MICHIGAN NEWS.

The equinoctial storms were unusually severe on the lakes this season. Barges and schooners were badly broken up. A number of large boats were wrecked. The water was so high that the boats and property were in danger of being washed away. The water was so high that the boats and property were in danger of being washed away.

Burglars entered Reheben's jewelry store, Detroit, a few days ago, and ransacked the premises escaping with about $15,000 worth of jewelry. The store was made up of the safe containing about $50,000 worth of diamonds, but the thieves were frightened away and were arrested by breaking a hole through the rear wall.

A daring piece of highway robbery, which nearly resulted in cold blooded murder, occurred at Vassar. John Ward, a farmer from near Gagetown, Tuscola county, had been employed at Alpena for some time, and started on home in company with one George Elliot, a sailor from Bay City. They reached Vassar, and together spent the time drinking until they were both in a state of intoxication. They then started on their way, and a fight ensued. Elliot was killed, and Ward was severely injured. The case is now pending in court.

A case of considerable importance to banks goes to the supreme court from Lenawee circuit. G. H. Davis had money deposited in the bank, and the bank refused to pay it. The case is now pending in court.

Marine City wants a bank and steps are being taken to secure one.

Ceresco, an enterprising little burg between Bay City and Marshall, is to have a large steam flouring mill.

John and Nicholas Stahl, brothers, were instantly killed by a Grand Rapids & Indiana street car engine in Grand Rapids a few days ago. They were crossing the track in a wagon and failed to notice the approach of the engine.

Ann Arbor Democrat.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 5, 1883.

For President in 1884. GEN. WINFIELD SCOTT HANCOCK.

The election in Ohio next Tuesday promises to be the most exciting in the history of that state. How the result will terminate remains to be seen.

WHAT the negro may expect from the republican party in Kentucky, by the recent election in Kentucky. J. W. Asbury, a colored minister, was hatched on the tail end of the republican ticket for the purpose of catching votes.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT has entered upon its sixth year, and evidence is given of growing prospects.

NEVER in the history of this country there was a call on the democracy for a more earnest standing together, shoulder to shoulder, or for more assiduous efforts in behalf of popular government.

THE Toledo Telegram is authority for the following statement: Work will be commenced next week on the extension of the Toledo and Ann Arbor from Ann Arbor to Frankfort, on the shore of Lake Michigan.

It is an humiliating sight to see a chief of police, who is successful, be reported up before a board of councilmen and inform them that he is unable to enforce the laws.

When asked by the mayor if he—the chief—thought anyone else was doing the job better than he, he replied that he had always done his duty to the best of his ability.

Alderman Martin seemed to be shocked when chief Nowland said that he had seen a certain person with a gun at a saloon on Sunday and six others with him in it.

He further said that saloons were open on Sundays and all hours of the night, and something ought to be done to enforce the law.

The Toledo Telegram is authority for the following statement: Work will be commenced next week on the extension of the Toledo and Ann Arbor from Ann Arbor to Frankfort, on the shore of Lake Michigan.

The total length of the extension will be 225 miles. The price to be put immediately under construction is that between Ann Arbor and St. Louis, Grant county, a distance of 30 miles.

An old grading between Owosso and St. Louis will be done by the Toledo and Ann Arbor company. J. M. Sterling of Detroit, chief engineer of the Toledo & Ann Arbor, has the plans and estimates completed for commencing work at Owosso at once.

The work will be done by the Toledo, Ann Arbor & Northern Michigan railroad, and will be under the same official control as the present Toledo and Ann Arbor.

We have been informed that considerable dissatisfaction has grown out of the Ypsilanti fair. One case in particular is worthy of mention.

In the named race trotted on Friday, C. L. Tuomey entered his horse, the "Lucky Clay," and the entrance fee to the money in his pocket.

When time was called the name of Mr. Tuomey's horse could not be found on the book.

When asked about it, he was informed that if Larry Clay trotted it would break up the race.

Tuomey was called on to the judges' stand and he then and there demanded his money when the book it from his pocket and handed it over.

The horses were to trot under the National rules, but it is said no rules were observed.

Not only this but the race was trotted late in the afternoon.

Dolmans, handsomely trimmed with fur and astrakhan range in price from $8.00 to $20.00.

In the next department we try to get to a fine lot of what will be the most popular garments this season—the Russian Circulars.

These are trimmed with fur and astrakhan and made either of the best goods of Ottoman and Sicilian silks.

The cloaks made of Ottoman and Sicilian silks and satins are usually graced with fur and are very tastily trimmed up.

Plain circulars are also to be found at prices ranging from $12 to $40.00.

By far the finest garments are the elegant plush cloaks, some of which are worth $100.

In addition to these we have a full stock of children's goods—something not often found in a place of Ann Arbor's size.

The Cloak Room is now open to visitors and daily visited by many who are attracted by the display.

It is well worth a visit, and those who are acquainted with Messrs. Bach & Abel and their obliging clerks, know that they are always welcomed whether or not they desire to purchase.

The Pope has approved a series of text books to be introduced into the Catholic schools of the United States.

A liberal reward will be paid to any party who will produce a case of Liver, Kidney or Stomach Complaint that Electric Bitters will cure.

When they will drive away the disease, then along, it will cost you nothing for the medicine if it fails to cure, and you will be rewarded for your trouble.

All Blood Diseases, Biliousness, Jaundice, Constipation and General Debility are quickly cured.

Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Price only 50 cents per bottle. For sale by Eberbach & Son.

Alcock's Porous Plaster. Cure where other Plasters fail even to relieve.

Take no other or you will be disappointed. Insist on having ALCOCK'S.

PHILADELPHIA, 908 NORTH THIRD ST., Feb. 10, 1882.

I have been using ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS for a number of years and always with marked benefit.

I have been much troubled with muscular rheumatism; have been treated by five of our best physicians without receiving any relief.

When I used your plaster, I have tried other kinds but found them worthless.

WEAK KIDNEYS CURED. COOFTOOROCK, N. H., March 3, '83.

I have been greatly troubled with rheumatism and weak kidneys.

I was advised to try ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS (had used two other kinds of so-called Porous Plasters, which did me no good).

But one of yours has worked like a charm, giving me complete relief.

I have not been troubled with rheumatism and kidney complaint since using them, and I consider myself cured.

THE COUNTY FAIR.
It is a Grand Success as Predicted—First Three Days Jottings of a "Democratic" Reporter.
The fair is a success.
Over two thousand entries.
Swine well represented.
Pomological hall looks neat.
The cattle exhibit is immense.
The horse exhibit can't be beat.
The sewing machine exhibit is very large.
A big jam yesterday and a large crowd expected to-day.
The race track is in splendid condition.
There is a grand display of carriages and wagons.
The show, stove, clothing and carpet exhibits are first-class.
The show of cereals and vegetables as fine as ever seen on the grounds.
Wm. Cousins and Miss Sarah Fletcher have a fine lot of plants and cut flowers on exhibition.
In the line of photographs and pictures, J. Keck & Co. make a fine display, and their space in floral hall is visited by hundreds of persons who admire looking at fine work. This firm has one of the largest and most tastefully arranged photographs and art galleries in the city.
Their rooms in the St. James hotel consist of two stores, are handsomely furnished and filled with elegant pictures, oil paintings, photographs and a large asortment of picture frames. Persons visiting the fair to-day should not fail to see their display, for then they can judge for themselves as to the quality and kind of work this firm is turning out.
Another display worthy of mention and by far the finest exhibit in furniture and carpets, is made by J. Keck & Co.
They occupy a portion of the north side of floral hall. The space is beautifully trimmed with curtains of various designs, while the sides are covered with patterns of Brussels and tapestry carpets. In addition to the above articles, they have several handsome samples of furniture, consisting of parlor sets, easy chairs, fancy rockers, etc. The variety of cloaks to be found anywhere in the county. Their display of these goods is simply immense, and are very much admired by the ladies. The variety of cloaks are of different styles, the lighter ones varying in price from $3 to $20.
Russian circulars in either silk or wool from $14 to $50. They have also several handsome sets of fine garments on exhibition, running all the way from $20 to $40 in price. Next comes plush garments from $35 to $60; also several beautiful brocade Ottoman and Sicilian dolmans, a full line of Jerseys, and a fine asortment of cloaks for misses from four to fourteen years of age.
Of the exhibitions of clothing and goods, fancy goods, Fall & Winter make by far the finest display. Everything is tastefully arranged and the goods attract considerable attention.
The assortment consists of handsome suits of clothing for men and boys, fine overcoats, silk handkerchiefs, collars and cuffs and a fine line of cuff buttons—only samples of what they keep in stock in their many cloth establishments.
This is the first time they ever placed the goods on exhibition at a county fair, having only recently succeeded Joe T.
Jacobs, and they evidently did not propose to be outdone, judging from their magnificent display as above enumerated.
The carriage shed south of floral hall serves as a cover for nicely finished buggies. Here you can see single and double horse carriages, manufactured by Wagner Bros., who also exhibit several lumber wagons. Walker Bros., and R.
Schmidt also enter some of their wares.
Want of space prevents our reporter from noticing other fine displays in floral hall until next week. As it is we are compelled to leave out considerable important matter, but it will keep.

A special committee, consisting of many city citizens, including Mayor Lawrence and alderman Hinzman, have been appointed to take into consideration the tramp business, and to consult with the board of supervisors and report at the next meeting of the council.
The Cincinnati Star says: The Jolly Pathfinders, at Henck's ope house, gave just the finest kind of a show. People who enjoyed the Troubadours will know just what to expect from this company. The entertainment is said to be too funny for anything.
Many Shotwell of Concord, this state, who has never had the use of his arms or hands, is learning telegraphy at the telegraph school of M. C. Peterson. He can now write from 25 to 30 words per minute, and is a fine penman. He works the keys with his teeth, and also holds the pen holder between his teeth.
Homer Henderson was attacked Wednesday evening about 8 o'clock by two foot pads, near the old jail square.
He made a lively fight and was getting the best of it when they were knocked down with a revolver. The thieves failed to secure either his money or watch which they said they were after.
The ladies and young people of the Unitarian society will give a reception on Saturday evening of this week, in their church parlors, to students of the university and high school, who have been, or purpose to become members of the congregation. To all such students a cordial invitation is extended to be present on Saturday evening.
B. J. Conrad, agent for the Michigan mutual life insurance company, has taken 44 risks in this county since the first of last January—the largest amount on any one life being $5,000. This company only does business in this state, Indiana and Ohio. In the past week the total amount of risks taken figured up over $1,000,000.
Manchester Enterprise: THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is on its sixth year.
It is a very new-y paper and when we say news, we don't want to be understood that it steals from the country exchanges and publishes items from one to two weeks old. It has news that no other paper has and we hope it will make its proprietor rich.
Saturday some 75 farmers, interested in a ditch to be dug, and running from the township of Freedom to a point near Jerusalem, in Lima town, met at Judge Harriman's office to attend the hearing.
As the parties could not agree upon commissioners, the judge appointed H.
D. Platt of Pittsfield, Geo. A. Peterson of Seio, and Wm. April. When constructed the ditch will be eight miles long.
A party of Toledo gentlemen, consisting of H. L. Backus, D. Robinson, Jr., C. L. Luce, H. P. Platt, V. H. Ketchum, R. Halloran, R. Locke, Clark Wagner, F. J. Oringer, W. T. Walker, in company with Gov. Ashley, dined at the Cook house Monday evening. They came over to meet a number of Grand Trunk officials who passed over the road from Pontiac via of South Lyon. They left for Toledo at 2 p. m. in a special car.
Boston Daily Advertiser: A novel entertainment was given at Beacon Park yesterday afternoon, by a company of one hundred pale-faced and copper-colored people, assisted by many horses and heads of the p. m. W. F. Cooley, (Buffalo Bill) and Doctor Carver are the owners of this exhibition, and their followers include Captain Bogardus, Major Frank North, Col. Tom Wilson, Scouts, Cowboys, Indians, Mexicans, Mustangs, Buffalo, Elk and Steers. Sixteen tents form their camp, six of them being wig-wags occupied by some of the Indians.
The men and the beasts are thoroughly genuine, the Cowboys being rugged looking, daring fellows, and the Indians little resemble the meek specimens we sometimes see about our streets. The entertainment consists of representations of life on the border, and in two hours one can see in this exhibition what would take him twenty years to master as thoroughly on the plains.

"They who cry loudest are not always the most hurt." Kidney-Wort does its work like the Good Samaritan, quickly, unostentatiously, but with great thoroughness. A New Hampshire lady writes: "Mother has been afflicted for years with kidney diseases. Last spring she was very ill and had an alarming pain and numbness in one side. Kidney-Wort proved a great blessing and has completely cured her."
"Why are you so distant?" said a tramp to the beefsteak in the restaurant window.
Messrs. Anderson Bros., Midland City, say: "We have sold Brown's Iron Bitters quite largely, and it has given entire satisfaction."

Rheumatic Syrup Co., BUTLER, N. Y., March 10, 1882.
Gents—I take this opportunity to express my gratitude for what your Rheumatic Syrup has done for me. After suffering over one year with the rheumatism in my shoulders, so I could hardly get my coat on without help, a friend induced me to try one bottle of Rheumatic Syrup. After taking it I could see that a decided change that I continued its use a short time and it cured me.
