"Tell us not in mournful numbers, that the town is full of gloom, for the man's a crank who slumbers, in these days of bustling boom. Life is real, life is earnest, and the grave is not its goal, every dollar that thou earnest, helps to make the old town roll. Joy and enjoyment and sorrow is our destined lot, if you have no money, borrow—buy a corner lot each day. Lives of great men all remind us, we can attain immortal fame; let us leave the clumps behind us, and let's get there just the same. In this world's broad field of battle, in the bivouac of life, let us make the dry bones rattle, buy a corner for your wife! Let us then be up and doing, with a heart, for any fate, let us be achieving, still pursuing, booming early, booming late."

Mr. Barnes' play bears the unmistakable stamp of originality and genius, and it is not improbable that "Only a Farmer's Daughter" will prove to be that famous American play for which we have been waiting so long. Its plot is full of interest, its dialogue beautiful with poetry and sparkling wit, while its characters are firmly drawn and brilliantly colored.—New York Times.
W. A. Tolcher, superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school, being a wide-awake banker, knows the value of time. The school was seven minutes assembling after service, and occupied twenty minutes by this means they had lost four minutes unnecessarily, and that was just so much time taken from the study of the Lord's word. He gave the scholars this problem to solve: how long would it take if four minutes lost to each one estimating it at 350 scholars how much time was lost.

Twenty-five years ago "Sam" Earp was a tall, gawky, but pleasant-faced school boy in a Pennsylvania town, sitting at the feet of a down east Gamaliel, and drinking knowledge from that source. He was graduated at Racine college, ordained to the Episcopal priesthood, and two years ago was called to the Ann Arbor Episcopal church. He has since been a profitable pastor in every respect, and his parish has manifested its appreciation by giving him a 25 per cent. increase of salary and paying off a $3,000 mortgage which hung over the rectory.—Evening Journal. Rev. Dr. Earp has not only done this but much more, and St. Andrew's should rejoice in having such an ambitious as well as a devoted pastor. The parish being in an exceedingly prosperous condition.

Elliott Barnes' play, "Only a Farmer's Daughter," is one of the strongest society dramas that has been presented for a long time, and holds the deepest interest of the audience. The plot is a peculiar one. A handsome, ambitious literary man, with a weakness for flattery, marries a farmer's pretty daughter, and takes her into society. Here a villainous friend and a scheming woman plan their separation, and would have succeeded had not a farmer's son, who has been the victim of a vision, his joy is almost uncontrollable, the schemers are driven out and the hero and heroine reign again in the household.—New York Clipper.
Peterson's Magazine for June is on our table, fresh and bright as the first month of summer itself. The steel engraving, handsome colored fashion-plate, and numerous wood-cuts are even above their usual average of excellence, and regarded from a literary point of view, this number, both in the matter of tales and poetry, is more than ordinarily rich and varied. The illustrated story, "Dick Lacey's Choice," is charmingly told, and Mrs. Stetwood's interesting serial, "The Professor's Daughter," closes in a dramatic and satisfactory manner. A new volume begins with the first number, affording a good opportunity to subscribe or to form a club. Terms: two dollars a year, with large reductions to clubs. A specimen copy will be sent free to anyone desiring to get up a club. Address: Peterson's Magazine, 306 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

The following is the May list of Ann Arbor cabin passengers to Europe. S. S. Furnessia, May 28. Reported by C. W. McGee, Prof. J. A. Walling, Mrs. C. A. King; Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Carter, Glasgow, S. S. City of Rome, May 25; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McPherson; Mr. Farmer. Sailing for June will appear in three weeks.
Mr. Barnes' play bears the unmistakable stamp of originality and genius, and it is not improbable that "Only a Farmer's Daughter" will prove to be that famous American play for which we have been waiting so long. Its plot is full of interest, its dialogue beautiful with poetry and sparkling wit, while its characters are firmly drawn and brilliantly colored.—New York Times.
W. A. Tolcher, superintendent of the M. E. Sunday school, being a wide-awake banker, knows the value of time. The school was seven minutes assembling after service, and occupied twenty minutes by this means they had lost four minutes unnecessarily, and that was just so much time taken from the study of the Lord's word. He gave the scholars this problem to solve: how long would it take if four minutes lost to each one estimating it at 350 scholars how much time was lost.
The following is the record of the games played by the clubs comprising the national league, Detroit having a good lead up to date:
Clubs. Won Lost Per cent
Detroit..... 16 2 883
Boston..... 11 4 783
New York..... 10 5 667
Philadelphia. 8 8 500
Pittsburgh... 6 8 428
Chicago..... 5 9 357
Washington.. 5 10 333
Indianapolis. 3 14 179
Twenty-five years ago "Sam" Earp was a tall, gawky, but pleasant-faced school boy in a Pennsylvania town, sitting at the feet of a down east Gamaliel, and drinking knowledge from that source. He was graduated at Racine college, ordained to the Episcopal priesthood, and two years ago was called to the Ann Arbor Episcopal church. He has since been a profitable pastor in every respect, and his parish has manifested its appreciation by giving him a 25 per cent. increase of salary and paying off a $3,000 mortgage which hung over the rectory.—Evening Journal. Rev. Dr. Earp has not only done this but much more, and St. Andrew's should rejoice in having such an ambitious as well as a devoted pastor. The parish being in an exceedingly prosperous condition.
