

NINTH YEAR.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, BY JOHN L. BURLEIGH.

THE PEOPLE'S PAPER.

TERMS: $1.50 PER ANNUM.

It paid at the end of six months, or $1.00 IN ADVANCE.

H. E. H. BOWER, Editor.

P. M'KERNAN, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

THE GERMANIA HOTEL.

DR. JAMES C. WOOD.

D. A. McCLACHLAN, M. D.

FOLLETT HOUSE.

DEAN M. TYLER, M. D.

UNION HOTEL.

NICHOLS BROS.

JOSEPH CLINTON.

E. B. NORRIS.

WILLIAM HERZ.

The Ann Arbor Savings Bank.

SAFE AND CONVENIENT.

Interest Allowed on All Savings Deposits.

Money to Loan in Sums of $25 to $5,000.

DIRECTORS: William Mack, W. W. Rines, D. B. Hartman, Charles Mack, David Rines, Daniel Hines and W. S. Smith.

A funny incident (with a moral) happened in the New Hampshire legislature the other day.

When the ballot was ordered, one of the leading champions of the measure arose and said he should have to vote against it, explaining that before he left home that morning his wife remarked that "if he was fool enough to vote for that bill, he needn't come home any more."

A roar of laughter passed over the hall, and the bill was lost 147 to 87.

Moral—when women really want the ballot they will get it. At present, the women of the land have enough to do in caring for their homes and children, without wasting time on politics.

The September Century will contain a number of timely papers in connection with the one hundredth anniversary of the completion of the work of the convention which formed the constitution of the United States.

John MacMaster writes of "The Framers and Framing of the Constitution," and there are short communications on "Government by the People" and "The Federal Balance."

The frontispiece of the number is a portrait of Thomas Jefferson, accompanying illustrated papers on "Thomas Jefferson's Home," by J. G. Noy, and "The Later Years of Monticello," by Frank R. Stockton, who has spent a number of summers near the home of Jefferson.

There are at present at Stratford, Conn., two interesting old ladies. One is Mrs. Perry, widow of Commodore Perry, the hero of Lake Erie, and the other is Mrs. Lamb, widow of Gen. Lamb, a prominent officer in the war of 1812.

THE STATE.

Death of a Distinguished Jurist. Judge Daniel Goodwin died at his home in Detroit a few days ago.

John Goodwin was born in Geneva, N. Y., on November 24, 1796, being seventh in descent from Obed Goodwin, who settled at Hartford, Conn., in 1635 and third in descent on his mother's side from Timothy Collins, the first pastor of Litchfield, Conn.

He was educated at Union college with William Seward and Bishops Potter and Dodge, and was graduated with high honors in 1819. He practiced a few months in Geneva and removed to Indiana, where he lost one lung through consumption. In 1823, on the death of his father, Dr. Daniel Goodwin, in Detroit, he removed to that town.

On the admission of Michigan to the union he declined the United States district judgeship, although pressed to accept it by almost the entire Detroit bar. He served, however, as district attorney under Jackson and Van Buren, and was graduated with high honors in 1837. During the Toledo war he served as quartermaster general, with the rank of brigadier, and through excess of labor at the Dearborn arsenal injured his spine severely.

From 1843 to 1845 he was judge of the Michigan supreme court. From 1851 to 1853 he was judge of the appellate court, and in 1853 he was elected to the Michigan supreme court. He was re-elected in 1857 and 1861.

In 1850 he married Julia Merrill, a descendant of Gov. Bradford of the Mayflower. He leaves one son, John M. Goodwin, and an adopted son, now David Goodwin of Chicago.

State School Report. As the business year of state institutions closes now on the 30th of June, instead of Sept. 30 as heretofore, we have been permitted to gather the following items of interest regarding the work of the state schools for the time terminating June 30. There have been 180 children received during that time, and 150 declared, 15 have been adopted, 24 declared self-supporting, 87 restored to parents, 2 returned to counties, 5 became paupers, and 4 died.

There were 83 children in homes on trial, and 213 in the institution, which was 21 less than it commenced the year with. The cost of running the schools for the time was $27,000.83. The larger items of expense being salaries, $7,733.74, clothing, $3,368.57, fuel, $3,533.64, meat and fish, $777.19, repairs, $1,518.35, school and farm and mill, $703.31, groceries, $887.35, arm and barn, $1,501.25, butter, lard and eggs, $29.94.

The expenses indicate the work of the schools was not that which has characterized its past history—Coldwater Courier.

Fatal Explosion. A terrible boiler explosion occurred on the farm of Lyman C. Curtis, five miles from Flint, the other day, with the following results:

Daniel Stoenzes, dead; Lyman G. Curtis, probably fatally injured, being badly scalded; Will Rockwood, seriously scalded and otherwise injured; William Teachout and Harry Rekey, scalded; the three last mentioned will recover. Three young ladies who were visiting the Curtis family at work when the boiler exploded, were severely but not dangerously scalded.

Low water in the boiler, which was neglected while the threshers were trying to extinguish the flames in the oat stacks, is said to have been the cause of the explosion.

O. C. JENKINS, SURGEON DENTIST. Rooms No. 10 South Main Street, opposite the First National Bank, Ann Arbor, Mich.

DEALER IN MONUMENTS and Grave-stones manufactured from Tennessee and Italian Marble and Scotch and American Granite. Shop cor. Detroit and Catherine sts., Ann Arbor, Mich.

WILLIAM HERZ, PAINTER, SIGN, Ornamental and Fresco Painting, Gilding, Calcimining, Glazing and Paper Hanging. All work done in the best style and warranted to give satisfaction. Shop No. 4 West Washington street, Ann Arbor, Mich.

The Ann Arbor Savings Bank. Organized 1863, under the General Banking Law of this state. Has new, insurance capital, $250,000.

Business men, Guardians, Trustees, Ladies and other persons who desire to deposit their money in a safe and convenient place at which to make deposits and do business.

Interest Allowed on All Savings Deposits of $1.00 and upward, according to the rules of the bank, and interest compounded semi-annually.

Money to Loan in Sums of $25 to $5,000. Secured by Unimpaired Real Estate and other securities.

DIRECTORS: William Mack, W. W. Rines, D. B. Hartman, Charles Mack, David Rines, Daniel Hines and W. S. Smith.

OFFICERS:—Charles Mack, President; W. W. Rines, Vice-President; C. E. Hines, Cashier.

A funny incident (with a moral) happened in the New Hampshire legislature the other day. When the ballot was ordered, one of the leading champions of the measure arose and said he should have to vote against it, explaining that before he left home that morning his wife remarked that "if he was fool enough to vote for that bill, he needn't come home any more."

A roar of laughter passed over the hall, and the bill was lost 147 to 87. Moral—when women really want the ballot they will get it. At present, the women of the land have enough to do in caring for their homes and children, without wasting time on politics.

The September Century will contain a number of timely papers in connection with the one hundredth anniversary of the completion of the work of the convention which formed the constitution of the United States.

John MacMaster writes of "The Framers and Framing of the Constitution," and there are short communications on "Government by the People" and "The Federal Balance."

The frontispiece of the number is a portrait of Thomas Jefferson, accompanying illustrated papers on "Thomas Jefferson's Home," by J. G. Noy, and "The Later Years of Monticello," by Frank R. Stockton, who has spent a number of summers near the home of Jefferson.

There are at present at Stratford, Conn., two interesting old ladies. One is Mrs. Perry, widow of Commodore Perry, the hero of Lake Erie, and the other is Mrs. Lamb, widow of Gen. Lamb, a prominent officer in the war of 1812.

Both are well on in years, but bright and active.

NEWS SUMMARY.

Lehanon, Ky., had a $75,000 fire the other night.

Wheeling, W. Va., had a $50,000 fire Aug. 28.

The people of Lonoke county, Ark., fear the people of the Canadian north.

Hon. George Gardner of the supreme court of Chicago, is dead.

Senator Sherman has returned from his tour of the Canadian north.

New York state democratic convention will meet in Saratoga on the 27th inst.

Simon Bolivar Buckner was installed as governor of Kentucky Aug. 30.

A disagreement among miners near Georgetown, N. M., resulted in the death of four men.

Four Finlanders were drowned at Connor's Point on the Wisconsin shore, the other day.

One man was instantly killed and five others injured by an explosion in Shenandoah, Pa.

Mrs. Cleveland declines to go to New York to present the flags to the city fire department.

Commissioner of Pensions Black says he is not a candidate for commander-in-chief of the A. O. U. S. W.

The car wheel works in St. Louis, Mo., were destroyed by fire the other night, at the value of $100,000.

Capt. Cyrus N. Gray of the Twenty-fifth infantry, has been dismissed from service for drunkenness.

Yankton has been selected as the site of the South Dakota Catholic church. A $100,000 cathedral will be built at once.

Prince Thokoro Sahib of Lumbdi, the Indian prince now in this country, paid his respects to the president on the 30th ult.

The A. B. C. investigating committee proposes to find out what the matter with the billigerent Colowar of the Utah chief.

It is rumored that Hon. G. V. N. Lathrop of Detroit, minister to Russia, contemplates resigning. He is on his way home.

Mrs. Jennie Grant Sartoris arrived in New York on the 31st ult. She will spend some months with her mother, Mrs. Gen. Grant.

The James hotel of Tinton, Texas, burned the other day, and Col. A. J. Hitchcock, a Texas veteran of 1857, perished.

Gen. John C. Black, commissioner of pensions, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism at the residence of a friend in Wier, N. H.

Second Comptroller Butler of the treasury department issued a circular calling upon delinquent entry postmasters to square up their accounts.

A. J. Latimer is suing the Illinois Central road at Clinton, Ill., for putting his daughter off a train because she didn't have a man and maid.

Alex. M. Cull of New York, the present solicitor of the treasury, has been appointed commissioner of fish and fisheries, to succeed the late Prof. Baird.

Government troops have succeeded in quelling the Indian war in Colorado. One white man and four Indians were killed in the engagement the other day.

C. H. Chaplain and James Ledwith, painters employed on St. Peter's church in Hartford, Conn., were instantly killed the other day, the scaffolding giving way.

It is announced that the Toledo, Florida & Western officials are refunding the amount expended by the excursionists who were in the awful Chatsworth wreck.

Col. G. C. Grovis of the Second Iowa regiment, and late brigadier-general of the Kansas national guards, was burned in a barn in Topeka, Kansas, the other day.

Mrs. Cleveland will be invited to review the annual parade of the New York fire department and present the flags donated by the city to the firemen. The two flags will be carried by her.

Gen. Terry, appealed to for aid against the Indians, advises the civil authorities to give up their attempts and then the military will put the Indians back on their reservations.

The postal telegraph company have agreed not to furnish bucket shops with quotations hereafter, and their wires have been reinstated on the Chicago board of trade.

A terrible accident occurred on the Union Pacific near Denver, the other day. The engine and train was instantly killed, and the fireman seriously, perhaps fatally, injured.

About 400 stonemasons of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City, Pa., have resolved to leave the knights of labor and join the international association of stonemasons and bricklayers.

The convict lease system of Georgia will have to go. Gov. Gordon has signed the official order to that effect. Shocking stories are told of the abuse of the convict by the contractors.

Mrs. Nancy Jackson Farwell, the mother of the late Michigan Central accident, died at her home in Detroit the other day, at the age of 70.

NEWS SUMMARY.

Lehanon, Ky., had a $75,000 fire the other night.

Wheeling, W. Va., had a $50,000 fire Aug. 28.

The people of Lonoke county, Ark., fear the people of the Canadian north.

Hon. George Gardner of the supreme court of Chicago, is dead.

Senator Sherman has returned from his tour of the Canadian north.

New York state democratic convention will meet in Saratoga on the 27th inst.

Simon Bolivar Buckner was installed as governor of Kentucky Aug. 30.

A disagreement among miners near Georgetown, N. M., resulted in the death of four men.

Four Finlanders were drowned at Connor's Point on the Wisconsin shore, the other day.

One man was instantly killed and five others injured by an explosion in Shenandoah, Pa.

Mrs. Cleveland declines to go to New York to present the flags to the city fire department.

Commissioner of Pensions Black says he is not a candidate for commander-in-chief of the A. O. U. S. W.

The car wheel works in St. Louis, Mo., were destroyed by fire the other night, at the value of $100,000.

Capt. Cyrus N. Gray of the Twenty-fifth infantry, has been dismissed from service for drunkenness.

Yankton has been selected as the site of the South Dakota Catholic church. A $100,000 cathedral will be built at once.

Prince Thokoro Sahib of Lumbdi, the Indian prince now in this country, paid his respects to the president on the 30th ult.

The A. B. C. investigating committee proposes to find out what the matter with the billigerent Colowar of the Utah chief.

It is rumored that Hon. G. V. N. Lathrop of Detroit, minister to Russia, contemplates resigning. He is on his way home.

Mrs. Jennie Grant Sartoris arrived in New York on the 31st ult. She will spend some months with her mother, Mrs. Gen. Grant.

The James hotel of Tinton, Texas, burned the other day, and Col. A. J. Hitchcock, a Texas veteran of 1857, perished.

Gen. John C. Black, commissioner of pensions, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism at the residence of a friend in Wier, N. H.

Second Comptroller Butler of the treasury department issued a circular calling upon delinquent entry postmasters to square up their accounts.

A. J. Latimer is suing the Illinois Central road at Clinton, Ill., for putting his daughter off a train because she didn't have a man and maid.

Alex. M. Cull of New York, the present solicitor of the treasury, has been appointed commissioner of fish and fisheries, to succeed the late Prof. Baird.

Government troops have succeeded in quelling the Indian war in Colorado. One white man and four Indians were killed in the engagement the other day.

C. H. Chaplain and James Ledwith, painters employed on St. Peter's church in Hartford, Conn., were instantly killed the other day, the scaffolding giving way.

It is announced that the Toledo, Florida & Western officials are refunding the amount expended by the excursionists who were in the awful Chatsworth wreck.

Col. G. C. Grovis of the Second Iowa regiment, and late brigadier-general of the Kansas national guards, was burned in a barn in Topeka, Kansas, the other day.

Mrs. Cleveland will be invited to review the annual parade of the New York fire department and present the flags donated by the city to the firemen. The two flags will be carried by her.

Gen. Terry, appealed to for aid against the Indians, advises the civil authorities to give up their attempts and then the military will put the Indians back on their reservations.

The postal telegraph company have agreed not to furnish bucket shops with quotations hereafter, and their wires have been reinstated on the Chicago board of trade.

A terrible accident occurred on the Union Pacific near Denver, the other day. The engine and train was instantly killed, and the fireman seriously, perhaps fatally, injured.

About 400 stonemasons of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City, Pa., have resolved to leave the knights of labor and join the international association of stonemasons and bricklayers.

The convict lease system of Georgia will have to go. Gov. Gordon has signed the official order to that effect. Shocking stories are told of the abuse of the convict by the contractors.

Mrs. Nancy Jackson Farwell, the mother of the late Michigan Central accident, died at her home in Detroit the other day, at the age of 70.

NEWS SUMMARY.

Lehanon, Ky., had a $75,000 fire the other night.

Wheeling, W. Va., had a $50,000 fire Aug. 28.

The people of Lonoke county, Ark., fear the people of the Canadian north.

Hon. George Gardner of the supreme court of Chicago, is dead.

Senator Sherman has returned from his tour of the Canadian north.

New York state democratic convention will meet in Saratoga on the 27th inst.

Simon Bolivar Buckner was installed as governor of Kentucky Aug. 30.

A disagreement among miners near Georgetown, N. M., resulted in the death of four men.

Four Finlanders were drowned at Connor's Point on the Wisconsin shore, the other day.

One man was instantly killed and five others injured by an explosion in Shenandoah, Pa.

Mrs. Cleveland declines to go to New York to present the flags to the city fire department.

Commissioner of Pensions Black says he is not a candidate for commander-in-chief of the A. O. U. S. W.

The car wheel works in St. Louis, Mo., were destroyed by fire the other night, at the value of $100,000.

Capt. Cyrus N. Gray of the Twenty-fifth infantry, has been dismissed from service for drunkenness.

Yankton has been selected as the site of the South Dakota Catholic church. A $100,000 cathedral will be built at once.

Prince Thokoro Sahib of Lumbdi, the Indian prince now in this country, paid his respects to the president on the 30th ult.

The A. B. C. investigating committee proposes to find out what the matter with the billigerent Colowar of the Utah chief.

It is rumored that Hon. G. V. N. Lathrop of Detroit, minister to Russia, contemplates resigning. He is on his way home.

Mrs. Jennie Grant Sartoris arrived in New York on the 31st ult. She will spend some months with her mother, Mrs. Gen. Grant.

The James hotel of Tinton, Texas, burned the other day, and Col. A. J. Hitchcock, a Texas veteran of 1857, perished.

Gen. John C. Black, commissioner of pensions, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism at the residence of a friend in Wier, N. H.

Second Comptroller Butler of the treasury department issued a circular calling upon delinquent entry postmasters to square up their accounts.

A. J. Latimer is suing the Illinois Central road at Clinton, Ill., for putting his daughter off a train because she didn't have a man and maid.

Alex. M. Cull of New York, the present solicitor of the treasury, has been appointed commissioner of fish and fisheries, to succeed the late Prof. Baird.

Government troops have succeeded in quelling the Indian war in Colorado. One white man and four Indians were killed in the engagement the other day.

C. H. Chaplain and James Ledwith, painters employed on St. Peter's church in Hartford, Conn., were instantly killed the other day, the scaffolding giving way.

It is announced that the Toledo, Florida & Western officials are refunding the amount expended by the excursionists who were in the awful Chatsworth wreck.

Col. G. C. Grovis of the Second Iowa regiment, and late brigadier-general of the Kansas national guards, was burned in a barn in Topeka, Kansas, the other day.

Mrs. Cleveland will be invited to review the annual parade of the New York fire department and present the flags donated by the city to the firemen. The two flags will be carried by her.

Gen. Terry, appealed to for aid against the Indians, advises the civil authorities to give up their attempts and then the military will put the Indians back on their reservations.

The postal telegraph company have agreed not to furnish bucket shops with quotations hereafter, and their wires have been reinstated on the Chicago board of trade.

A terrible accident occurred on the Union Pacific near Denver, the other day. The engine and train was instantly killed, and the fireman seriously, perhaps fatally, injured.

About 400 stonemasons of Pittsburgh and Allegheny City, Pa., have resolved to leave the knights of labor and join the international association of stonemasons and bricklayers.

The convict lease system of Georgia will have to go. Gov. Gordon has signed the official order to that effect. Shocking stories are told of the abuse of the convict by the contractors.

Mrs. Nancy Jackson Farwell, the mother of the late Michigan Central accident, died at her home in Detroit the other day, at the age of 70.

NEWS SUMMARY.

Lehanon, Ky., had a $75,000 fire the other night.

Wheeling, W. Va., had a $50,000 fire Aug. 28.

The people of Lonoke county, Ark., fear the people of the Canadian north.

Hon. George Gardner of the supreme court of Chicago, is dead.

Senator Sherman has returned from his tour of the Canadian north.

New York state democratic convention will meet in Saratoga on the 27th inst.

Simon Bolivar Buckner was installed as governor of Kentucky Aug. 30.

A disagreement among miners near Georgetown, N. M., resulted in the death of four men.

Four Finlanders were drowned at Connor's Point on the Wisconsin shore, the other day.

One man was instantly killed and five others injured by an explosion in Shenandoah, Pa.

Mrs. Cleveland declines to go to New York to present the flags to the city fire department.

Commissioner of Pensions Black says he is not a candidate for commander-in-chief of the A. O. U. S. W.

The car wheel works in St. Louis, Mo., were destroyed by fire the other night, at the value of $100,000.

Capt. Cyrus N. Gray of the Twenty-fifth infantry, has been dismissed from service for drunkenness.

Yankton has been selected as the site of the South Dakota Catholic church. A $100,000 cathedral will be built at once.

Prince Thokoro Sahib of Lumbdi, the Indian prince now in this country, paid his respects to the president on the 30th ult.

The A. B. C. investigating committee proposes to find out what the matter with the billigerent Colowar of the Utah chief.

It is rumored that Hon. G. V. N. Lathrop of Detroit, minister to Russia, contemplates resigning. He is on his way home.

Mrs. Jennie Grant Sartoris arrived in New York on the 31st ult. She will spend some months with her mother, Mrs. Gen. Grant.

The James hotel of Tinton, Texas, burned the other day, and Col. A. J. Hitchcock, a Texas veteran of 1857, perished.

Gen. John C. Black, commissioner of pensions, is seriously ill with inflammatory rheumatism at the residence of a friend in Wier, N. H.

Second Comptroller Butler of the treasury department issued a circular calling upon delinquent entry postmasters to square up their accounts.

A. J. Latimer is suing the Illinois Central road at Clinton, Ill., for putting his daughter off a train because she didn't have a man and maid.

Alex. M. Cull of New York, the present solicitor of the treasury, has been appointed commissioner of fish and fisheries, to succeed the late Prof. Baird.

Government troops have succeeded in quelling the Indian war in Colorado. One white man and four Indians were killed in the engagement the other day.

C. H. Chaplain and James Ledwith, painters employed on St. Peter's church in Hartford, Conn., were instantly killed the other day, the scaffolding giving way.

It is announced that the Toledo, Florida & Western officials are refunding the amount expended by the excursionists who were in the awful Chatsworth wreck.

Col. G. C. Grovis of the Second Iowa regiment, and late brigadier-general of the Kansas national guards, was burned in a barn in Topeka, Kansas, the other day.

Mrs. Cleveland will be invited to review the annual parade of the New York fire department and present the flags donated by the

OUR MAN ABOUT TOWN.

He Sees About Everything and Prints About Everything He Sees.

I notice that in many portions of the city, new sidewalks have been laid, and old ones repaired, but there is room for further improvements.

I would like to know why the Toledo railroad authorities sold tickets to the farmers, picnic, to passengers in the lower town, and then run the station, to the disappointment of some 60 persons who wished to go to Whitewater Lake on the day in question.

I wonder if the parsimonious fellows who are opposed to improvements in this city, don't feel a little sick in opposition to the raising of that $5,000 with which to boom the place.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

It is a young man who will turn from the error of his ways, he is to be commended. It is not many years ago that...

At last the Boudnot sidewalk has been relaid, on Ann street. For more than two years people on dark nights have been obliged to take the road, to escape injury.

I hear a rather diverting story illustrating woman's weakness for flattery. A young man in this city has for more than a year been paying assiduous court at the shrine of a beauty who resides in the north part of town.

There is, and always will be, complaint regarding the removal of ashes from the streets so long as it is done in a manner and at a time when the eyes and mouth are filled and the clothes of pedestrians are covered with the flying ashes.

A shoe dealer, on Main street, gave me the other day, some really valuable pointers on selling shoes to ladies. He says that out of every ten ladies nine would rather have their shoes fitted by men.

I am surprised and the decency of the community is shocked to see old, gray-haired citizens, men of respectable families allowing themselves to become parties to disgusting scandals.

THE NEW YORK SUN is earnestly opposed to free trade, not because free trade isn't sound in principle, but because it imagines that the majority of American people are so thoroughly prejudiced in favor of protection that it would be ruinous to any party to array itself against it.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

old, gray-haired reprobates who are playing with the fire, and who think they are cunning enough to keep the unhappy alliances from their families and from the people.

In all the catalogue of crimes there is none so thoroughly revolting and pitiable as that of a son who strikes a parent. A few weeks ago a blooming lad of this city struck his mother in the face, and forcing her into a corner of the dining-room kicked her brutally, until in agony she cried out to the neighbors for help.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

The Sun-Randall Scheme.

The New York Sun is earnestly opposed to free trade, not because free trade isn't sound in principle, but because it imagines that the majority of American people are so thoroughly prejudiced in favor of protection that it would be ruinous to any party to array itself against it.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

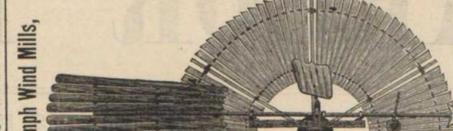

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

THE ANN ARBOR DEMOCRAT is the only democratic paper published at the county seat. And why do I say this, simply because I know it is under the management of a democrat, from away back.

St. CLAIR & SONS.

Manufacturers of Triumph Wind Mills. Water Tanks, Pumps, etc., etc., etc.

School Furniture.

For all kinds of Fruit, Peanuts, Fresh Candies, and Soft Drinks, call at Schiappacose & Co's., North Main street.

Milk Safes, and any Article Made to Order.

No. 33, North Fourth Street. Ann Arbor, Mich.

Chancery Notice.

THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY OF WASHTENAW, in Chancery.

For all kinds of Fruit, Peanuts, Fresh Candies, and Soft Drinks, call at Schiappacose & Co's., North Main street.

Three hundred and fifty acres of land in the northern portion of Washtenaw county, to be sold for $13 per acre, all together or in separate parcels.

LOANING—Money to loan on first-class Real Estate Mortgage at Current rates of Interest. Satisfactory arrangements made with capitalists desiring such investments.

THE ANN ARBOR SAVINGS BANK is open every Saturday evening from 7 till 8 o'clock, for savings department business only.

Call on Doty & Feiner, who have just received one of the largest and most complete stocks of Boots and Shoes for Fall trade, ever brought to Ann Arbor.

FOR SALE—The two houses of L. Green, 60 North Main St. For particulars inquire on the premises.

Nice Fresh Watermelons just received by Schiappacose & Co., Main street.

Estate of Christian Miller. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. At a session of the probate court for the county of Washtenaw, held at the probate office in the city of Ann Arbor, on Monday, the 22nd day of August, 1887.

WANTED—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

Wanted—All of any part of the Choice Butter made during Fall and Winter. I pay Cash.

OUR FALL AND WINTER STOCK ARRIVING FAST.

Our Summer Trade has been SATISFACTORY. We have to-day on our counters only SIX Light Colored Suits left. This Shows how we manage from season to season only to show NEW STYLES and NEW GOODS.

WE HAVE THE LEAD!

And we shall always keep it, no matter how cheap others tell you they are selling.

THE TWO SAM'S

Are always Lower in their prices. We invite our customers to call upon us and inspect our

NEW FALL LINE OF SUITING.

The Styles of Suitings worn this season are very different from that sold for years. CHIVOTS OF AMERICAN AND SCOTCH MANUFACTURES. CHIVOTS IN FROCK SUITS AND SACK SUITS OF OUR TAILOR MADE, with Low-cut Vest, Wide-Legged Pants.

THE NEW STYLE OF HATS WILL BE SHOWN IN A FEW DAYS. DO NOT BUY A LAST YEAR'S SHAPE. REMEMBER WE LEAD IN HATS.

THE ONLY STRICTLY ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS IN ANN ARBOR.

CHATTEL MORTGAGE SALE!

Having purchased the Furniture Stock of John Muehlig, at

A GREAT BARGAIN!

I propose to give the citizens of Ann Arbor and surrounding Country a benefit. I have also added a full line of

FURNITURE!

I SHALL ALSO CARRY ON THE UNDERTAKING BUSINESS.

EMANUEL WAGNER'S

Is the place to buy Groceries!

Best Goods! Lowest Prices!

Everything New and Fresh, and purchased at LOW CASH PRICES, his giving our customers unusual bargains in everything in our line ALL GOODS DELIVERED.

No. 33 South Main Street. Ann Arbor, Mich.

FAR, FAR AHEAD.

The Gas Garland

For 1887, is Almost An ENTIRE NEW DEPARTMENT.

There is Nothing like it. In fact nothing can compete with it. DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT BEFORE YOU BUY. Sold only by Schuh & Muehlig, 31 South Main, and 1 1/2 East Washington streets, Ann Arbor, Mich.

ACORN STOVES

ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

FOR SALE BY Grossmann & Schlenker, Dealers in GENERAL HARDWARE. Agents for T. G. SNYDER'S Patent Sheet Iron Roofing. No. 7, West Liberty Street, ANN ARBOR, MICH.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of Jacob Hannelman, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

Notice to Creditors. STATE OF MICHIGAN, County of Washtenaw, ss. Notice is hereby given, that by an order of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, made on the 18th day of July, A. D. 1887, six months from date were allowed for creditors to present their claims against the estate of John Flynn, late of said county, deceased, and that all creditors of said deceased are required to present their claims to said Probate Court, at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, for examination and allowance, on or before the 15th day of January next, and that such claims will be heard before said Court, on Tuesday the 15th day of January next, and on Wednesday the 22nd day of January next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

MASONIC DIRECTORY.

1331-1333 COMMERCIAL, No. 13—Meets first Tuesday of each month, W. V. Nichols, E. C. A. Toland, Secretary.

WASHTENAW CHAPTER, No. 6, R. A. M.—Meets first Monday of each month, C. H. Hancock, H. J. Scott, Secretary.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL.

TRAINS EAST:

Mail Express..... 4:33 p. m.
Day Express..... 5:30 p. m.
Night Express..... 9:45 p. m.
Atlantic Express..... 4:35 a. m.
Chicago Express..... 11:30 a. m.
Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo Express 5:30 p. m.
Cleveland Express..... 11:30 a. m.
Pacific Express..... 10:38 p. m.
The New York and Limited.....
Night Express trains east, and the Chicago, Evening, and Pacific Express trains west, run every day in the week, Sundays included.

TRAINS WEST:

Mail Express..... 10:15 a. m.
Day Express..... 10:25 a. m.
Chicago Express..... 8:25 p. m.
Grand Rapids and Kalamazoo Express 5:30 p. m.
Cleveland Express..... 11:30 a. m.
Pacific Express..... 10:38 p. m.
The New York and Limited.....
Night Express trains west, and the Chicago, Evening, and Pacific Express trains east, run every day in the week, Sundays included.

ANNOUNCEMENT, 1887.

Schools begin Monday, Sept. 5th, and WAHRS' BOOKSTORE will offer over 500 Second-hand School Books at astonishingly Low Prices. Having purchased these books during the dull summer months, we can afford to sell them at prices within the reach of everybody.

New School Books at Lowest Prices.

We have the fullest assortment of School Books, Blank Books, Mathematical Instruments, and all School Supplies, and at LOWEST PRICES. Second-hand School Books Bought and Exchanged.

GEO. WAHR,
The Straight Book Dealer.

Ann Arbor Democrat.

FRIDAY.....SEPTEMBER 2, 1887.

Friends of The Democrat, who have business at the Probate Court, will please request Judge Harriman to send their Printing to this office.

CITY SUBSCRIBERS TO THE DEMOCRAT SHOULD LEAVE THEIR STREET AND NO. AT THIS OFFICE, OPERA HOUSE BLOCK, AT ONCE TO INSURE THE DELIVERY OF THEIR PAPERS.

NOTICES.

Capt. Gustin is in Adrian.
Wm. Clements is back from Africa.
Welch Post, G. A. R., are at Adrian.
David Henning is back from Europe.
Council meeting Monday evening next.
Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Earp are in Pittsburg, Pa.
David Henning was in Ann Arbor, over Sunday.
Business men should help make the fair a success.
Dr. Breakey returned from his short vacation, Tuesday.
Will Jolly and family are camping at Strawberry Point.
The many authorities are at the entertainment of Mattie Waiz.
Dr. W. W. Nichols expects to have 2,000 bushels of peaches.
Rev. Wm. Galpin occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's, Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sutherland, of Battle Creek, are in the city.
Mrs. Lester Sweetland, of Lodi, is the guest of Mrs. Mattie Waiz.
Cramer spent Sunday and Monday on his farm, near Hastings.
Attention is called to the advertisement of W. F. Schlenderer.
Prof. Chule and family, have returned from their summer vacation.
Phoebe J. Nowland, of Webster, died Monday in the 67th year of her age.
J. E. Robinson, of the Free Press staff, is spending his vacation in this city.
Miss Lola Millsap, of Chelsea, visited friends in the city, last week.
The Ann Arbor Browns claim the championship of Washtenaw county.
Mrs. C. W. Mead and son, of Dundee, have been visiting friends in this city.
Mrs. Sperry and daughter, Miss Mattie, are visiting relatives in Kalamazoo.
The question of raising $5,000 to boot the town was carried by a large majority 370 to 78.
Stimson & Son have been building an addition to their Ann street grocery, 15x48 feet.
Miss Katie Cramer returned Monday from a few weeks' visit with friends in Hamburg.
W. W. Bliss has repaired and decorated his billiard rooms. The place is now a little beauty.
Gil Snow expects to have the rear part of his livery stable completed within the next ten days.
Dr. A. C. Kellogg and wife, and Mrs. Ed Walker spent a few days this week, at Zukek lake.
Miss Jane Mahan returned from Charlevoix last week, and left Monday for the east.
Wm. Van Ness and wife, of Geneva, N. Y., were the guests of Jas. Imus, the last of the week.
Jas. Thompson, of nowhere in particular, is serving a 10-day jail sentence for being disorderly.
Walker Bros. have just finished a handsome canopy top wagon for G. H. Mugg, of Dundee.
A prominent Ann Arbor capitalist is talking of starting a shirt factory in this city. Good enough.
These cool nights interfere with the boys' beds in the court yard. They now seek a warmer place.
Wm. Neithammer is doing the carpenter work on Snow's livery barn, and T. Keating the brick work.
A. J. Sawyer and family returned from Cavanaugh Lake Monday. Andrew has some big fish stories to tell.
Mr. Koch, in the employ of Neuhoff, the machinist, and Miss Sarah Stabler, of Seio, were married yesterday.
Ernest Dieterle has been in Detroit for several days, putting up as a furnace order of C. Eberbach, of this city.
The Ann Arbor Browns will play the Adams base ball on the fair grounds, Sept. 6, and the Manchester boys Sept. 9.

Mary, daughter of D. J. Ross, of the Fourth ward, died August 29th, aged 10 years, 8 months and 11 days, of malignant fever.
Hugh Coyle, of Northfield, died Saturday, at the advanced age of 84 years. He had been a resident of Northfield for 53 years.
C. B. Clancy, of Dallas, Texas, who has been visiting in this city, Sunday, of Maynard street, returned home last Friday.
Jennett, widow of the late Amos West of the Fifth ward, died last Friday, in the 65th year of her age, of cancer of the stomach.

Will Payne is home for a few days.
C. C. Warner has gone to Saginaw.
Frank Minnis has returned to Jackson.
Paul Sipley has gone to Lansing to work.
Osman Bailey was robbed of $1.50 in cash, Sunday.
Mrs. Dr. Bessie, of Milan, visited our city this week.
Miss Kittie Barry has returned to her home in Detroit.
Miss Frankie Sweeney is visiting friends in Detroit.
The will of the late Arnold Hanlon was probated Tuesday.
The spirit of the M. E. church has a beautiful new coat of paint.
Hugh Jenkins, jr., of Jackson, is the guest of his father, H. Jenkins.
Regents Shearer and Grosvenor, were in the city Monday and Tuesday.
Gil Snow's new barn will affect the vision of Scheele's bindery hands.
Services will be resumed in the Unitarian church on Friday morning.
Geo. Kenbly, wife and child leave next week for a trip around the lakes.
Mrs. Dr. Mead and son, Willie, of Dundee, visited friends in the city this week.
A front sidewalk is to be put down in front of Millman & Collins, place, on Ann street.
Dave Williamson, of Albion was visiting his many colored friends in this city, Tuesday.
Tute Freeman, the veteran tonsorial artist, is working for his cousin, Jerome Freeman.
Frederic Bros. have left the city. It is said that no tears were shed by citizen merchants.
Carrier O'Hern returned Tuesday, from his two weeks, stay at Whitmore and Dead Lakes.
Jas. Lenen will hereafter receive a pension, and that of Jerome A. Freeman has been increased.
Dr. Watling and family, of Ypsilanti, who have been in Europe this summer, have sailed for home.
The railing over the railroad bridge has been completed, and it is a much needed improvement.
S. C. Randall attended a reunion of the 22nd Mich. Inf't. veterans, his old regiment, at Northville, last week.
Carl, son of Chas. and Emma Hutchinson, died Tuesday, aged 11 months and 11 days, of cholera, at home.
B. J. Corbin, law partner of D. Cramer, of Dundee, who has been seriously ill for some time, is able to be out again.
Under the head of city items, will be found the advertisement of Martin & Co., who do business on Washington street, east.
Mrs. Conden and daughter, of Thompson street, returned from Milan Monday, where they had been making a brief sojourn.
The fall meeting of the Detroit driving club, Sept. 20-23. Purse of $35,000 are to be trotted for. Entries close next Monday.
The Rev. Mills Geleton officiates at the Presbyterian church next Sabbath, administering the "Lord's Supper" in the morning.
The Ann Arbor Democrat has just entered on its tenth year. It is in a very prosperous condition and is worthy of it.—Free Press.
J. O. Beahm has been making considerable repairs to his house in the Third ward, requiring an outlay of several hundred dollars.
Mrs. Breakey and niece, Miss Carrie Owen, who have been visiting friends in Michigan for the last four weeks, returned home Tuesday.
Frank Howard and Payson Doty were stockholders in the barrel factory located near Detroit, and destroyed by fire Monday morning.
The Toledo and Ann Arbor road is rapidly pushing northward, and by the time snow falls will have 234 miles of road in operation.
J. V. Seyler will sail for Europe, Sept. 8, on the steamer Pennsylvania. He will be absent two years, completing his musical education.
Thos. Blackburn and Prof. Thomas have removed their tonsorial parlors over Joe T. Jacobs' store. They are now nicely housed.
A colored man by the name of Bennett, was hit in the neck by a bottle of beer, while on his way to work, on Monday, requiring a bottle of beer to be used to stop the bleeding to death.
Prof. and Mrs. Wrampelmeier, formerly of this city, now of San Diego, Cal., are happy over a little daughter, born to them a few weeks ago.
Thos. Debeck was hooked in the thigh, Monday, by a cow that he was delivering to Henry Matthews. Dr. Smith dressed the wound.
Seward Cramer left Tuesday for Toledo, where he has a position with the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railroad, as civil engineer.
Miss Belle Fletcher, teacher in one of Detroit's public schools, who has been spending her vacation in this city, returns to Detroit to-morrow.
B. S. Waite and family, who have been the guests of D. Cramer for a number of weeks, have returned to their home in Menominee, Mich.
The gates of the fair grounds are thrown open every day for lighters. The track is to be dragged and put in fine shape for the fair, Oct. 4-7.
Schuh & Muehligh have the contract for putting in the steam heating apparatus and bath tubs in the old Jewett store, for E. M. Southard, for $1,100.
Geo. Stadel, the popular clerk for Fred Brown, is sojourning at Grand Rapids. During his absence his place is filled, temporarily, by Fred Hulm.
Miss Clara Wheeler, who is in Germany, was unfortunate enough to lose her baggage for a few weeks, which inconvenienced her considerably at the time.
Mr. and Mrs. Warren Taylor, who have been spending the summer with Mr. T.'s parents, will join the Carleton opera company, of which they are members, in Detroit, Monday.
W. G. Hoberts, of Lawrence, this state, has opened tonsorial parlors in the Jackson block, on State street. He is an old artist, and will undoubtedly do the business in that portion of the city.
Fred Huson and sister, Dr. Flora Huson, have purchased a piece of property on Lafayette avenue, Detroit, which they intend to fit up as a private hospital, over which Dr. Huson will be physician in charge.
The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer society will meet at the court house, on Wednesday, Sept. 7th, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the election of officers and the transaction of other business.
Walker Bros. are driven almost to death with orders from all over Michigan. They now employ 19 workmen, and are running their manufactory for all its worth. This firm has also under way 200 others.
The Ann Arbor Democrat has just entered upon the 10th year of its existence. It has lived and prospered, been sued and tried for libel, and it has many other evidences of the fact that it has life in it.—Evening Journal.
Pomological meeting to-morrow, at 2 p. m., in the basement of the court house. Peaches, pears, grapes, transportation, county and state fairs, and other important topics will be discussed. Shipments of fruit especially invited.
"One Against Many," is the title of a new play, by A. C. Guntter, opening the Union Theatre, New York, Aug. 29th. The leading character was assumed by John L. Burleigh. The piece is a romantic comedy-drama, in three acts, the scene being laid in St. Petersburg. The cast will include Edie George, Kathie Gilbert, Isabella Jackson, George Devere, Albert Klein, Albert Roberts and Daniel Leeson.

H. Hayes spent Sunday in Centerville.
Postmaster Duffy is in New York city.
Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg spent Sunday in Detroit.
H. Liesemer, of Saline, has a horse 28 years old.
Mrs. Katherine Keane is visiting friends in Marshall.
Mrs. Charles Kintner left for Washington yesterday.
Frederick Mayer was admitted to citizenship, Tuesday.
Fred Schelle will remove his book binder to State street.
Prof. Knorr and wife have returned from Cavanaugh Lake.
The members of the Manchester corset band have new uniforms.
Work on the council building, in Manchester, is going forward.
Mrs. J. Gould and daughter, Lillie, are visiting friends near South Lyon.
Geo. A. Douglas has gone to Iowa. He expects to be absent for several months.
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spafford, of Manchester, visited Wm. G. Doty, the first of the week.
W. G. Burleigh will rent the store formerly occupied by R. G. Eldert, the tobacconist.
Miss Almira Armstrong has gone to Minneapolis to teach the young idea how to shoot.
In the circuit court, Wednesday, Jas. A. Garrity was granted a divorce from Mattie Garrity.
The ball game, Tuesday, between Ann Arbor and Adrian, will be called at half-past two o'clock.
The Ann Arbor Democrat is just ten years old, and is getting along first rate.—Evening News.
Fanny Wheeler was granted a decree of divorce, Wednesday, from William Wheeler. The parties reside in Lodi.
Miss Mollie Green and sister, of Detroit, who are visiting Miss Dollie Dalton, will be her guests for the next two weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan left for Washington, D. C. Thursday, to attend the medical convention which convenes there next week.
The case against Keegan, charged with incendiarism, was dismissed by Justice Nease, Friday, there being no evidence to hold the boy.
The temperance union will hold a meeting at Crosey's hall, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. All temperance people are earnestly invited to be present.
M. F. Howard says that the fire which destroyed the barrel works in Detroit, will not cripple him in the least. Frank was one of the stockholders in the concern.
A little son of W. Fred Schlenderer, attended the encampment, at Adrian, this week. He wore on his head a medal presented to his father by Gen. Custer.
Drs. Geo. E. Frothingham, W. J. Herdman and V. C. Vaughan will attend a session of the International medical congress, which meets at Washington, next Monday.
Matters of importance to the taxpayers of the city will be voted upon at the annual school meeting, on Monday next. All voters are earnestly requested to be present.
The Methodist church, of Elsie, had an excursion Thursday last, to this city, for the purpose of visiting the university.
It was a lovely day, and a large number of bringing their lunch baskets with them.
The Ann Arbor Democrat celebrated its ninth anniversary last Friday. It is needless to say that the Democrat gets their every week with a budget of people that gladdens the eyes of its readers, and gives it a reputation second to no other as a news paper.—Courier.
Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nichols, of Bloomington, Ill., have been visiting friends in the city, this week. Mr. Nichols was on that ill-fated train which was wrecked at Chatsworth, Ill., but escaped without injury.
It is said that Deacon Brown received $2,300 of the $3,700, out of which he was swindled by Chicago confidence men some weeks ago. He paid $400 to his lawyers, and P. Bach, as agent, handed over to Sheriff Walsh $325, on which he received a commission of $5.
Frank Lombard has returned from his engagement with the Swiss bell ringers, in Illinois, and is negotiating for an outfit of bells for a trip he will make under his own management. He expects to spend the balance of his season giving musical entertainments through this vicinity.
Albert Valentine, of Webster, appeared on our streets with his usual smiling countenance yesterday. Al is the junior member of the firm of Valentine & Co., who are gaining a fine reputation as dealers in thorough-bred Shropshire sheep. Their sales for '87 will be three thousand 68—with Lyon, Michigan.
An exchange says: Printer's ink can out-talk any salesman, out-argue any obstinate buyer. It can't be talked back to, and when its opponent has expounded every argument against the subject, comes smiling every time with the same old statement, and finally leads him in tow, and willing to be convinced. That's why you advertise.
Robt. E. Costello, late of Chicago, and son of Mrs. Ambrose Kearney, of this city, has rented Wiley's news, and is joining Robinson's livery, and has purchased a complete outfit for a steam laundry, which he expects to have running sometime this month. He expects to buy a new lot only within the boundary of Ann Arbor, but also from towns around the county.
The Detroit Evening Journal was four years old yesterday. The day was celebrated by a match game of base ball between the Detroit and Chicago newspapers. The Recreation Park Journal paying all expenses. The game was witnessed by a large number of people and was a sight long to be remembered. The Detroit is a first-class paper, clear and newsy sheet, and the best prediction for it a long life and a successful one.
If natural gas is struck in Ann Arbor the city would boom itself. No bonuses would be required to induce manufacture of gas, and the city would not disagree with you brother. In Findlay, O., and Port Huron the citizens offer land, free use of gas, etc., to manufacturers who will locate there, and we think the same will hold good in Ann Arbor.—Enterprise. Right you are Bro. Blosser. The Argus this time is on the wrong track.
Non-paying subscribers are thus talked to by a Southern editor: Wagon carriers, wheelbarrow wheels, and without steam; bull frogs jump without legs; newspapers are carried on everlastingly without money; no more than a dog can wag his tail when he has none. Our subscribers are all good, but who good does a man's goodness do when it don't do any good. We have no doubt every one thinks that all have paid except him, and as we are a clever fellow, and we think the same will hold good in Ann Arbor.—Enterprise. Right you are Bro. Blosser. The Argus this time is on the wrong track.
"You can just bet there will be an injunction served on the common council to prevent the spreading of the $5,000 upon the city tax rolls," said D. Cramer yesterday. "It is time this expenditure of public funds illegally was stopped." "Who will serve the injunction?" "We asked, 'A number of us, all solid citizens you bet,' and then he left us. Well, there are at least 100 of us who commence kicking in their cradles, and keep it up until they get into their coffins. There are those who, were they a silver spoon in their mouth, would squall for a gold one. It is time to find out whether the 'old fog' element will run the town or whether it will not. Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to the demand. Much interest was manifested by the teachers. It was a broad, cost saving, good seed.

The Boston Traveller thinks women are "easily comforted" who see signs of the advancement of woman suffrage in the fact that Mary McLaughlin, a young seamstress in Lowell, recently appointed postmistress at Lake Forest, Ill., at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars a year, when she was not even a candidate, and only heard of her appointment by telegraph. But the traveller may be asked whether this young lady would have ever been thought of as a candidate if the suffrage movement had not come along, by what right for women? What is it that put this woman into the position to be appointed postmistress?
THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.—W. D. Sult, druggist, Bippuy Ind, testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took four bottles, and was cured of indigestion of two years standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 30 years' experience is Electric Bitters. Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half a dozen bottles at C. Eberbach & Son's drug store."
"Does position affect sleep?" asked a member of a "medical convention," whereupon a prosy old doctor said he thought it did. "For instance," he asked, by what position of a night watchman is he liable to be disturbed by the patrol?"
EXCITEMENT IN TEXAS.—Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in bed, or raise his head; everybody said he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of Pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in weight thirty-six pounds. Trial bottles of this Great Discovery for Consumption free at Eberbach & Son's.
The spelling reformers have decided that ocean should be spelled "ooshun," but sea-stickers will make a man wish he was dead just the same as if the old-fashioned orthography was kept up.
To look upon a bright, beautiful baby and remember that the only medicine it ever takes is Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup, certainly converts another family of the use of the remedy. The sight of an ugly inflamed boil or sore, to say nothing of its dangerous tendency, should induce any sufferer to try Lavador, the infallible remedy for these troublesome blood disorders.
"I smell sniffin a burnin'," remarked an old negro who sat at a camp-fire, tossing his extremities. "Gosh! he had a monst' in his mouth, 't was his nigger's own foot."
"Diseases, desperate growth, by desperate appliances are relieved, or not at all." The point of wisdom is to check them before they reach so far by buying early a monst' in his mouth, 't was his nigger's own foot."
"Conspiracies no sooner should be formed than executed," and a cold should no sooner be taken, than a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup should be bought and used according to the directions.
Business before pleasure, as the man remarked when he kissed his wife before going to the club.
BUCKLEN'S ANTI-CLA SALVE.—The best in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures Piles or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Eberbach & Son.
When a Boston girl's soul reaches out into the infinite after an idea and grasps it, she realizes how base and ignoble is the conventionality that has been a burden on her soul, and she is endeavored to wrestle with a paper bustle.

Probate Court Doings.

Estate Horace Coy; will proved.
Estate Arnold Hanlon; will proved.
Estate of Brook; final account. Hearing Sept. 27.
Estate Mary S. Vandergraff; Jno. F. Spafford appointed administrator.
Estate Simon O. Ball; Jno. W. Blackwell appointed administrator.
Estate Wm. H. Burleson; Charlotte J. Burleson appointed administratrix.
Estate Bernard Petre; petition to sell real estate filed. Hearing Sept. 28.
Estate S. Forsyth; sale of real estate confirmed. Order for final account. Hearing Sept. 27.
Real Estate Transfers.

Jennett West to Henry West, city, $1,000.
Eliza C. Bird to Addie D. Bird, city, $1,500.
G. H. Cook to Maria S. Cook, city, $5,000.
O. B. Pfisterer to Wm. J. Clark, Salem, $209.57.
Alfred Jarvis to Tubal C. Owen, Ypsilanti, $5,000.
B. W. Lampkin to W. P. Lampkin, York, $3,100.
Clark Cornell to Geo. Moorman, Ypsilanti, city, $10,000.
Eliza C. and Addie D. Bird to Willie O. Bird, Ann Arbor town, $3,500.
Chas. H. Chamberlain, (by guardian) to C. L. and Ann L. Yost, Ypsilanti city, $2,500.
The Woman's Column.

Queen Carola, of Saxony, has established a free kindergarten for the benefit of children of poor laborers on her estate, Sibyllentort, where she annually spends part of the summer.
Mrs. Robinson, in the Fortnightly Review, writes: "I have known many women, that they should have technical training, and thus be fitted to do some things so well that they can command high pay."
Col. is to have a college for women, modelled after Wellesley and Vassar. The "Ladies' College Society," which has the matter in charge, is to be incorporated, and will raise $750,000 in real estate and such.
San Francisco, Cal., has a society called the "Woman's Congress," composed of one hundred or more of the thinking women of the city, the same having been in working order for five years. Its object is the investigation of all subjects, political, social and religious. None but women are admitted.—Cor. San Francisco People.
Miss Sarah Ewing, of the Sampson Manufacturing company's shoe shop, in North Adams, has won the prize offered by a button machine company, for the operative who, on one of their machines, would sew on the most buttons in one day of ten hours. Miss Ewing's record was 27,154 buttons, an average of forty-five and one fourth for each minute in the day.
"There is no instance on record," says Buckle, in his "History of Civilization in England," "of a woman possessing power without ability." It is as true of men as of a class of property-holders. Men are not wise enough nor generous enough nor pure enough to legislate fairly for women. The law of the most civilized nations depress and degrade women. The legislation is in favor of the legislating class.—George William Curtis.
Mrs. D. G. Croly ("Lennie June") has been made President of Mrs. R. P. Novby's Women's Endowment Cattle Company. The company has filed its certificate of incorporation in New Jersey, and has a capital stock of $1,500,000, divided into 3,000 shares of $500 each. The company has control of nearly 3,000,000 acres of fine grazing land in New Mexico, on which there are now 6,000 head of cattle. The stock is to be placed with women as an endowment for their children.
Helen S. Abbott, Philadelphia, has been elected a member of the Philosophical Society in that city, of which Benjamin Franklin was one of the founders. Only six women have been elected during the one hundred and twenty years of the society's existence. The first lady was Franklin's friend, the Princess Daskoiff. The others were Mrs. Mary Somerville, Mrs. H. C. Adams, and Mrs. Carl Seiler, of Philadelphia, author of "The Voice and Singing." Miss Abbott is admitted for what she has done in analytical chemistry.
Mrs. Charlotte Smith, President of the Women's National Industrial League of Washington, and the first woman who has been elected to a position of honor in a national organization, was "conducted in a horrible manner." She had been in one a few days ago to see a woman who had been arrested for robbery. This woman had an infant in her arms, and she was incarcerated in a cell which was reeking with filth, and in which were several other prisoners. In this station there were but two cells, into which, at times, one hundred and fifty people were crowded and there for forty eight hours. Who can believe there is no need of police matrons?

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

At the Northwestern Summer School of Michigan is held formal, heretofore, the subject of social purity was presented by Miss Jenny B. Merrill, of New York City Normal School (author of "Shield and Sword"), spoke and was followed by Mrs. E. H. Smith, of St. Louis, and Mrs. Putnam. All of these ladies are teachers, including representatives from thirty-three States, four Territories, and Canada. Social purity leaders were distributed and eagerly taken by teachers, the supply not being equal to

CLEARING SALE
OF
Summer Goods.

Bargains will be found in every department of our store. We call special attention to some of the leading values and request that in order to secure the cream value of the sale it will be necessary to call early as we expect the store filled with customers anxious to get a share of the bargains offered within fifteen days.

White Dress Goods in Swiss and Nainsook, Striped, Checked or Plain at 10, 12 1/2, 15, 20 and 25.
Colored Dress Goods, assortment comprising Plain, Plaids and Checks for 12 1/2 formerly sold for 25, and $7 1/2 etc.
Handsome Assortment of Dress Goods, 25, 30 and 35 cts. Many of these are less than half original price.
French All Wool and Silk and Wool Dress Fabrics choice for 50c, former price 75 to 85c.

Sweeping Reduction in Pattern Suits

And many great bargains in remnants. BALANCE OF STOCK OF PARASOLS MUST GO. PRICES NO OBJECT. Over 100 different styles of FANS, ranging in price from 3c upwards. Pocket, Folding, Japanese, Feather and other Painted Fans in endless variety. THE PRICES WE ASK ARE RIDICULOUSLY LOW.

Mack & Schmid.

Entirely too numerous to mention for the outfitting of the fine dressers. And as we have the services of one of the best cutters, and also our cost makers are among the best, enables us to please the most fashionable dressers. Now all we have to say is come in and we will guarantee you the lowest prices in the state for first-class goods. No trouble to show goods.

Palace Grocery!

Have Everything in the Grocery Line! That Can be Purchased. Also all kinds of Fresh Vegetables

FRED T. STIMSON.

Remember the Place, No. 9 North Main St., Ann Arbor, Michigan.

EXINGER & BOES,
Proprietors of the
EXCHANGE

RINSEY & SEABOLT,
No. 6 & 8 Washington St.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

THE PALACE LIVERY

Corner of Detroit and Catharine Streets, or leave orders at the Post-office.

Brown Chinese Plant On Ivory.

A Stock Pattern with us and can be had in separate pieces as well as sets and matched for years to come as readily as White Ware.

J. D. STIMSON & SON,
China, Crockery,
Glassware, Lamps, etc.
ANN ARBOR, MICH.

W. C. BURCHFIELD.

Palace Grocery!

FRED T. STIMSON.

EXINGER & BOES,
Proprietors of the
EXCHANGE

RINSEY & SEABOLT,
No. 6 & 8 Washington St.

</

TO ADVERTISE... CONSULT LOU AND THOMAS... PENSION & CLAIM AGENCY

O. L. MATTHEWS! ANN ARBOR, MICH.

PENNYROYAL WAFERS. Prescription of a physician who has had a life-long experience in treating female diseases.

Gat Your Property Insured By C. H. MILLEN, INSURANCE AGENT.

HENRY MATTHEWS. Keeps a first-class

MEAT MARKET. Dealer in all kinds of Fresh, Salt and Smoked Meats.

HENRY MATTHEWS. Huron Street, Ann Arbor, Mich.

Delath, South Shore & Atlantic RAILWAY.

Unexcelled Hunting and Fishing. The territory traversed is famous for its

MACKINAC. The Most Delightful SUMMER TOUR

Ann Arbor Organ Works D. F. Allmendinger

Pianos, Organs, AND MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

Great Bargains! I am offering.

Fred. Brown! At CLARKEN'S OLD PLACE.

DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS.

Liquors and Cigars.

HOT LUNCH EVERY DAY.

EBERBACH & SON.

DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS.

Liquors and Cigars.

HOT LUNCH EVERY DAY.

EBERBACH & SON.

DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS.

Liquors and Cigars.

HOT LUNCH EVERY DAY.

EBERBACH & SON.

DRUGGISTS AND PHARMACISTS.

Liquors and Cigars.

HOT LUNCH EVERY DAY.

EBERBACH & SON.

Was She Frivolous?

The Rev. Mr. Shaw contrasted greatly with his surroundings—his position clothed fitting as well as a strong, manly figure; his clear cut, Grecian features, and dark, wavy hair, thrown back with careless grace from his smooth brow.

He was visiting one of those wretched tenement houses used by the very poor, and before him was a forlorn group.

A widow who had just buried her husband; she had five helpless children—the eldest six, the youngest a nursing baby, and a pair of twins among them.

An expression of almost sublime pity rested on the countenance of the minister.

The woman, with her apron thrown over her head, looked herself to and fro, and waited for his troubles.

"I don't know what I'm a-going to do for myself and the little 'uns. Though my old man would have his drink, he didn't beat me, and brought enough to us to keep body and soul together, but now I know we can't do neither! But starve and die!"

"Have you no friends?" asked Mr. Shaw in a low voice.

"Some, but as bad or worse off than us. Yes," she said, looking up with a grateful, but grim expression, "there is one—Lord Miss Mabel Sanks. She sent medicine and the doctor to the old man, and giv me clothes and sutlin' to eat; and man's the man, woman and child that blesses her for taken care of 'em. Way, sir, she even leaves little cards with stamps on 'em, and Job Potter, who can write, sends 'em to her when we are in a very bad state."

After assuring her of his sympathy, and that he would do what he could for her, the minister wended his way home.

As he thought of those to whom he might appeal, a vision of a bright face haunted him, but while he lingered over the thought most tenderly there was a shadow on his brow as if there was some slight jar that marred the harmony of his thoughts.

Mr. Shaw was the rector of one of the wealthy churches of the city, and Mabel Sanks was one of the parishioners.

Her face was Madonna-like in its tender sweetness, her large blue eyes with just a tinge of sadness, the perfect curve of the red lips, the faultless complexion, and blond hair that was like a halo of light round the graceful head.

But, ah, when she talked it was like a damper, a mist on a beautiful picture, marring the tints that would otherwise have been perfect.

Bright and witty, but a butterfly; such a devotee to society that one longed for the expression of a single sense or thought that could lean into something like common sense this personification of frivolity. With it all, however, she was lovely and lovable to every one, and Mr. Shaw had long struggled against an interest in her, the indulgence of which he felt would be fatal to his future happiness and usefulness.

Absorbed in these thoughts, he found himself in front of Mr. Lee's house, and, obeying an impulse, he turned in at the gate and was admitted.

As Miss Lee entered the parlor he thought he had said some fairer vision, and was vexed to feel his heart throb more quickly, and thrill with a plea that he felt must be controlled. She greeted him with that easy grace which was one of her principal charms.

"Ah, Mr. Shaw! I am so glad to see you. I had a real spell of ennui this morning. This last novel is wretched, as both here and heroine die in the most provoking way, all because of some overstrained idea of duty, and I was just wishing that some one would come in, and I could have a cheerful little chat to dispel the gloomy impression."

"Then I'm afraid," smilingly, "you will not like my present visitor. I have not come in a very cheerful humor, and, besides, I wish to ask a favor."

"A favor! That is too lovely. Consider it granted, even to the half of my kingdom. I am truly glad that you wish to ask a favor of me, because I did not think your opinion of me was sufficiently good for such a thing. Do you know," with a sudden drop of the eyes, "that you always make me feel as if I were doing something wrong?"

"Do I? Well, I shall give you a golden opportunity now to redeem yourself. I have just been visiting some of those wretched poor families in—street, and I would like so much if you could interest some ladies in their behalf—visit them and relieve them."

A look of consternation overspread her face, and she exclaimed: "Oh, indeed, you don't mean for me to go there? How could I ever stand it! I don't bear such places. Ask me anything else. The dreadful man and woman—the old! Ugh!" with a shudder, "Ask me almost anything else."

A look of keen disappointment flitted over Mr. Shaw's face.

"I do intend to do something good next week. I have refused a woman," triumphantly, "I may attend the charity calico ball to be given. You know all the dresses are for the poor, so I shall do some good."

"And what is your dress to be?" asked Mr. Shaw, with rather an indeliberate infection to his voice.

"The loveliest blue silesia, with a flowered cretonne front," enthusiastically, "sleeveless waist, Medici collar, shirred, and very bouffant draperies. It will be beautiful, and I know it will seem very nice to some poor woman who never had anything like it."

"Yes," said he in a tone quite saturated with irony, "I don't doubt its usefulness; but I don't think you ought to add a few yards of flimsy to make some warm bodies for those who have no fires, and a few yards of ribbon to decorate the little froz ng arms?"

"Now, you are angry with me, Mr. Shaw," hesitatingly. "Don't you think me utterly heartless; but I can't go to—street. It would really give me a little blue chill."

"I could never consent to such a cruel thing as that," he said, with an unpleasant smile. "I really feel that I owe you an apology for intruding such a disagreeable subject, particular-

STARBOARD YOUR HELLMUM.

How to Clew Up Your Hinnacle, Reef the Main-Top Hawsse, Heave to or Heave Up in a Gale, Bounce the Sailing-Master and Fly. All Hands Brought Down to Splice the Main Brace and Hoist in Plum Duff.

Henry Guy Carlton in New York World. You get in a loose and retrograde pursuit when there is water enough to lay the dust; and yet I have found very few toilers on a small sailing vessel running a large steam yacht for their own pleasure. In fact I have been assured by good authority that earnest men struggling in retail trade to support a wholesale family really feel lighter in their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

A sailing yacht is best to be on if you desire to thoroughly enjoy the tranquility of a calm at sea. There is nothing more beautiful than a large and shapely sailing yacht of Cape Cod when the winds are far, far away toying with the Southern Hemisphere. You go to the north and return, but unless you are run down by some steamer during the night you will awake exactly where you were the day before. Along with the peace and quietude of the calm you will be afforded opportunities of studying some of the beauties of nautical language and improving your acquaintance with their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

One day when entering the post-office he saw Lee. She was unaware of his presence, and, standing idly behind her, he felt as if he had received an electric shock, as she asked: "Is there anything for Miss Mabel Sanks?" and then received and pocketed several postal cards.

If he was astonished at the question, he was still more so at the effect which his discovery produced on her.

Neck, face, and brow, even the roots of her golden curls, were dyed in a painful crimson, her eyes dilated with an expression of great consternation, but with a little laughing gesture of recognition she hurried past him.

Acting upon an impulse, with a few hasty steps he soon overtook her. He was lost in a bewildering surprise. She was the last person with whom he would have connected Miss Sanks in any way, and her great agitation, as he walked beside her, increased his surprise.

A sudden, bright suspicion caused his heart to beat almost to suffocation. "Tell me, Miss Mabel," he said, "what have you to do with Miss Sanks' letters?"

"I really can't understand, Mr. Shaw, what right you have to ask me such a question. In all that I know of I acknowledge your right, but in this instance you forget yourself."

"Tell me," he said, "with eager, regardless haste, are you Miss Sanks?"

A sudden burst of tears was her only answer, as she hastily pulled down her veil, and walked silently beside him.

A calm of perfect joy descended upon him, as he fully realized the truth. He walked by her side until he reached her home, and then, without waiting for an invitation, entered it with her.

As she reached the parlor, she tossed aside her hat and stood before him, the least a discovered culprit than the little saint she had proved to be.

There was a defiant sparkle in her eyes as she turned her flushed face to him. He took both of her hands in his.

"So, Mabel," he murmured, tenderly, "your heart is as beautiful as your face, though you have veiled your goodness under an exterior of frivolity. This is not the general rule of humanity."

"But, Mr. Shaw, if it is a fault, it lies entirely at your door."

"Have I anything to do with it?" he asked, in surprise. "I have been thinking for a long while that you were entirely beyond my control."

"Nevertheless, I have only been obeying your instructions. Don't you remember you sometimes preach against ostentatious charity? Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." I thought there was a word of truth and force in it, and I have practiced what you preached. And now, Mr. Shaw," she said, "with a demure glance at him, "if you are done with my hands I will not trouble you to hold them any longer."

"No," he said gravely, "I do not wish to return them. Ma Belle! Ma Belle!" he said, quickly and tenderly, "give me the privilege of owning them always. Won't you, darling?"

"No, no," with a low laugh, "it is Miss Sanks whom you have fallen in love for, poor Mabel Lee has only got your toleration."

"Ah," he said, "that's when I thought you were a butterfly. Now that I know you to be a saint, I beg you to share your grace with me, and help me in all good things. I am willing to take you or Miss Sanks, or, in defiance of the law of the land, I will take you both."

She hesitated, then, with a lovely blush and smile, she laid both her hands in his.

"One for Miss Sanks—one for myself."

He drew her to him, and felt that one sermon at least had been cast upon the waters, which had returned to him many days.

Choices of a Profession.

I was making a pastoral call the other day on a family who have for their pride a noble little lad of 10 or 12 years of age, full of activity and opinions. After I left, as the family reported to me, he said: "Mamma, what a dandy time the pastor must have! From Monday morning till Saturday night he has nothing to do but walk about, and play marbles, if he likes. I wish I might be a preacher."

The boy's remark reminded me of an anecdote of two Irish laborers, who were working at road-making. Pausing, and resting his weight on the spade-handle, Pat said to his fellow laborer: "Mike, I say, if you had your own sow's choice for a callin' in life, what would ye be after choosin'?"

"Holy Mither!" answered Mike, "I can hardly say, but it's meself that thinks for a foin, say, elane job, with little to do and steady pay's the while, I'd look to be a bushy."—Dr. J. L. Withrow in Chicago Advance.

Editorial Duties in Texas.

It is the editors' duty to speak of his town as the loveliest place beneath heaven's blue arch. Speak of the deceased citizen as a fallen oak when he dies of the jim-jams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when you know he is the best poker player in town. Speak of a little street Arab as a bright-eyed youth on the road to fame, and of a big-footed, curly-headed, newly married woman as the beautiful and accomplished bride. Call a man who has a few dusty bolts of calico and a soldier's blue coat a prosperous and experienced dry goods merchant. Call a lawyer a leading light, of whom the profession ought to be proud, when a man gets of the other end of the stick and may secure a fair-sized steam yacht for about $170,000, and she will not usually

STARBOARD YOUR HELLMUM.

How to Clew Up Your Hinnacle, Reef the Main-Top Hawsse, Heave to or Heave Up in a Gale, Bounce the Sailing-Master and Fly. All Hands Brought Down to Splice the Main Brace and Hoist in Plum Duff.

Henry Guy Carlton in New York World. You get in a loose and retrograde pursuit when there is water enough to lay the dust; and yet I have found very few toilers on a small sailing vessel running a large steam yacht for their own pleasure. In fact I have been assured by good authority that earnest men struggling in retail trade to support a wholesale family really feel lighter in their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

A sailing yacht is best to be on if you desire to thoroughly enjoy the tranquility of a calm at sea. There is nothing more beautiful than a large and shapely sailing yacht of Cape Cod when the winds are far, far away toying with the Southern Hemisphere. You go to the north and return, but unless you are run down by some steamer during the night you will awake exactly where you were the day before. Along with the peace and quietude of the calm you will be afforded opportunities of studying some of the beauties of nautical language and improving your acquaintance with their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

One day when entering the post-office he saw Lee. She was unaware of his presence, and, standing idly behind her, he felt as if he had received an electric shock, as she asked: "Is there anything for Miss Mabel Sanks?" and then received and pocketed several postal cards.

If he was astonished at the question, he was still more so at the effect which his discovery produced on her.

Neck, face, and brow, even the roots of her golden curls, were dyed in a painful crimson, her eyes dilated with an expression of great consternation, but with a little laughing gesture of recognition she hurried past him.

Acting upon an impulse, with a few hasty steps he soon overtook her. He was lost in a bewildering surprise. She was the last person with whom he would have connected Miss Sanks in any way, and her great agitation, as he walked beside her, increased his surprise.

A sudden, bright suspicion caused his heart to beat almost to suffocation. "Tell me, Miss Mabel," he said, "what have you to do with Miss Sanks' letters?"

"I really can't understand, Mr. Shaw, what right you have to ask me such a question. In all that I know of I acknowledge your right, but in this instance you forget yourself."

"Tell me," he said, "with eager, regardless haste, are you Miss Sanks?"

A sudden burst of tears was her only answer, as she hastily pulled down her veil, and walked silently beside him.

A calm of perfect joy descended upon him, as he fully realized the truth. He walked by her side until he reached her home, and then, without waiting for an invitation, entered it with her.

As she reached the parlor, she tossed aside her hat and stood before him, the least a discovered culprit than the little saint she had proved to be.

There was a defiant sparkle in her eyes as she turned her flushed face to him. He took both of her hands in his.

"So, Mabel," he murmured, tenderly, "your heart is as beautiful as your face, though you have veiled your goodness under an exterior of frivolity. This is not the general rule of humanity."

"But, Mr. Shaw, if it is a fault, it lies entirely at your door."

"Have I anything to do with it?" he asked, in surprise. "I have been thinking for a long while that you were entirely beyond my control."

"Nevertheless, I have only been obeying your instructions. Don't you remember you sometimes preach against ostentatious charity? Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." I thought there was a word of truth and force in it, and I have practiced what you preached. And now, Mr. Shaw," she said, "with a demure glance at him, "if you are done with my hands I will not trouble you to hold them any longer."

"No," he said gravely, "I do not wish to return them. Ma Belle! Ma Belle!" he said, quickly and tenderly, "give me the privilege of owning them always. Won't you, darling?"

"No, no," with a low laugh, "it is Miss Sanks whom you have fallen in love for, poor Mabel Lee has only got your toleration."

"Ah," he said, "that's when I thought you were a butterfly. Now that I know you to be a saint, I beg you to share your grace with me, and help me in all good things. I am willing to take you or Miss Sanks, or, in defiance of the law of the land, I will take you both."

She hesitated, then, with a lovely blush and smile, she laid both her hands in his.

"One for Miss Sanks—one for myself."

He drew her to him, and felt that one sermon at least had been cast upon the waters, which had returned to him many days.

Choices of a Profession.

I was making a pastoral call the other day on a family who have for their pride a noble little lad of 10 or 12 years of age, full of activity and opinions. After I left, as the family reported to me, he said: "Mamma, what a dandy time the pastor must have! From Monday morning till Saturday night he has nothing to do but walk about, and play marbles, if he likes. I wish I might be a preacher."

The boy's remark reminded me of an anecdote of two Irish laborers, who were working at road-making. Pausing, and resting his weight on the spade-handle, Pat said to his fellow laborer: "Mike, I say, if you had your own sow's choice for a callin' in life, what would ye be after choosin'?"

"Holy Mither!" answered Mike, "I can hardly say, but it's meself that thinks for a foin, say, elane job, with little to do and steady pay's the while, I'd look to be a bushy."—Dr. J. L. Withrow in Chicago Advance.

Editorial Duties in Texas.

It is the editors' duty to speak of his town as the loveliest place beneath heaven's blue arch. Speak of the deceased citizen as a fallen oak when he dies of the jim-jams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when you know he is the best poker player in town. Speak of a little street Arab as a bright-eyed youth on the road to fame, and of a big-footed, curly-headed, newly married woman as the beautiful and accomplished bride. Call a man who has a few dusty bolts of calico and a soldier's blue coat a prosperous and experienced dry goods merchant. Call a lawyer a leading light, of whom the profession ought to be proud, when a man gets of the other end of the stick and may secure a fair-sized steam yacht for about $170,000, and she will not usually

STARBOARD YOUR HELLMUM.

How to Clew Up Your Hinnacle, Reef the Main-Top Hawsse, Heave to or Heave Up in a Gale, Bounce the Sailing-Master and Fly. All Hands Brought Down to Splice the Main Brace and Hoist in Plum Duff.

Henry Guy Carlton in New York World. You get in a loose and retrograde pursuit when there is water enough to lay the dust; and yet I have found very few toilers on a small sailing vessel running a large steam yacht for their own pleasure. In fact I have been assured by good authority that earnest men struggling in retail trade to support a wholesale family really feel lighter in their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

A sailing yacht is best to be on if you desire to thoroughly enjoy the tranquility of a calm at sea. There is nothing more beautiful than a large and shapely sailing yacht of Cape Cod when the winds are far, far away toying with the Southern Hemisphere. You go to the north and return, but unless you are run down by some steamer during the night you will awake exactly where you were the day before. Along with the peace and quietude of the calm you will be afforded opportunities of studying some of the beauties of nautical language and improving your acquaintance with their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

One day when entering the post-office he saw Lee. She was unaware of his presence, and, standing idly behind her, he felt as if he had received an electric shock, as she asked: "Is there anything for Miss Mabel Sanks?" and then received and pocketed several postal cards.

If he was astonished at the question, he was still more so at the effect which his discovery produced on her.

Neck, face, and brow, even the roots of her golden curls, were dyed in a painful crimson, her eyes dilated with an expression of great consternation, but with a little laughing gesture of recognition she hurried past him.

Acting upon an impulse, with a few hasty steps he soon overtook her. He was lost in a bewildering surprise. She was the last person with whom he would have connected Miss Sanks in any way, and her great agitation, as he walked beside her, increased his surprise.

A sudden, bright suspicion caused his heart to beat almost to suffocation. "Tell me, Miss Mabel," he said, "what have you to do with Miss Sanks' letters?"

"I really can't understand, Mr. Shaw, what right you have to ask me such a question. In all that I know of I acknowledge your right, but in this instance you forget yourself."

"Tell me," he said, "with eager, regardless haste, are you Miss Sanks?"

A sudden burst of tears was her only answer, as she hastily pulled down her veil, and walked silently beside him.

A calm of perfect joy descended upon him, as he fully realized the truth. He walked by her side until he reached her home, and then, without waiting for an invitation, entered it with her.

As she reached the parlor, she tossed aside her hat and stood before him, the least a discovered culprit than the little saint she had proved to be.

There was a defiant sparkle in her eyes as she turned her flushed face to him. He took both of her hands in his.

"So, Mabel," he murmured, tenderly, "your heart is as beautiful as your face, though you have veiled your goodness under an exterior of frivolity. This is not the general rule of humanity."

"But, Mr. Shaw, if it is a fault, it lies entirely at your door."

"Have I anything to do with it?" he asked, in surprise. "I have been thinking for a long while that you were entirely beyond my control."

"Nevertheless, I have only been obeying your instructions. Don't you remember you sometimes preach against ostentatious charity? Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth." I thought there was a word of truth and force in it, and I have practiced what you preached. And now, Mr. Shaw," she said, "with a demure glance at him, "if you are done with my hands I will not trouble you to hold them any longer."

"No," he said gravely, "I do not wish to return them. Ma Belle! Ma Belle!" he said, quickly and tenderly, "give me the privilege of owning them always. Won't you, darling?"

"No, no," with a low laugh, "it is Miss Sanks whom you have fallen in love for, poor Mabel Lee has only got your toleration."

"Ah," he said, "that's when I thought you were a butterfly. Now that I know you to be a saint, I beg you to share your grace with me, and help me in all good things. I am willing to take you or Miss Sanks, or, in defiance of the law of the land, I will take you both."

She hesitated, then, with a lovely blush and smile, she laid both her hands in his.

"One for Miss Sanks—one for myself."

He drew her to him, and felt that one sermon at least had been cast upon the waters, which had returned to him many days.

Choices of a Profession.

I was making a pastoral call the other day on a family who have for their pride a noble little lad of 10 or 12 years of age, full of activity and opinions. After I left, as the family reported to me, he said: "Mamma, what a dandy time the pastor must have! From Monday morning till Saturday night he has nothing to do but walk about, and play marbles, if he likes. I wish I might be a preacher."

The boy's remark reminded me of an anecdote of two Irish laborers, who were working at road-making. Pausing, and resting his weight on the spade-handle, Pat said to his fellow laborer: "Mike, I say, if you had your own sow's choice for a callin' in life, what would ye be after choosin'?"

"Holy Mither!" answered Mike, "I can hardly say, but it's meself that thinks for a foin, say, elane job, with little to do and steady pay's the while, I'd look to be a bushy."—Dr. J. L. Withrow in Chicago Advance.

Editorial Duties in Texas.

It is the editors' duty to speak of his town as the loveliest place beneath heaven's blue arch. Speak of the deceased citizen as a fallen oak when he dies of the jim-jams. Call a man a prominent and influential citizen when you know he is the best poker player in town. Speak of a little street Arab as a bright-eyed youth on the road to fame, and of a big-footed, curly-headed, newly married woman as the beautiful and accomplished bride. Call a man who has a few dusty bolts of calico and a soldier's blue coat a prosperous and experienced dry goods merchant. Call a lawyer a leading light, of whom the profession ought to be proud, when a man gets of the other end of the stick and may secure a fair-sized steam yacht for about $170,000, and she will not usually

STARBOARD YOUR HELLMUM.

How to Clew Up Your Hinnacle, Reef the Main-Top Hawsse, Heave to or Heave Up in a Gale, Bounce the Sailing-Master and Fly. All Hands Brought Down to Splice the Main Brace and Hoist in Plum Duff.

Henry Guy Carlton in New York World. You get in a loose and retrograde pursuit when there is water enough to lay the dust; and yet I have found very few toilers on a small sailing vessel running a large steam yacht for their own pleasure. In fact I have been assured by good authority that earnest men struggling in retail trade to support a wholesale family really feel lighter in their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

A sailing yacht is best to be on if you desire to thoroughly enjoy the tranquility of a calm at sea. There is nothing more beautiful than a large and shapely sailing yacht of Cape Cod when the winds are far, far away toying with the Southern Hemisphere. You go to the north and return, but unless you are run down by some steamer during the night you will awake exactly where you were the day before. Along with the peace and quietude of the calm you will be afforded opportunities of studying some of the beauties of nautical language and improving your acquaintance with their mind when they do not own a cloud-bearing flyer of the sea carrying a crew of twenty-five men.

One day when entering the post-office he saw Lee. She was unaware of his presence, and, standing idly behind her, he felt as if he had received an electric shock, as she asked: "Is there anything for Miss Mabel Sanks?" and then received and pocketed several postal cards.

If he was astonished at the question, he was still more so at the effect which his discovery produced on her.

Neck, face, and brow, even the roots of her golden curls, were dyed in a painful crimson, her eyes dilated with an expression of great consternation, but with a little laughing gesture of recognition she hurried past him.

Acting upon an impulse, with a few hasty steps he soon overtook her. He was lost in a bewildering surprise. She was the last person with whom he would have connected Miss Sanks in any way, and her great agitation, as he walked beside her, increased his surprise.

A sudden, bright suspicion caused his heart to beat almost to suffocation. "Tell me, Miss Mabel," he said, "what have you to do with Miss Sanks' letters?"

"I really can't understand, Mr. Shaw, what right you have to ask me such a question. In all that I know of I acknowledge your right, but in this instance you forget yourself."

"Tell me," he said, "with eager, regardless haste, are you Miss Sanks?"

A sudden burst of tears was her only answer, as she hastily pulled down her veil, and walked silently beside him.

A calm of perfect joy descended upon him, as he fully realized the truth. He walked by her side until he reached her home, and then, without waiting for an invitation, entered it with