At last the street lamp has been put up on the corner of Main and Ann streets. Business men will now be protected from traveling auctioneers and peddlers.

The citizens were favored Saturday night with music by the Ann Arbor city band. The handsomest man in the council is the blushing alderman from the sixth ward.

The editor of the Ypsilanti Commercial is opposed to the use of wine at the communion table. The annual festival given by the ladies of the Baptist church will be held to-morrow evening.

Carrie Porter, a 9 year old girl who has been at the county house for the past year, died Monday. A new sidewalk ordinance was adopted by the council, which will take effect after legal publication.

Calvin Bliss and wife, and Mrs. Gilbert Bliss, attended the funeral of Mrs. Munson Bliss, in Pontiac. The next meeting of the Jackson Baptist association is to be held in Dexter sometime this month.

The high school seniors had their pictures taken yesterday from the steps of the high school building. Jno. Laughlin is building an addition to the building occupied by Geo. Ardenr, opposite the M. C. depot.

Doyle horse, recently purchased in this city for $300, to a Boston gentleman for $500. The people of North Carolina are agitated on the temperance question, and a mass convention was held in Raleigh last week.

Mrs. Munson Bliss, formerly of this city, died in Toledo Sunday night. Her remains were taken to Pontiac for interment. Ald. Besimer addressed the council Monday evening on the question of paving Main street from Huron to Liberty streets.

The game of base ball between the Detroit and university nines last Thursday, was won by the former, the score standing 17 to 4. In Ypsilanti the Normal school teachers and pupils planted 117 trees in the school yard and adjoining grounds, on Arbor day.

Frank Emerick didn't play with the west side nine Friday or the result might have been different. He was engaged in a case in court. It is all right to gravel the streets, but the idea of putting it up a foot or two higher than the sidewalks is bad taste to say the least.

The board of health recommend the erection of a pest house, where patients who may come down with the small-pox may be cared for. David Henning has had the bones of his relatives removed from his lot in the old cemetery, and buried on his lot in Forest hill cemetery.

The street committee has been instructed to enter into a contract for the building of an iron bridge across the Huron river at Swift's mill. Bills were allowed by the council Monday evening as follows: First ward, $1.25; fifth, $6.25; general street fund, $43.68; contingent, $285.71.

question THE DEMOCRAT has always favored. The recorder's report shows the following overdrafts: General fund, $106.89; third ward, $17.54; and the amount on hand as follows: General street fund, $143.81; first ward, $294.25; second ward, $708.92; fourth ward, $359.21; fifth ward, $394.02; sixth ward, $199.61; contingent fund, $1,616.42; city cemetery fund, $49.06.

We don't believe there is a finer or better arranged dental office in the state than the one now occupied by Dr. W. W. Nichols. He has all of the second story in Joe T. Jacobs' block facing Washington street. The rooms are newly furnished, and every thing is in tip-top shape. The operating room is well lighted from a bay window.

Resident auctioneers are now obliged to pay $35 license, and give bonds in the sum of $500 with two sureties for the observance of the charter and ordinances of the city, and non-resident auctioneers $25 per day and the same bond. Resident auctioneers who may be engaged to sell goods for parties not residents, shall be considered non-resident auctioneers and pay the same license.

The residents of the west side, or what is known as the third ward beyond the Toledo railroad, live in about the healthiest portion of the city. They have plenty of pure cold well and spring water; the air is bracing, and except when the wind is in the east, there is no stench arising from cess-pools, vaults, etc., with which the residents of other more thickly populated portions of the city are afflicted.

A reunion of the Michigan ex-prisoners of war is to be held in Detroit June 21, 22 and 23. The circular sent out by the secretary, E. O. Hodge, says some 3,000 survivors have already signified their intention of being present; that an interesting program is being prepared for the occasion, which is designed to be largely social, and for the greetings of men who fought and starved together.

Chas. M. Jones, who has been in the employ of the First National bank, as book-keeper and teller for the past 15 years, will soon sever his connection with the bank. He will go to East Saginaw about the 15th of June where he will have charge of S. Bond Bliss & Co.'s mammoth clothing establishment which is to be opened in July. The many friends of Charley will feel bad to have him go.

Michael Grossman, who has resided on the corner of Second and Catherine streets for many years, a quarter of a century or more, was walking down Main street about 12 o'clock Monday when he was noticed to stagger and then fall. He was picked up and carried to his home when he expired in a few moments. Coroner Clark held an inquest and the verdict was that he died from some unknown cause.

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

MICHIGAN.

Seventy-five cases of measles have thus far been developed among the children of the state public school at Colwater, and one death has occurred.
Celia Konner, a quonon girl attending the Adrian high school, claims that $20 have been stolen from her pocket in the cloak room.

THE LEGISLATURE.

April 26.—In the senate the following bills were passed: Protecting brook trout and grayling in the county of Cass; revising and consolidating laws relating to the highway law relative to township officers. The house concurred in the senate resolution asking the governor to call a special session of the legislature to favor a bill which would prohibit distribution of the liquor of transporting or storing.

The Insane—Passage of the Howell Bill.—Highway and Liquor Laws.
LANSING, April 29, 1911.
Some weeks ago, the bill appropriating $400,000 for the location, establishment and maintenance of an additional asylum for the insane, was reported favorably by the senate committee on asylums and finance. Not satisfied to recommend the expenditure of such a large sum of money if it could be avoided by building additions to the Pontiac asylum or by crowding the two now in use a little closer, the committee visited Pontiac early this week and returned satisfied that the institution is already very largely over-crowded, that as it is now a monster institution any additions to it would be impracticable and perhaps just as expensive, and that the Howell bill was a necessary one.

FOREIGN.

In the British house of commons, Sir Stafford Northcote objected to Charles Bradlaugh taking the oath of office as re-elected member of parliament, and afterward moved that he be not permitted to take the oath. John Bright defended Bradlaugh's right to take the oath, and Bradlaugh refused to do so. He was for his forcible removal, whereupon Sir Stafford Northcote made it and Bradlaugh was ejected from the house.
At the meeting of the land league convention at Dunlin, Dillon warned the government that armed resistance would be made to evictions.

Bill the Banker.
The annals of the poor are short and simple. They record, however, heroic deeds. One of these records is that of a poor navy became a hero by forgetting self, even when death was clutching him.
Years ago, when England was digging canals, the laborer who delved therein was called a navvy. The name an abridgement of navigator, connected in the public mind the digger with works for internal navigation. In course of time it came to designate a halibut on railroads and other public works.

OUR COMMON SCHOOLS.

Huge mechanical educational machines, they are peculiar to our own time and country, and are organized, as nearly as possible, as a system of machinery. The cotton mill and the railroad with the model state prison. The school committee is the board of direction, the superintendent—the chief executive officer—sits in his central office with the time-table, by which one hour twice a week is allotted to this study, and half an hour three times a week to that, and twenty hours a term to a third; and at such a time one class will be at this point and the other class at that, the whole moving with military precision to a given destination at a specified date. Mechanical methods could not be carried further, the organization is perfect. The machinery works almost with the precision of clock-work. It is, however, company of view children are regarded as automata; from another, as India rubber bags; from a third, as so much raw material. They must move in step, and in the same direction, and receive the same mental nutriment in equal quantities and at fixed times. Its assimilation is wholly immaterial, but the motion must be gone through with. Finally, as raw material, they are emptied in at the primaries, and marched out at the grammar grades—and it is well!
