IT WAS VERY DISAPPOINTING

Senator Hill Did Not Come up to Expectation, and His Audience Went Away Looking Down Their Nose.

HE READ HIS LITTLE PIECE

And was Very Careful About the Correct use of Language—Politics Studiously Ignored.

Senator David P. Hill read his little piece before a fair sized audience last Friday evening in University Hall. If the senator could have been a spectator of the scenes which occurred here three years ago, when his great political rival, President Cleveland came to Ann Arbor, and then compared those stirring scenes with the quiet and unostentatious, yes, even tame reception he received, the green would certainly have gathered in his eyes, and he would have gone from Ann Arbor with vengeance in his mind and hatred in his heart. But then, the circumstances were different, and it is very doubtful if those scenes would again be repeated, even if so distinguished a personage as the president himself should appear here during his term of office. As a lecturer Mr. Hill is disappointing.

It is the same old story. When men who have achieved fame step upon the lecture platform, outside their special field, they fail to excite enthusiasm.

It was the same with Reed, McKinley, Wilson, Halstead, and others who have appeared here.

It is to be regretted that the association that brings them here are obliged to hold their lectures in a hall where political speaking is prohibited. Could Senator Hill have spoken on politics, then the audience would have been given an idea of his power and eloquence, an idea of those qualities that have made the man great. As it was it was simply tedious.

While Mr. Hill's ideas of Old Landmarks are good, yet every idea he expressed, every thought he gave utterance to, was familiar to perhaps every person present. There was nothing new, no high enlivening, nothing enthusiastic in the entire lecture. Occasionally one would catch a gleam of the reader's oratorical ability, and, from that could imagine what the lecturer might have done but not been tied down to manuscript and given a theme that he was interested in.

A man "who carries his audience with him," is the man who has something to say because he believes he is in the right. Plain Abraham Lincoln, with the love of human freedom glistening from his eyes, and the cause of humanity welling up from his heart giving utterance to his words, was a power. Why? Because he had a theme that was so dear to him that it brought into activity all the energies of his brain and manhood.

The trouble with these great men who come here to lecture is twofold. In the first place they must talk about something in which they have no special interest. Like the man on the farm, they are hired, and must earn their wages. They are talking, not from the love they bear any cause or any subject, or because they have something to say, but simply for pay.

The next trouble is that every one who comes here is afraid of his audience. He thinks the people here are keen critics, and consequently he makes elaborate preparation and instead of throwing aside his manuscript and appearing natural, he is all the time on the alert lest some ungrammatical sentence or questionable phrase should escape his lips. This is the most serious of the two as far as the audience is concerned. It prevents the man from acting out his natural self and gives the audience a lot of good English but no individualism, no new ideas, and nothing to stir them up or interest them.

GOOD LUCK AND QUICK WORK

Saves the City From a Costly Conflagration This Morning.

M. E. CHURCH SHEDS BURNED

And Wallace's Livery Stable Together With Four Horses Therein Cremated.

This morning at about 3:30 o'clock an alarm of fire routed out the department boys, and they were confronted, upon reaching the spot, with a big job. The livery barn of Mr. Wallace, adjoining the M. E. church sheds, on E. Washington st., was on fire and had got under hot headway. They went to work, however, and confined the flames to the barn and the sheds, although the rear ends of several dwellings were in dangerous proximity, and some of them came extremely near being cremated. The paint was badly blistered and the boards charred on a number of the dwellings.

The fire got such a start before being seen, that it was impossible to rescue all of the horses therein, and four of them were burned up, together with a lot of harness, hay, etc.

The loss is total on the barn and on the M. E. church sheds, which will probably not exceed $800 or $900 at the most. In fact, to the good looks of the locality the loss is rather an improvement than otherwise.

The barn occupied by Wallace was owned by Henry Waldron. Insurance on same and contents $500, which covers loss.

Judge Cheever's barn, occupied by C. A. Maynard, insured for $150, contents for $800. Loss on barn total, on contents about $300.

Only the excellent work of the department, and the quietness of the elements saved the city from a big conflagration. Had one of the big gales been blowing that has been prevalent for several weeks, a large portion of the residence part of Ann Arbor would surely have been swept away, for everything in that vicinity was like a tinder box, and the houses are very close together.

How the fire occurred no one knows. It is thought to have been the work of an incendiary.

On Tuesday afternoon at about 4 o'clock, the house of Mrs. Catharine C. Stoll, of 119 W. Huron street, caught fire, and the rear portion was entirely destroyed before it could be extinguished. The house is at the western limits of the city, and the run is up hill most of the way, making it a little up hill work for the teams, but they made good time in getting there.

The loss will be about $1,000 on building and contents.

Keystone Club's Annual.

The Keystone club held its annual election of officers last night. As usual the past year has been successful and many good times were had during the fishing season. Sam Langsdorf was elected president, Jas. R. Bach vice president, and John R. Miner secretary and treasurer. The principal duty which devolves upon the president is giving the Thanksgiving dinner, which lacks nothing in the line of eatables that money can procure, whether it be of a domestic or foreign nature. In selecting the president this year the club made no mistake, for if anybody can get up a dinner to please the palate and which will be received and viewed with much eclat, to say nothing of how it will be stored away by the hungry members of the club who have been sharpening their teeth and have waited for it for one long year, it is "Little" Sam.—Daily Times.

STATE TAXES.

Here Are Some Figures That Tell a Story of Injustice to Washtenaw.

A few weeks ago the Courier had an editorial on Washtenaw's share of state taxes to the effect that this county was paying more than its proper share. As further proof of this may be added that our population is one-fiftieth of the entire state's while we pay one-thirty-sixth of the taxes.

If we paid one-fiftieth of the tax we would pay $60,000 instead of $81,546.77. So we pay $20,000 of the taxes of other counties.

Washtenaw has 43,491 population and Lenawee 48,541, but the latter only pays $79,562. Kalamazoo has the same population as Washtenaw, yet it only pays $71,539.

Ingham county has 39,689 and only pays $55,929.

Bay county has 61,292 and only pays $72,333.

When the state board of equalization meets at Lansing next August, our supervisors ought to be representatives, to get our share reduced to its proper amount.

To Abandon St. Louis.

The Ann Arbor Railroad Co. has been grading for the past few weeks, preparatory to the change of their road from St. Louis, so as to abandon that place and run direct from Ithaca to Alma. St. Louis decided to stop the change, and recently filed a bill in the Gratiot county circuit court restraining the Ann Arbor Co. from changing its route. Judge Daboll entered an order to show cause why it should not be done. The hearing was held yesterday before Judge Eldredge, in the absence of Judge Daboll. The defendants, in their answer admitted that they intended to abandon St. Louis altogether, on account of bad curves and grades. The complainants were represented by E. A. Cooley, of Bay City, and the defendants by A. Smith, of Toledo. Judge Eldredge reserved his decision for a week.—Daily Times.

For the sake of the good name of the United States, Mr. Cleveland, please tell England that she must stop bulldozing the nations on this continent.

The board of supervisors of Lenawee county have adopted the chain and ball for tramps and prisoners, and will find work for them to do. No other method will ever keep that sort of gentry away from a city.

The potato crop is an enormous one, even in states that have heretofore not produced enough for home consumption. This is the reason why potatoes are so cheap. There will be none imported this year to supply our home needs.

Spain hastened to acknowledge the Southern Confederacy as belligerent within ten days after the firing upon Fort Sumpter, and now Uncle Sam ought to return the compliment to the Cubans—Stockbridge Sun. The Sun raises a point in modern history that Uncle Sam ought to take a cue from.

The news that the American legation at Seoul has been snubbed by the new Korean government, and entirely ignored, will be of some interest locally because of the fact that the American minister is Prof. J. M. B. Sill of this city. How would it do for President Cleveland to send a gun boat or two there and let the heathen know that there is such a power in the world as the United States? Or would it cost too much effort?

The people of Russia, France, Germany, Austria and Italy have to pay over one billion dollars annually to maintain their armies. Just give the statement a thought. The producers of those nations are obliged to give to their governments that immense sum just to keep men in military training that their neighbors may not pounce upon them and conquer them. If the southern states had been successful in seceding from the Union some thirty years ago, then we, too, on this American continent, would have been in a similar situation.

If a man gives vent to a patriotic sentiment, and condemns the contemptible policy of England in terrorizing the small nations on this continent, and expresses regret that we have not a Monroe of Jackson in the presidential chair, he is called a "jingoist." It is wrong to be patriotic! It is wrong to sympathize with the people of Hawaii and Cuba who were or are struggling for freedom! We must not let the concern of the people of other nations effect us in any way. Is it not too bad that there can not be some patriotism aroused down at Washington, D. C.?

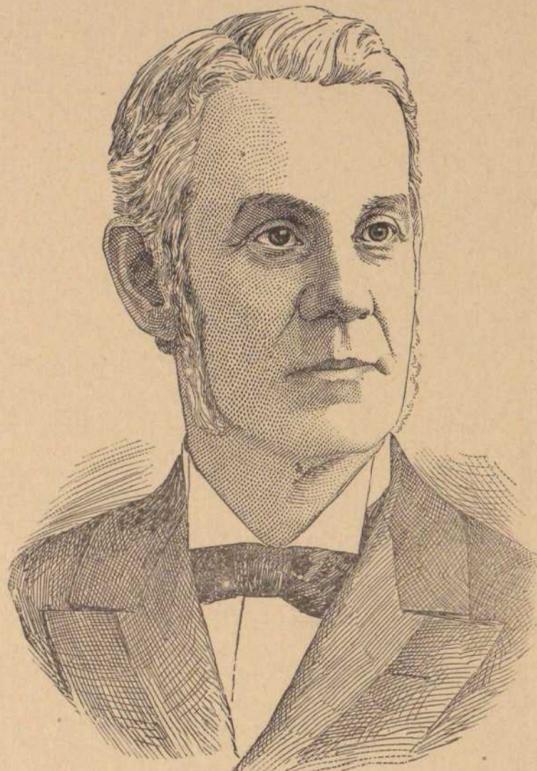

In the state of Michigan there were 2,501 divorce suits commenced during 1894, which was 84 less than for 1893. Of these decrees were granted: 1,394, 216 were discontinued, and 891 are still pending. As there were 18,220 marriages during 1894, the per cent of applications for divorce to the number of marriages is 13.7. During the year 1891 there were only four divorces granted in the province of Canada, and but five in 1892. In the New England states for 1892 there were 54 divorces granted for every 100,000 population. The state of South Carolina refuses to grant divorces for any cause. The divorce record of Michigan is said to be about medium, or half way between the extremes in the United States.

LAWYER AND STATESMAN

Hon. Sam'l B. Page Tells you to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura to Cure.

New Hampshire's Best Known Orator and Statesman Says Dr. Greene's Nervura Will Make You Well and Strong

HON. SAMUEL B. PAGE.

Lawyer and Statesman, etc., etc.

For ten years Hon. Sam'l B. Page of Haverhill, N. H., has been a member and leader in the New Hampshire legislature, and for twenty-five years has been that state's ablest lawyer and foremost citizen being recognized throughout New England as a most brilliant orator and statesman.

Everybody knows Mr. Page, and when he tells the people everywhere to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, to regain their health and strength, when he tells the weak, tired and nervous that this wonderful medicine will make them strong and well, all know that he means just what he says—that if they follow his advice and take this remedy.

"I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy," says Mr. Page, "and take pleasure in recommending its use to all sufferers from any derangement or disturbance of the nervous system. It is peculiarly valuable as a nerve tonic, and I can recommend it to all as an excellent tonic for the system."

Other prominent and well known people endorse and recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy as the greatest, best and surest cure ever discovered. Such famous Northville has a bell factory, and so many orders have been rung in that the company finds it necessary to increase the plant, right in these hard times and when the Wilson free trade bill just paralyzes our factories and industries. They ought to make a bell on which some of these papers like the N. Y. Press, Ann Arbor Courier, Ypsilantian and Hill's Herald-Leader could "ring off" on tariff.—Adrian Press.

The tariff was rung off for a while. The democratic congress and a democratic president did their level best at it and the result was almost a total destruction of the business interests of the nation. No thank you, the people do not want the tariff rung off. They are too anxious to tie to the one great thing that has made us prosperous as a nation. Free trade will do for England, a manufacturing nation alone, but for the United States, with diversified interests, of agriculture, manufacture, etc. the policy of protection is what enriches the land and causes its people to prosper.

The Discovery Saved His Life. Mr. G. Callouette, Druggist, Beaver-ville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store, I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's Drug Store, and Geo. T. Haussler, Manchester.

Catarrh can be successfully treated only by purifying the blood, and the one true blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

ous and distinguished men as Hon. John F. Dever, Boston's most popular alderman; Hon. Chas. J. Noyes, of Boston, ex-speaker of the Massachusetts House of Representatives; Hon. T. S. McGinniss of Jericho, Vt., the people's candidate for governor of Vermont; chairman of Selection Boardman Bridgman of Hardwick, Vt., Alderman Chas. S. Crouch of Northampton, Mass., and thousands upon thousands of others in public and private life have been cured by this grand medicine and earnestly and heartily recommend all to use it and get well.

Head their advice. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and get well. It is not a patent medicine but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and diseases. Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th st., New York City. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that this medicine will cure and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone at any time, free of charge personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

Plans for the new woman's gymnasium—or, woman's new gymnasium—at Ann Arbor, contemplate a building to cost $50,000. It is hoped the tax payers will not kick, but the women are expected to. That is what the gym. will be for.—Monroe Democrat.

The Democrat man conveys a wrong impression in the above that he ought to rectify, in justice to the University. The tax-payers have nothing to do about it. The sum of $30,000 has already been donated by two good friends of the University and the ladies, and the balance necessary to complete the building will be raised by the ladies themselves. This edifice, as did the gymnasium for the boys, will come entirely from generous friends of the University, and the tax-payers will not pay a red cent of it, but will be so much ahead. Such impressions as are conveyed by the above item have a tendency to hurt the University, while the truth, plainly stated, would have a tendency to aid the institution.

Rheumatism Runs Riot. When there is lactic in the blood. Liniments and lotions will be of no permanent benefit. A cure can be accomplished only by neutralizing this acid and for this purpose Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine because Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye.

Cure for Headache. As a remedy for all forms of Headache, Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at the Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's Drug store, and Geo. T. Haussler, Manchester.

The Building-Up

Powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are remarkable. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving an appetite it makes you feel strong and capable of endurance. This is just what is needed at this season. The following is from Rev. Wm. Paddock, Bronson, Mich., formerly pastor of the First M. E. Church at Osseo, Mich.: "I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and received much help from it. I am very thankful for the building up effects Hood's Sarsaparilla has had in my case, and shall continue to take it." Rev. WILLIAM PADDOCK, Bronson, Mich.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Is the only true blood purifier prominently in the public eye. $1; six for $5. Insist upon Hood's and only Hood's.

A London paper, in giving its estimate of the wheat crops of the world, credits the United States with 448,000,000 bushels, next France with 337,557,000, then Russia with 296,053,000, India 237,456,000, Germany 103,550,000, and Hungary 150,361,000. These are the largest wheat producing nations of the earth, the total being over two billion bushels.

The Catholic priest at Port Huron who refused to permit the pall bearers to remain in the church at the burial of an old veteran, because they wore G. A. R. badges, was short on religion and Christian courtesy. He should come to Adrian and let Revs. Terres and O'Reilly give him correct views on Catholicism, religion and patriotism, and inspire him with that spirit of broad Christian charity that marks their religious work in this city.—Adrian Press.

It is such narrowness as is occasionally shown by that Port Huron priest, (and which is not confined to Catholics by any means) that make people doubt if some of those who pretend to be followers of the Saviour ever studied His life. No act of His could ever be construed into a justification of any such uncharitable and discourteous deed. It is a pleasing thought to contemplate that it does not lie within the power of any one denomination to shut out the members of any other denomination when admittance is asked to the pearly gates of eternity. No G. A. R. button will keep its wearer outside those gates, but such a button may possibly be a passport, for it is a generally recognized principle of justice that he who braves the dangers of war for the salvation of his country, in that act removes many if not all the impediments to his own salvation. Not all old soldiers are saints, but they are sufficiently so to be granted admission to any earthly tabernacle of worship, whatever the creed.

BETTER THAN DIAMONDS. Good health is better than diamonds. Health is life. No pleasure can be taken without it. It is the most precious thing in the world, and many people are careless about it. They neglect their little ailments—they ignore nature's danger signals and run right on to the rocks of disease. All diseases have a common beginning. Consumption is but the fruit of neglected catarrh. A slight cold develops into pneumonia or bronchitis. A little indigestion grows into "liver complaint." The best way to cure a disease is to prevent it. The next best way is to catch it before it develops to its worst stage. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine for the whole body. It searches out the weak spots and builds them up. It is a strengthener, a purifier and a cure. It puts the digestive system into an active, healthy condition, purifies and enriches the blood and forces out all poisonous matter. Taken in time, it will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. It is a purely vegetable compound that works in perfect harmony with nature. It tones up the whole body and produces strong, hard, healthy flesh. It has cured hundreds of cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, which had withstood the effect of every other medicine. A large number of testimonials and photographs of those cured have been printed in the "Medical Adviser," 1000 pages 50c illustrations, sent for twenty-one cents (in stamps), to cover postage and wrapping. Wm. ### CURRENT LITERATURE.

A Couple of New Books That May Interest the Reader.

A COIN CATECHISM: By J. K. Upton, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury under Secretaries Sherman, Wilson and Folger; Financial Statistician of the Eleventh Census, and author of "Money in Politics." Chicago and New York. The Werner Co. Cloth 50 cents, paper 25 cents.

This little book, could it be placed before the masses in such a way that they would listen to its reasoning and fully comprehend its statements, would be a great educator as far as the finances of the country and the world are concerned. In the catechism style by asking and answering questions, Mr. Upton in a brief way tells many plain truths. The statistical tables, though not extensive, are each and every one illustrative and educative. They tell some very pointed tales with simply figures to tell them with. The comparison of values for five decades is somewhat startling, if one has never given the subject a thought. The difference in prices of the necessities, food and clothes, and of wages for those decades is an argument in favor of the protective system better than any words could possibly express. Then the comparative tables of commodities and coin, taking Mexico and the United States are extremely instructive.

The author has taken a dry and abstract subject and made it not only readable but very pointed. The work ought to have an extended circulation among the people.

HOW TO STUDY STRANGERS BY TEMPERAMENT, FACE AND HEAD: By Nelson Sizer. 180 pages. Octavo. Over 300 illustrations. Cloth, $1.50. New York: Fowler & Wells Co., Publishers, 27 East Twenty-first St.

The author of this work has for more than 56 years been engaged in the study of human character, and as the result of such long and varied experience has produced a book the object of which is to teach one how to read the character of the stranger or the friend, how to unfold the nature of man that one may read him as he is. It is simple and pointed in its language. The three leading features of the book are:

I. The Analysis and Illustration of the Human Temperament.

II. Child Culture.

III. Character Studies.

"Human character is the most important subject known to man. Unless we are hermits we cannot avoid coming in contact with strangers, whom in business we are obliged to trust or distrust; or in friendship and love, confide in or avoid. Therefore we must often be sufferers, unless by instinct or science, we can know at sight the character of the worthy or unworthy." So says the author, and this work would indeed be valuable if it taught how to surely distinguish between the good and the bad. Experience is the only teacher of that. Nevertheless, there are a great many good things in the book, and if it only had a cloth cover, one would be tempted to put it in his library and keep it.

The illustrations consist almost entirely of heads of people so that many of the prominent men and women of the day and the nation, and some who are not so prominent, have their portraits somewhere on these 368 pages. If one has time he can pass many an interesting hour in looking over this book.

MORE MILEAGE

Territory Covered by C. H. & D. Books Still Further Enlarged.

Now Operative Over 12,000 Miles of Central Traffic Lines.

Made Good Over the Balto & Ohio, West of Pittsburg.

Commercial travel, as well as that material portion of the general public availing itself of a mileage transportation, will be highly gratified to learn that the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway Company have arranged for a still further extension of the already far-reaching territory covered by their Twenty-dollar one thousand mile tickets, effective October 15.

C. H. & D. commercial mileage tickets are accepted on the Baltimore & Ohio R. R., west of and including Pittsburg and Benwood, and also on the Pittsburg & Wheeling Division. This, in addition to the large number of roads over which a C. H. & D. Mileage book is now operative, renders it one of the cheapest, most comprehensive and convenient books in the United States, embracing, as it does, 12,000 miles in round figures, of 33 of the most prominent and important railways in the territory bounded by lines drawn between Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis.

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORTON, Supr., St. Paul, Minnesota, Sept. 7, 1894. Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Kinky Cigs," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago today I commenced using your preparation, and today I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours truly, C. W. HORTON.

ANN ARBOR AFLAME.

Many Stores, a Church and a Newspaper Office Destroyed.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 19.—A fire broke out at 2 o'clock this morning and burned fourteen stores, a church, a newspaper office and several other buildings. No estimate of the losses and insurance is yet possible.

To show how news travels, all that it is necessary to do is to quote the above which a friend of the Courier cut out of a St. Louis, Mo., paper a few days since. Whether that paper has a fake correspondent here, or whether it stole the item from a fake paper, or whether it was a fake made up in its own office, probably no one will ever know. But the fact remains that it is a fake.

Victors the Best.

Victor bicycles for '96 will show many improvements, and any person who is fortunate enough to own one will ride the best wheel that has ever been built by any company. One of its important features will be the Victor Hollow Crank Axle which attracted so much attention last year and was pronounced by experts to be the finest and simplest construction on the market. The Overman Co. never considered the matter of cost in the production of their wheels, and no good improvement is expensive for Victor wheels. They are made of crucible steel where other makers use cheap iron. It is undoubtedly true that the Victor costs more to build than any other bicycle. Don't be satisfied with "just a bicycle," but examine the Victor and you will then be satisfied with nothing but the best.

LOCAL.

S. R. Barney has sold out his grocery establishment, corner of N. Main and Catharine sts.

John J. Fischer, supervisor of the 3d ward, was admitted to full citizenship in open court last Friday.

After November 1st, the Ladies' Library will not be open on Tuesday afternoon. It will however be open Saturdays from 10 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m.

Prof. A. A. Stanley and the choir of the M. E. church will give a recital Friday evening, Nov. 8. Mrs. Arthur Woden of Detroit and Prof. Zetz of the School of Music, will assist.

Mrs. Mary E. Marlette died at her home on S. University ave., Monday night, aged 46 years. She was the widow of the late Charles Marlette, and had been a resident of the city for many years.

The Ann Arbor police receive the weather report daily, now, and send the same out to the other offices of the county. It reaches nearly all the offices of the county except Manchester and Saline.

Monday evening next, Edward Walde Emerson, of Concord, Mass., will lecture before the Unity Club upon "Theodicy." On Tuesday evening he will give a lecture upon Art, illustrated by crayon drawings.

Last Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. J. R. Sage, a very pleasant musical was given by Mr. Sage and his music class. There was a good program. A number of friends were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

The last Wrinkle was a good one, fully up to the high standard maintained by the boys in this humorous publication. The editors say that everybody will want their foot ball issue, and that great preparations are being made for it.

The Michigan Alumnus, for October is the first number of the 2d volume, and the contents are such as will interest former students, whether graduates or no. The editor, Alvie A. Pearson, lit '94, is putting some good work on the journal, and that is what counts.

The regular meeting of the Y. W. C. A. will be held at their rooms on Monday evening Nov. 4th. Reports for the quarter and from the State Convention will be given. Every member should be there, and each is at liberty to bring with her a friend whom she would like to interest in the Association.

A change has been made in the Lyceum course of the Y. M. C. A., made necessary by unavoidable circumstances. Instead of Mrs. Leavitt giving the next entertainment, an exchange has been made and Rev. J. M. Barkley will lecture on Tuesday evening Nov. 26th. Observe change in date, also, from the 27th as announced to the 26th. His lecture is upon his service in the rebel army and will be an excellent one. Holders of course tickets will please note a change of date. Mrs. Leavitt will appear later on.

George Jewett, the colored boy who was formerly an athlete and football player here, but who gave up his studies for that sort of "work," is in trouble at Howell, together with another Ann Arbor lad named L. D. Norris. The boys were up there coaching the football team, and became intimate with some young girls who came to Ann Arbor with them. The parents followed them here and had the boys arrested. Jewett on a charge of rape, and Norris for enticing a girl under age away from home. The feeling at Howell is said to be very bitter against the boys. The examination comes off today. Jewett is in jail for want of $1,000 bond, and Norris is out on $500 bonds.

Go to OSBORNE'S MILLS for your flour and feed grinding. We are doing work that is satisfactory to all.

MR. JONAS IN CHICAGO.

What the Newspapers of That City Say of Our Great Pianist.

The Chicago Tribune for Oct. 23, in speaking of the Chamber Concert in the Sunny Series, given in Central Music Hall, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22d says:

"Two improvements last evening over the opening concert were the shortening of the program and more even selection in the matter of assisting musicians. The first of these to be considered, the pianist, Alberto Jonas, displayed finish and delicacy that in frequent moments approached to the deftness of Josefey. His tempo in the matter of breadth is limited, but in clearness, fluency, and a certain musicianly poise he attained to admirable things. In addition to the Saint-Saens number, excellent in propriety of selection, Mr. Jonas assisted in the Beethoven Trio, Op. 97, together with Mr. Spirano and Mr. Deitel."

The following is taken from the Chicago Chronicle for Oct. 23, commenting upon the same Chamber Concert:

"Alberto Jonas is a pianist of far more than ordinary acquirements. His technique is equal to any demand; his command of the pedal is one of the greatest charms of his playing, and that he has much fire and fine musical feeling was manifest, although the unthankfulness of his selection, the ballet music from Gluck's 'Alceste,' arranged by St. Saens, prevented him from showing those qualities to advantage. The Beethoven Trio was given with fine effect, due in a great measure to the fine playing of Alberto Jonas."

The Times-Herald says 'Mr. Alberto Jonas is scholarly, thoughtful, intense and commands the piano admirably.'

No light in the court house clock tower for a long time. What's the matter?

It is stated on the streets here that the house of Mrs. Alice Powdigan, of Northfield, was burned yesterday. Insured in the Washenaw Mutual.

The Knights of Pythias are to remove their lodge room from over Caspar Rinsey's store to the rooms over St. James' dry goods store. Cause, more room necessary.

Work is constantly going on here improving the service of the telephone exchange. Supt. Keech keeps an eye cut all the time for improvements, and we honestly believe there is no exchange in the state that is kept in such good condition as the one here in Ann Arbor.

A Letter to Aunt Rachael.

Caro, Ill., August 29.
 To Aunt Rachael Spear, Passic, N. J.:
 Dear Madam:—We have used your Malarial Bitters for several months past and find it the very best tonic we have ever used to effectually wipe out all traces of malarial fever. My wife has been sickly, feverish, weak and languid for the past four seasons, and tried almost everything. We heard so much of your bitters that I concluded to try it; my wife's appetite has returned, and she is strong, well and sprightly again and all owing to your Peruvian Malarial Bitters.

And still beyond your household duties reaching stretch forth a helping hand; so many stand in need of loving comfort all over this wide land.

The Monday Evening Club had a pleasant time at Granger's Monday evening.

And up she goes again. Ann Arbor has another $100,000 added to her valuation by the supervisors.

An addition is being built on the house which Dean H. B. Hutchins of the law department recently purchased of Mr. Taber.

The ground in gardens and where the hose has not been used, is entirely free from moisture. The driest ever known at this time of year.

The summer house at Strawberry Lake, belonging to Add Colum, was destroyed by fire last Wednesday. Loss about $300 with $75 insurance.

On account of internal dissensions in his congregation, Rev. Max Hein, of Zion's church, has resigned his pastorate, to take effect the first Sunday after Easter.

Tracy D. Greene, aged 17 years, 5 months, died on Wednesday last of typhoid fever. Funeral services were held from the 2d Baptist church Friday p. m., and the remains were interred in Forest Hill Cemetery.

At the home of Supervisor James Fyde of the Northside, came a young man who has taken possession of the household and proposes to run it hereafter. He entered his appearance last Wednesday and pulls down the ten lb. weight on the scales.

The Howell Republican is pretty laid on our Chief of Police, Mr. Peterson, in calling him a Bowhard, etc. The people here, where he lives, have had ample evidence of his ability and "sand" both, to do jobs that take courage and shrewdness as well. Hard words very seldom accomplish much, and are not convincing.

Mayor Walker disapproved of several acts of the council at its last meeting, and exercised his right of veto on them. One was the settling with Mr. Bullis for city dirt used in filling up a low place in front of his premises on Washtenaw ave., by his paying $25 therefor, and another was the building of a cross walk on the east side of S. University ave., across Washtenaw ave.

The bazaar at the A. M. E. church will be continued during this week. Mr. and Mrs. John W. Dwyer lost their infant child last Saturday a. m. by death.

The first entertainment in the Baptist Sunday School course takes place this evening at the Baptist church.

On Sunday morning next, Rev. Dr. Coburn, at the M. E. church, will speak of "The Recent Conversion of a Great Skeptical Scientist."

On Thursday at 3 p. m., Mrs. Jennie Voorheis will give a report of the doings of the National W. C. T. U. convention at the Y. W. C. A. rooms over the postoffice.

Rev. Henry Tatlock at St Andrew's Episcopal church, gave a very interesting account of the doings of the general convention of that church on Sunday morning last.

Mrs. Rosa Maier and daughter Miss Pauline, came from Grand Ledge last Saturday, and will remain here all winter. Mrs. Maier will keep house for her son Eugene Mutschel.

A great conflagration, the court house in ashes and all the invaluable records destroyed.—Ann Arbor Courier. Great Scott! Mr. Courier, you might as well kill a man as to scare him to death. Don't put in such a scare again. But we agree with you. The public records of your county ought not to be exposed to the lagard of fire.—Stockbridge Sun.

The famous or infamous murderer H. H. Holmes, alias Herman Mudgett as he gave his name when attending school here, is now on trial at Philadelphia, for his life. The deeds of this fiend have been recited by every newspaper in the land, consequently it is not desirable to review them again. It is the hope of all the good people of the nation, that there may be no flaw in the chain of evidence, and that the jury secured may not be such ignorant men that they can not give this scoundrel full justice.

Grand Lecturer Clark will hold a masonic lecture of instruction in this city on Tuesday, Nov. 12. All the masonic lodges of the county are invited to be present. Phoenix lodge of Ypsilanti has been invited to confer the 1st deg.; Washtenaw lodge of Dexter, the 2d degree in the afternoon, and the 3d degree will be conferred by Fraternity or Golden Rule lodge of this city, as will be arranged by the two lodges. It is probable that there will be a very large attendance.

The editor of that excellent medical journal, The Physician and Surgeon, takes unto himself credit for assisting in a notable reformation that is about to begin in the penmanship of the people. Here is what he says: "A decree has been promulgated at the State Normal School that vertical penmanship must henceforth be taught in that institution. The order caused consternation among the teachers, as few are accustomed to that system of chirography. The change is being made in other schools throughout the state, and recently came in vogue at the seat of the University of Michigan. Some time ago The Physician and Surgeon pointed out the errors of the slanting method and it is with pleasure that we note the gradual adoption of the physiological form."

The masons of Detroit are arranging for a big exposition which is to be held Nov. 25 to Dec. 7. Many novelties and interesting displays are promised from all over the United States and even from the land of the Orient. There will be elaborate decorations inside the big new temple which is just being finished. Many professional entertainers have been engaged for the performances in the Turkish and American theatres and in the "Streets of the Orient," which will be thoroughly equipped with goods and attractions now being secured by a special agent who is searching Persia, Turkey and Egypt for novelties. The booths will be varied in architecture and style each being equipped from the land it represents. The wonderful painting of "Tribby" will be on exhibition and a big art loan display, with several new pictures never shown in the west will occupy one floor. The entire building, and it is seven stories in height, will be used for exhibition purposes.

Worthy Your Confidence.

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease, but who now rejoice over a permanent cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor, or it may attack the glands of the neck, or break out in dreadful running sores on the body or limbs. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may develop into catarrh or lodging in the lungs lead to consumption. Come as it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system in clarified and vitalized, and vigor, strength and health restored to the body.

About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. Jacobus, of Fountain st., surprised them on Saturday evening last and a right merry time was had by all.

On Friday evening Nov. 8, Prof. Stanley, assisted by the choir and noted soloists, will give a concert and recital in the M. E. church. The proceeds will go to the music fund of the church.

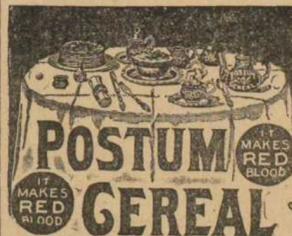

The Ann Arbor High School football team were defeated by the Detroit high school team Saturday afternoon, on the D. A. C. grounds, Detroit, by a score of 44 to 12. About 600 witnessed the game.

The supervisors have re-elected Erastus P. Mason superintendent of the poor; John W. Barry, drain commissioner; Herbert Dancer, member of the Board of School examiners; and Marvin Davenport as janitor. They have also accepted the bid of the Ann Arbor Savings Bank for the county money, the bank to charge 6 per cent on overdrafts and pay 4.51 per cent on balances. The bids of the banks were very close, the F. & M's bid was to charge 5 per cent on overdrafts and pay 4.15 per cent on balance. The State Savings to charge 6 per cent and pay 3.25 per cent.

The case in the circuit court of James Linen vs. Paris S. Banfield, for false imprisonment, had a very abrupt ending. Linen was arrested on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of Sheehan's book store, a year or so ago, by Banfield who was then city marshal. It was evi- dent afterward that he was not guilty and so he brought action for false imprisonment. Circumstances were such, however, that the judge instructed the jury to return a verdict for the defendant, or no cause for action. In doing this the judge complimented the officers for doing what was their duty, and took the ground that for so doing they should not be prosecuted.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to provisions contained in Public Act, No. 161, of the Public Acts of Michigan, Session of 1895, in which Act a clause provides for the payment, by party placing a deed upon record, of an additional fee, over and above the fee for recording paper, of 25 cents, for the county treasurer's fee, in furnishing a certificate that the taxes upon land have been paid for the previous five years. More or less confusion and delay must arise, through parties not knowing of the passage of such an act. Please, therefore, in all cases remit either to the Register of Deeds or the County Treasurer, the additional fee of 25 cents. This additional fee applies only to warranty deeds.

There is to be a novel birthday party at the residence of Mrs. P. Bach on the evening of Oct. 31st, Halloween. It is under the auspices of the Ladies' Library Association and each person is to celebrate his or her own birthday, by enclosing in a little silken bag sent with the invitation, as many pennies as they are years old. There need be no deceit practiced on account of modesty, for a guaranty is given that the number of pennies sent in by any one will never be divulged. And it makes no difference whether any one attends or not, it is expected that every one receiving invitations will return the bags well filled, any way. Of course the shrewd projectors of this novel scheme would not think of such a thing as selecting elderly people to send the invitations to, but have probably given the young folks a chance to celebrate with their elders.

STATE OF MICHIGAN.

To the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery.
The petition of Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General of said State of Michigan, for and in behalf of said State of Michigan, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and made "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of Washtenaw upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, and which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the time fixed for sale, and collection fee as provided by law, and the cost of advertising and other expenses of sale of each of said parcels of land.
Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 208 of the Public Acts of 1893, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, except such of the taxes set forth in said schedule as were returned to the Auditor General according to law prior to the 12th day of June, 1895, and remain unpaid.
Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as set forth in said Schedule A, are a valid lien on the several parcels of land described in said schedule.
Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on said parcels of land have remained unpaid for more than one year prior to the first day of May, 1895; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land, for the payment of the several amounts of taxes, interest, collection fee, cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as computed and extended in said schedule, against said several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.
And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.
Dated August 14, 1895.

DUKE AND DUCHESS CARL-
THEODOR OF BAVARIA.

They Pass Their Lives Doing Good for Others Without Pay or Price—Names
That Will Shine in the World's History.

(Special Correspondence.)

THE third of six beautiful and talented sisters, the Princess Maria Josepha of Braganza, became the second wife of the celebrated Royal oculist, Duke Carl Theodor of Bavaria, on April 29, 1874. The Princess in very early years showed herself to be more gifted than children ordinarily are, and her sweetness of disposition rendered her the favorite of the family. At an early age she showed great discrimination of character, and had very strong likes and dislikes, though she did not allow the latter feeling to be often discovered. Her great characteristic was fervent gratitude to all those who were kind to her, and any little kindness or sympathetic word was thoroughly appreciated by the Princess, even when she was quite a child, and this charming trait she still possesses. The first wife of Duke Carl Theodor, the Princess Sophie of Saxony, died on March 9, 1867, leaving him one daughter, the Princess Amalie, who married the Duke of Urach on July 4, 1892. It was not until seven years after his first wife's death that the Duke made his second choice, a choice that has rendered his home life ideally happy. It was on April 29, 1874, that he married the Princess Maria Josepha of Braganza, who was then only seventeen years of age, and one of the most beautiful and talented princesses in Europe. The Duke, who is eighteen years her senior, is the brother of the Empress of Austria, and the head of the ducal house of Bavaria, his elder brother having resigned his rights in order to make a morganatic marriage.

No married life could be more simple or happy than that led by the Duke and Duchess Carl Theodor, surrounded by their five children, three daughters and two sons—the Princess Sophie, born in 1875; the Princess Elizabeth, 1876; the Princess Marie, 1878; Prince Ludwig Wilhelm, in 1884, and Prince Franz Joseph, the godson of the Emperor of Austria, on March 23, 1888. The Duke and Duchess lead a very busy, useful life, for the Duke has no less than three eye hospitals under his charge, which he has himself founded, the principal and favorite of which is at the Royal Schloss, at Tegernsee, in Bavaria, of which we give views. The others are at Munich and Merau, at all of which places he spends a part of the year with his family. His Royal Highness performs the operations very early in the morning (in summer at 6:30), and he is almost always assisted by the Duchess, who takes the greatest interest in her husband's work, and who is herself a very skillful trained nurse. He also sees all patients early in the morning, and, as may be imagined, the poor look upon him almost with worship, and have an equal adoration for the beautiful Duchess, who soothes them in their sufferings with the gentlest and kindest of touch and words, so that they speak and think of her as an angel of light and healing.

The hospital at Tegernsee, which is in the old Royal Schloss, now the property of the Duke, can accommodate sixty patients, each ward containing from four to six beds. No fees are taken at any of the three hospitals, but there are boxes in which richer patients are expected to place a contribution, the money being devoted to the deserving poor of the place. Duke Carl Theodor is the only royal oculist who exists, and when he first announced his intention of studying medicine, in order that he might spend his life and talents in the service of the sick and suffering, every one declared that it was an unheard of thing for a prince of royal blood to adopt any profession but that of arms.

The Duke, however, was wiser than his generation, and preferred to heal the sick rather than to inflict wounds, and his name will live longer and be more loved by generations to come than that of any soldier, however brave and noble his life may have been. The Duke could nowhere have found a nobler and more unselfish wife than the Duchess, for she enters heart and soul into his philanthropic work, and so thoroughly understands the great nature of her husband.

It often happens that a clever woman is domineering and unamiable, but this is not the case with her, for she has the sweetest and most unselfish nature, and is always thoughtful and considerate to her attendants, who are one and all devoted to her. Her tact in dealing both with high and low is unerring, and she is as great a favorite with all the relations of her husband as with her own family.

The Duchess has many interests in life, and one of her chief hobbies is engineering. She takes an immense interest in machinery of all descriptions, and, what is very rare in a woman, thoroughly understands the subject. In appearance she is very queenly, with a perfectly beautiful face, and lovely eyes, full of expression, the greatness of her soul showing plainly when she speaks, but perhaps her greatest charms are her womanliness and the tenderness that she shows to the poor patients when she is assisting her husband in a painful and difficult operation.

She is a most tender mother to her own children, and was an affectionate and devoted stepmother to the Princess Amalie, who was just nine years old at the time of her father's second marriage, and who has now two little daughters of her own, born on June 22, 1893, and in September, 1894. The two sons of the Duchess were born a long time after her three daughters, and their births were naturally the source of great joy to their parents. The elder, Prince Ludwig Wilhelm, is six years younger than his youngest sister, while the youngest is ten years younger, being only seven years of age. The Duke and Duchess had quite given up all hopes of having a son when the elder Prince was born, followed four years later by his younger brother's birth.

Schloss Tegernsee is beautifully situated on the lake of Tegernsee, almost on the edge of the water. Tegernsee is a very ancient town, founded by two brothers, Count Ottokar and Count Adalbert, in the year 746. It is now a very pretty, quiet place, greatly frequented by the inhabitants of Munich, who come there on account of the pureness of the air and the beauty of the scenery.

The ancient Schloss, which was formerly a monastery, became a private residence in the year 1803, and in 1817 became the property of King Maximilian I. of Bavaria. The King made it his summer residence, and generally spent several months there every year. Now it is the property of Duke Carl Theodor, who has put it to a noble use, and has made Tegernsee the center of charitable work among the poor.

The Schloss is a large building, with a beautiful shaded walk between it and the lake, the church standing almost in the courtyard behind, and with a background of wooded hills. It is a comfortable house, with numerous beautiful old-fashioned rooms, which have been rendered very homelike and pretty by the Duchess and her daughters.

The hospital is situated in one wing of the Schloss, as the Duke finds it most convenient to have his patients under his own roof. No royal duke and duchess in all Europe lead such truly unselfish lives as the Duke and Duchess Carl Theodor of Bavaria, and if only his example will be followed by those who are talented among the royal and noble families of Germany, only good would come to the Fatherland.

To Have Beautiful Hair.

Sara H. Henton gives a bit of testimony on the care of the hair, which should be heeded by the opposite sex as well:

The most beautifully kept hair I ever saw was that of two young school girls. They had their hair washed every week during the summer time, and every other week during the winter time. They used nothing but tepid water with pure soap, then rinse in warm water, rubbing briskly, then dried quickly. They never took cold; in fact, they said they never had been quite free from colds until they began to be systematic in regard to washing their heads; that their scalps used to be so tender they would get sore if they combed or brushed them too hard. They kept the skin of their heads as white and clean as could be, and their hair grew thick and long. Never use ammonia or borax. A little salt is good to strengthen the roots, but plenty of brushing, without using a fine tooth comb, and following the method described, is sufficient to make your hair healthy and lovely. I have tried it.

Excellent Advice.

A young man just starting upon his work in the ministry was one day talking to an aged minister in London, who had spent a lifetime in the service. The young man said:

"You have had a great deal of experience; you know many things that I ought to learn. Can't you give me some advice to carry with me in my new duties?"

"Yes, I can," was the response. "I will give you a piece of advice. You know that in every town in England, no matter how small, in every village or hamlet, though it be hidden in the folds of the mountain or wrapped round by the far-off sea, in every clump of farmhouses, you can find a road which, if you follow it, will take you to London. Just so every text which you shall choose to preach from in the Bible will have a road that leads to Jesus. Be sure you find that road and follow it; be careful not to miss it once. This is my advice to you."

Evening Prayer.

Fake unto Thyself, O Father!
This folded day of Thine,
This weary day of mine;
Its ragged corners cut me yet,
Oh, still the jar and fret!
Father, do not forget
That I am tired
With this day of Thine.

Breathe Thy pure breath, watching
Father,

On this marred day of Thine,
This wandering day of mine;
Be patient with its blur and blot,
Wash it white of stain and spot,
Reproachful eyes! remember not
That I have grieved Thee,
On this day of Thine.

SKETCHES WORTH THE WHILE FOR CHILDREN TO READ.

"Remember, Boys Make Men"—With All His Worldly Goods—Where Clocks Are Unknown—Excellent Advice—An Evening Prayer.

WHEN YOU SEE A ragged urchin Standing wistful in the street, With torn hat and kneeless trousers, Dirty face and bare red feet, Pass not by the child unheeding.

Smile upon him. Mark me, when He's grown he'll not forget it, For remember, boys make men.

When the buoyant youthful spirits Overflow in boyish freak, Chide your child in gentle accents, Do not in your anger speak; You must sow in youthful bosoms Seeds of tender mercies; then Plants will grow and bear good fruit—age.

When the erring boys are men, Have you never seen a grandsire With his eyes aglow with joy, Bring to mind some act of kindness—Something said to him, a boy, Or relate some slight or coldness, With a brow all clouded, when He said they were too thoughtless To remember boys make men?

Let us try to add some pleasures To the life of every boy, For each child needs tender interest In its sorrows and its joy; Call your boy home by its brightness, They'll avoid a gloomy den, And seek for comfort elsewhere—And remember, boys make men.

I shall never forget, said a clergyman recently, the first marriage ceremony I ever performed. I was newly ordained and newly married, and was on my wedding journey in the southern states. We had stopped to visit some relatives of my wife, when one of the servants, learning that I was a clergyman, thought it a good opportunity for wedding the man of her choice. The service was to be performed at the residence of the groom, a tiny cabin not far away from the house, and my young wife, with a bevy of girl friends, went along ostensibly to act as witnesses, but really to see the fun. Matters went on smoothly enough until the bridegroom struck the sentence, "And with my worldly goods I thee endow," when it occurred to him that it would probably be more business-like to enumerate the items. Starting in with "Dis yer cabin en de ba'an," he went through with a list of all his possessions, refreshing his memory from time to time with rapid glances around the room to make sure that nothing had been omitted. He finally pulled up breathless on the "three pieces or haws meat and de mawl," leaving me with my place in the prayer-book lost and my mental faculties in a state of chaos. The girls had long before fled from the cabin, prudently distrustful their powers of self-control, so I finished up as best I could and followed them. I have never married a couple since without a slight nervousness as the man neared that place in the service. Suppose some millionaire should take it into his head to emulate my colored friend and enumerate his worldly goods in the middle of the ceremony!

LIBERIA, in Africa, has neither clock nor timepiece of any sort; the reckoning of time is made entirely by the movement and position of the sun, which rises at 6 a. m. and sets at 6 p. m. almost to the minute the year round, and at noon it is vertically overhead. The islanders of the South Pacific have no clocks, but make a curious time-marker of their own. They take the kernels from the nuts of the candle-tree and wash and string them onto the rib of a palm leaf. The first or top kernel is then lighted. All of the kernels are of the same size and substance, and each will burn a certain number of minutes, and then set fire to the one next below. The natives tie pieces of black cloth at regular intervals along the string to mark the divisions of time. Among the natives of Singar, in the Malay archipelago, another peculiar device is used. Two bottles are placed neck and neck, and sand is put in one of them, which pours itself into the other one every half hour, when the bottles are reversed. There is a line near by, also, on which are hung twelve rods, marked with notches from one to twelve. A regularly appointed keeper attends to the bottles and rods, and sounds the hour upon a gong.—Tit-bits.

A VETERAN PROSTRATED BY SUNSTROKE.

It was Accompanied by Insomnia, Nervous Prostration and Heart Failure—It is the Talk of Troy, Lansingburgh and all the Grand Army Posts.

WHAT ACTION WILL THE RENNELAER COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY TAKE?

His Friends, who Knew of His Sunstroke During the War, Much Interested—Hand Once Twisted by Rheumatism Relieved of Pain—The Soldier as Spry as Ever—How it was Done—Detailed Description of the Method Employed—General Interest in the Case.

From the Times, Troy, N. Y.

R. W. Edwards, of 528 Fourth avenue, Lansingburgh, is a well-known and respected resident of that village, a prominent officer of Post Lyon, G. A. R., of Cohoes, and a past aide-de-camp on the staff of the commander-in-chief and assistant inspector for Albany County.

When the reporter called upon him he was engaged in active work about his house, something which he had not been able to do with any freedom for years. He gave the following story, which is well worth perusal:

"I was wounded and sent to the hospital at Winchester during the war. They sent me together with a batch of wounded to Washington. Having no room in the box cars we were placed face up on the bottom of flat cars. The sun beat down upon our unprotected heads. We rode about one hundred miles in this fashion. When I reached Washington I was insensible and was unconscious for ten days while in the hospital. An abscess gathered in my ear and broke; it has been gathering and breaking ever since. Since I took Pink Pills the matter discharged has been very small in quantity and is steadily decreasing. The sharp, knife-like pains have almost left me entirely and my head feels clear as a bell, where before it continually felt as though it would burst. The sunstroke which befell me on that one hundred mile ride brought on heart disease, nervous prostration and insomnia. I had that terrible sinking feeling at the heart and at times would faint dead away. I became fearfully nervous and any steady mental effort was absolutely impossible. I could not sleep at nights. Many and many a time have I got up out of bed and walked the floor with my body racked with pain unable to find relief. No one knows how I suffered. In addition to this six years ago rheumatism fastened upon me and I could not shake it off. I went to a doctor, I bought patent medicines, I tried nearly every remedy with no good effect. As a last resort I purchased a box of Pink Pills, and it helped me to such a degree that I procured another and still another, until up to the present time I have bought in all seven boxes. My rheumatism is gone, my heart failure, dyspepsia, and constipation are about gone, and my once shattered nervous system is now nearly sound. Look at those fingers," Mr. Edwards said, "do they look as if there was any rheumatism there?" He moved his fingers rapidly and freely and strode about the room like a young boy. "A year ago those fingers were gnarled at the joints and so stiff that I could not hold a pen. My knees would swell up and I could not straighten my leg out. My joints would squeak when I moved them. That is the living truth.

"When I came to think that I was going to be crippled with rheumatism, together with the rest of my ailments, I tell you life seemed not worth living. I used to drop a pencil, knife, spoon, or any article which I had in my hands, my crippled and nervous fingers refusing to retain their hold. I suffered from despondency. I cannot begin to tell you," said Mr. Edwards, as he drew a long breath, "what my feeling is at present. I think if you lifted ten years right off my life and left me prime and vigorous at forty-seven I could feel no better. I was an old man and could only drag myself painfully about the house. Now I can walk off without any trouble. That in itself," continued Mr. Edwards, "would be sufficient to give me cause for rejoicing, but when you come to consider that I am no longer what you might call nervous and that my heart is apparently nearly healthy and that I can sleep nights, you may realize why I may appear to speak in extravagant praise of Pink Pills.

"I know that if I had not taken that first box of Pink Pills that to-day I would have been one of the most wretched of men. There were years when I would not sleep more than an hour or two a day. Do you realize what that means? My nerves were like aspen, subject to the slightest shock. That was due to sunstroke. Those pills quiet my nerves, take that awful pressure from my head and at the same time enrich my blood. There seemed to be no circulation in my lower limbs a year ago, my legs being cold and clammy at times. Now the circulation there is as full and as brisk as at any other part of my body. I have regained color, such as I have not had in many years. Why, do you know, I used to be so light-headed and dizzy from my nervous disorder that I frequently fell while crossing the floor of my house. I could not walk a straight line upon the sidewalk, and I was afraid that people might think me intoxicated. I do not fall any more and I can walk straight. That is another thing I owe to Pink Pills. Every spring and fall I was in very poor health. Spring is coming on and I never felt better in my life, and I am looking forward to a busy season of work.

"The ulcers in my ear have been greatly improved. I think that results from my generally improved physical condition.

"I could not work overhead for several years on account of dizziness, but to-day I am all right. Do you think I am too loud in my praise of Pink Pills? If they had done for you what they have accomplished for me you would have been as enthusiastic as I have been and am."

The foregoing is but one of many wonderful cures that have been credited to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Diseases which heretofore have been supposed to be incurable, such as locomotor ataxia and paralysis, scurvy, the most trifling ailments. In many cases the reported cures have been investigated by the leading newspapers and verified in every possible manner and in no case has the least semblance of fraud been discovered. Their fame has spread to the far ends of civilization and there is hardly a drug store in this country or abroad where they cannot be found.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effect of la grippe, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female. Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price, (50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—they are never sold in bulk or by the 100) by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.
