O

In this congressional district Allen's plurality is 936.

Six republican and five fusion congressmen elected in Michigan.

PLURALITY FOR LUCE in this congressional district about 800.

In Lenawee county, where Salabury was thought to be strong, Allen had 465 majority.

REPUBLICAN CORRUPTION FUNDS were plentiful in the third and fourth wards, Tuesday.

The democrats elected on the county ticket have an average majority of one thousand.

Was the result of the election Tuesday a rebuke to the administration of Grover Cleveland.

It is impossible to give the exact majorities on the county ticket until the official canvass next Tuesday.

The defeat of W. R. Morrison, the great revenue reformer, to a re-election to congress, is significant in more ways than one.

The republicans will have a working majority in the next legislature, thus insuring the election of a republican to the United States senate.

PERHAPS the officials of Jackson state prison will now have more time to devote to their duties—the election being over—and less prisoners allowed to escape.

Surely the Courier has cheek to talk about democrats spending money with a lavish hand, when the truth is republican money figured largely in this campaign.

Luce is elected governor over Yapple by some five thousand plurality. Only a few years ago the republican majority in Michigan was anywhere from 25,000 to 8,000.

This election in New York city resulted in the election of the Hon. Abraham S. Hewitt to the office of Mayor by a handsome majority, some twenty thousand over George and Roosevelt.

NOTWITHSTANDING the tirade of the Detroit Evening News, and the lies which emanated with the Tribune, Hon. J. Logan Chipman was elected to Congress from the first district.

It is W. A. Clark had even the remotest idea of being elected to the office of county clerk, that defusion has been dispelled by the magnificent majority rolled up for Frederick A. Howlett.

The "Boy from Mendon" made a magnificent run, and the republican majority of thousands has been whittled down to a mere trifle as compared with the majorities rolled up years ago for the g. o. p.

The following congressmen have been elected in Michigan: Chipman, D.; Allen, R.; O'Donnell, R.; Ford, D.; Brewer, R.; Borroughs, R.; Whiting, F.; Tarney, D.; Cutcheon, R.; Fisher, D.; Moffatt, R.

We can not understand why so many democrats remained at home Tuesday and thus refrained from voting, unless it is because they are disgusted with Cleveland's policy of retaining republicans in office.

The election of Tuesday as compared with that of two years ago in this congressional district shows a falling off of nearly eleven thousand votes, and twenty-five hundred less votes were polled in this county than two years ago.

For some unaccountable reason the prohibitionists in Washtenaw and Lenawee counties, particularly, carved A. O. Crozier, their candidate for congress. But then Crozier has had the honor of running, and like a great many others got left.

The vote in this county may be summed up as follows: Yapple 8,119; Luce, 2, 715; Dickie, 478; Salabury, 8,601; Allen, 3,078. Manly, dem. for representative, has 98 majority over Altimendinger, rep., and E. P. Harper 508 majority over Matthew Seeger. James S. Gorman, for senator has 978 majority.

If the outrage perpetrated in Ypsilanti Wednesday night, in which the residence of Dr. Patton was bombarded, and the windows smashed, the occasion being a republican jubilee, had occurred in the north, the republican press would have heralded it from one end of the country to the other as another southern outrage. Fortunately it took place in republican Michigan.

Locality is everything when republicans wish to make capital.

THERE are several things which contributed to the defeat of Lester H. Salabury for representative in congress. And now that the election is over it is well to point out wherein one great mistake was made. In the first place the circular letter which was mailed by the chairman of the Monroe county democratic committee to many old soldiers in this district concerning the "record of Capt. E. P. Allen as a soldier," was such a document as might have been expected to arouse the ire of these veterans who would not see one of their number slandered without resenting it. The attack was unwarranted and uncalled for and cost the party many votes. Other very foolish things were done of which it is not necessary to mention, but they are fresh in the minds of the more clear-headed ones who said that they would only re-set in the Captain's favor. One thing, however, with Capt. Allen in congress, although he is a republican, Washtenaw county cannot fare any worse than it did by the election of N. B. Eldredge two years ago, when we had the pension agent, the Indian agent and United States district attorney, which positions were held by citizens of old Washtenaw—but of course they were republicans.

Crow, for Washtenaw county is entitled to the broom. To-day she is the banner democratic county in Michigan.

Not a republican is elected on the ticket, the democrats making a clean sweep from senator down to coroners.

By such majorities, great heavens! all the way from 1,000 to 1,400. The following are the lucky ones: Jas. S. Gorman, state senator; Capt. Manly and E. P. Harper, representatives; Wm. Walsh, sheriff; F. A. Howlett, clerk; Jas. Keasur, register; F. H. Helsar, treasurer; E. B. Norris, prosecutor; Frank Joelyn and P. McKernan, commissioners; O. C. Jenkins and Martin Clark, coroners, and C. S. Woodard, surveyor.

THERE was an election Tuesday, and it was decidedly mixed. The Free Press Wednesday morning claimed the election of Yapple, dem. for governor, and the Tribune was positive that Luce was elected. Very little satisfaction could be derived by either party from the reports published, and, of course, it was necessary to await further and later returns.

In Washtenaw there was no guess work about it, for the way the majorities had been rolled up for the democratic ticket, proved that old Washtenaw had maintained her reputation as one of the banner democratic counties of Michigan.

It was conceded that Yapple would run ahead of his ticket, and that Capt. Allen who is a resident of Washtenaw and would poll considerably more than his party vote.

The big fight was on representatives, and the republicans shelled out the dollars by the handful, but it was no go. Manly and Harper each made a gallant fight and won, and their opponents went down in the general wreck that followed the republican county ticket.

Mrs. Gabrielski, with her babe clasped in her arms, jumped from the Toledo railroad bridge over the Huron river Saturday while temporarily insane. Several coopers working at the City mills went to the rescue and saved both from a watery grave.
Dr. Homer Drake left Marquette Thursday for Kingman, Kas., where he will locate permanently in the practice of dentistry. Dr. Drake has made many warm friends during his residence here, whose best wishes for success will follow him to his new field of labor.—Marquette Mining Journal. Mr. D. was formerly a resident of this city and at one time leader of the Chequamegon orchestra.

Fall and Winter Season of 1886-1887.
Interest and excitement by consumers of Dry Goods. The late immense spot cash purchases of Mack & Schmid have all arrived.
Our Store is Packed Full!
The stock consists of the most elegant styles in imported and American dress goods, plain and fancy velvets and plushes in handsome combinations, with a tremendous stock of Trimmings, Buttons, Clasp, Ribbons and Novelties—they must be seen to be appreciated. The sight is worth seeing.
We offer extra bargains in our Cloak Department. The weather has been too warm and our stock of elegant Ladies', Misses' and Children's Garments is too large.
We have also made sweeping reductions in Woollens, Flannels, and Blankets Table Linens, Napkins, Towels, Bed Spreads and Housefurnishing Goods, in fact our whole stock is too large and must be closed out. Remember these are stern facts. Call early and secure bargains at the quick sale and small profit Dry Goods House of Mack & Schmid!
Mr. Chas. Whittaker and Miss Annie Clark, both of Chelsea, were married Friday.
Hon. Wm. P. Wells spoke to a full house Monday evening on the issues of the campaign.
President Cleveland has designated Thursday Nov. 25th, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.
Prof. Stangberg & Sons, of Detroit, will open a dancing school in Hangsterfer's hall next Wednesday evening.
Young Lutz bet $5 on Yale late Tuesday night just in time to lose it, and private Crawford is $5 out on Salisbury.
Mrs. Jas. P. Pierce, niece of Mrs. J. W. Maynard, many years ago a resident of Ann Arbor, died in California, last month.
The election in Jackson county was a surprise early to voters in the county who only elected clerk and prosecuting attorney.
There will be a recital in the high school chapel this evening, to which an admittance fee of 10 cents will be charged.
Citizens who throw ashes in the streets had better look out a liddle, and not continue the practice, or Chief Siple will be after them.
Erastus P. Mason, the superintendent of the poor elect, should have an office in court house where he could be found when wanted.
An editor, in acknowledging the gift of a peck of onions from a subscriber, says: "It is such kindness as this that brings tears to my eyes."
Taking everything into consideration, Salisbury made a better run in Washtenaw county than in any of the other counties in the district.
The Warner stock of groceries and fixtures were sold at chattel mortgage every Sunday. The charming Sutherland race and beautiful lawn above it reminds one of early spring time.
J. E. Beal, Joe T. Jacobs and other well known republicans were intoxicated Wednesday—with pleasure—over the election of their favorite to congress.
Mr. Finnegan and Jno. O'Hara have been making a good thing out of it. It is said that they invested largely in real estate, in and around Devil's Lake, Dakota.
A newspaper says: "We have adopted the eight hour system in our office. We commence work at eight o'clock in the morning, and close at eight in the evening."
Property in the fifth ward has increased in value since the Michigan election. The land was bridged, and on account of other improvements made about the depot and grounds.
The entertainment given by the City band, last Friday evening, drew a fair-sized audience, which had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting program. The hop, afterwards, was well patronized.
Loren Mills, for half a century a resident of Ann Arbor, left Saturday for Manhattan, Kan., to spend the remainder of his days. Previous to his departure he was presented with a gold-headed cane by his Congregational friends.
Services in St. Andrew's church next Sunday are as follows: 10:30—Holy communion; 11:30—Lecture by Bishop Cox under the auspices of the Woman's auxiliary. 12 m.—Lecture by Prof. Morris, and Sunday school. 7:30—Third lecture by Bishop Cox, before the Hobart Guild.
The Ann Arbor typographical union elected and installed the following officers Monday evening: President, R. Shannon, vice-president, E. Munyon; secretary, S. Howell; secretary-treasurer, Fred. Shultz; sergeant-at-arms, Clyde Kerr; board of directors, Geo. Stauch, Adam Goetz, Guy Stevenson.
There was a justification meeting in Ypsilanti Wednesday night, over the election of Capt. Allen. Many friends of the congressman elect went down from here, and a regular low-feast was indulged in. It is only natural that Ypsilanti should have a big time over the election of one of her favorite citizens to congress.
Saturday evening Nov. 20th Lilly Clay's Admless Eden troupe, containing eleven male and female, gave an interesting entertainment at the Ypsilanti opera house. As they do not show in this city, it is safe to say that many old men and students of the university, will go down to witness the performance which is said to be immense.
Out of the 171 votes polled in the township of Lyndon, the home of F. A. Howlett, he received 160. This is a pretty good record for a man who has made four assessments as supervisor, showing that he must have been pretty correct in his judgment, and that everybody was satisfied with him as supervisor. He will also make a good clerk.
Business men here who have been doing a fine trade with parties in South Lyon, don't like the idea of losing it in consequence of the inconvenience now offered residents of that place and vicinity by the Toledo road running over one train each way between Ann Arbor and South Lyon. Before the cut off at Leland's, people could come and go the same day.
Winter sets in once more with about as poor a lot of sideways in Ann Arbor as any city can show up.—Courier. It is a burning disgrace, with the many improvements made in the city this past season, that the council should let this matter of sidewalks go by default. Now it is too late to do anything, and we will have to put up with the nuisance, awaiting the further pleasure of the city fathers.
Manners are of more importance than laws. Upon these, in a great measure, the laws depend. A good clerk, a good butler and here, and there, now and then. Manners are what vex or soothe, corrupt or purify, exalt or debase, barbarize or refine us, by constant, steady, uniform and sensible observance of the rules of civility and politeness, which are the basis of all good manners. They give their whole form and color to our lives. According to their quality they aid morals and supply laws, or they totally destroy them.—Edmund Burke.

PARLOR FURNITURE
Our parlor room is now stocked with the very choicest things—new and artistic—that it will be a pleasure for you to see, if you don't want to buy. Notice too our Embossed Plush, 7 piece, Parlor Suit, for $40.00. It's a wonderful bargain.
Chamber Furniture.
Our immense trade in Chamber Suits is good evidence (and substantial) that we please our patrons with the style, workmanship and finish of our goods. And no wonder; for were there ever such suits shown as ours for $17.00, 20.00 and $25.00.
Carpets and Curtains.
It is almost superfluous to say anything about our Carpets, Draperies and Lace Curtains. All who know us, know that in these as well as in all other departments we lead—never follow.
