Down with the drinking fountain. Give us the old town pump. Henry Cornell and family, left Wednesday for a trip to Lake Superior.

A. H. Hall expects $500 for the loss he sustained by the fire, last week. Geo. Miller, in the employ of Rinsey & Seabolt, grocers, is on the sick list.

Geo. Nellis and family, of Ypsilanti, have taken up their residence in this city. August 24, is the time fixed for the Workingmen's association picnic, in Saline.

A large amount of local matter is unavoidably crowded out of this week's DEMOCRAT. Wm. Vanas, chief of police of New York City, will visit his sister, Mrs. Deane, in this city.

Miss Nellie McMann, of East North street, is visiting her cousin, Miss Leocote Osborn, in Seio. An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Riley, died yesterday, of cholera infantum, aged 18 months.

The boiler for the water works has arrived, and will be placed in position within the next two weeks. George F. son of Andrew and Charlotte Peterson, of the third ward, died yesterday, of cholera infantum.

It took just one minute, by Judge Kings watch, for cup to be filled at the drinking fountain, yesterday. The steamer and hand engines in the different wards, will be in readiness when the alarm of fire is sounded.

Mrs. Lorenzo Davis, who has been visiting the relatives, returned from the past week able to get about again. The many colored friends of Jno. Robison assembled at his residence, Wednesday evening, and they had a delightful time.

There is no question but that the slaughter house, should be removed outside of the city limits. But here comes in the law. Visca, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lewis, of East Saginaw, died at the residence of M. Andres, this city, Monday morning.

Thos. Taylor's new residence is being elaborately decorated by Albert Sorg, who also has the contract for putting A. Wisley's store in shape. Albert Sorg has the contract for painting the laboratory, the secretary and president's offices, the medical building, and other jobs about the campus.

Fred Schleder will remove his binery to Coldwater. He probably thinks that he can't compete with two such institutions as the Register and Courier, and he cannot. Business men and citizens generally are indignant that the old town pump is no longer. It was splendid water compared with that which comes from the water works.

A poultry, fish, vegetable and produce market will be opened up the 33d, in the building lately vacated by Jas. O'Kane, one door north of the Argus office, on Main street. Ad will appear in our next issue.

The great P. T. Barnum, in addressing a body of business men, yesterday the other day, said: "You do not, any of you advertise enough. You ought to use printers' ink every day. You are asleep and want your business to run itself. Standing advertisements in a paper command confidence. The man who for a year lives in a community and leads a reputable life, even though he has a moderate ability, will grow in the confidence and esteem of people."

On the same principal a newspaper advertisement becomes familiar to the reader. It may seldom be read. Still it makes the means of business men familiar, and constantly appearing in the columns of a paper, inspires confidence in the stability of the enterprise.

A new racket is being played on the farmers. A lot of persons of dubious reputation, and represent that one of their number is sick, and that neighbors have kindly furnished a team to take him to the hospital to be treated, and cannot be got there just the same.

A good way to rid one's self of tramps who call begging, is to represent that there is infectious sickness in the house. It was tried on an old man in charge of the hot business, and old man, who was legged it, was laughable to behold, the old man taking the lead.

The law library is pretty well patronized this summer, by Callon law aspirants who say nothing about those long since fledged, who are still qualifying at the fountain head, which fact is chronicled as an omen of good work to be done the coming winter in that renowned department.

The Rev. T. C. Gardner, who was to have preached at the M. E. church last Sabbath morning, and also at the union meeting at the Congregational church in the evening, failed to put in an appearance. The Rev. A. F. Bourne came to the rescue in the morning.

Mrs. Bingham, of Lansing, wife of Hon. Stephen D. Bingham, of that place, died at the home of the late Judge Dexter her father, in Dexter Monday. Mrs. Bingham was a sister of Hon. Wm. D. Briggs, of Chicago, and was widely known in this state. She has been in bad health for many months, and her death was not at all unexpected.

Milan is in a state of excitement occasioned by the action of its worthy village president, Dr. Pyle, who is at present making matters very disagreeable for citizens by enforcing the Sunday law. He lately made an order demanding that all places of business should be closed on the Sabbath, inclusive of barber shops and everything else, and of course the is considerable kicking.

The State teachers institute, for this county convenes in this city next Monday. The institute law allows teachers, whose schools are in session at the time appointed for the county institute, to be absent from the county for many half-days as they are in attendance at the institute. This provision of law, and the fact that there will be no tuition or enrollment fee exacted, should insure the attendance of every teacher in the county who possesses the true professional spirit.

Several years ago Elder Blodgett preached on Sundays at a new Dakota town on the lower Missouri. On week days he followed the vocation of horse dealer. One Sunday after taking his place in the pulpit he said: My friends, I am requested to announce that the meeting of the Grange will meet Friday evening, and a prayer meeting will be held in this house Wednesday evening. Immediately after the service to-day there will be a horse trot in my back pasture. All are invited to tarry. Let us join in singing the twenty-fourth hymn."—Dakota Bell.

An album of 55 years ago, is something of a curiosity, particularly when written by the pen of a professional writer. It was dedicated to Miss Fannie Bennett, by some one who signed himself H. S. D., and is dated Middleport, April 7, 1840. It also contains several pieces written by the pen of the author, and some are almost obliterated by age. One by Wm. M. Sullivan to Miss Bennett on "The Grange," would attract particular attention. It also contains articles by Luther D. Whitney, Wilbur F. Smith, M. R. Bartlett, Harriet Sullivan, Rebecca M. Barry, Nancy P. Tane, Lizzie Snel, and Charlotte M. Bennett. The last in the book is dated Middleport, May 20, 1832, and is signed by Mary L. Wallace.
