Violin—"Souvenir De Bade," Leonard. Miss Louise Robinson.
5. Recitation—"Come Here," (a monologue in one act, introducing a Manager, a Call Boy, and a Leading Lady). Mrs. Dainty.
6. Duet—Minuet—Bocherini. The Misses Robinson.
7. Song—"For all Eternity," Mascheroni. (With violin obligato by Miss Robinson). Mr. William Richards.
8. Harp Solo—"Husarenritt"—Spinedler. Miss Gertrude Robinson.
9. Recitation. {a—"The Voices of the Night" Eugene Field. b—"Jess' Fore Christmas." Mrs. Dainty.

AHEAD OF LAST YEAR.

The Figures of Attendance as Given Out Last Monday.

The registration at the University was given out Monday, and is very gratifying—exceedingly so when all the causes which have been working against it are taken into consideration, viz: the very hard times; the establishment of other colleges, notably the Chicago University; the lengthening of the law course to three years and the last legislature. The figures are:

Literary department.....	95	94
Medical ".....	124	129
Law ".....	401	344
Dental ".....	67	57
Pharmacy ".....	175	175
Homeop. ".....	76	71
Total.....	278	254

After this date last year 349 registered, and there is no doubt a like number—or more—will still register this year, which will make the total number over 3,000. A solid growth having no mushroomism about it.

These figures are especially gratifying for the medical department, which has to stand more abuse and slander from outside influences than probably any department of any university in the land. With several prominent physicians who constantly keep talking and at least one medical journal that keeps publishing articles about "the decadence of the medical department of the U. of M.," to have that department 67 ahead of last year, is certainly a gratifying victory, and proves that in the end merit wins no matter how much it may be traduced.

Increase in Post Office Receipts.

The receipts at the stamp window of the Ann Arbor postoffice during the year ending September 30, 1895, were $31,308.53. This is an increase of $2,742.38 over the receipts for the year ending September 30, 1894, when the receipts were $28,566.15. The gain for the last quarter, the summer quarter, was $719.24 over the summer quarter of 1894, an increase of over 13 per cent in receipts. The amount remitted to the United States Treasury after paying all the expenses of the Ann Arbor office was, during the year, $13,647.80. While the stamp sales are growing the box rents have been falling off, owing to the extension of the delivery system. During the past year the box rents amounted to $554.45 as against $720.85 for the previous year. From the sale of waste paper, $8.55 was realized last year as against $1.76 the previous year.

The receipts for September of this year were $2,374.56 as against $2,003.84 for September of 1894, an increase of $370.72 or eighteen and a half per cent. Every month shows an increase over the corresponding month of the preceding year.—Argus.

The Michigan Moderator says, and it knows—because Pattangill is head push on it—that, "a flag conforming to the requirements of the new law can be obtained of many reputable dealers for $3; teachers and commissioners should protect boards from avaricious agents who are charging double that price for the flag."

An Ann Arbor bank with $50,000 capital has $225,000 deposits. If that isn't doing business on "flat," then it must be doing it on what it owes. Of course, every son of a gun in the bank believes in a gold standard, yet it has only $4,000 in gold in all its assets. No fool like a gold standard fool.—Adrian Press.

If the above is considered argument, free silver argument, what a mighty fame cause it must be.

Next year is leap year, and although the year 1900 occurs four years later and is divisible by four, it will not be "leap year." Therefore it behooves those who intend to avail themselves of the privileges popularly supposed to belong to the fair sex during the "leap year" period to put in double time, as they will not have another opportunity until 1904, eight long years.

Attorney General Maynard has decided that the state board of auditors must proceed to collect whatever amounts were drawn by state officers in excess of their proper salaries under the salaries amendment act, which was declared fraudulently carried. There are quite a number of these cases, and the supreme court may have to decide one of them to establish a precedent for settling the others.

The mayor and other officials of Hot Springs, Ark., have secured the proposed Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight for Oct. 31. In the meantime the judge of the circuit court has called upon the sheriff and told him that the fight would be in violation of the laws of Arkansas, and that he must stop it. Good for Judge Duff. And the governor of that state has served notice upon these two fighters that they will be thrust in prison if they try to fight within its limits. Good again.

There is one thing that doesn't look right to republican eyes, and that is the factional quarrels in New York, in Chicago, in Pennsylvania, in Detroit, etc. It is not a good sign. Victory does not come to a party discordant and divided. Close up the ranks, boys, and fight the enemy. You will all have your hands full with them. They are not dead, neither are they sleeping, as the recent elections in Indianapolis and Chattanooga plainly indicate. The masses of the people despise these party factional fights.

The Episcopal triennial convention in session at Minneapolis, has authorized the diocese of Northern Michigan, which has practically existed for the past three years, but which has been unable as yet to secure a bishop. The diocese is not a wealthy one, and as a consequence there are few men who care to take upon themselves the burden of the work. However, if they are really and truly servants of the Lord, and not ministers merely for the money they make out of it, they should go and serve Him wherever they are called to go.

CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

Vermont's Great Statesman Recommends Dr. Greene's Nervura to All.

He Says Dr. Greene's Nervura is a Wonderful Medicine. It surely Cures the Weak, Tired and Nervous.

HON. T. S. MCGINNISS.

Hon. T. S. McGinniss of Jericho, Vt., the war horse of the democratic party, is Vermont's silver-tongued orator, and always and ever commends the attention and respect of the people. He ran at the last election as the people's candidate for governor. Such is the high standing of the man who, out of his own experience, advises you to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, to be cured.

"We have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in our family," he says, "and think highly of it. We could plainly see that it had the desired effect upon Mrs. McGinniss, and firmly believe that, could we have persuaded her to use the medicine, it would have cured her entirely from her extremely nervous condition, but she was greatly benefited as it was."

"We have used it in our family with good results, and have recommended it to our friends, and know of many who have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy with the best results. I do not hesitate to recommend the medicine to all. It is a good medicine."

It must indeed be a great and good medicine which can call out such strong words in its praise as this recommendation of this honored statesman, for all to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to be cured. But it is a fact that doctors, statesmen, scholars, preachers, druggists and the people everywhere, unite with one voice in pronouncing this grand medicine the greatest curer of disease ever known. The weak, the feeble, the nervous, the run-down and debilitated, the sufferers from poor blood, rheumatism, dyspepsia, kidney and liver diseases, all are restored to health and strength by its marvelous curative powers.

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and nervous diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th st., New York City. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone at any time free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

The Pinckney Dispatch contains a thrilling tale headed "Lost on Strawberry Lake." Our summer residents there should beware.

There will be a flag raising in the Sutton district, Northfield, one week from next Friday. The occasion will be made a pleasant one.

Pinckney is rejoicing over a new industry in the shape of a chair caning institution. Dexter has the chair "bottoming" industry right down to a system and it's not much of a credit to the town, either.—Dexter Leader.

Last Sunday being the 80th birthday of Mrs. W. Beeman, her children and their families gathered to spend the day and have a good time. To her surprise all of her grandchildren except six came also. Roast pig was enjoyed by all, after which Emery Howe, the artist, was called and took a picture of the family, and another of the whole company, including four great grandchildren. The group contained about forty.—Stockbridge Sun.

Mrs. Church, living in Clinton, Mo., has a curiosity in the shape of a center stand. About two months ago Mrs. Church purchased a rustic center stand, nicely trimmed and varnished, that she placed in her room, and recently she noticed that sprouts had started from the stand legs, which are now about three or four inches in length. Mrs. Church has placed each leg of the stand in saucers of water, and will keep the curiosity as long as possible.

A Conditional Reward. Woman—My husband has disappeared, and may be dead. I want to offer a reward for his body. Chief of Police—Yes, madame. A description will be needed, and this, with the reward, will no doubt prove effective. He may be alive, you know, in which case you may soon be able to return him to you. Woman—I shan't pay a cent of reward unless he is returned dead, just remember that.

Is essential to good health, and for restoring and sharpening the desire for food there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla. "For over 5 years I had dyspepsia and what I did eat was with no relish. I had headaches 3 or 4 days a week, and an awful Tired Feeling."

When I went to bed I seldom had a good night's rest. But I am glad to say Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured all my ills. I rest well at night, have a hearty appetite and can perform my household duties easily. I am glad to report the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla." ELIZABETH E. THOMAS, Forestville, Md.

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

Our Great Colleges Were Not Such Vast Institutions as They Are Now.

Dartmouth College consisted of a wooden building 150 feet long, 50 feet wide and 35 feet high.

At Dartmouth English grammar and arithmetic were text-books in the sophomore year.

Princeton, the greatest Presbyterian college, was a huge stone edifice, its faculty consisting of a president, vice-president, one professor, two masters of languages and seventy students.

Harvard University had four brick buildings; the faculty consisted of a president and six professors, and in its halls thronged 130 to 160 students.

Yale boasted of one brick building and a chapel "with a steeple 125 feet high!" The faculty was a president, a professor of divinity and three tutors.

The greatest Episcopal college in the United States was William and Mary's. It was under royal and state patronage, and was, therefore, more substantially favored than most of our American schools. At this time, it is said in a curious old state report, the college was a building of three stories, "like a brick kiln," and had thirty gentlemen students.

The students lodged in dormitories, ate at the "commons" and were satisfied with what we would consider prison diet. Breakfast, a small can of coffee, a biscuit, about an ounce of butter. Dinner, one pound of meat, two potatoes and some vegetables. Supper, bread and milk. The only unlimited supply furnished was cider, which was passed in a can from mouth to mouth. The days were spoken of as boil day, roast day, stew day, etc.

WILL VIRTUE BE REWARDED?

A West Point Cadet Who Compelled the Colonel to Obey the Regulations.

The establishment of the color line in the West Point summer encampment recently gave rise to a good story on the commandant of cadets, Colonel Samuel Mills. The regulations prescribe that everyone crossing the color line or passing the colors should salute by lifting his cap with the right hand and placing it upon his left shoulder. Colonel Mills neglected this important ceremony not long ago and the sentry on duty promptly stopped him and compelled him to obey the regulation. The commandant next day sent for this cadet, a third class man, who, by the way, comes from Indiana, and talked to him long and earnestly. The young man refused to divulge the substance of the interview, but the general opinion is that the cadet will be given corporal's chevrons in the fall, when changes are made in the officers of the battalion.

Nature insists on regularity. People who allow the continuance of any irregularity in their digestive organs soon have to pay the penalty. Free and regular movement of the bowels is the surest sign of good health.

The first question the doctor asks is: "Are your bowels regular?" If not, he gives something to make them so and quite often that is all he needs to do.

Assist Nature occasionally in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels and you need never be very sick. Remember that assistance don't mean violence. What is needed is a gentle but efficient helper that will work so easily and so naturally that there will be no shock to the system.

Of all the remedies that have been prepared, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets best fill all the requirements. They are made of refined, concentrated vegetable extracts. One is a laxative—two a mild cathartic. They cure constipation, biliousness, dyspepsia, distress after eating, sour stomach, "heart-burn," dizziness, foul breath and all disorders due to imperfect digestion. Each little vital holds from forty-two to forty-four Pellets, and sells at the same price as the more common and cheaper made pills. A free sample package (4 to 7 doses) will be sent on request. Once used, they are always in favor. WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

This year the debate between the orators of Chicago University and the U. of M., will take place in this city on February 1st. At a meeting of the committee held at President Angell's residence last Friday evening, the following question was decided upon for the debate: "Is the principle of a graduated property tax one which should be adopted by the state?" Chicago will be given its choice of sides. The debaters from Michigan will be chosen the same as formerly through competitive contests in the various debating societies of the University.

Miss Gertrude Buck, lit '94, is now studying on the fellowship secured there by her.

The U. of M. Reserves defeated the Normals Saturday in a game of foot ball at Ypsilanti, by a score of 10 to 0.

Miss Marion Jane Barnby, lit '92, was married at her home in Bay City, on Tuesday, to Rev. Wm. E. Ambrose Lewis, rector of Trinity church, Caro, the former home of the bride.

The game of foot ball played Saturday afternoon on the athletic grounds, resulted in a score of 42 to 0 in favor of the U. of M. The Detroit boys were out-classed all right enough.

A prominent citizen of the city read what the two graduates of the University said in the last Courier, and, upon meeting this scribe afterward remarked: "I should like to have those two graduates talk with a young friend of mine who left here a year or so ago to study at Yale. He remained there about three weeks and then came back here, because he said he was going to college for study and not for fun. He is here yet, and is a firmer friend of the U. of M. than ever before. He says if this is 'a poor boy's college' it is a place where the boys get something in their heads besides deviltry."

Chas. W. Ricketts, who was a student in the U. of M. in '93 and as manager of the S. L. A. is thought to have made some $800 or $900 by shady practices, in one year, in trouble down at Terre Haute, Ind. He has been acting as agent for the Western Supply Co., and has been arrested for changing a school warrant from $390 to $590. Ricketts went from here to Chicago University after getting into trouble, and remained there one year, but was under a cloud there for some alleged irregularities. He was a pleasant, gentlemanly appearing young man, and at one time was the most popular student in the University.

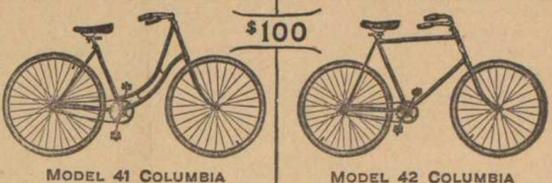

The president of the Humane Society of this city, J. J. Goodyear, Esq., has often been asked to investigate the laboratories of the University, with a view of unearthing alleged cruel practices in the medical laboratories especially, upon dumb animals, in the interest of science. Accordingly in company with Chief of Police Peterson, Mr. Goodyear visited all the laboratories a few days since, and the two report that they not only find that no cruelty is practiced, but that the ferrets, rats, rabbits guinea pigs, etc., kept for experimental purposes, are all given the very best of care. People who have nothing else to do but to imagine all sorts of things about the University and then tell their imaginings for facts, have done the University a vast deal of injury among the people in the past, and probably always will do so.

Washtenaw county has 16 daily and weekly newspapers, being third on the list of counties, Wayne and Kent leading.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

There must be some mistake in the above for Ann Arbor has 8 dailies and weeklies, Ypsilanti 3, Chelsea 2, Manchester, Saline, Milan and Dexter each 1, making 17. Enough for one county, sure.

That husking bee at Wm. Henson's last Friday night was a great success. About 30 persons in all participated and many worked hard. There were only 13-4 acres of land but 238 bushels of corn were husked a yield of 136 bushels to the acre and it was splendid corn. A supper was served about 10 o'clock.—Manchester Enterprise.

It is asserted that the British museum made an offer for the Hillsdale court house, but withdrew it after examining the condition of the "edifice." Wise Britishers.

The last issue of the Stockbridge Sun devotes a double quarter col. to a cut labeled as follows: "This is the picture of Cuyler J. Barton, the Unadilla Devil," who is now in states prison."

There is complaint from several localities in regard to the desecration of the Sabbath by ball playing, etc. The man or boy who remembers the Sabbath day is far more apt to be successful than he who does not.

We notice by the Herald that Mrs. Johnstone-Bishop of Chicago, is to sing in a concert to be given in Howell this winter. She is a great favorite here, and fills University hall with admirers every time she comes. The people of Howell are fortunate.

The piece of petrified wood from Arizona, that has been exhibited at the Savings Bank for some time, has been highly polished by John Baumgardner of Ann Arbor. The color is very beautiful and it adds much to the appearance of the specimen.—Dexter Leader.

Petty jealousies and internal dissensions among the people of Dexter keep them from having an entertainment course. The only way to succeed is for all to pull together, and that is an easy thing to do if each and every person will only think so, and act upon the fact that it isn't always the other fellow who is "off."

F. J. Hammond returned Sunday morning from his trip to Kansas, and reports that he had a rattling good time, as the editor expressed a desire that he should. He took in his first corn carnival next day after arriving there. He quotes from the old saying, "See Venice and die, but he says go west, see a corn carnival and then die. He says that he is willing to admit the claims of natives and old residents that Kansas is a great state, but he is willing to swear by Michigan at all times and at all places, has returned with a firm determination to remain. Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.
Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.
Yours truly,
C. W. HORNICK.

Usually the child who goes to bed with the chickens can afford to get up with them, too, but the mother will do well to make sure that he has really had enough sleep before waking him. An excitable, nervous, or a studious child exhausts more brain power than an ordinary stout, healthy one, and sleep is the only means by which the brain repairs its loss. If he cannot sleep all he wants to do and learn his lessons, too, then let it be the lessons that are abbreviated.

Bartlett Robison who was formerly a resident of Ann Arbor, but now of New York, was married on Monday evening to Miss Lillian M. Fisk, at the home of the bride's parents in Ypsilanti. The couple have the best wishes of many Ann Arbor friends.

The next lecture in the Unity Club course occurs next Monday evening in the Unitarian church, and will be by Rev. J. B. Whitford, of Saginaw, who has an excellent address on "Dante." This will be one of the good lectures of the course, and he should be greeted with a full house.

The University foot ball boys are wild with joy again. "Big Jim" Hooper, the famous player in '93, has joined the nine. He has a great reputation as a heavy weight, and will add much strength to our nine, not only in reality but in confidence, which has a great deal to do with it.

Dr. MacLachlan is writing a treatise on "The Eye" for a Chicago publishing house. He is first vice president of the American Institute of Homoeopathy, president of the Michigan State Homoeopathic Medical Society and honorary member of the N. Y. State Homoeopathic Medical Society. He goes to Detroit soon to secure leisure for the work.

All People Not Alike.

A letter carrier said his wife liked coffee so well and seemed to really need it at breakfast, it was too bad for the doctor to order her to discontinue it. He told her that her bad complexion, dyspepsia, nervousness, and occasional palpitation of the heart all came from one cause and that was coffee drinking. The good man went on further to say: "My child, if you were as strong as your husband and had the miles of outdoor walking to do that he has daily, you could drink one cup of coffee or perhaps two, at breakfast and dinner without any very bad effects, but the same poisonous alkaloids exist in coffee as are found in tobacco, whiskey, strychnine and morphine. There is not so great a proportion of them in coffee as in the other drugs, but a sufficient amount exists to seriously injure anyone whose constitution is a little below par. All of these drugs can be used for a time by perfectly healthy people, but if their use is persisted in long enough, the human body finally gives evidence of the steady poison, and many people who do not know this fact die because of their natural habits. If you could use a hot drink in the morning made from the nourishing grains that nature has provided for the use of man, it would satisfy your appetite and fatten your body."

A wholesome, delicious hot drink of the kind that old doctor referred to is found in Postum Cereal, made from grains; it brews the rich color of Java or Mocha, has a grand fragrance and the pungent taste demanded by all coffee drinkers. No poisonous alkaloids are found here, and man is only safe when he sticks to nature's food, furnished by the Creator, prepared in a number of different ways to be sure. Ruddy health and red blood will follow the discontinuance of unnatural drinks and the substitution therefor of the Cereal food drink. Its use will tell the facts more plainly in the body than words can be made to express. Grocers furnish it and experience teaches that it goes about three times as far as coffee.

CATARRH DESCRIBED.

A Short History of a Bad Malady by an Eminent Medical Authority.

This is the way chronic catarrh usually begins: A person catches cold which hangs on longer than usual. Then follows a sensitiveness of the air passages, which inclines to catch cold very easily. At last the person has a cold all the while seemingly. More or less discharge from the nose, hawking from the throat, nostrils stopped up, full feeling in the head, and cracking in the ears. The Pe-ru-na treatment for this disease is the only treatment that has withstood the test of time. Pe-ru-na should be taken without interruption until every symptom disappears.

Send to The Pe-ru-na Drug Manufacturing Company of Columbus, Ohio, for a copy of their latest book on chronic catarrh. This book is a complete guide to the cure of all forms and stages of this dreadful disease.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at The Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's drug store and Geo. J. Heussler, Manchester.

Dr. J. T. Felling, Des Moines, Iowa, a man that is way up in his profession and a specialist in nervous diseases, writes us follows: "I have used Gessler's Magic Headache wafers in my daily practice and find them to give excellent satisfaction. I have prescribed and given them in a great number of cases and have yet to hear of the first case they did not cure. I do not hesitate to recommend them to both practitioners and the public as a sure cure. A. E. Mummery sells them at 25 cents a box."

The Mount Lebanon Shakers recently performed a great deed of charity, although it was not designed as a charity, being nothing more nor less than an advertising scheme. It however resulted in great good just the same. They gave away 1,000 bottles of their Digestive Cordial to those suffering from stomach derangements.

It was so effective in curing those who used the remedy that they were loud in their praises of it and in consequence a large demand for the cordial was at once created.

The druggists of this town have little books that tell all about it. Digestive Cordial creates an appetite aids digestion and brings about a rapid increase in flesh and strength.

Laxol is the name of a palatable Castor Oil. Just the thing for children.

The Verdict

Said Mr. M—— the other day: "I want one of your seamless hot-water bottles that you warrant. I had one of them and it lasted six months with constant use. I bought two at ——— and they gave out very quickly."

We can give you the man's name if you want it.

These bottles will last two or three years with ordinary use.

Funeral services were held Saturday, from the residence, at 2 o'clock.

The Song Journal for October has a new song by Henri Marteau, who captivated Ann Arbor last winter by his sweet violin music. The cover has a fine portrait of this same gentleman. The contents are of unusual interest, and the musical news is complete. The editor has fallen in love with Mme. Dorre as "Carmen." Marshall Pease has a paper on "What Songs We Shall Sing."

One of the happy events that occur in our midst occasionally, took place last Wednesday evening, when Rev. Fr. E. D. Kelly united the lives of Eugene Williams of the fire department, and Miss Emma Hiller, of this city. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the home of the couple, on N. Fourth avenue. About thirty immediate friends were present. The couple start off in life with the hearty good wishes of many friends.

Typhoid fever is getting a strong foothold in many parts of the state, and even Ann Arbor is not free from it. Under these circumstances would it not be well for our citizens to follow the advice of our physicians and boil the water used for drinking purposes?

A son of Congressman Geo. Spalding, of Monroe, aged 19, was seriously injured by catching his foot in a defective sidewalk in that city a few days since, the left hip being fractured close to the abdomen. He had been recently appointed as a cadet at West Point.

The fire department had two calls Friday p. m. and evening. One from No. 27 Ann st., S. D. Breed's, caused by ashes containing live coals being dumped in a box in the barn—slight damage resulting. The other was from No. 31, caused by a gasoline stove "exploding." The department was on hand each time too quick for the flames to get a start.

The shade trees in this city have suffered a great deal from drought this fall, and unless they get a considerable moisture here long, many of them will be either dead in the spring or so near dead that there will be no hope for them. It is a mistaken idea that the trees do not need moisture in the fall. They need it then just as much as in the summer. Don't let your trees go into the winter without plenty of water, if you can help it.

If the dispatches are not at fault Hubert Woodward formerly of this city but more recently of Flint, has struck a bonanza in a gold and silver mine which he, in company with Col. Wm. B. McCreery, also of Flint, owns. The mine is called the "Big Four," and adjoins the "Little Johnnie," the richest in Colorado. They have struck two veins within 175 feet of the surface, and the ore assays in gold and silver from $200 to $300 per ton. Stock way up and none to be had.

A dispatch in the papers Saturday, bore the unwelcome intelligence that Mrs. Clara Dora Bates, of Chicago, the well known writer of high class literature, and a former resident of Ann Arbor, is ill beyond hope of recovery. This will be a sad piece of news to her many friends here. Since the above was in type, the death of Mrs. Bates has been announced, having occurred on Sunday, Oct. 13. The remains were brought to this city and funeral services are being held to-day from the residence of her sister, Mrs. Homer P. Finley, at No. 46 S. Ingalls st. The remains will be interred in Forest Hill cemetery. Mrs. Bates was a woman of great force of character and made for herself an enviable reputation in literature, especially in the line of poems and stories for children. Her death will be greatly deplored here, by the many friends of herself and family.

Mrs. Perry, president of the Needle Work Guild, announces a meeting of the officers thereof, at her house, on Thursday, at 3 o'clock p. m., to discuss the work of the year. This society did a great deal of excellent work last year, and will not be found wanting this year.

Mrs. Henrietta Penny of Ann Arbor, was on the bond of Miss Bower for treasurer of the school's. Her nephew objected on the ground that Penny aunt, ought not to be permitted in connection with the educational interests of the Ann Arbor youth. "Law suz."—Adrian Press.

There are a larger number of foreign students in the high school than ever before, some forty or more, and yet the attendance falls short of last year. What is the matter? Is Ann Arbor decreasing in population? That can hardly be true, when 75 to 100 new residences have been put up every year for the past eight or ten years.

Unless we get some heavy, soaking rains before freezing weather sets in, many of the people of this city are sure to have an unpleasant experience with their water pipes again this winter. The surface of the earth is perfectly dry, and unless it is thoroughly moistened, it will freeze very deep, certainly down below many of the pipes which are too near the surface even for ordinary winters. It might help save the pipes from freezing if water takers would saturate the earth with water along where the pipes are laid.

On Saturday last, Mr. E. J. Ottaway, after a brief service, severed his connection with the Argus, to take a lucrative and important position on the editorial staff of the Detroit Free Press. While we all dislike to part company with Mr. Ottaway, we certainly are pleased to note his promotion, and can conscientiously congratulate the Free Press on its good fortune in securing him, for he is a valuable newspaper man. The position he vacates on the Argus will be filled for the present by George R. Barker, Ht. '98, the present managing editor of the Wrinkle. Mr. Barker has had considerable experience in journalism, having been the city editor at different times for the Flint Daily Globe, and the Flint Daily News, and if he remains with the Argus permanently will bring to his aid a good experience. So congratulations are in order all around.

THE KEEN BUT GHASTLY PARALLEL!

AND ITS "STEARNS" LOOK WHEN DRAWN ON TWO PROMINENT WOLVERINE NEWSPAPER SCRIBES—LOOK ON THIS COLUMN AND THEN ON THAT.

The Adrian Press and the Monroe Democrat have such a strong resemblance in some of their alleged—(no libel suit on for positive assertion this time)—witticisms which they sometimes indulge in at the expense of the surrounding country, that it has led us to place side by side several productions from the brains of these two able pencil pushers, as they appeared in the last issues of those valued publications. It is not our desire to call attention to the similarity of the subject matter, but to the groove of thought through which each one runs incidents of note, and the peculiar color of the garb with which they clothe the same. If there is any especial merit of one over the other, our readers are at liberty—(very kind of us, eh?)—to settle it to suit themselves. The tone of the two scribes is so similar that it would be easy to accuse one or the other of the serious but not uncommon offense of plagiarism, but such an unkind accusation would be erroneous. There may be a sort of unconscious absorption on the part of the Press man, you know such a thing has been known among writers. But we look upon these two excellent journalistic laborers as literary twins, so to speak—not from any similarity of physical construction, nor from any plagiarism of nature in forming their physiognomy, nor from any peculiar traits of character, but just a pair of peculiar literary twins, that's all. They have herded together so long that they have come to use the same quaint way of expressing their thoughts when such thoughts take a ludicrous vein.

But perhaps we have said enough, perhaps too much, so here are the quotations, and if you enjoy humor they are worth reading:

This column is devoted to clippings taken FROM THE MONROE DEMOCRAT.

"The Lost Chord" was sung so pathetically at Ypsilanti, by the "Smith Sisters" it is said, that Elder Ryan and Justice Beach were almost inclined to make up and "smile" over past differences.

Two Ann Arbor men fought and the daily paper reported it, saying that they were brothers-in-law. One of the men promptly denied it in the paper, and the other felt so grateful for the denial that he immediately made up with his adversary.

It is odd how ignorance and erudition often touch elbows. Within the shadow of the Michigan university two men, last week, disputed over a dug-up bone, one insisting that it was a human shoulder blade, and the other that it was the skull of a horse.

A University society band, whose members are generally sons of wealthy parents, is settling $800 worth of debts for 50 cents on the dollar. This may or may not be a symptom of adversity. Said Ikey to Jakey: "This has not been a bad year for business—I have had tree failures."

The sum of $200 has been subscribed toward building a bicycle track between Tecumseh and Clinton, a distance of three miles. This will doubtless be the pioneer bicycle highway of the world. And "bi" the way, the time is in the near future when bicycle paths will be built at public expense, as roads now are.

The weekly newspaper called the Crop Bulletin, issued from Lansing, by the Weather Bureau, has suspended publication for the remainder of the year. This will afford people, who have sprained their jaws, wrestling with the pot-bellied polysyllables of the smart clerks, a chance to recover, before cold weather sets in.

A Ypsilantian snatched a bunch of grapes from a vine that he didn't own, and hearing steps, hastily crammed the fruit into his mouth. Along with the grapes were included a pair of yellow-jackets in military uniform. The swelling in his throat he afterward used to deceive his family physician into treating him for the mumps.

County Treasurer Rhexus, of Washtenaw, has only recently decided to remove from Manchester to Ann Arbor. Being a republican in a democratic county, Rhexus has but just sufficiently recovered from his astonishment at being elected, to "make a move." It is probably the last surprise of the sort that will overtake him. (It is well that no positive assertion is made.)

By claiming that on a certain date he would expose the biggest liar in town, the captain of the salvation army at Ypsilanti, a few days ago, drew out a large crowd and told them the fellow was the devil. Many were disappointed, knowing that Captain Allen had promised 50 cents worth under the McKinley tariff. (Bro. Smith has repeated this story about Capt. Allen so often, once a week for the past six years, that he really has come to believe that he is no liar himself. It has got to be really a sad case.)

In a fight, an Ann Arborite "earomed" on the head of his adversary with a billiard cue, opening the "cushion" about three inches. He sought justice Gibson and while the magistrate was making a warrant, suddenly began to yell, "Take 'im off! take 'im off!" When help arrived it witnessed the majesty of the law, with all its dignity, jurisprudence and lack of front hair, astride the breast of the complainant, holding him down on the floor to prevent him from doing violence.

Frank D., son of Edward Hammel and wife, of Pittsfield, died Thursday afternoon, of blood poisoning, aged 16 years and 4 months. The blood poisoning resulted from an injury on the leg, received by jumping over the fence at the county fair.

Charles Eaton, of Pittsfield, while thrashing on the Mann farm, out on S. Main st., lost two of his toes by having his foot drawn into the gearing of the traction engine, and crushed. It was a great piece of luck that he did not lose his entire foot.

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery:

The petition of Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General of said State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State of Michigan, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of certain lands in said County of Washtenaw upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and the cost of advertising and other expenses of sale of each of said parcels of land.

Your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan, for the sale of said lands, and that said lands be returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 206 of the Public Acts of 1893, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes, and that the same be sold, except such of the taxes set forth in said schedule as were returned to the Auditor General as delinquent for non-payment of the same, on or before the 12th day of June, 1895, and remain unpaid.

Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fees and cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as set forth in said Schedule A, are a valid lien on the several parcels of land described in said schedule.

Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year prior to the first day of May, 1895; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fees, cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as computed and extended in said schedule, against the several parcels of land therein described, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.

And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.

Dated August 14, 1895.

STANLEY W. TURNER,
Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of the State of Michigan.

Georgia's Pear Crop.

The pear crop of Georgia this year is the largest on record. It is estimated by those who are in a position to know and to judge correctly that it will exceed 300,000 barrels. The bulk of the pears are Le Conte. A small proportion are of the Kieffer and Bartlett varieties. If 300,000 barrels were placed end to end, they would form a line 150 miles long, reaching through the whole length of the territory where the pear is cultivated on the Savannah, Florida and Western Railway. This number of 300,000 barrels is equal to 800,000 bushels, and would weigh upward of 30,000 tons. They would load seven or eight of the largest tramp steamers coming to Savannah. The bulk of this enormous pear crop has been raised in some six or seven counties.

Camera an Aid to Diagnosis.

A Manchester, Eng., photographer relates that he once took a photograph of a child who was apparently in good health and had a clear skin. The negative showed face to be thickly covered with an eruption. Three days afterward the child was covered with spots due to prickly heat. The camera had seen and photographed the eruption three days before it was visible to the naked eye. It is said that another case of a similar kind is recorded, where a child showed spots on his portrait which were invisible on his face a fortnight previous to an attack of small-pox.

THE I. O. O. F. ENCAMPMENT.

A Brief but Complete Description of the Same.

The regular annual encampment of the order known to the world as I. O. O. F., occurred in Ann Arbor last week, closing Wednesday. The attendance was very good, though the raw, cold weather no doubt effected it somewhat. The sessions of the encampment were of course open only to members of the order. The official reports revealed the fact that several old and run down encampments had been re-established during the year, that one new one had been established at Lowell, Kent Co., and that it had been a prosperous year.

Andrew Harshaw, of Alpena, the grand treasurer, presented the following facts: Cash on hand at time of last report, $1,321.92; received during the year, $1,884.92; total receipts, $3,206.83; expenditures, pay roll of Hillsdale session, $1,226.75; warrants drawn during the year, $722.36; total expenditures, $1,949.11; balance on hand, $1,256.92.

The next grand encampment was given to Allegan, to be held on the second Tuesday of October, 1896.

The election of officers for the grand encampment, resulted as follows: Grand Patriarch—Henry Lever, of Newaygo.

G. H. P.—Frank Shephard, Cheboygan.
G. S. W.—Wm. Skimin, Fort Gratiot.

G. Scribe—E. H. Whitney, Lansing.
G. Treas.—Andrew Harshaw, Alpena.

G. J. W.—Robert Donovan, Charlotle.
Representative to Sovereign Grand Lodge—Josiah Dandy, Grand Rapids.

In the evening the brothers present saw the secret work of the order beautifully exemplified by Grand Representative E. G. Turner, of Luther, Lake Co., after which an informal reception was given the visitors by the local brethren, in the armory of the A. A. L. I.

When the encampment convened Wednesday morning the following appointive officers were announced by Grand Patriarch Henry Lever: Grand Marshal—N. A. Mertz, Marquette.

G. J. S.—Earl Fairbanks, Luther.
G. O. S.—B. D. Harper, Buchanan.
After which all the officers were installed.

THE SWORD DRILL.

This was held on the court house square, and was quite interesting from a military point of view. The prizes were awarded as follows: Capt. C. S. Martin won the first prize $10; Chevalier Stannard, second, $7.50; Lieut. S. J. Hall, third, $5.00; Chevalier F. Hodge, fourth, $2.50. All from Flint.

THE COMPETITIVE DRILL.

Had taken place on the fair ground the day previous and the following prize winners were then announced: Col. Fenton Canton No. 27 of Flint, commanded by Capt. Chas. S. Martin, took the first prize, $75. Detroit Canton No. 1, commanded by Capt. Geo. S. Everson, captures second prize, $50. The third prize was given to Oriental Canton No. 19, of Battle Creek, commanded by Capt. Chas. Parker, of Adrian.

BEST CANTON COMMANDERS.

The prizes awarded for the best canton commanders resulted as follows: Capt. Chas. S. Martin, Flint, first, $10; Capt. Everson, Detroit, second, $7.50; Capt. Chas. Parker, Adrian, third, $5.

The judges for the drill were Maj. Sid W. Millard, Capt. John C. Fischer, and Capt. Henry Maunder, of Grand Rapids.

The Daily Times account says that the Battle Creek Canton received the prize of $25 for the canton coming the longest distance. C. A. Donauer, of Owosso, was the oldest chevalier, 71 years and one month, and received $5. Chevalier Sellers of Battle Creek received the prize for being the youngest, 23 years and seven months, and for being the handsomest in line. Capt. John Stayman was decided upon by the Rebeckas as being the homeliest man and received the prize of $2.50. The heaviest chevalier was W. H. Hendershot, of Battle Creek, 212 pounds, and the lightest was Chas. H. Royce, of Detroit, 114 pounds. The tallest man was A. L. Frost, of Charlotte, 6 ft. 11.2 in. H. S. Gamble was the shortest, being 5 ft. 4 1/2 in. tall. Col. Fenton Canton, of Flint, received the first prize for having the largest number of men in line in the parade.

Huron Lodge, of Dexter, received the first prize for having the largest number in attendance of the subordinate lodges, and Milan for coming the longest distance of any subordinate lodge.

The checks for the prizes were given.

ea the winners at the close of the parade on the court house square Wednesday afternoon and most of the cantons prepared for home.

THE PARADE.

The grand parade occurred Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, starting at the court house and finishing at the same place. The mayor, president of the council and aldermen were given the place of honor at the head of the procession. Following them came the general officers and staffs. The Newsboy's Band from Detroit, furnished music for the head of the procession and was followed by Ann Arbor Canton No. 30, Detroit Canton No. 1, Flint Canton No. 27, Battle Creek Canton No. 9, Owosso and Charlotte. The center of the formation of the parade was broken by the Ann Arbor city band which was followed by a long line of hacks and carriages.

The meeting was a very pleasant one for the visiting brothers, the local lodges doing all in their power to entertain them, and although there must be some disappointments when numbers compete for prizes, yet the general verdict was that the prizes had been awarded on merit alone.

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He can not eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

W. J. BRODIE.
1077 W. Polk St., Chicago, Oct. 27, 1895.
THE OWEN ELECTRIC BELT AND APPLIANCE CO., Gentlemen—Solely in the interest of others who are, or may become similarly affected with myself, I venture to offer my experience with the use of the Owen Electric Belt, and that I am actuated entirely by that motive, may be apparent from the fact that until you see my name and address recorded on this letter you had no knowledge of either. I had long been a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia and nervous prostration, contracted or aggravated by many years residence in the East Indies. About three years ago I purchased one of your Belts in the hope that its use might afford me some relief, and wore it continuously as directed for about four hours every afternoon for a month or so, and the result was perfectly marvelous. My indigestion with all its attendant miseries, nervousness, depression, irritability and insomnia, from which latter I was a great sufferer, had disappeared. I then discontinued the use of the Belt (the existence of which I had indeed forgotten), until about six weeks ago, when a recurrence of my old trouble very forcibly reminded me of it. I again put it into wear (after ceasing its use for ever one and one-half years), and with the same extraordinary results, being again restored to health, strength and vigor, after wearing it for only ten days. Under these circumstances I can most emphatically recommend to others suffering from the ailments which I have endeavored to describe, the adoption of the use of the Owen Electric Belt. I had long been aware of the curative powers of electricity from what I had read on the subject, and on my return to England I purchased from Pulvermacher of Regent street, London, the combined chain bands, of which he is the patentee, for which I paid three guineas, and although I must admit that I derived some benefit from their use, I am bound to say the general result did not approach the benefit derived from the use of the Owen Belt, besides which its utility is so great an improvement in comfort and convenience; Pulvermacher's being cumbersome and complicated in adjusting to the body, besides causing from being uncovered, blisters and sores, and above all not being able to regulate the current as is the case in the Owen Electric Belt. You are at perfect liberty to make what use you think fit of this letter, and I shall be glad to answer either verbally or by letter any inquiry made from me on this subject. I am, gentlemen, Yours respectfully, W. J. BRODIE.

A FAMOUS REFORMER.

He Has Written and Preached on Both Sides of the Atlantic—Recently the Victim of a Peculiar Affliction from Which He was Released in a Marvelous Manner.

From the Herald, Boston, Mass.

REV. C. J. FREEMAN, A.B., PH.D.

No. 157 Emerson St., South Boston, is the present home of Rev. C. J. Freeman, A. B., Ph. D., the recent rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church at Anaconda, Mont. During the reform movement which has swept over Boston, Dr. Freeman has been frequently heard from through the various newspapers and although a resident of comparatively recent date he has exercised much public influence which has been increased by the fact that he was ten years ago on a commission appointed in England to investigate the troublesome question of the vice of great cities.

He has preached before cultured audiences in the old world, as well as to the rough pioneers in the mining towns of the Rocky mountains, and his utterances as well as his writings have been in the line of progress and liberality, well-seasoned with practical common sense. Dr. Freeman has written this paper a letter which will be read with much interest. He says:—

"Some five years since I found that deep study and excessive literary work, in addition to my ordinary ministerial duties, were undermining my health. I detected that I was unable to understand things as clearly as I usually did; that after but little thought and study I suffered from a dull pain in the head and great weariness, and all thought and study became a trouble to me. I lost appetite, did not relish ordinary food, after eating, suffering acute pains in the chest and back. There was sourness of the stomach, and the most of my food seemed to turn to sour water, with most sickly and suffocating feeling in vomiting up such sour water.

At this time I consulted several physicians. One said I was run down, another said I had chronic indigestion; but this I do know, that with all the prescriptions which they gave me I was not improving; for in addition, I had pains in the regions of the kidneys, a very sluggish liver, so much so that I was very much like a yellow man, was depressed in spirits, imagined all sorts of things and was daily becoming worse and felt that I should soon become a confirmed invalid if I did not soon understand my complaints. I followed the advice of physicians most severely, but with all I was completely unable to do my ministerial duty, and all I could possibly do was to rest and try to be thankful. After eighteen months' treatment I found I was the victim of severe palpitation of the heart, and was almost afraid to walk across my room. Amid all this I was advised to take absolute rest from all mental work. In fact, I was unable to take any duty for the reason that the feeling of complete prostration after the least exertion, precluded me from any duty whatever, and it appeared to my mind that I was very near being a perfect wreck. As for taking absolute rest, I could not take more than I did unless it was so absolute as to rest in the grave. Then it would have been absolute enough.

"It is now quite three years, since, in addition to the pains and penalties which I endured, I found creeping upon me a peculiar numbness of the left limbs, and in fact could not walk about. If I tried to walk I had to drag the left foot along the ground. The power of locomotion seemed to be gone, and I was consoled with the information that it was partial paralysis. Whether it was or not I do not know, but this I do know, I could not walk about and I began to think my second childhood had commenced at the age of forty-one years.

"Just about two years ago or a little more, a ministerial friend came to see me. I was sick in bed and could hardly move, and he was something like old Job's comforter, although not quite. He had much regret and commiseration which was a very poor balm for a sick man. But the best thing he did say was this: "Did you ever see Pink Pills?" I said, "Who in the world is he?" He said, "Why do you not try Pink Pills?" He said good bye very affectionately, so much so that doubtless he thought it was the last farewell. Nevertheless, after thinking a little, I just came to the conclusion that I would make an innovation and see what Pink Pills would do. I looked at them, and I said can any good possibly come out of those little pink things? Any way, I would see. I was suspicious of Pink Pills, and I remembered the old proverb: "Sospetto licentia fede." "Suspicion is the passport to faith." So Pink Pills I obtained, and Pink Pills I swallowed. But one box of them did not cure me, nor did I feel any different. But after I had taken nine or ten boxes of pills I was decidedly better. Yes, I was certainly improving, and after eight months of Pink Pills I could get about. The numbness of the left limb was nearly gone, the pains in the head had entirely ceased, the appetite was better, I could enjoy food and I had a free, quiet action of the heart without palpitation. In fact, in twelve months I was a new creature, and to-day I can stand and speak over two hours without a rest. I can perform all my public duties which devolve upon me, without fatigue, and do all the walking which I have to do, and am thankful for it. I can safely say I was never in a better state of health than I am to-day, and that I attribute it to the patient, persevering use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I fully, cordially and strongly commend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to all or any who suffer in a similar way, and feel sure that any one who adopts Pink Pills with perseverance and patience cannot find their expectations unrealized or their reasonable hopes blasted. But he will find that blessing which is the reward of a full trust in a true and reliable remedy. I shall always wish and desire the greatest success for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and always cherish a deep feeling of gratitude to the friend who first said to me buy Pink Pills. I have tried them and know their value, and am truly glad that I did, for I have found from them a good experience, to do more than is actually claimed for them."

Very faithfully yours,
C. J. FREEMAN, A.B., Ph.D.,
Late rector of St. Mark's, Montana.
