OVERPRESSURE.

Two Stories That Illustrate the Defects in Our Educational Systems.

A girl lies bedridden in Brooklyn and a boy has recently been drowned in New York, whose cases are sadly suggestive.

The boy was a bright fellow, never over ambitious on his own account, but lovingly anxious to gratify his father's pride in him.

But presently the collapse came. The boy's brain, in our "high pressure" system of education, the pressure is not dangerously high?
