

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

AMONG THE RESOLUTIONS adopted at a grand democratic meeting in Savannah, Ga., recently, was the following:

"We will welcome the day when there shall be no solid south and no solid north, but a solid union as it was 80 years ago, and when all American citizens, white and black, a native and adopted, at home and abroad, shall stand equal before the law and be covered and protected by our country's flag."

About the middle of November, the Washington monument had reached a greater height than that of any other structure in the world, being 520 feet, 10 inches above the floor of the monument.

A LIFE worthy of emulation has closed with the death of Dr. Gray of Big Rapids. As the temple at Jerusalem was built "without sound of hammer or ax," so this good man in a quiet, unassuming manner, made for himself a name which is a synonym for all that is gentle, good and Christ-like, leaving behind the record of a life well spent in the service of his Master, and in the age of four-score years passed quietly away to the home prepared for the faithful.

For the November crop report the secretary of the Michigan Experiment Station reports, 505 of which are in the southern four tiers of counties. The weight of measured wheat is estimated at 1,031 per cent. of full weight, or 60 and 60 pounds.

Both the acreage and yield of potatoes are greater than in 1888. The yield of sheep and swine are in good healthy and thrifty condition. A few deaths among cattle from an unknown cause are reported.

Repeals have been received of the quantity of wheat marked by farmers during the month of August and September and reported in the Michigan Experiment Station report.

It has been the cause of no little comment that comely looking, abled-bodied young women leave their homes in the British Isles and on the continent to come to America with the Mormon elders who go abroad proselyting.

Let our gratitude and affection not only be religious observances, but also in acts of Christian charity. Let us be kind to all who are supplied tables, loving memories filling the vacant chairs, let us not forget the solitary and the aged, the poor and the destitute, and let us remember that for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

MICHIGAN NEWS.

After a Clear Title.

Chicago, Nov. 11. A Carpenter, Col. F. B. Stockbridge, the Hon. J. H. Van Dyke of Milwaukee, and about fifty other prominent men in the Grand Pacific to take measures to prevent if possible the title of their possession, become involved. A recent decision of the Secretary of the Interior has placed a cloud upon the title of millions of acres.

In 1856 Congress made grants of land to Michigan to aid in building two railroads in the western part of the State. One of these grants was vacated by act of Congress and the other was allowed to lapse by failure to construct the road.

After the ten years had expired, after certain relinquishments of the lands by the Government and the local Land Office at Marquette and the general Land Office at Washington treated the land as other public lands and sold them to all comers. Sales were made to 18,000, aggregating nearly 1,000,000 acres.

More than half of this amount was patented; the balance has been up at public auction in the Land Office. In 1880 the State undertook to bestow one of the grants on a new railroad, but the title was not clear.

Many farmers are becoming convinced that the title to the land is not clear. They are holding their land in Berrin county are feeding wheat to their stock, the price being so low that it leaves them no margin after deducting the cost of raising and marketing the grain.

The heirs of Means Richardson are contesting a claim against the estate of $1,500 which Jas. E. Forbes claims is his due for work performed while he lived with Richardson, now deceased.

The prohibitionists of Ann Arbor, rather enjoy the onslaught made on them by republicans. Schumacher, Boylan, Crozier, Conrad and others laugh at them as they pass by.

Washtenaw county is sadly in need of a new jail. We believe that the people would vote to raise $100,000 for the purpose, which is sufficient to put up a building. It is enough.

L. Gruner, treasurer of the board of education, has the plans and specifications for the proposed new building for the use of the janitor of the high school, to be erected the coming year.

Already prospects for mechanics look encouraging for a brisk season of building next year. A number of fine residences are to be put up, principally in the first, fourth and fifth wards.

Alrich M. Bodwell, for many years a resident of this city, where he carried on various branches of business, died Saturday, aged 66 years. He was born in Franklin county, N. Y., and came to this place in 1833.

Some time Friday morning burglars visited the residences of Mrs. Wells, E. B. Drury, W. H. Hewett, E. Hewett, John Minnis, C. Lang, S. J. Vail and J. H. McKinstry. The burglars got very little for their trouble.

The democrats of Manchester celebrated the election of Cleveland and Hendricks with a torch light procession, speeches and fire works Friday evening. Many business places and private residences were illuminated.

Herald: Probably the largest yield of clover seed to be found in this county is on the farm of E. A. Nordman. From 12 acres he threshed sixty bushels, and in all he threshed 100 bushels. Burnett Steinbach did the threshing.

Frank Preston, a young man 19 years of age, while returning home Monday evening was thrown from his wagon by a runaway team and had his neck broken. The accident occurred between the residences of P. McIntyre and P. Sheehy in Northfield.

Frank M. Howard's residence on Catherine-st., was entered by burglars Friday night and a watch and $25 in money taken. The same night Henry Cornwall's house on Division-st., was broken into and a silver watch and $3 in money carried off.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE DEMOCRAT. Only $1, cash in advance, will pay for the paper until Jan. 1, 1886. Out of the county subscribers can have it mailed to their address for 15 cents additional, which will pay for the postage for one year.

Thanks be to God the hour is come. How sweet the G. O. P. Thrice blessed is every democrat Who lives this day to see.

There'll be no north, no south from hence, But union every where, Dividing lines will be erased When Cleveland takes the chair.

There are many children in this city who do not attend school as the law provides. They roam about the streets day and night, congregate in the post-office, toast their shins around the steam pipes, play tag, and occasionally use a lady, all of which is a nuisance that should be abated.

A Methodist Sunday school institute will be held at the M. E. church on Friday, Saturday and Sunday of this week. The meeting will be addressed this evening by Rev. J. H. Picheur, of Jackson, Mich., and on Sunday evening by Rev. Horace Hitchcock, of the central M. E. church, of Detroit.

Wednesday night the boys treated John Lindenschmidt to a serenade, and for over an hour fired cannons, blew horns, beat drums and kicked up a fearful racket generally. After the blow-out the crowd were treated to the cigars, when they wended their way homeward, much to the relief of the newly married couple.

Record: According to the Adrian Times the number of applications for state oil inspector under the new republican governor up to Saturday had reached 55, and Smith's corpse not yet cold! Talk about the "organized appetite" of the democrats when the republicans sail in like this. And many back counties are not yet heard from.

Mr. John Lindenschmidt, a popular young gentleman of this place, and Miss Carrie Binder, daughter of Mr. Henry Binder, were united in wedlock Wednesday. The many friends of the young couple will wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life. They have taken up their residence on Ingalls-st. in a new house newly furnished.

At an extra session of the pomological society Saturday, M. S. White was added to the committee on reception, and Jno. J. Robinson, and Miss E. Al-mendinger on decoration, and Jas. Toms on flowers. Remarks were made by C. W. Garfield, chairman of the same horticultural society, and Mr. Gibbons, of the Michigan Farmer. Next meeting Nov. 29.

J. F. Schulz, B. F. Watts, H. D. Bennett, C. H. Manly, W. J. Henderson and the tramp editor are candidates for post-office honors in this city. The last named person stands a better chance of being struck by lightning. A man for postmaster should have brains in his head and not in his heels; he should be accommodating with all and capable of answering questions intelligently.

It costs something like $4,000 to light the streets. The city would save money by dispensing with many of the lamps and substituting the electric light. Three are needed on Detroit-st. to the depot and an equal number between the Cook house and the campus, and a few others placed in different portions of the city would be an improvement on the present plan of lighting the city, and at a much less cost.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season promises to be the promenade concert and hop to be given in Sheehan's hall, on Catherine-st on Thanksgiving evening by the Chequequegans. The concert will be begun from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m., after which the hop will begin. A carefully selected programme will be presented by their excellent orchestra consisting of ten pieces, including cornet and piccolo solos by those eminent soloists Messrs. H. A. Drake and Fred Macomber.

Chet Haynes, who lives just across the county line is a republican clear through. Amid the turmoil of strife of the late campaign a son was born unto him, and very recklessly he made a vow to name the child after the successful candidate, expecting all the while, of course, that his new son would soon bear the proud cognomen of James Gillespie Blaine Haynes. He has accepted the situation however, and the young man will be known as Grover Cleveland Haynes.—Record.

A girl baby was born in Georgia the other day without any chin.—Exchange.

We can expect a big exodus to that state right away. This one little item is going to do more to develop the industrial resources of the south than all the documents and oratory with which the country has been flooded during the past 20 years. The style of female without any "chin" will become one of the most active products of that favored region, and will be overwhelmed with offers of marriage.—Lansing Republican.

The next entertainment given by the Students' Lecture association will be in university hall, this Friday evening, Prof. Richard A. Proctor, F. R. S., the renowned English scientist, will then deliver his illustrated lecture "Great Pyramids." Mr. Proctor has probably delivered more public lectures on scientific subjects than any speaker of the time. A noted English journalist says: There is no man living who can place an obtrusive subject before an audience in such a popular and taking way as he can. His style is almost marvelous in its simplicity, and there is little to wonder at that he has charmed so many thousands by his discourses. Reserved seats at the usual places.

The Amphion makes the following interesting statement of Mr. Ben Faeder's performance at Harmonie hall in Detroit last week: "The violin solo by Benj. Faeder, was a surprise to all. In the poisonous opera 21 by Wicniawski, Mr. Faeder gave a trial quite unexpected. He has a broad style, a true technique, and a very pure tone, to which he adds an expression which attracts the attention of his auditors and holds it through the delivery of the number essayed. Seldom does one see that interest, which Mr. Faeder's playing elicited at Harmonie hall. A most enthusiastic encore was responded to in the delivery of a beautiful yet plaintive little melody, in which he was exceedingly happy and made his audience the same." Mr. Faeder will appear in Ann Arbor at an early date.

Commencing December 1 and continuing for three days the annual meeting of the state horticultural society will be in session in this city. As a large attendance of visitors is anticipated extensive arrangements will be made for their reception and entertainment. President Saunders and Secretary Beadle, of the Ontario Fruit Growers' Association, and President Ohmer, of the Ohio Association, members representing the society outside the state will attend. The following incomplete list of topics to be discussed has been made: Relation of culture to hardiness; making horticultural displays; judging fruit in jars; in what way horticultural societies benefit city residents; progress in Michigan horticulture; rural periodicals and our duty towards them; feeding for manure; horticultural statistics in Michigan; the apple maggot; facts concerning back lice; habits of some of our friendly insects; saving horticulture; rusts, smuts and molds; flowering shrubs for the garden and lawn; grapes and grape rot; southern competition in vegetables; warding off frosts; growing, selling and keeping winter squashes; studying in the woods; the nurseryman and the painter. The society will issue their full programme to-day.

THE RINK.
 We were glad to see that Will Worden has taken to skating.
 The management intends to have the rink repaired at an early date.
 Miss Lottie Benedict returned last week from Saline, where she had been engaged as instructor for ladies at the rink.
 Mr. J. E. Wyman tries to please his patrons in every possible way and the rink certainly deserves a better patronage than it now has.
 A strictly select masquerade party will be given at the Princess on Dec. 21. Could we not have one here? With proper arrangements it would surely prove a success.
 The great three mile race for the championship of the university was held on Friday evening. The contestants were C. D. A. Wright, medic, C. G. Bush, dent, and J. E. Sullivan and C. H. Kline, laws. Mr. Kline kept the lead from the start and made the run in 12 minutes and 40 seconds, which is but little below the best record for a three mile race. The time would have been considerably shorter had Mr. Kline not been delayed on account of being thrown to the floor by Mr. Wright.
 A Little 'I'll for the Republicans.
 Yes! republican friends, we are here, and in the language of one of our noble temperance women, "We are here to stay." We, as temperance people, are not oblivious to the fact that we have hit you hard, but we are not ready to apologize just yet. Oh no! not to you, our noble friends. You dark and lowering countenances, that we meet daily on the street convince us beyond a doubt that you realize that we as prohibitionists, have made a glorious strike for temperance.
 Go on, you good old time republicans, wriggle and writhe, nurse your wounds and heap up your anathemas mountains

 "I DON'T FEEL LIKE WORK."—It makes no difference what business you are engaged in: whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Kidney and Bladder Pills, a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pockets. One hour of good relieving health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.
 Highest approbation—Applause from the gallery.
 How He Got A POSITION.—"I applied for a position in a banking house in Wall street six months ago, and although I proved my competency, they would not take me. I had been down on my luck and looked old and shabby. An idea struck me. I got up a new growth of hair with Parker's Hair Balsam, raised a decent suit of clothes, applied again, and they took me in a minute." So writes a clerk with a $2,000 salary. The moral is plain Parker's Hair Balsam gives a person a new face.
