And yet no one who knows anything at all about the subject can deny that a majority of what we proudly call our "smart young fellows," are seeing just such "wild oats" every day—or, more correctly, every night. They are spending their "disipation" the hard earned dollars that the old folks have by pinching themselves, laid by to put the boys through; wasting the most valuable time of their life; oftentimes even preying on the unguarded innocence of young girls, leaving the flowers of innocence wilted with the poison of depravity.

Quiet—the city. Gone—the comet. Mild—the weather. Spoiled—the sleighing. Dr. Cocker is improving slowly. Free trade can rest until after '84.

Christmas was a dull day in Ann Arbor as usual. Many of the clubs have closed for the holidays. The new P. O. boxes are being taken very fast.

The Ypsilanti Commercial takes us to task for calling that locality a "village." Kalamazoo prides herself on being a corporate body with that humble title, and we thought we were paying you a compliment.

The sub-cribers of the Democrat who get their papers at the post-office, will confer a favor upon the publisher and save themselves annoyance by notifying us of the change they make in boxes in the new office.

The entertainment to be given by the original Spanish students, January 13th, will be something entirely new. Their costumes are novel and picturesque, and their music is said to be peculiarly bewitching.

The following are the real estate transfers for the week ending Dec. 28: Susan H. Guy to Phoebe A. Clow, Milan, $140. Hamet Crane to Edward Robison, Salsine, 19 acres, $500.

Markets. ANN ARBOR, Nov. 21st, 1892. APPLES per bushel... 40 a 15. BEANS, per bushel... $2 50 a 3 50. BUTTER, per pound... 12 a 13.

Frank Bancroft has opened out a first class saloon under the Cook house, where he will be pleased to see his many friends. Old Sol seems to be on a Christmas spree the past week as he has been very irregular in shining upon this wicked planet.

W. H. Adams, of the Hastings, (Minn.) Journal, and his wife, are in the city. They came to attend the funeral of Mrs. Muehlig.

A Ypsilanti girl broke her leg last week while coasting. Girls with small legs shouldn't coast. Our girls meet with no such accidents.

As nearly everybody turns over a new leaf on New Years day we would be happy to do the same and record thereon a score of new subscribers.

The interior of our new post-office with its convenient and magnificent appointments, is a credit to our city and the occupation of its builder.

The medical men call the students who stood up with Morgan against Frothingham, "Godites." The boys always seek the humorous side of things.

Ed. Shirmire, of Minnesota, a law student at the university, left for his home last Saturday, much to the regret of his many warm-hearted friends.

Reverend George, of Dexter, has been challenged by a greenbacker to discuss greenbackism in all its phases at an early day, the discussion to be public.

Mr. Gretton, brother of Lon Gretton, has come to Ann Arbor to engage in the foundry business with the latter. He has resided for some years in Missouri.

Kingsley; S., E. G. Carr.

Henry Matthe's meat market is fitted up in holiday attire, and it makes a fellow's mouth water to look at the fine display of beef, mutton and pork. He has a two-year old heifer hanging up in the center of his establishment, weighing 800 pounds, which is flunked on either side by a couple of his fine looking sheep as ever lost their lives to appease the human appetite; while the display of pork and the neat and clean appearance of the market is a credit to the boss butcher of our city.

"ROBBER ON RATS."—The thing desired found at last. Ask Druggists for "Rough on Rats," clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, bed-bugs, 15c boxes. Hobson's choice—50th Street.

Who shall decide when doctors disagree?—Pope's 4th Moral Essay. "TASTY FROM THE PRESS."—To those afflicted with lung trouble, hear what W. D. Wilson, of the Ottawa (Ill.) Times says: "After being disabled three months with a cough and lung trouble, often spitting blood, can testify that I am cured permanently by the use of Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure." A free trial bottle can be had at Eberbach & Son's drug store.

Death leaves a shining heart.—Young. Coming events cast their shadows before.—Gray's Lochiel's Warning. JEALOUSY.—Some poet has said that: "All torments of the damned we find in the mind." This is grandly sweeping and magnificently inaccurate. Any sufferer from indigestion knows to the contrary. Indigestion, the villain of the tragedy played among the gastric juices of the stomach can, and does double discount the horrors of jealousy. Jealousy is often an attendant upon the latter, and when indigestion is removed the jealousy of a deranged liver flies. Eating the best known remedy or tincture for impaired indigestion, deranged liver, and diseases of the bowels and kidneys. For sale by Eberbach & Son.

Music hath charm to soothe the savage breast.—Congrove's Morning Bride. Bread is the staff of life.—Dean Swift. SKINNY MEN.—Wells' Health Renewer. Absolute cure for nervous debility and weakness of the generative functions. $1. at druggists. Mich. Depot, JAMES E. DAVIS & Co., Detroit, Mich. Virtue is her own reward.—Prior's Ode.

HONEST AND LIBERAL.—When the Hops in each bottle of Hop Bitters (at the present price, $1.25) cost more than a bottle is sold for, besides the other costly medicines, and the quality and price are kept the same, we think it is honest and liberal in the proprietors, and we can only commend them for their or use worthless stuff, or cheating bogus imitations because the price is less.

Neat headed Phillis.—Milton's L'Allegro. A star for impoverished blood, pimples, sallow complexion, is Brown's Iron Bitters. It will produce a healthy color smooth skin, and is absolutely not injurious.

An honest man is the noblest work of God.—Pope. WORTHY OF PRAISE.—As a rule we do not recommend Patent Medicines but when we know of one that really is a public benefactor, and does positively cure, then we consider it our duty to impart that information to all. Electric Bitters are truly a most valuable medicine, and will surely cure Biliousness, Fever and Ague, Stomach and Liver troubles, Kidney Complaints, even when all other remedies fail. We know whereof we speak, and can freely recommend them to all.—Eberch. Sold at fifty cents a bottle by Brown & Co.

He that runs may read.—Cowper's Tiracium. GIVES AWAY.—We cannot help notifying the liberal offer made to invade and suffer by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. You are requested to call at Brown & Co's drug store and get a trial bottle free of cost, if you are suffering with consumption, Severe Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Hay Fever, Loss of Voice, Hoarseness, or any affection of the throat or lungs. It will positively cure you.
