AFTER LENT ENTERTAINMENTS

Come in Thick and Fast—The Army Dedication a Magnificent Affair—A Fine Banquet.

A FIRE SCARE AT THE P. O.

Death of a Prominent Printer—Republican Caucuses—Night School Exercises, Etc.

Everything in Fine Shape—

The seventh annual report of Chief Siple of the fire department, shows that during the year ending April 1, '96, there were sixty-four alarms responded to during the year, and there were fifty-four miles travelled and 25,050 feet of hose laid in responding to the same. Of these alarms forty-six were by telephone and eighteen came to the engine house direct.

The chemical was used fifty-two times. Property was destroyed to the value of $11,575.89, on which there was $80,225 of insurance. There was $800 worth of property destroyed on which there was no insurance.

The cost of the department has been slightly in advance of the past year, resulting from the fact that there has been no changes in employes of late, and that all the regular men are receiving the maximum wages of $50 per month. Also the hiring of a night watch, which had come to be practically a necessity.

Since the paid department was formed there have been 340 alarms responded to.

The department is in excellent shape both as to men and horses and apparatus, and will compare favorably with any of the smaller departments of the state.

A Royal Good Time—

On Friday evening last the ladies composing the auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association, gave a banquet in honor of the sustaining members of the association. There were nearly 200 guests present, and they represented the very best people of the city, people who believe in extending a helping hand to others to whom fortune has been less kind.

The tables were all that could be desired and the ladies deserve great praise for their untiring efforts. The object of this annual banquet is to assemble together the people who sustain the association by their voluntary subscriptions and allow them to look into each other's faces, and become known to each other. The list was proven a good one, and although the work of this association is carried on entirely by voluntary offerings and free gifts of the people of all creeds and classes, yet the conclusion might well be drawn from the faces of those present Friday evening, that it would not be allowed to falter. It is a glorious work, and should be sustained by bounteous aid.

Those who have the affairs of this association in hand are earnest workers. They give their time and money both freely, and it takes considerable of each. Knowing the good done by the association we feel free to predict that the generous people of this city will never let it falter for a moment.

Members of the state executive board were present that evening, and several of them responded to toasts. H. G. Van Tuyl, of Detroit, acted as toastmaster for the evening, and he did it well. Responses were made by Messrs. H. M. Clarke, F. D. Taylor, and Leonard Laurence, of Detroit; by Prof. F. S. Goodrich of Albion, and E. F. Mills, Rev. J. M. Gelston, Chas. W. Wagner and Nathaniel Stanger, of Ann Arbor. Mrs. Roy McClure sang a song very prettily, much to the enjoyment of all present.

During the entire evening the High School orchestra played for the entertainment of the guests, and did it beautifully. The music which they made quite astonished the auditors for but few if any of them were prepared for such excellence from these young gentlemen. They are certainly deserving of great praise.

The evening was an enjoyable one for all present, and it is hoped that for their own satisfaction and for the good of the city, these rooms of the Y. M. C. A. may soon be outgrown that the people of this city will rise up in their might, and take a vow to themselves that the association shall have a building worthy of the work it is doing and attempting to do.

Another Newspaper Change—

It is understood that to-day the bargain will be consummated by which the Daily Times will become in part the property of Louis J. Liesemer, Mr. Glover having sold a one-half interest in the same to him. Mr. Liesemer is a good newspaper man, careful and methodical and if it is possible to make a daily paper successful in Ann Arbor we believe he will do it. Whether Louis will turn the Hausfrau into an English paper, or start an entirely new English weekly, is not known, but we have it on good authority that he will do one or the other. Alvick A. Pearson will remain in charge of the city department we understand.

The new officers of the Daily elected this a. m. are: President—H. P. Glover. Sec'y and Treas.—Fred H. Belsler. Editor and Manager—Louis J. Liesemer.

A Fire Scare at the P. O.—

The employes of the post-office were startled yesterday morning at about ten o'clock to see smoke pouring out of the stock or supply room, which is next to the postmaster's private office.

An alarm was turned in at once and before the boys could get the burning materials out of the room the fire department boys were on hand. The fire started in one corner of the room in which there was a bundle of brooms, a lot of new straps for the carriers and some of the official envelopes, all of which were destroyed, but the valuable contents of the room were uninjured.

No one had been in the room during the morning except Deputy P. M. Watts, who is of the opinion that the fire must have been the work of mice and matches. It was a fortunate misfortune, just the same.

Two Elections—

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Andrew's parish, held at Harris Hall, Wednesday p. m., the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Mrs. C. B. Nancrede. Vice-president—Mrs. C. S. Millen. Secretary—Miss Carrie Frieze. Treasurer—Mrs. W. G. Doty.

The society has had a very successful year, and its annual report was very flattering.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the parish was held the same afternoon, and the following officers were elected for the year:

President—Mrs. Susan Dwine. Vice-President—Mrs. George H. Pond. Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. J. W. Bennett.

New Water Supply—

Herman Hutzler, who has been sinking drive wells on W. Washington st., struck a fine one Saturday at a depth of 70 feet. It flows through a 2 inch pipe, forcing the stream some 16 in. or more above the surface, and will furnish it is estimated, 90,000 gallons a day. It is proposed, we understand, to put a pump at this point and force the water directly from these springs into the mains, allowing the overflow, if any, to go directly into the reservoir.

Mrs. Jarley's Wax Works—

Miss McCobb, of Portland, Maine, will personate Mrs. Jarley at the University Hall, Saturday evening April 25, for the benefit of the Woman's Gymnasium. Tickets now on sale, 25 cents.

Closing of the Night School—

The closing exercise of the night school of the Y. M. C. A. will occur on Monday evening next, at the rooms, for which tickets of admission may be obtained at Moore & Wetmore's, F. & A. M. Bank, of the general secretary or of the pupils.

As the rooms will hold only a limited number, it has been thought best to issue tickets and confine the attendance to such a number as can be seated and properly cared for.

The annual closing address will be delivered by President Boone, of the State Normal School, and the remainder of the exercises will be such as to be of interest to any person in any way interested in the excellent work this association is doing.

A complete report of the enrollment, attendance, etc. will be given, and there will be on exhibition specimens of the work of the pupils in book-keeping, mechanical drawing and penmanship.

It may be of interest to know that the youngest student is 16 years of age, and the oldest 43, the average being about 22.

Republican Delegates—

The caucuses to elect delegates to the republican county convention to be held in this city next Monday, were quite well attended on Monday evening last. The delegates selected from the various wards, are as follows:

Death of Mrs. Mattingly—

Miss Lena A. Michael, who with Miss Florence Sterrett, conducted the Utopia Millinery parlors on S. Main st., for the past three or four years, and who was well and favorably known in this city, died in Los Angeles, Cal., April 4, at the home of Hugh D. Mars, formerly of this city. She went to California last summer for her health, and was married in Los Angeles on Christmas eve, to Mr. Charles Mattingly, formerly a law student in the University. She was a member of the M. E. church, and her funeral was conducted in Los Angeles, where the burial occurred, by Rev. S. L. Hamilton of the Michigan conference. Who was a former pastor of the deceased, and at whose home in Los Angeles she had been a recent guest.

Seeking Information—

Editor Courier—I noticed that at the last meeting of the common council the city clerk was made a present of $100. As a tax-payer, I desire to ask why? When Wm. J. Miller served as clerk he never was given a bonus for doing his duty. And he gave all of his time to the work. He was not absent from the city a considerable portion of the state getting up directories for Flint, Ypsilanti or Oshkosh. Neither did he spend time unnecessarily by assuming to run the Board of Public Works, the Finance Committee and all other departments of the city government, but he was a faithful official who attended to his own business and tried to do it well.

In what way had the present city clerk earned this extra pay? Had he saved any great amount or any amount to the city that he should be thus compensated?

I would like to ask still further, what the record of the recently deceased council has been as regards the expenditure of public money? Has it been an economical or has it been an extravagant council?

Having heard much upon this subject I ask as a citizen for information.

Very truly yours,
TAX PAYER.

A Delightful Event—

The opening of the new Army, transformed from the old Rink, by the military boys of the city, known to local fame as the Ann Arbor Light Infantry, and to the state at large as Company A, 1st regiment, Michigan National Guards, took place last Wednesday evening, and was one of the most delightful, and at the same time elaborate events of the kind ever known in Ann Arbor.

Preceding the reception and ball the company went through an inspection, which was conducted by Capt. Chas. A. Vernou, of the 19th U. S. regular infantry, one of the most thorough and strict disciplinarians in the service. He was assisted by Colonel Williams, of Grand Rapids. The inspection was before Gov. Rich and staff, and was thorough. The captain complimented the boys on the neatness in which their arms and accoutrements were found, and gave many a hint as he went down along the lines as to what was required of a soldier.

After the inspection followed a company and battalion drill, the boys being criticised somewhat by Capt. Vernou, for their haste, which made them a trifle inaccurate in performing some of the intricate movements. They soon "caught on" to what was wanted, and on the second trial were more successful.

Maj. Howell put the boys through the manual of arms, after which the following soldiers were called forward and presented by Gov. Rich, with medals for their faithful attention to duty and strict soldierly conduct:

Capt. Ross Granger, Lieut. Wm. F. Armstrong, Sergts. Wm. C. Cooper, Ambrose C. Pack, Fred C. Rentschler, Corps. Noble Monroe, Karl C. Kern, John Haarer, Charles Petrie, and Fred Huntoon; Privates, Robert Gauss, Leo Gruner, George W. Kyer, Victor Kauffman, G. M. McFarland, Samuel Stadel, Frank Tice, Paul C. Myer, and Albert C. Wilson.

The medal for Capt. Granger was of silver, the others of bronze.

In presenting the medals Gov. Rich made a few very appropriate remarks as to the duty of a soldier, and he complimented the Michigan National Guard in terms, saying that he had reason to appreciate their prompt and soldierly qualities when called upon to serve as conservators of the peace.

After this the grand promenade was formed, and all present were introduced to Gov. Rich by his chief of

The result of the recent elections is very gratifying to the republicans wherever party lines were drawn. In local matters however, personal warfare often comes in and brings about about victory or defeat for which neither of the parties are accountable.

Prof. Vaughan of the University, offers the prediction that one-seventh the people now living will die of tuberculosis. Lamentable as his statement is, there would be some comfort in it if the doctor has been able to state that the disease would immediately begin its attack on one-seventh of the bellowing members of congress, who to date have done little except to churn the air and draw salary. Heaven send them immediate and fatal tuberculosis!—Monroe Democrat. Wouldn't lock jaw be a little more humane for all concerned?

The statement of Mr. Kaufman, of the Kauffman Milling Co., of St. Louis, one of the largest exporters of flour in the country, that the sales of that concern in Cuba and Porto Rico were $3000 to $4,000 per month before the reciprocity treaties were made, and about $25,000 per month during the time the treaties were in force, whereas since the repeal of the treaties they have fallen to from $2,000 to $3,000 per month, is a conclusive argument in favor of the party which established the reciprocity policy and will restore it as soon as possible.

Will Get Their Money Back.

The local share holders in the Granite State Provident Association will be interested in learning that a receiver has been appointed for the concern and its business will be wound up as soon as possible. Under the law in Michigan governing the association, the investors will be protected by the loans, as the company has loaned many thousands of dollars more than they have received from shareholders in this state. There will be no doubt of the investors getting their money back in full.

Oxygen

Wood won't burn unless air-oxygen-is present. The food taken into the body must be united with oxygen before it can be consumed and give heat to keep the body warm. Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil, with Hypophosphites, is one of the best fuel-fuels. The cod-liver oil obtains its oxygen from the air and heat is produced. It warms, nourishes, invigorates, gives good blood, and fortifies against the piercing winds of fall and winter. The hypophosphites tone up the nervous system and improve digestion. Scott's Emulsion prevents colds, coughs, consumption and general debility.

SCOTT'S EMULSION has been endorsed by the medical profession for twenty years. (Ask your doctor.) This is because it is always palatable—always uniform—always contains the purest Norwegian Cod-liver Oil and Hypophosphites. Put up in one cent and $1.00 sizes. The small size may be enough to cure your cough or help your baby.

A VETERAN DROPS THE PEN.

Death of Charles Woodruff, of the Ypsilanti Sentinel.

On Wednesday afternoon last, after a lingering illness, the oldest editor in continuous service in the state, if not in the entire north-west, died at his home in Ypsilanti.

The following is an account of his life briefly told. His memory deserves to be recorded on the lasting tablets of Washtenaw's history, for he was a part and parcel of it, and his pen has had much to do in condemning the wrong, and encouraging the right through a half century of this county's formative period.

Decceased was born in Seneca county, New York, on February 7, 1816. He was given a meager education in the district school and afterwards, as was the custom in that day, served an apprenticeship in learning a useful trade, selecting that of tailoring. In 1836, with his parents, Benjamin and Freelow Woodruff, he came to Michigan, settling on a farm in the township of Pittsfield, Washtenaw Co. at a place now known as Carpenter's Corners. The family which came to Michigan consisted of father, mother and five sons, of whom the subject of this sketch is the last but one to pass away. Hon. Henry Woodruff still living at Bridgeport, near Saginaw.

When Charles Woodruff came in 1836 to the then small village of Ypsilanti, he immediately set to work at his trade and by the needle earned the means with which to complete his education, graduating in 1841 from Allegheny college, at Meadville, Pa. Returning to Ypsilanti he was for the next two years variously employed, and in 1844 he purchased the Ypsilanti Sentinel, a newspaper established in December of the previous year by Gen. John Van Fossen, and up to the time of his last sickness, he has since continuously conducted the paper, the Sentinel being the oldest paper in Michigan under one management.

Aside from his editorial duties, that which took most of his time and attention was education. He was always an ardent advocate of higher education, and may justly be credited with being one of the most instrumental of those engaged in creating the existing school system of Michigan. In the early days of his residence here he conducted an academical school which led to the establishment of the Ypsilanti Union Seminary, the pioneer of the graded schools of the state, and during almost the entire life of the latter institution he has been an earnest active member of its board of education.

He was also a prominent factor in the upbuilding of the city, taking deep interest in all matters of local self-government, and served continuously as alderman from his ward in the common council from its first session until 1876. Since then he was placed at the head of the democratic ticket as candidate for mayor, but believing that one should not work for election, and being under the displeasure of a faction of the party because of his strong temperance views, he was defeated by a narrow margin.

Without doubt his greatest fame lay in his ability as an editorial writer, his articles being copied, not only in the leading journals of the state and nation, but in those of foreign lands. Several times he has received tempting offers from metropolitan journals, but these he has always declined, caring not so much for worldly wealth and fame as for a station in life where he would not feel obliged to bow to the dictates of any one who might have authority above him.

Aside from his work at home he represented the Detroit Free Press at Lansing in 1855 and 1857 as legislative correspondent. He has also at times been a contributor to several large daily newspapers, among them being the Chicago Herald. Since 1860 the Sentinel, which was established as a "whig paper, has advocated democratic principles, supporting the regular nominees of its party, with one exception. In the campaign of 1872 the nomination of Horace Greeley was more than the editor could bear and the paper supported O'Connor and Adams. During this campaign Mr. Woodruff was the candidate of the "straightout democrats" for the office of lieutenant governor.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Sarsaparilla as a blood purifier and building up medicine leads everything ever produced. It is positively the best. Others may make the same claim. But there's this difference: We prove it. Not by anything, but by Merit. Not by what we say, but by what Hood's Sarsaparilla does. It has a record of Cures unequalled in medical history. It positively, perfectly and permanently cures when all other medicines fail. That the keen discrimination of the people recognizes its merit and the cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla, is shown by the fact that they buy Hood's Sarsaparilla with a preference and exclusion of all others.

Hood's Sarsaparilla has a larger sale than all other blood purifiers. It wins confidence everywhere because the statements in its advertising and testimonials are verified by all who take it. No other medicine has ever received such praise, or so many voluntary testimonials of wonderful cures. No other medicine possesses the peculiar combination, proportion and process used in preparing Hood's Sarsaparilla, and which give it merit peculiar to itself. This is the secret of its wonderful power, of its wonderful sales, of its wonderful hold upon the confidence of the people. This is why it cures Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Catarrh, Rheumatism, all Humors, Kidney and Liver troubles, Dyspepsia, That Tired Feeling, builds up the nerves, creates an appetite and strengthens the whole system. Its merit, its sales, its highway itself was constructed. During the summer of 1878, immediately after the old Ypsilanti high school building had burned, a strong opposition against rebuilding arose, many thinking that ward primaries were all the city needed, that the high school should be abolished and those who sought an academic education ought to pay for it at the state normal school or elsewhere and not be taught at public expense. With all the ardor that was in him, Mr. Woodruff fought for the rebuilding of the high school and when on the last day of August, 1878, a contract was let for one of the handsomest high school buildings in the state, he fell a victim of nervous prostration, from which he was a long time recovering, being confined to the house for six months.

Mr. Woodruff was a fine German, Latin, French and Greek scholar and during his last illness quite frequently sang German songs. He was an orthodox, broad minded, Christian gentleman, and devotedly attached to the memory of his mother. On October 29, 1856, he was united in marriage with Mary M. Jones, daughter of Capt. James Jones, one of the earliest settlers of Ann Arbor. They settled in the home which he continued to occupy until removed by death. Besides his widow, four sons survive. The oldest, Charles M. and youngest, Calus L., reside in Detroit; the second son, Marcus T., is present proprietor of the Sentinel, and the third son, Atticus, reside in this city.

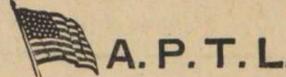

THAT LUMP in a man's stomach which makes him irritable and miserable and unfit for business or pleasure is caused by indigestion. Indigestion, like charity, covers a multitude of sins. The trouble may be in stomach, liver, bowels. Wherever it is, it is caused by the presence of poisonous, refuse matter which Nature has been unable to rid herself of, unaided. In such cases, wise people send down a little health officer, personified by one of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, to search out the seat of trouble and remove the cause. One little "Pellet" will remove a very big lump and act as a gentle laxative. Two "Pellets" are a mild cathartic. A short "course" of "Pellets" will cure indigestion permanently. It will cure constipation. After that, you can stop taking them. A good many pills act so violently as to derange the system, and in its disordered state, digestion will not go on without a continued use of the pills. That's the worst feature of most pills. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets never make slaves of their users.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets—it's an easy name to remember. Don't let a designing druggist talk you into "something just as good." He makes more money on the "just as good" kind. That's why he would rather sell them. That's why you had better not take them. Whenever they are tried, they are always in favor, so a free sample package (4 to 7 doses) is sent to any one who asks. D. C. Stoecking of N. State st. is canvassing the state and establishing agencies for the Chicago book firm.

Miss Christina Eiting, of Ypsilanti, spent Sunday here, with her parents on W. Summit st., returning Monday morning.

Prof. and Mrs. John O. Reed left this city on Saturday morning for Europe. They will visit relatives in Cleveland on their way to New York. They took their wheels with them.

ator Hearst, of San Francisco, who has offered him his own price to go to that city and take charge of the Examiner.

Miss Gertie Smith, of South Lyon, who has been stopping with the family of Ald. Snyder, of Gott st., for several weeks, has returned home accompanied by Mr. Snyder's little daughter Floy.

Justice Gibson entertained his nephew O. H. Krieger and bride, of New York City over Sunday. Such an event in a bachelor's life must have a tendency to make him feel lonesome, eh?

Mr. and Mrs. Uhas. H. Worden expect to leave in a few days for San Francisco, Cal., to visit their sons Ed. and Will, who are now prominent business men of that city. They will be absent some months.

Amaziah Thorpe, formerly of Forest ave., now at the Soldier's Home, has been granted an original pension, through W. K. Child's agency.

It is understood that when the new city building is erected, for which the council has ordered the purchase of a lot at the corner of E. Huron st and Fifth ave., it will contain besides the city offices, the much talked of city lock-up. This is the proper thing. The marshal's office will be right handy, and the class of fellows who would occupy the apartments therein would be easily cared for.

At the annual election of the Ann Arbor Gas Co. held Monday the following directors were elected: Moses Seabolt, Wm. Wagner, E. D. Kinne, S. T. Douglass, Harry W. Douglass. At a subsequent meeting Judge Kline was made resident, Samuel T. Douglass secretary, and Harry W. Douglass treasurer. It is understood that this company has practically decided to reduce the price of both illuminating and fuel gas, the latter to $1 per thousand feet. This will be good news.

Along about fair time last fall Mrs. Seth Sumner of Pittsfield, brought suit before Justice Gibson against the Washtenaw Mutual Fire Ins. Co., for damages alleged to have been sustained to her house by reason of a blaze that is said to have occurred some two years ago, and the suit has been continuously postponed until last Monday, when it was thought all sides were ready, when it was suddenly found out that it was not so and another postponement for one week was made. At the time the fire is said to have occurred, an agent for the company investigated and failed to find the damage claimed. It is expected that the suit will proceed next Monday.

JUDGE OF PROBATE CANDIDATES.

The Register of this city has been very vociferous for some time in announcing the candidacy of Hon. John F. Lawrence, of this city, for probable judge. No one can deny the perfect propriety of the man for the place or the place for the man. Mr. Lawrence has those qualities which are required in that position, and should the republicans select him for the office, he would fill the place with ability and honor to his party and to himself.

There will be no scarcity of candidates. It is understood that Hon. George S. Wheeler, of Salem, who accepted a nomination four years ago to help out the ticket, when there was no show for an election, will ask for the place now—and with good reasons to—when there is a show for an election.

It has also been stated that the many friends of Hon. Amariah F. Freeman, of Manchester, would like to see him head the ticket, and surely no man in Washtenaw could do it any better.

There has also been a hint that the republicans of the county could go further and fare worse than by nominating Capt. E. P. Allen, of Ypsilanti.

The last Dexter Leader has this to say of the excellent candidate from that village:

"Since the announcement in the Leader of last week, of the candidacy of our worthy townsman H. Wirt Newkirk for Judge of Probate, on the Republican ticket, we have heard considerable conversation upon the subject, and also read some favorable comments in our exchanges. It is gratifying to note that Mr. Newkirk is receiving a most hearty support, not only among our home people, but from every part of the county. While it is too early to venture anything like a prediction as to what the result of the county convention will be, there is every evidence that no man will enter it with a stronger or more enthusiastic support. To the people of this vicinity, of the village especially, Mr. Newkirk's candidacy will be looked upon with feelings of local pride. Nearly every town in the county save Dexter, is represented at the county capital. Chelsea has the Sheriff and Deputy Treasurer; Ypsilanti, Register of Deeds; Manchester, Treasurer. Now it really seems that Dexter should have a representative among the county officers. She could not have a better one, or one who would reflect more credit upon the community than Mr. Newkirk as Judge of Probate, and if the Republicans should see fit to nominate him they will make no mistake."

Military Drill in the Schools.

SENATOR CARTER has introduced a bill "to establish a bureau of military education and to promote the adoption of uniform drill in the public schools of the several States and Territories."

This bill provides for the establishment, within the War Department at Washington, of a "bureau of military education." It is to be conducted by an officer of the army, with such assistance from officers and clerks of the department as may be necessary for the prompt and efficient execution of the act. The officer at the head of the bureau is to prepare a text-book of drill regulations, with the view of making the drill taught in the public of the country uniform, and identical with that obtaining in the regular army. This text-book is to be distributed "free of charge on the written request of boards of education and directors of the public schools, or on the request of Senators and Representatives in Congress, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of War may approve". The expenses of the bureau are to be defrayed from the contingent fund of the department.

We have been asked by the Superintendent of the Physical Culture Department of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union to petition against the passage of this bill. We cannot consent to do this, and as the request comes from a source so eminently respectable, from a body of earnest women engaged in the noble work of promoting temperance, we deem it to be both courteous and proper to state briefly some of the reasons for our refusal. In the first place, the bill does not impose military drill upon our public schools. The question as to the adoption of drill as part of the school course is left to the local school authorities. The opposite proposition would be unconstitutional.

This one recognizes the fact that in many of our schools the pupils are now drilled and its author suggests, we think, that wherever military exercises are taught they shall be those in which the soldiers of the regular army are instructed. Certainly this is well, for some day, when these boys are men, they may be called upon to defend their country, and then it will be important that the drill they have learned at school shall be the drill of the army.

Moreover, we have no sympathy with the opposition sometimes expressed to military training. We do not believe that because a man or a nation is prepared for self-defense he or it thereby becomes a bully. Thirty-five years ago there was no citizen of the North who would not have been glad if more of our trade, territory or interests.

For farmers it has no superior, containing an excellent and useful department of agricultural information every week. Nothing is lacking to make The Tribune a good, all round family newspaper or to maintain its position at the head of the Republican press of the United States. The poor inventor can have his ideas exploited in The Tribune free of charge, if these possess enough novelty and real merit. The quaint and masterly writings of Roswell F. Horr will be continued; and love stories, jokes, household matters, fashions and other dear to the heart of woman are given amply. The paper is full of illustrations, which include, among other things, the best and freshest comic pictures of the two continents.

Above all things, The Tribune is decent. If poor erring humanity descends into depravity and crime, The Tribune gives the necessary news, but does not revel therein, gloat over the wretched criminal, or fill its articles full of suggestions and remarks which can only debase those who read them. It is probably this, among other things, which has endeared The Weekly Tribune so firmly in the homes of America.

A dollar cannot be spent to better advantage than in buying The Weekly Tribune for a year. Even more important than keeping one's person and clothes clean and pure is the keeping the mind pure, the conscience honest and the heart patriotic, and that The Weekly Tribune will do.

Its print is large and easy to read. Of the Daily, Henry Romeike, proprietor of the greatest clipping agency in the world, certifies voluntarily that "day by day and week by week, The Tribune contains far more original matter than any other newspaper in New York." With perfect truth he might have said this name of The Weekly Tribune.

Republicans should go into the clash of battle armed with The Weekly Tribune. Its accuracy of fire is unquestioned, and even the most case-hardened adversary is obliged to admit its penetrating power.

Four new churches have been dedicated in Ann Arbor, during the past year, and still the most unholly anathemas are exchanged between the recent mayor and the late board of public works, almost under the very "droppings of the sanctuary."—Monroe Democrat. Just a little off in your statement of fact, brother. You mean the present mayor and the late board of public works. That's the way it works.

There are seven entirely new members on the council, viz: Aids, Michael Grossman of the 2d ward, J. A. Dell of the 3d ward, Arthur Brown and Herbert Burke of the 4th, Gilbert C. Rhodes of the 5th, Harrison Soule of the 6th, and Horace P. Danforth of the 7th. They are all bright and active men, and will work for the best interests of the city. It is seldom so many entirely new men come into the harness at one election.

Now that the republicans are in the majority in the council, party lines mean very little. In fact there should be no party lines in the legislative body of our city, but every member should feel that he has on his best interests of the city at heart. It is different now from what it was a few years ago, when our friends, the enemy, had the majority. Then, it will be remembered, that to the victors belonged the spoils, and that principle was so thoroughly adhered to that no republican could secure the least favor and no republican office would be given any printing, even if it agreed to do the work for nothing.

At the military ball last Wednesday evening, many of the young ladies, and occasionally a young gentleman had her or his face suffused with blushes, as Gen. Walsh introduced them to Gov. Rich as "Mr. and Mrs. Soandso." A bystander could see that it was a delicious sound to some ears, while to others it evidently aroused a different sensation.

The editor of the Ann Arbor Courier has been presented by the King's daughters of Northville, with their cook book. Chas. A. Ward, after a brief but brilliant career as street commissioner, has been ousted by the Board of Public Works, and Daniel J. Ross, one of their own number, elected by them to fill the place. It is altogether probable that Ward is a too competent man for the place. He is a civil engineer, and a man who is well informed on the particular question of street making, grading, paving, etc. Mr. Ross is an old resident of the 4th ward, and a contractor and builder by occupation.

On Friday last, Mary, widow of the late John O'Keefe, died at the family residence on N. Thayer st., aged 70 years, from an attack of the grippe. The Junior Exhibition at the High School last Friday evening was a very successful affair. Lawrence Cole, and closed with the benediction pronounced by Rev. Dr. Bradshaw. Music was furnished by the University orchestra.

"In the Beginning,"
Of a new year, when the winter season of close confinement is only half gone, many find that their health begins to break down, that the least exposure threatens sickness. It is then as well as at all other times, and with people even in good health, that the following facts should be remembered, namely: that Hood's Sarsaparilla leads everything in the way of medicines; that it accomplishes the greatest cures in the world; has the largest sale in the world, and requires the largest building in the world devoted exclusively to the preparation of the proprietary medicine. Does not this conclusively prove, if you are sick, that Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine for you to take?

She was 84 years of age, and heart disease was the cause of death. She was the mother of Michael Condon, and Mrs. Geo. Herbert, of this city. Funeral services tomorrow morning, from St. Thomas' church.

By a mistake in the returns from the 3d ward, the question of raising the city treasurer's salary was lost in the city, by a majority of 34, instead of being carried by 44 majority. The vote in the 3d ward was yes 60, No 99, instead of the reverse as at first counted. This result is to be regretted, as that official earns the increase in both work and responsibility.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

Spring Costumes : Sleeves : Gloves : Grass Linen Waists : Parasols : Millinery.

Spring costumes present no striking changes, plain skirts and elaborately trimmed waists remaining in favor for all but the very lightest fabrics, which are not yet matters of great importance. Everything centers on the corsage front, although the back may be, and often is, trimmed to match. Lace, chine or Dresden silk, velvet, spangled net, or not unfrequently two of these potent factors, make up the gay front now so imperative. Jacket fronts heighten this tendency, and will be extremely stylish for waists or outdoor garments, and a succession of fronts may be supplied at a reasonable expenditure by purchasing remnants, which if put together with skill and good taste, the result is surprising.

White Satin revers, either spangled or bordered with Venetian lace, having gathered chiffon at the center, are very fashionable, and an ingenious idea is to have two or three revers which hook on the waist, and may be changed at pleasure. Nothing imparts a more stylish air than white satin on a black or colored velvet basque, which should have a "ripple back." Slightly pointed or round waists remain popular; velvet belts are wide or narrow, and velvet folds finish the lower edge of many elegant waists. Black satin ribbon modifies the bright hues of chine silk costumes with excellent effect, as a belt, and bows at the shoulder. A few small sleeves are again shown, but no one ventures to express any decided opinion as to the future. An elegant finish is given to any costume by hand-made gloves, and this season great preference is shown for pale yellow, although white enjoys considerable prestige.

Fancy black stitching is prominent on both these styles, and as may be inferred, contrasting colors are now preferred to those matching the costume. In addition to perforated, lace-striped, dotted, colored silk striped or tinsel embroidered grass linens, (as seen at the well known house of Lord & Taylor,) come the Madras and Persian patterns, which being novelties will be very largely employed for waists. Preference, however, will be given to navy blue or deep red, striped with white, for street suits. Colored silk linings are again used with perforated batiste costumes or waists, and slightly worn silk will serve this purpose.

Parasols are so gay that great care should be exercised in the selection, as a hat covered with bright flowers and a gaily colored Dresden silk parasol, would be in very bad taste. Some Dresden parasols are in very delicate hues, lines of tiny sprigs on cream or white grounds. Then, again, they are so flaring that a white hat showing just a touch of color, is most appropriate. Chine or broadened silk parasols are also very bright, and white pongee parasols, with a Venetian lace band around the edge, look well with gay hats. White chiffon parasols trimmed with flowers are so particularly attractive that they will continue to adorn garden parties or outdoor fetes of any kind, and thin fabrics, such as crepe de Chine, gauze or net lace, are-plaited, gathered or ruffled on plain foundations. Crystal handles are on the handsomest ones, but enamel. Dresden china and French gray silver or light-wood are all popular.

The distinctive feature of spring millinery is the overwhelming popularity of flowers, both as trimmings and entire hats. Roses of all sizes, violets, orchids, lillies-of-the-valley, and hyacinths are grouped together in the most reckless manner, and white or colored tulle adds a softening as well as varied effect in full rosettes or loops among flowers or ribbon, and in long streamers, to be attached under the chin. A touch of black is often a necessity, and is best supplied by a handsome ostrich plume.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache, Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at The Eberbach Drug & Chemical Co.'s Drug store, and Geo. T. Haenssler, Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder World's Fair Highest Medal and Diploma.

Homely Hints for the Farm Housewife.

Conjugal love is not preserved in family jars.

One way to use up cold boiled ham is to mince it finely and sprinkle it over a dish of boiled macaroni. Onions, turnips and carrots should be cut across the grain as it makes them more tender when cooked. To cook an old fowl: Prepare as for roasting by stuffing and seasoning steam until tender in a steamer, and then brown in the oven. Put salt in kerosene oil lamps to prevent them from smoking the chimney. Teach children to use the left hand equally with the right; it can be done by constant practice; they will be literally more "handy" and able to do more efficient work.

The mullage on unsealed envelopes flaps of different kinds that accumulate so fast if cut off are handy for labeling fruit jars. For soft gingerbread use one cup molasses and boiling water each; one-half cup lard and currants each; one teaspoonful soda and ginger each; flour to make the consistency of sponge cake; bake in small gem tins. Praise the Lord for the pleasant people He let loose in the world, for the people who think pleasant things and say and do them; who are kind and helpful and companionable; who believe in living pleasant lives and know how to do it.

Hot milk is most valuable food; it ought not to boil but just scald, then be drunk with a spoon, as this slow method insures better digestion. If it cannot be readily digested add a tablespoonful of lime water to each glass. A young man who had prolonged his call on his lady love rather later than usual, was surprised when a window in an upper story was raised as he left the house and the voice of the mistress of the house called out: "Leave an extra quart this morning, please."

When you have to ride against the wind, fold a newspaper around your chest under your outer coat. It may save an attack of pneumonia. The best bed ticking made into mittens are cheap and comfortable, for the weather is moderately cold, for farmers' chore mittens and prevent the hands from chapping, as they are apt to do if uncovered in the wind. It is but a few minutes' work to make a pair. One yard will make four pairs.—Farm Journal.

ENGLAND VS. AMERICA.

The Extent of the Coffee Habit.

When one notices the difference in the average people of England and America regarding their diet and digestive abilities, some natural inferences come up. What does the Englishman eat that gives him such good digestion, and what is the reason for so much dyspepsia among Americans? Rudyard Kipling makes out a "pie belt" through New England, and says its pathway is strewn with dyspepsies. The American's love for lard loaded pastry is probably the cause of some trouble, but the apparently harmless coffee is without doubt the father of more stomach troubles in America than any other item of food or drink. Great Britain consumes about 30,000,000 pounds of coffee annually, while America disposes of something like 330,000,000, nearly or quite eleven times as much.

Analytical chemistry discovers the same poisonous alkaloids in coffee as are found in strychnine, morphine, tobacco and whisky. These slight poisons taken daily accumulate until the effect on the nerves and stomach is pitiable with some people (who are peculiarly susceptible to poisons): the doses are continued from day to day without knowledge of what is so surely destroying the power of nerves and stomach. It is a trial to give up coffee, but a new beverage has made its appearance on the market which is so like Java coffee in its deep seal brown color and assuming the rich golden brown of thick Mocha when cream is added, that lovers of coffee who are denied its use because of the effects, can adopt this new food drink freely. The change in taste is so slight that many do not discover that any change has been made. The new product is called Postum, and it is asserted by the manufacturers, the Postum Cereal Co. Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich., that it consists wholly and solely of wheat and other cereals, carefully cooked and roasted in different ways. When the parts are mixed or blended a perfect breakfast beverage, a true health coffee results, which contains the nourishing and healthful properties of the grains intended by nature for man's subsistence.

It is worthy the trial of anyone who has trouble with coffee, or who desires to regulate their habits with due regard to health and longevity. Andrew Mitchell, the celebrated chemist, formerly professor in chemistry in the University of Michigan, writes: I have made a careful examination of Gessler's Mangle Headache wafers and find them free from Antipyrine, Quinine, Morphine Chloral or any harmful narcotics. I cheerfully recommend them for headache and neuralgia. Physicians and druggists everywhere say they are the only remedy we have ever found that will positively cure where all others failed. 25 cents at A. E. Mummary's.

Under the resolution of 1876, no delegate will be entitled to a seat in the convention who does not reside in the county he proposes represent.

In accordance with the resolution of 1876, every county will be entitled to one delegate for each five hundred of the total vote cast for Governor at the last state election (November 1894), and one additional delegate for every fraction amounting to three hundred, but each organized county will be entitled to at least two (2) delegates.

In compliance with the resolutions adopted in Detroit, June 29d, 1890, the secretary of each County Convention is urged to forward to the secretary of the State Central Committee, Detroit, by the earliest mail after the delegates to the State Convention are chosen, a certified list of such delegates as are entitled to seats in the State Convention from their respective counties.

This committee requests that the several counties select their County Committees for the ensuing two years at the County Conventions; elect delegates to the State Convention hereby called, and that the organization and membership of such County Committees, together with the postoffice addresses for each delegate, be forwarded to the Secretary of the State Central Committee at Detroit, in order that early and systematic work be begun and carried on through the coming campaign.

The Growing Child.

A mother is too apt to take for granted the confidence of her growing son and daughter. She has led them through childhood into young manhood and womanhood. She unraveled all their little perplexities, and has been the recipient of all their childish joys and sorrows. As children they concealed nothing. She assumes, without thinking, that this state of affairs continues into their adult life. She is sure she "knows all about her children," whereas the fact may be that she knows nothing at all. They outgrew her long ago. When the difference began the young boy or girl could scarcely say. Sometimes it is sudden, sometimes gradual. It is certain that with adolescence a new life comes to each individual, and that the mother who would retain the trust and aid in forming the character of the budding man or woman must make a special effort to do so. It is here that mothers often make grave mistakes, and never regain the forfeited friendship of their sons and daughters. Some women persist in treating their children as children long after they are grown men and women, and require the implicit obedience and blind belief of a child from an adult of reason and experience. Other women make an equally unfortunate mistake in, metaphorically "washing their hands" of the child they have reared as soon as it tried to act on its own judgment. "I have nothing more to do with your actions. Now do as you please." That is their position. One attitude represses confidence; the other rejects it. Both are antagonistic to natural law. Children must become men and women, and we have no right to be angry at or to repel the idea that it is so. But surely we may value friendship and trust and love of these men and women as highly as we valued the child's faith and loving reliance. That parent is wise who perceives in time the change, and who studies the needs of this formative period, who adapts herself to the new phase, and who begins by new methods to retain the child's trust, while gaining the man's confidence.—Harper's Bazar.

Temperance and the Home.

(Conducted by the W. C. T. U.)

The twentieth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the second district of Michigan held its first session yesterday at two o'clock, in the Baptist church. The first hour was a prayer and conference meeting led by Mrs. Mary C. Wood, district treasurer. Following this came the roll call, appointing of committees and miscellaneous business, Mrs. Jennie H. Lockwood, district president in the chair. Mrs. Amy Jones gave a report of the department, Evangelistic and Sabbath Observance; Mrs. Carrie Lamb, of Sunday School work, and Mrs. Mary E. Sutton, of Lumbermen and Miners. After the report of Mrs. Mattie Gainsley, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Julia D. Stanard gave reports of Union Signal and other W. C. T. U. publications. Last evening was given to addresses of welcome and responses and presentation of the six general divisions of the work of the W. C. T. U. The music was furnished by Miss Cole, assisted by a quartette. The children of the Loyal Temperance Legion also sang several selections. The day sessions of the convention will be principally devoted to business, discussions, brief addresses and reports. All of the meetings will be public. This afternoon at four o'clock will be "Children's Hour." Supt. Perry and others will speak to the children. The singing will be by the L. T. L. A large attendance of the children of the city is desired. The second evening will be an "Evening with the Young People." Professor Kempf will furnish the music. The following Ann Arbor Young People will give five minute speeches.

Wheat Will Turn to Chess.

In the last issue of the Record, published at the Agricultural college the professor of botany holds that wheat does not turn to chess; that chess is a plant of a different variety from wheat, and that it surely comes from chess seed. This will be disputed by many a farmer who has made practical tests, and is as positive that chess is a result of injury to wheat which prevents its maturity. The writer has made several attempts to propagate it, but never yet has been able to get a kernel to sprout. The professor may be right, but we think he is terribly mistaken. Chess almost invariably comes in wheat in low places where injury is caused by freezing. We heard of a farmer a few years ago, who, in a discussion of this subject, alleged that when a horse had fed on his wheat, at a certain time, it developed into chess, and that the path of the animal could be easily followed by the strip of chess. To be more certain, the next spring he mowed a swath out in his field of wheat, stuck stakes, and invited his neighbors to watch the result. The effect was, that the mown wheat was almost entirely chess, and that that particular spot could have been all chess seed when sown, was extremely improbable.—Leslie Local.

We all know that any tired muscle can be restored by rest. Your stomach is a muscle. Dyspepsia is its manner of saying "I am tired. Give me rest." To rest the stomach you must do its work outside of the body. This is the Shaker's method of curing indigestion, and its success is best attested by the fact that these people are practically free from what is without doubt the most prevalent of all diseases. The Shaker Digestive Cordial not only contains digested food which is promptly absorbed without taxing the tired digestive organs, but it is likewise an aid to the digestion of other foods in the stomach. A 10 cent trial bottle will convince you of its merit, and these you can obtain through all druggists.

BRICE'S GREATEST PLAY.

The Story of His Manipulation of the Nickel Plate Road.

Brice's greatest play was building the Nickel Plate. He put in every dollar he could get, and there came a time when he had to sell. He went to Vanderbilt, whose road the Nickel Plate paralleled. Vanderbilt would not buy the Nickel Plate. He said he could afford to wait the first mortgage foreclosure and buy it from the sheriff. "If you don't buy it, Jay Gould will," said Brice. "Oh, no, he won't," said Vanderbilt. Brice then went to Gould. He knew that he did not want the Nickel Plate, but he had a beautiful scheme to propose. He knew Vanderbilt would buy the road before he would allow Gould to get in. Brice thereupon told Gould that if he would sit silent and not contradict, neither affirm nor deny, any newspaper articles to the effect that he was going to buy the Nickel Plate, and after this clamlike silence had continued for a week, if he would then ride slowly over the Nickel Plate in an observation car, Vander would give Gould $500,000. It struck Gould that the whole thing would be a majestic joke on Vanderbilt. The papers said that Gould was going to buy the Nickel Plate. Gould, when questioned, looked wise. At the end of a week he meandered, spaillike, over the Nickel Plate in the rear end of an observation car and had all the air of a man who was looking at a piece of property. Stories were wired about Gould's trip from every water tank and way station along the line, and before Gould had reached Chicago, Vanderbilt, in a fit of hysterics, wired Brice that he would take the Nickel Plate. He did so, and Brice was saved.—San Francisco Argonaut.

Had Been There Before.

It was night and all was silent. The moon shed down its shimmering light on two lovers wrapped in each others embrace. A cold breath of air stirred the foliage of the majestic elm under which they stood. Suddenly the loud bark of a dog breaks the stillness, and the girl with whitened face and quivering lips, turns to her lover, and in a voice shaking with fear says: "Oh, George! at once you must fly, papa has loosened the bull dog!" The young man turns and snatching a kiss from the lips of the fair girl beside him, bounded away, but too late, for in his path stood the terrible animal with blood shot eyes and thining teeth, crouched ready to spring. With great presence of mind George stooped and picked up two old tomato cans while hlay beside the path and quickly running a string through them, shook them in the face of the infuriated animal. With a low whine of terror, the dog turned and fled. He had been there before.

A LEGEND OF THE STRAND.

"Tis said an author who had starved to death, Went walking, some years after he had lost his breath. In spirit up Fleet St., then down the Strand, And found himself before a bookman's stand. "What's this?" he mused, as in his hand A book He took. "Dear me, my verse!" he cried and kissed the book. "You killed me—cost me hearth and home. To publish you I spent My every cent. No man would buy. And I Was soon a s'adow of my former self, Whilst you lay snugly on my dusty shelf, Helgho!" he sighed. "Thou wert my pride, And ruin." Quoth the book: "Not so! You died too soon to really know. I have become A rarity and worth a wondrous sum. And through me now You wear the laurel on your brow!" 'E'en as the volume spake A mortal came, the little book did take, And as the spirit watched him from the shade Some twenty pounds for it he paid. "Egad!" the author cried, as back he sped To Hades. "I have on my head Enough of hay entwined to feed a horse! I'm proud of it—oh yes, I am, of course— But what a shame to decorate An author's pate. And leave his stomach to disintegrate!" GREAT REMOVAL SALE!

We sold four Pianos last week to parties who thought of buying sometime, but who found on learning our phenomenally low prices that the time to buy was now. Buyers of Pianos, do not fail to take advantage of the exceptional opportunity now offered to buy a Piano or an Organ at the lowest figure ever known in Ann Arbor.

7 UPRIGHT PIANO BARGAINS!

The following 7 pianos have been used, some 6 months, some a year, but none over 18 months. They will be put in perfect condition at our factory, and will be closed out at $25 down and $10 per month. We offer these as special bargains, and when we use this term, we mean it in its fullest sense.

Here they are—

1 Petit Bijou Piano, small size. Former price.....	$225
Removal Sale Price.....	85
1 Allmendinger, black case, good condition. Former price.....	250

1 Pease Piano, in very fancy case, in first class condition. Former Price.....	300
Removal Sale Price.....	180

We have sold 3 of the 6 pianos we offered in fancy cases for spot cash for $189 each. These pianos are such a rare bargain that if you miss the opportunity of buying one, it is your own fault. Some wise buyers have seen the economy of borrowing money to buy at these prices.

BUYING A PIANO.

You have been thinking of buying a piano for a long time. If you keep putting it off, you will never get it. Now is the time to buy, for now is the time you can save money. If your grocer offered granulated sugar at 3¢ a pound, when you are paying 6¢, you would buy a quantity. You know that is cheap, for you buy it every day. If he offered you Queen Anne soap at 3¢ a cake, you would buy it for the same reason, because you are saving money. If you could buy Royal Baking Powder for 25¢ a pound, when you have to pay 50¢, you would buy Royal, because you know it is good, and could be bought at the price of the poorest. We want you to realize that we are offering just as big bargains on pianos and musical instruments today as granulated sugar would be at 3¢ a pound.

We are obliged to move, and the store we hope to secure will have to undergo extensive repairs, which will consume two or three months before it is fit for occupancy. We are overstocked with pianos, our present warehouses are crowded, and we have about 60 rented pianos coming in the middle of June.

Think of this seriously, and come in and see us. A dollar saved is a dollar earned, and you can save a good many dollars by buying your musical instruments now.

BICYCLES.

We sold 9 Bicycles last week. This shows our prices appeal to careful buyers. Our Dayton Bicycle is unexcelled by any, no matter how famous or by whom made. The Ben Hur at $85 and $100 we believe to be the best value for the money ever offered in Ann Arbor. We also sell the Clipper and Wellington Bicycles at $75 and $65, and we have a few good wheels as low as $50.

Here are a few Removal Sale Bargains:

1 100 RALPH TEMPLE.....	60
1 100 MONARCH.....	65

ORGANS.

Those organs we mentioned as slightly shop-worn, are in first-class condition otherwise, and it will pay you to examine them and get prices. Forty-five to Sixty Dollars will now buy an organ that formerly sold at from Seventy-five to Ninety.

Those Accordions at $1.25, $1.45 and $1.80, and those $6.50 Mandolins at $3.95 will not last long. There is excellent value in them, and in some Violins and Banjos we have listed at equally low prices. Now's the time to buy if you ever intend buying.

staff, Gen. Walsh. The Governor found the line a long one before he had finished shaking hands with them all.

The festivities continued until along into the small hours of the morning, the dancers having everything to themselves after midnight. Governor Rich and the notables present withdrew at about 11 o'clock.

Capt. Ross Granger, to whose indefatigable effort his brilliant event is due, may well feel that he did not work in vain, for it was a complete success from start to finish. The armory is now a splendid place for company drill, for banquets, dancing parties, etc. It has been thoroughly renovated, painted and decorated inside; a spectator's gallery suspended from the roof on the west side; fine dressing rooms finished off on the south end, and the whole interior made attractive. It has cost the company a snug little sum to finish it, and they deserve much praise for their industry.

There were some thirty-five military men from various parts of the state in attendance, and they were entertained during their stay here by the Light Infantry, at the Cook House.

The music was furnished by the University Orchestra, and Hangsterfer did the catering.

Free Attendant Service—

A new departure has been inaugurated at the Chicago passenger station of the Northwestern Line (Chicago & North-Western R'y) which will be found a great convenience to the traveling public. A corps of uniformed attendants has been provided to render both incoming and outgoing passengers all necessary attention, directing them to carriages, omnibuses and street cars, carrying hand baggage, assisting persons in feeble health and making themselves useful in every way in their power. The attendants wear blue uniforms and bright red caps, and the service is entirely free. The North-Western Line is the through-car route between Chicago and St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Ashland, Council Bluffs, Omaha, Sioux City, Denver, Salt Lake, San Francisco, Portland and many other important cities of the west and northwest.

Death of Robert Shannon—

After an illness extending over several months, death at last came to the relief of Robert Shannon, of W. Summit st., and he passed over to the other shore, on Friday evening last. He had been a sufferer with dropsy, and for many weeks death had doubtless been a question of time. The deceased was probably one of the best known composers in Ann Arbor. He came to this city to reside in 1868, and had been a continuous laborer here since, seldom losing a day until overtaken by the illness which closed his life.

He commenced his work in this city as an employe of the Courier office, where he remained for fifteen years, during a portion of that time serving as foreman of the mechanical department. As a workman he was very methodical and accurate, and anything coming from his hands could be depended upon as correct. Since leaving the Courier in 1883 he had been employed in the Register and of late in the Argus office. There has probably never been a better informed man in the ranks of the printers of this city.

lodge F. & A. M., also of Arbor Tent K. O. T. M., in which organization he held a $2,000 life insurance policy; and also an active member of Ann Arbor Typographical Union. The funeral, which was held Sunday afternoon, was conducted by the Masonic fraternity. Prayer was said at the house by Rev. Henry Tatlock, and at the grave the beautiful ritual of the Masons was read by Chas. B. Davison, W. M. of Fraternity lodge. There were some 60 members of the Masonic body in line, about 125 Macabees, and all the members of the Typographical Union. They marched from the Masonic Temple to the residence of W. Summit st., and from thence to Forest Hill Cemetery, where the remains were laid in their eternal resting place.

The deceased came to this city originally from Canada and was a trifle over 54 years of age. He leaves a widow and five children, three daughters and two sons. One daughter is a teacher in the 3d ward school, and another is engaged in the Courier office. The family have the deepest sympathy of many friends in their sorrow.

The casket was covered with a wealth of beautiful flowers, the last tokens by which friends can show their esteem and friendship.

Self Explanatory Letter—

Mrs. Martha J. Shannon, widow of the late Robert Shannon, feels very grateful to the many friends who have stood by them during her husband's long sickness and recent death. She has addressed the following to the Masonic Mutual Benefit Society, of this city, voicing this sentiment:

"Allow me, with heart-felt thanks, to acknowledge receipt of amount so promptly paid over to me by your fraternity. I not only thank you for the check, but also for your many acts of kindly thoughtfulness and brotherly attentions extended to my late husband, myself and family during his protracted illness. Be assured my appreciation of your noble order is deeper than words can easily express. May your society ever prosper and its popularity increase is the desire of

"Yours truly,
"MARTHA J. SHANNON."

Results Tell the Story.

A vast mass of direct unimpeachable testimony proves beyond any possibility of doubt that Hood's Sarsaparilla actually does perfectly and permanently cure diseases caused by impure blood. Its record of cures is unequalled and these cures have often been accomplished after all other preparations had failed.

Against the Poor Boy—

Should the course in the medical department be extended to one of six years instead of four years as now required, the students would certainly be more capable of practicing when they graduate, but it would close still more firmly the gate against the poor boy who has a difficult job even now of working his way through the University. This proposed change would no doubt make a diploma from the U. of M. much more valuable than it at present—and it already stands at the head—but it would also be the means of reducing the attendance, which never has been too great in this department. A six years' course here, with a three or four years' course at other colleges, would militate against this school, as to numbers, at least.

Time Lost Lacing Shoes—

At one of the large thread factories where some hundred of girls are employed, a rule has been made that they shall wear only buttoned shoes. It was found that those who wore the other sort stopped their work a number of times each day to tie the laces that constantly came undone. In the case of one girl the minutes lost would not have been of any great consequence, but when it came to deducting the same amount of time for each of the two or three hundred, it was found that the daily loss was considerable.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Surgeon's Points For the Preachers.

"Mind you avoid inappropriate texts," said Mr. Spurgeon one day to his college students. "One brother preached on the loss of a ship with all hands on board from 'So he bringeth them to their desired haven,' and another returning from his marriage holiday: 'The troubles of my heart are enlarged. Oh, bring me out of my distress!' Mind your figures of speech are not cracked. Don't talk like the brother who said, 'I fly from star to star, from cherry beam to cherry beam.' Get among your people or somebody may be saying of you, as one old lady said of her minister, that he was invisible all the week and incomprehensible on Sundays. Shun all affectation in the pulpit, and mind you never get into the goody goody style. One of this sort said, 'I was reading this morning in dear Hebrews.'"—New York Observer.

All the Comforts of a Home.

"By the way, your advertisement mentioned 'home comforts,'" said the young man in quest of lodgings to a Glasgow landlady.

"Yes," was the reply. "Ye see ye could get a seat wi' in the kirk. (My last lodger used to pay for the hale pew.) Then, t' keep ye frae wearin' in the evenin's ye cud gie the bairns a han wi' their lessons, for their ain father's nae scholar."

"About yer meals, ye cud just come down an get them in the kitchen—it wid be hamelike, ye ken. There's little Johnny, ye wid get him to sleep wi' ye. He's an awful kicker, but wid keep ye fine an hate thae winter evenin's."
