"A story?" she said, glancing up at him through her long lashes. "A fair story, if you like. His voice had grown very low, and it was with evident difficulty that he..."

"Go on, Signor," she said, softly. "Years ago, there lived a beautiful princess, so transcendently lovely, so brilliant, so talented that suitors came from far and near to attempt to win her favor..."

Her fingers wandered over the keys, the beautiful head bent a little so that he could not see her face. "The young man—" "I recognize," she said slowly, "but the princess?" "Is yourself!" he cried, losing all control...

"Signor Cavaradosi!" she said softly. "As if moved by a steel spring, the young man turned and faced her. She raised her eyes and followed him with a glance as he moved toward the door..."

"What do you wish me to say?" she said, "I am very sorry." And she turned away, her hands plucking the jasmine leaves behind her. "I wish to have been a priest, did you know that? The old cure of Saint Luke's was very fond of me and taught me Latin. He wished to fit me for a place some day. He is still alive..."

"What is it in mine; neither in my heart nor in my brain?" Never! "Marta shivered, as if a cold wind had suddenly struck her. "What do you wish me to say?" she said, "I am very sorry." And she turned away, her hands plucking the jasmine leaves behind her...

"If I loved, I would bravely look the master full in the face. I should know that I am not in my brain, never!" "Marta shivered, as if a cold wind had suddenly struck her. CHAPTER VI.

"How charming you are this afternoon. You look like one of the blonde heroines of the Norse legends." "How absurd you are, Signor Roswein!" he cried, huskily. "For God's sake do not play with my reason!" "And if I had been disinclined, as would have been probable, for rarely is there such a love on both sides, I would find, yes, I would find a strange pleasure in the very excess of my humiliation..."

"And my father, Karl?" she said gently. "Poor old man," he answered, with a sigh. "At least don't let him think me ungrateful, Marta. Tell him all. Tell him the truth, the most beautiful truth of women of her time was speaking to me of you."

Roswein steeled himself against the fate of the seat. "Tell him," he said, "tell him that I loved you and that you did not love me." Marta was silent for a moment. Then in a low, scarcely audible voice, she said: "I do not love you. No! I could not love you. Other sentiments would separate me from you forever."

"Other sentiments? Ah! that is the last blow. I hoped that you loved only heaven!" "I could not love you, Karl," she continued, not noticing the interruption, "and it is best, believe me, best for both of us, for you above all. The life which will be your portion must have no chains. Your future must not be spoiled by the petty details of your youth. I would never forgive myself if I should bind your beautiful life to the hearth and household cares."

Finland has demonstrated that spirits are not necessary in cold countries, having become practically a total abstinence country. This change has been effected under local option and woman suffrage.

Mission work in New Mexico commenced in 1866. There are now 25 schools, more than 40 ministers and native helpers, and over 800 communicants. There are about 30 missionary teachers on the field.

The city of Texasarkana voted the abolition, and immediately the Cotton Belt railway moved its machine shops from Pine Bluff to Texasarkana. The company prefers to have its shops where there is no whiskey sold.

PÉCULIAIR Double Fatality.

A very strange double fatality occurred at the World building at Cleveland. Three men were on a ladder placing a sign at the top of the fifth story. The rope slipped and the ladder turned over.

Alois Zechmeister fell, and in his descent struck John Wickson, who was passing breaking Wickson's back and both legs. He cannot live. Zechmeister was instantly killed.

The other two men on the ladder escaped by a miracle. Lawrence Craenbergh's feet caught in the rope, and he hung suspended over the pavement, head downward, until rescued.

The other man grabbed the cornice at the top of the building and worked his way around to a fire escape.

London: A dispatch from Shanghai says that Li Hung Chang had an audience with the emperor and as a consequence will remain in Pekin as imperial chancellor. Wang-Wen-Shoo has been nominated as viceroy of the province of Chi-Li, which office Li Hung Chang formerly held.

A milkman at Wisshickon, Pa., makes his rounds among his customers on a bicycle. The milk-cans are suspended from hooks attached to the machine.

A French professor has demonstrated that a rabbit can bear intense cold. He inclosed one in a block of ice, and the next morning the rabbit, when released, was as lively and cheerful as if it had passed the night beside a grate fire.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

The publisher of a "long felt want" should not expect to secure advertisements before readers.

Advertisements are like men in that those who accomplish the most frequently have the most faults.

An advertiser who confines his advertising to one medium cannot reach everybody in an entire state or section.

One little "ad." which is seldom inserted by any one of the weaker sex reads: "Come back and all will be forgiven."

The business manager of Thrift wishes that his advertisers would "check" their "ads." in advance instead of "licking" them.

Some newspapers seem to be of the opinion that it is better for a merchant to have advertised and lost than to have never advertised at all.

The persons who take greatest pleasure in reading the advertisements of some articles are the manufacturers of or dealers in rival brands.

According to the Union Printer some of the New York dailies have, as a result of an increase in their advertising patronage.

With the general introduction of type-setting machines, the time will soon come when the only printer's error will consist in being a printer.

TERMS: $1.00 per Year in Advance. To Subscribers out of the County, 15 cents extra, to pay postage.

Entered at the Ann Arbor postoffice as second-class mail matter. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18, 1895. OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

Sheep raisers are rejoicing over the fact that they now receive one half greater prices for their clips than they did last year. This is a pretty good argument in favor of the same Democratic tariff which our Republican friends would have us believe is such a drawback to successful wool growing.

Some of the anti-women suffragists of New York state have issued an address to the electors of that state, urging the voters to take pains to secure the "nomination and election to the legislature, of men known to be opposed to the imposition upon women of the unwelcome and unsuitable responsibility of the ballot." It is the opinion of THE DEMOCRAT that these women had better give all of their attention to the management of their respective homes, which they seem to think the chief aim of woman's existence. What business have these women, to try to interfere with the rights of an American citizen?

The appointment of Mrs. Mary W. Loomis, of Cherokee, Ia., as assistant librarian of the university, to succeed Mr. Anderson H. Hopkins, resigned, should meet with general commendation. Mrs. Loomis is thoroughly conversant with the duties of the position, and will doubtless prove an efficient librarian. This appointment is of unusual interest, because of the policy of the university which has heretofore employed but one or two women in any positions on the faculties or working force. The women of Michigan should see to it that when a lady is well qualified for a position in the university that she has as good a chance of securing it as would a man.

THE DAIRY AND FOOD LAW. The new dairy and food law, which has just gone into operation, concerns many other dealers than grocers and milkmen. One of the most effective benefits which the law will accomplish, will be the stringent prohibition of liquor dealers selling impure drinks. The law requires that "all packages which contain liquid refreshments shall be labeled pure and without drugs or poison." The alternative punishments of $50 fine or six months' imprisonment will cause all who are guilty of defrauding the consumers of their goods, to mend their ways.

The Anti Tramp Society. This is an extract from Rev. J. W. Bradshaw's address before the Anti-Tramp society, last Friday evening:—"First of all, the tramp will not work. He is not in search of work, but instead is determined to live without work, upon the unwise charity of the sympathetic. The wandering beggar who is at all willing to work becomes an outcast from society. The tramp is given an offensive title and is despised and derided by the genuine vagrant.

The purpose of the Anti-Tramp Society is to diminish the evils of vagrancy in this city. First, by providing a test whereby it may be determined whether a beggar is a man worthy of employment or a tramp. Second, by furnishing to all who are willing to avail themselves of it, opportunity to earn meals and lodgings by a moderate amount of work. During the year past both purposes have been accomplished in an encouraging degree by means of a wood-pile. A large number of genuine tramps have been moved to seek a more congenial climate by being brought face-to-face with a saw-horse. Early in the year quite a number of such men made application for assistance, to Mr. Siple, our superintendent, and on being offered opportunity to earn meals or lodgings, took a speedy departure. As the time has gone on the number of applications by men of this class has largely decreased.

It is also believed that the operation of the society has had influence greatly to diminish the number of such vagrants infesting the city." School Board. Trustees Gruner and Jacobs were the only absentees at the school board meeting Tuesday evening. Bills were allowed to the amount of $4,500. The finance committee reported that Mr. Gruner's treasurer's books were correct for the year. The resignation of Trustee Gruner was offered but laid on the table. Mr. Osborne was engaged for full time teaching until January 1, 1896. Miss Ella Bennett was employed for four hours per day. The request of the Ladies' Library association, for the use of high school hall for an entertainment, was granted. Miss May O'Hearn was appointed as ward school teacher at $300 per year.

Why Not You? When thousands of people are taking Hood's Sarsaparilla to overcome the weakness and languor which are so common at this season, why are you not doing the same? When you know that Hood's Sarsaparilla has power to cure rheumatism, dyspepsia and all diseases caused by impure blood, why do you continue to suffer? Hood's cures others, why not you? Hood's Pills are prompt and efficient. Druggists say that their sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla exceed those of all others. There is no substitute for Hood's.

OUR MAN ABOUT TOWN.

He Sees About Everything and Talks About Everything He Sees. Our Man has been interested in the action of a horse owned by Zeus Sweet. Last Thursday night the horse was taken sick with the colic and Mr. Sweet untied him and led him from the barn. To the wonder of everyone the animal ran from the yard and made a bee line for Dr. J. A. Dell's veterinary barn. He had been taken to Dr. Dell's barn sometime before for treatment, and his instinct led him there on this occasion.

Our Man is glad to see that the University regents have posted signs prohibiting driving on the campus grounds without a permit from the secretary. Hitherto the roads leading into the beautiful grounds have proved very tempting to strangers and they have driven in to find themselves arriving at the boiler house, with no further place to drive than to go back as they came, unless they trespassed on the lawns. Strangers could hardly be blamed for driving in the grounds, when there were no signs to prohibit them. The new signs are a good thing to prevent these mistakes, and also the willful, driving on campus lawns and even the tar walks, by reckless students. Our Man is informed that this rowdiness has often been perpetrated especially after dark, and has given the watchman considerable trouble.

Ann Arbor should be congratulated that several new streets have been and will be opened this year. The new streets which Mr. Walter H. Nichols has decided to the city and opened and graded at his own expense, near the junction of Geddes ave. and Oxford st., and the extension of Catherine st. from Division st. to State st., are notable examples of the latest street improvements. The property which will front on the extension of Catherine st. will rise in value remarkably because of the central position and desirable neighborhood in which the new lots are. The property on those new streets which have been cut through the White property on Hill st., is $6,000, to be now assessed at $100,000. The city is a great gainer by these improvements, and they will do much to make individual taxes easier to pay.

FOR THE BOYS. By Mrs. M. B. Platt. Last year they stood in my yard a valuable young tree. It was straight, thrifty, full of beautiful green leaves, and every one delighted to look at it. It bade fair to become a strong, useful tree. This year the same tree is at the same place, but it looks not at all as it once did. It is bare, brown, withered, and seems ready to die. My friends look at it and say, "What a pity! What ails it?" I reply, "An enemy has been at work about its roots, and it is dying."

Our Man has recently protested against the dumping of rubbish in our streets, and now he wishes to speak of a nuisance which is not so troublesome to all of our citizens, but is even harder to bear to those who are forced to endure it. He refers to the way in which some of our business men keep the yards in the rear of their stores. There are a number of people who live in rooms, bordering the yards. These folks are often forced to stand the sight of old boxes, old papers broken signs and boards, old gas pipes etc., etc., in short, all manner of rubbish which has been carelessly thrown out there. Some of the storekeepers even go farther than this, and empty pails of dirty water right beneath the windows of their buildings. Our Man would suppose that these men would see that it is their interest to keep tidy yards and thus attract tenants to their buildings. But even without this consideration, the danger is so great in the more thickly settled portions of our city, that our Man thinks those boards, boxes and papers are a very dangerous thing as long as they stay where they are. We have our fire limits, in which no frame building can be built, and this ordinance is an excellent one. But so long as that rubbish is piled against our buildings, the ordinance is but partially effective. A number of fires have started from this very cause and it is high time that something is done about the matter.

I. O. O. F. 200 Drill Here—Seven Cantons—Reception Tuesday Evening. Two hundred Patriarchs Militant, I. O. O. F. assembled in Ann Arbor last Tuesday and Wednesday. Seven cantons were represented from over the state. The city was prepared to welcome its guests, and the business houses and many private residences were gallily decorated with flags and bunting. I. O. O. F. emblems were prominently displayed in the decorations. As the various cantons arrived at the depots they were met by Canton Ann Arbor, commanded by Capt. John Feiner and were conducted to the Macabee hall in the Post Office building. Here Mayor Walker delivered a few words of welcome, and the hungry patriarchs then adjourned to the dinner tables.

Tuesday afternoon the cantons were carried by street cars to the fair grounds. Competitive drills and sword contests were held here, resulting in the Flint canton winning more prizes than any other. The treasurer's report showed a balance on hand of $1,250.92. The next encampment will be held in Allegan in October, 1896. A reception was held in the evening at Light Infantry armory. The Detroit Newboys' band rendered very enjoyable music on this occasion. Wednesday afternoon a parade was held and the various prizes were distributed.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

White Ribbon Echoes. Edited by W. C. T. U. Press Supt. Dr. Mary Wood-Allen and Mrs. Jennie Voorheis will attend the National W. C. T. U. convention. Oct. 13 will be Anti-Saloon Sunday in Cleveland, Ohio. Chicago temperance societies expect to hold a monster celebration on Oct. 10, Father Mathew's birthday.

The authorities at Atlanta have refused to grant the saloon-keepers the privilege of keeping their saloons open after ten o'clock at night. "If it were not for drunkenness there would be no crime in Ireland at all. As it is there is no crime which does not arise out of that evil," says Archbishop Cooke of that country. Miss Willard reports that teetotalism is very much in vogue in England. In her cycling tours she frequently noticed hotels labeled with signs which read "Milk for bicyclists on Sunday."

The success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in conquering scrofula in whatever way it may manifest itself is vouched for by thousands who were severely afflicted by this prevalent disease, but who now rejoice over a permanent cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Scrofula may appear as a humor, or it may attack the glands of the neck, or break out in dreadful running sores on the body or limbs. Attacking the mucous membrane, it may develop into catarrh or lodging in the lungs lead to consumption. Come as it may, a faithful course of treatment with Hood's Sarsaparilla will overcome it, for working upon the foundation of all diseases, impure blood, the system is clarified and vitalized, and vigor, strength and health restored to the body.

Humane Agent M. C. Peterson inspected the university laboratories Tuesday afternoon, to see whether cruelty was done to any animals used there for scientific purposes. A number of complaints had come to him from people all over the state, who imagined that the animals suffered untold tortures. Mr. Peterson made a thorough inspection of all the laboratories and found nothing at all out of the way. Whenever animals were used they were kept absolutely free from pain by various injections. They are used in experiments which must be made on some living creature and it is far better that cats, dogs, worms and frogs be used for this purpose than human beings. The animals experience no pain, and the people who are imagining the contrary can now set their minds at rest.

Gilbert Opera Company.

The Gilbert Opera Company presented "La Mascotte" at the opera house last Thursday evening. It is not extirpated praise to say that this entertainment was never surpassed by any company which has visited our town. The costumes are superb; the humor refined, keeping the audience in a continual roar; the local hits new and effective; the singing, both solos and choruses, full of harmony. An honest, clean show from beginning to end. We are more than pleased to announce that Manager McCall has secured this company for four nights during the fair. Adopted.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor:

Gentlemen:—The contract in force between the City of Ann Arbor and the Ann Arbor Water Company provides that the Water Company shall furnish water for flushing sewers for One Hundred Dollars per annum. At the time said contract was executed there was no such thing as an automatic flush tank like or similar to those now being constructed in connection with the sewer system in this city. At that time a sewer was flushed by the injection of a stream of water from a fire hydrant, and that was the method in contemplation of the parties when the contract was made.

There will be, as I am informed, some two hundred flush tanks in the sewer system now being and to be constructed. These tanks each hold 250 gallons of water and may be regulated so as to discharge every twenty minutes. I understand that the intention is to regulate the flow of water so that a discharge will be made every forty-eight hours. At this rate it will cost the Water Company $3.64 per year per tank to pump the water along, saying nothing about the wearing of the machinery. I do not feel that the contract contemplated any such use of water as will now be demanded for the compensation specified, and I would respectfully request your Honorable Body to refer the matter to proper committee for conference with myself, and to receive a proposal from me looking to an adjustment of the same.

Very respectfully,

A. K. Hale, Receiver of the Ann Arbor Water Company.

Referred to the Water Committee, Ann Arbor, Michigan, September 7th, 1895.

The Michigan Electric Company by its President, Joseph E. Lockwood, hereby accepts the Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance relative to Electric light and lighting and to prescribe the rights of the Company and to refer the contract for lighting of the streets, alleys and public places of the City of Ann Arbor," passed in Common Council September 16th, 1895, and approved by the Mayor of the City of Ann Arbor this day.

Jos. E. Lockwood, President of the Michigan Electric Company.

Received and placed on file.

The City Clerk presented to the Council the summons served upon him in the case of Herman Hutzel vs. The City of Ann Arbor, which was received and placed on file.

A petition signed by E. L. Schneider asking for the grading of a sidewalk on 3rd street was read and referred to the sidewalk committee.

A petition signed by Stephen Pratt asking for permission to construct a private sewer in the alley in the rear of his building was read and referred to the sewer committee.

A petition signed by Rev. Fr. E. D. Kelly and ten others asking for the removal of an electric light on Elizabeth street between Kingsley and Fuller was read and referred to the lighting committee.

A petition signed by B. M. Thompson and 52 others asking for the grading of the walk on the south side of Felch Park was read and referred to the sidewalk committee.

A petition signed by John Elting and 8 others asking for the grading of S. 7th street so that the same will be capable of carrying the surface water was heard and referred to the Street Committee.

To the Honorable Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor:

Gentlemen:—We the undersigned, freeholders of the City of Ann Arbor, respectfully ask your honorable body to open lay out and establish a street of suitable width, from the point of Catherine street ends at Division street to the point where Catherine street begins on State street.

The same to be a continuation of Catherine street from Division street to State street in the City of Ann Arbor.

We deem it a necessity and a public improvement. The cost of this street can work no hardship on any one.

The cost of such improvement will be but little as compared to the benefits to be derived.

Your petitioners therefore pray that said street be laid out, opened and established.

J. N. Martin, Moses Seabolt, Geo. Vandawarker, S. D. Breed, E. T. Stinson, Henry Cornell, Geo. H. Lawrence, Geo. M. Pond, Geo. M. Clarken, Ambrose Kearney.

The City Clerk was here instructed to serve notice upon all persons interested to appear before this Council at the next regular session held in the Council Chamber on October 21st, at 7:30 o'clock P. M. local time as provided for in section 127 of the charter of the City of Ann Arbor.
