Mrs. S. Dean died Wednesday morning. She was a daughter of Col. Strong.
Treasurer Kearns, of Seio, will be at the county treasurer's office next Thursday.
Rev. Dr. Powell of Grand Rapids, preached at the Unitarian church Sunday.
Frank Jerome and Chas. Minnis were in the city Wednesday on their way to Milan.
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whiting spent a portion of last week visiting friends in Milan.
Mrs. Mary A. Livermore is to lecture in this city about the middle of February.
Frank Lansing, of Webberville, was in the city on business Monday and Tuesday.
It is reported that E. B. Helber has traded his property in Saline for western property.
D. Platt has been appointed administrator of the estate of R. Isaac Kuy, deceased.
Postoffice hours New Year's day from 9 to 10 o'clock a. m. and from 6:30 to 7:30 p. m.
Rev. J. T. Sunderland will officiate at the Unitarian church Sunday morning and evening.
I. R. Miner had his cutter smashed Saturday. We did not learn how the accident occurred.
Mr. A. K. Payne of Port Clinton, O., spent Christmas with his parents on East University-ave.
Sheriff Wallace will step down and out next week, after having served the county for four years.
A little more snow Saturday greased up the sleighing, which is good in the city and country as well.
Mrs. B. F. Moore of Lapeer is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Brower, of Lawrence.
Comstock F. Hill has rendered his final account in the matter of the estate of Wm. Hulbert, deceased.
County Treasurer Knapp, Register Gilbert and Sheriff Wallace will step down and out next Wednesday.
The Michigan Central is selling tickets to places along the line for one fare for the round trip, good until Jan. 7.
Miss Bernice Upson returned home from Minnesota Saturday where she has been visiting relatives since September.
A large amount of reading matter is unavoidably crowded out of this week's Democrat to give space to advertisers.
Mrs. A. M. Fall, who has been visiting her sons D. C. and C. S. Fall, for some days, returned to her home in Alhion, Tuesday.
The Milan skating rink was opened Saturday evening. There was a large crowd in attendance and music by the Saline band.
Deputy Sheriff Sutherland sold a portion of the goods of Mary E. Foster at auction Saturday, to satisfy an execution he held against her.
The superintendents of the poor have purchased six tons of pork for $4.85 per hundred, and the same amount of beef at $5.65 per hundred.
A number of our citizens are going to New Orleans in February, when they can take in the Mardi Gras festival, as well as the World's fair.
The dogs that killed a number of sheep belonging to farmers in the vicinity, were owned by President Angell, Judge Cooley and Dr. Dunster.
The annual meeting of the Washtenaw mutual insurance company, as per notice published in another column, will be held at the court house, Jan. 14.
Only a few short weeks intervene before the inauguration of president elect Cleveland. Several of our citizens contemplate witnessing the ceremonies.
The council met in special session Monday evening but no business was transacted, the committee not being ready to report on the light question.
The merchants have been doing a lively business for a few days back. Holiday goods have been in demand, and many persons have bought liberally.
The temperance people are preparing to hold a great temperance revival. It is proposed to secure the best speakers and have a red hot time for a week or more.
Oscar Tucker, some years ago in the employ of L. S. Lerch, the Huron-st. druggist, but now a resident of Philadelphia, Pa., was in the city the first of the week on a visit.
Superintendent Davis informs us that he has had less call for temporary aid thus far this year than during the same time of any former year of his official relation to the county.

State-st. was fairly alive with fast flyers Saturday afternoon, and some excellent time was made. The best was 9:20, made by L. A. T. to Detroit when there is good sleighing.
Died in this city Dec. 18, of old age, Mrs. Sophia Hainin. She was a daughter of Dr. Eli Derby, and sister of Mr. Lorenzo Davis, of this city. She was born in Sharon, Vt., Feb. 22, 1800.
The cold snap last week was general all over Michigan. The thermometer varied in different locations from four to twenty-five degrees below zero. Seventeen below was the coldest in this vicinity.
Jacob Riddle, of Bridgewater, was in the city Saturday and his horse ran away and into a cattle guard on the Toledo road. The horse in attempting to extricate himself broke his leg and had to be killed Monday.
Hereafter the board of education will meet in the council chamber, where each member can have a desk to themselves. For years the board convened in the private office, and the last meeting was held in the superintendent's room in the high school building.
M. J. Seery, who has had charge of the prison asylum at Jackson for the past two years, will return to the city next week to assume the duties of deputy register of deeds, which position he so acceptably filled during C. H. Van's and the late Peter Tuite's administrations.
We have no doubt there will be some disappointed would-be deputy sheriffs after the first of January. Mr. Walsh will not follow the precedent established by the present sheriff, by appointing a deputy at a large fee for the business himself.
The monthly meeting of the pomological society will be held Saturday, Jan. 3, at 2 o'clock p. m. Topics for discussion: "What can fruit growers do to keep cholera away from their homes, if it should migrate to this country?" The question box will be opened for those in attendance.

The great slaughter sale of clothing still continues at the famous one-price clothing house of Fall & Hendrick. People are taking advantage of the big bargains that are being offered and are replenishing their wardrobes. This enterprising firm have something more to say to the public through the columns of THE DEMOCRAT.
Saturday as Fred Gauss, of Bridgewater, was on his way home from this place, his horse ran away near the toll gate south of here. Gauss was thrown out with considerable force, but fortunately escaped injury. The last seen of the horse he was on the keen jump going toward Saline. Up to Monday night he had not been found by the owner. Gauss footed it to his home some 16 miles away.
Leader: At a review of Unity Tent No. 82, K. M. T. M., held in their hall at Mooreville, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Com. J. Clark; Lieut. Com. H. Gillman; R. K. E. B. Ford; F. K. A. D. Conde; relate; F. E. Reese; physician, J. Molnys; sergeant, A. R. Draper; M. A. J. W. Forsyth; 1st M. of G. A. Davis; 2nd M. of G. A. Davenport; sentinel, J. Jackson; picket, F. Holcomb.
At the council meeting Monday evening next, the lighting of the streets will be the principle business to be transacted. The gas company is willing to furnish gas for $12.20 per post, a reduction from $24. It looks like many persons that there is something wrong, and that the city will be skinned as in the past if any contract whatever is entered into with the gas company, unless the council look well to the matter.
We are informed that no less than five gambling dens are run in this city and people begin to kick. Some are visited by students, to others town boys squander their last nickel, and in the more remote spots one can be found those who lay claim to more than ordinary respectability. It is only a short time since that the citizens' league had charges preferred against the occupants of a house in the fifth ward, and succeeded in driving her out of town. Now let the league commence on the gambling dens and have them exterminated.
The juvenile temperance union have company elected officers as follows Monday evening: Chairman, Jas. Barker; captain, Edward Jolly; assistant captains, Geo. Parker, Clyde Kerr; secretary, Wm. Goetz; corresponding secretary, Chas. Kline; treasurer, Henry Kyer. The object of the company is to practice and take in tournaments, hoping to be able to scoop other companies competing, and to make a scale by a very little work. The boys expect liberal donations from citizens to aid them in procuring uniforms, etc.
Business is business, and when an advertisement is left at a newspaper office for publication, the same care should be taken as if it was a communication. Neither should be "given away." No one except those connected with the office are supposed to know what will appear in the paper. Secrecy is enjoined on the part of employer and employee, and to make known what should be a secret is reprehensible. A business man may have some well arranged plans, and it is time enough for one to know of his intentions when his advertisement first appears.
"I suppose few drinkers of whiskey," said a wholesale dealer "realize how little of original value they get for their money. The cost to the distiller of making the best possible whiskey is only about forty cents a gallon. Now, a girl is a fair quantity for a drink, the charge for which at the most stylish bars is twenty cents. That is to say, a thing costing the producer a sixth of a cent in Kentucky is retailed at nearly forty times as much. Of course, the government tax takes some of the enormous profit, and the wastes of storage another portion. The gains of the landlady remain astounding. I know of no more solid temperance argument than the ridiculously high prices charged for liquors by the glass."
On Wednesday eve, Dec. 31 the opera house will be occupied by the best advertised of the best, as well as best operated attractions from New York City. As a guarantee of this assertion the management will return to any of its patrons the full price of all tickets, if any time during the performance they shall offer just cause of dissatisfaction. The play will be "Mugs' Landing," a comedy-drama in 4 acts, by Scott Marble. It has been the most successful play this season, and the press everywhere speak in glowing terms of its merits. The company comprises twelve artists, the stars being Miss Frances Bishop, of the Madison Square Theatre, and Mr. Alfred McDowell, formerly of the Tourists. The rest of the company are all well known.
The Washtenaw county committee and leading prohibitionists of the county met in this city Thursday and prepared for further action. They say they are going to open the campaign at once, that they intend to put township tickets in every town in the county at the coming elections and make a warm fight. A literature committee and also one on speakers and meetings were appointed, and the following delegates elected to the state convention to be held in Lansing Feb. 24: First district, B. J. Conrad, and A. O. Crowder, Ann Arbor; J. P. Wood, Chelsea; W. P. Thompson, Salem; Geo. W. Merrill, Webster; second district, Geo. P. Wright, Bridgewater; M. S. Every, Bridgewater; Geo. L. P. Foster, Ypsilanti; Albert Miller, Saline; Edward Glover, Lodi. Their projected reunion was deferred until the next county convention.

Ald. Biggs has a short communication in today's Democrat in regard to the snow and occupants during the snow from in front of their residences. The "cure" thing to be done is for the city to hire men with snow plows to keep the streets clear and let the taxpayers as a whole pay for it. By this means all owners of unoccupied lots will be obliged to contribute their proportion of the expense, whereas now they never pay any attention to the ordinance, for many owners of property are non-residents, and cannot be reached by any other way. We, for one, say, let the expense be borne by the city, and then the walks will be kept clean from snow. Some years ago the alderman of the third ward employed a man with a team and charged it to the third ward fund. No one kicked, and they wouldn't now if the present aldermen would do the same thing.
An American drama full of emotional incidents teeming with startling situations. A thrilling subplot of conspiracies an olio podrida of dramatic tableaux, and intricate climax interspersed with an overwrought stage cornucopia of most comical scenes, sparkling music, artistic dancing, etc. This is "Mugs' Landing" without a word or action of profanity, or vulgarity. An American comedy drama, written by the popular dramatist Mr. Scott Marble. Its great popularity is due to its merit as a most interesting and sensible story, which has been put into dramatic shape, and does not include either a murder, suicide or breach of promise, and does not contain a single profane or impure word or action, and is more akin to "Hazel Kirke" than any play on the stage. The Company are all well known artists and do ample justice to their respective parts. Especially Miss Frances Bishop, formerly of Madison Square Theatre, N. Y., Mr. Alfred McDowell of the Tourists, Mr. Geo. A. Barker, of Bunch of Keys Co., etc. Every act of "Mugs' Landing" introduces a new dramatic feature. Every scene is interesting either for its melo-dramatic effect or its humorous, vocal or terpsichorean action. "Mugs' Landing" deserves great praise for its author and the company, who so ably represent it on the stage. We more cordially say "come again."—Pittsburgh Chronicle.

The faculty decided at a recent meeting to remove the requirement of modern languages from the entrance examinations of candidates for the degree of B. S. (C. E.)
It is rumored that those college chimes will be rung on Christmas day. If this is authentic we feel sure many of the students will stay over expressly to hear them.—Argonaut.
Among the many alumni who were in town last week were Dr. Fyle, medic '85; Dr. Vandoe, medic '81; H. G. Gorry, medic '83; Chris Gray, lit '83; Dr. Watts, medic '79; J. S. Wheelock, homeop '78.
Fred A. Travis, pharmac '84, was in the city over Sunday. He is in partnership with Mr. O. J. Parker, of Howell, and the firm of Travis & Parker own the largest drug store in St. John, Mich. The report that Mr. Travis was married in July last is not true.
THE TWO SAMs.
As per announcement in the city papers last week Blitz & Langsdorf commenced their great slaughter sale of clothing, hats, caps and gents' furnishings goods Saturday morning. As soon as the store was opened the people commenced to flock in, and notwithstanding several extra clerks had been engaged, the rush was so great that customers stood around anxiously awaiting their turn. Those who are acquainted with the manner this firm does business well know that whatever they advertise to do they will in all cases live up to their agreement. It is in this regard that the "Two Sam's" have succeeded in building up a large and growing business. They recently purchased a mortgage sale in Detroit some $30,000 worth of clothing for less than 50 cents on the dollar, and having on hand at their store on Main street, a big stock of goods, they thought best to combine the two stocks. As many people complain of close times and being in a position to give them their bargains as was never before, of their present great slaughter sale, which will be continued until every body is supplied with clothing in this vicinity. They are of opinion that while they are almost giving goods away, it is a good time to lay in a supply even if not absolutely needed for present use. Aside from clothing their stock of gentlemen's neckwear is full and complete. They have a fine line of silk handkerchiefs, scarfs, gloves and mittens, while their stock of ladies embrace all of the nobly shajahs.
