Ann Arbor Democrat.

FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1885.

Friends of The Democrat, who have business at the Probate Court, will please request Judge Harman to send their Printing to this office.

JOTTINGS.

Tramps are plentiful. The public schools closed yesterday. Prof. Wm. Belsler is home on a vacation.

The new wagon of painter Herz is a beauty. Mrs. W. H. Potter has moved into the Peabody house.

The Methodists give a picnic at Whitmore Lake, June 27. The woods in the vicinity of this city are swarming with locusts.

Col. Deane and Robert Campbell left yesterday for Portland, Maine. Dexter is to celebrate the 4th of July, in the regular old-fashioned way.

Wm. H. McIntyre has sold his brood mare to Will Boyden of Webster. Jos. H. Peebles, who has been in feeble health for some time, has moved to Howell.

Mack & Schmid are building a second store house, corner Liberty and First streets. J. J. Reed, son-in-law of D. Hiscock, will attend the commencement week exercises.

The hook and ladder boys gave a hop at the Whitmore Lake house, Saturday evening. Mrs. Ewart Scott gave a very pleasant lawn party at the Elm fruit farm, Saturday evening.

B. F. Moore of Lapeer, spent Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Jas. Brewer of Lawrence street. Sidney Harrington of Chelsea, died Friday, aged 55 years. He was a member of the G. A. R.

Saturday's receipts in the register of deeds' office were the largest ever known at this time of year. Mrs. Frieze, who has been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Goodyear, returned to her home Saturday.

Miss Herdman arrived in this city in the middle of last week on a visit to her brother, Dr. Herdman. Edward Hiscock has a young farmer boy, weighing nine pounds, which put in an appearance Saturday.

Prof. O. L. Waller will continue to perform the duties of principal of the Dexter schools another year. Mrs. Martha A. Hall is certainly one of our oldest pioneers, having been a resident of this city for 61 years.

A scrub nine from this city defeated the Ypsilanti base ball club at the latter place, Saturday, by a score of 23 to 9. Company A have decided not to purchase the rink, but will go to Adrian July 4 and take part in the celebration there.

L. James and his nephew, J. L. Babcock, were in Tennessee last week. They are making their annual tour through the south.

A very enjoyable Dickens party was given by Prof. and Mrs. Pettee, last Wednesday evening, at their residence on Thompson street.

At the state sanitary convention, to be held at Ypsilanti June 30 and July 1, Park, Davis & Co., of Detroit, will make an exhibit of disinfectants.

There is no disputing the fact that the sidewalks of the city were never in a worse condition, and the council should do some netting in the premises at once.

Miss Nettie Ames, who has been teaching in Minneapolis, Minn., the past year, returned this morning and will spend the vacation with her father, A. W. Ames, Esq.

Now is the time for a cheap excursion to Detroit. Why does not one of our societies take the matter into consideration? A large crowd could readily be counted on.

The scholars of the third ward school pined in Cook's grove yesterday and had a fine time. The children of the second ward indulged in like sport at Relief park.

Joe. B. MacMahon of Manchester, formerly a sophomore in the university, but recently of Prosecuting Attorney Norris' office, has gone home to his home. He will perhaps go west next fall.

The Ypsilanti Commercial, in a new dress and of its usual size, appeared last week brim full of news, and presenting a neat typographical appearance. There is nothing slow about the Patti sons.

Gov. Alger has appointed Othmar Eberbach, of the firm of Eberbach & Son, a member of the state board of pharmacy. Mr. Eberbach is one of the oldest and best known druggists in the state.

A large and boisterous crowd may be seen almost every evening abstracting the walk on Main street, corner of Liberty street. The assembly is not called for, and probably to be a nuisance, which should be abated by the police.

Many improvements are being made in the third ward in the way of grading, graveling streets and putting down tar walks. The same may be said of other portions of the city. While the streets and cross walks are generally in good shape, the sidewalks are in a terrible condition in many quarters.

Work on the ladies' library building has commenced.

Jas Monroe has returned to Grand Island, Nebraska. Disgraceful—the sidewalks in many portions of the city.

Joe. T. Jacobs left for Columbus, O. Wednesday, on a short visit. Isabella Bates has been granted a divorce from Louis Bateway.

There is to be an excursion from Toledo to this city, next Thursday. Washtenaw and Monroe counties are now in one senatorial district.

The Minnie orchestra play at a ball at Milan on the evening of July 3. In some localities the cut-worm is doing considerable damage to corn.

C. A. Hendrick, of Fall & Hendrick, was in Detroit Tuesday, on business. E. G. Stiles is expected, on home from Breckenridge, Col., the first of this week.

Peter Tyler of Ypsilanti has invented a harness for weaving wire picket fence. E. N. Gilbert is agent for the Equitable accident association of Birmingham, N. Y.

The people of Howell are making a big effort to get the Toledo road to that place. Students are leaving in large numbers, which makes lively business for truckmen handling baggage.

Ward, the champion skater, was given a benefit by his Ypsi. friends, at the rink in Ypsilanti, Tuesday evening. Miss Minnie Collins, who was visiting friends in this city the past week, has returned to her home in Milan.

Jno. Schumacher, Isaac Dunn and J. S. Hammond, went up to Jackson Monday, and heard Ex-Gov. St. John. Mrs. Chas. Schultz returned from Philadelphia last week, where she had been on an extended visit to her father.

Wm. Frank celebrated his 40th birthday, and was made happy by being presented with a handsome gold watch. A house, to cost $1,200, is being put up by Geo. W. Oront on J. J. Parshall's place, in the township of Ann Arbor.

Wm. C. Gerstner has rented Mr. S. Knight's house, on Hiscock street, where he is now residing with his young bride. The Ypsilanti Light Guard have accepted an invitation to visit Adrian and take part in the 4th of July celebration.

W. H. Lewis is not going to Cleveland, but will remain in Ypsilanti for the present. He is resting on his laurels as hotel man. A. Wilsey, whose advertisement appears in to-day's paper, has sold, within the past week, $300 worth of band instruments.

The next village to be head from is Milan, and here people are making arrangements on a big scale for a celebration on the 4th of July. E. W. Coddington and H. C. Clark of Pittsfield are in telephonic communication with this city, having recently had telephonic put in.

Gov. Felch is building a $1,500 house on his farm on the river road, better known as the Sid Benham place. Geo. W. Oront contractor.

Isaac N. Hunsberger, Jno. W. Gillespie, Chas. Dresbach and Delbert J. Hoff, were admitted to the bar, Monday, after a thorough examination.

A new sidewalk, 12 feet wide, has been laid in front of Schneider's market, North Main street. More new walks are needed on the same street.

Chas. Harmon claims to be the champion skater of Milan and vicinity, and has issued a challenge to that effect. Wonder if he has heard of Kline?

D. J. Loomis, F. Besmer and J. Inus, who have been camping out at Strawberry Point, have some very big fish stories to tell since returning home.

The first annual graduating exercises of the Milan high school were held Wednesday evening. Music was furnished by Emerick's orchestra of Ypsilanti.

The ladies' decoration society go to Whitmore Lake Friday, June 26, to spend the day. They will be accompanied by the fifth ward band, and by the way, the boys are becoming fine musicians.

The streets are filled with loads of cobble-stone, which the commissioner should have picked up. Next week a large number of strangers will be in the city, and they will have a more favorable impression of the place if our thoroughfares look neat and clean.

Milan Journal: The musical concert at the Presbyterian church, Friday evening, under the auspices of the B. E. Quartet, of Ann Arbor, presented an interesting and pleasing programme, and was well attended. The singing of Messrs. Mallory and Green deserves special praise.

Milan Journal: Over $30,000 worth of improvements in the way of new business blocks, residences, etc., have already been made—or are under construction—thus far this season in Milan. This is indeed a very promising showing of the growth of our thriving village, and indicates that it is to become a place of no mean importance.

The total number of deaths in this county during the year 1884, was 247. The number of births during the same period was 579. The greatest number of deaths in any one month was in November, being 50, and the greatest number of births was in November, reaching as high as 64. January was the healthiest month, there being only 24 deaths.

Pontiac Bill Poster: Three months of a democratic administration has passed and not the first republician prediction of ruin and disaster to the country has occurred. Quite to the contrary the wheels are running smoothly, there is no discord from any quarter, and enough republicians have been turned out to show that but for the change the country would have been wrecked beyond redemption by G. O. P. rascals.

Adrian Press: The water in which mackerel has been soaked over night should not be thrown away, but saved and poured over cabbage plants, as it is a most effectual remedy against the cabbage worm or miller. We have this in the authority of Mr. W. M. Graves, of this city, who has tried it; he says a second application is rarely necessary. The urine in which the fish is packed may be used, but must be reduced with two parts of water to one of urine. It is worth a thorough trial at least.

J. F. Lawrence was in Detroit Tuesday.

Wm. Herz is laid up with a sprained ankle. J. D. Stimson has gone to Canada on a visit.

The Omega made its appearance yesterday. Chas. Rauschenberger, aged 4 years, died Wednesday.

There are 817 books in the Methodist Sunday school library. R. J. Kirk of Geneva, O., is spending commencement with B. D. Payne.

Miss Grace Seabolt left yesterday for a week's visit with friends at Capac. Mrs. Julia Colgrove of Fairport, Ill., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Richardson.

Mrs. F. W. Breaky left for the east yesterday, to visit relatives and friends. Koch & Haller will furnish the upholstered furniture for the masonic temple.

Bro. Overacher of the Chelsea Herald, paid this office a pleasant call, Wednesday. At the high school alumni meeting tomorrow evening, Judge Harman will deliver the address.

The high school nine defeated the Normals of Ypsilanti, again Saturday, by a score of 18 to 7. Sunday was children's day at the Methodist, Congregational, Baptist and Presbyterian churches.

The class graduating from the high school held class-day exercises at Whitmore Lake, Wednesday. C. P. Cary, near the Central road, has materially improved the appearance of his place in the last few days.

Jno. Wesley Freeman, a prominent young colored gentleman from Chicago, is visiting the scenes of his early childhood. The juniors of the high school, held a social at the home of Jas. Angell, and the seniors at Miss Dunster's, Tuesday evening.

Geo. Maraden, has been doing a fine job—fixing up the yard, corner of Ann and Division streets, known as the Royer property.

Jas. Haviland aged 51 years, died Wednesday of congestion of the brain. The remains were taken to Au Sauble for interment.

The Wagner Bros. turned out, Tuesday, a neat new wagon, which was manufactured expressly for J. Gall. John feels proud of it.

Wednesday evening next the Ann Arbor Knights go to Ypsilanti. It being St. John's day services will be held in St. Luke's church.

There is no disputing the fact that Ann Arbor is the healthiest and liveliest city of its size in the state, and for beauty is excelled by none.

Dr. W. A. Pratt of Elgin, Ill., has purchased the Mills Bros., a four-wheeled-old car for $150, which will be shipped by express to night.

Dr. R. E. Douglas of Stony Creek, has been pardoned from the Detroit work house, where he had served 18 months out of a four years' sentence.

Prof. Fall's many friends in this city will be pleased to know that his children in Albion, who have been dangerously ill with scarlet fever, are considerably better.

If "Casual Observer" will take time to look up the law, he will find that the county treasurer has until July 1st to make his report as to the amount of license money received, before turning it over to the city treasurer.

Mrs. Mary A. Foster has commenced suit against the old Post & Tribune Co. in the superior court, Detroit, for $10,000 alleged damages on account of an article which appeared in the paper soon after her departure from this city last December.

The city band netted $100 from their dance, last Friday evening. The second dance will be given to-night at Relief park. The members are anxious to raise enough by these dances to purchase a fine set of instruments. They are deserving of patronage.

The wool market is at a stand still, very little being brought in, the farmers holding on for higher prices, declaring they will not sell for less than 25c. Mack & Schmid have only purchased 4,000 pounds for from 22 to 23c. The first clip of 530 pounds was marketed by A. Sierole of Pittsfield, and bought by the above firm.

John C. Winans of Chelsea, a resident of the township of Sylvan since 1833, died Sunday. He was born at Waterbury, Albany Co., N. Y., in 1808. In March, 1850, he located in the village of Chelsea, where he erected the first business block in the place. He was a prominent member of the Congregational church, and for years officiated as deacon and trustee. He left a comfortable fortune.

Some people blame the police because there is so much noise on the streets on certain hours of the night, but it should be remembered that a good share of it occurs when they are lighting and extinguishing the lamps. They have a long distance to travel, and it is while on their rounds that noisy fellows take advantage of their absence and disturb the peaceful slumbers of our citizens. Perhaps the council may know of some way of "putting up a job" that will abate the nuisance.

Attention is called to the advertisement of John Finnegan, one of the largest dealers in agricultural implements in the interior of the state. Everything in the line of farmers' implements can be found at his establishment. The Advance iron mower, manufactured by the Ann Arbor Agricultural Co., has been thoroughly tested and gives entire satisfaction. The new improved, light and easy-running Empire tire binder, is the farmers' favorite, and is sold by Mr. Finnegan. Give him a call.

Yesterday while taking a drive on the Ypsilanti road we stopped for a moment to admire a piece of stone work, which probably cost not less than $300. It consisted of a number of stone culverts across the road, near the residence of C. Eberbach. The walls were handsomely decorated and topped capped with marble slabs. Just above the entrance to the culvert were the figures "1885". The work is a monument to Hudson T. Morton, who had charge of the work, but the tax-payers of the sixth ward foot the bill.

The old jail property will not be sold for the present.

Wheat, 93 to 94 cts; oats, 35 cts, and corn in the ear, 28 to 30 cts. High school commencement exercises take place to-morrow morning.

The 800 feet of new hose recently purchased by the city, has arrived. Lon Bliss has opened an auction and commission house in the Goodrich block.

The contract for supplying the plate glass and painting the new jail, has been awarded to Albert Sorg. The temperance meeting for Sunday has been postponed for one week, when L. Davis will be the speaker.

H. Kittridge will receive $50 for grading up the lot owned by Nelson Kyer, corner Depot and Main streets. Chas. Battomeck, arrested for an assault and battery on Rudolph Graf, as set the case by paying the costs.

Geo. W. Oront is building a large barn for W. W. Tozer, on the farm he recently purchased of Fred Hooper. Miss Lulu Frankster will assist her brother Frank during commencement. She will then return to Detroit.

H. W. Hayes has purchased two lots on Ingalls street, adjoining Ira Cornell's property, for $1,250 and will build a $4,000 residence. Henry Storms has joined the army of book agents, and with a knapsack on his back has gone forth to try his luck. His territory will be in New Mexico.

The spiles and lumber for the new dam being constructed by the Cornwell Bros. is gotten out at Milan, and ten car loads of material were received within the past week.

On account of the increasing business of the Cook house, the third story of Donnelly's building, adjoining the hotel, has been leased, and will be utilized for sleeping apartments.

Wm. Herz will do the painting on Jno. Koch's new residence. He also has the job of painting the farm residence of David Luick in Lima, one of the finest farm houses in the county.

It is said that the members of the new sixth ward engine company are at loggerheads. Precisely what the trouble is our reporter has been unable to learn, although it is rumored all wanted to be boss.

Wm. J. Billings, mail agent on the Toledo road, it will be remembered, obtained a leave of absence several days before the November election, and put in his time opposing Col. Eldridge. It is rumored that Billy's official head will soon roll into the waste basket, and it is about time he went.

Henry Johnson, the man who attempted the life of O. C. Bostwick, in Dexter some weeks ago, pleaded guilty of assault with intent to kill, Monday, and Judge Johnson sentenced him to pay a fine of $20 and two years in Jackson prison. He paid the fine and is already doing service for the state.

E. E. Hogg, a junior law, was arrested and jailed last evening for stabbing Ald. Heinemann in the left side with a pocket knife. Fortunately the wounds, four in number, are not dangerous. Hogg was drunk. His examination comes off this morning before Justice Frenauft. The home of Hogg is at Boonville, Ky.

The high school alumni hold their exercises in high school hall, this evening. An oration will be delivered by Fred H. Maynard, class of '70, and a poem will be read by Miss Elsie Jones, class of '84. Toasts will also be responded to by Prof. Perry, Chute, and Steere, A. W. Hamilton, Geo. W. Knight, and others.

The committee finally selected the lot in the rear of the opera house so long used for a city market, for a site for the new jail. We believe this will give satisfaction to the people of the county, for the jail will be only one block from the court house, and in the most healthful portion of the town. The price paid for the property was $1,500.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Washtenaw county agricultural and horticultural society, was held at the court house Friday. There being a vacancy in the office of treasurer, W. W. Tozer was unanimously chosen to fill the position for the unexpired term. The time fixed for holding the next fair was Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 1 and 2. Department superintendents were elected as follows in the departments running from A to N: Jno. Sperry, F. C. Huson, E. E. Leeland, Jno. Kapper, L. C. Hall, J. C. Bird, E. Baur, W. F. Bird, E. H. Scott, H. C. Markham, J. E. Sumner, Wm. Cousins, Mrs. N. M. Schoff, Mrs. W. A. Ames, and Wm. M. Everets.

After the nomination of Horace Greeley for the presidency, in 1872, Whitelaw Reid, Mr. Albert, of Baltimore, and a number of other gentlemen had a dinner. One bottle of wine was left after all had been satisfied, and it was agreed to place on it an inscription to the effect that it was not to be drunk until after the election of a democratic president. All present affixed their signatures to the agreement, and Mr. Albert has religiously preserved the bottle ever since, and now has it in his possession, with the signatures still legible. As a democratic president has been elected, and as no arrangement was made as to who would drink the wine, Mr. Albert will send it to President Cleveland, with an explanatory letter.

Peterson's Magazine comes to us for July, an unusually brilliant number, even for it. There is a beautiful steel-plate, a double-size colored fashion; a double-size colored pattern in embroidery; and about fifty other engravings, mostly of fashions, work-tables, and things interesting to ladies. The literary contents are even better than usual. We know no lady's-book that affords so much and of such high merit, for so little money. The price is but two dollars a year, with great deductions to clubs, and elegant premiums to persons getting up clubs. Now is a good time to subscribe, a new volume beginning with this number. Specimens are sent, gratis, if written for in good faith. Address Charles J. Peterson, 308 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.
