The Store

A MIGHTY MOVEMENT

JACKETS AND CAPES!

Never was there such an enormous selling of outer garments as has been seen in our Cloak Department the past 10 days.

$1,500 worth of Jackets and Capes

Bought for $1,000,

Give us an advantage in bargain giving we have never before possessed.

LATE STYLE

And every style that is swell is here. The Bias Front, the Box Front, the Lady Franklin, the Full Rounded front with large saucer pearl buttons. Not a point overlooked that lends attraction to the garments. And all at a price that means a big saving in expense to you.

FUR CAPES.

No labor has been spared to have every Cape in our stock as perfect as is possible to make them. All our Fur Garments were purchased before the great advance in fur, making it possible for us to give you prices at least 25 per cent. less than they are worth to-day.

Mack & Company

BUY A Chaffing Dish!

And you will never part with it. A handsome book of recipes presented with every dish sold.

5 O'CLOCK TEA KETTLES

We have a fine line of them; in fact the only line in the city. Call and see them.

TO ABOLISH THE BOARD

A Movement Gaining Ground Each Year Looking to the Abolishment of the Board of Supervisors.

THEY ARE KILLING THE HEN
That Lays the Golden Eggs by Being too Greedy in "Salting" the Cities.

From all over the state comes the complaint, every fall, when the supervisors meet, of their injustice with reference to cities in the equalization of taxation.

There is scarcely a county in Michigan where the practice is not indulged in by the township supervisors of reducing the equalization of their own townships and placing the same upon the cities or villages that may be so unfortunate as to be within the boundaries of their county.

It has become such a common practice that these supervisors hardly dare go back to their constituents without some sort of a record in that respect. If they fail to get from $5,000 to $50,000 whittled off from their township and saddled on to some one else they are considered of no account as supervisors.

This is not overdrawn the picture but very little. It is common all over the state, but the practice commenced here in this county.

Ex-Supervisor Jas. L. Gilbert, of Sylvan, is given credit for being the father of the plan. It originated no doubt in an honest way, because the cities were growing more rapidly than the country. Then it became sort of a matter of pride on the part of each supervisor. It was so easily accomplished that they would do it to brag about at home, until finally it became to be considered a part of the duty of that official and a supervisor who does not now go back home from the annual meeting without a few hairs at least, of the city's scalp is neither a statesman nor financier.

In Wayne county, in order to protect themselves, the city had its board of aldermen made members of the board of supervisors, and in that way secured a majority, and stopped the plundering. There are no other cities in the state large enough to accomplish that, so they all have to grin and bear it.

But there is a strong feeling growing up all over the state to abolish the board of supervisors entirely, and in their place have a county board of auditors or commissioners, three in number, to audit all the bills of the county and attend to the county's business. It is claimed by states adopting this system, Ohio, for instance, that the people are better served, the affairs of the county more economically administered, and that exact justice is secured in the matter of taxation between the cities and townships.

That something will have to be done before long stands to reason. The continual lowering of the townships, and raising of the cities will soon work such an injustice that open rebellion of some sort will result.

To-day a small house and lot in the city, such as a common every-day working man owns, assessed at $1,000, has to pay for taxes $16.00 a year. Take a farm in the country, in the wealthy township of Pittsfield, for instance, assessed at $1,000 and the tax upon it for 1894 was only $5.76.

The difference is too great altogether, and yet it is constantly growing greater. This year the city of Arbor was again loaded down by the supervisors with $100,000, and Ypsilanti with $50,000, while every township in the county save Sylvan and Augusta divided the plunder—for plunder it certainly is, nothing more or less.

Then again, here in the city property is placed upon the assessment roll for just about its cash value, while there is not a township in the county, we honestly believe, where property is assessed for more than one-half its value, and in many instances an offer of three times the value placed on the rolls would not be accepted for the property.

And yet the law makes it a misdemeanor, punishable by fine and imprisonment for a supervisor to assess property in his district for less than its cash value.

On page 1270 of Howell's Statutes in giving the duty of assessors, it reads this way: "The supervisor SHALL estimate, according to his best information and judgment, the TRUE CASH VALUE of every parcel of real property, and set the same down opposite such parcel."

Further on it defines cash value: Sec. 17. "The words 'cash value' whenever used in this act, shall be held to mean the usual selling price at the place where the property to which the term is applied shall at the time of assessment, being the price which could be obtained therefor at private sale, and not at forced sale or auction."

Those words and their definition are certainly very plain. There can be no mistake in understanding the law. There is no ambiguity about it.

Here is another provision in the law:

Sec. 103. "If any supervisor or other assessing officer of any township or city shall willfully assess any property at MORE OR LESS than what he believes to be its true cash value, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding three hundred dollars, at the discretion of the court." etc.

The same provision applies to boards of review.

The language is plain, yet there is scarcely a supervisor in the state that does not violate his oath of office and lay himself liable to fine and imprisonment both, for violating the law.

The grand jury up in Bay county got after some of these assessors and they may have to suffer for their law breaking before the end comes.

Why is not a man who breaks this law as much a criminal as one who breaks the law relative to stealing, for instance?

This law is broken for the benefit of some person or persons and some other person or persons have to pay for it. If the property in any township is assessed at one-third or one-half its cash value, and the property in the city is assessed at its real cash value, then there is a wrong done. The law has been broken. The property owner in the city is forced to pay more than his just proportion of the tax burden. The one who is responsible for it is a law breaker just as much as any one is a law breaker who violates the statutes relative to taking property not his own. In fact that is just what is accomplished by breaking that statute. It robs one man for the benefit of another man.

These are pretty plain words, but they are truthful words, and we defy any man to disprove their truth.

And because that law is made such a dead letter, and because of the constant greed of supervisors at their annual sessions, this feeling relative to a change and abolishing the board of supervisors as a county legislative body, is taking root rapidly among the people, and we believe the day is not far distant when a change will be made.

It would not be surprising if the next legislature submitted an amendment to Secs. 6 and 11 of the constitution to a vote of the people, and we believe that there are enough justice loving men in the state to adopt it if it is submitted.

An energetic young business man aged 23 years, character and habits of the highest order will invest with services up to $5000 in some first class well established paying business, Hardware preferred. None but those having business of the highest standing need answer. References given and required. Address. G. M. "Courier."

PASSED OVER THE RIVER

Philip Bach Died on Saturday Morning From Heart Failure.

RECORD OF AN ACTIVE LIFE.

For Over Sixty Years he has Been Identified With the Business Interests of Ann Arbor.

When the news was passed from lips to lips last Saturday morning that the life of Philip Bach had passed away that morning, it could hardly be believed. There were many who had not only conversed but transacted business with him the day before and that he should then be lying cold in death, was with difficulty comprehended.

But so it was. On the night previous he had suffered from an attack of heart failure, and at 2:30 had a second attack. He seemed to rally and was not thought to be in danger, when all at once at about 6:00 a. m. he was taken worse, and sank rapidly until death closed his life a few minutes later.

The death of no man in the city could cause more sincere regret than that of Philip Bach. He was known to almost every man, woman and child in the city, and to very many in the country, as well, and respected by every one. Thoroughly honest, he obtained the confidence of those he came in contact with and his life both public and private, was above reproach. He was pure in thought, manly in deed, and though one might differ with him yet he admired him. After an active life here in this city of sixty years he was beloved by the community. A record wonderfully rare.

It was in the fall of the year 1835 that Mr. Bach came to this city. His parents moved here from Pennsylvania to where they had emigrated in 1829 from Baden, Germany, his birth place. Upon arriving here he secured employment with the firm of Brown & Co., then the leading merchants of the city, doing business on the Northside, where at that time, almost the entire business of the city was done. He remained with the firm for the period of one year when he hired out to Hiram Goodspeed, who did business on the corner where H. J. Brown's drug store is now located. Mr. Goodspeed had associated with him the late Hiram Arnold as a partner, and the firm did a very large trade.

During the year 1838 Mr. Bach clerked for E. Root and son, going in the fall of 1839 with Messrs. Beach and Able, the junior member of the firm, however, was in no way related the Abels that afterwards became Mr. Bach's partners.

After remaining a year or so with that firm Mr. Bach branched out in business for himself, becoming a partner in the firm of C. B. Thompson and Co. The members of the firm consisting of C. B. Thompson, and John W. Thompson, who were brothers, and P. Bach. They did business on the corner where the late firm of Bach & Roath have conducted business so many years. This firm not only carried on the dry goods trade but also the manufacture of boots and shoes, in which they employed a large number of men, and their brand of goods became so famous that they had orders from and sent goods to California which in those days was a great deal farther away than it is now. Instead of taking five or six days to reach that then famous golden land, if a consignment of goods reached its destination in that many months it was considered a remarkably quick trip. A great deal of the traffic with the Pacific coast was then carried on by means of sailing vessels which went around Cape Horn. Many of the people of today are ignorant as to Cape Horn and its location, especially the younger people, but then it was as well known to everyone, as the city of San Francisco is to-day.

In the next change Mr. Bach retired from the firm of C. B. Thompson & Co., the late Chauncey H. Millen taking his place. He then allied himself with Hewitt & Pearson, who bought out Smith, Botsford & Co., and commenced business under the name of P. Bach & Co. After the death of Mr. Hewitt, the name of the firm was changed to Bach

REPUBLICANISM!

IS A GOOD THING

And so the People are Pushing it Fiercely Along,

IMMENSE MAJORITIES FOR THE G. O. P. ALL ALONG THE LINE.

PINGREE'S ASTONISHING POPULARITY

He Receives More Majority for Mayor Of Detroit than his Opponent Receives Votes.

It was a republican day yesterday and no mistake. New York state, Ohio, Iowa, Massachusetts, Maryland, Nebraska, Kansas, Utah, New Jersey and perhaps Kentucky, all went republican.

The only consolation for the democracy is the fact that it carried Mississippi and New York City was returned to its grovel and the arms of Tammany. A fact to be deeply deplored.

This election settles the career of Price, Gorman and probably of Hill also, as United States senators.

It is a continuation of the great tidal wave of one year ago, which is still rolling on.

Pingree Decidedly In It. Hazen S. Pingree was elected mayor of Detroit yesterday for the 4th time, by 10,527 majority, receiving just 38 more majority than his opponent did votes. And the entire city ticket is republican by huge majorities.

News from Chicago indicates that the republican city ticket is elected by 20,000 majority.

Glory, glory, how the elephant sang! Glory, glory, how the G. O. P. sang!

The M. E. Church Concert—

The concert to be given by the M. E. Church Choir, on Friday evening, will be one of unusual merit. Prof. Stanley will preside at the organ, and the choir will be assisted by Mrs. Arthur Worden, contralto, of Detroit, and Prof. C. E. Pease, baritone, of Detroit. The program for the evening is as follows:

Sopata F. Minor, Op. 115, (German School), Moderato Assai. Pin-moto: Adagio molto: Allegro con brio. Merkel

A MATTER TO DISCUSS.

On the first page of this paper will be found an article in reference to a proposed change in the state constitution, which would abolish the board of supervisors, and in their stead introduce the plan of commissioners to attend to the business of the county. Wherever that plan has been adopted it works admirably, we are told. It would put an end to the constant injustice practiced upon the tax-payers who happen to live in cities, for one thing, and for another it would be the means of securing the transaction of the county's business in a more thorough, methodical and economical manner. Under this proposed system the bridges of the county are all made at county expense, and a small body of tax-payers are not compelled to erect an expensive bridge at their own expense for the public benefit. There are other arguments in favor of the change. We should like to have the papers of the state discuss the matter and have the arguments on both sides brought out.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

The increase of crime in the United States is something astounding. While the increase in population for the past four decades has been 170 per cent., which in itself is marvelous, the increase in the criminal class for the same length of time has been 445 per cent. Thus it will be noted that our jail inmates increase twice as fast as our regular population. As far as the larger portion of these criminals are sons and daughters of criminals, and in their criminal tendencies from their parents, there is considerable food for thought in these figures.

The death of J. V. Teft of the Alhambra Recorder on Oct. 21st, removed one of the best newspaper men in the state. It will be difficult to fill his place and when the pencil pushers gather at their annual meetings and his vacant chair will be the cause of many sincere regrets. He was a graduate of the University lit class of '77.

Would there were more sheriffs like the one in Tiffin, Ohio, who, the other night, shot down two of a mob which was after the life of a man confined in the jail. This sheriff deserves the praise of every citizen who desires the law sustained. There are states in the Union where mobs are practically unrestrained at such times and their acts go unrebuked.—Jonesville Independent.

Mayor Pingree was not found wanting when asked to appear before the Detroit Chamber of Commerce and "explain" his acts as Mayor last week. He "explained" in a way the board little dreamed of, and instead of getting him in a hole, and of lashing him for supposed misdeeds, he stood up and lashed the Board. And he did the lashing with a clean cut lash having needles in the cracker, so that every time it came around the bodies of the members it pricked through their hides. It was certainly the keenest and brightest speech that the mayor ever delivered, and the points he made had an excellent effect. It was in astonishing contrast to the speech of his mayorality opponent, Sam Goldwater, of the day before. Sam scuttled his honest convictions, and saved over everything, in order to catch the votes of the board. His Honor, however, did the very opposite, and scored the board unmercifully for its actions in the past. It was not a shrewd piece of political figuring by Pingree's opponents to get the two candidates to speak there.

This thing doesn't seem to jibe, some way. A democratic administration and the worst drought the country ever had. Quite a phenomenon.

John D. Rockefeller has given another $1,000,000 to the Chicago University, payable Jan. 1, 1896, in cash or interest bearing securities. And $2,000,000 payable in the same manner, on or before Jan. 1st, 1900. The people really contribute this money when they buy kerosene oil, naphtha, etc., the profits of which go into Mr. Rockefeller's pockets. If this philanthropic gentleman wants to do a really magnificent thing, and make his Chicago University the richest as far as money goes, of any in the world, he should turn over his Standard Oil Co's stock to the institution. Then his university would work to the front financially "as slick as grease." And yet, money does not accomplish everything, after all. It is only a few months since a professor in this college of Mr. Rockefeller's was discharged because he had dared to criticize the actions of certain greedy corporations. Mr. Rockefeller does not intend that his money shall be used to favor freedom of speech and thought, but he who accepts a salary out of it must bend the knee and cling to monopolies and great corporate trusts. And yet this school of his, in order to secure caste, is supposed to be run under the guidance and care of a religious denomination, and pretends to be founded upon the exact justice of the teachings of the Saviour of mankind.

A Girl's Composition. At a recent boarding school examination for girls one of the tasks was an essay on boys, and this was one of the compositions, just as it was handed in by a girl of twelve: "The boy is not an animal, yet they can be heard to a considerable distance. When a boy hollers he opens his big mouth like frogs, but girls hold their tongue till they are spoke to, and then they answer respectable and tell just how it was. A boy thinks himself clever because he can wade where it is deep, but God made the dry land for every living thing, and rested on the seventh day. When the boy grows up he is called a husband, and then stops wading and stays out nights, but the grew-up girl is a widow and keeps house."

COMMON PLAIN FOOD.

It is Best for Children or Adults.

Natural grains, meat and fruit will make good healthy blood if the digestive machinery of the body is not interfered with. The blood when first made goes into the arteries and is of a bright red color. After it has been used some in supplying the body, it is carried into the veins and is there a dark red or purple color. Blood contains the elements to nourish and build up the body, such as soda, lime, albumen, etc., etc. When the powers of the stomach and the bowels are reduced by lack of vitality or by putting coffee or tea into the stomach, the processes which nature goes through with to change the food into rich, red blood are seriously interfered with. If a man could see what a "wet blanket" he put over his hard working friend, the stomach, by putting in coffee, whisky or tobacco, when it was honestly toiling away to do its work well, he would never repeat the outrage and injustice. It is like striking your friend a vicious blow when he is delving away for you with might and main. Don't do it. One feels more respect for himself when he acts the man and permits no form of abuse to strangle and spoil the beautiful work being done for him in the human body. No sort of fun on earth is equal to the fun of being thoroughly well. If one wants a pungent, piquant, hot drink for breakfast, lunch or dinner, it can be had in Postum Cereal, the food drink. It is made wholly of grains. It can be truly said, "It makes red blood." It brews the deep seal brown color of Mocha; it creams to the rich golden brown of Java, and has an aroma and taste that makes a man thankful that someone has at last made a combination of the grains that gives such a delicious hot drink that one can readily leave off the coffee which has been hurting more than one likes to think of. Medicines are poor crutches. The only safety is to use food and drink that the Creator intended for man, and when this is done the disease and sick spells gradually disappear. Common sense is quite uncommon, except when those who give themselves a shaking now and then and look plainly at what they are doing. If a person knows coffee don't hurt him, let him stick to it until it does, then such people thoroughly appreciate Postum Cereal. Grocers and druggist testify to large sales and the steady use of those who once try it, is evidence of its taking ways.

CURRENT LITERATURE.

A Couple of New Publications That Are Useful—What the Magazines Offer in the Way of Good Reading.

The leading illustrated article in the November Century is the description of Bonaparte's transformation from First Consul to "Emperor of the French," which Professor Sloane introduces with a salient review of the chief incidents of his career up to that time. The numerous pictures include the famous painting by David of the "Coronation," and also "The Surrender of Ulm." Another timely illustrated article is Mrs. Kinnicutt's paper on "Kaiserwerth and Its Founder," which describes one of the most notable foundations for philanthropic effort of the nineteenth century.

Outing for November proves that fortune is smiling upon the world's magazine of sport and recreation. An unusual number of fine illustrations and many readable sketches make the current issue most interesting. Every clean, wholesome sport receives attention, while some excellent fiction given the needful variety to suit varied tastes. The editorial and record departments are most valuable accessories.

St. Nicholas begins a new year with the number for November, and the volume opens with a notable array of attractions. Two new serials are begun, and promise to make their way into the favor of all the readers of the magazine. "The Swordmaker's Son," by William O. Stoddard, is a story of the Holy Land in the year 30 A. D. Mr. J. T. Trowbridge who has been a favorite writer for boys for more than a quarter of a century, is represented by the first chapters of a new serial, "The Prize Cup," in his usual lively vein. As might be gathered from the title, this story has athletics for its basis. Arthur Hoerber has a sketch of the career of "A Famous French Painter"—J. L. Gerome—accompanied by reproductions of many of the latter's pictures. The fortune-telling games that find favor among Southern children are described by Louise Willis Sneed. A story of "Princeton: A Modern Puss in Boots," is written by Minnie B. Sheldon.

One of the best reference books ever published is the "Century Cyclopedia of Names," printed by The Century Co., New York. 1 vol., of 1100 pages. Price from $10 to $15. B. C. Burt agent at Ann Arbor. About the most succinct description of this work is given by the New York Times, as follows: "For a great many occasions in one's every-day life this single volume will take the place of a cyclopedia that fills a whole shelf with its stately quartos. It is one of the most impressive examples to be found extant of intelligent condensation on a very extended scale. We must with confidence predict for it wide circulation, early recognition, and a long life of beneficent usefulness."

THE NATIONAL MILITARY PARK, CHICKAMAUGA—CHATTAHOOGA. An Historical Guide. With Maps and Illustrations. By General H. V. Boynton. 12 mo. Published by the Robert Clarke Co., Cincinnati, Ohio. Cloth $1.50.

Thus far the government has expended $650,000 in establishing the Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park. The Historical Guide contains a full description of this Park of ten square miles, and its thirty-six miles of approaches along Missionary Ridge, over Lookout Mountain, and about Chattanooga; a concise history of the campaigns and battles for Chattanooga, including Davis' Cross Roads, Chickamauga, Brown's Ferry, Wauhatchie, Orchard Knob, Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge and Tunnel Hill; a comprehensive guide to each one of these fields; a history of the Chickamauga Memorial Association, and of the present Park project which took its place; a full account of the action of Congress establishing the Park, and the assistance rendered by its many friends in all sections of the country; a list of the State Commission, with a statement of their work, and the help extended by the Governors of States; and a full account of the work completed at the Park, that is in progress, and that contemplated.

The volume is illustrated by over twenty full-page views of the most notable points of the several fields. It has eight position maps, covering the movements of troops on each of the fields named, an independent one of the Park and its approaches. Specimens are given of the six varieties of historical tablets, of the observation towers, and the shell monuments which mark the spots where General Officers were killed or mortally wounded.

Found Dead in Bed.

Henry Bauer, 8 years old, living in Front street, was found dead in bed by his father, who came home from work at 8 o'clock. The lad's death was pathetic, says the New York Tribune. His mother died four months ago and the father was not willing to send his children to an institution. Henry and his two sisters, both younger than himself, kept house as best they could. They were lonely with out their mother, and little Henry, who assumed charge of the little girls, worried and pined over his hard lot. There was no escaping it, however, and every day he gave them their dinner, kept them as tidy as possible and wondered if he should ever have a good time again. Wednesday afternoon he told Mrs. Wiegand, a neighbor who had shown a fondness for him, that his head ached badly.

"I guess I'm going to be sick, Mrs. Wiegand," said he, "and mamma isn't here to take care of me. Who'll take care of—of them?" he asked, his eyes filling with tears and his face growing paler.

Mrs. Wiegand told him to lie down and rest and his little sisters would be taken care of all right.

"When you wake up your headache will be gone," said she, good humoredly.

He crawled into bed with his clothes on and went to sleep and when he woke up it was with his "mother." When his father called his name at 8 o'clock there was no response.

"Henry's asleep, papa," said the youngest child.

The father lighted the gas and went to the bedside of the motionless boy. One look at the pale face showed him that little Henry's complainings had been well founded. Death is supposed to have been due to some brain trouble.

"First Water Diamond."

"What do you mean by the expression 'first water'?"

"The expression 'first water' when applied to a diamond denotes that it is free from all traces of color, blemish, flaw or other imperfection, and that its brilliancy is perfect. It is, however, frequently applied to stones not quite perfect, but the best that the dealer has, and they may be of only second quality. It is almost impossible to value a diamond by its weight only. Color, brilliancy, cutting and the general perfection of the stone have all to be taken into account. Of two stones, both flawless and of the same weight, one may be worth $600 and the other $12,000. Exceptional stones often bring unusual prices, while 'off-color' stones sell from $60 to $100 a carat, regardless of size. The poor qualities have depreciated so much in value that some are worth only from one-tenth to one-fourth what they were worth twenty years ago. This is especially true of large stones of the second or third quality."

It isn't much trouble for a really healthy man to be good humored. Jollity and exuberant health are a proverbial combination. The hearty man who is always laughing doesn't have any trouble with his digestion. It has been said that laughing makes people healthy. The truth is that health makes people laugh.

There isn't any other thing so essential to health as regularity in the action of the bowels. Most all sickness starts with some derangement of the digestive functions. Good digestion means good, pure blood, and that means strength. Once let the bowels become clogged with refuse matter, and the whole system is deranged. Impure, poisonous matter gets into the blood and plants the seeds for all sorts of sickness. Whenever there is a stoppage of the intestinal action, help should be given immediately. Usually a mild, gentle laxative is all that is necessary. A violent, wrenching, gripping cathartic is never needed. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the most pleasant and successful remedy for occasional or chronic constipation, or costiveness. They are tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules that even the smallest child can easily take. They act in perfect accord with nature and produce no griping or other disagreeable feeling. They should be taken at the first indication of digestive trouble. They stop sour stomach, belching, "heart-burn," flatulence and sick headache. They cure constipation permanently. You can stop taking them after the bowels are thoroughly regulated. Their help lasts. You do not become a slave to their use as with other pills.

Hutzel's Water Back!

A very important invention which will be hailed with delight by every body using a stove or range for hot water circulation. After years of experience we have succeeded in producing a simple and perfect WATER BACK.

It overcomes all the present troubles of extracting lime and other sediments which accumulate in water backs, often making them useless and in great many instances becoming dangerous.

The outlay of dollars is reduced to dimes. No household using a range can afford to be without it.

No more trouble by using city water for hot water circulation.

Can be used in any stove. Ask your stove dealer for Hutzel's Water Back.

Mason & Davis Co's. ranges for sale at C. Eberbach are provided with our improvement.

The lecture course at Howell started off with 595 season tickets sold.

It only takes fourteen potatoes to fill a bushel basket over at Stockbridge.

Mrs. Alex. Soulier of Mt. Clemens, has been visiting Dexter friends during the past week.

Mrs. Helen A. Raywalt, of Dexter will spend the winter with a brother in Grand Ledge.

John W. Cowan died at his home in Manchester, Oct. 25, aged 71 years. The deceased had been among the most prominent men of that section of the county.

Georgie McQuade is credited with 108 bushels and Belle Mahan with 102 bushels of potatoes in one day, which they picked up and put into a pile. They are Brighton girls.

The new house of Dr. R. B. Honey at Dexter, just completed by B. H. Williams carpenter, Fred Wyman mason, and Reese & Taylor painters, is one of the finest in the village.

The village of Wayne is to have a system of water works now, sure pop. If this sort of weather continues every village in the state will need a pipe leading to the Great Lakes.

Miss Katharine Burns, of the Conservatory of Music, Ann Arbor, has been appointed organist of St. Mary's church, Chelsea. Miss Burns will make her home with Mrs. C. E. Whitaker.—Herald.

We should judge by our exchanges that Ann Arbor is not the only place in which Hallowe'en was celebrated. There are other places in which the antics of the boys were worse than they were here.

The farm house of James Hallen, about two miles northeast of Chelsea, was burned down last Wednesday morning, together with contents. Loss $1,800, insured for $1,200 in the Washtenaw Mutual.

Our readers should remember that the lecture of Rev. J. M. Barkley, upon 'One Year in the Rebel Army,' takes place on the evening of November 26 at the congregational church. Single admission 35 cents. Course tickets 80 cents.

The C. J. & M. railroad will be built into Jackson, within the next 90 days; a large number of people being at work upon it. It is understood that the road will be an outlet for the Grand Trunk. C. J. & M., means Cincinnati, Jackson & Mackinaw.—Stockbridge Sun.

Mrs. Ann M. Craig nee Grenville, died at the home of her son Robert R. Craig in Morrice, Mich., Oct. 27, aged 77 years 6 mos. The deceased was a native of England, and came to Ann Arbor with her parents while yet a child. She was a sister of the late George Grenville, who for many years kept a drug store where Goodyear & Co's drug store now is. One sister, Mrs. Wm. Taylor of this city, is the only living member of the Grenville family who came to Michigan in an early day.

May, the youngest daughter of John Smith, of Ann Arbor town, died on Oct. 28, at the home of her father, of consumption, aged 19 years. Funeral services were held on Wednesday at St. Patrick's church, Northfield, and were conducted by Father Goldrick of that church, Fr. Kelly of Ann Arbor, and Fr. Fleming of Dexter. The deceased had entered the convent at Monroe a year ago, to devote her life to the work of a sister of charity, but was obliged to return home because of failing health. The family have many sympathizing friends in their affliction.

Poker players in Milan are hounded so that they have to scale ladders to get into secret rooms where they can enjoy themselves—and the Leader even kicks on the scale.

Hon. Washington Gardner, secretary of state, is to lecture in the high school course, at Milan, Friday evening, his subject being "The Struggle for Chattanooga."

They have naughty, wicked boys in Northville who throw stones through church windows. They should be spanked, and we nominate Neal of the Record, as spanker in chief.

Supervisor Lighthall, of Sylvan, aspires to the nomination of sheriff on the democratic ticket next fall. Well, there will be but little scrapping over it, and "Hi" can just as well be luted as anyone.

Wm. Bogardus, of Milan, is entitled to $1,500,000 as his share of the Ameeke-Jans estate. When he gets it, the Leader states that they will stop addressing him as Bill, and call him Mr. Bogardus. Sure.

Mrs. Florence S. Babbitt attended the first district convention of the W. R. C. at Lapeer last week, and went to Plymouth yesterday to attend the reunion of the Sixteenth Volunteer Infantry.—Ypsilanti Sentinel.

A Great Book Free!

When Dr. R. V. Pierce of Buffalo, N. Y., published the first edition of his great work, The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, he announced that after 680,000 had been sold at the regular price, $1.50 per copy, the profit on which would repay him for the great amount of labor and money expended in producing it, he would distribute the next half million free. As this number of copies has already been sold, he is now giving away, absolutely free, 500,000 copies of this most complete, interesting and valuable common sense medical work ever published—the recipient only being required to mail to him, at the above address, twenty-one (21) one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only, and the book will be sent post-paid. It is a veritable medical library, complete in one volume. Contains 1008 pages, profusely illustrated. The Free Edition is precisely the same as that sold at $1.50 except only that the books are in strong manilla paper covers instead of cloth. Send now before all are given away.

THE FAMOUS U. OF M.

What is Going on About the Campus and in University Circles in General.

Dr. Arthur H. Coe, medic '88, of Spokane, Wash., has been visiting the University during the week.

The banquet given by the University Masonic club at Hangsterfer's Saturday evening, was a jolly affair.

Frank J. Riggs, law '92, Frank C. Cool '91, and Elmer E. Allor '92, now leave out their shingle in Detroit as Riggs, Cook & Allor. Success to them.

The first vesper service of the year at University Hall, was held yesterday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. A chorus of fifty voices inaugurated the services.

President Angell has been honored once again by the president of the United States, this time being appointed a member of the deep water ways commission.

Prof. H. C. Adams, as a member of the state board of visitors, inspected the Michigan Military Academy at Orchard Lake, Thursday. He reports everything in splendid condition.

The U. of M. foot ball team won from Oberlin Saturday p. m., by a score of 42 to 0. The same day Harvard was defeated by Princeton by a score of 12 to 4. Michigan's team will go east in rather a crippled condition, some of her best players being laid up by injuries received in practice.

About 1,000 students expect to take advantage of the $5 excursion and go to Boston to see the U. of M. boys wallop Harvard in the Rugby game.—Pittsney Dispatch. That is a mistake. The University authorities refuse to allow the boys to go in any great numbers, and only those who have perfect recitations are allowed to take any part in any of the athletic sports. A flunk means a pluck in athletics for the lover thereof.

Probably the largest Alumni Association in the country has been formed at Detroit, by the graduates of the U. of M. in that city. Hon. Don M. Dickinson has been chosen president, Miss Winifred Lane vice president, Earl D. Babst secretary and treasurer, George P. Codd, C. M. Barton, H. H. Swan and W. C. Johnson directors. The names of many of the most prominent people of Detroit appear among the members.

In The Law Student's Helper, for October, published by W. S. Sprague, of Detroit, is a fine article on the "Law Department of the University of Michigan." It is illustrated with portraits of President Angell, Prof. Harry B. Hutchins, dean of the Law Faculty, and also a cut of Judge Cooley, made from a photograph of his bust now in the law building. The article gives an excellent description of the workings of this, the largest law school in America, and also brief biographies of President Angell and Dean Hutchins. It is well written and very interesting.

At a meeting of the Detroit Branch of the Collegiate Alumnae at Detroit Friday, there was a very full attendance. The members enjoyed a pleasant lunch at noon, and afterward Hon. Herbert Welch of Philadelphia, delivered an extremely interesting address. Mrs. F. N. Scott of Ann Arbor was chosen president, Mrs. Geo. W. Patterson, assistant secretary; Mrs. Chas. H. Cooley, treasurer and Mrs. W. A. Campbell and Mrs. H. C. Adams directors for the ensuing year. There had been paid to the Fellowship fund $50, to the woman's gymnasium of the University, $231.31, and $270 additional pledged to that cause.

The "festivities" of Hallowe'en were observed as usual in this city. Some of the fun loving boys who fail to have a just idea of where fun leaves off and lawlessness begins, overstep the bounds somewhat and trouble with the local police authorities resulted. One student was arrested and put in jail and the next morning paid Justice Pond for the fun. The officers did their best to protect the property of citizens from destruction, and showed a great deal of pluck against overwhelming odds. These rushes and pranks come almost exclusively from the Freshmen, the older classes being more careful about their conduct and exercising better judgment.

Catarrh in the Head

Is due to impure blood and can not be cured with local applications. Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured hundreds of cases of catarrh because it purifies the blood and in this way removes the cause of the disease. It also builds up the system and prevents attacks of pneumonia, diphtheria and typhoid fever.

Hood's Pills become a favorite cathartic with every one who tries them. 25c.

MORE MILEAGE

Territory Covered by C. H. & D. Books Still Further Enlarged.

Now Operative Over 12,000 Miles of Central Traffic Lines.

Made Good Over the Balto & Ohio, West of Pittsburg.

Commercial travel, as well as that material portion of the general public availing itself of a mileage transportation, will be highly gratified to learn that the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railway Company have arranged for a still further extension of the already far-reaching territory covered by their Twenty-dollar one thousand mile tickets, effective October 15. C. H. & D. commercial mileage tickets are accepted on the Baltimore & Ohio R. R., west of and including Pittsburg and Benwood, and also on the Pittsburg & Wheeling Division. This, in addition to the large number of roads over which a C. H. & D. Mileage book is now operative, renders it one of the cheapest, most comprehensive and convenient books in the United States, embracing, as it does, 12,000 miles in round figures, of 83 of the most prominent and important railways in the territory bounded by lines drawn between Cincinnati, Pittsburg, Buffalo, Cleveland, Toledo, Detroit, Chicago, and St. Louis.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggists or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Booklets and proofs free. Eureka Chemical & Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORNBICK, Supt., St. Paul, Minnesota, Sept. 7, 1891.

Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis. Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Kosely Cigs," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours truly, C. W. HORNBICK.

A Serious Question—

The question of what to do with the boys who are growing up to be criminals is a serious one. Their lawlessness begins with the stealing of fruit, and then the deprecations continue until they maliciously destroy property, and commit petty larceny. If the boy is under 10 years of age the law forbids that he be sent to the state industrial school at Lansing, so the young vagabond can commit all the small deprecations he pleases and not suffer punishment for the same. These are the hardest cases to deal with. There is much responsibility resting upon the parents in some of these cases as there has not been proper home training. There is one deterrent that the common council can enforce and that is to adopt an ordinance prohibiting boys from loafing upon the streets at night. There is no habit like this to lead boys into lawlessness. As late as 10 o'clock at night, and even 11 o'clock, boys can be seen upon the main streets. No boy should be permitted upon the main streets after 8 o'clock unless accompanied by one of his parents.

Go to OSBORNE'S MILLS for your flour and feed grinding. We are doing work that is satisfactory to all.

St. Thomas' Lecture Course—

Tickets for St. Thomas' lecture course are now on sale at $1 in many of the business places. The course will consist of five lectures, four of which will be delivered in St. Thomas' church and the fifth one, Archbishop Ireland's, will be delivered in University hall. The Student's Lecture association tickets will admit to this last lecture without extra charge. Those who do not hold season tickets will be charged 50 cents for Archbishop Ireland's lecture. The other speakers in the course are Revs. Nugent, of Des Moines, Morrissey, of Notre Dame, Sherman, of St. Louis, the son of Gen. W. T. Sherman, and Bishop Watterston, of Columbus. This makes one of the most attractive courses ever offered in Ann Arbor. Rev. Nugent is a man of strong mind and popular tendencies. He will deliver the first lecture on the evening of Nov. 19, taking for his subject "The relation of the church to the Bible and the public school."—Daily Times.

Death's Sad Work—

Miss Aline Szold, daughter of Mr. Joseph Szold of Peoria, Ill., died Friday Nov. 1, of typhoid malaria, after a severe illness of several weeks. Miss Szold was graduated from the University of Michigan with the class of 1892.

She was prominent in college circles and a zealous, earnest worker in the Flower Mission and Woman's League. Of the former she was the first president.

She was a young woman of more than ordinary ability in many ways and won many friends.

Her enthusiasm found its field of work in the line of art and after studying one year in New York, she went to Paris where she spent the last two years, returning home last June for a visit. She fully expected to return to Paris this autumn for an indefinite period to pursue her life work. Her success seemed assured, since her pictures had sold well and she had been engaged in illustrating several literary works. Her many friends in Ann Arbor, both students and citizens, are greatly pained at her sudden and unexpected death. All deeply sympathize with her bereaved parents and friends at her home.

Respectfully,
N. W. CHEEVER.

It Quaked—

The earthquake which got around so early Thursday morning last, was such a slight affair here that it did not cause much sensation. It was noticed by some people, but at the Observatory, the machine that registers the slightest vibration of the earth did not move a muscle. At other places people who were sleeping in upper stories had their beds joggled. Most of our citizens were considerably put out—in mind—because such a rare entertainment should pass this way, and they receive no notice of it. It is astonishing how many people there are who have a desire to experience the sensations of an earthquake—not a regular old earth-opener and destroyer, but a moderate one. Judge Harriman, however, who has been present at several such affairs, has no desire to attend any more of them. He tells about earthquakes that accomplished queer feats. One took the chimney tops on high buildings and just turned them half-way round, and similar antics. These were what were termed circular earthquakes, and when one got himself located near the center of the circle, he was far from comfortable. It usually made people sea sick, or sick to their stomachs. The most appalling effect of the last Thursday's affair comes from the 3d ward. A lady on Fountain street, had just ascended the treacherous rocking chair to put up a curtain that had been shaken down, when the jar overcame the delicate balance she had assumed and down she came, curtain and all.

Another Midnight Session—

It was midnight when the council adjourned Monday night, and the members sought their weary way home. There was no particular jangling, but there were a host of ordinances to read.

The mayor's veto in regard to accepting $25 from Mr. Bullis for dirt, was sustained, as was also his veto of the cross walk on E. University ave., across Washtenaw ave.

The finance committee reported an expenditure of $3,891.83 for the month, besides $5,233.60 to the contractor of Hill st. sewer. The city treasurer was allowed $100 extra compensation. Attorney J. W. Bennett was allowed $50 for services in the Linen vs. Banfield suit, and City Engineer $23.30 for instruments destroyed by the fire in the city building. The sum of $50 was appropriated for a cross walk on N. Fourth avenue, across Catharine, and across the alley west of N. 4th ave. A temporary wall was also ordered constructed across 12th st. on N. side of Catharine street.

Manager Sawyer was refused permission to place a bill board on the telephone pole, cor. Ann and Main streets.

The Council will sit as a board of review on assessment for sidewalks ordered constructed on Monday Nov. 18. The finance committee was instructed to hire a janitor for the city buildings. Mr. Wheelock was given the contract for grading E. Washington st. near Felch park, and a brick cross walk on Willard street across E. University ave. was postponed for a year, while the one the mayor vetoed was ordered built at a cost of $50.

Look Out for the Change—

The lecture of Rev. J. M. Barkley, before the Y. M. C. A., will be held in Harris Hall, and not in the Presbyterian church as heretofore announced. Holders of season tickets will please note this and also the change of date from Nov. 27 to Nov. 26.

Just Four Years Old—

On Tuesday evening of next week, Nov. 12th, the members of Arbor Hive L. O. T. M. will celebrate the fourth anniversary of that order in this city. Invitations have been sent out and the arrangements to entertain are perfected. These ladies give some most delightful evenings, and their invitations are highly prized.

The Delegates Reported—

At the quarterly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. Monday evening, the delegates who went to Hillsdale to attend the state convention made their reports, which were of a very encouraging nature. The chairman of local committees also made their quarterly reports, which were also very good, showing the society to be in an excellent condition.

Prepare to Wrinkle—

The Wrinkle for this week will contain a center page illustration by Wagner, and the front page will be a half tone. Among other features will be drawings by Parsons and Ferry, new applicants for popular favor. Geo. E. Barker will have a poem entitled "If I only had Money to Burn" J. M. Smith and Harold Bowman will be represented by good verses and sketches. Secure it before the issue is gone.

Death of Mrs. Butterfield—

Rosalie E. Butterfield, wife of O. H. Butterfield and mother of Ald. O. E. Butterfield, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock at her home No. 30 S. Ingalls st., after a protracted illness, aged 48 years. Deceased was born in Dummerston, Vt., coming to this city from Brattleboro, Vt., with her husband in 1890. Her husband, O. H. Butterfield, and her only son, O. E. Butterfield, survive her. Services will be held at the residence Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. T. W. Ilman, of Grand Rapids, officiating. The remains will be taken to Brattleboro, Vt., for interment on the 7:47 a. m. Michigan Central train Thursday, and will be accompanied by her husband and son.—Daily Times.

Sinners, Prepare for War—

The Salvation Army expect to begin their work here as previously announced, at No. 20 N. Fourth ave., on the 15th of November. Some of its friends have been asked to contribute toward buying the chairs for the hall, and about half enough has been raised. We hope the friends who have not been asked, will also help in the good work at once. Articles of furniture for house keeping, from a clothes pin up to carpets, beds and bedding are needed to furnish the rooms for our friends. Look about your homes and see what you can spare for the work and bring to the hall on the 15th, or any time thereafter. Those having anything too heavy for that get them moved by dropping a postal to A. A. Bachelow, 2 Miner st., who is also the proper person to receive all moneys and donations of any kind.

WM. DANSINGBURG, Clerk.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15, 1895.

The board met pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the Chairman. Roll called, quorum present.

The journal of yesterday read and approved.

The Clerk presented to the board the report of the Auditor General in reference to the state taxes to be raised in Washtenaw county.

This report was, on motion, received and referred to committee on Apportionment of State and County Taxes. The following is the report:

Auditor General's Office, Lansing, Mich., Oct. 9, 1895.

Dear Sir—In the statement recently sent to you from this office an error was made in copying the amount of state taxes apportioned to your county for the year 1895. The amount apportioned to your county is $82,682.75 instead of the amount named in the statement previously sent you, which in all other respects is correct.

You will please lay this statement before your Board of Supervisors.

Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General.

State of Michigan, Auditor General's Office, Lansing, Sept. 24, 1895. To the Clerk of the County of Washtenaw, Michigan:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 35, Act 206, Public Acts of 1893, you are hereby notified that a State tax has been apportioned to the several counties of the State, according to the last returns of the aggregate valuation of taxable property therein made to this office, as is equalized and determined by the State Board of Equalization at their session in August, 1891.

The aggregate valuation of real and personal estate in Michigan as equalized by the State Board of Equalization in the year 1891, is $1,130,000,000, of which amount $31,000,000.00 is in Washtenaw County.

The aggregate of State taxes apportioned to the several counties of the state in the year 1895 is $3,013,919.52, of which amount $81,940.77 is apportioned to Washtenaw County.

The several items of the State tax of 1895, and the sum of each, are as follows, viz.:

Table listing various state taxes and their amounts for Washtenaw County, including University of Michigan, State Normal School, Agricultural College, etc.

There is also to be levied as a portion of the county taxes, as required by Section 35, Act 206, Laws of 1893, (unless paid prior to October 1st) the indebtedness of your County to the State on the first day of July, 1895, then amounting to $503.28.

The indebtedness of the County must not be added to the State Tax.

You will cause the above to be laid before the Board of Supervisors of your county at their session in October, 1895.

Please acknowledge immediately the receipt of this notice.

Very respectfully, Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General.

The report of Inspectors of Jails was presented to the Board, and ordered printed with the proceedings. The following is the report:

REPORT OF INSPECTORS OF JAILS FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHTENAW OF INSPECTION MADE ON SEPTEMBER 24, 1895.

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors: The undersigned Inspectors of Jails for the County of Washtenaw, in compliance with the provisions of Law (Sections 9649-9654, found on page 2318 of Howell's Annotated Statutes of Michigan, as above amended) would respectfully report:

That on the 24th day of September, 1895, they visited and carefully inspected the county jail of said county, and found as follows:

1. That during the six months immediately preceding such examination there had been confined at different times 206 prisoners, charged with offenses as follows:

Table showing offenses and the number of prisoners for each, categorized by gender and total count.

2. There are now in jail, detained for trial, 3; serving sentence, 6; under 16 years of age, none; awaiting commitment, none. Number now in jail, male, 10; female, 2; total, 12. Prisoners detained for trial have been held in jail in the following number of days each, 18, 29, 13, 6, 4, 7. Prisoners awaiting commitment have been held since sentence... days each.

Number usually confined in one room by day, all males over 16. Number usually confined in one room at night, one.

4. Employment, no regular work.

5. Condition of bedding, only medium. Condition of cells, only medium. Condition of halls needs immediate repairs. Condition of water closets, fair.

6. What distinction, if any, is made in treatment of prisoners? None.

7. Are prisoners under 16 years of age at any time, day or night, permitted to mingle or associate with older prisoners? See Sec. 2000, page 540, Howell's Annotated Statutes of Michigan. No.

8. Are prisoners arrested on civil process kept in rooms separate and distinct from prisoners held on criminal charge, as required by Section 8941, Howell's Statutes? No.

9. Are male and female prisoners confined in separate rooms as required by Section 8942, Howell's Statutes? They are.

10. Is there a proper jail record kept, and is it kept properly posted and does it comply with Section 9664, page 2320, Howell's Annotated Statutes of Michigan? There is, but more system is needed.

11. What, if any, evils, either in construction or management of jail are found to exist? The jail is too small and the lot on which it stands is also too small and can be approached on two sides from the street.

J. Willard Babbitt, Judge of Probate. Elisha Loomis, Charles H. Kempf, E. P. Mason, Superintendents of Poor. D. B. Greene, County Agent.

The report of the Judge of Probate in regard to persons committed to the insane asylum was read and ordered printed. The following is the report:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors for Washtenaw County, Mich.:

Gentlemen:—Herewith I have the honor to submit my official report of Commitments to the Eastern Michigan Asylum for the Insane for the year ending Sept. 30, 1895.

Of the estimated expenses for the ensuing year $2,553.87, twenty-five hundred fifty-three and eighty-seven hundredths dollars, are due from cities and towns for last year's board and care of their poor at the county house. We have a balance of $469.82, four hundred sixty-nine and eighty-two hundredths dollars, in the hands of the County Treasurer. This will leave three thousand dollars to be provided for. We would respectfully ask your honorable body to appropriate us twenty-five hundred dollars, and with no prevailing disease or other extraordinary expenses we will do what we can to keep our expenses within that limit. All of which is respectfully submitted by the undersigned Superintendents of the Poor of Washtenaw County. Elisha Loomis, Charles N. Kempf, Erastus P. Mason.

Morton F. Case, Chairman of Committee.

The Clerk then presented to the Board the following bids of physicians for attendance upon prisoners at the County Jail.

Ann Arbor, Oct. 23, 1895. I hereby agree to furnish medical and surgical attendance to the sick of the County Jail and furnish medicines for twenty-eight dollars.

Yours respectfully, M. L. Belser, M. D. Ann Arbor, Oct. 23, 1895.

I hereby agree to render medical and surgical services for the Washtenaw County prisoners and furnish medicines for the ensuing year for thirty dollars.

Yours respectfully, Dr. John Kapp. Ann Arbor, Oct. 21, 1895.

To the Board of Supervisors: Gentlemen: I hereby bid to furnish the medical and surgical attendance to the inmates of the jail for the ensuing year for the sum of thirty dollars.

Yours respectfully, E. C. Clark, M. D. On motion of Mr. Case the bid of Dr. Belser was accepted.

The special hour having arrived in which to hear the Drain Commissioner's report, said report was read and accepted and referred to the Committee on Drains and ordered printed in the proceedings.

To the Board of Supervisors of Washtenaw County: Gentlemen—In accordance with the provisions of the statute in such case made and provided, I have the honor to submit my annual report as the County Drain Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw, covering the period from the 10th day of October, A. D. 1894, to the 21st day of October, A. D. 1895.

The following named drains were left unfinished at the date of my last report, to wit: The Mill-Lake Drain of the townships of Lima and Sylvan; the Salem No. 1 Drain of the township of Salem, and cleaning out the Buck Creek Drain, of the township of Augusta, said drains are all completed.

The following named Drains have been begun, constructed, and completed by me during the year, to wit: None. The following named Drains have been begun by me, during the year, and are only partly completed, to wit: Cleaning out of the West Branch of the big marsh drain in the township of Augusta. Said Drain will be completed this fall. I also have an application for cleaning out a Drain in the township of Lima, I haven't done anything with said drain as yet, also an application for cleaning out the Lower End of the Buck Creek drain in the township of Augusta. I have not done anything with said drain yet, except looking the ground over.

And I do hereby certify, That the above embraces a full and true report of all the Drains constructed, finished, or begun under my supervision, or applied for during the year now ending, and that the financial statement of each Drain, which accompanies this Report, is true and correct.

All of which is respectfully submitted. Dated this 21st day of October 1895. D. W. Barry, County Drain Commissioner of the County of Washtenaw.

Whereupon the Board took a recess until 2 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION. Board met pursuant to adjournment. Roll called and quorum found present.

The Prosecuting Attorney addressed the Board in regard to the liquor tax belonging to the town of Bridgewater and recommended the payment of the same.

Report was referred to the committee to settle with County Officers.

Mr. Oesterlin, from Special Committee made the following report: To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Washtenaw County:

At the last January Session of your honorable Board, you appointed a committee to collect the moneys due the County as shortage in the accounts of ex-County Treasurer P. G. Sukey, of his bond men. Your committee had two meetings with the Prosecuting Attorney, for which they charge per diem as follows:

Eugene Oesterlin, 2 days, $6 00 M. F. Case, 2 days, " 6 00 W. H. Duncan, 1 day, " 3 00 E. Ball, 2 days, " 6 00 Frank Duncan, 2 days, " 6 00

Report adopted. Mr. Duncan from Committee on Public Buildings made the following report which was accepted and adopted.

To the Honorable the Board of Supervisors of the County of Washtenaw: Gentlemen: Your committee on Public Buildings beg leave respectfully to report the transactions of your committee during the past year, relative to the care of the public buildings of the county. Your committee has assembled on many occasions and the various matters coming before us have received the patient consideration and all actions taken by your committee have met with unanimous approval of your committee.

Some time in the early spring of the present year it became manifest that the roof of the Court House was in need of considerable repair. On examination it was found that the paint placed thereon some two years ago was practically worn out and valueless. After investigation your committee thought it advisable to close the contract with the Ravanna Roofing Company to cover the entire roof with metallic paint for the sum of fifty-six and twenty-five hundredths dollars, which work has been completed in apparent good order and is guaranteed to stand for a period of five years.

Your committee have laid out and expended on account of repairs to the Court House other than the item of roofing sums of money as follows:

Evertroughs and conductors, Grossman & Schlenker, $ 7 75 Cleaning cesspool, Frank Howard, 15 00 Laying pipe from old cesspool and cleaning pipe from closet, Hutzel & Co., 14 40

Repairing water pipe, Fred Geankle, 75 Material for same, L. Rohde, 1 90 Repairing and sealing closet and constructing shelving in Register of Deeds Office, C. Heiber, 7 53 Oiling and varnishing the same, 1 50 Repairing door, screens, etc., John Waltz, 9 03

Repairing boiler, Sutter, 5 99 Cash paid for cinder rake, 1 25 Repairing water pipes, Hutzel & Co., 5 52 Repairing office chairs, Martin Haller, 2 17

Total for Court House, $128 95

Your committee feel that while the county has been fortunate in the small amount of money required to keep and maintain the Court House in reasonably good order and repair during the last year they have not been so fortunate in the matter of jail repairs. The new sheriff coming in, it is found that many things had to be repurchased and quite extensive repairs made throughout the residence part of the jail.

In obedience to a resolution of this honorable Board, your committee disposed of the stone yard, settled the matter of the rent thereof with Mr. Kittridge by the payment of forty dollars and disposed of the broken stone on hand to the City of Ann Arbor, nineteen small loads at sixty cents per load and turned the money to the County Clerk amounting to $11.40.

Your committee have paid, laid out and expended in repairs and purchasing new material for the jail, sums of money as follows:

To painting and papering jail residence inside, C. F. Stabler, $ 8 54 Paid for painting jail kitchen and screens at Court House, Eugene Oesterlin, Jr., 17 95

Painting roof on jail barn, W. Wheeler 17 50 Paid for tinware and kitchen material, 13 71

Painting and repairing yard walks and cellar door, J. Eiting, 13 13 Paid for handiwork, new lock and key for closet in Court House, Wagner & Beerman, 12 25

Paid for cots for use at the jail, Koch & Henne, 10 00 Paid for blankets for use of jail, Good-year & St. James, 3 30

Repairing and plastering at jail, R. Graf, 5 00 Repairing heating apparatus at jail, Hutzel & Co., 24 45

Painting new floor at jail and repairing windows, J. Eiting, 20 06 Repairing water closet to jail, Hutzel & Co., 9 90

Painting jail outside, brick wall, wood-work, iron work, fence and lattice by contract, E. Oesterlin, Jr., 110 00 Forty yards of crash toweling, Schairer & Milten, 3 20

Painting screen doors and setting window lights at jail barn, W. Wheeler 7 18 To planting trees at jail, Alonzo Young, 2 00

Paid for shoes for prisoners, E. Healy, 9 65 Paid for handcuffs, prisoners, Donohue, 3 75

Total expenditures at jail, $393 07

Your committee have made no expenditures whatever on account of the County House, except the construction of a new wagon house which was rendered necessary to store new wagons, tools and implements purchased by superintendents. Your committee pursued the usual course and asked for bids for the construction of this wagon house according to the plans and size suggested by the keeper of the poor house and superintendents of the poor; the lowest bid obtained therefor was the bid of John Eiting for the sum of $135.75 including the masonry and carpenter work and furnishing all materials. The work progressed in the construction of this wagon and tool house until its practical completion when a very heavy wind storm arose and blew the wagon shed down. Your committee recognizing the fact that the plan itself was faulty thought it but fair to pay the contractor something in addition to contract price for its rebuilding, the additional time in rebuilding the same being paid for by the day at the usual rates. The wagon and tool house when completed, the plan being slightly altered to secure stability, cost, $174.97; cash paid painting the same, $18; total county house expenditures, $192.97.

The whole sum paid, laid out and expended since your committee was appointed for repairs at the Court House, Jail and County House is the sum of $714.99.

Your committee beg leave to recommend the construction of a suitable iron fence around the prison portion of the jail for the purpose of arresting and preventing communication with persons confined therein. It has come to the knowledge of your committee that tools and implements for jail breaking as well as intoxicating liquors have been repeatedly passed to prisoners under confinement therein. On account of the manner in which the jail proper is constructed, being wholly unprotected, it is not within the power of the sheriff except by maintaining a perpetual guard thereat, to prevent these occurrences.

Your committee beg leave to call attention to the fact and we note with pleasure that all small items of repairs at the Court House, such as was formerly contained in our report, is wholly absent from this report. This absence is attributable to a marked degree to the ability of our very efficient janitor who seems able and willing to mend as he goes.

Your committee found it convenient to make and complete a full inventory of all of the furniture and personal property belonging to the County, situate at the Court House and Jail on the incoming of the present county officials, which inventory is on file with the County Clerk, and the said work and repairs have been done under the personal supervision of your committee. The time which your committee has devoted to such work and for which compensation is expected is as follows:

Frank Duncan, 17 days, $3 per day, $51. Eugene Oesterlin, 31 days, $3 per day, $93. David Edwards, 8 days, $3 per day, $24.

All of which is respectfully submitted and your committee beg leave to have their supervision of this work approved by your honorable Board. Dated Ann Arbor, Oct. 23, 1895. Frank Duncan, Eugene Oesterlin.

On motion of Mr. Childs that portion of the report referring to an iron fence around the Jail was referred to the Building Committee.

Mr. Forsyth moved that the Building Committee inquire into and report to this Board the probable cost of building an iron fence around a portion of the Jail. Carried.

The special hour for the election of Drain Commissioner having arrived, on motion, the Chair appointed as tellers Messrs. Kitson and Alber, and on further motion the Board proceeded to an informal ballot for Drain Commissioner.

The result of the first informal ballot was as follows: Whole number of votes cast 23, of which Daniel Barry received 16 and Chas. Greenman 7.

On motion of Mr. Childs, Mr. Barry was declared unanimously elected.

Mr. Damon moved that in the future all board bills in Drain Commissioner's report be stricken out.

Mr. Whittaker moved that the matter be indefinitely postponed.

Motion was lost by the following vote, the yeas and nays being called for:

Yeas—Alber, Childs, McQuillan, Tuomey, Whittaker—5. Nays—Bibbins, Case, Damon, Dan- cer, Donnelly, Forsyth, Fischer, Hall, Hauser, Howlett, Kitson, Lighthall, Leland, Oesterlin, Voorheis, Wheeler, and Walter—17.

The original motion was then adopted. On motion the Board adjourned until tomorrow at 10 a. m.

H. LIGHTHALL, Chairman. WM. DANSINGBURG, Clerk.

Origin of Massage. Dr. Forester of Aix-les-Bains has an interesting paper in Le Progres Medical on "The Origin and Terminology of Massage." The physician of l'Hospice Evangelique is of opinion that the method of treatment now known as massage was first introduced into Europe by some of the returning members of Bonaparte's Egyptian expedition of 1799, and relies for his information upon a book entitled "Des Eaux Thermales d'Aix en Savoie," published at Chambéry in 1808.

Dr. Daquin, the author of the work in question, after a passage apropos of the douche, speaks of the manipulations and frictions which were observed by Captain Wallis among the aborigines of Otaheite, and then proceeds as follows: "Those who followed the Emperor Napoleon in Egypt inform us that this method was also in existence among the people of that country, and that it was employed after the bath. The name of manasse has been given to it, and it is administered to the person whom they want to masser by rubbing successively the entire surface of his body.

"According to this account I think that this operation, which strikes me as a very salutary procedure, might with great advantage be put in practice after their bath or douche upon those who make use of our thermal waters."—London Lancet.

Curiosities of the Sewing Needle. Sewing needles of bone, stone, glass and bronze antedate all historic records, but those of iron, brass and steel are comparatively modern. Bone and glass needles have been found in Egyptian tombs that are known to be over 4,000 years old, and similar domestic instruments of bronze and copper have been found in the mounds and burial caves of Europe and America which are believed to be much older than those found with the Nile mummies. The needle first appeared in its present form in European countries in the year 1410, but the art of making them was kept a secret for upward of 150 years after the date last given. In the year 1680 they were first made in the American colonies, but at what point is a mooted question among the historians.

At present there are no needle factories in America, except those which make sewing machine needles, it being considered much cheaper and more economical to import them from the great Redditch and other English needle factories than to make them at home. Our great National Needle company at Springfield, Mass., makes about 30,000,000 machine needles every year, and the great Redditch (English) company makes three times that many, or 90,000,000, of the hand variety annually. —St. Louis Republic.

Cost of French Opera Boxes. When the old Marquis de Casa Riera, who had for many years the great Entre Colonnas box on the right side—for which he paid, if I remember rightly, £1,200 a year, and which, though he was blind, he filled every night with pretty women—died some 15 years ago, there was a hot flutter of excitement in the Paris of the opera as to what would become of the succession to the box.

After a palpitating struggle of influences, efforts and diplomacy, equal in emotion to the contest between Ulysses and the Telamonian Ajax for the armor of Achilles, the nephew and heir of the old marquis managed to keep the box for one night a week—he could not obtain more—and it was won for each of the other nights by persons of the highest place, who had been longing for it impatiently for years. An ordinary box for one night a week costs from £240 to £320 a year, according to its size and situation. The combat for boxes is unceasing. It is one of the features of the rich life of Paris, and to those who know the people and the circumstances the combat is diverting to watch.—Blackwood's Magazine.

Monday is Washday. I don't see why it isn't just as well to hang out the family wash on Wednesday as upon Monday. Yet I have known women who wouldn't have a flat unless they could wash on Monday. As five floors of two families each can't dry in the same day, and the Monday prejudice is very strong, landlords have had to erect huge telegraph poles in the rear of flat houses, from which pole lines are operated on a level of each floor. This system also affords the additional pleasure of a near view of the number and character of your neighbors' family wash. There must be some substantial reason for a woman doing just as her neighbors do and what all women in the civilized world do and have been doing for hundreds of years.—New York Herald.

Must Be So. "What do you think of this previous existence theory?" "I know it to be supported by facts. For instance, I know a woman only 27 years old who often thoughtlessly tells about things that happened 35 years ago."—Indianapolis Journal.

MINING OF PHOSPHATES. Where Deposits Are Found and How They Are Prepared.

The Florida phosphate deposits are of great importance, yet their existence was discovered so recently and their extent is still so uncertain that few persons not engaged in the sale of fertilizing materials have much knowledge of the large industry which has sprung up in the Peninsular State. It has practically created a new city—Ocala—which had a population of but a few hundred in 1870, but is now a thriving business center with modern improvements, banking facilities and ample railway and transportation facilities. Engineering, the leading engineering journal of the world, makes the following statements concerning the region, which are of considerable interest as coming from an unbiased source: "There is no phosphate region in the world known today that possesses so many advantages for successful mining as the Florida deposits. The grade of material is the highest average that is being worked anywhere. The facilities for moving the products to points for distribution are good. The average distance from mines to ports for shipments is about 150 miles.

"The distributing stations for the hard rock district are Port Tampa, Fernandina, Brunswick and Savannah, the largest tonnage being moved from Fernandina, where storage bins are located and loading facilities are good. Port Tampa, the terminus of the Plant system of railroads, is constantly adding facilities for prompt handling of cargoes of phosphate and at present very nearly equals Fernandina in the amount of its shipments. Railroad are numerous and cheaply constructed when necessary to extend them into new sections. The machinery needed to mine and prepare the material is simple and inexpensive compared with that generally used in other mining operations, and the cost of a plant with sufficient land to work upon is within the reach of small investors. The working days at the mines are about 280 during the year. The climate is healthful, laborers readily obtained at a fair compensation, and skilled operatives are at hand who are becoming familiar with the business.

"The mining camps are generally well regulated, and proprietors and employees can reside at the mines with safety and with little inconvenience, as supplies of all kinds can be readily obtained at the towns located in the near vicinity of all the large mining fields. Telegraph and mail facilities are within easy access of nearly every mining camp in the state. Florida phosphates are mostly shipped to European ports and are manufactured into fertilizers in England, Ireland, Germany, France, and quite recently shipments have been made to the Sandwich Islands. Foreign agents of consumers and dealers in phosphates have their offices near the center of production, and contracts for delivery and prices are commonly fixed at points of shipment, the material being sold at a price per unit of its contents of phosphate of lime. The Florida phosphates are all used in the manufacture of commercial fertilizers and superphosphate."—Boston Transcript.

THE RETIRED BURGLAR. He Finds It Hard to Accustom Himself to Ordinary Hours of Living.

"My chief trouble now," said the retired burglar, "is about my hours. I have been so long accustomed to working nights and sleeping days that I find it difficult to change back to the hours of other folks. Instead of having my breakfast at 7 o'clock in the morning I have it at 7 o'clock in the evening. Some folks make their dinner the last meal in the day, but I never could get used to that. I can sleep better on a light meal, so I have my dinner in the middle of the day—I mean the middle of the night—and my supper about 5 o'clock in the morning.

"This schedule works all right for the first half of the night. There's plenty of life then, and I can go to the theater and one place and another, but after dinner, I must say, I find it pretty tedious. When I was at work and my mind was occupied, I never thought anything about it, but now it is different. This is a bigger town than it used to be, and it's open all night. There's plenty of occupations nowadays that people work at all night, but the people that work at 'em are working at 'em. You don't see 'em around the streets, and the general fact remains that most people work days and sleep nights, and the odd fact is that from dinner time to supper time I feel sort 'o' lost.

"But I'm not discouraged. I don't suppose I could change the habits of a lifetime in a minute, and I shall just keep on trying till I get my hours shifted around again like other people's."—New York Sun.

Trunk Labels. "I wish you would have a porter come up and wash the labels off my trunks," remarked a well dressed man as he signed his name to the book at the Continental last night. The guest as he spoke pointed to three big trunks that stood in the baggage room. The trunks were covered with the various labels that indicated that they had made a long continental journey. In days gone by these labels were the proper thing, and the man just home from Europe considered those glaring tags as almost sacred. But fashion has changed this year, thanks of the Prince of Wales setting the pace, and now these glaring showbills indicative of travel are no longer in vogue.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A Redeeming Feature. A.—My dwelling is bounded on the north by a gas works, on the south by an india rubber works, on the west by a vinegar manufactory and on the east by a glue boiling establishment. B.—A nice neighborhood, I must say. A.—Quite so; but it has one advantage. I can always tell which way the wind blows without looking at the weather-cock.—Humoristische Blatter.

AN INDIAN BOY'S PONY. An Account of His First Attempt to Ride It at a Buffalo Hunt.

Thus led by those dedicated to religious service, the tribe leaves its village, the people by families dropping into line—men, well mounted, bearing their weapons ready for use; women, in gala dress, riding their decorated ponies, older ones leading the pack horses; little children in twos and threes upon the backs of steady old nags, or snugly stowed away in the swinging pouch between the tent poles, and the dogs trotting complacently everywhere.

Here and there along the line of the cavalcade is a lad being initiated into individual responsibility. He has been upon the hunt before, as one of the family, but this is the first step toward going independently uncaired for as child. The father has lassoed a wild horse, saddled and bridled him and now bids his son mount the animal. The boy hangs back, the colt is a fiery creature and already restive under restraint. The father tells his son that the horse shall be his own when he has conquered it, but the lad does not move. The lockers on are smiling, and the cavalcade does not wait. "Get up," says the father.

The boy slowly advances, and the colt quickly recedes, but the boy, grasping his mane, swings himself into the saddle. The father lets go, and so does the colt—rears, jumps, wriggles, humps his back like an infuriated cat, stands on his fore legs and kicks at his own tail, paws the air and stamps the earth, but the boy clings to him until, with a sudden jerk, the saddle girth is broken, and he is landed over the head of the excited creature, which runs for dear life and liberty. Brought back, protesting by twists and shakes of his head, he is again mounted and again frees himself.

After two or three repetitions of this sort of thing the boy becomes angry, and the mother grows anxious. She runs to her son as he is scrambling up from the ground, feels him all over and moves his legs and arms to see if he is hurt. He is impatient at the delay. He is going to master that pony now or die for it. This time he stays on. In vain the animal lashes himself into foam and fury. The boy sticks to him like the shirt of Nessus, and the father at last leads the indivisible pair between the tent poles which trail behind a sophisticated family horse, and there, fenced in, they journey all day, trying to get used to each other. The pony does not see his way out of the poles and is forced to keep up with the procession.—Century.

TEACHERS IN ENGLAND. A Pathetic Letter From One Which Tells Its Own Story.

An English parent, having offered to throw open its columns to a consideration of the "worst paid class in the community," prints the following:

DEAR ANSWERS—I am a schoolmaster, and it is my pleasing duty to teach Greek, Latin, French, English, mathematics and 30 other things to the "sons of gentlemen." I receive board and lodging and £80 a year from my benevolent employer, who makes a net profit of over £1,500 per annum out of his school.

My poor old dad (a country parson) was always anxious that I should receive "the education of a gentleman," so he pinched and screwed to send me to a good public school and subsequently to Oxford. I may say, without conceit, that I distinguished myself at both places, winning scholarships and other prizes with a facility that seemed to mark me out for the life of an instructor of youth. Behind me, then, at the age of 29, in the lordly stipend mentioned above and luxuriating in the "home comforts," which, according to his advertisements, my principal supplies for his boys.

During nine months in the year I may be said to be on duty for the whole 24 hours. When I am not teaching my boys, I am playing football or cricket with them, and I am even obliged to sleep in the same dormitory with 12 hearty youngsters, who snore like steam sirens. The worst feature of the life is the fact that there is no future before me. If I had a capital of £2,000, or even £1,000, I might start a school of my own; but as it is, I can hope for nothing better. What will become of me in my old age I trouble to think. There are hundreds of expensively educated young fellows in the United Kingdom who can earn no more at schoolmastering than I do. Sincerely yours, M. A. (Oxon).

Unjust Aspersions on the Boy. "Talk about intellects!" said Webb. "That new office boy of mine has a head that would fill grandfather's hat."

"What's the matter now?" asked Bluffkins cautiously. "You were saying only last night that that boy was so careless you were afraid he might come to business some morning without his breakfast."

"I know it. That's just what I said. But I mean to ask that boy's forgiveness. It was only this morning that I learned how unjust I had been. I gave the youngster several letters to mail. He was gone some time, so when he came back I said, 'I'm afraid you didn't post those letters very promptly and that your carelessness has made me miss the mail.'"

"Oh, no, sir," he replied. "I'm sure I didn't waste any time. In fact, I took care that the first letter I put in the box was the one marked 'Immediate!'"—Boston Budget.

A Big Branded Major. An amusing incident occurred while a company of a certain battalion stationed in one of our garrison towns were going through their musketry training. Owing to a strong wind blowing from the right, the bullets kept falling to the left of the target. An old major, who was in charge at the ranges, came over to the color sergeant and inquired the cause of the bad shooting. On being told that there was too much wind blowing from the right, causing the shots to fall wide, he astonished the sergeant by asking, "Wouldn't it be a good idea if the targets were moved more to the left?" The color sergeant barely restrained a smile.—London Tit-Bits.

The Ann Arbor council has passed an ordinance relative to disorderly persons, that would indicate an aldermanic idea that the council could supersede the legislature. We have no doubt but the aldermanic body is the ablest, but if the supreme court ever gets a show at the ordinance, it will be badly demoralized.—Adrian Press.

The Ann Arbor council thought perhaps $1 per year was hardly enough salary for the city treasurer, since he must collect sewer taxes in addition to the other taxes of the city and proposed to give him about $50 per month for fees. After due consideration they decided this would not be feasible, and the dollar a year salary goes.—Adrian Press.

By a very shrewd trick Marshal Peterson, of Ann Arbor, landed in jail the parties who wrecked the house of Geo. S. Hull near Hamburg, with dynamite. He was practically derided assistance from the Livingston officials, but he got a party to identify himself with the suspects and soon had the needed evidence. We may now expect to read in the Detroit papers of the masterly detective work done in the case by a Detroit "sleuth," who wasn't there.—Monroe Democrat.

A new law enacted by the last legislature provides that justices shall keep a record of the drunks that come before them, and when the same man shall come for the second time within a year, he shall be bound over to the circuit court, and then he may receive a two year's sentence to the work house. Only one drunk a year row, boys, is lawful, so watch out.

The masonic fair, to be given in Detroit from Nov. 25 to Dec. 7, will be one of the finest things of the kind since the World's Fair. Turkey, Egypt and the land of "Tribby" as well as all of the United States, will all give up of their elaborate and decorative goods and wares, to make it attractive. You should make calculations ahead and take advantage of the excursion rates at that time to drop in and see it.

That's according to the gentleman's belief. You know he is one of your own party's free traders.

There are some fellows in this city who are so constituted that they fail to distinguish between the property of others and that which belongs to them. These "spells" come on them in the night, and as they grow older the malady appears to gain a stronger hold on them. It is said the "squawk" of a chicken makes their fingers grip convulsively even in broad daylight.

This assertion of the Monroe Democrat is as false as its free wool arguments, and the slander about the cupidty of our city fathers is resented. In the language of Bob Acres, we hurl it back at your teeth: "The Ann Arbor council has passed a resolution of gratitude to the Ann Arbor railroad company for changing the name of the road from the Toledo & Ann Arbor to simply 'The Ann Arbor' railroad. An engrossed copy of the resolution has been sent to the president of the company. The preamble and resolution are somewhat lengthy and it is said that a Shakespearean cipher has been discovered in it, reading as follows: "Please give the Ann Arbor council passes over your road and greatly oblige," etc."

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease, but who now rejoice over a permanent cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor, or it may attack the glands of the neck, or break out in dreadful running sores on the body or limbs. Affecting the mucous membrane, it may develop into catarrh or lodging in the lungs lead to consumption. Come as it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system in clarified and vitalized, and vigor, strength and health restored to the body.

At Saline they have had to import apples from out west. Here in Ann Arbor we have to eat the wormy wind-falls or go hungry.—Courier Here in Northville we grind the wormy windfalls up and drink the cider. They are much more palatable that way.—Record. Sort of peptonized cider?

Perhaps some of the older types of the city will remember Ed. Rogers, or as he was sometimes called "Gog" Rogers, who worked in this city and at Ypsilanti some 20 odd years ago, and later at Jackson, where he was once elected Recorder. If so they will regret to learn that he has been sent to jail for theft at Niles. Drink did it.

The barn on the Scott homestead on Washtenaw ave., was burned on Saturday night, with contents. There was stored therein about eight tons of hay and some farm implements. The fire department was not notified in time to save the barn but they stopped the spreading of the flames. The loss will be about $900, insured in the Washtenaw Mutual. It is thought some rascal set the barn on fire, as there is no other way of accounting for it.

The peculiar fact being a fact that the patronage of the street cars has been considerable less since the opening of the college year, and that said patronage is not sufficient to maintain the expenses of the road. Therefore the company have one of two alternatives to adopt. Either the number of cars will have to be reduced so that the time between cars will be double what it is now, or else the conductors will all have to be laid off. The Street Car Co. would like to have an expression from the citizens and ascertain which they would desire.

Electric Lighting

It is as Much Ahead of Gas as Gas was Better than Kerosene.

In October the price for incandescent lamps will be reduced, probably from one cent per hour to three-fourths of a cent, making it as cheap as gas.

THE CITY OF THE SEA.

Bicycles no Good on its Water Ways
—A Sigh Over the "Bridge of Sighs."

Dear Mr. Editor:
My last letter concluded just where the marvels began. We were approaching Venice. I shall tell you about the sea Cybele as soon as I relate how we met detachments of Italian cavalry every five minutes during the two days preceding our arrival in Venice. They were uniformed in brown, and were dusty and real enough. I learned that they were going to Genoa, there to embark for Alysia and quell the rebellion. After passing innumerable villas built on low and marshy soil, we at last reached the Adriatic shore at Fusina and made the embarrassing discovery that the queen of the seas was thronged on her hundred isles about three miles out and in deep water. She did not send her winged lions after us, and as bicycles are so clumsy to swim with, we graciously deposited our wheels with the steamboat company and embarked for the fairy city of our dreams. This was our first ride in Europe on anything except our bicycles and to see the titha of towers and the vast and sumptuous pile rise clearly and more clearly from the waves.

WE ENTERED VENICE.
In the evening just as the full moon was rising, I do not think that anyone believes he has been in Venice until he has had some realistic experience—quarreled with a gondolier or been outrageously overcharged by a hotel keeper. Before that it is all a dream such as it was for us while we wandered among the throngs on the Piazza of St. Mark and heard the orchestra and watched the revelers who sat and gaily drank wine and absinthe at the tables in front of the brilliant cafes. We strolled up and down the quays and tried to feel unsympathetic before that "pathetic swindle," the Bridge of Sighs. Then the crowd melted away and we tried to follow one of the many streamlets but it vanished finally and left us on the Bridge of the Rialto at midnight. We stood there a long time under the hypnotic influence of the flaring torches and cries of gondoliers as they rowed lazily home. Beneath us was the sound of dipping oars and occasionally the merry laugh of a girl. Above was the quiet light of the stars and when all became as still as they, we felt the need of sleep and hunted up a hotel where we slept and nervously waited for morning to reveal new wonders.

THIS IS IN CONFIDENCE.
Of course I cannot tell you all we saw in Venice. Ruskin, Howells or Bare can do it so delightfully for you. Put these few confidences. We rode with the most unpoetic of gondoliers up and down the Grand Canal and we learned that the palaces in Venice are crumbling, that the gondolier is soulless and conscienceless, but not voiceless, that the Moor and Shylock can not be forgotten, and that St. Mark's steeds of brass were bridled long ago. We also walked those streets which are not canals and we found them so intricate and making such a labyrinth that even the best of maps would hardly extricate the wanderers. There are no horses in Venice. There is no dust and the poet has written it "no steps, no track of man leads to her gates." Late one afternoon we took the steamboat and when it touched Fusina, awoke from our dream and in a dazed way mounted our wheels and rode away.

EXPERIENCED A REAL EARTHQUAKE.
Our ride for 25 miles was a retracement of our approach, as far as Padua. We lost our way before in that city and now did it again. Such a maze as those streets are, and you have to go around the city three times before a magic gate is opened by this conjuring and you are released. From there to Ferrara we wheeled upon an elevated road, or embarked highway, I should say, from which we could see the low plain, and broken at times by volcanic hills and intersected by branches of the Po. Beautiful villas and castles upon steep hills, relieve an otherwise monotonous succession of rice fields. We saw Livy's home and Petrarch's native town and far more exciting, were well shaken up by an earthquake just as we were going to bed in the tiny inn of the little town of Battaglia. You will insist that I exaggerate when I say that the long-horned cattle in that region made us nervous for fear we could not get by, but we felt like giving them the road and being thankful that we were not gored.

GOT INTO A DEN OF DEVILS.
We passed through Rovigo and reached the Po river along whose banks we rode in search of a bridge. It is a miserable stream with lazy, yellow waters and stupid, marshy banks, all uncultivated. The only Theresa Vaughn, the Famous Singer, Says Use Dr. Greene's Nervura.

She Advises All Who Are Sick, Weak, Nervous or Ailing to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura, the Grandest of Medicines.

MISS THERESA VAUGHN.

There are few more beautiful women or popular singers than Miss Theresa Vaughn whose refined and exquisite singing in the burlesque, "1492," will long be remembered in every community. Her address is New York City, but she is known, respected and admired from one end of our country to the other, and her strong endorsement of the wonderful curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and her earnest advice for the tired-out, the weak, the nervous, the run-down and debilitated, to use this grandest of all medicines, will be followed by everybody who needs a strengthening and invigorating remedy.

She tells all to use it, because she knows it banishes all pain, cures the aching head and dragging back-ache, restores the over-taxed brain, nerves the weary limbs, strengthens the weak and shattered nerves, gives natural, refreshing sleep—in fact, makes all who use it strong and well. The remedy is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless and may be given to infants, children or the weakest invalids with positive assurance of beneficial results.

Here is what she says:
"The fatigue attendant upon public appearances has often caused me to followed by a curious crowd back to the police station and after a few preliminaries, the magistrate informed us that we were fined five lira. Our American ire was aroused and we refused to pay, saying we had plenty of time and would stay there and board it out. The officer began to sweat and the magistrate looked much concerned. The Italian government is too poor to keep anyone over night. Then we threatened to see the American Consul on the following day. We left our wheels as hostage and finished seeing the sights. At nine o'clock in the evening they were getting desperate, so sent to the Chief of the Department, who, when he heard our story, told us to go on our way. We thanked him and he shook hands with us wishing us "buono viaggio." On the following day we set out for Florence over the Appennines. More about the mountains in a later letter.

Marvelous Results.
From a letter written by Rev. J. Gauderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction, she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work, and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's drug store, and Geo. J. Heussler, Manchester. Regular size, 50c and $1.00.

Mortgage Sale.
DEFAULT having been made, in the conditions of payment of a certain mortgage, made the 28th day of May, A. D., 1887, by Jerome A. Freeman and Emma V. Freeman, his wife, to Junius E. Beal, whereby the power of sale therein contained has become operative, which mortgage was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for the County of Washtenaw, on the first day of June, A. D., 1887, in Liber 61 of Mortgages on Page 543 and on which mortgage there is claimed to be due at the date of this notice the sum of eight hundred and twenty-eight dollars, and no proceedings at law or in equity having been instituted to collect the said sum of money or any part thereof.

NOTICE is therefore hereby given, that on the 10th day of January, A. D., 1896, at eleven o'clock, in the forenoon of said day at the south front door of the Court House, in the City of Ann Arbor, State of Michigan, the said mortgage will be foreclosed, and the lands and tenements by the said mortgage conveyed, will be sold at public auction or vendue to the highest bidder to satisfy the principal and interest of said mortgage, and the cost and expenses of these proceedings, including an attorney's fee of twenty-five dollars provided for therein.

The land, tenements and premises in the said mortgage mentioned and thereunto there to be sold are described as follows, to wit:
All those certain pieces or parcels of lands situated in the City of Ann Arbor, Michigan, known, bounded and described as follows: The west part of lots four and five in Block A, Eastern Addition to the Village, now City, of Ann Arbor, according to the plat thereof, being the same lands formerly owned by one John Kane.

ANNUAL TAX SALE.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, ss.
 COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, ss.
 The Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery.
 In the matter of the petition of Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of the State of Michigan, for the sale of certain lands for taxes assessed thereon.
 On reading and filing the petition of the Auditor General of the State of Michigan as aforesaid praying for a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of land therein specified, for the amounts therein specified, claimed to be due for taxes, interest and charges on each such parcel of land, and that such lands be sold for the amounts so claimed by the State of Michigan.
 It is ordered that said petition will be brought on for hearing and decree at the October term of this Court, to be held at Ann Arbor in the County of Washtenaw State of Michigan, on the ninth day of November, A. D. 1935, at the opening of the Court on that day, and that all persons interested in such lands or any part thereof, desiring to contest the lien claimed thereon by the State of Michigan, for such taxes, interest and charges, or any part thereof, shall appear in said Court, and file with the clerk thereof, acting as register in chancery, their objections thereto, on or before the day of the term of this Court above mentioned, and that in default thereof the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be taken and entered as prayed for in said petition. And it is further ordered that in pursuance of said decree the lands described in said petition for which a decree of sale shall be made, will be sold for the several taxes, interest and charges thereon as determined by said decree, on the first Monday in December thereafter, or on the day or days subsequent thereto, and each parcel desired to complete the sale of said lands and of each and every parcel thereof, at the office of the County Treasurer, and that in default thereof, as shall be selected by him at the county seat of the County of Washtenaw, State of Michigan; and that the sale then and there made will be a public sale and each parcel described in the decree shall be separately exposed for sale for the total taxes, interest and charges, and the sale shall be made to the person offering to buy for any given tax and paying the full amount charged against said parcel, and accepting a conveyance of the same and paying the full amount of interest thereon; or, if no person will buy for any of said several taxes and pay the balance thereof and take a conveyance of the same, then the parcel shall be sold over for the time being, and shall, on the succeeding day, or before the close of the sale, be resold, and if, on such second offering, no person will buy the same, then the same shall be sold for the amount aforesaid, the County Treasurer shall bid off the same in the name of the State.
 Witness my hand and the seal of said Court at Washtenaw County, this 19th day of September, A. D. 1935.
 E. D. KINNE,
 County Treasurer.
 Wm. Damsingburg, Register.

STATE OF MICHIGAN,

To the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery:
 The petition of Stanley W. Turner, Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of the State of Michigan, respectfully shows that the list of lands hereinafter set forth and marked "Schedule A," contains a description of all lands in said County of Washtenaw upon which taxes were assessed for the years mentioned therein, which were returned as delinquent for non-payment of taxes and which taxes have not been paid; together with the total amount of such taxes, with interest computed thereon to the date fixed for sale, and collection fee as provided by law, and the cost of advertising and other expenses of sale of each said parcel of land.
 Your petitioner further shows to the Court that said lands were returned to the Auditor General under the provisions of Act 266 of the Public Acts of 1935, as delinquent for non-payment of said taxes for said years respectively, except such of the taxes set forth in said schedule as were returned to the Auditor General according to law prior to the 12th day of June, 1935, and remain unpaid.
 Your petitioner further shows and avers that the taxes, interest, collection fee and cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as set forth in said Schedule A, are a valid lien on the several parcels of land described in said schedule.
 Your petitioner further shows that the said taxes on said described lands have remained unpaid for more than one year prior to the first day of May, 1935; and the said taxes not having been paid, and the same being now due and remaining unpaid as above set forth, your petitioner prays a decree in favor of the State of Michigan against each parcel of said lands, for the payment of the total amount of taxes, interest, collection fee, cost of advertising and other expenses of sale, as computed and extended in said schedule, against said several parcels of land contained therein, and in default of payment of the said several sums computed and extended against said lands, that each of said parcels of land may be sold for the amounts due thereon, as provided by law, to pay the lien aforesaid.
 And your petitioner will ever pray, etc.
 Dated August 14, 1935.
 STANLEY W. TURNER,
 Auditor General of the State of Michigan, for and in behalf of the State of Michigan.

The farm department at the state agricultural college has practically demonstrated that two crops of oats can be raised on the same land during one season. Michigan is the only state that bears this distinction.

A WORTHY CHARITY.

The Needlework Guild of Ann Arbor, Its Work and Its Needs.

During the next few days the members of the Needlework Guild will be busy making and collecting garments for distribution at the annual meeting on Nov. 15th. This work appears in an unusual way to all classes of people, to the wealthy who are able and ready to help the needy, and to those of less means who may be even more capable of judging of the needs of the poor and quite as willing to lend a helping hand.

Many touching incidents have come to the attention of the officers and contributions made by the aged and infirm, who testified to the pleasure it gave them.

The only condition of membership is the gift of two new garments. The list as provided by the Parent Guild at Philadelphia, is long and includes every article used in a family.

WHAT SHALL BE GIVEN.

rests with the pleasure and judgment of each member, and if garments so given are desired for any particular family, it can be designated and the request will be honored.

In larger cities the distribution is made directly to the organized charitable institutions, but in Ann Arbor it was thought best to distribute directly to families.

Names furnished by the Charitable Union and Woman's Relief Corps were provided with the garments called for.

LAST YEAR'S WORK.

About 100 families were made more comfortable by the contribution of warm garments last year.

The organization with a membership of 450, proves that it has the sympathy of the masses. The enthusiasm exhibited and delight in the work evidences the brotherly feeling strong in the hearts of the people. The cheerful giving has been a remarkable feature of this work. The responses to invitations to give have not only been hearty but people without solicitation have expressed a desire to become members and help in the work.

The officers wish to assure those interested that every possible care will be taken in the distribution and they solicit names of needy persons with ages and wants, to be handed to Mrs. Perry during the next ten days—not later.

IT IS FOR YOU TO ACT.

Now is the time to see to it that the proper persons receive attention and let no individual delay responsibility in this matter and wonder why such persons were neglected.

Every citizen may consider himself a committee of one to report names of needy persons.

MRS. W. S. PERRY,
President.

A CRUSHER.

Both the Poetry and the Subject of the Same.

[A so-called poet sends us the following very affecting verse. It may please some, some it will not please. If you like it read it, if you don't, don't read it:]

Kind friends if you'll listen I'll tell you a tale
Of a city near by whose fate we bewail,
It's daddy's, each one, by himself was a rusher
And to work up some business
They bought a stone crusher.
To grind rocks and pave streets, ah then they did
But now the poor crusher lies under the hill,
The great stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under the hill.

When on a great jaunt they were shown a real daisy,
Which once put in motion would set people crazy;
And crazy they got, and for it they sent,
And since then they surely have had time to repent.

Ah, sad was our fate, and bitter the pill,
When they purchased the crusher down
under the hill,
The City's stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under the hill.

The months have slowly passed away
Since the crusher was brought to town,
But some how or other it don't work, that's plain,
And under the hill it has silently lain
One thing it did do, and that with a will
It crushed many hard dollars that made up the bill.

Paid for that noble stone crusher so silent and still,
The fine stone crusher;
The City's stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under
the hill.

The crusher still holds its place under the
hill,
So silent and ghostly, as to bring forth a chill,
Tis a monument of shrewdness, the council so thoughtful,
But only misgivings has the 'arnal thing brought;
Its laurels have vanished, of its pride it is shorn,
And looks like an earthquake, all tattered and torn.

But oh what huge sighs and regrets it brings
still,
This dandy stone crusher down under the hill,
The fancy stone crusher;
The City's stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under
the hill.

Now a bright thought has struck us,
And we believe it near right
Sell this silent stone crusher and thus end the sight,
Let a poultry man buy it to grind bones for his fowls,
And sit by and laugh, when it gets up and howls.

It is warranted to grind, and its mission fulfill,
So farewell to the crusher down under the
hill,
The hard-head stone crusher;
The City's stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under
the hill.

Or perhaps it would be better
To put the machine at work
And not give its enemies a chance to smile and smirk,
Every time the thing is talked about,
And the rats in the roads pointed out,
Set it to grinding, set it to crushing,
And don't be afraid of too rapidly rushing
That mighty stone crusher;
The City's stone crusher;
The dust covered crusher down under
the hill.

The Y. W. C. A. is Growing.
Monday evening proved that the girls of the Young Woman's Christian Association, have use for the five rooms which they now occupy. Board meeting in one, class work in another, and an impromptu social in the parlors, made it a busy time. At 8:30 a. m. gathered in the reading room to listen to reports of the work of the past three months. These were followed by reports from the delegates who attended the state convention recently held. These are some of the items gathered:

- No. of Associations - - - - 331
  - Membership - - - - - 3,400
  - Volumes in Libraries - - - 11,637
  - No. of Gymnasiums - - - - 16
  - No. of Lectures given - - - 397
  - No. Situations secured - - - 1,800
  - No. classes held - - - - 331
  - Nl. different girls in classes - 5,436
- There is at state and international organization, the latter extending to China and India where the Association has sent two missionaries very recently.

The Y. W. C. A. has reached its twenty-fifth year, and the Michigan state organization is twelve years old and has twenty associations.

An Unwise Decision.

In the Board of Supervisors Friday Supervisor Scott offered a resolution directing the building committee of the board to obtain plans and have constructed at the court house fire proof vaults for the safe keeping of the valuable records of the county, at a cost not to exceed $1,500.

To this proposition Supervisor Wheeler moved that it be indefinitely postponed. To which the board agreed, by a vote of 18 to 9, as follows:

Aye—Supervisors Alber, Burtless, Bibbins, Case, Childs, Davenport, Damon, Donnelly, Forsythe, Grosshans, Hall, Hauser, Howlett, Leland, McQuillan, Voorheis, Wheeler and Walter.
Nay—Supervisors Doyle, Ball, Dancer Fischer, Kitson, Lighthall; Oesterlin, Scott and Tuomy.

We give this vote to show who among the supervisors are in favor of having the valuable records of the county preserved in case of fire, and who are not.

Delays are dangerous and in this instance extremely dangerous. The court house may be burned down any night, and the county has not any possible safeguard for any of its valuable records, showing the title to the real estate of this county. Or for any of the public documents in the probate office, and the county clerk's office. If these records should be destroyed, what sort of a condition would the people of the county be in? The ordinary business man provides a safe in which to keep his private papers. The county does not appear to care to do business that way. To save a few dollars it practically invites the destruction of all its public records.

And just think of it! What is $1,500 compared to the risk that is being run? It will probably be many a day before another such an offer occurs again, for it is conceded on all sides to be a remarkably cheap one.

Elected Their Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A., held at the rooms of that association Monday last, the following officers were chosen for the year:

- President—Mrs. W. W. Wetmore.
- Secretary—Mrs. Jessie L. Midgety.
- Treasurer—Mrs. W. B. Phillips.
- Vice-Presidents:
Congregational—Mrs. D. F. Schaefer.
Presbyterian—Mrs. F. L. Parker.

Be Kind to the Girls.

A committee of young ladies from the Women's League consisting of Misses Wagner, Noble, Richards, Hicks, Mogford and Thompson are circulating among the business men a subscription paper. It states that two Regents of the University have pledged the sum of $35,000 for a Woman's Building (gymnasium and league rooms) on condition that the women of the state raise $15,000 more to complete the necessary fund of $50,000, and they respectfully ask each person to pledge them as large an amount as circumstances and inclination will warrant.

It is twenty-five years since women were first admitted to the University, and this is the first time that money has been solicited for their special needs.

This is an object that appeals to the pride of every citizen and the personal interest of every business man in our community.

Jacobs and Allmand have headed the list with $50 cash down. Will not many others imitate their example?

A weeping need—rain.

PASSED OVER THE RIVER

& Pearson. This firm continued in business a number of years, until the death of Isaac Pearson, about 1860, after which Mr. Bach carried on business alone.

About 1863 Peter H. Abel, a young merchant, came west from New York, and purchased a half interest of Mr. Bach. The next year, 1864, the firm erected the brick block where B. St. James now conducts business, at the corner of S. Main and Washington Sts. This was the finest dry goods store in the county at the time. When Peter Abel died his brother, Eugene B. Abel, came here and took his interests, and the firm continued business without change of title, until some four or five years ago, when death removed him also.

Upon Mr. Abel's death, Zachary Roath, who had been with Mr. Bach for some thirty years, purchased the Abel interests. The sad death of Mr. Roath, which occurred just one year ago on the 9th of this month, is still fresh in the memory of our citizens.

The business of the firm of Bach & Roath was disposed of to Mr. B. St. James, who took possession Sept. 1st, thus closing an active business career of sixty years for Mr. Bach. A record seldom reached by any man.

During all these years Mr. Bach took an active part in the affairs of the city and of the state. He was a whig in the early days, and when the republican party was formed he became an ardent member thereof.

Along in 1856 he was elected an alderman against the great democratic war horse, Hon. Wm. S. Maynard, and in 1858, he defeated the same gentleman for mayor. This was very gratifying to Mr. Bach as his opponent was considered the head and front of his party in this section of the state, and a powerful antagonist, besides being the wealthiest man in the county.

When this school district was organized in 1857, Mr. Bach was elected one of its first trustees, a position he continued to hold until one year ago last September, when he declined to allow his name to be used again upon the ticket, and Mr. John R. Miner was chosen in his place. He served the district without compensation, faithfully for thirty-six years and when the flags upon the school buildings were put at half mast Monday, and the schools closed in the afternoon in his honor, it was a proper tribute to him. Our schools owe much to his wise counsels.

Since the organization of the 1st National Bank of Ann Arbor in 1866, Mr. Bach had been a member of its board of directors, and for a number of years its president. He showed the same good judgment here as in all other positions he filled, and his good name has always been a source of strength to the bank.

He was a constant attendant upon the Presbyterian church, and for some years a trustee thereof.

When the Forest Hill Cemetery Association was formed he became one of its directors, a position which he held until a year ago.

Mr. Bach's first wife was Hannah Polhemus, and there is one child from this union living, Mrs. Hannah J. Warner, of Cincinnati, O. By his second marriage to Miss Nancy Royce there are three children, James R. and Mrs. W. R. Henderson, of this city, and Philip Bach, Jr., of New Mexico. His third wife Annie Botsford, survives him with two children, Nellie and Waldo B.

The funeral services of the late Philip Bach, were held at the family residence, No. 100 S. Main st., Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. J. M. Gelston conducted the services. The honorary pall bearers were Jas. Clements, S. W. Clark, E. D. Kinne, J. F. Lawrence, W. Cornwell, Jas. L. Babcock, Wm. McCrary and Moses Seabolt, fellow directors with Mr. Bach in the First National Bank. The active pall bearers were the nephews of the deceased gentleman, Alfred and Eddie Hutzel, Amos and Eddie Lohr, and Fred Belsler. A very large number of the relatives and friends attended the services and followed the remains to their last resting place in the family lot in Forest Hill cemetery.

WANTED—Several trustworthy gentlemen or ladies to travel in Michigan for established, reliable house. Salary $750 and expense. Steady position. Enclose reference and self-addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Third Floor, Omaha Bldg., Chicago, Ill.

The Sappho Club at Ypsilanti commences the season again to-night at Ypsilanti.

Dr. and Mrs. Murdock have removed from Ypsilanti to Northville where their sons are engaged in the drug trade.

Miss Claribel Parson, of Grass Lake, who had come to this city for treatment for consumption, died at No. 40 Washtenaw ave., Sunday, aged 17 years. Remains were taken to Grass Lake for burial.

When an Ypsilanti groom hands the minister the fee for tying, he apologizes for the smallness of it, and puts hope in the dominie's heart by gently whispering "I'll try and do better next time," so the Commercial says.

It is thought that the Congregational church at Ypsilanti will be overrun with young folks for the next few Sundays. Its pastor, Rev. Rastian Smits, is to have for his subject, "The Spectrum of Love." How perfectly lovely.

Capt. Fallon of the Salvation Army at Ypsilanti, in attempting to prevent some rowdies and roughs from passing into the meeting without giving a piece of silver, was assaulted and given a black eye. It was a disgraceful affair for Sunday.

Last Sunday night burglars entered the house of S. H. Rogers, 438 South Huron st., and stole over $100 worth of silver and jewelry. It is out little over a week since the home of Chas. Hoffman was burglarized, making it evident that Ypsilanti has a pair of local thieves, who are rapidly becoming expert. Why a pair? Because two men were seen at Hoffman's.—Ypsilanti Commercial If some one saw 'em, why didn't they draw on 'em?

A Just Criticism.

At yesterday morning's session of the board of supervisors of Genesee county a resolution was adopted authorizing the county clerk to purchase supplies for the use of the county officials at the court house. All supplies as far as possible to be of home manufacture. This is a slight difference from the Washtenaw county board which purchased nearly all its supplies "away from home."—Daily Times.

It will not cure everything. It is not claimed that it will cure but one complaint, and that is, dyspepsia. We can not say that it will cure every case of dyspepsia, but it will cure a large majority of them. Such cases as are adapted to its use will derive immediate benefit. One small bottle will be sufficient to test it.

The Shaker Digestive Cordial is especially adapted for emaciated or elderly people whose food does them but little or no good because it is not digested. The Cordial contains an artificially-digested food and is a digester of food happily combined. Read one of the little books which your druggist is now giving away and learn of this wonderful remedy.

Cured of Disfiguring ECZEMA By the CUTICURA REMEDIES

Our baby when three weeks old was badly afflicted with Eczema. Her head, arms, neck, limbs, and nearly every joint in her body was raw and bleeding when we concluded to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. We began with CUTICURA (ointment) and CUTICURA SOAP, and after the first application we could see a change. After we had used them one week some of the sores had healed entirely, and ceased to spread. In less than a month, she was free from scales and blisters, and she has had as lovely skin and hair as any child. She was shown at the Grange Fair, and took a premium in the next city, over sixteen others. Mr. & Mrs. PAIR, 1609 Bellevue Ave., Kan. City. Sold everywhere. PORTER DRUG & CHEM. CO., Boston.

WITHOUT MEDICINE

Electricity, properly applied, is fast taking the place of drugs for all Nervous, Rheumatic, Kidney and Urinal Troubles, and will effect cures in seemingly hopeless cases where every other known means has failed.

Any sluggish, weak or diseased organ may by this means be roused to healthy activity before it is too late.

Leading medical men use and recommend the Owen Belt in their practice.

OUR LARGE ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE

ESTATE OF ALEMBERT E. KEITH, DECEASED.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw.

At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on Tuesday, the 5th day of Nov., in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five.

Present, J. Willard Babbit, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Alembert E. Keith, deceased.

Edward A. Keith, the administrator of said estate, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to render his final account as such administrator.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Friday, the 6th day of December next, at ten o'clock forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing such account, and that the devisees, legatees and heirs-at-law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, in said County, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed; And it is further ordered that said administrator give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said account, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier a newspaper printed and circulating in said County; three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

(A true copy.) J. WILLARD BABBIT, Judge of Probate.
