The Verdict

Said Mr. M— the other day: "I want one of your seamless hot-water bottles that you warrant. I had one of them and it lasted six months with constant use. I bought two at —'s and they gave out very quickly."

We can give you the man's name if you want it. These bottles will last two or three years with ordinary use.

CALKINS' PHARMACY.

OHIO'S GIFT TO MICHIGAN.

What the Western Christian Advocate Says of Rev. Dr. McElroy.

In the transfer of Dr. B. L. McElroy from London to Ann Arbor, the old Ohio Conference has given another instance of her well-known bounty in sending her sons where the modern Macedonian cry calls for them. The church in Ann Arbor is attended by students of the University of Michigan in large numbers. One-fifth of the students of the greatest of the State universities go from Methodist homes. This means immense responsibility and privilege for our Church. Perhaps, in such a case, the Michigan Methodist are justified in seeking a man who could not be spared at home. College pulpits are trying places. The preacher must speak for Christianity at its high-water mark. Every student-face is an interrogation-point. Every question is, for the time, an open question. Criticism is their business. Profound preaching they vote dry. They soon prick the bubbles of sensationalism, and smile at the mere hand shaker and Church organizer. They want a leader, brotherly, alert, and positive. Bishop Simson declared his readiness to receive the criticisms of the Yale Faculty rather than face the opinion of the Freshman Class. The freshman want the best, or they will not stop to listen. Dr. McElroy has been pastor in two of our college towns—Granville and Delaware—and in both has shown great power in drawing young people about his pulpit. He has a message for young men, and knows how to utter it. He is a free and forcible speaker, not a note of his carefully-written manuscript ever reaches the pulpit. His sermons are rich in variety, and happy in statement of topics; fine literary flavor gives a charm of rugged discussions, and wide reading gives authority to the swift glances into the problems of the hour. Full of illustrations, they are also full of the Bible. It is scholarly, fearless, reverent preaching of "the Christ of to-day."

Dr. McElroy, is the son of the Hon. J. C. McElroy, postmaster of the National House of representative and well known in public affairs in Ohio. He is thirty-six years old, was graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University in 1883, was a student at Drew Theological Seminary, and received the degree of Doctor of Philosophy from Delaware upon examination in 1895. He is an enthusiastic student of Methodist history, as the readers of the Advocate know. His Church-work, prayer-meetings, benevolent collections, revivals, and evening congregations have always prospered. "I define a Methodist preacher," said the late General Gibson, in one of his wonderful speeches, "as a man always ready to fight the devil on foot or on horseback." Our Ann Arbor friends will find this wise and ready courage constantly appearing in the work of their new pastor.

Ann Arbor Boys to the Front—

Ann Arbor may well be proud of some of her boys. No less than three harness makers' sons have gained high scientific attainment.

George C. Comstock now fills the position of the late Prof. Watson in the observatory at Madison, Wis. J. M. Schaeberle, professor of astronomy in Lick Observatory, California, and Prof. A. J. Volland, son of Jacob Volland, is now superintendent of schools in Grand Rapids.

In the way of financial success, Mr. Bailey, son of a former editor of the Argus, is in the employ of the great Rockefeller, with a magnificent salary of ten thousand dollars a year.

Fred Maynard, son of John W. Maynard is attorney general of this state, and candidate for second term.

Bernest Perry, son of superintendent Perry, is assistant superintendent of the Industrial Works at Bay City, at times having 300 men under his charge. M. C.

The first concert in the Faculty Concert Series at the University School of Music, will be given Thursday evening. There will be five concerts given during each semester in this series. Admission, 25 cents single concerts, for series of five, $1.00.

Justice for Economy—

The policy of giving competent and efficient officials a second term in office, is one adopted by all parties, and so well-founded is the practice, that it is almost invariably carried out. Very few men fall of re-election for a second term. In this county nearly all of the republicans are placed before the people for a second term, having proven themselves faithful in all things. In the sheriff's office Mr. Judson has saved the taxpayers of this county in his one term over $900. He has allowed no guilty man to escape, either. He has referred out, and induced to plead guilty one of the most daring and skillful rascals that ever infested a community, we refer to Cuyler Barton the barn burner. His capture and conviction was as clever a piece of work as has been done by any officer in Michigan, without exception, and the plea of guilty entered by him saved the taxpayers of Washtenaw county not less than $2,500 or $3,000. There have been no $500 fees for expert testimony during his term of office; no extravagance in any line; but good, honest, economical, hard work, with an eye always to the welfare of the people, and the reduction of unnecessary expenses. Big hearted, free, generous to a fault, a man who listens to tales of want and suffering, and never turns a worthy person away unaided. Mr. Judson has at the same time been a public servant who has jealously guarded the people's treasury, and has conducted the affairs of the office as no other sheriff has done in years.

And now we appeal to the taxpayers of Washtenaw county to stand by Wm. Judson as he has stood by them. It is not only an act of justice to re-elect him, but it is in the line of public economy.

Mr. Judson has proven to the people that he does not believe the public treasury an object of plunder, but on the contrary believes that he who serves himself best is he who serves the people best.

The S. L. A. Course—

The Students' Lecture Association has secured for this year, probably the best list of lectures and entertainments that they have ever presented to the public. The list and dates is as follows:

- Oct. 10.—Chancey M. Depew.
- Nov. 30.—Leland T. Powers.
- Dec. 11.—Boston Symphony Orchestra.
- Jan. 11.—Chas. A. Dana.
- Feb. 1.—Ex-Pres. Harrison.
- Feb. 12.—Luther Laflin Mills.
- Mar. 12.—Imperial Quartette.
- Mar. 19.—Oratorical Contest.
- April 2.—Lucius Perry Hills.
- April 13.—John Kendrick Bangs.

As the date of Mr. Dana, Jan. 21, conflicts with the Y. M. C. A. course, a change will probably be made by either one or the other of the organizations.

Sauce for the Goose and Gander—

At the council meeting Monday evening little was done outside of the ordinary routine. The much discussed ordinance shutting out foreign firms from doing business here by solicitation, was laid over for two weeks. It seems as though this ordinance, if passed, ought to include other business than laundry. For instance, there is some $100,000 or more invested by Ann Arbor citizens in the printing and binding trade in this city, and yet solicitors from Detroit and Kalamazoo, by offering bribes to our county officers in the way of presents, and perhaps other inducements to others, secure a greater share of the blank books used in this city, and also all legal blanks. Our home business men pay the taxes, do nothing, and foreign houses who pay nothing, and help no one in any get the trade. If one industry is to be protected every industry should be. Even the circuit court calendars we are told, are printed in Detroit.

"What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander."

How to Enjoy Yourself—

You will be pleased with the course of entertainments given by the Y. M. C. A. It is one of the finest and most entertaining of any given in the city.

These entertainments are not above the ordinary individual, but each and every one of them is something for the common people to understand and enjoy.

No one will regret the investment. It only costs $1 for the entire six evenings, a price unheard of when the class of entertainments is considered.

The course opens on Tuesday evening of next week, Oct. 13, at the Presbyterian church, with the famous Indian poetess and reciter, Tekahion-wake, daughter of the Chief of the Upper Six Nations, who is accompanied by Mr. Owen A. Smily, who is noted for his entertaining qualities as a musical skit artist. He will make you laugh, while the Indian poetess will thrill you with recitations of her own composing.

The first evening's entertainment is worth the entire course, to say nothing of the famous Bell Ringers, the Boston Temple Quartette, the Mozart Symphony Club, John B. DeMotte, and others.

Of the entertainment to be given next Tuesday evening, the Jamestown N. Y. News, says:

"One of the finest entertainments in the Y. M. C. A. came last night. There were few empty seats in Allen's Big Opera House. Miss Johnson dressed in her picturesque Indian costumes looks the veritable Indian princess that was expected. As a reciter she has a fine stage presence and an almost perfect enunciation, which is nearly a lost art among reciters as well as singers. Mr. Smily received repeated encores."

The Evening Telegram of Bucyrus, Ohio, has this among other things, to say:

"Mr. Smily is a host of high degree. * * * No Bucyrus audience ever saw or heard finer impersonations and musical sketches."

The Warriors are Battling—

Chairman Wedemeyer and Secretary Butterfield, of the republican county committee, are two of the busiest men in Washtenaw county. In addition to their other work, both are doing good service on the stump. Mr. Wedemeyer having many calls from about the state he is unable to accept.

But the other side is not idle. Messrs. Cavanaugh and Ward are on the move from early morn to late at night, and are speaking as well as working. They are moving the earth and part of the heavenly spheres for Tom Kearney, John Kirk and all. Davenport. And then H. Lighthall—well he is making a tall canvass of the county.

The farmers are being jollied up and made to forget the price of wheat, corn and oats, in the many handshakes and pleasant words the candidates have for them.

Kearney and Kirk are after the kids, it is asserted, while Ex-County Clerk Art Brown is given the duty of pointing out to the older men their duty in this campaign.

In the meantime if any one thinks that Wirt Newkirk and Billy Judson are idle, they miss it. Both are keen eyed for all the weak points in the enemy's line of battle, and are after victory with a vengeance.

And so the good work goes on.

A Father's Advice—

The best advice that it is possible to give young people who come here, was that given by a father to his son on bidding him good by at the M. C. R. R. depot yesterday. He said, "My boy, keep good company or none, and write home often. We shall expect a letter once each week, and if you fail, you know how your mother will worry about you." A boy or girl who keeps good company, and writes home often is one who will succeed in school or college.

A Sneer Feelingly Replied to—

A couple of friends and neighbors were talking politics the other day, when the silver man turned upon the other, after a sharp question that he did not know how to answer, and said: "I should think it would make a great deal of difference to you whether we have gold or not, you have so much of it."

His friend replied, "I understand your sneer sir. I am a poor man, that is true, but it is no disgrace in the eyes of gentlemen. But I want to tell you this, that I earn decent wages. I support my family and educate my children, and endeavor to be a respectable, law abiding citizen, but if you have your way and reduce what I am able to earn from the value of gold to that of silver, and force poverty upon me, it may make a difference in my citizenship, I will admit. If you are as bright in intellect as I think you are, and as you ought to be, holding the position you do, you can see where and how I, as a laboring man, am interested in maintaining honest money. I want the dollar paid to you, or any rich theodol ar paid to you, or any rich man. And I want to tell you right here, that we people who labor for a living are on to your little game. You will find that if we are not wealthy, we know enough not to be fooled by a lot of silver men who want to reduce the laboring man to beggary, with his cheap dollars."

"You've got a great head on you," retorted the silverite, in a way that people often assume when they have more than met their match.

"Perhaps my means do not suit you, but you'll find when election comes around, my friend, that the man who works for his living knows the difference between a dollar and a half dollar."

Ann Arbor McKinley Club—

About 40 or 50 people assembled at the court house Monday evening to organize a McKinley & Hobart Club. Col. Dean was called to the chair. He read over the by-laws for clubs sent out by the state central committee, which formed the heading of the papers signed by the members. These were adopted on motion of Mr. Stocking.

There were 165 signatures on the papers handed in that evening, but Col. Dean said he had secured enough more to make the number about 400. On motion of Mr. Altmendinger, a committee, consisting of Mr. Almen-dinger, S. A. Moran, W. E. Stocking, C. E. Gibson and E. F. Johnson, was appointed to select proper officers for the club—this was probably done so as not to have the thing too democratic.

The committee reported as follows:

- President—S. A. Moran.
- Secretary—W. E. Stocking.
- Treasurer—O. M. Martin.
- Vice Presidents—
- 1st ward—W. K. Childs,
- 2d " C. Noll,
- 3d " Dr. J. A. Dell,
- 4th " George Vandawaker,
- 5th " Gilbert H. Rhodes,
- 6th " H. G. Prettyman,
- 7th " L. D. Wines,
- Executive Committee—
- 1st ward—Col. H. S. Dean,
- 2d " M. Grossman,
- 3d " Chas. E. Hiscock,
- 4th " J. F. Lawrence,
- 5th " N. D. Gates,
- 6th " E. F. Johnson,
- 7th " Chas. A. Sauer.

As only a few of those selected were present, the secretary was authorized to notify each one of his appointment.

The lack of attendance, and evident absence of enthusiasm can not be attributed to the disinterestedness of republicans in this campaign—for that is not the fact—it is attributable to other causes, and to a feeling, whether good or bad, right or wrong, that the organization of such clubs accomplishes but little in actual results, the real work of a campaign in these days being effected by other means. That it is a good thing to have a live, wide awake club, no one will deny, but in this community it seems a little difficult to secure such a thing. Nevertheless, if our friends, the enemy, think for one moment, that the republicans are asleep, they make a mistake.

Your Cough,

like a dog's bark, is a sign that there is something foreign around which shouldn't be there. You can quiet the noise, but the danger may be there just the same. SCOTT'S EMULSION of Cod-liver Oil is not a cough specific; it does not merely allay the symptoms but it does give such strength to the body that it is able to throw off the disease. You know the old proverb of "the ounce of prevention?" Don't neglect your cough. A book which will tell you more on the subject sent free on request. Your druggist keeps Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil. Put up in 50 cts. and $1.00 sizes. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

Will America barter her honor for silver? Will she demand her laborers that silver mine owners may prosper? The answer is with the voters.

Comptroller Eckles of the United States treasury has made a canvass and found that the banks, trust companies, etc., of this country, hold all told, $404,441,470 of gold coin.

Visitors should take along gold and re-sold McKinley's front yard.—Grass Lake News.

Not necessary. They are doing just what is wanted—paying it with gold votes.

Gov. Altgeld, who has been claiming 100,000 majority in Illinois for the mongrel ticket, has knocked off one-half, and now only claims 50,000. In three weeks more he will drop the other half.

As a rabid free trader Mr. Bryan, while in congress, did more for England and English workmen than any other man in that body. Now he is howling about England and the English money standard. Very consistent.

Editor E. S. Andrews, of the Williamson Enterprise, has been nominated for the legislature on the republican ticket. He is a clean, square, upright young man, and will be an honor to that body, for he will surely be elected.

As soon as the people are enlightened as to what the free coinage of silver actually means, they drop the thing as if it was a red hot brick. The masses are honest and do not believe in deception and trickery, corruption or fraud.

Bryan has asserted and reasserted in his speeches that the prices of wheat and silver have always stood together, and yet just now silver stands at 53 cents, an ounce, while wheat is up to 71 cents a bushel. His theory don't work.

The farmer who thinks he will be benefited by a cheap dollar fools himself. Those who till the soil in our sister republic of Mexico, which is under free silver, are the most abject and debased of her laborers. A fifty cent dollar never yet helped the man who produces all wealth.

Please remember these facts: There is not a gold standard country in the world but uses both gold and silver as money. There is not a silver standard country in the world that uses anything but silver as money. Is there any bimetalism in free silver? Don't be fooled about the bimetallic cry.

An election occurs in Georgia today. The Tribune claims that it will be a greater indication of the sentiment of the people on the money question than was the Maine election, and yet it says that it is going for free silver because the sound money republicans are divided, and have done more to help that cause than have the populists.

Some of the popocratic orators are making the statement in their speeches about this country that silver is not a legal tender. That is false. Silver is to-day, a full, unlimited, legal tender, for ALL DEBTS public and private, TO ANY AMOUNT. Our silver advocates should not tell falsehoods to help bolster up their rapidly declining cause. If any of the gentlemen would like to know where to find this statement they can find it in the act of congress providing for the re-coinage of the silver dollar, passed Feb. 28, 1878.

Will the papers that have been giving place to Prince Bismarck's alleged letter to Gov. Culberson, of Texas, have the fairness to give the fact that its translation was a forgery, and that Bismarck never wrote the sentiments expressed therein favoring free silver? Such is the truth, but if people find out the truth it will have to be by reading different papers from those that have published the forgery. By the way, Hon. Andrew D. White's letter to Gov. Culberson, though not in answer to an inquiry, is pretty good reading.

Any democrat who can swallow the dose put up for him this fall must have a political stomach of cast iron or brass. There is hardly an out-and-out democrat on the ticket. It is composed of republicans, populists and prohibitionists, all jumbled together in an indescribable mass; any combination that represented any votes was allowed a place on the ticket. Talk about principles! Merciful gracious! There are no principles in such a combine! The last time that Gen. Grant was elected president the opposition cry was: "anything to beat Grant." Now it is "anything to get the offices." If the country should be so unfortunate as to witness the success of this combine, wouldn't there be a kilikenny cat fight over the spoils, though?

NO CHANGE OF FRONT.

The issues of the pending campaign are clearly defined. There need be no misunderstanding on any question, for the republican platform is clear and explicit on every point. There is no "straddling" of any issue as a bid for votes from this or that faction. The St. Louis convention laid down an admirable declaration of principles, upon which every true and loyal republican can stand truly and loyally. In this platform the republican party stands precisely where it has stood, on the great questions of the day, for a quarter of a century. The claim of its opponents that it has assumed a new or strange or un-republican position on any question is absolutely false. This preposterous claim is put forward chiefly by traitors to the republican cause, who hope thereby to hide their own treason to the party and its principles.

These dissentionists declare that the financial plank of the republican platform of 1896 commits the party to a policy totally at variance with that which it has heretofore pursued on this question. Any man of candor and common sense knows better. The financial plank of 1896 declares simply and explicitly for the maintenance of the present status until such time as free silver coinage can be made possible through an agreement between the leading commercial nations. It pledges the party to the promotion of such an agreement, through which, alone, practical free silver coinage is possible. This has been the position of the republican party for years. Its leaders have foreseen that no other course was safe or practicable, and they have earnestly sought to bring about such an agreement between the leading nations, fixing the status of silver throughout the commercial world. A movement is now pending having that purpose in view. Its success will be probable if the republican ticket is successful at the coming election. Should the free coinage extremists gain control of the government, all the plans looking to an international agreement would come to naught, and the cause of practical free coinage would be set back for a generation. The enactment of such a law as the silverites demand would precipitate a general panic, which would be followed by a return to the gold basis, with silver utterly discredited, not only in the United States but throughout the world.

The true friend of silver, therefore, is the republican party, which refuses to betray it into the hands of its false friends. The republican party is also the true friend and conservator of the national honor. It is firmly opposed to any degradation of our currency, and refuses to compromise with repudiation in any form. It insists that every dollar of our money shall be worth its face, no matter of what material it may be composed. The parity of value can be maintained, under present conditions, only through the maintenance of the existing gold standard. The scheme of the silverites, if adopted, would at once send gold to a high premium and retire it from circulation. Our silver and paper money of every description would thus at one blow be debased to scarcely more than half its present value, and the result would be widespread ruin and distress.

The republican platform declares for the maintenance of the monetary basis upon which this nation has done business for a generation, until such time as a change can be made with safety. The declaration of the platform on this question is more explicit in 1896 than heretofore, but it in no sense commits the party to a change of policy. The men who are threatening to desert the republican ranks, upon the plea that it has "changed front" on the money question are themselves changelings. They have no more excuse for deserting the party this year than they had four or eight or twelve or twenty years ago. The real cause of their threatened desertion is because they cannot, by cajolery, threats, or force, induce the party to change the attitude it has maintained for so many years on this question.

It is understood that the Bryan national committee has hired a lot of men to go all over the country and stir up the laboring men against their employers, to foment strikes, and to embitter the employe against his employer in every way possible. To agitate and secure strikes everywhere such a thing can be done. Eugene V. Debs is at the head of the scheme, and Mr. Bryan, together with Chairman Jones, Anarchist Altgeld, and Pitchfork Tillman are all said to approve it as a last desperate chance to win the wage earner over to their lost, dishonest and despicable cause. This is the way they are to array the masses against the classes. If this report is true, then any man who would take part or even lend himself to such a scheme deserves to be hung higher than Haman. A thief is a gentleman compared to such an enemy to his own race.

Prohibitionists have not been popular among the Germans in the past, any more than dishonest money is now, but this year if they vote the democratic amalgamated ticket they will have to vote for one or more prohibitionist! Wonder how they like it?

Mr. Bryan should not be led into the tricks of the Detroit twins by attempting to make out that McKinley ever favored free silver coinage at a ratio of 16 to 1. All good republicans favor free coinage at the commercial ratio, or at any ratio the commercial nations may agree upon.

Many of the democratic electors in this district would like to know how Mr. Nordman proposes to vote on congressmen. Whether he intends to vote for the populist candidate, Mr. Zabel or the democratic candidate, Mr. Barkworth? Which will he go back on, the man who represents his principles, or the man who is on his ticket? It is a ticklish position Mr. Nordman is in!

What a combination! The democrats, populists, renegade republicans and last the prohibitionists! All fused into one, all represented on one ticket! Ye gods, what a spectacle! What principles! No man can vote a Bryan free silver ticket this year without voting for a populist, a renegade republican, and a prohibitionist! As Ex. Norris said when the prohibitionists were miscegenated, "well, we've married another."

Dr. Carsten, of Detroit, in a recent speech, was interrupted by a populist anarchist with the question: "What makes a cent worth a cent?" He replied: "A cent is worth a cent because the government says it is a cent." Over which answer the pops yelled with delight. When the Dr. continued, "But the government also says that if you have 100 cents it will give you a gold dollar for them. I suppose the government could stamp at the end of the spinal column of one of these populists, 'This is a jackass,' and he would be a jackass." The Dr.'s happy reply ought to illustrate that vagary of the silverite statist to perfection, so that they can not only see it, but feel it.

YOUNG SPIRITS. A vigorous body and robust strength, follow good health. But all fall when the vital powers are weakened. Nervous debility and loss of many power result from bad habits, contracted by the young through ignorance of their ruinous consequences. Low spirits, melancholia, impaired memory, morose or irritable temper, fear of impending calamity and a thousand and one derangements of body and mind, result from such pernicious practices. All these are permanently cured, by improved methods of treatment, without the patient leaving home. A great medical book of 1000 pages profusely illustrated, written in plain language, treating of the nature, symptoms, and curability of such diseases, sent on receipt of 21 cents in stamps, for postage and wrapping only. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

 George S. Hathaway has been nominated as a candidate for representative in the 2d district by the middle of the road prohibitionists.
 The Ypsilanti League of wheelmen have appointed a committee to work for good roads, consisting of Profs. Bowen and Lodeman and Mr. Scharif.
 The new postoffice of Eekert in Freedom, is to be a good one, they say. The mail is to be brought from Bridgewater three times per week.
 The "silo" built by Mr. Whirtley of this place is a great improvement, and should be duplicated by other farmers.—Sylvan cor. Chelsea Standard.
 Mrs. Nancy Toil of Monroe, recently celebrated her 99th birthday. The paragrapher who suggests "I told you so," will have the bell toll-ed on him.
 J. S. Wood a few days since gave us a handful of chestnuts grown in his yard. They are very nice, and he had in all nearly a half bushel.—Saline Observer.
 It is believed by dealers that apples will bring a good price as cold weather comes on, because of the shortness of the crop in some of the eastern states.
 According to the Enterprise the better train service which was asked for on the Jackson branch that passes through there, will probably be worse than ever before.
 Geo. S. Wood and little daughter left Tuesday for Southern Pines, North Carolina, where they will spend the winter with Irving Hamlin and family.—Saline Observer.
 Andrew J. May, who died at Washington, D. C. last week, was a former resident of Ypsilanti. He was 64 years old, and during the war was a member of Gen. Beauregard's staff, in the Confederate service.
 A birthday offering—a cent for every year of the donor's age—was collected at Sylvan, last Sunday. The Levites were sworn to secrecy, concerning the contributions of the ladies.—Adrian Press. MERITED REWARD.

SALES OF LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

Unequaled in the History of Medicine. Honesty, Excellence, Faithfulness Fitted Rewarded.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]
 Never in the history of medicine has the demand for one particular remedy for female diseases equalled that attained by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and never in the history of Mrs. Pinkham's wonderful Compound has the demand for it been so great as it is to-day.

From Maine to California, from the Gulf to the St. Lawrence, come the glad tidings of woman's suffering relieved by it; and thousands upon thousands of letters are pouring in from grateful women, saying that it will and does positively cure those painful

Ailments of Women
 It will cure the worst forms of female complaints, all ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, falling and displacements of the womb, and consequent spinal weakness, and is peculiarly adapted to the change of life. Every time it will cure

Backache.
 It has cured more cases of leucorrhoea by removing the cause, than any remedy the world has ever known; it is almost infallible in such cases. It dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus in an early stage of development, and checks any tendency to cancerous humors.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills work in unison with the Compound, and are a sure cure for constipation and sick headache. Mrs. Pinkham's Sanative wash is frequently found of great value for local application. Correspondence is freely solicited by the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., and the strictest confidence is assured. All druggists sell the Pinkham's remedies. The Vegetable Compound in three forms,—Liquid, Pills, and Lozenges.

of their age, has rendered them righteously indignant. Have a care, my friend.

A juvenile republican rally was held Monday at the home of Master Stanley Zimmerman, which took on the appearance of a grown up rally. There was a pole raising, speeches, marching, hurrahing, etc.—Milan Leader.

The largest log ever drawn in this section, was hauled from Frank Ives' woods Saturday and Monday. It scaled 4,100 feet and made four big wagon loads. Said log measured nearly six feet across the butt.—Stockbridge Sun.

Ed. Wurster has a couple of apples of the Russian Spy variety on exhibition in the bank window. One of these is 14 inches in circumference and weighs 1 1/2 lbs. They were grown on the farm of Michael Wurster.—Dexter Leader.

A sausage motor has been added to a Jackson meat shop, and as a consequence the price of dogs has gone up 50 per cent in that town.—Grass Lake News. Between that and the sausage ticket of the pops, the poor dogs will be quite annihilated.

We notice that George D. Crippen, son of Ira Crippen of Superior, is a candidate for the legislature from the Upper Peninsula. George is a man who has made his mark in his northern home, and deservedly enjoys the confidence of his community. Without doubt he will be elected.—Ypsilanti.

The Ann Arbor Courier is making a strong effort to give republican county officials credit for economy, but it fails to state that the board of supervisors is democratic, and that some of the praise is due them.—Ypsilanti Sentinel. A democratic board with a republican chairman! Who ever heard of such a thing?

Among the Ypsilanti taking work at the University of Michigan this year, are Miss Lizzie Treblecox, Miss Marina R. Osband, Ransom George, Miss Louise George, Austin George, Jr., F. W. Green, Miss Mildred Webb, Samuel Eaton, George Gunn, Joseph Lang, George Brown, Delbert Stoup and Chester Loomis.—Daily Times, Ypsilanti Dep't.

If the country editor was to snap at the great inducements held out he would soon become a millionaire. If he ran a paper according to the popular notion he would soon be in the poor house. If he would publish half the items sent to him he would be in jail one-half the time and in the hospital the other.—Pinckney Dispatch.

Hiram Lighthall, who is candidate for sheriff on the democrat ticket, and John Foster, of Chelsea, were in town Monday afternoon, they said, to advertise the Chelsea fair, but we know better as several democratic button holes are too big to-day to hold a pigweed bouquet.—Manchester Enterprise. Well, if Hi will only confine his fingers to democratic buttonholes, it will be all right.

To show what extravagant ideas some of the populists get in their heads, Mr. J. W. Wang, at a recent meeting of the Webster Farmers' club, made the statement that he understood that the county clerk made as high as $4,700 per year. What arrogant nonsense. But it is just such vagaries as these that carry some people away from their life-long political moorings.

Tuesday Sheriff Mills received a letter from his son Charlie, who stated that he was at Newport, R. I., and he had joined the navy. It will be remembered that some two years ago Charlie ran away from home and worked his way to Idaho. He was home only from August to the next June, when he again left and nothing was heard of him until Tuesday. Young Mills is but fifteen years old.—Monroe Democrat.

The News enters upon its 18th year to-day. During nearly eight of the 17 years through which it has passed, it has been under the management of its present publisher. Its subscription list was never so large as now, and such is its quality that a number of so-called people act the thief in borrowing it and stealing the reading of its columns. In thus taking what they do not pay for, they can only be classed with robbers of hen roosts.—Grass Lake News.

C. E. Dupuy of Stockbridge, has been selling a Mexican dollar and fifty cents worth of goods for $1. Friday night Dr. Bennett, a young man of Waterloo, said the Mexican dollars were counterfeit, and if Dupuy attempted to sell him one he would have him arrested. Bennett was arrested for criminal slander, was arraigned, pleaded not guilty and was released on bail. His trial came on Tuesday, and the jury found him guilty and the justice imposed a fine of $15 and costs or a month in jail. Bennett will appeal to the circuit court.

Mr. A. G. Beeson of Lincoln, Neb., writes to his brother in this city, J. N. Beeson, that he is intimately acquainted with Mr. Bryan and pronounced him a good fellow, but adds that the silver movement is a fake and no one knows it better than Bryan himself. The significant portion of the letter is, however, that in his (Mr. Beeson's) judgment, Bryan can not carry his own precinct, ward or city, and that bets are even on his state. Mr. Beeson is an insurance adjuster traveling extensively in the state and knows whereof he affirms.—Ypsilanti.

The following boom is about the only one we have seen in a paper for months and months. It is too good to lose. Taken from the Chelsea Standard: "For all that many people are claiming that this is a 'hard up' year, and business is almost at a standstill, there is one bright spot on the face of the earth—a vegetable oasis, in fact—and that place is Chelsea. Our merchants report business as good, our shops and factories are running, and builders are busy. Eleven new houses have been erected and extensive additions been made to others this year."

If the editor of the Grass Lake News was only on the Lord's side in this campaign he might be a power for good.—Ann Arbor Courier. There's ignorance for you. Carleton married a Lord's daughter and is on the Lord's side all the time.—Manchester Enterprise. It was an Irishman, who at a revival, heard a reclaimed backslider exclaim as he slapped his hands in joy: "I thank God I have just married a daughter of the Lord!" "Sit down, ye spalpeen!" said Pat. "It'll be a dang long time afore ye see yer father-in-law."—Pittsford Parks in Powlerville Observer.

While botanizing along the river bank near the town house some weeks since, Miss Marina Osband had the good fortune to find a variety of Polygala not catalogued in the Michigan flora. The Polygala verticillata occurs quite commonly, but the variety amigua is rare. On sending specimens to Prof. Wheeler at Lansing, word was returned that this was the second instance known of the occurrence of this plant in Michigan. Mr. Charles K. Dodge of Port Huron having reported finding it in that locality about the same time that Miss Osband found it here.—Ypsilanti.

Hon. Geo. Peters, near Petersburg, has what is probably the largest silo in the state. Mr. Peters farms it for fun and profit and gathers a heavy and happy harvest of both each year. He is always lucky. The cut worms do not slash him, nor the wire worms bore him; potato bugs keep off his vines; the canker worms from his trees and army worms from his growing grain. Happy Peters!—Adrian Press. What a contrast to our Hon. Geo. A. Peters. He is always howling calamity, and telling how the farmers are continually going to the eternal bow-wows. Well stump the Press to trade Peterses.

Andrew Mitchell, the celebrated chemist, formerly professor in chemistry in the University of Michigan, writes: I have made a careful examination of Gessler's Magle Headache wafers and find them free from from Antipyrine, Quinine, Morphine Chloral or any harmful narcotics. I cheerfully recommend them for headache and neuralgia. Physicians and druggists everywhere say they are the only remedy we have ever found that will positively cure where all others failed. 25 cents at A. E. Mummary's.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggist or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX.  Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.
 Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Kosely Care," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.
 Yours truly,
 C. W. HORVICK.

Prof. J. C. Knowlton who is home from the northern resorts, tells us some pretty big stories of fishing up there. He says he caught 53 brook trout one day, the "largest,"—mark the word—of which weighed not less than 2-lbs.

Harrington Johnson's Opinion—
The Daily Times is responsible for the statement that some one has found a colored M. E. minister in Ypsilanti, who is a free silver man, and "the best democrat in the county." His name is Brown. As Mr. Harrington Johnson, the Ann street barber says, "he who will forget his own mother is an ingrate, and the republican party is the mother of all the colored people in this nation. We never should have had our freedom or possessed any rights had it not been for her. I remember my dear old mother every day of my life, and I also remember what the republican party has done for me and my race. A colored man who can go back on the republican party, would go back on his own mother. Such a man is unworthy to be classed with decent colored people."

THE WIDOWED FARMER.

Since Hanner died the sun don't shine so bright,
The stars don't twinkle near so keen at night,
The church bell Sunday mornin' ain't the cheer
It had when she was here,
Since Hanner died.
The very chickens misses Hanner's care
And go round with sorter lonesome air,
There ain't no kind of joy about the place
Without her smilin' face
Since Hanner died.

The garden tools hangs in the apple trees;
The hoeswoods air a killin' off the peas,
There's no one here to hoe the taters now
Er feed the hogs and cow
Since Hanner died.

I s'pose, of course, I'd orter be resigned,
But when I go out in the shed and find
The ax she chopped the wood with all them years
I wet it with my tears
Since Hanner died.

Outlook in This County—

Now that all the issues in the country have united to ruin the nation, by electing Bryan, it is well to look up the votes they have polled in the past.

In 1892 the prohibitionists polled 440 votes in this county, of which 92 were in Ann Arbor city, and 73 in Ypsilanti city. The same year the populists polled 70 votes in the county, 8 in Ann Arbor city and 2 in Ypsilanti city.

In 1894 the prohibitionists polled just 400 votes for governor, and the populists polled 126.

Now if the fusionists in this county can hold all those votes for their county ticket they may possibly make a pretty hot fight, but would yet be in the minority.

Granting for argument, that the gold democrats are offset by the silver republicans, and that the republicans can hold all the votes they had in 1892, the county would remain republican by something over 200 majority.

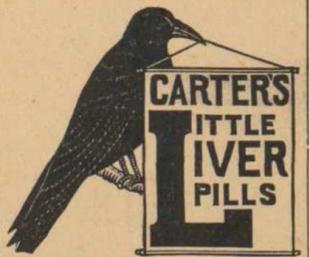

In '92, Gov. Rich carried this county by 856, Spalding by 822, Judson by 801, Dansingburg by 675, McKinstry by 944, Refuss by 1,126, Randall by 704.

By adding 500 votes to the democratic column, the present combine would still fall short of electing a single man on the ticket, as the circuit court commissioners had over 600 majority, and the coroners over 700.

But the opposition will lose more democratic votes by one-half than they gain republican, and the prohibitionists are about equally divided on the money question. The demerit fusionists can not count upon gaining over 300 votes from the prohibitionists and populists combined. The number of silver republicans they will gain can only be estimated. A good politician, who has been over the county says that there not on an average ten silver republicans to a precinct, but putting it at 10 with 32 precincts, would aggregate 320. This added to the 300 populists and pops would make 600 votes.

The republicans claim over 1,200 gold democrats in the county over three-fourths of whom will vote their county ticket. To these add 200 sound money prohibitionists and it will not take much figuring to tell which side will come out ahead.

Rev. Talmage, speaking of a country newspaper, says: "A newspaper whose columns overflow with advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency that can be employed. People go where there is business. Capital and labor will locate where there is an enterprising community. No power on earth is so strong to build up a town as a newspaper well patronized."

The democratic national committee is now engaged in making big bluffs. When it claims Ohio by 30,000, and Michigan by 59,000, and Iowa by 40,000, and Illinois by 75,000, every one knows that their figures are not based on anything but the wildest sort of wind. In fact they have been running the entire campaign by wind.

Oh, no! The tariff does not count in this campaign, and yet it may be well to bear in mind that 550 representative industries, in one state alone that formerly employed 114,000 men now employ but 78,000, and those at reduced wages. Cut the wages of these men in two in the middle, and what will they do? The tariff does not count, Oh, no!

We are glad to announce that Hon. A. J. Sawyer of Ann Arbor was unanimously nominated for representative in the state legislature for Washtenaw county by the republicans. Mr. Sawyer is a very able man, who has twice served his district in that capacity; and the Sun would like to see him elected by an overwhelming vote.—Stockbridge Sun.

The Webster Farmer's Club passed a resolution to the effect that hereafter the Judge of Probate should give his entire time to the office. In his speech of acceptance before the recent republican county convention, that is just what Mr. H. W. Newkirk said he proposed to do if elected. And what he has said he would do he never yet failed to perform, at whatever cost.

One of the best known sayings of Benj. Franklin as Poor Richard, is this: "A penny saved is as good as a penny earned." The voters of Washtenaw county two years ago placed a complete set of republican officials in office, and by so doing saved themselves not only pennies but dollars—thousands of them. In the year of our Lord 1896, they will repeat the good work of 1894.

The people of Washtenaw county will not turn their backs upon a set of officials who inside of two years have turned a debt of $15,000 into a credit of $14,000, and at the same time reduced the county tax from $40,000 a year to $20,000 a year—just one-half. Not much. They will stamp their approval of such officials upon the ballot next November by placing an X in the circle under the republican vignette, and thus vote for every one of them.

When men like Greece and Fenwick and their ilk, of Detroit, go to an opposition meeting and interrupt the speakers and create disturbances, what can be expected of a lot of young boys like those at Yale? While we condemn the Yale students, what words can we find for such men as the above? It is just such examples as they set that makes boys impudent and saucy. Greece and Fenwick ought to be muzzled or caged until they learn a few things about ordinary decency.

The states of Oregon, Alabama, Vermont, Arkansas and Maine have each held elections this year. The aggregate republican vote cast was 299,224, and democratic vote 289,665. In 1882 the aggregate republican vote in those same states was 287,131 and aggregate democratic vote 320,231. This shows a gain for the republicans in these five northern, southern and western states of 12,093, and a democratic loss of 30,576. That is proof positive of how the tide is running.

Let it not be forgotten that John O. Zabel, populist candidate for congress in this district is the attorney of that "soulless corporation," and "bloated monopoly" the Petersburg and Toledo Electric Railway (air line). This needs only to be known to lay John out, as cold as the heart of a gas plumber.—Adrian Press.

How is this, Mr. Peters? Have you been imposing another corporation attorney on your confiding neighbors and populist friends? Is it not enough to have the pop candidate for president, Mr. Bryan, an attorney for George Jay Gould's heartless system of railroads, without trying to fill the halls of congress with these grasping fellows? We pause, Mr. Peters, for an explanation!

The Argus claims that it favors pure bimetallism, and admits that free coinage will drive the gold out of circulation. The truth is that no free silver coinage man can be a bimetallist, unless he favors free coinage by international agreement. Free and unlimited silver coinage by the United States alone, means silver monometallism and nothing else. The Courier is now and always has been a true advocate of bimetallism. It believes in the use of both coins as money at the commercial ratio, or at any ratio that the commercial nations of the world may agree upon.

THE NIGHT IS PASSING.

It is always interesting to watch the slow dawn of a new day. The purple shadows of the passing night melt slowly and silently slip out to give place to the brightening dawn. When the sun has climbed the rosy slopes of the East and lights with his golden beams the mountain tops, we feel that the daily miracle of a new birth is accomplished and that another day has opened upon the world.

It is with something of the same feelings that we watch the dawn of a new political day, feeling that with its morning comes the inspiration of new duties, the necessity for fresh achievements, for greater patriotism and broader purposes. The American people are a patriotic people and they have infinite faith in the possibilities of the American future. We are beginning to feel that we may look the whole world in the face and boldly challenge it to surpass us in all that really pertains to national greatness and the possibility of progress. We are each year accepting more fully and heartily the theory that when God built this New World, and envired it by mighty oceans He intended it for the home of freemen, where all those conditions should exist which are necessary for the highest development of the race.

The American people have for the past three years or more been indulging pretty freely in political experiments. We have discovered what mere theories are worth which are impossible of practical application. We have passed through the dull, long night of languishing industries, when the thousand forces of labor were stilled, when competition was strangled and industry was famished and despairing. From ocean to ocean we have seen the workshop deserted and found the clutch of idleness upon the arms of the workingman. Never before in our history has there been such a vast army of unemployed seeking work and finding it not. The conditions which have threatened us have been appalling in their danger and filled with possible evil results that might be lasting. We have been misgoverned to an extent heretofore unknown in this republic and which has made possible the direst disaster. But now we feel that the dawn of a new political day is near. We watch the passing of the night and wait with high hopes for the coming day. The lessons of experience have been well learned, and we have gathered wisdom therefrom. With McKinley in the White House there will be no repetition of the lack of wisdom which so blindly demanded a "change" four years ago next November. The American people will go up to the polls with thinking ballots in the hands of the great majority, and the result will be such as every patriot desires, the triumph of protection, of sound money and industrial progress. The poor man will again take hope, and Labor throw off its chains, and everywhere shall we see the evidences of returning strength.

Perhaps some of the business firms manufacturers, etc., of Detroit, who are continually being charged by the News and Tribune with coercing their employes to vote for sound money, will retaliate in a way that will hurt. The contemptible falsehoods of the pop papers in that respect deserve a rebuke that will be felt, that will sting. It is the most damnable of anything that has been brought out in the campaign.

Perhaps some of those who have closed their ears to reason, can see in the fact that in the five days following the Vermont election American securities appreciated in the New York market more than $100,000,000, an indication of what the result would be should Mr. Bryan be successful, and the terrible doctrines of the Chicago platform be enforced in this nation. The only salvation for the nation is in the triumph of right principles. No country can prosper with the turbulent, disloyal, and discontented element in power.

PROCLAMATION.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 29, '96.

To Our Friends and Patrons:

For the last two years most of our business has been cash.

Now we realize it will be necessary to either increase our percentage of credit or abandon it entirely. We have decided that the latter is altogether the most desirable, both for our customers and ourselves; as cash and one price means uniform treatment for all. Consequently, on and after Oct. 1, our terms will be strictly cash, with positively no goods charged. In pursuing this course we shall make a great saving in the expense of conducting our business, and also avoid frequent losses by worthless accounts. Our patrons will derive the benefit of all this saving in the future as we can sell our goods lower for cash than those who are conducting a general credit business, who must necessarily include these expenses and losses in their margin of profit.

Assuring you of our thorough appreciation of your patronage in the past, we will make it still more to your advantage to purchase "reliable footwear" from us in the future.

Yours respectfully,

JACOBS & ALLMAND,

Washington Block, Washington St.

The multitude of advertising schemes with which our merchants have been deluged, and in many instances, no doubt, blackmailed, is astonishing. And what is more astonishing is the fact that so many of them are talked into patronizing what certainly has the appearance of snides. It is a constant "hold up your hands and deliver," with Ann Arbor business houses. And over three-quarters of the schemes are as valueless as the paper they are printed on.

At one time in this city a list of the names of those who signed the call for an election on the local option question was kept by a certain class of democratic politicians here, and every man on the list was marked for slaughter by them. Now the prohibitionists have joined hands with the democrats, and all who vote a democratic ticket must vote for one or more prohibitionist! Just wait until you hear from the 2d ward, Freedom, Lodi and Bridgewater upon this unholy alliance.

If any of our citizens desire to know what effect free coinage will have upon our money, they can learn for themselves by going to Dean & Co's store. By purchasing a half dollar's worth of goods and offering one of our silver dollars in payment, they will receive the goods and a Mexican silver dollar in change which contains more pure silver than our own silver dollar. If we have free coinage that Mexican dollar will be worth more than our own—not because either will raise in value, but because the Mexican dollar is worth the most.

"I wonder why our merchants and business men pay so little attention to having their places of business numbered? Here I have traveled an entire block, and have found only two or three places numbered." This was said by a prominent citizen a day or so since, when he was in search of a certain business house. There was a cry kept up a few years ago until the council had the names of the streets placed on each corner. Now the council ought to complete the job by compelling every one, if they have not sufficient enterprise to do so voluntarily, to place upon their buildings or residences the proper number.

Among the many new comers to our city this fall, are Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Phelps, of Webster, who have built for themselves a fine house on S. Division street.

The social reception announced to be given by the Y. P. S. C. E., of the Presbyterian church or McMillan hall on Saturday evening of this week, will be postponed until the evening of Friday the 16th, when it will be held in the parlors of the church.

Thos. C. Colburn of the Firm of Parker, Colburn & Schneider, was married last evening, to Miss Margaret Van Slyke, at the home of the bride's parents, on Cornwell st., Rev. J. M. Geister performing the ceremony. The couple will reside on S. Division street.

Lyman D. James, who's well known to most of our citizens, writes to a friend in the city that Massachusetts will give McKinley over 100,000 majority. He also states that after a stay of ten days at Duluth—the hot bed of silverism in Minnesota—that he firmly believes that state is safe for McKinley, also.

An able-bodied Italian, pumping an accordion, accompanied by a little boy who looked to be about seven or eight years old, was about the streets Saturday. The poor little fellow would sing a song or two and then take up a collection. His face showed how difficult it was for him to sing, it being fairly painful to watch him. Every one expressed sympathy for the child, and would have given him liberally had they not known that not a cent would go to him. If there is no law in this state making it a crime to compel children to go about in this way there ought to be one, and this man should be made to obey it. That boy did not go about and sing from choice.

High School Notes—

The S. C. A. will meet Friday from 4:45 to 5:45 p. m.

The Cleonads debating society will meet from 3 to 5 p. m. Friday.

The drawing class will meet at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Room 14.

The Lyceum and Arena debating societies will hold their regular meetings Friday evening.

It is probable that the faculty will suppress the publishing of the Omega, the senior class publication.

The foot ball team will probably have a game with Adrian Saturday. It will be the opening of the season.

At the meeting of the Athletic Association held last Friday, Stove Neal was elected president, Dan Zimmerman foot ball manager, P. Bach and Phil Hall the board of control.

The Tennessee Jubilee Singers drew a small crowd at the High School hall Monday evening. Nevertheless they gave an excellent program, and if these excellent singers come again they will be sure of a large audience.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Electric Light
THE BEST

Some of the Advantages of Electric Light:

	Cubic feet of air vitiated.	Cubic feet of carbonic acid produced.	Heat produced in 1 lb Watt's raised 1° Fahrenheit.
12 c. p. Incandescent Lamp	None.	None.	13.8
12 c. p. Gas Light	345.25	3.21	278.6
12 c. p. Kerosene Lamp	376.30	3.54	282.6

Some of the Disadvantages of Gas:

Air consumed.	Carbonic Acid thrown off.
Heat.	Unsteadiness of Light.
Freezing Pipes.	Danger of Suffocation.
Humidity.	Danger from use of Matches.
Ceilings Blackened.	Water and Air in Pipes.
Sulphur thrown off.	Metals and Gildings Tarnished.
Ammonia thrown off.	Sulphuretted Hydrogen thrown off.
Gas cannot be inverted to throw light down.

None of these Disadvantages Accompany Electric Lighting.

In general the Incandescent Electric Light is much healthier and much more convenient to use than any other method of lighting, and is more economical for amount of light furnished than gas.

They Clear Their Consciences.

Among the many democrats who have recently decided to join the republican party of protection, is Hon. B. F. Havens of Terre Haute, Ind. Mr. Havens has been mayor of his city, a member of the state legislature, and was executive commissioner to the Columbian Exposition. His reasons for leaving the democratic party are given in pamphlet form. As Mr. Havens had been a member of that party ever since he was a voter, it can be readily understood that "it was not a pleasant thing to do"; but "in so doing," he says, "I have the approval of my own conscience." Referring to the tariff question, he had this to say:

Wilson Law Stamped as a Crime.
"The greatest crime in the nineteenth century against the business industries of our country was the passage of the Wilson bill. The destruction of the value of property, the destruction of the business interests of the country, the great army of unemployed, the reduction in the wages of labor are all the result of that law. The present hard times, commencing in 1893, and yet upon us, were caused by this law, just as the history of the country shows that the dreadful panics of 1819, 1837 and 1857 were caused by similar democratic free trade legislation on the tariff question.

"On the other hand, and in opposition to the ideas of the modern tariff reformer as embraced in the Wilson bill, we have the words, acts and deeds of Washington, Jefferson, Hamilton, Jackson, Madison, Clay, Webster, Lincoln, Blaine, Grant, McKinley and a host of other illustrious men. The legislation of the country, when following the advice and lines of policy marked out by this class of men, has always brought prosperity. When it has followed out the lines of the Wilson bill, ruin and disaster have been the result.

"The pathway of the Wilson bill has been strewn with suicides of congressmen, manufacturers, bankers, business men and laboring people. The record made by it should forever ruin politically its author and the party that passed and supported it.

"For thirty years this country lived under the tariff legislation of the republican party, and these thirty years were filled with such prosperity as no other government on earth has had. It is true that in that time we had both sorrow and trouble, but it was such sorrow and trouble as war brings, and the legislation of the republican party pulled us through the war and the inflation of the currency the war brought, and put us on a firm foundation in 1879. Grover Cleveland had one term of office in these thirty years, 1884-1888, when this first free trade theory advocated during his administration resulted in the election of the gallant soldier and statesman, Benjamin Harrison, as President of the United States.

Increase in the Public Debt.

"In the twelve years from 1880 to 1892, when Grover Cleveland was elected for the second time, the expenses of the government were all paid and $1,200,000,000 of the interest bearing debt was paid. When the war closed the public debt of the country was about $2,800,000,000. When President Cleveland was elected in 1892, under republican legislation on the financial and tariff questions (which had been enforced up to the end of his first term, for nearly thirty years), this interest bearing debt, by reason of such legislation, had been reduced to less than $1,000,000,000 when he went out of office at the close of his first term. One democratic president in four years of this period has increased the public debt $100,000,000 for each year that he has been president.

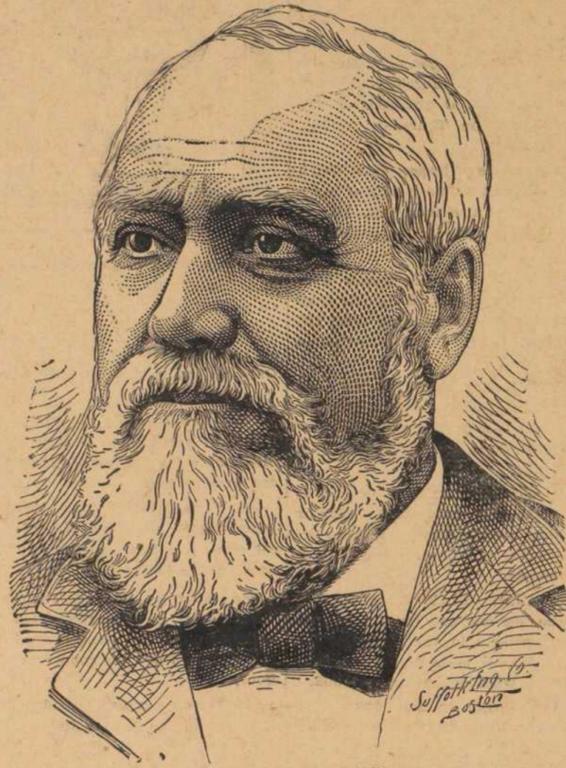

"To the people, democracy under Mr. Cleveland has been a very expensive institution. Under Mr. Cleveland's last term, and the democratic legislation on the tariff, the Wilson bill, what has happened in comparison with the twelve years, or any term of four years of the twelve, that preceded 1892? During the present administration of Mr. Cleveland the government interest bearing debt has been increased $260,000,000. The ordinary debt of the government has been increased about $140,000,000, making the legacy that he will turn over to the republican president who succeeds him an increase in the debt of the country during his term of about $400,000,000, and not a dollar of reduction made on the interest bearing debt of the nation. What a record! What incompetency!

"November, 1896, will complete the solution of our affairs, which started in November, 1894-95. Those who wish to continue the business situation as it is now, and the conducting of our public affairs as they are now, should vote the democratic ticket. Those who want that which we formerly had—prosperity—should vote the republican ticket."

GRANDEST OF TESTIMONIALS

Prove Dr. Greene's Nervura the Best Medicine in the World.

Vermont's Eminent Judge White Advises People to Use Dr. Greene's Nervura. It Will Cure Them.

JUDGE EDWIN C. WHITE.

The greatest and best known of our people use, praise and recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Women in every walk of life enthusiastically proclaim the wonderful powers of this truly grand medicine to cure, to make the sick well, to give back health and strength to weak, tired, nervous and debilitated people.

Hon. Henry Robinson, Mayor of Concord, N. H., says, "I have found health, strength, buoyancy and courage by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura."

Senator Frank Plumley of Northfield, Vt., says, "I used Dr. Greene's Nervura for exhaustion with entire success."

State Attorney of Vermont, W. H. Taylor, of Hardwick, Vt., says, "My wife profited by the use of Dr. Greene's Nervura for neuralgia, and extreme nervous condition and sleeplessness. I have no hesitation in recommending its use."

Senator Geo. W. Randall of Waterbury, Vt., says, "Dr. Greene's Nervura cured me. It is a good thing, yes, a grand thing, for I have found it so in my case."

Hon. Geo. W. Wing, Mayor of Montpelier, Vt., says, "I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura in my family with marked and decided benefit."

Senator Victor I. Spear, of Braintree, Vt., says, "My wife was troubled with nervous debility bordering on nervous prostration and had eczema. Dr. Greene's Nervura produced very satisfactory results."

Senator George A. Morse, of Morrisville, Vt., says, "I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura in my family. It has been of benefit to us in sleeplessness arising from nervousness. I recommend it to anybody."

And now comes the strong testimonial

Slumber Song.

Slumber, slumber, little one, now
The bird is asleep in his nest on the bough;
The bird is asleep, he has folded his wings,
And over him softly the dream-fairy sings:
Lullaby, lullaby—lullaby!
Pearls in the deep—
Stars in the sky,
Dreams in our sleep;
So lullaby!

Slumber, slumber, little one, soon
The fairy will come in the ship of the moon;
The fairy will come with the pearls and the stars,
And dreams will come singing through shadowy bars:
Lullaby, lullaby—lullaby!
Pearls in the deep—
Stars in the sky,
Dreams in our sleep;
So lullaby!

Slumber, slumber, little one, so,
The stars are the pearls that the dream-fairies know,
The stars are the pearls, and the birds in the nest,
A dear little fellow the fairies love best:
Lullaby, lullaby—lullaby!
Pearls in the deep—
Stars in the sky,
Dreams in our sleep;
So lullaby!

FRANK DEMPSTER SHREMAN in September Ladies' Home Journal.

of Judge Edwin C. White, of Hyde Park, Vt., who is one of Vermont's most eminent and widely-known statesmen and Judge of the Probate Court. Judge White says, "I have used Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in my family and am pleased to say, with good results. My wife had been troubled with indigestion, which produced nervousness which might have been serious and at times troubled her greatly. We had tried many things for her relief, but without success.

"I saw the wonderful cures claimed for Dr. Greene's Nervura and resolved to give it a trial, and it gives me pleasure to say, I am glad I did. My wife now sleeps well and is greatly benefited from indigestion, having had only one slight return (where they had been daily) since taking the Nervura. I give permission to print this unqualified testimonial."

Can anyone hesitate to use this great cure, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, when so many eminent statesmen, public officials and prominent men known all over our country advise you to use it because it cured them or their families? You know that the words of these great men are given only in the cause of truth and because they know Dr. Greene's Nervura cures and they desire to see the sick made well.

Dr. Greene's Nervura is a physician's prescription, the discovery of the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, hence it is of necessity perfectly adapted to cure, and health and strength always follow its use. Dr. Greene can be consulted without charge in regard to any case, personally or by letter.

Good Advice if not Followed—

When you call at the office for your mail and the postmaster hands it out, ask him if that's all. If you ask him for your mail and he tells you there is none, tell him there ought to be, then go home and send the rest of the family around at different times during the day. Don't bring your mail to the post-office until the mail closes, then sail into the postmaster for not opening the mail bag and putting your letter in. When you want a stamp on your letter tell the postmaster to put it on. If he don't lick it lick him. In case you put it on yourself, soak it in your mouth long enough to remove the mucilage; it will stick then until dry. Be sure to ask the postmaster to credit you with a stamp; if he has any accommodation about him he will do it. If you have a box, stand and drum on it until the postmaster hands out your mail. It will make him feel good, especially if he is waiting on some one else.

Think it Over.

Have you ever heard of a medicine with such a record of cures as Hood's Sarsaparilla? Don't you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla, the One True Blood Purifier, has proved, over and over again, that it has power to cure, even after all other remedies fail? If you have impure blood you may take Hood's Sarsaparilla with the utmost confidence that it will do you good.

Chancery Notice.

State of Michigan, Washtenaw County—in Chancery.
Dated, September 4, A. D. 1896.
Morris Hall and Joseph H. Woodman, complainants vs. Agnes S. Flickinger, Daniel B. Flickinger and The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, defendants.
Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery, at Ann Arbor on the 4th day of September, A. D. 1896. In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file that the defendant, The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, is not a resident of this state, but resides at Rochester, in the State of New York, on motion of John W. Bennett, Complainant's Solicitor, it is ordered that the said defendant, The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, cause its appearance to be entered herein, within four months from the date of this order and in case of its appearance that it cause its answer to the complainant's Bill of Complaint to be filed, and a copy thereof to be served on said complainant's Solicitor, within twenty days after service on it of a copy of said bill, and notice of this order; and that in default thereof, said bill be taken as confessed by the said non-resident defendant.
And it is further ordered, that within twenty days the said complainants cause a notice of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county, and that such publication be continued there at least once in each week, for six weeks in succession, on or after the date of this order to be personally served on said non-resident defendant, at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for its appearance.
E. D. KINNE, Circuit Judge.
J. W. BENNETT, Complainant's Solicitor.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made and executed by Darwin Nelson and Lydia J. Nelson, his wife, of Salem, Washtenaw County, State of Michigan, to Henry Yanson, of the same place; and assigned by said Henry Yanson to Charles Yanson; and further assigned by said Charles Yanson to Lucinda M. Yanson; and further assigned by said Lucinda M. Yanson to William H. Weed, which said last assignment was recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County in liber 12 of assignments on page 891, August 16th, 1887; said original mortgage having been recorded in liber 82 of mortgages, page 727 on the 26th day of March, 1877, at 2 1/2 p. m. On which mortgage there is claimed to be due and owing at the date of this notice the sum of Five hundred and ten and seventy-two hundredths dollars ($510.72), also an attorney's fee provided for in said mortgage and allowed by statute; and no suit or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover the moneys secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and the statute in such case made and provided; notice is hereby given that on Saturday, December 13th, 1896, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at the south door of the court house in the city of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw County, Michigan, (that being the place and building where the circuit court for the county of Washtenaw is held) the premises described in said mortgage or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount of said mortgage with nine per cent interest and all legal costs, expenses and attorney's fees contained for or agreed upon therein. The premises being described as follows in said mortgage: "Being subdivision No. four as set off to Charlotte Knapp by the commissioners in partition in the estate of Henry Whipple, deceased, known, bounded and described as follows: Being twenty-seven acres south of the road and off from the west side of the east half of the southwest quarter of section No. twenty-seven in township No. one south, range seven east, township of Salem, Washtenaw County, Michigan.

THE NEW YORK WORLD.

That Democratic Newspaper Asks Some Pertinent Questions of Mr. Bryan.

Will not free coinage at 16 to 1 reduce the value of the dollar by about one-half?

Will it not be in fact a repudiation of about one-half of all our debts, public and private?

Is there not danger that it will cause the return to us of all the American securities held abroad—government, railroad and industrial stocks and bonds—thus precipitating a panic of gigantic proportions, with long years of depression to follow?

Will not your election upon the Chicago platform cause the calling in, between November and March, of all collectable debts, all loans and mortgages that have expired? And will not this produce such a distress as this country has never known, particularly in the west and south, where capital and credit are most needed and depend upon CONFIDENCE as their basis?

Will not free and unlimited coinage drive all the five or six hundred millions of gold and gold certificates out of use as money or as bank reserves? Will it not cause a currency contraction of the most disastrous proportions, inasmuch as the utmost capacity of the mints to coin silver cannot make good this withdrawal for several years to come?

Will not free coinage place us at once on a financial level with Mexico, India and China, and can we afford to go upon that level?

Is there any country in the world to-day which gives free and unlimited coinage to silver? Mexico does not. India does not. None of the Central or South American states do. We know of no country that does, of no example that can be studied.

Is there any country in the world now on the silver basis which is as prosperous as the United States even in this time of depression? Is there any in which wages are so high as they are here, or in which the dollar received in wages will buy so much? Is there any silver-basis country that has a large commerce, prosperous manufactures or a well-to-do agricultural class? Is it not a fact that in every silver-basis country in the world abject and hopeless poverty on the part of the masses is the rule?

Will you explain to us for our enlightenment and guidance how our country is to escape like conditions if we go on a silver basis, or how we are to avoid the lapse to that basis if we adopt free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1 when the commercial ratio between the metals is about twice that?

And if you will tell us, as many free coinage advocates do, that free coinage will raise the commercial value of silver to the coinage rate, will you explain to us how in that case free coinage is to make money cheaper or easier to get, how it is to relieve "the debtor class," how it is to increase the price of wheat or any other commodity?

You may be aware that there was last year on deposit in the savings banks of New York state alone $643,872,574. This enormous sum belonged to 1,615,178 depositors, giving an average to each of $398.63. It represents mainly the small savings of the thrifty poor. Nearly all of it has been deposited since the present standard of value was adopted by the government. Do you think it is fair or just to impair 47 per cent, or by even 1 per cent, the value of the money in which these deposits were earned and in which to-day they would be paid?

There are in New York state 88,719 pensioners. They drew from the government last year nearly $14,000,000. Considering the nature of this debt of honor—when justly due—can you look with favor upon any policy that might result in paying them in a depreciated currency? There are in this country 5,838 building and loan associations, of which 418 are in New York. These associations have 1,745,725 shareholders—all of the working and saving classes. Their assets last year were $450,667,594, represented chiefly by mortgage loans to home-seekers, of which 455,000 are members of the association. These associations have nearly all been organized within the last fifteen years under the existing money standard. Can you think it fair or beneficial to the working people to reduce by 47 per cent, or any lesser sum, the value of these investments of the thrifty poor?

Is it not a fact worth consideration in proposing a descent to the silver standard that the thirty-nine oldest life insurance companies alone doing business in New York state last year had in force nearly 2,000,000 policies, insuring over $5,000,000,000. The assessment companies and various benevolent orders have a vast amount more. Would it not be an injury and a wrong to the beneficiaries of these policies—the widows and orphans, whom a provident love had sought to protect—to compel them to receive in payment depreciated money? The "rise in prices" which you predict as a result of free silver coinage would, of course, mean an increase in the cost of living to all the people—to wage earners, salaried men and the whole body of consumers. Do you know of any case in which a rise in wages or salaries has been parallel with the rise in prices? Is there any way to render it certain, or even probable, that the wage-earners will be compensated for the increased cost of living?

You attribute the decline in silver to the demonetization of the silver dollar in 1873, though that dollar was not then coined in any considerable numbers, and was not in circulation at all, owing to the fact that silver bullion was worth more in the market than at the mint. Do you not consider that the increase in the world's silver production from 61,100,000 ounces in 1873 to 165,000,000 ounces in 1895 had something to do in causing this decline, even though gold, the standard money of all the great commercial nations, and the most sought after of money metals, has also increased its yield meanwhile?

You speak of the "crime against silver" involved in suspending the coinage of non-sterling dollars. Has your attention been called to the fact that the government coined only 296,600 silver dollars in 1873, but that from January 1 to June 30, of this year it coined 7,500,412, or 908,691 more than in the eighty-one years of its history up to 1873?

These questions are asked in all sincerity. The World would be rejoiced to have it made clear that the policy of free and unlimited coinage at 16 to 1 involved no danger to the country, but promises prosperity to all the people. It would be relieved to have its apprehensions allayed and its misconceptions, if they are misconceptions, corrected.

SEWALL AT HIS HOME.

"European wages are good enough for American workmen."

This declaration according to a prominent citizen of this place, was made by Arthur Sewall, Vice Presidential candidate on the Democratic national ticket, to him personally soon after Mr. Sewall began to take active interest in his father's business affairs.

"This declaration," said the citizen quoted, "has been the ruling principle of Mr. Sewall in his relations to workmen from the time he gave utterance to it until now. After he assumed control of the Sewall shipyard Mr. Sewall began his active campaign of wage reduction, which he has never relinquished, and which has made him the most unpopular employer of labor in this city. His record is known, and he will get few votes of laboring men in the whole state of Maine."

PLENTY OF EVIDENCE.

This spoke an employer of labor who had risen from his ranks by hard work and attention to business, and with his permission. The Press's special correspondent went among his employes in search of men who had worked for Mr. Sewall, whose own yard is now idle—in fact, was almost closed with a strike the last ship built was launched.

The Press's special correspondent found men by scores who had worked for Mr. Sewall, and each and every one substantiated the statements before quoted. "Mr. Sewall," said a caller who was seen is only doing now what he has always been doing. In advocating free silver he is trying to cut down our wages. We understand the whole question, and are going to do all we can to prevent him carrying out his plan, just as we have done before. We can't strike now, but we can vote against him, and we are going to do so."

CAN'T CARRY HIS OWN FAMILY. A man engaged fitting some iron on the bow of a vessel stopped work a moment and declared that he and all others who know from experience or report of Mr. Sewall's antagonism to labor would certainly do all they could to defeat him. "Why," said he, "Mr. Sewall can't carry his own family, his own precinct, ward, county or state, and I don't believe he can carry this Nation, with or without Mr. Bryan at the head of the ticket. If Mr. Sewall's labor record were shown up as it should be, Mr. Bryan's eloquence could not explain it away to the satisfaction of the laboring men of this country."

Mr. Sewall during the last twenty years has had frequent troubles with his employes, caused in the majority of cases by unsatisfactory treatment or the wage question. Of all these disturbances the most serious was the strike of 1887-1888, when operations in his shipyard were entirely suspended because of a reduction in wages which the men though not only unfair and unjust, but unreasonable and dishonest.

LABOR DETESTS HIM. In short, laboring men throughout Maine are against Arthur Sewall because he has been and is now against them, and because they believe that he further is advocating free silver from selfish motives, there being a report current that he owns $97,000 of silver mine stock. Be this as it may—for it does not cut much of a figure compared to more tangible reasons for opposing him—the fact remains that Arthur Sewall is the most disliked of any capitalist in Maine, and will have the labor vote solidly against him.

CAN CURE ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER.

A Noted Physician Offers to Prove This to all Sufferers in Ann Arbor.

The majority of sufferers from Asthma and kindred complaints, after trying doctors and numberless remedies advertised as positive cures without avail, have come to the conclusion that there is no cure for this most distressing disease, and these same persons will be the more in doubt and skeptical when they learn through the columns of the press that Dr. Rudolph Schöffmann, the recognized authority who has treated more cases of these diseases than any living doctor, has achieved success by perfecting a remedy which not only gives immediate relief in the worst cases, but has positively cured thousands of sufferers who were considered incurable. These were just as skeptical as some of our readers now are. Dr. Schöffmann's remedy no doubt possesses the merit which is claimed for it or he would not authorize this paper to announce that he is not only willing to give free to each person suffering from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchitis in this city, one liberal "free trial box" of his Cure, but urgently requests all sufferers to call at Good-year's Drug Store, Ann Arbor, within the next three days and receive a package absolutely free of charge, knowing that in making the claim he does for his Cure, a strong doubt may arise in the minds of many and that a personal test, as he offers to all, will be more convincing, and prove its merits, than the publishing of thousands of testimonials from persons who have been permanently cured by the use of his Asthma Cure. "Dr. Schöffmann's Asthma Cure," as it is called, has been sold by druggists of this city ever since it was first introduced, although many persons may never have heard of it, and it is with a view to reaching these that he makes this offer. This is certainly a most generous and fair offer, and all who are suffering from any of the above complaints should remember the date and place where the distribution will be made, and avail themselves of the same. Persons living out of this city who desire to test the efficacy of this most wonderful remedy will receive a package free by writing to Dr. Schöffmann, 330 Rosabel street, St. Paul, Minn., providing their letter is received before Oct. 16th, as no free samples can be obtained after that date.

DOWN THE BLUE DANUBE

In an Open Boat—Tenth Letter of this interesting Voyage.

Heldelberg, Germany, Sept. '96.
Buda-pest is deserving of a eulogist, who has no other duty to perform, than to describe and praise. I can't convert myself into a guide book, all starred, double starred and swelling with flatulent language. I must egotistically tell you what we did—supposing your interest to be centered upon the Don and his Sancho. I shall tell how we saw "Odal" printed in large letters on every ferry and street car, and concluded that was the Hungarian name for any means of transportation; but it wasn't. It was a new tooth paste. Then how our friend reverently took off his hat and compelled me to do likewise when we entered the sacred precincts of a drug store, and again at the bank. "They have a university education," he said in a hushed and awed voice. Again, you must know how we repeatedly had collisions on the walks, until our friend informed us that in Hungary everyone turns to the left in passing. Very proudly our host took us to the New York Cafe, which he himself had designed. His pride was quite justifiable for the building is a beautiful Renaissance structure, one of the finest in the city. There we read the New York Herald, and drank some of the best coffee I ever tasted. Of course we went out to the exposition grounds. The Fair is not so pretentious as our great World's Fair was, but has the charm of novelty in its buildings and contents.

In the city are beautiful broad boulevards, with quadruple lines of large trees. Handsome mansions of wonderfully artistic designs, flank these great thoroughfares. Buda is a modern and elegant city in every respect.
A last visit to a restaurant, where we ate some most marvelous of fancy cakes and ices, and then farewell to the Hungarian pride and greetings to our little blue boat again. From the river, as we were leaving Buda, we could see the little city of Constantinople, built on the right bank to advertise Paine's fire-works. Domes and minarets and other oriental architecture make the miniature very effective. This reminds me also of the Turkish Chapel in Pest Gul—Baba (the father of roses) is buried beneath this mosque. Thousands of Turks came afoot to visit this Saracen sacrum. In the peace of Karlowitz, the Emperor promised the Parte to preserve this monument.

But to resume our journey. You must know that for over 200 miles below Buda-pest the Danube traverses the monotonous Hungarian plain. Yes, it is monotonous as far as scenery is concerned, but the people—well, I shall tell you about them. And the monotony is a beautiful monotony, one that it takes a number of days to appreciate its tiresome nature. For strange experiences just visit that same plain.

Night had not settled upon us before I had an adventure weird enough. We wanted fresh water and stopped at a small town to get it. I left the faithful Sancho at home—viz., the little boat drawn on shore—and went up to the first building which I saw. Having expressed my desire in mutilated Hungarian, I was taken in tow by a wizened old man. He entered a courtyard, passed through it, came to a blind door and whistled. The door opened and a half naked man with huge corded muscles and coarse features beckoned me to enter. All was dark behind him, and the gruesome odor which came out of the strange cavity made me hesitate, then plunge in, resolved to see what might happen. The little old man had growled out the Hungarian monosyllable for water and closed the door. My new guide lighted a candle and stumbled along before in a curving tunnel which went steeply down, down into the earth. This continued for perhaps a hundred feet and then the monster halted and pointed to a faucet in the wall. I filled my pail with water, was conducted back by my silent guide, and at the door was met by the old man. He smiled grimly as I thanked him, and I hurried back to the boat. We kept on the river too late that night and were between two steep banks, when we decided to land. I rowed from one shore to the other (the Danube is nearly half a mile wide at this point) until nearly exhausted. The moon came up, but our thoughts were considerably below the moon. We wanted a camping place not moonlight scenery. At last we effected a landing and soon slumbered and forgot our woes.

On the following day we stopped at a village to buy food. The towline of a small barge passed over our boat and, as I loosed it after raising it above us, it fell amid a large flock of geese swimming near shore. Such an uproar as they made would have saved Rome up to date, if it were not for the anachronism. We got ice water at the post-office, eggs at a cigar store, and fish from one of six old women, who sat in a circle in a corner of a platz. Each looked piously into one of six tubs, filled with the funny tribe, and acted more like nuns than market women.
Hardly were we well afloat again, when one of those aquatic monsters, a steam barge, appeared coming around a bend of the river. It had 7 consorts, and would have frightened us off the river two weeks before. But familiarity breeds contempt, and a sudden inspiration came to me. "I am going to fasten our home to that life boat behind that last barge!" I exclaimed. "You don't dare," said the imprudent Sancho. That settled it. In stead of getting out of the way I rowed to a position only a few yards out of the course of the river monster, and waited. As they passed, the waves tumbled us about pretty severely, but by the time the last of the 7 consorts was opposite us the water was quite calm. I rowed frantically for the life boat and throwing myself flat in the bow of our boat, grasped the stern of the life boat and awaited results. We swung in line, and rushed through the water at a delightful pace. "Shall I tie?" I questioned Sancho. "Of course," was the reply. Modesty is no good comrade for a needy man. I tied our craft, while the captain of the barge stood and grinned, seeming to enjoy the fun. Such fortune! We covered over 100 miles that day, and the country on both sides of the river was swampy, low and uninteresting. The curiosity of the barge people grew stronger every hour and at last they sent a deputy, who could speak German, to interview us. We told our story and when he had reported it, we had the breathless attention of our audience until dusk, when we sadly severed our connections with our fast company, and went into night quarters ashore. From fearing the lightning, man has come to play with it and harness it. So we had learned to harness the monster of the deep.

At dawn we arose and discovered a peasant's house near us. In fact we had heard men's voices singing all night long and before rising had held a levee. A group of peasants had surrounded our boat and the closed tent and asked questions. We answered like the Delphic oracle, from our hiding place within our mosquito proof sanctum. After we explained all about it to a market woman, who spoke German, we were left in peace. We went up to the farm house and asked for milk. Amariyis took my pail, chased a cow into a fence corner, and extracted a litre of the required fluid, for which she charged us about 2 cents. Then she descended upon the hen roost and return with six eggs for about 4 cents.

Once more afloat, how slowly we seemed to go! It took a week to feel contented again. There was much to keep the attention now. The bank rose 5 feet from the water and then stretched away level to the horizon. On this stage were enacted many strange scenes. Processions of cows drawing high loads of hay along this bank look like an ancient Egyptian frieze. More in the next letter. C. H. VAN TYNE.

Bryan at his Home—

"Yes, I know Mr. Bryan," was the answer of a gentleman from Lincoln, Nebraska, with whom the Courier representative was conversing, a few days since. "While he is a good citizen and a reputable gentleman, he is not considered above the mediocre as we rate our lawyers there. He has considerable local fame as a talker, but he is not considered a deep thinker, a good reasoner or a strong man. This is especially true in respect to his standing at the bar. It was a great surprise to everyone in Nebraska who knew him, that he should receive a presidential nomination. He is not a democrat as we have always understood democracy, but a pure populist, and has at different times so announced himself."

"Will he be able to carry Nebraska for the silver cause?" was asked.
"I am very certain that he will not. I was in at the republican headquarters in Omaha recently, and there is a great confidence that McKinley will carry the state by a handsome majority. If anyone has money to bet he can find plenty, both at Omaha and Lincoln, that Mr. Bryan will not carry his own precinct, his own ward, his own city, his own county, or his own state. Offers were being freely made of $2 to $1 on each of these propositions, with no takers."

"The fact is the people of Nebraska, while they would be proud of having a president, do not have confidence in Mr. Bryan's ability or stability, either one. We feel that he would be as clay in the hands of such designing men as Altgeld and Tillman, and that Nebraska's glory would prove her shame. That's the way we feel in Nebraska, and the feeling is not confined to republicans, but is shared by the best men of all parties."

Has Ideas About the Judgeship—

Editor Courier:—

As an old citizen of this county, and as a man who has a family, and one who hopes to leave that family something in the event of death, I am considerably interested in the office of judge of probate, not more so, it is presumable, than are other parents similarly situated.

This office has been given in the past to the older men of the party, men who have had experience in life, not only in practice at the bar, but in business matters also. I have no fault to find with the conduct of this office in the past. Washtenaw county has been fortunate in the men chosen to fill it. For twelve years Mr. Harriman made one of the best probate judges in Michigan, as any man will tell you who had business to transact with him, no matter what their personal feelings may have been. Mr. Babbitt has also made a good judge, the only fault being in his inability to give his full time to the position, which he should have done, and which should be required of every man elected to the position.

This year each party presents for that office men of unquestionable character and good attainments, but there are some points of difference between the two candidates, that I believe will influence a great many men when they come to vote.

This office is one that there can be no politics in. The question to be considered by the voter is, "which is the most capable man to manage the affairs of the widow and the orphan when their natural protector is gone?"

In the democratic candidate, who is a native of this county, we have a young unmarried man, who is at present city attorney of Ann Arbor, at a salary of $1,000 per year. He is honest, and capable so far as his abilities and experience go, but he has had little business experience, not even the experience that a man gets who is at the head of a family. If called upon to handle estates, he would not have the practical knowledge which seems to me necessary, of how a household should be managed, or any practical ideas of how much it should cost to support a family. This may seem trifling, and yet to thinking people who are interested, it is a great deal. It is knowledge and experience that every man who occupies the position of judge of probate should possess. Mr. Kearney has good abilities as a lawyer, but has never been forced by circumstances nor naturally inclined to make the most of his abilities.

In the candidate presented by the republican party, we have also a native of this county. Unlike his opponent, he has been compelled from boyhood up, to make the most of his opportunities.

Like his opponent, he is a graduate of the University. He has had sufficient practice, and held positions that have proven his ability as a lawyer. He is a man of family, a point very much in his favor, in the humble opinion of the subscriber. For two or three years he has been cashier of the Dexter Savings Bank, at a salary of $1,000 per year, I understand. Entering the bank entirely new to the business he has successfully managed its affairs, and thus proved his capability as a business man. This is another point in his favor. Instead of being obliged to gain business experience after entering upon the duties of the probate office, he has already attained the qualifications that will enable him to go forward without experimenting—experiments are sometimes costly. For one I should not like to have what little I may leave used for experimental purposes. He is also older in years and no doubt in discretion. Although I have never taken any part in politics, yet in this office I am greatly interested.

Parдон me for trespassing to such an extent upon your valuable space, but these are my reasons for voting for Mr. Newkirk, the republican candidate for judge of probate this year, in which reasons I thought perhaps others might be somewhat interested.

Now is Bryan moving eastward
On a hurricane of language,
Sweeping all the earth with speeches
Driving dry the Mississippi
With his whizzing talk tornado;
Filling all the air with mouthiness,
Filling all the earth with chitchiness,
Filling all the sea with jawiness,
Filling all the sky with wordiness,
Loading every vale with language,
Piling high the hills with utterance,
Giving off his oratory
As an onion drops its peeling,
Cankling all the cracks of silence,
Never stopping for a moment,
With his eloquent stuffing,
Hurling great spellbinding cart loads
Of his many worded thoughts
At an unoffending people,
Scraping down the stars of heaven
To be used as punctuation
Marks in his magniloquences;
Never stopping for a moment,
Comes he eastward in September,
On a hurricane of language,
On a roaring tide of language,
On a tidal wave of language,
On an autumn flood of language,
On a wild stampede of language,
In a reckless mob of language,
Down a cartload of language;
Rushing, roaring, pounding, crashing,
Slashing, smashing, smooching, sounding,
Slapping, slapping, slapping, slapping,
Whooping, whooping, whooping, whizzing,
Language, language, language, language!

Association Meeting at Dexter—

A meeting to the Teachers' Association of Washtenaw county will be held at High School building, Dexter, Saturday, Oct. 17th.

The following program will be carried out:

Forenoon Session 10 a. m.
Music.
Miss Josephine Hoppe— Teaching Civil Government.
Miss Margaret McGuinnis— Some Bars to Success in our County Schools.
Music.

Afternoon Session 2 p. m.
Music.
Miss Nellie De La Force— The Educational Value of History.
Miss Anna Bross— Teaching Reading.

Mr. Grant Douglass— Science work in the District Schools.
Miss Dora Harrington— Number work in the Grades.
Music.

All teachers are earnestly requested to be present and take part in the discussion of these papers, which promise to be of unusual interest.

Will They do it?—

Will the Daily Times and the Argus have the fairness to give Garret A. Hobart's denial of the campaign lie they published that he is interested in, or in any way, directly or indirectly connected with the coal trust that has put up the price of coal? They have made the charge, and they ought to be fair enough to give Mr. Hobart's reply to the falsehood. The statement is a lie as black as the coal itself, and has been made with the distinct and only purpose of unfairly influencing votes against the republicans.

Song Journal for October—

The Song Journal, which has joined the popular magazines in price, selling for ten cents, is a beauty for October. To add to its value in this locality it has an entertaining article by Rossiter G. Cole, upon "The Relation of Music to Education." This question is one that is being discussed in not only musical publications, but in all the periodicals of the day, and is attracting more attention than ever before; as a consequence Mr. Cole's paper is timely, as well as excellent. The lover of music who gets along without the journal loses a great deal.

Another Theatre Train—

To Toledo Friday evening, October 9th, Leaving Ann Arbor station at 5 o'clock p. m., returning from Toledo at 11:30 p. m. Fare for the round trip 75 cents. Palmer Cox's Brownies at the Valentine, and "A Boy Wanted" at the People's, are the attractions.
E. S. GILMORE, Agt.

We live in a country of which the principal scourge is stomach trouble. It is more wide-spread than any other disease, and, very nearly, more dangerous.

One thing that makes it so dangerous is that it is so little understood. If it were better understood, it would be more feared, more easily cured, less universal than it is now.

So, those who wish to be cured, take Shaker Digestive Cordial, because it goes to the root of the trouble as no other medicine does. The pure, harmless, curative herbs and plants, of which it is composed, are what render it so certain and, at the same time, so gentle a cure.

It helps and strengthens the stomach, purifies and tones up the system. Sold by druggists, price 10 cents to $1 per bottle.

Wisdom From McKinley.

Major McKinley in his masterly introduction to the great work on the tariff, "Protection and Prosperity," says:

The world knows of the wonderful progress we have made. The experience of the United States in diversifying industries and developing its home market, has contributed more or less to the growing disregard for the maxims of schoolmen and theorists and increased the value of the unimpeachable testimony of trade and experience.

The scope of Mr. Curtis' work practically covers the history of the world's trade and commerce. The author has undoubtedly devoted years of patient research to gathering and arranging his material and presenting his argument. After a careful examination of the results of this stupendous piece of work the fair-minded American student and reader will close the book with the conclusion that in our own American policy we have nothing to take back, nothing to apologize for. Under similar conditions our experience has been precisely the same as the experience of other nations. In some ways it has been England's own experience.

A low tariff or no-tariff has always increased the importation of foreign goods until our money ran out; multiplied our foreign obligations; produced a balance of trade against the country; supplanted the domestic producer and manufacturer; impaired the farmer's home market without improving his market abroad; undermined domestic prosperity; decreased the industries of the nation; diminished the value of nearly all our property and investments; and robbed labor of its just rewards. The lower the tariff the more widespread and aggravated have been these conditions which paralyze our progress and industries. This is the verdict of our history, and, as the author of this valuable work demonstrates, with a clearness that should carry conviction, it has been the verdict of history in the case of other nations, if facts and figures may be relied upon to point out such results.

Blaine On Free Silver.

If any man or any newspaper favored you that James G. Blaine ever told free coinage of silver at a fixed ratio, you would be justified in telling them they lie, for it is a falsehood. However some papers may garble and misquote what he said, they are simply lying when they try to make you believe it.

There are two paragraphs that are never quoted by the silverites, that followed what they do quote, and materially changes the meaning of their quotation. Neither the Detroit Tribune nor any other silver paper or speaker has yet had the fairness to quote Mr. Blaine right.

Here is what he did say in the same speech that the grabbed extracts quoted by silverites is taken from:
"If I were to venture upon a dictum on this silver question I should declare that until Europe remonetizes silver we cannot afford to coin a dollar as low as 41 1/2 grains."
"If we coin a dollar of full legal tender obviously below the current value of the gold dollar we are simply opening our doors and inviting Europe to take our gold. With our gold flowing out from us we will be forced to the silver standard and our relations with the leading commercial countries of the world will be not only embarrassed but hopelessly crippled."

It is said that a preacher, no matter where, recently tried to ride a bicycle, and met with such treatment from the machine that he expressed himself in this way: "These bladder wheeled bicycles are diabolical devices of the demon of darkness. They are contrivances to trap the feet of the unwary and skin the nose of the innocent. They are full of guile and deceit. When you think you have broken one to ride and have subdued its satanic nature, behold! it bucketh you off into the road and tears a great hole in your pants! Look not upon the bike when it bloweth like a broncho and hurteth like thunder! Who hath skinned legs? Who hath a bloody nose? Who hath ripped breeches? They that daily long with the bicycle.

ESTATE OF CHARLES SPOOR.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss.
At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Friday, the 22nd day of October in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety six.

Present, J. Willard Babbitt, Judge of Probate.
In the matter of the estate of Charles Spoor, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition duly verified of Susan Nichols, praying that a certain instrument now on file in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, may be admitted to probate and that administration of said estate may be granted to herself, the executor in said will named or to some other suitable person.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Monday, the second day of November next at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the devisees, legatees, heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the city of Ann Arbor, in said county, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. And it is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
[A true copy.] J. WILLARD BABBITT, Judge of Probate.

W. G. Doty, Probate Register.
