The Statistics in Various Lines in the County of Washtenaw.

ALL ABOUT MARRIAGES.

Divorces, Sparrows, Deeds, the Post Office, and Many Other Things.

There are probably no statistics in the world that are one-half as interesting as those relating to marriage. The marriage licenses that are published each week, are scanned with eager eyes by nearly all classes of readers, and no matter in how obscure a place they may be located they will be hunted out.

In view of the value of this subject to our readers we have taken considerable pains to look over the record for the year past in the county clerk's office, and from it have compiled a few figures that may be new to the public.

In the first place we find that Ann Arbor city has furnished more brides than any other locality in the county, being far ahead of Ypsilanti, and in grooms the record shows almost twice as many from the county capital as from its Greek named sister down the Huron. The table is as follows:

	Grooms	Brides
Ann Arbor city	75	88
" town	3	4
Augusta	14	12
Bridgewater	6	6
Dexter	5	5
Freedom	3	3
Lodi	11	11
Lyndon	3	4
Manchester	10	11
Pittsfield	11	11
Salem	6	3
Saline	19	14
Scio	5	8
Sharon	4	7
Superior	12	5
Sylvan	2	2
Webster	18	13
Ypsilanti town	1	4
Ypsilanti city	39	51

took unto himself a maiden of 32, and another of 53 did a like deed. One couple were each aged 56 years, while a groom of 68 took a bride of 66. This was the oldest couple married, and they came from Sylvan.

Some of the other couples were mated at these ages, groom 59 bride 50, 52-46, 62-59, 57-52, 67-61, 58-53, 58-41, 67-62, 50-36.

The youngest couple came from Ann Arbor, the bride being 15 and the groom 24—the parents of the bride accompanying her to procure the license.

Of the charming brides 1 was 15 years old, 3 were 16, 10 were 17, 21 were 18, 27 were 19. One groom was 17, 2 were 18, 1 was 19.

The average age of the brides was 23, while that of the grooms was 28.

It is noted that the average age at which young women enter the married state has risen from 19 and 20 up to 23. This shows that the girls are getting more sensible, and do not take the first chance that offers, but wait until they have more experience and know more of life, thus making better wives, leading happier lives and making more cheerful homes. At least that is the increase.

It is quite astonishing that ministers and those empowered to officiate at marriages are so careless in returning the record o' ceremonies performed to the county clerk's office. The law makes it an offense, accompanied by a heavy fine to neglect this important duty, and yet the record shows that there were 21 licenses issued last year in which no return of marriage has been received at the county clerk's office. Of this number 2 were in January last, and 12 for the past month of December. There are 11 licenses for 1894, for which no returns have been made. Several of these not returned are known to have been married, a few being people of some considerable prominence.

The number of licenses issued 337, is 18 in excess of 1894, when there were but 324 issued. This is an indication, so some argue, that the times are growing better. If this is true, the improvement is not sufficient to brag about in any great degree.

Marriage is not a Failure—

In this connection it might not be out of place to say a word about divorces. They are on the decline in about the same ratio that marriages have increased for the past year.

During the year 1894 the court records show that there were 53 applications for divorce, while in 1895 there were only 44. The ratio, it will be seen, is reduced from one divorce for every six marriages in 1894, to one for every eight, or nearly so, in 1895. It is to be hoped that the ratio will keep on improving.

Cases in Court—

The records of the circuit court show a slight failing off in business from last year.

For instance, in 1894 there were 121 law cases commenced, while in 1895 there were but 105.

Of the chancery cases 123 were commenced in 1894, while 118 only were commenced the past year.

The criminal docket is not quite so favorable, the record for this year, 61, being six ahead of 1894, which was 55.

Uncle Sam Making Money—

If one is fond of statistics he can have his fondest desired gratif led here. Uncle Sam does a penny business and requires exact accuracy of his servants, and as a consequence he keeps postmasters and their clerks figuring most of the time.

When a Courier representative went to Postmaster Beakes a few day's since, to get some statistics for the year, that official was found very accommodating, and gratified him in an overwhelming manner, in fact said scribe could have been figur ing yet with columns upon columns ahead of him had he not gracefully backed out after securing some of the items of the most interest to the reading public.

The year past has been a prosperous one, showing more business than any previous year. The sale of stamps, of course is the important business of the office, so we give the number sold by months for the past year:

1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	Spec. Postal	Dealy. card
Jan. 13,889	82,783	559	1,165	152	14,946
Feb. 15,645	77,009	608	1,169	177	15,123
Mar. 18,408	79,49	512	1,143	179	14,376
Apr. 14,747	72,588	608	166	18,008
May 17,045	77,581	362	664	232	15,498
June 16,040	60,41	416	629	202	15,200
July 16,059	48,436	511	63	122	11,715
Aug. 10,885	44,159	388	586	146	8,520
Sept. 12,382	54,051	333	467	155	18,207
Oct. 23,128	90,215	585	1,043	165	16,634
Nov. 30,341	79,258	691	1,078	137	18,232
Dec. 99,259	76,49	1,336	2,225	389	15,151
					184,070
106,050	857,923	6,807	12,047	2,256

Besides the above there were 357, 727 stamped envelopes disposed of,

and a large number of stamps of other denominations. In the above table the 2c stamps denote the domestic letter postage, while the 5 cent stamps denote the foreign letter postage.

The increase in the registered letter and parcel department for the past quarter has been quite marked.

In 1894 the number for the December quarter was 775 while for the past quarter it was 1,009. In the December quarter for 1887 there were 518, and during the years succeeding, up to last December it was considered a great feat to pass the 600 notch. The entire number of registered letters and parcels for the year has been 2,680, a handsome increase, showing that the people are beginning to understand the almost absolute safety of sending small packages in this way.

The Ann Arbor newspapers and publications aggregate an astonishing weight for the year, 90,831 pounds, or over 45 tons. As it takes about 50 of the Couriers to weigh one pound, the number of separate papers this vast sum represents can be easily figured out by the average school boy or girl.

What is Uncle Sam making out of all this? Well, he is doing well.

Here are the receipts for the past two years, so that they may be compared:

	1894	1895
1st. quarter	$7,393 15	$9,973 23
2d. " "	7,263 97	7,789 84
3rd. " "	8,412 44	6,131 58
4th. " "	8,412 65	9,176 17
Total	$29,052 21	$32,161 96
	29,052 21	29,052 21
Increase		$3,109 74

The increase is about 11 per cent over 1894.

The profits? Well, Uncle Sam is doing well, also. After deducting all expenses of the office, even to paying for all carrier's satchels, all mail boxes, letter boxes, and every penny that is expended for any purpose whatever, there has been remitted to the government in net profits the following amounts:

1st. quarter	1894	1895
2d. " "	$4,717 55	$6,349
3rd. " "	3,219 18	4,14
4th. " "	1,396 41	5,72
Total	4,540 15	8,57

This certainly represents quite a handsome income, one which a city of far greater population than Ann Arbor would be proud to boast of.

The Real Estate Record—

At the office of the Register of Deeds we find that business has been fairly good for the past year. According to the records there were 1,260 deeds of all kinds recorded. Of this number Ann Arbor is far ahead furnishing 347, or over one quarter of the entire number. Ypsilanti comes next with 192, or not quite one-sixth. The wide-awake village of Chelsea is no slow coach

Every little while we hear something go Ping! Ping!

Members of congress should remember that reciprocity is quite as important as tariff.

Woe unto the scribe of the Adrian Press, when the Monroe Democrat man reads this: "The night after Christmas 32 Monroeites were locked up in the city lock up. Wasn't a newspaper man left to write up the jocals till the fines had been paid. Great town that of Monroe."

Wm. Haggard, a Scotchman and a tramp, applied for lodgings at the Saginaw lockup the other day. He had with him a bible, well preserved which his father had given him 21 years ago. Saginaw policemen never saw a book of the kind before, and were so surprised they gave him a night's lodging free, and tried to buy the book as a curiosity.—Adrian Press.

Iceland has 80,000 inhabitants, and strange as it may seem, among that number are 300 lepers. It is a disease that appears to thrive as well in the cold of the arctic region as in the scorching air of the equator, or the varying temperature of the temperate zone. It seems strange that two islands of the sea, so different in every way, Iceland and Hawaii, should be afflicted with this curse of leprosy as they are.

Thomas Jefferson was a pretty good American. He said in 1808 that the main object of the United States "must be to exclude all European influence in this hemisphere." That was fifteen years before the promulgation of the Monroe doctrine. In 1823, when President Monroe asked Jefferson's advice about emancipating the doctrine, Jefferson said: "Our first and fundamental maxim should be never to entangle ourselves in the broils of Europe. Our second, never to suffer Europe to inter-meddle with our Atlantic affairs."—Indianapolis Journal.

The economical man, and the careful buyer is holding on to his dollar. The purchasing power of the people having been restricted this year, there is a large accumulation of goods both in wholesale and retail houses, especially of clothing. A big drop in price is looked for after the beginning of this year and then, perhaps, the wage earner, who has been at work only during six out of the twelve months, may be able to make a modest purchase of some winter clothing. He will not, however, replenish his wardrobe as in 1892.

The Salvation Army had its birth in the slums of London. Beginning as a Methodist pastor, Gen. Booth found himself hampered in his work for the lowly and the outcasts by the regulations of the church, and he broke away and began an independent work. At first he had no idea of organizing the "army" of which he is now the head. This came as a natural development; the army titles being at first discouraged and resisted by him. But later he yielded to what seemed a necessity and his humble work, now grown to such vast proportions here, and so widely scattered in foreign lands, has everywhere assumed an army form and nomenclature.—Michigan Herald.

LITERARY NOTES.

Scribner's Magazine enters upon its tenth year with several new departures and a most promising outlook for interesting features. What most readers will first turn to is the long-expected serial by J. M. Barrie, his only fiction since the publication of "The Little Minister," four years ago. In these times of prolific novelists it is unusual for one of the most popular of them to show the reticence exhibited by Mr. Barrie. A reading of this first long instalment of "Sentimental Tommy" (25 pages of which are given) will convince everyone that Mr. Barrie has produced a masterpiece. The very first line introduces the hero himself, whose mother is a Thurns woman, but living in the East End of London. There is humor and pathos in every page, with abundant indications that the career of "Sentimental Tommy" will be watched with almost unequalled eagerness by the reading world. A new portrait of Barrie with several full-page pictures by Hatherell accompanies the story.

There is plenty of holiday cheer in the January number of St. Nicholas. Pictures, poems, sketches and stories are appropriate to the season. Three of the full-page illustrations are "Christmas Lights Do Fade Away" by Frederick Dielman; "Christmas in the Middle Ages," by F. Melville Du Mond, and "At the Christmas Dance" by E. H. Blashfield. New chapters carry forward the interest in the three serials: "The Prize Cup," by J. T. Trowbridge; "The Swordmaker's Son," by William O. Stoddard, and "Teddy and Carrots," by James Otis. A new serial is begun in this number, "Sinbad, Smith & Co.," by Albert Stearns, author of "Chris and the Wonderful Lamp," which was one of the most successful features of the magazine last year. This, too, is founded on one of the most famous of the "Arabian Nights" tales, and tells of the partnership formed between Sinbad and an American lad. But the most important feature of the entire number is a further selection of "Letters to a Boy," by Robert Louis Stevenson. These describe the building of the author's house in Samoa, with an account of the savage ways of his servants. There are several interesting illustrations.

The Century for January, following upon two special numbers—the Twenty-fifth Anniversary and the Christmas numbers—is not lacking either in individuality or distinction. The capable and picturesque artistic work of Mr. Castaigne would of itself give distinction to any number of a magazine. This month his pencil is applied to the illustration of the first of the several separate papers on Rome, by Mr. F. Marion Crawford, who first gives us "A Kaleidoscope of Rome," setting forth contrasts of the Eternal City, with, so to speak, a reconstruction of it as it was in the time of the Emperors, and coming down to the Rome of the present day, which he describes with very distinct detail. Mr. Castaigne shows his versatility in the reconstruction of the Colosseum and the Forum in the days of the Christian martyrs, together with numerous scenes and character-sketches of to-day. Another novel article is an account by Borchgrevink, the explorer, of "The First Landing on the Antarctic Continent," being an account of the recent voyage of the Whaler Antarctic. It will be remembered that Mr. Borchgrevink was the first person to make the landing, and that his appearance in the International Geographical Congress in London made a sensation in its proceedings. He has not before written anywhere an account of this voyage, and the "Century" paper is accompanied with pictures by himself, which have the advantage of being pioneers in this field. Miss Alice C. Fletcher contributes another paper in her series of "Personal Studies of Indian Life," occupied this month with the "Tribal Life Among the Omahas." These articles, which have won attention by the uniqueness of their ethnological value, are not the less entertaining reading.

The first number of the new volume of Harper's Weekly (the number dated January 4, 1896) will contain the opening chapters of a new serial of a Scotch feed of the latter part of the sixteenth century, by S. R. Crockett, author of "The Raiders," etc.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents per bottle at the Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co.'s drug store and Geo. J. Heussler, Manchester, Ann Arbor, Mich.

English Spavin Liniment removes all Hard, Soft or Calloused Lumps and Blemishes from horses, Blood Spasms, Curbs, Splints, Sweeney, Ring-Bone, Stiffies, Sprains, all Swollen Throats, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted the most wonderful Blemish Cure ever known. Sold by H. J. Brown, druggist, Ann Arbor, Mich.

The first edition of the January McClure's is 300,000 copies—an increase of 170,000 in three months. It is easy to understand these great strides in circulation when one has read, in this number, the remarkable story of Lincoln as the manager of Denton Outfitt's saw-mill and country store at New Salem, the victorious wrestler against the champion of Clary's Grove, the student, between whiles, of Kirkham's Grammar, a candidate for the legislature, and a captain of raw recruits in the Black Hawk war; and when one has inspected the twenty-five pictures which help to vivify, the most engaging chapter of Lincoln history. We have been advised heretofore that the history of Lincoln's early years was lost. This can be said no more; for Miss Tarbell has recovered it for McClure's down to its smallest detail. To further justify the 300,000, there is the beautiful article on Eugene Field's intimacy with the children, reproducing the best of his child poems, with portraits, from his own collection, of the real children to whom the poems relate. Then there is the first of Mr. Will H. Low's papers on the great paintings of the century, in preparation for which Mr. Low made a special trip to Europe, gathering the best that the galleries there would afford. This paper treats of the French painters at the beginning of the century—David and his followers—and is illustrated with reproductions of sixteen celebrated paintings by David, Prudhon, Gerard and others. Ever since 1884 it has been a matter of constant speculation, and at times, of hot dispute, exactly what relation Mr. Blaine bore to his candidacy for the presidency in that year. A paper by Mr. Murat Halstead in this number must, one should think, set the matter forever at rest. By conversations and letters of Blaine's never before published, he gives the whole inner history, first of the nomination, and then of the succeeding canvas.

The first of Professor Woodrow Wilson's papers on George Washington opens the January number of Harper's. This paper, entitled "In Washington's Day," portrays the colonial life of tide-water Virginia at the time of Washington's birth; also what were the distinctive features of the New England of that day and of the Middle Colonies; and indicates the situation of the conflict between England and France for the possession of North America. Three full-page illustrations, together with a head and tail piece, by Howard Pyle, and other appropriate pictures, enhance the interest of this important contribution to American history. The frontispiece to the number is a portrait of Washington at the age of forty, engraved from the painting by C. W. Peale. The picturesque aspects of "The London Underground Railway" are presented for the first time in sketches by Mr. Joseph Pennell, accompanied by an article from Mrs. Pennell, which will be found especially interesting, in view of the present agitation of the rapid transit in our American metropolis. Mr. Poulton Bigelow continues his vivid narrative of "The German Struggle for Liberty," with equally vivid illustrations by R. Caton Woodville, showing how the German people, after Napoleon's disastrous retreat from Moscow, forced their king into the conflict which freed their fatherland from the French invader and was the beginning of its new constitutional liberty. A new part of "Joan of Arc," narrates the thrilling events culminating in the coronation of the French king at Rheims, which followed by a chapter of exquisite humor. Julian Ralph contributes another of his characteristic Chinese tales, "The Story of Miss Pi," illustrated by C. D. Weldon; Elizabeth Stuart Phelps tells one of her best stories, entitled "Twenty-four: Four" illustrated by Clifford Carleton; and J. J. Eakins, in another short story entitled "The Courtship of Colonel Bill," presents a characteristic Kentucky romance. An important article by Prof. T. R. Lounsbury, on the U. S. Naval Academy, calls fresh attention to the defective equipment of that institution.

American Institute Farmer's Club.

A committee from this club report the wines of Alfred Speer, of Passaic, N. J., the most reliable to be obtained, and that his Oporto Grape makes a Port Wine superior to any in the world. His Claret and Brandy have no superiors.

Powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla are remarkable. By purifying and enriching the blood and giving an appetite it makes you feel strong and capable of endurance. This is just what is needed at this season. The following is from Rev. Wm. Padock, Bronson, Mich., formerly pastor of the First M. E. Church at Osseo, Mich.: "I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and received much help from it. I am very thankful for the building up effects Hood's Sarsaparilla has had in my case, and shall continue to take it." Rev. WILLIAM PADOCK, Bronson, Mich.

'THE QUICK OR THE DEAD.'

In these days of keen rivalry for trade, many a country town is missing a golden opportunity for becoming the marketing centre for a large agricultural area.

The town that has the best roads leading to it is sure to get the farmers' trade. Once this becomes established nothing but better roads to some competing town will change the current of affairs. A lead once gained may be maintained, with a reasonable degree of care.

Merchants who do not make an organized effort to procure a system of good roads, leading to their towns, are very short-sighted. It is to their interest to see that rivers are bridged, and roads built hard and smooth, and with grades as easy as they can be made.

A steep hill may be the means of diverting much traffic from the town where it naturally belongs, to another farther away that is not hedged about with such obstacles.

A market to which but half a load can be drawn should pay double the price good roads town should.

But it doesn't. It usually pays less, because less produce is marketed there, and all business is done on a smaller scale, than in a wide-awake town.

Stores in such towns carry small stocks and can not offer the best opportunities for

A is all the good roads town has everything in its favor. The poor roads town is an all-around loser.

To which class does your town belong, "the quick or the dead?"

As good bicyclists and intelligent citizens, the readers of the L. A. W. BULLETIN residing in or near small towns should present this matter to their merchants and their town fathers. Every property owner should be interested in having the roads made better. It will pay them.

One of the best things a town can do is to set a good example by paving its principal street, where it can be done thus maintaining a tidy appearance.

A town that expects to catch the surrounding country's trade, without providing a good net-work of roads, should learn a lesson from the spider. She spins her far-reaching web and sits in the center, fattening on her spoils.

Good roads are townspeople's business as much as the farmer's. Possibly more.

What are you going to do, rot in Mudville or thrive in Bricktown?

It's for you to say.

Healthy, happy children are those whose mothers have been, and are, healthy. The best intentioned women in the world will fall short of health to their children if she is worried and wearied with weakness and sickness. Most all irritable women are sick women. Most all melancholy, listless, languid women are sick women. Every woman who will take the trouble to notice, will find that at certain fixed periods she is nervous, cross, irritable and despondent. Any irregularity makes the conditions worse. Even a well woman is less amiable than usual at these times. What can be expected from a sick woman?

When every movement is a dreary drag, when the nerves are all on edge in sympathy with the particular ones affected—when it seems that death were very much preferable to living—what can a woman do for her children then?

It is every woman's duty to be well and healthy. There is no reason why she should be otherwise, but if only she will take proper care of herself and take Dr. Pierce's Facial Prescription which she needs it.

This celebrated remedy has been used in the Invalids' Hotel and Surgeon's Institute at Buffalo, N. Y., of which Dr. Pierce is Chief Consulting Physician and specialist, for over 30 years. Thousands of women have been cured by it and hundreds have written grateful letters.

Some of these letters are embodied in a 1000 page book, profusely illustrated, called "The People's Medical Adviser," which will be sent on receipt of 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to cover postage and packing expenses. Address, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Read this announcement carefully and preserve it for future reference. See list of titles given below. It will be seen that the list includes the names of such well-known authors as Thomas Carlyle, Washington Irving, W. M. Thackeray, J. Fenimore Cooper, George Eliot, William Black, M. E. Braddon and many others. The books are paper covered. A small portion of them retail at ten cents a copy, but the bulk of them retail at prices ranging from 20 cents to 50 cents a copy. THE WEEKLY COURIER believes that it pays to pursue a liberal policy towards its subscribers, and therefore makes the following announcement:

1. Any person who subscribes for the WEEKLY COURIER for one year, whether at present a subscriber or not, anytime between now and February 1, 1896, making payment in advance at the regular subscription price $1.00 per year, may order any five volumes listed below and they will be mailed postage paid, absolutely free of charge. As stated above, the bulk of these books retail at prices ranging from 20 cents to 50 cents. Five books at 20 cents a volume amount to $1.00. Consequently the person who takes advantage of this offer will not only receive the WEEKLY COURIER for a year, but will also receive the full value in books of the amount of money paid. This offer is bona fide and means exactly what it says:

2. Any subscriber of THE WEEKLY COURIER in arrears, who will pay up his indebtedness by January 1, 1896, may order any one volume listed below for every 20 cents of the amount which he pays. The books will be mailed postage paid, free of charge. If the amount due is $1.00, five books may be ordered; if it is $1.20 six books; if it is $2.00, ten books. The indebtedness will be cancelled and the books donated to the full value of the money paid. The subscriber in arrears who takes advantage of this offer may also avail himself of the offer outlined in the paragraph above. For example, if the amount due is $2.00 and this indebtedness is paid and also $1.00 additional for a year's subscription in advance ($3.00 in all), any fifteen volumes may be ordered and they will be mailed postpaid, free of charge.

Books will be delivered by mail only.

Books must be ordered by number as given in catalogue, and not by the name of the book. Every order for a book should contain at least three numbers, indicating the first, second and third choice so that if the first choice should happen to be out of stock another book to the subscriber's taste can be sent instead.

Orders will be filled as promptly as the clerical work involved makes possible. Subscribers should wait two weeks before making complaint of non-receipt of books.

All orders should be addressed to,

Good Lord, Bad Devil—

It seems that the Universe, like the lord, loveth a cheerful giver, and that its only thought in losing Regent Hackey is in this connection.—Detroit Evening News.

And the Detroit Evening News, like the devil, appears to love an infernal liar, at least it always seems to hire one to write on university matters.

Dr. Coborn Called Away—

Rev. Dr. Camden M. Coborn, of the M. E. church of this city, has decided to accept the call from the M. E. church at Denver, Colo. The church to which he goes is one of the largest and most wealthy in the nation.

The church edifice cost over $250,000 and it has a $30,000 organ in it. Dr. Coborn will be missed from this city. He has been a powerful pulpit orator, and has given the best of satisfaction in all the varied lines of work here. It will be difficult to fill his place, and yet all will rejoice in his good fortune, believing that he richly deserves all that may come to him. A committee consisting of Dr. Breakey, Profs. Trueblood and Carthart, Messrs. Whedon and Beal have been appointed to secure a successor.

No easy task.

A Chance to Make Money.

I taught school last winter and this summer. Seeing so many advertisements of dish washers, I thought I would make some money during vacation. You said in your paper the Rapid Dish Washer was best, so I sent to W. P. Harrison & Co., Columbus, O., who manufacture specialties for agents, and got one, asked the neighbors in and washed the dinner dishes so quick and nice everyone present bought one. I made this week $62, and that is a great deal better than school teaching so I am going to sell dish washers this winter. Other teachers would be glad to have this hint.

DAISY HENRY.

The Burg-Liesemer Case Again—

A bill has been filed in chancery by Louis J. Liesemer, calling up once more the Burg-Liesemer litigation. This time Mr. Liesemer brings action to compel Burg to file an inventory of the assets of the trust funds held by him for Liesemer's daughter, Lulu, a child now ten years of age; also to file a statement of the present value of the trust, which is alleged in the bill to be about $7,000, and also to furnish a bond in the sum of $15,000. The court is also asked to order frequent accountings, and that the compensation of said trustee be determined.

Death of Mrs. Schaeberle—

Mrs. Christina K. Schaeberle, wife of Anton Schaeberle, of 32 W. Second st., died at her home on Saturday afternoon after only 24 hours illness, of heart failure, aged 77 years, 6 months and 15 days. Mrs. Schaeberle had been a resident of Ann Arbor since 1854, having come here from Germany with her husband at that time. Her death closed a life devoted to the best interests and well being of her home and family. Two sons and one daughter besides her aged husband survive her. Her sons are Prof. Fred Schaeberle, of Santa Anna, Cal., and Prof. Martin Schaeberle, of Lick Observatory, Cal. The daughter is Miss Mary Schaeberle, who lives at home.—Daily Times.

They Did not Agree—

Along in September last Dr. J. G. Lynds, while returning to the city from Whitmore Lake, is alleged to have driven over a lad named Edward O'Neil, near St. Patrick's church. The boy brought suit for damages, and the case was tried before Justice Gibson last Friday. M. J. Cavanaugh appearing for Lynds, and M. J. Lehman for the boy, assisted by P. McKernan. The jury which was composed of some of our best citizens, failed to agree. As a consequence the case will have to be tried over again.

The Common People,"

As Abraham Lincoln called them, do not care to argue about their ailments. What they want is a medicine that will cure them. The simple honest statement, "I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me," is the best argument in favor of this medicine, and this is what many thousands voluntarily say.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life.

Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida st., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co's drug store, and Geo. J. Haussler, Manchester.

Dr. J. T. Fellming, Des Moines, Iowa, a man that is way up in his profession and a specialist in nervous diseases, writes as follows: I have used Gessler's Magic Headache wafers in my daily practice and find them to give excellent satisfaction. I have prescribed and given them in a great number of cases and have yet to hear of the first case they did not cure. I do not hesitate to recommend them to both practitioners and the public as a sure cure. A. E. Mummery sells them at 25 cents a box.

Look out for colds at this season. Keep yourself well and strong by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great tonic and blood purifier.

Hood's Pills are the best after-dinner pills, assist digestion, cure headache. 25c.

ALWAYS CONTAINS

The Topics. By the Right Men. At the Right Time.

The Topics are always those which are uppermost in the public mind—in religion, morals, politics, science, literature, business, finance, industrial economy, social and municipal affairs, etc.—in short, all subjects on which Americans require and desire to be informed. No magazine follows so closely from month to month the course of public interest.

All subjects are treated impartially on both sides.

The Contributors to the Review are the men and women to whom the world looks for the most authoritative statements on the subjects of the day. No other periodical can point to such a succession of brilliant writers.

The time when these subjects are treated by these contributors is the very time when the subjects are in the public mind.

Boys are quite apt to be headstrong and to curl their upper lip with contempt when tendered any advice from those older than themselves. But if they will heed this good counsel, they will never be sorry for it: "Young men, as you enter the New Year, take this advice—earn money and save it. If you don't you will prepare for yourself a dishonored old age, and when too late regret it. Don't become loafers."

W. R. Burt is out as receiver of the Ann Arbor Railway Co., but as he is in as director, and has been made president of the road, with H. W. Ashley as general superintendent, he will probably guide its destinies for some time to come. It is to be one of THE roads of the nation—that's its destiny.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 76c.

REGENT HACKLEY IS OUT.
He Resigns the Regency Before Taking his Seat.

Charles H. Hackley, the well known millionaire of Muskegon, who has done so much for the schools of that city, and who was elected last spring to the board of regents of the University for the full term has created considerable of a sensation by handing in his resignation as such to Governor Rich yesterday. Mr. Hackley's term of office began Jan. 1, he succeeding Regent Hebard. The resignation reads: Hon. John T. Rich, governor.

Dear Sir—With great regret I submit my resignation as regent of the University. I am deeply sensible of the obligation I am under to the people of this state for electing me to the responsible office, and that no trivial reason ought to prevail me in laying down, at this time, the trust committed to me. Since my election, however, unforeseen and unavoidable duties of a personal character have fallen upon me which place it out of my power to meet and discharge the duties of regent with such fidelity as in my judgment is due to the people, to my associates, and to the University. No other course is open to me, therefore, than to place my resignation in your hands at the earliest possible moment, to the end that the vacancy may be filled as your discretion may direct. With the sincere wishes for the increasing prosperity and usefulness of the University,

I remain very truly yours,

CHARLES H. HACKLEY.

Under the same date Mr. Hackley forwarded to President Angell this notice:

"I have this day forwarded to Hon. John T. Rich my resignation as regent of the University, a copy of which I hand you herewith."

To a Free Press reporter Mr. Hackley said that his resignation was prompted largely on account of the manual training school in Muskegon, in the welfare of which he is so deeply interested. He looks upon it that if he has any time at his disposal it is right he should devote it to the people at home rather than abroad. He said he had talked the matter over with his Muskegon friends, and said:

"When I accepted the nomination for regent it was done in good faith, or of course I should not have taken it. Since then, however, the manual training school project has come up, all tending to force me to take this step and resign the office. As I said before, I thought it best not to go and if there was any time to devote to the people I had better devote it to those at home."

Regent Kiefer, of Detroit, was much surprised when he heard of Mr. Hackley's resignation and said he could not understand it.

"Why, he has not sat at a single meeting of the board yet," he said. "His term of office does not begin until this month. After he has accepted the nomination and been elected by the people to refuse to take the office is astonishing. We were all very glad when he was elected. We thought he was a good man for the board, he had done so much for Muskegon and her schools."

President Angell and Regent Dean express the greatest surprise and regret at the resignation of Regent Hackley. Neither of these gentlemen had any previous intimation of such action. President Angell is not personally acquainted with Mr. Hackley, but wrote to him some months since inviting him to attend a meeting of the board of regents previous to being installed in the position to which he had been elected. Mr. Hackley replied at once and indicated his intention of visiting the board at an early date. The board rather expected to see him at the regular December session, that being the last meeting before his predecessor, Mr. Hebard, stepped down and out, but Mr. Hackley at that time was in the south and could not come.

As far as known Mr. Hackley had the greatest good will toward the board, and everything indicated that he expected to take up his duties as regent with the next meeting of the board, Jan. 22, Both President Angell

MODERN WARFARE.

How the Wizard Edison Would Sweep Away Armies.

A recent issue of the New York Journal had this very interesting article from an interview with Mr. Edison:

"With war upon us we would not be long in finding the destroyers."

So spoke Thomas A. Edison, in his laboratory at Llewellyn Park, yesterday.

He was replying to the question: "Do you believe American inventors, in the event of war with England, would be able to supply some new engine of destruction that would overcome the tremendous advantages which the English seem to possess in their army and navy?"

"It would require but the impetus of a war to bring forth such inventive genius as would astound the world. As it stands to-day a battle on land need not be fought. A handful of men could sweep away an army. The destructive power is found in electricity."

"Water can be made more effective than bullets. For instance, if an engagement should take place or a fort be assaulted near a running stream, all that would be needed would be a dynamo and a hose. One man for the dynamo, one for the hose and one for general assistant—three men all told. They could charge that water with 5,000 volts, and it would sweep every thing living before it away like chaff. It would simply be a question of how far the water could be forced. The three men could hold a position against an army."

"Then, again, a city could be surrounded with cables that would deal death to all who should attempt to cross them. They could be so successfully concealed that none would know until the work had been begun."

"Another idea that suggests itself as we chat is the firing of electric chains into the invading force. You could take chains of whatever length was desired and attach one end to the wires of the dynamo. The other end could be placed in the cannon with as light or heavy load as desired and fired into the ranks of an approaching enemy. You could send death to every living thing within reach, and keep the air filled with chains like great snakes. There are hundreds of other possibilities that would suggest themselves, when once we realized that we were face to face with war."

"Our civil war was a half-hearted affair. We were fighting against ourselves. But God," said the wizard, rising with shining eyes and outstretched hand, "how different it would be with a foreign power!"

"I believe that the aerial torpedo furnishes us with protection from hostile war ships," replied Mr. Edison.

"We are just beginning to understand how effective they are and how they can be improved. I have not the slightest doubt that an aerial torpedo can be constructed that can be steered."

The cost of construction would be trifling—about $1,500 for each.

Each torpedo could be set to explode at a certain time after being cut loose from its ship.

Now, suppose 50 of these things were let loose at one time and sent out to sea with a 500-pound dynamite torpedo hanging to it! It would not be necessary to strike a ship when dropped and exploded. The very force of the concussion within two miles of a ship would almost shiver her.

"Why," he continued rapidly, "no fleet of warships could possibly enter New York harbor, even if the defending posts had all been reduced. You can torpedo those waters so thickly that nothing afloat could navigate them."

I think the present system is to run lines of torpedoes across the harbor and fire them by electricity as the objects to be destroyed pass over them. This system can be greatly improved upon, I think, in many ways. For instance, what's the matter with putting out a number of structures on which a wheel could be placed? This, sunk to the bottom of the sea with a cable around it, would give you an endless

Have Respect FOR YOUR Stomach.

DO not give it food that will irritate it, or retard it in the performance of its natural functions, or it will retaliate in a way decidedly unpleasant.

Have you a headache, a distress in your stomach, a pain in the side, or an irritation of the skin? These are the symptoms of disordered digestion resulting from unwholesome food.

Alum baking powders are responsible for a large part of this unwholesome food, for it is a fact, recognized by all physicians, that alum renders food with which it is mixed partially indigestible.

The danger to the public is not trifling, for alum baking powders are numerous.

How are they to be avoided?

Baking powders sold, either wholesale or retail, at a lower price than "Royal," are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore of inferior quality and dangerous to health.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER is made of cream of tartar, a pure, wholesome fruit acid derived from grapes. It adds positively anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food. It makes finer, lighter, sweeter food, and is more economical in use, because of its greater strength.

cable that could be kept in motion just like the cables that run the street railroads. Torpedoes could be attached to these cables and run out as far or near the shore as desirable. Its location at any time of its travel could be traced just as readily as if they were stationary. The torpedo could be cut loose and allowed to shoot toward the surface by some magnetic arrangement and would discharge itself when the pressure of the water on its top was lightened. A few of those cables run out in various directions would make the harbor a mine of death. Nothing afloat could live in it. There is nothing to prevent this being done to-morrow. So you see how quickly defense can be found.

"Electric power can be applied in so many different ways that I am convinced it will furnish the machines to defend this country against all foreign attack. Are we in advance with electrical appliances? Beyond a question. Our officers from Annapolis and West Point are well equipped with information. I am sometimes astonished to find how well posted they are in the practical workings of the great power. Lieut. Zalinski, who struck off and gave us the combination of the pneumatic gun and the dynamite gun, will certainly give us another engine of even greater power.

"If there is a war with England, which I trust there will never be, you may quote me as saying there will be some remarkable things done by Americans. For myself, I will say that I will abandon all else and give my whole energy to the service of my country. The dynamite gun should be taken up first. It should be experimented with more. It can be built so cheaply, and made so much more powerful. With that in the shape it can be put in, the greatest war vessels on the seas would have to keep a very respectful distance from a shore where one was planted. A vessel armed with a dozen would be a terror of the seas."

"American inventive genius will soon supply what the army and navy of the country lack."

Messrs. R. S. Greenwood and E. S. Gilmore have disposed of their private car "City of Ann Arbor" to the Ann Arbor Railroad Co., who will, after making some changes, put the car into service as a regular sleeping car. A companion car is being built at the Owosso shops. In the spring a through night train in each direction will be put on to run between Toledo and Frankfort, thus filling a long felt want of the traveling public. Messrs. Greenwood & Gilmore have found the business a paying one, and will probably have a larger and better car built to be ready for next summer's business.—Daily Times.

Fun Ahead, Perhaps—

Ex-City Attorney E. B. Norris has rendered an opinion to the effect that the Ann Arbor school board can compel the city assessor to spread, and the city treasurer to collect the legal dog tax, aside from the tax levied by virtue of the city charter. In other words, if the city authorities insist upon their right to levy and collect such tax that the result will be that the owners of dogs who pay anything at all, will be obliged to pay a double tax. Dog on the thing. The city treasurer felt a great relief when the city took this matter off his hands, transferring the collection of the tax to the city clerk. Now if both have it to collect, there will be sport indeed.

Malay Camphor.
Dryobalanops camphora.

This species of camphor is produced from a tree growing in Sumatra, Borneo, and the Malayan Peninsula, and is known as Malay Camphor. It is secreted naturally in crystalline masses and lodged in cavities in the wood. It is whitish, translucent, somewhat unctuous to the touch, very volatile, and its odor is strong and fragrant. One of the strongest properties of the Malay Camphor, as well as that of all other camphors, is their strong sedative power, and they are all of great power in allaying irritation and relieving pain. The ordinary liquid camphor purchased at the drug store if applied to a tender surface, will cause a smart, but this is due, not to the camphor, but to the alcohol in which it is held in solution. The wonderful success that has followed the introduction of Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm has been due to the fact that in it are carried not only the well known camphors of commerce, but this Malay Camphor and the camphor obtained from the Australian Blue Gum Tree, as well as the Japanese Camphor, better known as Menthol, obtained from Japan, and other camphors, and all these in combination have a wonderful healing effect, and their power to subdue the irritated membranes of the air passages of the nose and throat is akin to the marvelous. Any reader of this article who has any difficulty whatever with the air passages of the head, should obtain Pretzinger's Catarrh Balm and see if the statements in this article are not facts. The many thousands who have used this invaluable remedy will give it their unqualified endorsement.

Pretzinger Bros., Chemists, Dayton Ohio, will send a sample on receipt of a two-cent stamp.

Young Women Welcome—

The Y. W. C. A. will, during the coming month, open their rooms every afternoon from 3 to 6 o'clock. The work has so grown that, at the meeting of the Board, last Monday evening, it was decided to employ Miss Julia Roys as General Secretary for one month, with the hope that by the end of that time the finances of the Association will admit of engaging her permanently. We extend an invitation to the ladies of the city to call and become acquainted with our work, both what we have done and what we aim to do, and we hope the Association girls will be frequent visitors. To girls who are strangers, or have few friends in Ann Arbor, we give a warm welcome and hope that many who have seldom or never been in our rooms, will become acquainted with them during January.

means the prevention of scores of cases of colds, coughs, bronchitis, pneumonia, and consumption. Wet feet do not directly make the germs of consumption appear in the lungs; but they do cause coughs and colds and inflammation of the throat and lungs; weaken the whole system. In this condition the germs of consumption find just the soil in which to work.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is a most valuable remedy for restoring the system to health before these germs get the upper hand.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. Ask your doctor. This is because it is always palatable, always uniform, always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites.

Office of THE PIONEER PRESS COMPANY, C. W. HORICK, Sept. 7, 1891. Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, I lost my appetite, got toothache, and my health was poor. I tried the so-called "Keely Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced the prescribed treatment, and to my surprise, within a week, I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the terrible craving for tobacco, which I used to satisfy, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours truly, C. W. HORICK.
