COLORED CONCERT COMPANY!
Travelling. It has just finished the most successful concert season ever given in Chicago, having given THIRTY SEVEN consecutive concerts. No company of any kind has ever been so successful in this wonderful engagement.
They sing the Fantasia
Melodies as no other organization can.
They are not confined down to classical oldness, but live the old songs with all the warmth, intensity and peculiarities which characterized their people in the days of slavery. The cabin, the class meeting, and the camp meeting songs are incomparable. Being the evening they will sing STRAUSS BLUE DANUBE, as they alone can sing it.
ADMISSION.....25 and 50 cents.
No extra charge for reserved seats now on sale at Waite Bros. Jewelry store.

Beef only costs 22 cents per pound in Toledo, how much of it is consumed by the family of eight who live on $1,00 per day and can only spend 50 cents for the table, the other 50 cents going for rent, clothing etc. The same beef is sold in England for 9 cents per pound. What a glorious thing it is to be protected.
Eleven subscribers have taken THIS DEMOCRAT the past week: J. A. Buss, Thos. Boyd, W. H. Orendorf, Canton, Ill., J. B. Williams, Sheldon, Dakota, T. F. Bonner, Au Sable, Fred Wagner, Pleasantine, Kansas, E. Clancy, Ann Arbor town, Wm. Corseus, Ann Arbor, Fred Lutz, Ann Arbor, J. H. Remick, Ann Arbor.
Dexter Leader: John S. Paacy, of Scio, about the middle of April, purchased of Arthur Wood of Lodi, six one year old Vermont registered merino ewes, which with the seventeen he purchased last fall of the same party, makes him 23 registered ewes. He also bought last fall 21 registered ram, which gives him a pretty good start in the line of registered sheep.
E. C. Freer, who has been a resident of this city since 1875, and for the past six years engaged in running a meat market, has closed his shop and gone to Detroit to reside. He expects to open a market and store sometime this fall, possibly on Jefferson avenue. By strict application to business and fair dealing he succeeded in building up a fine trade while here, and we have no doubt he will do equally as well in the city of the Straights.

Two weeks ago an East Saginaw man was delivered of a tape worm 40 feet long. The fact was published at Bay City, and straightway the residents of that enterprising place set out to beat that worm yarn or die in the attempt. Ere long an intestinal parasite 60 feet long was duly ushered into the light of day, and now Bay City is elated.—Evening News.
Why make a fuss over such a small worm. It is not long since that a person in this city was delivered of a worm 135 feet long.
The supervisor of Ann Arbor township makes a partial statistical report for the year 1881: Number of births, 35; number of deaths, 21; number of acres of wheat raised, 3,776; number of bushels threshed, 59,896; number of acres now on the ground, 3,811; number of sheep sheared, 8,300; number of pounds of wool sheared, 50,325; number of sheep now on hand, 8,820; average yield of wheat per acre, 15 bushels; number of dogs taxed, 133. In 1880 the average yield of wheat per acre was 25 bushels.
Donavins famous troupe of Tennesseans drew an excellent audience at the opera house on the evening of Oct. 22, says the Daily Journal, published at Logansport, Ind. The members of this troupe are all possessed of good voices, and they sang those old popular jubilee songs in a way that made the rafters ring, and the audience applauded uproariously. There is a heartiness and zeal of soul and body in these old "spirited" which white folks' singing can never come up to. The entertainment closed with "Strauss' Blue Danube," sung in finished manner.
Wm. Kinnely, who died some 10 years ago in New York city, and left property amounting to $125,000 which entirely reverts to his brother Edward, and his descendants. According to the will made by William it appears that he parted from his brother some 50 years ago in Canada. At the time of the separation they were eight and ten years of age respectively. It is also stated in the will that Edward and his mother left at the time mentioned for Ann Arbor. M. J. Langan of 51 Chamber street, an attorney from New York city, was here the first of the week endeavoring to find traces of the lost heirs.
Commercial: The Pierce memorial services, held at the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, was attended mostly by Normal students, there being a sprinkling of citizens and M. D.'s, who had taken an early start for the morrow. The church was nearly two-thirds filled. Prof. Daniel Putnam and Dr. McCorkle conducted the opening exercises, appropriate music by the choir. Ex-gov. Felch was a member of the legislature when the school system of Michigan, recommended by Mr. Pierce received the sanction of that body, and has since been personally acquainted with his work in the educational field. His address was a just tribute to the fidelity and wisdom of the deceased in his chosen work, and contained some valuable thoughts on education in general. Judge Joslin introduced the speaker and made the closing remarks.
The semi-centennial convention of the Alpha Delta Phi fraternity will be held in New York, May 16, 17 and 18, under the auspices of the executive council. The business session of the convention will be held in the Grand Commandery hall of the Masonic Temple and the public literary exercises at the academy of music. These will consist of a symposium, conducted by the following speakers, upon the subject of "Fifty Year's Progress": In literature, Donald G. Mitchell, in education, Merrill E. Gates, president of Rutgers college; in science, Rev. Richard S. Storrs, D. D.; in politics, Hon. A. Q. Keasbey, in morals, Rev. Rowland D. Hitchcock, D. D.; Hon. John Jay, president of the fraternity, symposium. On Wednesday the members of the fraternity will participate in an excursion on the Hudson river, as guests of the graduate members resident of New York, and on Thursday the annual convention dinner will occur at Delmonico's.
Register: Rev. P. S. Donelson, D. D., one of the early graduates of the university, being a member of the class of 1849, died in Dexter on Tuesday, May 9. Dr. Donelson was born in Colerain, Mass., April 17, 1825, his parents removing to this state in 1828. After graduating from the university, he spent two years at the Presbyterian seminary at Auburn, N. Y., and in the fall of 1851, returned to Michigan, where he joined the M. E. conference, and married Catherine, second daughter of Judge Dexter, of Dexter, this county. He was professor of ancient languages at Fallay Seminary, New York, 1851-3; at Albion college 1853-6, and pastor of the M. E. church Lansing, 1856-8. He was president of the Ohio Wesleyan Female College from 1858 to 1873, pastor of the M. E. church Toledo, from 1873 to 1875, and presiding elder of the Toledo district from 1875 to 1879. He was a delegate to two general conferences and represented Ohio in the London Ecumenical Conference of 1881. About six weeks ago he came to Dexter in failing health. His death will be seriously mourned by all who enjoyed his acquaintance.
A party of friends assembled at the residence of Mrs. F. Rodell Lima, Wednesday evening, to witness the marriage of Miss Dora A. to Willard A. Begole, of Marshall. The bride was lovely in sherry white, with a small bouquet of white rose buds surrounded with drooping simula, at the left of the neck dressing of lace. The groom was dressed in the conventional black dress coat, white vest and necktie and white kid. The ceremony was performed by Elder Northrup, was brief, but very solemn. The presents were many and beautiful, among which were: Silver cake basket by Mr. and Mrs. Hutter, silver ice pichet by Messrs. B. Parker, L. Wood, Burkhardt and wives, Etruscan toilet bottles, silver butter knives, three bouquets of cut flowers, by Miss Emma Begole of Jackson, two dozen damask table napkins, by F. B. Wright and Miss Bling of Marshall, two pair fine linen towels by Z. M. Penn, solid silver butter knife by W. H. Snyder and sister, solid silver napkin rings by Mrs. S. R. Calhoun, one dozen silver nut picks by Geo. Begole and wife, silver pickle fork by Kittle Begole of Marshall, one pair china vases by Adolph and Bertha Rodell, a beautiful set of jewelry in settings by the groom, a basket of cut flowers, that filled the air with their fragrance, by W.

S. Calhoun. After the ceremony, we were marshaled in the dining room, where a bountiful repast was spread and all did ample justice. The happy pair's health was drunk in good coffee.—Chelsea Herald.
Teach them to be polite.
Train your children to be polite at home, and you will never have cause to blush at their rudeness abroad. The rosy-cheeked boy and girl and the strong and vigorous young man who sit in their comfortable seats in crowded cars, while gray-headed grandfathers and grandmothers tug at the straps, are poor commentators on home training. Nothing is cheaper than politeness and nothing pays better. It should not be taught because it pays, but from principle. The young man who is negligent of his mother and sister at home, or the sister who is selfish and unthoughtful will be no blessing to any other home into which they are engrained, until "they learn what they have learned amiss." This is often difficult and annoying, and robs life of its sweetest hours and its richest gifts. Train your children in politeness and unselfishness in little things, and the greater will come without an effort.—Inter-Ocean.
A Monument to Father Pierce.
The following circular is being sent to the teachers and school officers of the state by the committee appointed to solicit aid in providing a suitable monument for the late John D. Pierce:
To the Teachers and Pupils of Michigan:
The deceased was an ardent lover of his country, his institutions and her people. Surely his warmest admirers and personal friends lived in Michigan, and his dying request was that his body rest in the soil, and near the graves of those who shared his burden of pioneer life. His remains are now in the city cemetery of Marshall, where the appreciation and patriotism of Michigan's teachers and pupils will permit them to remain in common obscurity. The school houses and educational institutions of our state are monuments of his good work for us, and surely the inmates of these are endowed with a gift of appreciation to his memory. Therefore, through each city superintendent, or through the secretary of each board of examiners we appeal to each teacher and through the teachers to each pupil of our community to contribute something, be it much or little, to the erection of a suitable monument over the remains of our common benefactor. Contributions should be sent through the hands of your superintendent or secretary of examiners when convenient, otherwise they may be sent directly to Mr. Jeville H. Leland, treasurer of the monument fund, Marshall, Mich. Respectfully,
CHARLES T. GORMAN,
