FRIDAY.....APRIL 6, 1883.

Friends of THE DEMOCRAT, who have business at the Probate Court, will please request Judge Harriman to send their Printing to this office.

Special Notices.

The attention of our reader is called to the advertisement of a farm for sale, composed of sixty acres, consisting of the best gardening and farming soil in Washtenaw county. The address land is located on the Ipsitanti road, one mile and a half from this city.

JOTTINGS.

Go and see Keene to-night.
Monday was a fine election day.
Geo. Monroe has gone to Pennsylvania.
W. S. Henderson would like to be city treasurer.

Lorenzo Davis re-elected clerk in this township.

Three gambling rooms in the city in full blast.

"Tramp, tramp, tramp," the boys are marching to Ionia.

Joseph Bull was sentenced to State prison for five years.

S. N. Preston has gone to Indianapolis to visit his family.

A large amount of property is changing hands in the county.

H. B. Kidd, law '80, of Yazoo City, Miss., is visiting in the city.

A change of advertisement this week for Steinfield, the Boss Clothier.

Dr. C. W. Gardner, of Maybabe, [Monroe county, was in the city Saturday.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Library Association will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30.

Thos. J. Waters, of Muskegon, Mich., was here Friday looking after a claim against the Toledo road.

Why is that the poor unfortunate devils, called tramps, are "tried" after sunset instead of in daylight.

A Democratic official of this county, holding a lucrative office, worked against a candidate on the ticket.

Eggs, 13 cents per dozen; butter, 17 cents per pound; new wheat, $1.00 per bushel; flour, $2.50 to $3.00 per hundred pounds.

It is said the reason Thos. Kearns was elected alderman of the third ward, was that he resided over Allen's creek, west side.

Why did those emissaries of the "disaffected faction" of the Democratic party work against a Democratic justice of the peace?

The St. James hotel, and buildings adjacent, were brilliantly illuminated on the night of election, by bonfires and electric lights.

The Princeton College Glee Club will sing at University Hall, Wednesday evening, April 18th, instead of Tuesday, April 17th, as before announced.

Jasper Imus, re-elected to the office of constable, can thank his many Democratic friends for putting his name on to the tail end of the Democratic ticket.

The question has been asked why men incarcerated in the county jail, and non residents, were brought up to vote against the Democratic candidate for J. P.

The Union ticket has carried this state by several thousand majority.
This means death to bossism, rings, and virtually the overthrow of the God and morality party.

Keene, one of America's greatest tragedies, will appear at the opera house this evening in his great play of "Richard III," in which character he has few equals, and no superiors.

Anthony J. McReynolds, of Cleveland, O., a prominent member of the Orthodox church, (Unitarian), has been visiting his numerous friends the past week.
Mack seems to be just as young as he used to be.

Noble's Specialties at the Star. The line of Cass Suits for young men at $10.
The handsome shape square crown derby, and the broad brim soft hat.
These two take the cake with young men. Our stock of light underwear in all grades.

Monday being a legal holiday, the saloons were closed. There was very little drunkenness seen on the streets, and the two principal parties who attempted to kick up a fuss, came from near Vanderbilt, and carried a bottle with them, said to contain "booze."

Jas. J. Parshall, (Democrat) highway commissioner. A year ago Mr. P. was nominated and elected. Taking into account that Ann Arbor township is Republican by one hundred majority, the above gentleman is to be congratulated on his splendid run.

John B. Gough, who lectured in the opera house Tuesday evening, was received by a large audience. As he came upon the stage, he was greeted with tremendous applause. Mr. Gough has spoken here many times, and has never failed to please his many hearers.

A peculiar case occurred last week.
E. B. Gidley, with a search warrant in his pocket, proceeded to the county jail, and searched for some "smoked meat" that had been "fanned" in that locality.
The young gentleman having been recently married, refused to recognize the requisition.

The opera house was filled to overflowing Wednesday night, to witness the play of "Robert Emmet." The performers were not from Madison Square, but they rendered unquestioned satisfaction to as fine an audience as has graced the beautiful interior of our Grand opera house this season.

The German band and the Bethoven quartette, serenaded recorder elect, C. J.
Durheim Monday night. The music was well rendered, and the occasion heartily enjoyed, for Charley set it up to the boys in fine shape. Several speeches were made, and at a late hour the company dispersed.

The play of "Robert Emmet," at the Dundee opera house, Monday evening, under the auspices of the Ann Arbor city band, drew a large audience. A correspondent says the entertainment was a most pleasing one, and well produced. J. E. Harkins, and Miss Nellie Hoban in their Irish characters were simply immense.

The people of this city should feel proud over the election of Judge Harriman to the office of mayor. The nomination was unopposed, and it was only at the earnest solicitation of his many friends that he consented to have his name presented to the convention. Years ago when he wielded the gavel in the same position, his administration was one to feel proud of.

W. H. Henderson, a delegate to the Democratic city convention, and one of the firm of Douglas, Henderson & Co., clothing, and brother-in-law to ex-recorder Douglas did all he could in his way to defeat Edgar Warren, Democratic nominee for justice of the peace.
False statements were circulated on the morning of election day, when Mr. Warren had no time to contradict them. The statements were bare-faced lies. Now to the point. Mr. Henderson's father was a candidate for the same office, and because he was defeated, this member of the firm of Douglas, Henderson & Co., kicked.

While Myatt Kyau, M. D., of Rangoon, Burmah, a graduate of Ann Arbor university, who is here attending the missionary meeting at the Baptist church, was delivering a missionary lecture at Charlotte, the other day, Mrs.
Hiram Welch, an insane woman, came into the church, and, walking up to the dusky lecturer, kissed him. She said she had a right to kiss him, and it was all right. The audience protested, however, and the woman was apprehended and jailed. She will be taken to the asylum at Pontiac, as her church performances are considered highly determined to the missionary cause.

During the trial of Joseph Bull, on the charge of attempting to kill his wife, an effort was made to show his insanity.
Five tramps, who had been lingering in the Washtenaw county jail, were subpoenaed. One of the number was sworn, and chose to disregard the court, that he told the tramp that a man who had spent so many months in jails and work-houses, deserved to be flogged. Attempting to prove a person's insanity on such testimony, was ridiculous. The other witnesses, (four tramps), were not sworn.

Soon after Deputy Sheriff Wallace presented a bill to the clerk, stating that the tramp witnesses had been subpoenaed by the prosecution. Of course he didn't have the bill allowed.

A new telephone wire has been put between this place and Ann Arbor this week. The same wire will connect this place with Mooreville and Milan, the work to progress as soon as the poles arrive. This second wire has become necessary because of the increase of business, and there has been so much "talking" from Clinton, Tecumseh and Adrian—all of which has to pass over one wire—that Saline would often have to wait almost hours before she could get the use of the wire. We keep our connection with the State exchange, this new one only being a local one between Ann Arbor and Milan, although a "switch" here will connect it with the general exchange.—[Saline Observer.

A Letter on Dakota.

CHICAGO, March 28th, 1883.

To the Editor of the Ann Arbor Democrat:

Will you let me have a little space in your valuable paper, to express my opinion on Summer Valley and Belfield. I see by your issue of the 28th inst., that you made mention of this region. I personally know of this region, and as so many people are preparing to emigrate west, I believe my experience will prove of some interest to them.

I have lived in Chicago over thirty years. I have been a farmer, and a nursery man, and now at this time of life, I am selling out my property, and a good business to move to Belfield, (formerly Houston), in Billings county, Dakota. Had any one told me I should do this six week ago, I should have said they were crazy. Belfield is located at the junction of the Belfield & Black Hills R. R., and the Northern Pacific railroad visited all the Northern Pacific country fit for farming, in February and March with a view to buying land for parties. I found Belfield in early March free from snow, with vast beds of lignite coal, cropping out here and there, with numerous springs and streams flowing through the whole valley, with a climate so mild and dry that I went around in my shirt sleeves, and an atmosphere so pure, I never felt so good in my life. I was so astonished and delighted with the country, that I took the first train to Bismark, and secured 320 acres of government land at a cost of $820 only. Such land I never saw before.
Peter Corslow, who lives there, raised 140 bushels of fine potatoes as ever grew without care or attention, out of three quarters of an acre on the town site of Belfield, last year. They raised 30 bushels of wheat to the acre, which will weigh 60 and 62 pounds to the bushel. They raise stock in this valley, finer than any I ever saw, the let them run all winter without any care or shelter. They will beet right off the ranges in mid-winter, and it is fat and tender. This is the finest section in all Dakota, and any man who will come there and work, can double his fortune in five years. The gentleman who are building Belfield do every thing for the settlers. They give them the cheapest rates, good houses at cheap prices, and on long time, and so far as I can see, are trying to be fair with every man, as they think that the growth of the country next year will pay them back with interest for all they lay out. They have done all they can for me, and for my friends, and seem willing to do the same by every one. They have a fine investment, and are sparing no expense to make Belfield the best town west of Bismark. They are now putting up a number of houses, a hotel to cost $50,000, a bank, a brick machine, stores, etc., which they will sell out at cost to the right parties. I believe any man who goes there will get rich, he can't help it, the country is growing so fast. When I left there, government land could still be had near the town, but was being rapidly taken up, and by June no one will be able to get any land within ten miles of Belfield. I want to see some settlers come in there, for I have given up a good house and business for this new land of promise. I believe I will make a good thing in every way by the move, and as others will do the same thing, I want only good men to come up there, and see as I saw, and there settle. When I left Belfield, on my way home, it was free of snow; but from Bismark to St.

Paul, our train was blocked by snow banks all the way, showing that Summer Valley is the place, for there the spring is earlier, the climate milder, the cattle interest more productive, and the prospects for wealth greater than any point in Dakota. I will be glad to give any information to people wanting the same, if they will write or call on me.

Yours truly,
CHARLES LINDEMANN,
Lake View P. O., Cook Co., Ill.

Emma Abbott in Martha.

The announcement that the favorite and famous prima donna, Emma Abbott, will appear at the opera house, Friday evening of next week, in Flotow's sparkling opera "Martha," will give rise to anticipations of the most enjoyable musical entertainment of the season. Miss Abbott is deservedly a favorite in this city, and in her previous appearances has given excellent satisfaction. Her return under any circumstances would be most welcome. As it is however, she will be seen and heard under most favorable conditions. She is singing this season in better voice than ever before, and has developed such remarkable improvement as to win the approval of the press and public everywhere. Her company this season is the largest and best that has ever given English opera in this country, and is admirably equipped in every department. The principals are all eminent artists. The chorists are large and well trained, and the orchestra is complete, and composed of eminent musicians. Among the artists who aid Miss Abbott are Madame Rosewall, Lizzie Annandale Marie Hind, William Cas-telle, Valentine Fabrice, Alonzo Stad-ford, John Gilbert, Wm. Broderick and many others. The choice of Martha is an excellent one. It is a beautiful opera, and Miss Abbott's exquisite singing of the "Last Rose of Summer," will be heard with pleasure. The performance will be one of the most attractive of the season, and will draw a crowded house.
The advance sale will begin next Monday.

When a policeman finds a man full, he takes him to the station-house and his friends bail him out.
Scientific advancement.—Scientific advancement has been remarked, has been slower and less noticeable in the care of the sick and the treatment of disease than in any other department of human knowledge. The life or death of a patient is too frequently a mere matter of accident or chance. Some great discoveries, however, have been made, and certain remedies are known and used with almost infallible curative results.
Such a remedy is Taraxine, where a de-cayed liver is involved, or where diseases of the bowels, kidneys or spleen prevail. It is sold by Eberbach & Son.

—and in the afternoon, "Children, obey your parents."

GRAVE ROBBERS.—Of all classes of people the professional grave robbers are the most despised. He robs us of our dear friends for a few dollars. The difference is this new grave robber, Dr.
Bigelow's Positive Cure, which robs graves of thousands of consumptives.

This unequalled remedy for coughs, colds and consumption, whooping cough, croup and all throat and lung diseases, subdues and conquers these troubles speedily and safely and thoroughly.
