The Store

$10 $10

WHAT $10 WILL BUY IN OUR

STYLISH COATS.

Phenomenal value giving reaches its highest meridian in our cloak room this week.

THE OUTSIDE

Rough Cheviot Boucle, English Kersey, Irish Frieze, Smooth Cheviot. Colors—black, navy, brown, green and mixtures of blue, green, brown, tan and silver gray.

THE INSIDE

Lined with Fancy Taffeta Silks, exact duplicates of what we sell in our silk department for $1.25 and $1.50 a yard, 20 DIFFERENT EFFECTS.

THE STYLE

Franklin Fronts, High French Collar, Tight Sleeves with puff top, correct length, correct back.

THE VALUE

$15 does not represent the value of these coats. They would sell for more than that did we ask it for them.

Why then do we sell them for $10.00

We are alone in the Cloak Business in this city.

We want to keep our Cloak Room famous by such value giving as this, when customers who have visited the Cloak Rooms of Chicago and Detroit freely admit that they find here better styles and better values than the metropolitan cities afforded, it is conclusive evidence that we are exerting every effort in increasing the popularity of this department.

Mack & Company

ARE YOU USING OUR TOOTH PREPARATION, IF NOT, YOU ARE Missing a Good Thing.

Oriental Tooth Powder, large bottles, 25 cents.
Tartar Tooth Paste, in tubes, 15 cents.

The Verdict

Said Mr. M—the other day: "I want one of your seamless hot-water bottles that you warrant. I had one of them and it lasted six months with constant use. I bought two at — and they gave out very quickly."

We can give you the man's name if you want it.

These bottles will last two or three years with ordinary use.

GALKINS' PHARMACY.

$300,000 EVERY YEAR.

That's What the University Students Alone Pay to Farmers in This County for Produce.

A VALUABLE HOME MARKET.

The Most Valuable of any in the State and made by the University at Ann Arbor and the State Normal School at Ypsilanti

Some of our farmers are said to be prejudiced against the University. Why? No reason is ever given.

Take the University out of Ann Arbor and you would render tenantless fully one-half if not three-fourths of the dwellings therein. Render those dwellings tenantless, and scatter the thousands of students to other institutions, or new institutions in other places, and it would be a direct blow to the pocket-book of every farmer living within 25 miles of Ann Arbor in any direction.

A Fine Home Market—

There is not a place in the whole state, Detroit not excepted, that is a better market for everything in the line of a farmer's produce than Ann Arbor.

Did you ever think of it in that light my farmer friend?

These 3,000 students, one half of whom are from other states, leave in Ann Arbor yearly, at a low estimate $100 a piece that goes to purchase their food alone. That makes $300,000 a year which is distributed by them among the farmers in this section for wheat, flour, butter, eggs, potatoes, and all the produce raised for food purposes. Now add to that amount the money it takes to purchase the food for another 1,000 students attending the High School, School of Music and other institutions of the city, together with a population of 15,000 souls, and you can conceive something of the value of this city as a market.

What the Tax Payer has to Pay—

Now how much tax does a farmer—or any other person—have to pay for the support of this great University, that has given more prominence and fame to the state than all the other institutions it possesses? Why, for every $100 at which your property is valued on the assessment roll, you have to pay on an average the enormous amount of 1 1/2 cents—or 15 cents on every $1,000! Just think of it!

Its Effect on the Market—

"But" says a farmer, "I never go to Ann Arbor to sell anything. I always sell it here in Chelsea, or Dexter or Manchester or Saline." Supposing you do? The man you sell to finds a market because of the demand at Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti. Take away that demand and what would the prices be in the places where you do sell your produce? The Normal School at Ypsilanti, with her 1500 students, adds $15,000 more to the figures given for the University students. Did you ever think of it in that light?

How to Help This County—

Mr. Andrew J. Sawyer, through the urgent request of a large number of the friends of these two institutions, composed of both farmers and townspeople, consented to allow his name to be used for the office of representative in the state legislature. He consented, not because of his desire to go there, for it is a sacrifice on his part, but for the reason that these people urged him to do so, because they honestly believe that he would be the strongest man possible for this district to send to that body to prevent the attempt which is to be made this winter to dismember the University, and to cripple the Normal School by establishing other Normal Schools at public expense.

That is why Mr. Sawyer consented to run. And that is why we urge every man in this district, who has his own individual interests at stake, and the interests of these two great institutions at heart as well, to vote for Mr. Sawyer.

A Crisis is Coming—

This legislature will decide the fate of the University. A crisis is surely coming, and upon the action of this legislature depends the fate of these institutions. A strong attempt is to be made to dismember the University and divide it up among other places, and also to establish other Normal Schools, thus ruining this county and increasing taxation.

Detroit heads her delegation with that brainy, aggressive lawyer, Col. John Atkinson. Detroit knows what she is about. Now what will this county do?

Do not be Deceived—

Do not be deceived by partisan appeals. There is no politics in this. It is life or death for every man who owns a home in this county, as far as future prosperity is concerned. A grave, a very grave state of affairs exists. Every man who possesses a cent's worth of property in Washtenaw county is vitally interested. Strong men are being sent to Lansing this winter by every locality. All feel that it is a momentous time; that they need their strongest men there, and Washtenaw county can ill afford to take a position in any other place than at the head.

We all know Mr. Sawyer. We all know his ability; his fighting qualities; his sagacity and his worth as a legislator; and we all know that with him as a representative, no interest of the county, or of the people in general, either one, will be neglected. He will not only be an honor to this district, but he will be a valuable legislator for this county and this state.

No tax-payer, this year, can afford to make a mistake, for it may mean not only dollars to his pocket book, but such a reduction in the value of his property that he could not dispose of it at any price.

And the dismemberment of the University, and its establishment in secer places, together with more Normal Schools means higher—not lower taxes.

We have nothing to say in disparagement of Mr. Nordman, the opponent of Mr. Sawyer. He is a good citizen and would do the best he knew how in the office, but he could not command the influence a man from this district should command, and being entirely new to the position it would take him one term to find out the demands and requirements of the office. Mr. Sawyer, having had this experience, would take a front rank from the start. We appeal to every voter of Washtenaw county to think seriously over these statements

That Railroad Story—

Our friends, the enemy, have circulated the story that Mr. Sawyer is an attorney for the M. C. R. R., and is working in their interests. Here are the facts. Mr. Sawyer was offered the attorneyship at this place for the M. C. R. R., but refused. He could not afford to take it. What he has done, however, for those who have been injured by the railroad may astonish you to know.

He has had 22 cases against that company, and has collected $56,800 for people living in this county, and now has a case in the supreme court for $10,000 more.

That's the sort of a railroad attorney Mr. Sawyer is.

Secretary Carlisle was insulted and had eggs thrown at him at Covington Ky., where he made a speech on the money question; the Stars and Stripes, our emblem of liberty, were burned and otherwise desecrated at Altgeld meetings in Missouri and Illinois; republican speakers were rotten egged in the 18th ward of Chicago. Do you want to put the men in power who do such things? Is it safe to trust this nation in the hands of a man whose chief source of strength comes from the hoodlum element? Think about it, my patriotic friend, and think hard.

STAND BY PINGREE.

Many strong sound money men in the state who are not satisfied with Mr. Pingree's former leaning towards free silver are undecided how to vote on governor.

The Courier believes him to be an honest bimetalist, not wanting a single silver standard, nor a gold standard, but the two together. Whether this is feasible or not is beyond the issue at present. While the views of the candidate on silver are of the utmost importance if they are up for president, or congress, or state law makers, it is of small consequence on governor of a state.

Mr. Pingree or Mr. Sligh will be elected. When one knows the kind of man Mr. Sligh is it would greatly help in the decision. He has always been a disturber in the republican ranks in Kent Co.—an erratic office seeker, who got soured and left the party to plunge into the rankest kind of populism. If elected he would surround himself with these demagogues with all their freaks, crazes and dangerous crankisms. Such men are not the best ones to have at the head of state.

Mr. Pingree is honest fearless and incorruptible. We believe he would do a great deal of good at Lansing. The people cannot afford to give the opposition the prestige of Sligh's election, which would hurt in the future.

ANOTHER FALSEHOOD NAILED.

The statement being made by prohibitionists against McKinley, that he owns a building that is rented for a saloon is a falsehood. So high an authority as Rev. Dr. Buckley, of the New York Christian advocate has thoroughly investigated the slander and so pronounces it. His word ought to be sufficient for any reasonable man.

The End of an Expensive Litigation—

The end of a very long and expensive litigation has been reached in the estate of Lucy W. S. Morgan, after eight years in the New York courts.

In 1888, soon after the death of Mrs. Morgan, the Eames family commenced a suit at Watertown, N. Y., against the estate of Mrs. Morgan. They sought to recover a large property at Watertown, and they have claimed that they would recover a decree for a vast sum of money for rents, etc. The executors of Mrs. Morgan, namely, Franklin Parker, Otis C. Johnson and E. D. Kinne, were made parties to that suit. The trial in the supreme court in New York lasted some four months. The decision in the supreme court was a complete vindication of the Morgan estate. The Eames family appealed it to the court of general term. The decree of the supreme court was there fully affirmed. The Eames family then appealed it to the court of appeals, which is the last and final court. Judge Kinne yesterday received the intelligence that the court of appeals had at last affirmed the decrees of the other courts. It has been a long and expensive litigation. The fact that Mr. and Mrs. Morgan are both dead made it extremely difficult for the executors to protect the estate. It was, however, the wish of the heirs and legatees of Mrs. Morgan that not a dollar should be paid to compromise an unjust and dishonest claim, and now, after these many years, a full and complete victory has been awarded them.

The Eames family, insisting that they would recover a judgment in that suit, have sought to pose as creditors of the Morgan estate, but the end has now been reached, and the executors are to be congratulated upon the valiant and successful fight which they have made.

A Valuable Invention—

A new invention, which is a marvel in its way, is the post hole boring machine invented by Arthur Sweet of this city. He has made two machines, and one of them has been used to bore the holes in which to set the poles along the line of the Ann Arbor & Ypsilanti Electric St. R'y.

There were 5,261 holes to bore altogether, and the work was done in nine days of eight hours each, which is a marvelous record of 584 each day, an average of 73 each hour.

HON. H. WIRT NEWKIRK.

He has Traveled Rough Roads—

Hon. H. Wirt Newkirk the republican candidate for judge of probate, is something of a "joiner." He is the Worshipful Master of the Dexter Lodge F. & A. M., and among the best workers in the county in that prosperous order. He has also been a member of the I. O. O. F's. for some time, and is always on hand at his own lodge when anything is to be done. And last, but not least, he is an active member of that universally popular order the Knights of the Macabees of the world. In all these organizations Mr. Newkirk is prominent at home in Dexter village, and through them has made many friends and acquaintance throughout the county.

There is an old saying that when you want anything done give it to a busy man to do. This will apply to Mr. Newkirk, for although a busy man in taking care of the interest of the hundreds of depositors of the Dexter Savings Bank, he finds time to take and active part in all these things. Any mason will tell you that a good Worshipful Master has a great deal to do, and he is a good one.

Mr. Newkirk, if elected to the position of judge of probate, will be a prompt and capable official, and he will be on hand six days of every week. A good thing for voters to consider.

The Pluralities of the Past—

That our readers may have a guide to go by in comparing the election returns as they as they are reported next Tuesday night, we give the following table, showing the vote at the last two general elections. What do you think of a man that would so excite the audience that he was speaking to by his words, that they would take the American flag, and burn it to show their partisanship and their subservience to his views? Altgeld did that very thing in Illinois and Missouri both. He hates the stars and stripes, as all anarchists hate anything that represents law and good government. Altgeld, the anarchist, had the power, would turn this country from a republic to a monarchy in the twinkling of an eye. He is more dangerous to-day than the red handed murderers of the Chicago police that he pardoned out of prison. Do you want him for Secretary of State?

"For free silver pills take gold pills." Congress can give a piece of coin a name but it can not give it value.

Pitchfork Tillman is fighting for state's rights up north, and against human rights down south.

What do you think about it? How can congress make a piece of metal a dollar if it is not a dollar?

Congress might pass a law calling a rose a cabbage. But would such a law make the rose a cabbage?

Prejudice vs. Principle is the case on trial now. The jury will decide next Tuesday. On the result of the verdict depends the Prosperity of the People.

Congressman Francis J. Newlands, who goes about preaching silver, represents an estate of over $30,000,000 all made in silver mining. Isn't he worth enough now, without voting him any more?

The Adrian Press calls honest money officials who refuse to be blackmailed by Campau for the free silver cause, "dust wallowers." They will help knock the dust out of the free silverites, and don't you forget it.

The "Boston" silver mine of Montana, pays a dividend of 300 per cent.; why shouldn't it be for free silver? But really, my friends, isn't 300 per cent. enough? Doesn't it look just a little hoglish to ask for more?

Col. Wm. R. Morrison, the greatest statesman Illinois democracy has in her ranks to-day has come out in an "open letter" for honest money, and in opposition to Altgeld. The stampede to McKinley is of clyconic proportions.

Dr. W. H. Felton, one of the populist nominees for elector in Georgia, has withdrawn from the ticket and announced himself for McKinley. From all sources they come, they come. "And let them come, I repeat it, sir, let them come."

At a recent meeting in Detroit an old gentleman was present who had employed the speaker Hon. Don M. Dickinson, at $1 a day, to work on a tug boat, he having gained his education by hard earned money in that way. And he is called a plutocrat.

Uncle Sam: "Last call! All done? How much am I offered for this dollar?"

Bryan: "50 cents." McKinley: "100 cents." Uncle Sam: "McKinley gets it for 100 cents. Billie Bryan, you're not in it."

It is said that Bryan thinks himself a man of destiny, and accepts all favors as a matter of course. If Mr. Bryan will read history he will find that no man of destiny ever came into power by preaching a gospel of hate and prejudice. He will be forced to change the whole tenor of his character before destiny will mark him for a great man.

Only One Standard

You and we may differ as to money standards and out of our very differences good may come. But we won't differ as to the merits of one standard emulsion of cod-liver oil. SCOTT'S EMULSION has won and held its way for nearly 25 years in the world of medicine until to-day it is almost as much the standard in all cases of lung trouble, and every condition of wasting whether in child or adult as quinine is in malarial fevers.

Differ on the money question if you will, but when it comes to a question of health, perhaps of life and death, get the standard.

Your druggist sells Scott's Emulsion. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.

THE LAST APPEAL.

Next Tuesday is election. The excitement and worry of the political campaign will then cease, and the people of this great nation will decide by their ballots what policy shall be pursued for the coming four years.

It is of vital importance to every individual member of this great family whether that decision shall be for the policy of protection and sound money, or in favor of free trade and the inflation of our currency, for that is what free silver means.

Upon one side of this question is arrayed, in almost solid phalanx, the business men; the men of cool judgment; the men who look ahead and see for themselves what effect a change of policy would have; the men who know the value of their salaries or wages, and have no desire to lessen them; in fact the great conservative middle class, who compose the balance wheel between the extremely wealthy and the great army of those who never do well.

Upon the other side is to be found all the great mining interests of the west, representing millions upon millions of dollars—an amount, it is estimated, equal to one-half of the entire circulating medium of the nation; all the restless spirits who have nothing to lose, and may in the scramble of a panic grab something; all the people who act from prejudice and not from principle; all the class who believe the world owes them a living let them do what they will; all the men who accept and approve of the acts of their party convention and never think or act for themselves; all the prejudice of the south where anything labeled "republican" has the effect of a red rag before a bull; all the little fellows of the former great democratic party, who seeing the leaders and brainy men of that once powerful organization out of its ranks, hope to rise to leadership and prominence themselves; all those who hate anyone who has attained any success in life; and finally all those who by a change of the standard of value hope to pay an honest debt in a dishonest manner.

In the past the great conservative middle class has never had to contend single-handed against these other classes combined. All have been more or less divided. But now there is little division, and the great conservative masses of the nation have to contend against the two extremes, for the wealthy mine owners have the power of prejudice and hate, and all who can be swayed thereby, at work with them. It is a battle of conservatism against aristocracy and anarchy combined, and the result will show to the world whether the republic of the United States possesses a sufficient conservative class to maintain itself as a republic or not.

We appeal to every citizen who loves good government; who loves his country and desires to maintain its honor; who believes that labor should have its just reward; who acknowledges the right of every citizen of the nation to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness; who would protect the savings of the workingman, and the estates of the widow and the orphan; who believes that in this country there is no place for the red flag of anarchy; who respects our courts of justice, and sees in them the power that keeps in check the criminal, vicious and dishonest classes; who loves the old flag; in fact we appeal to every liberty-loving soul to stand by the honor and integrity of this nation by voting for the republican nominees.

The nations of the world have their eyes upon us, and hope to see us make a misstep, but we ask you to so cast your vote next Tuesday, that they will be disappointed, and we confidently believe you will.

Next Tuesday night Wm. McKinley will be president elect of the United States.

What is the difference between 16 to 1 and 4-11-44? None at all. Both are bad policy.

Wm. J. Bryan may be a good man, but the leading men back of Wm. J. Bryan, what about them? And if he is elected they will control him.

Hon. E. C. Carleton, of Port Huron, who represented the 7th district in congress for several years as a democrat, has hung out a McKinley and sound money banner. He is a business man.

The combined wealth of the silver mine owners and their agents, in the states of Colorado, California, Nevada, Montana, Utah, Idaho, and South Dakota, amounts to $616,000,000! Who are the classes, Mr. Bryan?

The editor of the Daily Times counts up six men among its employees who vote the republican ticket. Good. The Courier only knows of two. But hasn't the editor of the Times, in his haste, included proprietors among employees?

W. A. Clarke, who forwarded the last $100,000 to the silver combine national committee at Chicago last week, owns silver mines, and property made out of silver mines, to the value of $40,000,000! And not satisfied with that he contributes what would be a large fortune for many men, to corrupt the voters of the nation so that he may double his wealth.

The aristocracy of the far west against the middle classes of the nation. That's the fight.

There is no reason to think free silver would benefit the laboring classes, or even the debtors of the country.—Vicar General Augustine Zelininger, of Milwaukee, Wis.

If any republican farmer feels that any higher tariff is needed, he ought to vote for McKinley.—Adrian Press. That's right. And you can rest assured that he will not only do that but he will take his democratic neighbor with him.

My democratic friends, Bryan voted for Gen. Weaver for president, and is not now, nor has he even been, a genuine democrat. He is a populist and believes in populism. He is not entitled to your vote because of his democracy.

E. V. Smalley says in the Chicago Times-Herald, that although that city has a population of 30,000 colored people, yet such a thing as a colored beggar is unknown there. This is a remarkable statement and speaks volumes for that race.

"I am opposed to all trusts and combinations of any kind in the restraint of trade, and would favor any legislation which would destroy them. I voted for the Sherman anti-trust bill, which was a step in the right direction."—Wm. McKinley.

Gen. Rosecrans, the gallant old union commander, has come out for McKinley and honest money, and is waking up the democrats of California to their duty. "Old Rosy" made a speech here once and is kindly remembered by many of our democratic citizens.

The "Consolidated California and Virginia" silver mine of Nevada, with a capital of $31,600,000, paid last year, dividends amounting to $77,618,000. This mine alone, it is said, stands an assessment of $100,000 to carry on Bryan's campaign, and can well afford to.

The national banks were established by Abraham Lincoln, and have been endorsed by every congress, every administration, every secretary of the treasury, since then, a period of 36 years. If they are such bad things, why have not the statesmen of the nation condemned them? Abraham Lincoln and all those since his day have been dishonest, have they?

Who is running Bryan's special train all over this country? It was claimed when he was nominated that Mr. Bryan was a poor man, and it can hardly be expected that he could bear the expenses. It is most assuredly the men who are to be benefited by his election. And who are they? The answer is very plain, they are the silver bullion owners. And the people are asked to give up one class of bugs for another.—Stockbridge Sun.

"Suppose," says the Rev. Sam Jones of Georgia, "the government owned all the gristmills in this country and congress should enact a law that all corn should be ground by the government mills free and that while corn was worth but 18 cents a bushel the government would stamp the sacks of meal so that it would bring 50 cents a bushel and do this for nothing. It is a very hard matter to keep meal above the price of corn."

These are the views of Archbishop Katzer, of the Catholic Diocese of Milwaukee: "What I object to most is the ratio of 16 to 1. We had free coinage prior to 1873, we are told, and it did not bring ruin. But then silver was worth more as merchandise than as money. It is its cheapness that is objectionable. Those who would be benefitted by free silver are the silver barons, and those who have enough to buy the metal for speculation."

Read this from the lips of Carl Schurz: "Abraham Lincoln and Bryan and Altgeld. To associate these names together in a common cause—aye, to pronounce them together in the same breath—is not only a fraud—it is a sacrilege. As an old friend of Abraham Lincoln, who sat at his feet receiving his teachings of justice, freedom and humanity, and who was with him many a day in his struggles for the rights of man, for national government and for the brotherhood of all the American people, I solemnly protest against this outrage. I call upon the people of Illinois to resent and repel it. They are the custodians of Abraham Lincoln's grave. Let them prove themselves the worthy custodians of his historic character and fame by burying the repudiators and inciters of class hatred who dare to claim him as their own, under a crushing vote of condemnation."

More

Medicinal value in a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla than in any other preparation. More skill is required, more care taken, more expense incurred in its manufacture. It costs the proprietor and the dealer but it costs the consumer less, as he gets more doses for his money. More curative power is secured by its peculiar combination, proportion and process, which make it peculiar to itself. More people are employed and more space occupied in its laboratory than any other. More wonderful cures effected, and more testimonials received than by any other. More sales and more increase year by year are reported by druggists. More people are taking Hood's Sarsaparilla today than any other, and more are taking today than ever before. More small, more reasons might be given why you should take

Ex-Speaker Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia, the only democrat of ability in the nation supporting the free silver populist ticket, died on Friday last. He was one of the strong men of the country, and his death is to be deplored.

At Charlotte the other day, a free silver lawyer drenched a club of students from Olivet college who were parading the streets of that place in a sound money demonstration, with dirty water. It was a disgraceful act, and if that lawyer ever goes to Olivet we advise him to wear a rubber suit well padded.

Mr. Bryan advises laboring men to act out a lie; to pretend to be republicans, but to vote for him. Honest laboring men all over this nation have resented this advice as an aspersion upon their rights as free American citizens. No man in American has to do that, Mr. Bryan, and these men naturally ask themselves, "What sort of a president would a man make who advises me to do a dishonest deed?"

Our own Dan Campau said that Mark Hanna had sent 20 men into Michigan to hire voters to stay away from the polls. When confronted with the statement, Mr. Hanna said that Mr. Campau must produce his evidence or stand a self-convicted liar. This answer being carried to Campau he utterly failed to come to time, practically acknowledged the story false, and proved himself what Hanna said he was. This is related merely to show the people to what contemptible falsehoods and methods the desperate pops are resorting.

Edwin Willets, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture under Harrison, died at his home in Washington, D. C., last Friday, very suddenly. His remains were forwarded to Monroe for burial. He was born April 24, 1830, and came Michigan in 1836, graduated from the U. of M. in 1855, postmaster at Monroe in 1860, for 12 years a member of the state board of education, member of the constitutional convention in 1873, elected to congress in 1876, again in 1878, principal State Normal School at Ypsilanti in 1880, later president of Agricultural College at Lansing, from where he was called to be Assistant Secretary of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., by "Uncle Jerry Rusk," and where he remained until 1894. He was a man whom Michigan honored, and who in turn honored Michigan.

Women Who Suffer each month can find relief and emancipation from their troubles. Congestion and inflammation of the internal organs are generally induced by exposure to wet or cold, excitement of the emotions, or a morbid condition of the blood. For the radical cure of these derangements Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a safe and certain remedy, permanently correcting all abnormal conditions, so that these trying ordeals are passed with ease and comfort. Ulcerations and displacements of the uterus are cured by the "Favorite Prescription," and the cure is lasting.

Hysteria, Spasms, Nervousness, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, often depend upon irregularities of function and displacements of the womanly organs. The "Favorite Prescription" cures by regulating and correcting these functions and organic changes.

For all irregularities, suppressions and obstructions, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific, and has a record of over a quarter of a century of cures. Mrs. MALVINA WILSON, of Boothville, Marion Co., W. Va., writes: "For twelve long years I suffered greatly with extreme nervousness, stomach and uterine disease. I had doctored with four physicians with little or no good, and one of them was as good a physician as could be had here; he gave me up to die. None of my friends thought I could get well. We had tried almost everything, and at last I thought I would try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I had been bed-fast most of the time for almost two years. After taking several bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription' and following the directions strictly, I now enjoy better health than ever before in my life. I only weighed a little over one hundred pounds and now I weigh 167 pounds."

COUNTY AND VICINITY.

Chelsea has no truant officer.
Boys with sling shots have been doing mischief at Manchester.

The Grass Lake waves and billows are about 16 to 1 in. the News.

The business men of Grand Rapids had to put up $2,000, the amount the state fair fund behind.

Fairy Gilbert, of Manchester, refused an offer of $300 for four fat steers, made by Wm. Rehuss.

Keep the boys home nights.—Manchester Enterprise. The best advice that either parents or boys, either one, ever received.

W. H. Ostrander goes from Willis to Indian River, where, together with his three sons, he will operate a saw mill for the winter.

Phincas Stuart, the oldest living person in Livingston, went fishing on his 103d birthday.—Stockbridge Sun. Is that a fish story?

The liberal people of Chelsea sent a supply of clothing, bedding, etc., to Ontonagon, and the people returned their thanks therefor.

Apples appear to be rotting badly at Manchester. Some who put a quantity in their cellars report that they are completely spoiled.

Only about five weeks now to Thanksgiving. If we all have our salaries reduced by free silver, we will not be thankful, will we?

Mrs. Wilson, the mother of George Wilson, the porter of the Cook house in Ann Arbor, died on Friday last, at her home in Pittsfield.

The village attorney of Manchester has been authorized by the council to commence suit against the people who refuse to pay a poll tax.

On Saturday last Mrs. Mary Duncan, of Whitmore Lake, died at her home in that place, aged 74 years. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon.

John K. Campbell is creating a favorable impression wherever he goes in the first district, and no doubt is expressed among the republicans there of his election.

Many of our citizens have gathered the leaves from their lawns and put them in their barns for use. How much better that is than to burn them.—Enterprise. Sure.

Church socials where refreshments are served from "gold" and "silver" tables are now quite the thing. In such a case a bimetalist would find himself in a bad situation.

The Adrian Press slanders our pretty little up the Huron village in this way: "Dexter has wearied of striking matches to find the street lights, and will purchase new lamps."

Chas. Alban died at his home in Willis, on Sunday, Oct. 18, of a fever contracted while on a trip to Virginia to bring home a son who was sick. He was a member of the Willis lodge of Maccabees.

Yesterday Allen Alderman jumped 17 feet 2 inches, and now wears the Milan high school championship belt for long jump. Cassius Butler is a close second with a jump of 17 feet.—Milan Leader.

Fred A. Peters, of Scio, sailed from San Francisco, California, on the steamer Mariposa, Oct. 15th, for Sidney, New South Wales, Australia. He expects to be gone on this business trip about six months.

A straw vote was taken at Cleary College Tuesday morning, and it showed 55 for McKinley and 27 for Bryan. This is 2 to 1, about the ratio that the vote throughout Michigan, will be November 3.—Ypsilanti-an.

A traveling man was here on Tuesday, with this inscription on his trunk in large letters: "When eight ounces make one pound, two feet one yard, six inches one foot, and two pecks one bushel, 53 cents will make one dollar then."—Leslie Local.

Eugene Emerick, of Ypsilanti, while excavating under a house, dug up a tomahawk from about three feet under the surface. He thinks it belonged to an Indian, but it is probably the same that was buried at the close of the late educational war in that town.—Adrian Press.

On Wednesday evening last a thief stole six head of cattle from the fields of John and James McCourt, of Northfield. They tracked the animals to Ann Arbor, where they had been sold to Mr. Rehuss, for $120. The McCourts recovered their property, but Mr. Rehuss has not recovered his money nor the officers the thief, nor any clue to him.

When it comes to considering our county ticket, we advise the taxpayers to examine their tax receipts for the past year and compare them with those issued under democratic rule. They tell the story better than speeches. You will note a wonderful decrease the last year over those of former years, when the offices were run by the opposition. Having satisfied yourselves, prepare your ballots for

THE STUDIOUS GIRL.

An Interesting Letter From a Young Ladies' College.

Race Between the Sexes for Education. Health Impaired by Incessant Study.

The race between the sexes for education is to-day very close.

Ambitious girls work incessantly over their studies, and are often brought to a halt, through having sacrificed the physical to the mental.

Then begin those ailments that must be removed at once, or they will produce constant suffering. Headache, dizziness, faintness, slight vertigo, pains in the back and loins, irregularity, loss of sleep and appetite, nervousness and blues, with lack of confidence; these are positive signs that women's arch enemy is at hand.

The following letter was received by Mrs. Pinkham in May, one month after the young lady had first written, giving symptoms, and asking advice. She was ill and in great distress of mind, feeling she would not hold out till graduation, and the doctor had advised her to go home.

College, Mass.

You dear Woman:— I should have written to you before, but you said wait a month. We are taught that the days of miracles are past. Pray what is my case? I have taken the Vegetable Compound faithfully, and obeyed you implicitly and, am free from all my ills. I was a very, very sick girl. Am keeping well up in my class, and hope to do you and myself credit at graduation. * * My gratitude cannot find expression in words. Yours sincerely friend, MARY P. S. Some of the other girls are now using the Compound. It benefits them all.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only safe, sure and effectual remedy in such cases, as it removes the cause, purifies and invigorates the system, and gives energy and vitality.

economy, efficiency, and vote the republican nominees solid. Every man on the republican ticket deserves your vote.—Ypsilanti-an.

Bert Rose of Sharon, offered Warren Kimble all the apples in his orchard, and there are lots of them, for $10, and agreed to board the man while picking them and also to draw the apples to Manchester. Kimble refused. That doesn't look as though there was much profit in buying apples.

The People's Bank of Manchester, has $97,949.74 on deposit, the money of her business men and farmers in the vicinity. How many of those depositors want to receive dollars worth just half of the ones they put in the bank when they come to draw their money out? All who do will vote for Bryan and Barkworth. All who want to draw out a dollar worth 100 cents will vote for McKinley and Spalding. What will be the result?

The present year may not have been a very prosperous one for our citizens yet they have kept on in the way of improvements just the same and upwards of $1,500 have been expended in building cement walks. The village has paid out $473.44 for a cement cross walk and as its share of the expense in building cement sidewalks, and who will say that the money has not been wisely spent. There were 7,195 2-5 square feet built.—Manchester Enterprise.

The Manchester Enterprise hits the pops hard in this sensible item: "It makes us tired when attending a political meeting, to hear people who are opposed to the speaker, cry out and disturb the meeting. If people do not like to hear the utterances of a speaker who not quietly retire so that those who have come to hear the speech may not be disturbed. To make an outcry does not gain friends for a man or his party, and a man who will disturb a political meeting ought to be restrained the same as at any other meeting."

There was the biggest sort of a big time at Milan last Friday evening. It seemed as though all creation had turned out. A torch-light procession paraded the streets in which there were 753 in line by actual count, some 200 of whom were ladies from Saline and Milan. It was the biggest sort of a blow out yet held by any party in this county. A huge meeting was addressed in the opera house by Hon. A. J. Sawyer, and two overflow meetings were also held, and yet the people who wanted to hear could not be accommodated. One of the meetings was addressed by Hon. H. Wirt Newkirk and Frank Jones, and another by a gentleman from Detroit. This rouser will help the republicans, and in a part of the county where help was needed.

Every little while we read in the papers that some one has stuck a rusty nail in his foot, or knee, or hand, or some other portion of his body, and that lockjaw resulted therefrom, of which the patient died. If every person was aware of a perfect remedy for all such wounds and would apply it, then all such reports must cease. The remedy is simple, almost always on hand, and what is better, it's infallible. It is simply to smoke the wound, or any bruise or wound that is inflamed, with burning wool or woolen cloth. Twenty minutes in the smoke of wool will take the pain out of the worst cases of inflammation arising from the wound. People may sneer at this remedy as much as they please, but when they are afflicted just let them try it. It has saved many lives and much pain, and is worthy of being printed in letters of gold and put in every home.

Good Yarn on Bryan.

Burton Parker, of Monroe, who has been in the service of the Republican state central committee in the northern part of the state, tells the following story, illustrating how clearly some people understand the money question:

Candidate Bryan had completed one of his free silver harangues and was shaking hands with some of his admirers, when a sturdy Irish woman pushed her way through the crowd to where she could grasp his hand.

"That was a fine speech ye made, Mr. O'Brien," she exclaimed. "O' listened to ivery word of it, and I'm shure ye're a great mon. I'm going home and get a lot of votes for ye. But there's wan question I want to ye, Mr. O'Brien, so I can explain it to the min folks."

Mr. Bryan smiled radiantly, and said he would be pleased to answer any question.

"'Thin I want to know," said the good woman, "whether ye are goin' to bring us the silver, or will we have to come after it?"

WOMEN TO VOTE.
For President.

The women's vote, now being taken throughout the country, for president, is of great interest to all parties, as it has long been a matter of conjecture what course they would pursue if given the elective franchise. Large numbers of the best ladies in the land are making use of this opportunity to express their own views, and the final result of the woman's vote is looked forward to with great interest. The ladies seem deeply in earnest in this opportunity to express their preference in national affairs. It is true the movement brings into marked prominence a manufacturing firm whose office force is used for receiving and reporting the ballot twice a week, but that fact is simply incidental and does not detract from the profound public interest in the question of the woman's vote. It has been urged that the vote is perhaps more sure to be accurately and fairly counted by the skilled accountants of a business office than when handled by some of the ordinary judges of election. However this may be, the Company is of national repute, and pledge their commercial integrity and honor to an accurate and final counting under oath. Ladies write on a postal card the name of their choice for president, sign name and give address. Also in lower left hand corner name a banker or grocer who knows the fair voter. This card is sent to the Postum Cereal Food Coffee Co., Battle Creek, Mich., and each bona-fide voter receives an acknowledgment of the receipt of her vote. The report may, or may not, be favorable to the candidate this paper supports, but the statement will nevertheless appear exactly as the woman's vote stands, and the reader must form his own conclusions therefrom.

Wednesday and Saturday papers each week will give report by states of the progress of this unique feature of a most unique campaign.

Report from the Postum Co. states that the ladies are voting freely from all sections of the country. The flood of postal card votes is being accurately registered, but the Co. request that the public bear with them patiently until next issue, when the first report by states will appear.

DON'T STOP TOBACCO

IT'S INJURIOUS TO STOP SUDDENLY and don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a feeling of depression, and for worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about BACO-CURO. It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with BACO-CURO. It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An iron clad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded. Price $1.00 per box or 3 boxes (30 days treatment and guaranteed cure), $2.50. For sale by all druggists or will be sent by mail upon receipt of price. SEND SIX TWO CENT STAMPS FOR SAMPLE BOX. Eureka Chemical and Mfg Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, and my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Kooly Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured. I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely ceased. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it. Yours truly, C. W. HORNBICK.

High School Notes—

There was quite a large attendance at the fair grounds last Saturday afternoon, to see the foot ball game between the Orchard Lake and High School teams. The Orchard Lake boys had been coached by Bloomington, the old Varsity player, and they were very confident of winning. The High Schools played too fast for the cadets, however, and won by a score of 10 to 0. About $25 was realized by the game.
There will be a party given in Nickel's Hall, Friday evening Oct. 30 for the benefit of the Athletic Association of the High School, to which all the members of the alumni as well as the High School students are invited. Admission will be $1.
The next game the High School team will contest, will be with the Detroit School for Boys, at Detroit, on Saturday, Oct. 31. The boys are very confident of winning, as there will probably be quite a number of students that will accompany them.
Mr. J. Fox has been appointed managing editor, and Miss Lyons literary editor of the High School Quarterly. There will also be editors appointed from all the classes. The first number is to appear just before the Christmas vacation.

When any man or newspaper says that James G. Blaine ever favored free silver he or it tells a falsehood. The garbled extracts published by the Detroit Tribune have been exposed so many times that no one ought to be deceived by the fake at this late day.

Hearst, the young man who owns the only pop. paper in New York City, and also the only one in San Francisco, is heir to his father's estate, which is valued at $35,000,000, all made in silver mining. Vote him a few million more. He needs it bad.

The mints cannot make a bushel of wheat worth a dollar. Mills which build up new towns and people them with prosperous communities that increase the consumption of breadstuffs will raise the price of wheat quicker than all the free coinage laws that can be enacted.—Chelsea Herald.

The wave of reason has swept over the land, and as a result most people honestly believe that free silver will carry but three or four northern states—Colorado and Nevada are the only ones that are at all certain. McKinley will have an overwhelming majority of the electoral votes.

No man in Washtenaw county would make a better probate judge than H. Wirt Newkirk. The duties of the probate court come close to the dearest interests of the home, and voters should see to it that they are entrusted to faithful, conscientious men.—Ypsilantian.

If 12 cents a pound tariff on wool would make wool worth 12 cents a pound more, why don't a 15 cent tariff on apples make our apples worth more?—Adrian Press.

If coining $54,000,000 of silver dollars a year would not keep up the price of silver, how will free coinage of silver raise the price to $1.29? Answer quick.

A vote for Bryan means a vote cast for the payment of all pensions in dollars worth but 50 cents; the payment of all life insurance policies in the same dollar; of all fire insurance policies; of all bank deposits; of everything in the line of salaries and wages, in the same depreciated dollar. Who wants to cast such a vote? Do you, my friend?

Any man who in his position as governor would pardon anarchists out of prison, sent there for murder, is himself no better than an anarchist, and murderer. Mr. Altgeld may draw his own inferences. Do we want such a man to fill the place once occupied by W. B. Fier, (111, 112 Bayard, and a long list of other patriotic statesmen, who as secretary of state handled the foreign affairs of this government? Never. Then vote for McKinley.

The county treasurer's office for the past two years has been a model of neatness, promptness and system. Any man doing business therein will bear witness to this fact. Never, in the history of the county, have the public funds been more carefully handled, and the result has shown itself in the large balance on hand where there was a large deficit two years ago. Then again the deputy treasurer, Peter J. Lehman, has been accommodating and congenial. He has made friends for the office and friends for the party by his pleasing prompt way of doing business. Mr. Rehms is entitled to a second term as treasurer, and the people will see that this justice is accorded him.

HIS LEGISLATIVE RECORD.

What Andrew J. Sawyer did for the People as a Legislator.

The first legislative district of Washtenaw county is composed of Ann Arbor city, and the townships of Ann Arbor, Salem, Northfield, Webster, Dexter, Lyndon, Sylvan, Freedom, Lima and Scio.

This is the most important legislative district in the state of Michigan, it is the district which includes the University of Michigan. The candidates for this district are Andrew J. Sawyer of Ann Arbor, and Edward A. Nordman, of Lima. Mr. Sawyer has served two terms in the legislature. That he cared for the interests of his entire district with energy, honesty, fidelity and vigilance, nobody questions. His last term of service was the session of 1877. At that session there was introduced 726 house bills, 47 house joint resolutions and 412 senate bills, making 1,185 bills and joint resolutions besides the senate joint resolutions to be considered and passed upon.

These bills not only covered a multitude of legal questions involving the rights of citizens as between themselves but they also covered every form of state policy and of state and local taxation.

Mr. Sawyer was chairman of the judiciary committee which is one of the most if not the most important position in the legislature. To this committee was referred every bill and joint resolution involving any question of law as distinguished from state policy or state affairs, and it speaks well for the conscientious manner in which that committee did its work when it is seen that not one law that passed through the hands of that committee and was recommended by it for passage has been set aside by the supreme court.

This fact alone saved to the litigants of the state a very large sum of money as well as released the people of the state from an increased burden of taxation that always follows unconstitutional enactments.

It is said that the chief duty of a good representative is not only to pass good laws but to see to it as far as possible that no bad laws shall be passed and that all private schemes to bleed the state shall not be suffered to ripen into a law.

In this respect Mr. Sawyer's legislative career was a success. There was referred to his committee in round numbers two hundred bills for consideration, three-quarters of these bills never got out of the committee room to plague the people. But Mr. Sawyer's labors, as shown by the record, were not confined to the matters especially referred to his committee.

The appropriation bills so called, are always the subject of greatest concern to the state. All the money to be expended in the two years following the session of any legislature is provided for in the appropriation bills so called. These bills are referred to the committee upon those various state institutions and the committee is expected to examine and carefully inquire into the wants and necessities of each of the public institutions and report to the legislature the amount of money for the two years next to follow.

The average legislator contents himself with relying upon the report of the committee as to the need and extent of the appropriation required for the support of the various state institutions, but the record discloses that Mr. Sawyer did not follow that course, but made a personal examination and inspection of every state institution, and learned for himself what were the actual needs of each institution, and when the various appropriation bills were brought before the house by his more intimate knowledge of the want of the various institutions, he was able to cut down the appropriations and thereby save to the state and the tax payers over fifty thousand dollars.

The record also shows that Mr. Sawyer introduced a number of very important bills having for their purpose the protection of the unfortunate and the better care for the poor and insane.

Among the first of these was a bill providing a home for the exposed, friendless and helpless little girls between the ages of five and twelve years. Also a bill for the support and better care of the poor people of the state and a bill for the better care for the pauper and destitute children of the state, also a bill for the better care and management of the insane people of the state.

While each of these bills secured to the institutions a better system for the management of their affairs, they also saved a large amount to the people of the state in the diminished taxation.

Believing that in very many cases children that were born deformed or crippled, if placed under the skillful treatment of the medical department of the University of Michigan, might be cured of their deformity and sent forth into the world able to earn their own living instead of being sent to the poor houses and becoming a public charge all their lives, Mr. Sawyer introduced a bill providing for the sending to the University the children of poor people who were born deformed or crippled and requiring the physicians in charge of the medical department to treat such poor children free of charge.

This bill Mr. Sawyer succeeded in passing through both houses, but it was vetoed by the governor.

Mr. Sawyer did not seek this nomination and only consented to accept it upon the earnest solicitation of a delegation of the best men in the city. We understand that certain men are now going about the district and in public speeches and in private conversations, asking the people why Mr. Sawyer should consent to give up his practice worth twenty-five dollars a day, and take the office of legislator which only pays three dollars a day? Intimating thereby that there is something wrong or corrupt in Mr. Sawyer's running for the legislature. It is a sufficient answer to such slanders to say that for two terms heretofore when this people desired his assistance and needed his services, Mr. Sawyer laid aside his business and went to the legislature and no man in the district or in the state had any doubt of the honesty, integrity or intelligence with which he discharged his duty in that office and the record he made for himself while there discloses that no man more faithfully discharged his every duty than did Mr. Sawyer.

A further answer to this unjust insinuation is found in the fact that at the last session of the legislature an attack was made upon the University and a law was passed severing the homeopathic department from the University of Ann Arbor and sending it to Detroit. It is true that law was defeated in the supreme court, but the threat was then openly made that at the next session of the legislature another law would be passed of like nature that would hold good, and not only so, but a further law would be passed removing the law department and the entire medical department from Ann Arbor to Detroit, and the argument urged in favor of such a law would be that the students of the law department would have an opportunity to learn the practice in the United States court which they could not do at Ann Arbor, and the students in the medical department would have an opportunity to visit the extensive hospitals in Detroit and thereby obtain better clinic and be better prepared to practice medicine. The removal of any part of the University would be a blow at every interest in the county of Washtenaw. Not only so, but the state has spent a large amount of money in building buildings in Ann Arbor suitable for the law and medical departments of the University of Michigan. If these departments are to be moved to some other portion of the state, then this money has been spent in vain, and we have left simply heaps of brick and mortar and the state must again tax the people to build new buildings wherever the scattered fragments of the University of Michigan shall be sent. The bill that was passed at the last session to take the homeopathic department to Detroit appropriated twenty-five thousand dollars of the people's money simply to provide for the preliminary expenses of the removal to Detroit.

These considerations were presented to Mr. Sawyer by the gentlemen forming the delegation who asked him to take the nomination. It was thought from his experience and standing he would be able, if anybody could, to save our people the University as it now stands, and to save to the whole people of the state the enormous extra taxation that a removal of the University would of necessity inflict upon them; and for these reasons alone did Mr. Sawyer consent to accept of the nomination, believing that he might be of some service to all the people of the state, and of great service to the people of Washtenaw county if elected. It is the duty of every voter in the district including Mr. Nordman to cast their vote for Mr. Sawyer.

It is understood that the republicans, the gold standard democrats and the populists in Texas have all fused, and propose to carry the Lone Star state against the flat money heresy. It is not a creditable thing for the republicans and sound money democrats to fuse with the pops, but there is a good excuse in Texas, where they have always repudiated the Bryan conglomeration, and fought a fusion with them. And then again, the only thing to do sometimes

It must be admitted by all that economy in county affairs is a good thing when rightly applied, but there is such a thing as false economy, and the board of supervisors is in danger of putting it into practice in its attempt to cut down the salaries of our county officials.—Daily Times. The Times is right.

About eighty per cent. of the voters of the United States will vote their ticket this fall simply because it is their ticket. The issues will play no part with them. The remaining 20 per cent., the army of independent voters, will decide the election. It will elect the president.—Daily Times.

If that is true; if 80 per cent. of any party follows its party conventions, right or wrong, it bodes ill for the nation. For one, the Courier believes that not to exceed 75 per cent. at the greatest, will blindly follow the lead of those who attempt to lead them astray. And in some places the number is fully one-half. Therein lies the hope of the country, to-day. Those who follow false leaders are fewer than the popocratic party allow themselves to believe.

A bet of $25 was made a day or two since by a local republican that McKinley would carry Washtenaw county by 500 plurality. Senator Eugene Hale of Maine, made a very good speech last Saturday evening at the court house, from the standpoint of the republicans. There is much criticism of the action of the students who returned Sunday evening from the foot ball play with Purdue. They were too demonstrative and noisy it is said, for the Sabbath day. The Junior Society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will give a novel social entertainment in the form of a Chafing-Dish Party in the church parlors Friday evening of this week. If every precinct in the state had a voting machine, the result of the election would be known in each precinct to a certainty, within ten minutes after the polls closed. Some places have adopted the machine, as it is legal to use it. Mrs. A. E. VanValkenburg, who for the past three years has been superintendent of the Press Department of W. C. T. U., has resigned her position on account of the pressure of previously assumed duties. Her resignation was accepted with regret, as this department is considered one of the most important, and most difficult to fill. For those who believe in the fatality of the number 13, the American quarter dollar is about the most unlucky article they can carry. On the said coin there are 13 stars, 13 letters in the scroll which the eagle holds in its claws, 13 feathers compose its wing, 13 feathers are in its tail, there are 13 parallel lines on the shield, 13 horizontal stripes, 13 arrow heads, and 13 letters in the word "quarter dollar."--Daily Times. The Chocolate Tea to be given by the Junior Auxiliary of St. Andrew's parish, on Thursday evening, at Harris Hall, will be a more than ordinarily entertaining affair. Chocolate will be served in many ways by the young ladies, and the public are asked to attend, no admission being charged. We call the attention of Bro. Pond of the Courier, to the fact that he omitted Glen Mills' name in the list of Canton visitors. He surely could be him George? He surely could be heard.--Ann Arbor Democrat. Too much wind--blew the lights out just then. A strong feeling for a constitutional amendment which will abolish the board of supervisors is gaining ground every year. But few states now have the system pursued here. New York and Massachusetts, from whose laws our statutes were mostly copied, have changed to county commissioners. So have Ohio, and Illinois, and Indiana. The supervisor system is one of those things that has been tried and found wanting, both on account of expense and quality of work performed. It is found that three county commissioners do more and better work, in far less time and at far less expense. It is not only a saving to the taxpayers, in money, but also in the substantial character of work performed. "Any news this morning?" inquired the scribe as he approached a friend. "No," was the chronic reply, when he turned and asked: "You have heard about the great storm predicted in a short time, I suppose?" The scribe allowed he had not, and the friend continued: "That's strange. I heard a fellow telling it up on the corner a few minutes ago. He said that we should have a cyclone worse than any of the great storms of the year." "Indeed. Where did he get his information?" was asked. "Out of your paper." "Out of your paper! Guess not." "So he said. It is coming Nov. 3d." Just then a fly lit on the left ear of the reporter and he turned and listened, and was convinced that he already heard the rumbling of the sound money cyclone, gathering for its great sweep of silverites into the sea of oblivion.

With "the welfare of the masses"--His orations are begun; Yet he always, as he passes, Keeps an eye on number one. There has been great satisfaction expressed on all sides since the announcement that Hon. Don M. Dickinson would address an audience in this city on Saturday evening, at the court house. The meeting of the Afro-Americans at the court house last Friday night was a fine affair, full of enthusiasm and political fire. The procession was creditable, and the speeches were tip-top, that of Rev. Butler being especially eloquent and logical. Every McKinley and Hobart resident of the city is requested to display the national colors on Saturday next Oct. 31. A man who forgets his own name deserves severe discipline.--Daily Times. Can't you let a man see double without charging him with a crime? The two candidates, Hon. Chas. R. Sligh, of Grand Rapids, for governor, and Mr. Justin R. Whiting, of Port Huron, candidate for lieutenant governor on the pop. ticket, spoken at the opera house in this city on Monday evening. It was the old, old story of the tall wagging the dog. They had a good house and were met with the usual voucherness of the pops. Superintendent of the Poor Sibley reports that for the six months ending Sept. 30, there were 61 families helped in the city, containing 149 persons. The number of permanent paupers in the city is 11, and the total cost for the six months has been $681.85, against $774.33 for the same period of 1895. These figures have a tendency to show that the gold standard does not make many paupers. Just think of it, only 11 permanent paupers in this city of 15,000 inhabitants! It is a fact worthy of note that the only thing that prevented the board of supervisors from adjourning last Thursday, was the failure of a committee, of which Supervisor Watkins of Manchester, is chairman, to report. On that account the board had to adjourn for one week, to give him time to fix up his report. Although the supervisors did not reduce their own salaries, as in justice they should have done, yet they transacted their business in the shortest time any board has ever done, in the memory of any man now living. Chairman John R. Miner is to blame for it, and he can rest assured that they will never elect him chairman again. It was cruel the way he made the members work--with the one exception noted above.

PENNY WISE—POUND FOOLISH.

On Thursday of last week the board of supervisors, in a streak of rigid economy, did a thing that in the opinion of a great many people was not only an unjust but an impolitic thing to do. They cut the salaries of every county official that the law would allow them to touch—except their own.

Commencing with the clerk a reduction from $1,200 to $1,000 per year was made, a former board having already reduced the salary $300. The prosecuting attorney from $1,200 to $1,000. The probate register from $1,300 to $600. The commissioner of schools from $1,500 to $1,200. The members of the board of county school examiners from $4 to $3 per day. The game wardens from $2 to $50 cents a day, and half days 25 cents. The sheriff's fees at each term of court from $40 to $30. The use of gas at the court house and jail was ordered dispensed with. The just assessment to the county for constructing the sewer for the use of the court house and jail was ordered not paid.

The pay of the supervisors themselves, however, at $3 per day, with every Saturday counted in, although there is never a session of the board on that day, was left untouched. Which of course is an inference that they are the only officials who earn their money.

For the past two years the republican county officials have saved the tax-payers of Washtenaw the sum of $30,000, and at the same time wiped out a debt they found on their hands of $14,400. This was only done by rigid economy.

To this saving Co. Clerk Dansingburg, Prosecuting Attorney Randall, Sheriff Judson, Treasurer Rehffuss, School Commissioner Wedemeyer, have each and every one contributed a strong effort. For this saving probably Mr. Dansingburg and Mr. Randall are entitled to the greater share of credit, for in their hands is the means of either increasing or reducing expenses more than in all the others. But each official has endeavored to run his office at the least expense possible, and the effort has been rewarded by a saving of one-half of the county expenses in two years.

Now how are these officials rewarded for their efforts? By having their own salaries reduced! Is that a good way to encourage men in well doing? Is there a single supervisor on that board who would cut down the wages of a man in his employ who had saved him more than twice over what his wages came to? Hardly. Not a man among them would do that. Then why not run the county's business as they would their own? Do they think for a minute that these officials will care now whether they save anything more or not?

If the supervisors are so mighty economical and saving, why do they not commence at home? Reduce their own salaries? If there was ever a steal in the world fully one-half of the money drawn by the supervisors for their services for the regular yearly session is a steal. They draw pay for days of service never performed.

This article is written in the interest of justice, and not in the interest of politics. The Courier believes that the supervisors have done by a set of honest, competent, economical county officials, what not a single man of them would ever do in his private business. They have violated one of the first and greatest principles of business, viz: to reward a laborer according to the value of his services.

Then another thing. The reduction of the salary of the probate register to $600 per year. This county for many years, has paid Mr. Doty $1,300 per year, and considered that he has earned his salary. It is an important office—one of vital importance to the people of the county who have accumulated anything for their families and it requires not only a man of superior judgment and ability, but one of accuracy and promptness. Such a man can not be obtained for $600. A clerk can be hired for that amount no doubt, but in this position something more than a mere clerk is necessary.

This is the candid opinion of the Courier, and it has the satisfaction of knowing that it does not stand alone in so thinking.

The supervisors have been penny wise and pound foolish.

This article may be a little too sweeping. There are members of that board to whom these words do not apply. We refer to those who opposed and voted against these reductions. They believed that these officials should be rewarded instead of kicked for the excellent work they have done during the past two years.

There is not a democratic leader of prominence to-day who can be found in the ranks of popocracy. Every one of them, without exception, is for McKinley or Palmer, and mostly for McKinley. What a record!

Some of the Advantages of Electric Light:

	Cubic feet of air vitiated.	Cubic feet of carbonic acid produced.	Heat produced in 1 lb Watt's raised 1° Fahrenheit.
12 c. p. Incandescent Lamp	None.	None.	13.8
12 c. p. Gas Light	345.25	3.21	278.6
12 c. p. Kerosene Lamp	376.30	3.54	232.6

Some of the Disadvantages of Gas:

Air consumed.	Carbonic Acid thrown off.
Heat.	Unsteadiness of Light.
Freezing Pipes.	Danger of Suffocation.
Humidity.	Danger from use of Matches.
Ceilings Blackened.	Water and Air in Pipes.
Sulphur thrown off.	Metals and Gildings Tarnished.
Ammonia thrown off.	Sulphuretted Hydrogen thrown off.
Gas cannot be inverted to throw light down.

None of these Disadvantages Accompany Electric Lighting.

In general the Incandescent Electric Light is much healthier and much more convenient to use than any other method of lighting, and is more economical for amount of light furnished than gas.

SECRETARY OF THE SENATE'S RINGING WORDS.

One of the Greatest and Grandest Testimonials Ever Written Given to Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Hon. Frederick W. Baldwin, Sect'y of the Senate, State Attorney, and Chairman of the Republican State Committee, Gives Unqualified Endorsement and Recommendation to Dr. Greene's Nervura.

The great men of America use, praise and recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Prominent people of highest standing, Governors, Mayors, Senators, Representatives, in fact, Statesmen in all parts of our country, together with Judges, Clergymen, Doctors, Newspaper Men, people whose names are known and honored everywhere, publish testimonials in strongest terms concerning the great good which this wonderful remedy, Dr. Greene's Nervura, has done them, their families and friends, and recommending in most emphatic language all who are ailing in any way and have need of medicine, to by all means use this grandest of all medical discoveries.

It is because Dr. Greene's Nervura cures that it is so highly and so strongly recommended by everybody.

Hon. Frederick W. Baldwin, of Barton, Vt., adds another to the long list of eminent statesmen who powerfully endorse the marvelous curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and give earnest advice to the sick, the weak, nervous, dyspeptic, run-down, debilitated and discouraged to try this great remedy, feeling sure from their own experience of its remarkable merits that health and strength will in all cases follow its use.

Hon. Mr. Baldwin, Secretary of the Senate, State Attorney of Vermont and Chairman of the Republican State Committee, is one of the foremost men of this country. To show the honor in which he is held by his state, it is only necessary to say that at the last Presidential election he was elected Presidential Elector for Vermont and messenger to carry the vote of Vermont to Washington. Such is the eminent standing of the man who tells you to use Dr. Greene's Nervura if you wish to get well. He says:

"I have long been acquainted with the virtues and fame of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and know of people among my friends who have been helped by its use, and from the general verdict from all sources that have come to my attention, I cannot do otherwise than commend it. Make use of this letter for the good of others."

But while the great and honored of our country use and recommend all to use Dr. Greene's Nervura, it is among the common people, those in the ordinary walks of life that on account of their vast numbers, the marvelous and extraordinary benefit, the numberless cures, the remarkable restorations to health by this most wonderful of remedies, can be daily and constantly observed. Dr. Greene's Nervura is distinctively the medicine of the people. Its discovery was for the people, it cures the people and it stands to-day unrivaled as the people's remedy.

It makes those who use it strong and well.

It is the prescription and discovery of our most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, and was used for years in his enormous practice before given broadcast to the people as the greatest restorer of health in the world's history. Dr. Greene can be consulted free of charge, personally or by letter.

Editor Stearns on the Rampage—

Editor Stearns, of the Adrian Press, has sent a letter to the executive committee of the national democratic party, and in it are some choice things. Here are a few paragraphs and sentences:

"I am a democrat (so is Dave Hill) and I know of no democrat who supports Palmer, Buckner or any other combine of senility and secession."

He calls them "sore heads and whipped leaders."

"None but a traitor to his country, an enemy of the old flag, and a revolutionist who would trample down all law would defend that action, or help to excuse it."

"You are led by Herr Most, backed by Herr Buckner, counseled by Herr Schurz, assisted by Herr Hesting, aided by Herr Hanna and applauded only by Herr Damphools."

"You have neither democracy nor sense. You try to hold to the name of a party that has turned you out, to join foreign nations or republicans, in your insane raid on the rights of the people."

"Why do you mask under the name of national democrats, when you are the Hessians of the republican forces, paid hirelings of the monopolies and cooperations," etc.

"You are despised by democrats, shunned by honest voters, outlawed by republicans, and do not have even the approval of yourselves. Your democracy is of the same brand as was the patriotism of Benedict Arnold. You are party anarchists, disturbers of political fealty, and a disgrace to a civilized country. You belong to the rule or ruin class, and decent people spurn you as not worthy to belong to any political party. You never issued a sound money argument in your history."

"You don't understand the first principles of an honest dollar."

"You have not a man among you who has ever earned an honest dollar. Your record is one of financial dishonesty and political treachery. As well might we expect the devil to preach holiness and sanctification, as to look to your organization for safe counsel in finances or national honor."

When the executive committee got that letter they no doubt felt very bad, indeed. They may, however, have all joined in the good old song:

"Sister, thou wert mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze;
Pleasant as the air of evening
As it floats among the trees," etc.

Where is the Gold, and How Can We Get It?

That there is some gold still left in the country, and pretty well distributed, is evidenced by a study of the reports of the condition of the various banks published last week, as required by law. From our exchanges we quote the gold items of some of the state banks in this vicinity which they had on hand at the close of business October 6:

Ann Arbor Savings Bank	$36,162 00
Farmers and Mechanics Bank, Ann Arbor	10,620 00
State Savings Bank, Ann Arbor	4,320 00
Chester Savings Bank	3,625 00
Farmers and Merchants Bank, of Milan	2,710 00
Monroe County Bank, Dundee	2,955 00
Lilly State Bank, Tecumseh	1,789 00
Blissfield State Bank	2,400 00
Northville State Savings Bank	1,915 00
Plymouth Savings Bank	1,885 00

Then there are national and private banks at Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Monroe, Dundee, Saline, and other places within the same distance from Milan. You can get this gold as easily as you can silver or currency.—Milan Leader.

Price, the millionaire Baking Powder man, writes as follows: "Send me a dozen boxes of Gesslers Magic Headache Wafers. I would not be without them for all the world. They are the best cure for Headaches I have ever found and leave no bad after effects. If you have a headache you cannot afford to be without them." They are guaranteed to cure or your money refunded. A. E. Mumery, your druggist, will tell you there are none half so good. Price reduced to 25 cents per box.

BETTER TRADE SOMEWHERE ELSE.

Mr. Bryan's arguments from hogs and hens and other specimens of animated nature and farm products, to show from the hogs that the rooting capitalists need rings in their noses in the shape of fifty-cent dollars in order to keep them from making too much money out of the tolling masses—and then from the hens that the silver product of the whole world will be worth $1.29 an ounce so soon as anybody or any Government that can afford it will agree to take it at that, by his illustration of the man who could make eggs worth 25 cents a dozen by buying them at that price no matter what might be the cost of production—these arguments are unquestionably ingenious and eloquent, but after all, a trifle confusing.

He recalls the story of the man who opened an account with an old lady who sold, among other things, peanuts and beer. "How much," said he to the old lady, "do you ask for peanuts?" "Three cents a measure," said she. "Ah! yes; put me up three cents' worth of peanuts." The old lady having put up the peanuts, the purchaser said: "I see you sell beer. How much do you ask for beer?" "Three cents a glass," said the old lady. Then, after a moment's reflection, the purchaser said: "Well, on the whole, I think I'll take a glass of beer instead of the peanuts," handing back the package of peanuts. A little desultory conversation followed, after which the purchaser started to go. "I beg your pardon, sir," said the old lady, "but you haven't paid for the beer."

"Why, no, of course not," said the customer. "I gave you the peanuts for the beer." "But," said she, "you did not pay for the peanuts." "Pay for them? Of course I didn't," said the customer. "Why should I? I didn't take them." The old lady being, like some of Mr. Bryan's followers, a little slow in her mathematics, but of a confiding nature, after a pause, slowly replied: "You seem to be a very sincere man, and what you say is no doubt correct, though I don't 'quite understand it. But will you be good enough hereafter to trade somewhere else?" A great many good, honest voters, who have been listening to and reading Mr. Bryan for the last two months will doubtless reach the same conclusion in November—that he is probably sincere, though they do not quite understand him, but, on the whole, they would rather he would trade somewhere else.—N. Y. Tribune.

A SCORCHER ON SILVERITES BY A SILVER MINER.

Henry Knippenberg, a director and general manager of the Hecla consolidated Co. of Glendale, Montana, scores the free silverites in this forcible manner. Read it, it will do you good:

"I have lived in Montana 16 years. My every interest is in silver mining. During these 16 years I have furnished the world 10,000,000 ounces of silver. I have paid in Beaverhead county in wages to my employes $8,000,000. Notwithstanding all this I am unalterably opposed to the independent, free, and unlimited coinage of silver because my practical knowledge, my judgment, tells me that it is contrary to experience and common sense.

"I love honesty. I deny the legislative power to assert value. The great commercial world knows, recognizes, and bows to one authority, supply, and demand. If gold has appreciated, doubled in value, the only way to meet the doubling is to reduce the gold dollar one-half in weight; then the 16 to 1 standard would be honest and no man cheated in silver dollars.

"The very fact that it is sought to double the value of a silver dollar by legislation is a confession that the gold dollar is worth one hundred cents. No American citizen should cheat himself with the delusion that he is a patriot because he may offer his misfortunes as indicative of the need of special laws to fit his particular case.

"I would scorn that law that would make me the beneficiary of an injustice to another. The man in public position who will permit himself to be swayed from the path of duty to all by any class or by any clamor is the enemy of his country and especially the enemy of the very class he serves either as a mistaken or cringing slave.

"Integrity, moral and financial, is the foundation of true character. This holds good in national as well as individual life.

Chancery Notice.

State of Michigan, Washtenaw County—In Chancery.

Dated, September 4, A. D. 1896.
Morris Hall and Joseph H. Woodman, complainants vs. Agnes M. Fleckinger, Daniel B. Fleckinger and The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, defendants.
Suit pending in the Circuit Court for the County of Washtenaw in Chancery, at Ann Arbor on the 4th day of September, A. D. 1896. In this cause it appearing from affidavits filed that the defendant, The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, is not a resident of this State, but resides at Rochester, in the State of New York, on motion of John W. Bennett, Complainant's Solicitor, it is ordered that the said defendant, The Rochester Savings and Loan Association, cause its appearance to be entered herein, within four months from the date of this order, and in case of its appearance that it cause its answer to the complainant's bill of Complaint to be filed, and a copy thereof to be served on said complainant's Solicitor, within twenty days after service on it of a copy of said bill, and notice of this order, and in default thereof, said bill be taken as confessed by the said non-resident defendant.

And it is further ordered, that within twenty days the said complainants cause a notice of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor Courier, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county, and that such publication be continued there at least once in each week, for six weeks in succession, or that they cause a copy of this order to be personally served on the said resident defendant, at least twenty days before the time above prescribed for its appearance.

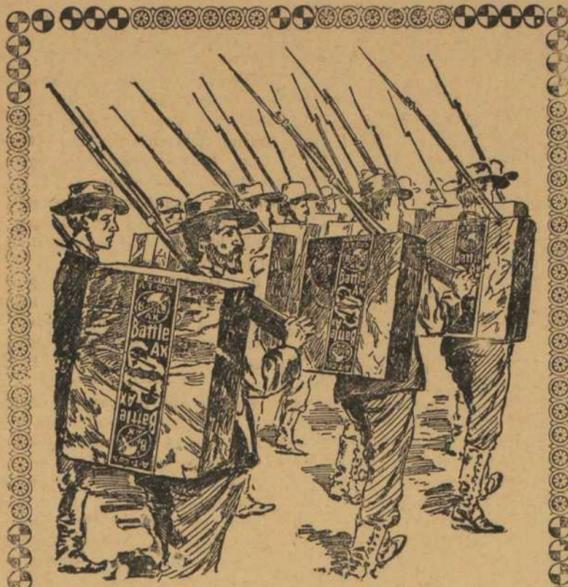

E. D. KYNNE, Circuit Judge.
J. W. BENNETT, Complainant's Solicitor.

Mortgage Sale.

DEFAULT having been made in the conditions of a certain mortgage made and executed by Darwin Nelson and Lydia J. Nelson his wife, of Salem, Washtenaw County, State of Michigan, to Henry Yanson, of the same place, and assigned by said Henry Yanson to Charles Yanson, of the County of Washtenaw, Michigan, and further assigned by said Charles Yanson to Lucinda M. Yanson, and further assigned by said Lucinda M. Yanson to William H. Weed, which said last assignment was duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds for Washtenaw County in Liber 12 of assignments on page 391, August 19th, 1896; said original mortgage having been recorded in Liber 52 of mortgages, page 727 on the 25th day of March, 1877, at 2 1/2 p. m. On which mortgage there is claimed to be due and owing at the date of this notice the sum of Five hundred and ten and seventy-two hundredths dollars ($510.72), also an attorney's fee provided for in said mortgage and allowed by statute; and no suit or proceeding at law having been instituted to recover the moneys secured by said mortgage or any part thereof. Now, therefore, by virtue of the power of sale contained in said mortgage and the statute in such case made and provided; notice is hereby given that on Saturday, December 19th, 1896, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, I shall sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at the south door of the court house in the city of Ann Arbor, Washtenaw county, Michigan, (that being the place and building where the circuit court for the county of Washtenaw is held) the premises described in said mortgage or so much thereof as may be necessary to pay the amount due on said mortgage with nine per cent. interest and all legal costs, expenses and attorney's fees contracted for or agreed upon therein. The premises being described as follows in said mortgage: "Being subdivision No. four as set off to Charlotte Knapp by the commissioners in partition in the estate of Henry Whipple, deceased, known, bounded and described as follows to-wit: Being twenty-seven acres south of the road and off from the west side of the east half of the southwest quarter of section No. twenty-seven in township No. one south, range seven east, township of Salem, Washtenaw county, Michigan. September 22d, 1896.

Hazen S. Pingree

SOMETHING ABOUT THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR.

He Comes From Good Old New England Stock and Has Made His Name Famous Throughout the Nation. A Tribute From the National Tribune.

Still is it true that deeds heroid? For man, by man unselfish wrought, In spite of skeptic and of stoic Shall thrill the world with kindlier thought.

While pulses warm with quickened beating, Divine relationship to trace, We hail with universal greeting The brotherhood of all the race.

And so it is the people claim him This civic chieftain of his clan; And thus the shouting thousands name him The Prophet of the working man!

He lives in the beautiful city of the straits. He is the republican candidate for governor of his state. He will undoubtedly be chief executive of Michigan upon and after January 1, 1897; yet his fame, his prestige, his hold upon the popular heart do not depend upon the issues of November 3; nor has Michigan any longer the sole claim on him, for belongs to the nation, and in one sense to the world.

He was born at Denmark, Maine, August 30, 1840, and is the son of Jasper Pingree; his mother's maiden name was Adaline Bryant.

The family records have been faithfully kept, and show that the mayor of Detroit is of the eighth generation of Pingrees born on American soil. The first of the name here was Moses Pingree (spelled Pengry) who, with his brother Aaron settled in Ipswich, Mass., in 1640. It is believed they came from England. No one who possesses what is called family despise such distinction, and it is interesting to know that this sturdy champion of the rights of common humanity has a long line of christian ancestry behind him, men and women of character, standing and influence. Puritanic ideas of honor and honesty, love of home and country, and a readiness to defend these as the hazard of life and fortune, have ever distinguished them. It is inspiring to be thus fore-fathered, it is altogether better to be worthy such ancestry; to have in his soul the elements of true greatness.

The early youth of Mr. Pingree was filled with labor; first on his father's farm, with the usual New England winter's schooling to the age of four teen; then in a cotton mill at Saco, Maine; then in a shoe factory at Hopedale, Mass. At the outbreak of the war he enlisted in Company F, First Massachusetts Heavy Artillery. He was in the battles of Fredericksburg, Road, Harris Farm, Spotsylvania, Cold Harbor, and North Anna. On June 1, 1864, he was captured by Mosby's men and suffered the usual bitter experiences of a Union prisoner at Andersonville, Gordonville, Salisbury and Millen. After five months he was exchanged, in time to take part in the battles of Petersburg, Fort Fisher, Boyden Road, Sailor's Creek, Farmersville and Appomattox. His regiment lost heavily, both in officers and enlisted men.

After his muster out in August of 1865, he came directly to Detroit and was employed in Baldwin's shoe factory. He formed a partnership with C. H. Smith in 1866, and it is related that he put into the firm $460. That the house so launched has been a successful one, is shown by their commercial rating of $500,000 capital. Detroit people say the firm is distinguished for straightforward honesty, enterprise and square dealing.

Seven years ago last January, Mr. Pingree was elected mayor of his city, and it is in this capacity he has won his fame. Here he has been most approved, and most opposed; most enthusiastically admired and applauded, most cordially hated, feared and execrated; here he has made friends who would die for him, and foes who hesitate on no device against him. It is said that a man is known by his friends, but he is sometimes better known by noting who are his enemies. So herculean have been his struggles against corporations, monopolies, fraud, greed and mismanagement, and so signal his triumphs that it has brought the man and the city into the public eye to a remarkable extent. Politically speaking he has accomplished the impossible. He found the city in the grasp of corrupt corporations, poorly lighted at great expense, ill-paved, no adequate sewer system, a most inefficient and inefficient street car service, with bribery prevailing in municipal affairs to a frightful degree; this was the situation. Now, Mr. Pingree has convictions; his ideas of right and wrong are very simple, being derived from that old Book long ago given for their guidance to the children of men. In the depths of his soul he believes in human rights, and he has colossal courage of his own which never falters. Given such a situation, and such a man, a battle to the death was inevitable. He began his warfare against these conditions in Detroit with the cheerful relish of a good fighter, and he has never given an inch of ground.

How he espoused the cause of the working man, how he declared for honest dealing in the management of public money; how he exposed bribery and fraud secured cheap rates of transportation, projected a series of needed improvements, public lighting plants, parks, miles of well paved roadways, water service reform, a perfect sewer system and other benefactions—is not the history of all this written upon the beautiful and purified face of the city, and in the hearts of the people?

He has entered with sympathy into the wants of the needy, and his plan of permitting the poor and unemployed to plant and cultivate the waste and idle lands in and about the city, has not only fed hungry thousands, but stimulated in them a love of honest labor, and given to many, doubtless, their first impulse to manly independence and thrift.

President Geo. A. Gates, of Iowa College, says of him: "It is probably a fair statement of the truth that no mayor of any considerable city in America has done so much for the interests of his town as this man." "The battle Mayor Pingree has fought out in the eyes of the nation in and for the city of Detroit has put the American nation under obligations to him."

In appearance Mr. Pingree is much better looking than his pictures would indicate; the usual full front view is misleading, and does poor justice to the strong, thoughtful and kindly face. He has a very clean and clear complexion, is six feet high, well proportioned, and enjoys superb health.

Any personal sketch of him would be incomplete in the eyes of the feminine world without some mention of the graceful and gracious woman who has been his wife since 1872. An hour's conversation with

FRANCES GILBERT PINGREE is sufficient to reveal one reason, at least, for the marvelous serenity of the man, for the great successes of his life; he has had at home the restful happiness of a womanly nature in ardent sympathy with his own; a second self with ability to comprehend, courage to endure and wisdom to advise; a modest, beautiful, and discreet power behind the throne!

Mrs. Pingree's maiden name was Frances Amelia Gilbert. Her mother was Eliza Richardson, a family of many historic names, whose annals run back through perfectly well authenticated channels to the time of the Norman conquest of England. She was born in Mt. Clemens, Mich., and has an honorable record as pupil and afterward as teacher in the Union school of that city.

The home of the Pingrees has been blessed with three children. Their lovely first-born, Gertrude, whose habitation is in heaven, but whose sweet memory will never leave her father and her mother; the only son, Hazen S. Jr., a student in the University of Michigan, and Hazel, the remaining daughter, a young miss.

The Pingree home on Woodward avenue is a delightful place, not only for outward beauty, but for domestic charm, cultured refinement and hospitable good cheer.

FROM THE MEXICAN BORDER.

Veteran of the War to his Old Comrades in Arms.

Dear comrades, suppose we abandon "Fighting Them Over" and fight our present popocratic enemies. Not with bullets, but with ballots and good arguments. My home is only two miles from Mexico, where they have free silver. We give them 50 cents of our money for $1 of their dollars, and the Mexican dollar has six cents more pure silver than our present silver dollar. The average wages for labor over there is 37 1/2 cents per day and board himself, and everything is twice as high in Mexico as it is here. My comrades, if you could see what I see every day you would change your minds and never think of Bryan and popocracy again. That free trade bill called the Wilson bill has ruined nearly all the sheep men of our beloved country. There are many families here that four years ago were well-to-do, who have been on the point of starvation for the past two years. These same men are working for nothing, except cornmeal and a few cows are furnished by the men they work for, so the wife and children can have cornbread and milk. I am talking with those men, and they say they have left Democracy for good and that they intend to vote for McKinley and something to eat. Give us protection and we have the best sheep country in America, and you can't get the tariff too high to suit us on hides and livestock especially.

Now, my comrades, let's fire a full charge and no blanks, and our comrade will land high and dry without the solid south. Thank God, there are men yet in the south who will live and die by our old flag, and we will break the south square in the middle on the 3d of next November.

Let us give a strong pull and a long pull for Wm. McKinley and he will get there with both feet, even in Democratic Texas.—Samuel Armstrong, company G, Seventh Iowa Cavalry, Del Rio, Tex., in National Tribune.

DON'T LOSE A VOTE.

Give Good Majorities for Sound Money, Protection and Reciprocity.

VOTE THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

We Have Had Four Years of Democracy and Business Depression—Now Let Us Have a Period of Republicanism and Business Activity.

The following vignette will appear at the head of the Republican column in the blanket ballot which you will take with you to the voting booth on Tuesday, Nov. 3:

Under this vignette you will find the names of the candidates for whom you will vote if you desire to continue your support of the principles and policies of the Republican party.

After the history and experiences of the past four years we take it that there are not many Republicans who will not continue that support.

Four years ago the country was enjoying an unprecedented degree of business and industrial prosperity. More men were at work in factories and at better wages than in any previous year. Our exports of agricultural, as well as of other products, were the largest in the history of the country, and good prices were obtainable for almost every product of the farm and of the factory.

The delusive promise was made of still better times if we would abandon the old Republican policy of protection and adopt the Democratic policy of free trade. We made the experiment to our sorrow and have had a long period of business depression as a result.

The same men who were then advocating free trade and prosperity are now promising prosperity if we will adopt their free silver notions. They were all wrong four years ago. They are no nearer right now.

Notwithstanding the confused and uncertain conditions that prevailed early in the campaign there is every indication now of a sweeping Republican victory. All that is necessary to make sure of this is to get out the full Republican vote.

At the polls on election day stamp or mark an (X) under the Republican vignette, and then pass your ticket to the election inspector. If you want to vote the straight Republican ticket this is all you need to do, so far as your own vote is concerned. Having done this early in the day see that your Republican neighbors vote and thus have your share of the triumph of McKinley, Protection, Reciprocity and Prosperity.

IN ARKANSAS.

The Lesson of Her Election the Same as that in Maine.

Previous to the Vermont and Maine elections the free silver forces predicted a reduction of the Republican majorities below those of former years and some of the more sanguine of them expected a fusion majority in the latter state. It was generally said that if the Republican plurality went above 25,000 in Vermont or above 18,000 in Maine it would furnish a pretty strong indication of Republican success in the country at large in November. The Republican plurality actually exceeded 40,000 in Vermont and approached 50,000 in Maine, being in both cases the largest ever obtained since the organization of the party.

Then the silver men said that they had expected nothing from New England, which was tied to the gold standard, but that the south and west would offset that by tremendous Democratic and fusion majorities. The election in Arkansas was pointed to as a demonstration of this. But the full returns from the September election in that state are now in and they show the following comparative results:

	1892	1894	1896
Democrat	90,115	74,819	71,845
Republican	35,644	38,083	38,410
Populist	3,117	34,541	11,283
Prohibition	1,310	1,551	1,643
Total	130,186	148,994	123,181
Democratic plurality	55,471	48,824	45,233

It appears from these figures that more than half of the Populist vote of 1894 either stayed at home or else was absorbed by the Democrats, and even then the plurality of the latter was 3,589 less than it was two years ago, and that was a year of sweeping Republican success.

So far as these figures mean anything they convey the same lesson as the Vermont and Maine elections did. The Democrats are staying at home and the Republicans are coming out and voting. If the same thing holds true in Michigan there will be no limit to her plurality for McKinley.

The insult offered Secretary Carlisle in Covington, Ky., a few nights since, will not help the populist combine in Kentucky. On the contrary that dirty act of hoodlums will arouse the pride and spirit of all true Kentuckians, and rally thousands to the support of the sound money cause.

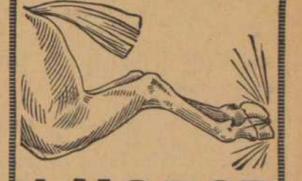

The Union Savings Bank, at Manchester has on deposit $61,011.43 of the money of its thrifty citizens. Not one will want to be paid back in free silver bullion notes, or 50 cent dollars.

CAN CURE ASTHMA AND HAY FEVER.

A Noted Physician Offers to Prove This to all Sufferers in Ann Arbor

The majority of sufferers from Asthma and kindred complaints, after trying doctors and numberless remedies advertised as positive cures without avail, have come to the conclusion that there is no cure for this most distressing disease, and these same persons will be the more in doubt and skeptical when they learn through the columns of the press that Dr. Rudolph Schöffmann, the recognized authority who has treated more cases of these diseases than any living doctor, has achieved success by perfecting a remedy which not only gives immediate relief in the worst cases, but has positively cured thousands of sufferers who were considered incurable. These were just as skeptical as some of our readers now are. Dr. Schöffmann's remedy no doubt possesses the merit which is claimed for it or he would not authorize this paper to announce that he is not only willing to give free to each person suffering from Asthma, Hay Fever or Bronchitis in this city, one liberal "free trial box" of his Cure, but urgently requests all sufferers to call at Good-year's Drug Store, Ann Arbor, within the next three days and receive a package absolutely free of charge, knowing that in making the claim he does for his Cure, a strong doubt may arise in the minds of many, and that a personal test, as he offers to all, will be more convincing, and prove its merits, than the publishing of thousands of testimonials from persons who have been permanently cured by the use of his Asthma Cure, "Dr. Schöffmann's Asthma Cure," as it is called, has been sold by druggists of this city ever since it was first introduced, although many persons may never have heard of it, and it is with a view to reaching these that he makes this offer. This is certainly a most generous and fair offer, and all who are suffering from any of the above complaints should remember the date and place where the distribution will be made, and avail themselves of the same. Persons living out of this city who desire to test the efficacy of this most wonderful remedy will receive a package free by writing to Dr. Schöffmann, 330 Rosabel street, St. Paul, Minn., providing their letter is received before Oct. 16th, as no free samples can be obtained after that date.

DON'T KILL THE GOOSE

THAT LAYS THE GOLDEN EGGS—FACTS FOR WASHTEAW COUNTY TAXPAYERS.

$30,000 SAVED IN 2 YEARS.

Figures Taken From the Tax Rolls for Each City and Township in the County.

Never before in the history of Washtenaw county, has there been such a record made in the interest of the taxpayers, as has been made by the republican county officials of this county for the past two years.

When they came into power they found an over-draft at the Ann Arbor Savings Bank of exactly $14,412.02 on September 30, 1894. After two years of republican rule that overdraft has not only been paid, but there was a balance on hand of $14,720.96 on September 30, 1896. Do not take our statement, but step into the county treasurer's office and see for yourself. Or, better still, take your tax receipts for 1893 and your tax receipts for 1895 and compare them. You will find your county tax reduced one-half! Never before, in the history of the county has such a magnificent record been made. Do not be deceived by appeals to partisanship, but look to your own interests, look to the interests of your pocket book and continue in office the men who have worked for you.

The following table is a true transcript from the various tax rolls in every supervisor's district in this county, showing how much was expended for the years 1893-4, and for the years 1895-6. These figures cannot lie unless the tax-rolls lie.

Read these figures. Think about them, and then, when you go into the booth on November 3, so cast your vote that you will continue in power the men who have labored to save your hard earned money:

FOUND OUT THE TRUTH.

A short time ago the farmers of Gratiot county appointed a non-partisan committee to go to Detroit and find out what effect the Wilson Bill had had upon imports of Canadian products at that port. Here is a comparative table of a few products that they found:

Table with 3 columns: Product, Two Years under McKinley Bill, Two Years under Bryan Bill.

Poultry 150,822 lbs. 275,347 lbs.

Corn 1,940 bu. 3,893 bu.

Oats 2,468 bu. 2,483 bu.

Eggs 125,976 doz. 218,278 doz.

Hay 84 tons 2,290 tons

Beef 45,750 lbs. 348,556 lbs.

Mutton 1,060 lbs. 65,325 lbs.

Straw 24 tons 871 tons

Barley 12,636 bu. 53,441 bu.

Potatoes 33,840 bu. 99,665 bu.

Wool 5,569 lbs. 289,925 lbs.

They also found that the same proportion held good at every one of the twenty ports of entry on the Canadian frontier.

The committee consisted of James Allen, president of the Gratiot county Agricultural Society, Darius Reed, ex-supervisor, and Ed. Mechem, overseer of highways, all prominent farmers of Gratiot county, and of unimpeachable integrity.

These gentlemen have gone home to Mt. Pleasant to tell their neighbors what they found out and you just wait until you hear from Gratiot county, the hot-bed of free silver in Michigan!

Death of Joseph Clark—

For many days Joseph Clark, superintendent of the University hospitals, had been hovering between life and death, when finally, on the evening of Tuesday, Oct. 20th, the death angel came and took his spirit away. The deceased succumbed to Bright's disease, which had been slowly sapping his life for a long time.

Mr. Clark, who was familiarly called Dr. Clark, came to this city some eight or ten years since, from Monroe, and assumed the business management of the hospitals connected with the medical department of the University. His capacity for the place at once developed itself, and he turned what had always been a costly appendage to the medical department into a source of revenue, and managed its affairs in such a methodical and business like way that complaints from patients, which had been many and great, were turned into words of praise.

The deceased was born in England, in 1834, but came to this country with his parents when but a child. For many years he lived at Jonesville, where he was married, moving to Monroe in 1868.

Mr. Clark was a member of Fraternity lodge, F. & A. M., of this city, and for a period of 14 years was an efficient chairman of the committee on finance of the grand chapter of Royal Arch Masons for Michigan. He was a Presbyterian in religious belief, and at the time of his death, a member of the board of deacons.

Mr. Clark was a man who, notwithstanding his firmness, made friends of those with whom he came in contact. He had a pleasant word, a kindly greeting, and a cordial grasp of the hand for his acquaintances, and was always ready to help in cases where help was needed.

He leaves a wife and one son, Harry W. Clark, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Robert Mann, who resides in Lansing.

The funeral services were held Thursday, and the remains taken to Jonesville Friday morning for burial. A good, true man, a worthy brother, a model husband and father, an upright citizen, has gone, and as such he is mourned by the community.

Another Death by Suicide—

When one event happens, another of the same kind is quite sure to occur. This pencil, that wrote up a suicide by hanging, is not worn out before it becomes its duty to record another. During Thursday night some time, James Shirley, who lived on Hill st., went to the attic of his home, tied one end of a stout cloth around a rafter, the other end around his neck, and swung himself off into eternity. Mr. Shirley had lost his position as janitor at the athletic grounds some weeks ago, through neglect of duty, and had not been able to obtain work since. He became despondent and so took his own life. He leaves a wife and three children.

Coroner Ball impeached a jury, who who returned a verdict of death by suicide.

Such events are becoming alarmingly frequent, and are a sad reminder of how lightly this precious life is held by people when distress and misfortune overtake them.

The family have the deep sympathy of many friends in their terrible affliction. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon.

Hard to Please—

A man was taking his usual dose of pork and beans in a restaurant at Olympia and found two silver dimes in the beans. Calling the waiter, he howled out in an impatient manner: "Here, what kind of a lay-out is this? I have found 20 cents in my beans."

"Well, you are hard to please," replied the waiter. "Yesterday you growled about not having any change in your diet."—Seattle Times.

M. J. Noys, of Chelsea, was in the city yesterday, on his way home from the north. He reports that the republicans are all right up there.

Kind Hearted Commissioners—

The board of election commissioners of this county are very kind hearted men. After the tickets for this county had been entirely printed, 20,000 in number, and ready for distribution, the board assembled again, and to accommodate the popocratic county committee, who were displeased with its arrangement, they ordered the tickets all printed over again arranged to suit that committee. It was a kind deed, indeed, and will no doubt make many votes for the republican ticket.

To show how republicans have been treated in the past it is but necessary to refer to the fact that when the vignettes were first allowed under the law, the Ann Arbor city election board, which was then Democratic, refused to allow the republicans to use a vignette, because of a slight technicality. And the ballots were printed that year with only one vignette upon it, that of the Democrats—a rooster. Ezra B. Norris and Thos. D. Kearney figured in that political kindness. Now a republican board "heap coals of fire," on their heads, and give them just what they want.

He Beat the Ins. Co.—

Prof. J. Stanley Grimes, is a gentleman who has reached his 90th year, and has an eye as bright, and intellect as keen as any man who has not seen half his years.

He is a Bostonian by birth, a thorough American in make up, a scientific lecturer and elocutionist by profession, and at one time held the chair of Medical Jurisprudence in the Medical college of Vermont.

Along in early life he took out a life insurance policy in the New Jersey Mutual Life Ins. Co. of Newark, N. J., for $3,500.

When he was 70 years of age he wrote to the company, asking them what they would give him for the policy and call it square. They answered that they would give $2,000 in cash.

Prof. Grimes cogitated over the matter and finally refused the offer. Then the company took out a table of estimates, set its accountants at work and figured out that they would offer him $410 each year, as long as he lived. This offer was accepted.

That was twenty years ago, and the $410 has been coming ever since, and has already reached the sum of $8,200.

This is the first time on record that we ever heard of any one beating a life insurance company. The old gentleman does not have the appearance of being over 70 years of age now. He is active, both physically and mentally, and if he does not live to draw $410 for ten years longer, then appearances are deceiving, that's all.

An Old Resident Leaves us—

Mrs. Ann Carpenter, widow of the late Horace Carpenter, left Ann Arbor Saturday to reside with her son-in-law, Dr. W. H. Stevens, in Detroit.

On Friday afternoon of last week the ladies of the Congregational church gave Mrs. Carpenter a farewell reception, in the church parlors, that society, and a faithful worker therein since its inception. They took that method to show their appreciation of her services in the past and regret at her departure.

Mrs. Carpenter has belonged to the Courier family of readers for all the years of its existence, and feels that its weekly visits are necessary to a right enjoyment of life. Many of her old friends and neighbors here regret her departure from among us.

Y. M. C. A. Hallowe'en Social—

On Friday evening of this week, Oct. 30, the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give a Hallowe'en social at the rooms on S. Main st.

The program for the evening includes a number of Hallowe'en games, and plays. For instance, a fortune teller will be present; there will be a tub of water with apples in it, and every person will be entitled to all the apples they can pick out of the tub with their teeth; there will be pop corn in plenty and Mr. Russell will make candy on the spot. Pumpkin pie and coffee will be included in the refreshments.

There will be no admission fee charged, and music, apples and popcorn will be free. The whole world is invited, and every member of the association is urged to be present for special reasons.

Andrew Mitchell, the celebrated chemist, formerly professor in chemistry in the University of Michigan, writes: I have made a careful examination of Gessler's Magic Headache wafers and find them free from Antipyrine, Quinine, Morphine, Chloral or any harmful narcotics. I cheerfully recommend them for headache and neuralgia. Physicians and druggists everywhere say they are the only remedy we have ever found that will positively cure where all others failed. 25 cents at A. E. Mummy's.

Let us Down Easy—

The board of supervisors for the county adopted the report of the committee on equalization last Thursday, which was as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Location, 1895, 1896, Inc. Dec.

While Ann Arbor has no kick coming, and is very thankful that the board has been even as lenient as it has, yet the wonder will suggest itself: "What will the Supervisor's do when Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti have it all?" Then no supervisor can go home to his constituents and say: "Do you see how I got $5,000 off our town and put it on Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti? Didn't I do well? Guess I ought to be re-elected, hadn't I?"
