"Papa, didn't you whip me once for biting little Tommy?" "Yes my child; you hurt him much." "Well, then, papa, you ought to whip sister's mischievous master, too; he bit sister yesterday afternoon right on the mouth; and I know it hurt her, because she put her arms around his neck and tried to choke him."

It's all very well to talk about building new railroads and new Steam Ships—but how could men, women, and children travel on them without Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup? Think of it. "Neither a borrower nor a lender be," but take your own twenty-five cents, and go round to your own druggist, and buy yourself a bottle of Salvation Oil for your sprains, soles, and pains.

The mild cure—If a cathartic is needed to rid the blood of impurity and to stimulate the action of the liver use Laxador. Price 25 cents. If there were called a meeting of babies and children and the question put to vote "who was their greatest benefactor" the loud and unanimous vote would be "Dr. Bull," for he gave us his wonderful "Baby Syrup."

A titled lady of Wurtemberg has dropped her title in order to marry a practicing physician, but we are afraid the practicing physician will never hear the news.

Most everything in this world is full of deception. Few things are what they seem, but that obtained from Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic far exceeds all other tonics, restores lost nerve force, cures dyspepsia, and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder troubles. It is a perfect tonic, appetizer, blood purifier, a sure cure for acute and malarial diseases. Price 50 cents, of Eberbach & Son, Ann Arbor, and Geo. J. Haenssler, Manchester.

"Mother, what is an angel?" "Well, angel is a child that lies." "But, mother, why does papa call the governess an angel?"

People ask what is good for a cough or a cold, the mistake many make is in letting it run too long. Dr. Bigelow's Cough Cure, contains the good qualities of all the best cough remedies without the defects of any of them. A safe and speedy remedy for coughs, colds and all throat and lung troubles. Sold by Eberbach & Son, Ann Arbor, Geo. J. Haenssler, Manchester, in 50 cent and $1 bottles. Healing to the lungs. Safe and pleasant for children.

"Buy where you can buy the cheapest," is good enough advice; but we notice that many of our everybody buys where he can get treated.

The best on earth can truly be said of Griggs' Glycerine Salve, which is a sure, safe and speedy cure for cuts, bruises, scalds, dirts, wounds and all other sores. Will positively cure piles, hemorrhoids, and all skin eruptions. Try this wonder healer. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Only 25 cents. Sold by Eberbach & Son, Ann Arbor, Geo. J.
