Virginia has tried all sorts of ways to keep cabbage over, and at last hit upon a plan I haven't seen in any of our papers. We take the heads only, and place them in a corner of an unvarnished stable, put in a quantity of dry leaves, and then bury a head and stuff leaves around it; another head or two, if small, more leaves and so on. Three barrels hold all the cabbage. We pile and pack thoroughly in and around these barrels all the leaves we have patience to carry and lay old boards over them. We have done this several years.

Buffalo Express: What a dreary world it would be were it not for politics! Money in it? O yes. But a great deal more of patriotic desire and legitimate honest endeavor. Don't analyze motives and then say they are bad. The individual may be entirely mercenary, but he is working for party ends, though he may not himself ever rise to the full appreciation of his duty. We are in the political interest of the reader, the healthful life blood that courses through the veins of the body politic. A free people must maintain its interest in politics if it would remain free, and our greatest danger lies, not in too much politics but in too little. Political abuses there are, it is true; but popular apathy only gives them better opportunity for growth. With the greatest of the political activity the more conspicuous do political chicanery, dishonesty, and meanness become.

Free Reading Room.

Tuesday evening a number of our best citizens gathered at St. Andrew's chapel to listen to the report of the committee, to adopt some place to save the youth of our city from spending their evenings on the streets or in the saloons.

Resolved, That such arrangements as may be necessary be made with Mr. Willis Broughton to transfer his circulating library to one of these rooms with the understanding that the use of its books is to be free to the occupants of the Reading Room, and that for the present Mr. Broughton have general charge of the rooms.

Resolved, That an executive committee of five persons be appointed at this meeting, whose duty it shall be to have control of the financial matters of the Reading Room, to provide entertainments of various kinds from time to time, to enlarge the work if circumstances seem to require in general to have the oversight and direction of all the affairs connected with the project, they make a quarterly report to the citizens' club.

Resolved, That a fund be raised for the establishment and maintenance of this work.

Dr. McCollum, veterinary surgeon, of twenty years' standing, can be found at J. A. Bolhem's livery stable on Main street.

The city charter ought to be amended so that all officers should be elected by the people. Not as now a part of the council. The police are on the lookout for boys who coast on the sidewalks. There is an ordinance prohibiting such sport. Look out, boys!

Major Soule shot and had sent here, Monday, a very fine deer which is being mounted for the museum. This is the only specimen they have of deer at the museum. Democrats are tiring of the President's policy retaining so many republicans in office. Turn the rascals out. No longer any good reason for their retention if ever any existed.

The law relative to the punishment of persons who steal rides or board freight cars should be repealed or else bring it within the jurisdiction of justices of the peace to punish such offenders.

The law relative to fire-escapes in this city section will be called by all property owners. The attention of the council has been called to this matter before, but as yet no action has been taken. It is about time they woke up to the danger in the premises. T. R. Buchanan, M. P., Fellow, of All Souls' College, of Oxford, Eng., and R. Preston Bruce, son of Lord Elgin, former Governor-General of Canada, are on a tour of inspection of the colleges of the United States. They were the guests of Pres. Angell, Monday.

The administration ought to be magnanimous enough to appoint a green-backer to some high office—John C. Shields is not to be reappointed Chief Justice of Utah, why not select some representative national. Some such person as Hon. F. A. Stacey, of Marshall who would be an honor.

The Schubert male quartet, of Chicago, is strong and well trained, and is fast gaining a reputation. The artists are well-known and occupy prominent positions in choral and other musical organizations as soloists. Our citizens will have an opportunity of hearing this famous quartet next Friday evening, Dec. 10, in University hall. The lost is found.—Beakes & Morton's printing press, it has been standing on the sidewalk of the T. A. & N. M. railroad for over four weeks. The trouble was that it was billed wrong. The shipping bill read "Barnhart Bros., Ann Arbor, Mich., when it should have read Barnhart Bros., care of Beakes & Morton, Ann Arbor, Mich. Messrs. Beakes & Morton will very properly ask for damages. The Cooker league of the Methodist church held their annual meeting Monday evening. Miss Daisy Richardson rendered some fine music and Gov. A circuit judge is to be elected in this district next spring, as Judge Joslyn's time expires Dec. 31, 1887. The judge will no doubt be re-nominated and re-elected.

Our city will be thoroughly lighted by January 1, as the electric lights will all be in full blast then. Now all we want in addition to light, is better sidewalks. The holiday trade will soon begin and our readers must keep a sharp lookout for the advertisements to see what goods are for sale, and at what ruinous prices they are offered. Adam Francisco's dog was dead. Where is the man who will start a subscription paper to buy him another horse, and thus enable a poor man to again earn an honest livelihood? Gov. Alger of Detroit, called all the news boys into his office, Thursday morning, and gave them each 25 cents. What man will follow his example here, next Christmas? Plenty are able; all they lack is the disposition.

The street, kept by Mr. Cover, is so overrun with work that he contemplates moving up town, enlarging his business, adding a steam washer, etc., so that ere long we can boast of a steam laundry. Jno. Great Scott, what next? Michael J. Lehman is the plaintiff and David E. Taylor officiates in the role of defendant. The outcome is awaited with a great deal of interest.

Devil's Lake, in Hillsdale county, has been so busy erecting stores, hotels and private residences, that they have forgotten the role of the old-fashioned churches. Their souls were a secondary consideration. They go to the principal of money first and then the kingdom of heaven. Elder Davis' time as superintendent of the poor expires Dec. 31, when he will be succeeded by E. P. Mason. Mr. Davis will be much missed for he has been one of the best superintendents of the poor since his appointment. His family hope his successor will be as acceptable as the Elder has been.

Mrs. Seth Thompson died at the residence of her son, Wilfred F. Thompson, in Saline, on Monday, Nov. 23, of pneumonia. Miss Fleming of Dexter, who is attending lectures in the medical college, invited the lady members of her class to a Thanksgiving dinner, which was accepted, and some 25 of them accompanied her home, where a splendid repast was set before them. Miss F. is the daughter of Patrick Fleming, ex-superintendent of that township.

Jeff H. Davis was arrested last Friday afternoon and brought before Judge Pond, to answer to the charge of slander, preferred against him by a colored temperance lecturer who formerly resided in Adrian, but who is now a resident of Jackson. His trial occurs next Tuesday, and from what we can learn it need not deny the charges, but says he can prove the truth of his assertions. L., Bishop of western New York. Subject: "The English Reformation." The last of the course will be given on Monday evening, Dec. 6, at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Present Aspects of Christendom." Every one cordially invited to attend.

"Grand-pa" Bailey, as he is commonly called by the archbishops of this city, and a buxom German woman of some 40 summers, wended their way, last Thursday, into Justice Clark's office, for the purpose of uniting their fortunes in this vale of tears. The justice, evidently under a misapprehension of the law, refused to make them man and wife, thinking that the old law was still in force, and that the archbishops were black, but if we are not much mistaken, that law was repealed two years ago, on account of the difficulties that have arisen over the marrying of a couple in Detroit. If a white woman wanted to wed a black man, let her. There is no law to hinder or prevent such unions, if the parties themselves are only willing.

Marrriages are so frequent this fall and winter that old trappers, therefore, pre-empt a holiday.

The stock of goods of Jacob Volland will be sold on a chattel mortgage, sale to commence next Wednesday. We call attention to the advertisement in another column, of Jno. Huddy, who has turkeys and chickens for sale. The Grand Rapids Eagle announces the name of the Hon. J. C. Fitzgald of that city as a candidate for United States Senator, and urges his support, claiming that the western part of the State is entitled to the office, and the western metropolis should furnish the man.

The grand lodge of colored masons for this state will be held in this city, Monday, Dec. 5, in their hall on Main street. A grand lodge festival on Tuesday evening; also a public installation of officers. J. A. Freeman of this city is deputy grand master.

George W. Hoffman the unfortunate young man who jumped from a freight train at the Central depot, Wednesday night, fracturing his skull, and was removed to the Diehl hotel, where medical aid was employed, died last night. His home was in Detroit to which place his remains were taken this morning. Fraternity lodge, F. A. A. M., held their annual election Wednesday evening, with the following result: E. J. Morton, W. W. Howe, S. W.; Jas. Cook, J. W. W. B. Smith, treasurer; J. H. Starks, secretary; M. D. Miller, S. D.; Chas. Shultz, J. D. The lodge is in a more prosperous condition than for several years past.

The case of David C. McVeon vs Thos. McNamara, on call Thursday afternoon, was settled, defendant paying $75. A few months ago McVeon wangled with McNamara, and the latter was ordered to pay $75. McVeon was a sporting man he deserves to be barred out hereafter. Such conduct on the part of a professional sport, to say the least, is reprehensible. Mr. Irving Storms of Chelsea, met with quite a serious accident when returning to Chelsea from Ann Arbor, last week. One of the wheels of his carriage came off, fracturing his ankle, which became unmanageable, overturning the carriage and precipitating Mr. Storms violently against the ground. His daughter, who was with him, escaped with but a few slight bruises.

There is no satisfactory evidence of man imbedded in stratified rock, as in the case of fossilized animals. The bones of human beings have been found in caves along with the bones of extinct animals. These are, perhaps, the best evidences of man's antiquity; but as scientists differ from 10,000 to 300,000 years in the matter, man's first appearance on earth may be put down as unknown. The Bartholdi statue is the largest structure completed. The colossal statue of Savaria in Hungary is about 94 feet in height; that of St. Charles of Borromeo on the shores of Lake Maggiore in Italy is 78 feet; the Virgin of Pay is 53 feet, in Saline, on Monday, Nov. 23, of pneumonia. Mrs. Thompson was 82 years old and had been a resident of this county over fifty years, part of which time she lived on Thompson street in this city.

Wm. Haman and Secretary Buck of the Ypsilanti Bohemian are on company sent to Holly one day last week and went for James Sloman, editor of the Advertiser, when they got him in a room it is alleged they persuaded to whip him on account of his articles against the Bohemian out business. The altercation called in outsiders, and the oat men were lucky to get out of town safely, which they did on one.

For the benefit of taxpayers in outlying towns, the following town treasurers will be at County Treasurer Beiser's office in the court house on the days mentioned: Ann Arbor town treasurer—each Friday and Saturday in December. Scio town treasurer—every Thursday in December after to-morrow. Nonard town treasurer—every Saturday in December. Pittsfield town treasurer—on the 11th and 18th of December. Joseph Quackenbush of Augusta, has been jailed on a charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses. He borrowed money to buy a horse and the horse was to belong to him when he had drawn wood enough at 25 cents a cord to pay for it. He sold the horse and the party of who he borrowed the money repudiated it, claiming $17 still due Quackenbush claims that he has drawn twice as much wood as necessary to pay for the horse. His trial will take place to-morrow.

John Burnett of York, who was recently released from the jail in this city on the payment of $1,000, for attempting to kill his wife and mother-in-law, had his wife arrested and placed in jail at Jackson, Monday, on a charge of polygamy, claiming that she was also married to Clinton Parks of Jackson. Mrs. Burnett claims that while under the influence of whisky a mock marriage was held. She remembers nothing definite about it. Her examination was set down for Wednesday, but Burnett not appearing she was allowed to depart on her own recognizance. The case will probably be dropped.
