Estate of Frederick Koch.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the Probate Court for the county of Washtenaw, held at the probate office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the 28th day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Frederick Koch, deceased.

William April, the administrator of said estate, comes into court and represents that he is now prepared to render his final account as such administrator.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Saturday, the 21st day of May next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for examining and allowing said account, and that the heirs at law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be held at the probate office, in the city of Ann Arbor, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be allowed.

And it is further ordered, that said guardian give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said account, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in The Ann Arbor Democrat, a newspaper printed and circulating in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.
