Chronicle: Twelve of the circuit court judges elected in this state on the 4th of April are graduates of this institution, as is one of the regents elected on the same day. This makes the board half alumni. Seven alumni were defeated in the contest for circuit judge and one for judge of the supreme court. Who can say that the University is not booming.

The Engineering Society elected the following officers last Friday evening: A. E. Whittaker, '88, president; F. M. Crocker, '89, vice-president; W. A. Livingston, '88, corresponding secretary and treasurer; and P. A. Richardson, '88, librarian. The committee on programmes consists of the vice-president, R. Khuen, '88, C. H. Webster, '89, and B. L. Green, '90.

The St. Louis Republican, in speaking of the coming semi-centennial anniversary of the University, says: "No other college has had more influence in methods of higher education in this country. It is peculiarly a western institution, founded on a western plan. Its faculty has furnished Cornell with two presidents, and as a forerunner and parent of that great and flourishing seat of learning, the University of Michigan may fairly be said to have carried its methods into the east. It is growing venerable and still flourishing, in spite of the fact that the nearest water available for boating purposes is 10 miles away."

High School Notes.

The students working in the laboratory, started their work on light, Monday.

There will be an examination given in U. S. history next Wednesday afternoon.

Essays are due as follows: First year, May 23; second year, May 30; third year, June 6; fourth year, June 13.

The history teacher, after urging the students to be present and especially on time, at the examination last Friday, did not put in an appearance himself.

Prof. Nichols is trying to arrange for about three or four classes a week in writing. If this could be done it would add very much to the appearance of the work on the boards in the different rooms.

The base ball team will go to Detroit on the 15th instead of the 21st, as the Detroit boys have changed their field-day. The treasurer has thus far succeeded in raising twelve dollars, for the purpose of sending the team away. Very good, per se.

The Kirmess.

On Thursday and Friday evenings of last week, was given the much talked of Kirmess, an event that has given the ladies of the library association and the persons in immediate charge of it so much thought, and cost the participants so much time and labor. The performance justified all the care and expense lavished upon it, and gave to the three crowded houses which witnessed it, one of the most novel and beautiful entertainments ever presented upon an Ann Arbor stage. The audience at each performance was very enthusiastic and on Friday evening every dance received a warm recall. The opinion was almost unanimous that the Tarrantella and Swiss dances were the most beautiful of all, the former in its grace and constant life, the latter in its novelty and the perfection of the dancers. The Gypsy dance was also a vivacious and pretty one, though in fact, the entire programme was composed of bright and pleasing things, and made up a presentation of the Kirmess seldom equalled in this country since the rage for these unique performances commenced. The Irish reel was the taking event of the performance and justified the double recall it received each evening. The tableau at the close was a beautiful grouping of the different nationalities and was well worth the long and unavoidable delay. The performances of the last two evenings were notably in advance of that of the first, not only because the dancers felt more at home, but also because the orchestra was more familiar with the music. Several unfortunate mistakes in playing the Swiss and Spanish music on Thursday evening were not noticed to the audience but were only saved from bringing utter confusion on the stage by the ingenuity and presence of mind of the dancers. The performance of Saturday night was a benefit for Prof. de Pont in recognition of his long and tireless labors for the Kirmess. On Friday evening a Kirmess hop was given at the gymnasium by the library association in honor of the participants in the Kirmess. The dancers were all dressed in their national costumes and the scene was one of the brightest imaginable. The committees were composed as follows: General chairman, Mrs. Philip Bach; general committee, Mrs. Prescott, Mrs. Wheeler, and Mrs. de Pont; reception committee, Mrs. Palmer, Mrs. Rathbone, Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Knowlton, Miss Jewett, Miss Clara Wheeler, Miss A. Fourth Ward School Again.

To the Editor:

In behalf of the good name of our city and of our public schools, and in the interest of justice to an injured teacher, allow me space to notice an article in THE REGISTER, of last week, headed "fourth ward school brutality."

To say that the article was a cruel attack upon a respected woman and teacher, is to characterize it in very mild terms.

Miss Sabin was charged with a difficult duty from the first in the management of her room. She refrained from corporal punishment for a whole half year, often under very trying circumstances, and only resorted to it when every other resource had been exhausted, and when the welfare of the room demanded action.

The boy in question was punished for his impudence, and it was not his first offense of the kind. The incidental fact of the whipping left a mark on the boy's leg, which was protected only by a thin stocking, was the only excuse for the article's tirade against the teacher. After a careful inquiry into the case, I cannot conclude that the punishment was unreasonable, or harshly administered, especially as it was stopped at the moment of the boy's promise not to repeat his offense.

In justice to Miss Sabin it ought to be said that this is the first complaint made against her management by any patron of the school, while many have commended her. It can also be said with all confidence that every material statement of the article last week is untrue, except the bare fact that the boy was punished.

I feel sure, Mr. Editor, that had you asked for the facts in the case of the superintendent, or of members of the board, or of the teacher, you would not have admitted the offensive article to your paper which gives so frequent evidence of a determination to keep its columns clean.

Chelsea, Mich.

Woman Suffrage.

Mr. Editor: Please allow me, also, through the columns of your paper to express an opinion concerning Capt. Manly's speech on the question of woman suffrage as reported in your issue of two weeks ago. To reassure that gentleman, however, let me say in the beginning, that as I have never been a taxpayer I have never been personally very anxious for the right of suffrage—except on the question of temperance—and my name did not appear on the petition of which he spoke. Also that I do know what a home is. These statements of course must satisfy him that I am a "lady" instead of a "woman" and so entitled to respectful consideration.

His assertion that "the women who wish to vote are not wives or mothers" puzzled me greatly. Now it seems to me that either Capt. Manly's stock of information on this subject must be very limited or that his mind was so entirely engrossed with his famous "Text Book" bill that he did not realize what he was saying when he made that statement; for who does not know that many of the noblest and best women of our land, both wives and mothers, ask for the right of suffrage and ask for it simply as a matter of right and justice, and such it is if there is any such thing as justice under the sun.

Why, in the name of all that is reasonable and just, should our educated and cultured women, born and reared in this country and familiar with our laws and institutions, be denied the ballot, while tens of thousands of ignorant foreigners knowing little or nothing of our language and unacquainted with our institutions or the policy of our government, after a residence of a few months among us, are deemed "legally qualified voters," and allowed to go to the polls and deposit a ballot which multitudes of them cannot even read. What sort of justice is that? Many of our women are, and have been for years, tax payers, while many men who vote have no property at all upon which they pay taxes. What is to be said of the right of such a law? Doesn't Capt. Manly know that "No taxation without representation" is one of the fundamental principles upon which this government is based? Let him reverse this and make it read "No representation with taxation" and see what it would lead to.

I imagine there would be less votes cast by loafers and hangers-on of saloons who now have a voice in disposing of other people's money while they have none of their own to be taxed. But it's a poor rule that won't work both ways, Capt. Manly, it seems to me.

In my opinion no man or woman either should be allowed to vote who cannot read and write our language and who doesn't know what they are voting for except as some one else tells them. Such ignorance in a large class of our voters leads to great corruption in politics and is a source of many evils, which call loudly for reformation at the hands of our legislators, but which will call in vain if all are of the same mind as Capt. Manly. One more point in his speech. He says: "We do not want our wives out all night nominating some man for office." If that were a probable thing, which it is not, still it strikes me it might be quite as agreeable for the husbands to have their wives out all night nominating some man, as for the wives to be left alone with the care of their families while the husbands were out all night on such business; or as is too often the case in many sad homes where the husbands who should protect and cherish their families are out all night spending their money in some of the saloons which are licensed by the law to ruin men and to destroy the peace of homes.

Such reasoning against giving women the ballot is too superficial and nonsensical to convince any one and will only drive to the opposite extreme of belief those who would otherwise be inclined to see the fallacy and foolishness of such talk on the subject.

We advise Capt. Manly in the future to refrain from such utterances, as they will do him little credit and will only set sensible and reasonable people to thinking; which in time might lead to the very results which he thinks would be of such a deplorable and disastrous nature.

THURSDAY, MAY 5, 1887.

Common Council Proceedings.

A special meeting of the council was held last Thursday evening, with a full board present.

The Mayor announced that the special business of the meeting was to take some action on the matter of opening a street from Detroit to the new Michigan Central Railway station house. After a full report by the city attorney of what had been done, a contract between the M. C. R. R. Co. and Peter Carey, in reference to the purchase, was read as follows:

Memorandum of agreement between the Michigan Central Railroad Co. and Peter Carey.

Witnesseth: The said R. R. Co. shall move the street and house of the said Carey and place the same on the so called O'Neill lot, owned by the city of Ann Arbor, and put the same in as good shape as it now is, free of cost to said Carey; the new street running from the depot to Detroit street, now called the sidewalk level. The said R. R. Co. shall grade and gravel and put a stone sidewalk along the south side of new street, from the depot to Detroit street; and grade the site for the new building down to the sidewalk level. The said R. R. Co. shall slope the bank from this sidewalk into the O'Neill lot and sod the slope in good shape. The said R. R. Co. shall have title only to that part of the O'Neill property which the street proper would cut off. The end of the moved building shall front on Detroit street, four feet from the sidewalk, and the north side of the building to be on the top line of the grade, as possible. The basement of the new building shall have a ten-foot ceiling, with three rooms of such size as Carey may direct. The said Carey shall deed his said property to the said Company, or to the city of Ann Arbor, as the said city and company may agree. The said Carey is to have the title of all the so called O'Neill property except as above stated, which is needed as the new street, and which will give said Carey 44 feet front on Detroit street. The said R. R. Co. shall give the said Carey a right of way to his said new premises over its land, which was formerly a part of Page street, to Fuller street. This change shall be made with utmost dispatch so as to interrupt the business of said Carey as little as possible. In Witness whereof the said parties hereto have the 25th day of April, 1887, set their hands and seals.

E. D. KINNE, Mayor.
PETER X. CAREY, Mark.

The matter was then thoroughly discussed by the members of the council, and the following resolution passed.

Resolved, That we concur in the contract made between Peter Carey and the Michigan Central R. R. Co. on the 25th day of April, 1887, now presented to this council, and directed to deliver and retain title of all the O'Neill and Carey property not needed to said Carey, also that we will pay one half of the expense and cost not exceeding $500 of the removal of the old store and house of the said Peter Carey, as set forth in said contract, and be it further Resolved, That the Mayor and Recorder be and are hereby authorized and directed to deliver to the hands of the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of the City of Ann Arbor, a deed to said Peter Carey of so much of the so called O'Neill and Carey property as is named and contemplated in said contract, such deed to be delivered whenever the said Mayor and Recorder shall determine, basing our action as much upon the agreement of said R. R. Co. as upon the contract of said Peter Carey.

The bonds of 32 saloon keepers; of J. J. Goodyear and John Moore, druggists; of Constables Amsden, Schall, Imus, Leonard and Gidley; of City Recorder Pond, and City Marshal Spley were received and referred to a committee consisting of Ald. Lawrence, by permission of the council, addressed the body in reference to the arrest of Jax, Schiappacase under the Sunday resolution, and advised the body to reconsider the resolution passed at the last meeting, and direct the marshal to enforce the state law in reference to the closing of saloons on Sundays, a thing he was heartily in favor of.

Ald. Swift moved that the resolution in reference to the closing of places of business, on Sundays, be reconsidered. After considerable discussion the Recorder moved as a substitute that the matter be referred to a committee of three to report a resolution under which we may act as a council to secure the best enforcement of the Sunday laws. Which was carried, and the Mayor appointed the Recorder, Ald. Allmendinger and Kearns as such committee.

Remarks of Dr. A. B. Palmer.

The following extracts from the short address of Dr. Palmer, relative to the death of Alpheus Morley, the medical student, who died April 20th, convey sentiments worthy of universal adoption:

Your deceased friend I have only known as a member of the class who was diligent endeavoring to prepare himself for the work of a most responsible profession.

In my long experience with the sick I can scarcely recall a case of so severe an attack of the disease of the kind which has cut him down so soon.

In this event we must all be strongly impressed with the uncertainty of life. A young man in the early vigor of his manhood, of correct habits, is struck down as by a single blow, and removed from all his associations and prospects in life. The hopes of his friends are all dashed to the earth.

This certainly is a striking and most painful occasion. In this we can but feel there is a power above us to which we must submit. And then, too, we must realize the limitation and imperfection of our art. However thorough we may be in our preparation, however extensive in our experience, and however prompt and energetic in the appliance of our means, we must expect to meet with cases where all our resources will fail.

And the other lesson I shall think it my province to endeavor to impress is what you must all feel, how great will be the responsibilities you will assume when you take into your hands the health and lives of your fellow-men.

I must further call your attention to the greatness of your present responsibilities in preparing for the work you will have to do.

I refrain from indulgence in those other reflections which occasions of this kind so forcibly suggest. But we must all be reminded not only of the uncertainty of life but of the certainty of that great event which sooner or later must come to all; and whatever preparation we may deem important for that event should receive due attention.

In my judgment the best preparation for death is the most complete preparation for life and the faithful performance of all our duties to our fellow men and the source of our being.

To the friends who were called here on so very sad an errand, I can only express for myself and on behalf of all connected with this college as teachers and students our profound sympathy. Instead of coming off of the bridge at the mill-race on Felsh-st, last fall, reported in favor of allowing them $50. Carried.

Dean & Co. asked to have the culvert on First-st at junction of west Liberty-st straightened. Referred to street committee.

How many boys who whistle "Marching through Georgia," know the story of "Sherman's March to the Sea?" General Adam Badeau tells it in the May St. Nicholas, and it reads like a tale of adventure—which in fact it is—the biggest adventure in modern times. It is illustrated by Theodore Davis, who was with General Sherman on the march, and by E. W. Kemble, W. L. Sheppard, and W. Taber. There is also begun in this number a three-part story of life at the U. S. Military Academy at West Point, by a recent graduate. It is entitled "Winning a Commission," and shows how the future Shermons of our country are being turned out.

In another column of this issue will be found a special offer of the Christian Herald, Detroit,—from receipt of subscription to January, 1888, for One Dollar. Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof, that Green's August Flower, will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles, 10 cents. Try it.

Cause and effect. "How did it happen that the church was so crowded to day?" "well I'll tell you. You see the professor of theology preached, and on his account all the students came, on their account all the girls, on their account all the widows, and on theirs, all the widowers."

OUR WEALTHY MEN.

Much has been said in newspapers of men who have made large fortunes in comparatively a few years in various business industries. Many of these articles are written by correspondents of prominent newspapers, and copied into others of lesser note. Correspondents generally are seldom men of business qualifications, and wrongly picture these men and their business as a thing of accident; this is not the case with those we have met. We find that where men have made large fortunes by their own business talent and industry they chose with sagacity and forethought such businesses as would lead to success when handled with business judgment. No man has been brought before the public as an example of success, both in wealth and magnitude of his business (outside of stock and railroad men) more prominently than Dr. G. G. Green of Woodbury N. J.

He is at the head of many large business industries, and yet comparatively a young man. When the fact that August Flower, for dyspepsia and liver complaint and Boschee's German Syrup, for coughs and lung troubles, has grown to a wonderful sale in all parts of the world, it proves that it was not an accident or spontaneous strike at wealth. His medicines are recognized as valuable and established remedies and the business has grown gradually and permanently during the last eighteen years on account not alone of Dr. Green's abilities as a business man or on account of his "good luck," but on the actual merits of the two preparations.—Copied from the N. Y. Weekly Sun, of Dec. 22, 1886.

"Who made you?" asked the Sunday-school teacher, addressing the little boy from the slums of Boston. "I dunno," answered the boy, as he scratched the shin of his right leg with his left heel.

"Well God made you," said the teacher. "That so?" replied the boy. Then he added: "I guess I kinder heard of that before, but I'm like my old man; I never was good at remembering names."

"November, 1880," wrote Jos. P. Murphy Springfield, Tenn. "My wife suffered eighteen months with neuralgia and paralysis. By use of St. Jacobs Oil, she could walk." October 7th, 1886, he writes: "My wife recovered entirely." Price fifty cents.

She was the wife of a bank cashier, enjoying herself at Niagara. Sitting on the piazza with a friend, she remarked that her husband could not come very well because he was "tied to his business." "An excellent precaution," said her friend, "With Canada so near." And now they don't speak to each other.

Charles Tiel, Philadelphia, Pa., was in a hopeless condition from throat trouble and asthma. Red Star Cough Cure cured him. Price twenty-five cents. At Druggists.

Senator Eustis speaks and reads Free: like a native, and is fond of yellow-covered novels.

A. C. White, Agent, D. & T. R. R., Zenia, Ohio, writes: "Red Star Cough Cure is a most efficient remedy for bronchitis; the first dose relieved me." Price twenty-five cents.

"What do you mean, sir, by saying that I made a fool of myself in my speech last night?" "Who said I said so?" "Biggs says so, he heard you." "Well, then, Biggs is mistaken. I did not say you made a fool of yourself. I merely remarked that you stultified yourself." "Oh, that is another thing. Quite a compliment, I'm sure. Obligated to you for your good opinion."

Let Me show You what a saving I have made during the last year by being my own doctor. Last year I paid out $45.25 for doctors and their medicine. This year I paid $5.00 for six bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and they have kept health in my whole family. They are the best and purest medicine ever made.—Charles King, 6 Temple-st, Boston, Mass.

"There's something inexplicable about the mental make-up of a woman," replied Fogg to a female acquaintance. "There's that Mrs. Smith, for example. She's utterly unable to handle a horse, and yet she drives her husband around as though he were a baby." "Ah, but you forget," replied the lady; "the horse, you know, is a very intelligent animal."

Old and reliable Medicines are the best to depend upon. Acker's Blood Elixir has been prescribed for years for all impurities of the Blood. In every form of Scrophulous, Syphilitic or Mercurial diseases, it is invaluable. For Rheumatism, has no equal. Jons Moore, Druggist.

An amusing story about Mr. H. C. Richards and Mr. Herbert Gladstone is going the rounds. "Depend upon it, ladies and gentlemen," said Mr. Richards, at the close of a speech at Southend the other night, "we should never have heard of Mr. Herbert Gladstone if it had not been for his father." And it is actually said that Mr. Richards was unable for some moments to understand why the audience roared.

SETTLERS' RIGHTS.
WASHINGTON, April 29.—President Cleveland has written a letter to the Secretary of the Interior respecting the controversy between the Gulf and Northern Pacific railroad about the ownership of some land lying within the indemnity limits of that road. This case has been pending
for some years before the department,
and when settled will probably furnish a precedent for the settlement of many others. Miller claims to be a settler upon the land in question, his possession dating from 1878. The President, in reviewing the case, says Miller claims to have made substantial improvements upon and cultivated the land, which the railroad company claims to be
the area from which it is entitled to select such public lands as may be necessary to supply any deficiency that should be found
to exist in the land mentioned in the grant
made to aid in constructing the road. The company also claims that this particular piece of land has thus been selected. The President proceeds:

"The legal points in this controversy turned upon the validity and effect of the withdrawal and reservation of this land and the continuance thereof. The Attorney General is of opinion that such withdrawal and reservation were
at all times effectual and that they operated to prevent Miller from acquiring any interest in or right to the land claimed by him. With this interpretation of the law, and the former order and action of the Interior Department, it will be seen that their effect has been the withdrawal and reservation since 1873 of thousands, if not millions, of acres of these lands from the operation of the land laws of the United States, thus placing them beyond
the reach of our citizens desiring, under such laws, to settle and make homes upon the same, and that this has been done for the benefit of a railroad company having no fixed, certain or definite interests in such lands. In this manner the beneficial policy and intention of the Government in relation to the public domain have
for all these years to that extent been thwarted.
There seems to be no evidence presented showing how much, if any, of this vast tract is necessary for the fulfillment of the grant to the railroad company, nor does there appear to be any limitation of the time within which this
fact should be made known and the corporation is obliged to make its selection. After a lapse of fifteen years this large body of the public domain is still held in reserve, to the exclusion of settlers, for the convenience of a corporate beneficiary of the Government and awaiting its selection, though it is entirely certain that much of the reserved land can never be successfully claimed by said corporation."
"Such a condition of the public lands should no longer continue. So far as it is the result of executive rules and methods these should be abandoned, and so far as it is a consequence of improvident laws these should be repealed or amended."
"Our public domain is our National wealth, the earnest of our growth and the heritage of our people. It should promise limitless development and riches, relief to a crowding population and homes to thrift and industry.
These inestimable advantages should be jealously guarded and a careful and enlightened policy on the part of the Government should secure them to the people."
"In the case under consideration I assume that there is an abundance of land within the area which has been reserved for indemnity, in which no citizen or settler has a legal or equitable interest, for all purposes of such indennification to this railroad company if its grant has not already been satisfied. I understand, too, that selections made by such corporations are
not complete and effectual until the same have been approved by the Secretary of the Interior,
or unless they are made in the words of the statute, under his direction."
"You have thus far taken no action in this matter, and it seems to me that you are in a condition to deal with the subject in such a manner as to protect this settler from hardship and loss. I suggest that you exercise the power and authority you have in the premises, upon equitable consideration with every presumption and intent in favor of the settler, and in case you find this corporation is entitled to select any more of these lands than it has already acquired of that you direct it to select in lieu of the land upon which Mr. Miller has settled other land within the limits of this indemnity reservation upon which neither he nor any other citizen has in good faith settled or made improvements. The suggestions herein contained can, I believe, be adopted without disregarding or calling in question the opinion of the Attorney General upon the purely legal propositions which were submitted to him. Yours very truly,
"GROVER CLEVELAND."

DENVER, Col., April 31.—A resolution, censuring President Cleveland's action in ordering troops to Dakota to evict the settlers on the Crow and Winnebago agencies has been adopted by Local Assembly 3,217, Knights of Labor.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—An attempt will
be made to persuade the President to interfere with the operation of the law in behalf of settlers on the Crow Creek and Winnebago Indian reservations as he did with the Gulf and Northern Pacific. It is claimed that there are settlers on the Crow Creek and Winnebago reservations whose eviction will work a greater hardship than that threatened in the Miller case. Miller made his settlement with a knowledge of
the possible technical claim of the railroad company to a prior right of selection in respect to his land, and in the face of a withdrawal of the land by the Government. The settlers in good faith upon the Crow Creek and Winnebago reservations entered at the invitation of the Government, in pursuance of a formal order throwing open the reservations to settlement.

aries.

SETTLERS' RIGHTS.
land has written a letter to the Secretary
of the Interior respecting the controversy
between the Gulf and Northern
of that road. This case has been pending
for some years before the department,
and when settled will probably fur-
possession dating from 1878. The President, in reviewing the case, says
Miller claims to have made substantial improvements upon and cultivated the land,
to exist in the land mentioned in the grant
piece of land has thus been selected. The President proceeds:

upon the validity and effect of the with-
inion that such withdrawal and reservation were
or right to the land claimed by him. With this interpretation of the law, and the former
order and action of the Interior Department, it will be seen that their effect has been
the withdrawal and reservation since 1873 of
lands from the operation of the land laws of
laws, to settle and make homes upon the same,
definite interests in such lands. In this manner
the beneficial policy and intention of the Gov-
for all these years to that extent been thwarted.
There seems to be no evidence presented
necessary for the fulfillment of the grant to
fact should be made known and the corporation is
settlers, for the convenience of a corporate ben-
selection, though it is entirely certain that
"Such a condition of the public lands should
abandoned, and so far as it is a consequence of
amended."
"Our public domain is our National wealth,
the earnest of our growth and the heritage of
our people. It should promise limitless de-
population and homes to thrift and industry.
These inestimable advantages should be jeal-
policy on the part of the Government should secure them to the people."
that there is an abundance of land within the
area which has been reserved for indemnity, in
nification to this railroad company if its grant has
not already been satisfied. I understand, too,
that selections made by such corporations are
not complete and effectual until the same have
been approved by the Secretary of the Interior,
or unless they are made in the words of the

ordering troops to Dakota to evict the settlers on the Crow and Winnebago agen-

WASHINGTON, May 3.—An attempt will
be made to persuade the President to in-
behalf of settlers on the Crow Creek and Winnebago Indian reservations as he did
with the Gulf and Northern Pacific. It is claimed
that there are settlers on the Crow
eviction will work a greater hardship than
made his settlement with a knowledge of
company to a prior right of selection in
respect to his land, and in the face
of a withdrawal of the land by the
faith upon the Crow Creek and Winnebago
reservations entered at the invitation of
order throwing open the reservations to
settlement.

We regret the publication in our last issue of the communication relative to the severe punishment of a scholar in the fourth ward school. We are satisfied that it was a matter that should have been brought to the attention of the school board before being brought to the public notice. However, we do not believe in severe punishment by school teachers.
Too much trouble arises from such methods. If the unruly child has parents, they are the ones to administer punishment when it must be severe. The school board or its teachers are not required to perform the duties pertaining to our reformatory institutions.

THE REGISTER is pleased to learn that the committee appointed by the business men's association to make arrangements for a descriptive pamphlet, showing the many advantages of this city in the way of business and as a residence city, is making fair progress, with the probability that a handsome pamphlet of about sixty-four pages, containing about thirty views of public buildings, and beautiful views of different localities in the city, will be issued in time for distribution at the semi-centennial celebration of the University. There is no city in Michigan of corresponding size, more beautiful, or with brighter prospects for the future. It is having a steady, healthy growth, and is destined to reach a population of twenty thousand in the next quarter of a century, and be a collection of beautiful houses, public buildings and business places, as famous for its numerous attractions as the grand old University towns of the East.

To the question of the Chicago Advance to various prominent men of Michigan, "What Now?" President Angell's reply was as follows: You ask for a brief statement of my opinion as to "what now?" after the recent campaign on the prohibition amendment to our constitution.
Assuming, as now seems probable, that the amendment is defeated by a small majority, and remembering two facts made clear by the vote: 1. That the principal cities and the upper peninsula are very strongly opposed to prohibition; and 2.
That the smaller cities, with here and there an exception, and the rural districts of the lower peninsula are clearly in favor of prohibition. It seems to me the legislature should be urged if they need urging: 1. To establish local option by counties or towns; and 2. To increase the tax on selling both malt and spirituous liquors. If practicable to carry the measure I should favor a general prohibitory law, and require a vote of a town or county to suspend it, if selling is to be allowed in the town or county.

The question of the enforcement of the ordinance in regard to the observance of the first day of the week will go before the council next Monday evening, or at its next meeting. The principal cause of the discussion at this time is the arrest of a fruit-dealer for violating the Sunday ordinance by repeatedly keeping open his place of business. It is to be hoped that the council will act with good judgment and discretion in this matter and not let any influence prevent them from the conscientious discharge of their duty. There is no need of any exhibition of spite or malice, or of permitting those "who may not like the ordinance, of acting a "dog-in-the-manger" policy in the matter. It would be well for the council to remember that we are living in America and not in some foreign country, and that we want an American Sunday with its inviting peace and rest from the labors of the week, affording to all classes and creeds the inestimable right of worshipping the author of the Sabbath and their Creator, or spending the day in any manner they may please, if it does not interfere with the greatest good of society. There is no good reason why any business should be allowed to disturb the quiet of the day when the work may be done on a week day. Of course, livery stables and milk men should not be interfered with if they do their work in a quiet way; also the meat markets should be allowed to sell up to a certain time in the forenoon, and any other business should be allowed which is really a work of necessity. The people do not ask for the enforcement of any puritanical laws but they would like the enforcement of good common-sense regulations. The law of the state requires the closing of saloons on the first day of the week and this should be strictly enforced. We would not ask the council to be so strict as to deny the privilege of selling Sunday papers on the street in a quiet way on Sunday mornings, but yet there is hardly an argument against the opening of dry goods stores or carrying on any other business that would not apply to this case. No privilege should be granted to any person or class of persons to evade the laws that may not readily be granted to all. Acting under such views it would seem that there ought not to be much trouble in having proper ordinances and in having them obeyed.

OUR LANSING LETTER.

So much has been said about the trial and expulsion of Milo H. Dakin, of Saginaw, and the various representatives of the daily press have reported the proceedings so fully in their papers, that it seems almost superfluous on my part to attempt to add further information. I may say, however, as I intimated last week, that after Dakin's damaging admissions previous to the opening of the trial, which went farther toward establishing his guilt than all the testimony afterward drawn out, his expulsion was a foregone conclusion. It was the only possible result of the trial. It mattered not whether, as some maintained, the idea of raising funds for a banquet was an after thought employed to break the force of the disclosures, or whether Dakin, with a simplicity and weakness that passes comprehension, allowed himself to be hoodwinked and drawn out to disgrace and political death, the result is the same. The honor of the representatives of the people, and indirectly the honor of the state, was jeopardized, and nothing short of summary action could be considered. Therefore his expulsion, regardless of any feeling of sentiment the circumstances may have engendered, was a solemn duty impinging upon the responsible body of which he was a member.

Mr. Dakin receives very little sympathy.
All the evidence and facts in the case show he has not a proper sense of his position, and does not realize the enormity of the offense proven against him. The night the trial was concluded he was conspicuously absent, and at the hour when the resolution expelling him was passed he was enjoying himself with boon companions at the Eichle house playing pedro, apparently oblivious to all that was transpiring elsewhere. It seems almost impossible a man could thus lightly toss aside the weight of a blasted reputation, and, at such a time, find contented and peaceful enjoyment in card playing. He went around next day at the close of the morning session and received his mail and applied for one day's pay which was due him. He also talked with several of the members, exhibiting the same remarkable indifference.

Mr. Dakin has returned to Saginaw, where he said he will resume his old work of milling, a business from which, it is the impression of most people, he should never have been permitted to escape.

Quite a squabble was occasioned in the house by Mr. Grenell's resolution to appropriate a sufficient sum to defray the expenses of Dakin's counsel. Many members were decidedly opposed to any such action. A number expressed a willingness to assist Mr. Dakin by private subscription; but were not willing to appropriate any public money for that purpose.
Mr. Watson said the state had occasioned the trial and ought to pay the expense.
He thought at least this kindness should be shown to the unfortunate man. The amount proposed in the resolution was $2,000, and it was reported that Judge Van Zile was to have $150 of this, or rather that he had charged Dakin with that sum for his services. After considerable discussion the resolution was tabled.

This Dakin affair has given rise to a good deal of talk about other matters, and the opinion is freely expressed that there are other men who should be introduced to the sweat box. During the progress of the investigation some facts were brought out which scarcely redound to the credit of those concerned.

For instance, in the room of the committee on municipal corporations hang two signs, one of which reads: "We smoke! If we don't, up goes your bill."
The other bears the impressive legend:
"The tender of cigars facilitates business."
The presence of these signs in that room has subjected the members of the committee to severe criticism, and I make bold to say they deserve all the censure bestowed upon them. Who is prepared to say the weak-minded Dakin may not have been more or less influenced by these things? And how much worse are the foolish and knavish acts which resulted in his being expelled than what this committee is doing? He solicited money to buy cigars and drinks for other members; the committee solicit cigars for themselves, with the placarded intimation that if they are not forthcoming "up goes your bill." I don't really see so very much difference in the two schemes for raising the cigars.
The members of the committee are Messrs.
Bates, Abbott, Linton, Makelim, Oviatt, Rentz and Wellman, and I think unless the gentlemen cause the placards to be removed some one ought to submit and press a vote of censure.

A good deal is also being said about the railroad passes the members are carrying about with them, and I wouldn't be a bit surprised if these passes were the cause of some political funerals in the sweat by-and-bye. I heard a person say that no member with a railroad bribe in his pocket in the shape of a pass should be adjudged competent to sit as a juror in the Dakin trial. Perhaps, though, this may be considered far-fetched. But there is this to be said about it: These passes are given in violation of law. The railroads contracted with the newspapers of the state to furnish passes. The passes were called in and the contracts broken. What consideration can a member of the legislature return to the railroad for his pass? Nothing but his vote, and that belongs to the people. Nevertheless they accept these passes and in some instances have solicited them. I don't wonder at people "kicking." Return the passes, gentlemen, and give us a square deal all around.

The bill of Mr. Moon in reference to the taxation of mining and smelting companies was agreed to by the senate committee of the whole. It is intended to amend section 1226, Howell, and provides that those engaged in mining, smelting or refining shall pay into the state treasury taxes as follows: All copper mines a tax of 75 cents per ton; each iron mine a tax of one cent per ton on every ton of 2,240 pounds; coal mines one-half a cent on the gross ton.

The committee on liquor traffic reported the bill amending the liquor law.
It provides for an annual tax of $500 upon wholesale or retail manufacturers, or dealers whose business is in whole or in part the manufacture or sale of any spirituous, malt, brewed fermented or vinous liquors. There is no discrimination between beer and whiskey. Many members are in favor of a lower tax on beer, and if some effective plan could be devised to detect dishonest vendors who sell spirituous liquors on a beer license the distinction would be made. The bonds required under the bill are the same as in the present law, except that the bondsman shall be a resident within the corporate limits of the place where the saloon is situated, although his property may be situated elsewhere in the county. For selling without having paid the tax the penalty is ninety days' imprisonment, together with the payment of amount of tax accrued. For a conviction of a violation of the law the tax is forfeited and the offender is debarred from engaging in the business for the balance of the year. One half of the liquor tax goes to the general fund of the town, village or city from whence it is derived and the other half goes to the general fund of the county. A new provision is that the barroom is to be located in a front room down stairs, the view of the bar from the sidewalk to be unobstructed by curtains, screens, frosted windows or anything else.

The M. E. church society is preparing a treat for the citizens of Saline, in the near future, in the shape of an entertainment by the little folks. All it requires is an announcement from this society to guarantee a splendid time.

G. J. Nissly has just received from the Storrs, Harrison & Co. nursery 700 very fine young trees of different varieties, and is busy with a large force setting them out.
George is a hustler and will make his poul-

Deputy County Clerk Brown had his horse stolen from him while here last Sunday evening. Art. knew whom to suspect for he had oftentimes been out with the same party. After Art. had taken in the situation for a moment and told some what trees made shingles, he very earnestly invited the boys over.

We are told that one of our young men who belongs to the order of I. O. G. T. and also another well known order, got the two mixed the other evening at the I.
O. G. T. meeting. He undertook to gain recognition by using the wrong sign but the worthy chief being a member of both orders quickly took in the situation of the young fellow and by a simple twist of the wrist or elbow or eye soon placed him on smooth sailing and no one was the wiser except those who had ridden both goats.

Mr. Howard Ridgely, of Springfield, Ill., who found great relief in the Ypsilanti mineral water, four years ago, has returned for a second trial, and is receiving careful treatment at Dr. Hall's Forest Grove sanitarium.

The Lockwood-Bentley affair will probably be settled as peaceably as possible under the circumstances, as it seems hardly worth while to give the case a court airing, as both parties have been sufficiently talked about to make their names quite notorious.

Quite a large memory class has been formed here by Chas. McCorkle, for the purpose of testing and getting all possible benefit from Prof. Leisette's method of strengthening the memory. The wife of one of the members proposes to test the improvement made by her fractional component by hurling at him every morning the always forgotten multitude of small articles, including nutmegs, thread, hairpins, etc., which, if he succeeds in not forgetting, will prove to her that all wives should insist in their husbands forming a memory class at once.

and Sunday.

The appointment of game and fish wardens in the county, under the new law, has had a good effect in this vicinity, and the usual quota of "pot hunters," who shot everything that could fly, at this time or year is absent. We propose that the law will be enforced here, if such a thing is possible
"A word to the wise, etc."

HAROLD M. SEWALL,

Lately Appointed Consul General to the Samoan Islands.

The importance of the Samoan Islands, the attempts of Germany to get them under her control, and the complications which arose from the recent joint action of the British and American representatives there in opposing the German consul, make the new American appointee a man of considerable interest. Harold Marsh Sewall, now consul general of the United States to the Samoan Islands, is a Maine man and a Harvard graduate, only 27 years old. He certainly fills the ideal of a "rising young man," as he entered the diplomatic service immediately after leaving college, and is now appointed to a very difficult and delicate mission.

He was born in Bath, Me., in 1860,
entered Harvard
university in 1878,
was graduated in 1883, then passed
three years in the law school there,
and left that to take the place of vice consul at Liverpool under Consul Russell. After a year and a half there he went to Apia, Samoa, where he is now vice consul general. It is to be hoped that youth in this case is supplemented by talent and experience, as affairs in Samoa are complicated. Germany wants to exercise a protectorate over the islands, which would result in her annexing the best of them; England and the United States want a native government—"Samoa for the Sam-oans," with King Malitoea as ruler. "King" Tamasese, and the last United States consul at Apia was recalled as unfit to deal with such a complication.

The islands are remarkably fertile in all tropical productions, and the character of the native Samoans has long been matter of interest to ethnologists; for though of the same general race apparently as the Fijians, the Samoans are the exact opposites in all respects. The former are fierce, filthy, cruel and hostile to all civilized men; the latter are singularly mild in their manners, friendly to strangers and seem inclined to industry and civilization. The development of trade, therefore, among the Samoans has been rapid, and San Francisco merchants count these islands as one of their best markets. The United States has a coaling station at Pago Pago, on one of the islands, which is on the direct route from San Francisco to Australia. The climate, tempered by the trade winds, is delightfully even.

RAGING RIVERS.

Millions of Feet of Maine Logs Swept Into the Sea.

Bridges and Lumber Booms Carried Away—Mill Property in Great Danger of Destruction—Heavy Rains and Large Losses.

DISASTROUS FLOODS.

MACHIAS, Me., May 3.—Heavy freshets prevail here, and owners of mills and other river property are apprehensive of loss. The heaviest freshets for years are now being experienced in St. Croix. Bridges and crossings have been swept away and some dams and booms carried. The sawing season is set back three weeks.

GARDNER, Me., May 3.—On Saturday morning the Brown's Island boom, one mile above the city, gave way, and a great portion of the logs will go through to the sea. All the wharves are covered to the depth of several feet. The water in the Cobscookcook stream, reached the highest point ever known, causing a total suspension of business along its banks and flooding many cellars on Water street, some to the depth of six feet. Most of the merchants removed their goods, but considerable loss can not be avoided. Advice from Fairfield report that the boom there broke early Saturday morning, setting free upwards of 2,000,000 logs. Lumbermen here are on the lookout, and an attempt will be made to prevent their following the Brown Island logs.

ANGUSTA, Me., May 3.—From all parts of the State come reports of damage done by spring freshets. In this vicinity lumbermen have sustained a loss of about $90,000. At Ellsworth every one of the river bridges, except the main bridge at the post-office, are impassable. They have all been heavily weighted and gaged. A big lot of logs have been coming down, but most of them were caught. Brimmer's bridge was carried off its abutments Sunday morning, but is still held by its guys. It is thought the worst is over. Roads in all directions are washed out and trains are badly delayed.

BOSTON, May 3.—Continuous and heavy rains in portions of Maine and New Hampshire have resulted in floods, the like of which have not been known for years. Railroad tracks are washed out, and bridges and lumber booms destroyed, entailing losses in excess of half a million dollars. Streets in Gardiner, Saco, Waterville, Augusta, Bangor, Fairfield, and Calais are submerged, the water invading cellars and destroying perishable property. A water-spout swept over Peterboro, N. H., carrying into its streets from an adjacent hillside rocks weighing tons. The Merrimack is rising rapidly at Concord, and citizens are removing their goods to places of safety. In Saco, Me., many families have been driven from their homes; and at Lewiston considerable inconvenience has resulted from the flooded condition of the Androscoggin. At last reports rain was still falling, and the outlook in the drenched region was gloomy and depressing.

DROPPED THEIR HODS.

Three Thousand Chicago Hod-Carriers Strike for Better Pay.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Three thousand hod-carriers went out on strike this morning on a demand for twenty-five cents an hour for bricklayers and thirty cents an hour for plasterers' laborers. All efforts are now being directed to inducing non-union men to come into the ranks of the organized, and endeavoring to get the bosses to accede to the men's demands. Should these efforts fail to produce the desired result before Saturday night, and bring about such a condition of affairs that the triumph of the men is assured, the new law of the Building Trades' council will, it is said, be put into effect, and every union man connected with building, except brick-layers will be called out. Should this general order be issued and obeyed, plasterers, lathers, carpenters and stonemasons will lay down their tools and quit work. About 100 firms employing hod-carriers have granted the demand.

They are preparing to close down for a long and bitter fight.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 2.—Jennie Bowman, a nurse-girl employed by Mrs. Johnson, of this city, was terribly beaten by two negroes named Turner and Patterson while attempting to prevent them from committing robbery in the absence of her mistress. The negroes were arrested, confessed the crime, and were placed in jail. The excitement was great, and a mob of 10,000 persons paraded the streets determined to lynch the colored men. The police being insufficient to maintain law and order, Mayor Read issued a proclamation urging upon the people the necessity of preserving and maintaining the majesty of the law, and in response to an urgent appeal from Judge Jackson the Governor sent troops to protect the jail and the prisoners. The militia is still guarding the negroes from being lynched, and the public feeling against the accused is abating. Jennie Bowman, their victim, is improving.

$100 Reward.

The readers of THE REGISTER will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known in the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucus surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease and giving the patient strength, by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The Proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer one hundred dollars, for any case it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists, 75 Cts.

CATARRH CURE.

Senator Ransom runs to Latin and dates, especially in Horace, whom he is fond of quoting in his speeches.

HEARTLESS CRUELTY

It is to delude a poor sufferer into the belief that some worthless liniment will cure rheumatism and neuralgia. Honesty is the best policy in the manufacture of proprietary articles in all other matters, and the fact that the proprietors of Athlaphoras have never claimed for it even all its merit would warrant has not a little to do with its wonderful popularity, and the thousands of grateful testimonials received by them show that their policy has been wise as well as right. Experience has amply demonstrated that mere outward applications are worthless. The disease has its seat in the blood, and any remedy to be successful must deal with the obstructive acid which poisons and inflames it.

Athlaphoras acts on the blood, muscles and joints directly. It takes the poison out of the blood and carries it out of the system; it invigorates the action of the muscles and limbers the stiffness of the joints. It reaches the liver and kidneys, cleansing them from irritating substances, and, if followed up after the rheumatic conditions cease, it will restore these organs to regularity and health.

Otto Auwers, Watertown, Wis., says: "I have been more or less subject to severe rheumatism for fourteen years. During that time I was never free from the disease until I used Athlaphoras. I have been laid up for months at a time; the last attack was four months. I could not assist myself, my wife was obliged to feed me and I had to be lifted in and out of bed. I have spent at least a thousand dollars with nothing but temporary relief. When I used the first bottle of Athlaphoras I began to feel relief and when I had finished taking the fourth bottle I was well and have not been troubled with rheumatism since."

Every druggist should keep Athlaphoras and Athlaphoras Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist, the Athlaphoras Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlaphoras and 50c for Pills. For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, etc., Athlaphoras Pills are unequalled.

"Too Many of We."

"Mamma, is there too many of we?" The little girl asked with a sigh. "Perhaps you wouldn't be tired, you see, if a few of your children could die."

She was only three years old—the one who spoke in that strange, sad way, As she saw her mother's impatient frown And the children's doleful round.

There were half a dozen who round her stood, And the mother was sick and poor. Worn out with the care of the noisy brood And the fight with the wolf at the door.

For a smile or a kiss, no time, no place; For the little one least of all; And the shadow that darkened the mother's face O'er the young life seemed to fall.

More thoughtful than any, she felt more care, And pondered in childish way How to lighten the burden she could not share, Growing heavier day by day.

Only a week, and the little Claire Lay with blue eyes closed, and the sunny hair Cut close from the golden head.

"Don't cry," she said—and the words were low, Feeling tears that she could not see— "You won't have to work and be tired so When there ain't so many of we."

But the dear little daughter who went away From the home that darkened the mother's face Showed the mother's heart from that dreary day, What a place she had always filled.

Down for Their Convenience—What

May We Expect to See Next?

The reader of this article, if old enough and a native of the country, will remember with what awe he used to look upon the volunteer firemen of the town nearest his boyhood's home. That was in the days of hand fire engines and lively races to fires and muscle straining contests for the honor of a "wash," and all that sort of thing.

Later came the steam fire engine, and then the paid department system. Perhaps the new ways are the better, but they certainly are not more picturesque. But

BARON H. VON ALVENSLEBEN.

Newly Appointed Minister to the United States from Germany.

The picture we herewith present of the new minister from Germany to the United States shows the strong traits of the German diplomat. The high and even forehead, looking over the eyes just enough, the medium sized lower face and firm mouth (which we know to be there, though the heavy curling beard hides it), all show the man of general intelligence and calm control of self—the diplomat who can be so social on all proper occasions, with reserve enough when acting in his special line. Baron H. von Alvensleben, who is officially styled envoy and minister plenipotentiary of the German empire, is 50 years old, unmarried and a diplomat of much experience. He was secretary of legation at Washington from 1869 to 1871, under Baron Gerlot when the latter was minister. In 1871 he took a subordinate place in the foreign office at Berlin, but soon went to St. Petersburg as first secretary of the German embassy to Russia. At later periods he represented the empire as minister to Roumania, then to Holland and Belgium successively, coming from the latter place to the United States. Washington is not a place desired by European diplomats—indeed, it is spoken of as the post of quiet, do nothing, where a talented diplomat may rest from his labors at a European court.

"It doesn't look like a very brilliant act in a republican council reinstating a democratic policeman, who had been asked to resign only a few months before by a democratic mayor," say a goodly number of our citizens.

Mercury up to 80° last Monday. This is what makes the velvet lawns to come forth, the birds to sing more joyfully, the flowers to burst forth in all their pristine beauty and all creation to rejoice that spring-time has come again.

Circuit court is in session this week. In the case of Winans & Stafford vs. Frederick Huson, the judge took the case from the jury and rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiffs for $165. Mary Morton vs. W. D. Morton, now on trial.

Postmaster Duffy has over 125 applications for the positions of mail carriers on file. As only five or six will be employed it looks as if there would be some kicking when the time comes. But then they are democrats and they can stand it.

Thirty years ago last Thursday, Prof. and Mrs. E. Baur were married in Germany, and the professor says it has been thirty years of continued happiness. Seven children have been born to them, all of whom are alive and doing well.

During the electrical storm last Monday afternoon lightning struck the Lake house, at Whitmore lake and damaged it to the extent $500 worth. Miss Lena Schlimmer, who was in the house at the time, received a shock which will probably result fatally.

The memorial services held in the opera house, last Sunday afternoon, in commemoration of the death of David Preston was attended by a fair sized audience. Rev. Dr. Ramsay delivered the address and the Wilsey quartette the music.

Some miserable wretch climbed into the second story of the sixth ward engine house, last Friday evening, and out the bell rope in two. The officers are on the lookout for the person who did it and should he be found, he will be punished to the full extent of the law.

The Ann Arbor agricultural company report a very good business the past month, and the prospects equally flattering for the future. They shipped a carload of plows a few days ago to Tacoma, Washington, Ter., which is the terminus of the Northern Pacific railroad.

M. Stabler: "This inter-state commerce bill is ruinous to my business. I just received an engine and threshing machine from Marion, Ohio, the freight on which was $36. Last year I received two engines and two threshers from the same place and the freight was only $24." And this is only one of many of the same kind of remarks we hear every day.

Died, in this city, on the 29th of April, 1887, Dr. William Wallington. He was born in Ludgershall, Buckinghamshire, England, Feb. 1, 1810. He had resided in Ann Arbor 41 years. Dr. Wallington published a treatise on the diseases of horses and cattle some years ago which had quite a sale. He has, for many years, successfully practiced his profession as a veterinary surgeon, and has had the reputation of a quiet and respectable citizen.

The State Military Board has fixed the annual encampment of the state troops for Aug. 10 to 17, at Brighton. As two days will be taken in coming and going, actual encampment will be five days, as prescribed by law. The new departure will be made of camping by regiments instead of brigade. This is to overcome the criticism in the last report of U. S. Inspector General Pennington and of Gen. Kidd. Each regiment will hereafter have its separate guards and be responsible for all conduct within its lines.

Some time ago several persons in this city and other places purchased land up north for a summer resort. Last week they met in Lansing and formed the "Old Mission Beach association," under the law passed by the present legislature for the incorporation of such societies. Major W. C. The school board held a special meeting last night to take further action on the proposed new school building. Several changes in the plans and specifications were made which will be submitted to the architects, Donaldson & Meyers, for their approval. A resolution was passed requiring the architects to give a bond in the sum of $10,000, as a guarantee that the building would be constructed inside of the appropriation and that it would show no defects in its construction within three years. The board evidently mean business, and that they will not have a repetition of the sixth ward school house matter. A motion was made and supported, the erection of the building until another year and give the people another opportunity to vote on it, in view of the fact that there is some question as to the legality of the way in which the appropriation was raised. There is also considerable opposition on the part of some tax payers to erecting it on the north side of the present one. Some think that it should be put on a separate lot, while many think it should be put on the east side of the present one. Every teacher in the high school, with one or two exceptions, are opposed to the present intention of building it on the north side of the lot.

A Prosperous Church.

The tenth anniversary of Rev. Wm. H. Ryder's pastorate of the Congregational church of this city was reached last Sunday, and was the occasion of some interesting remarks, relative to the material and spiritual progress of the church during his connection with it. From advance pages of the forthcoming manual of this prosperous church we learn that the church was organized in 1847, and meetings were held in the old court house for about ten years. Rev. E. P. Ingersoll supplied the pulpit ten years and eight months before the first pastor, Rev. L. Smith Hebr., began, 18th of November, 1848. He was succeeded, June 25, 1855, by Rev. Wm. L. Mather, who resigned February 19, 1857. Prof. Joseph Estabrook then supplied the pulpit a year, during which time 61 persons united with the church. Rev. Samuel D. Cochran was dismissed, July 17, 1861, and followed by Rev. Abram E. Baldwin in the spring of 1862, remaining until September 17, 1867. Rev. Wm. A. Smith filled the pulpit one year and was succeeded by Rev. Henry L. Hubbell upon the 12th of June, 1869. Under the wise and zealous leadership of this good man, the beautiful and commodious church was erected, and dedicated, May 10, 1876. Impaired health compelled Mr. Hubbell to resign Oct. 7, 1876. Upon the first of May, 1887, Rev. Wm. H. Ryder, of Oberlin college, whose first very successful decade has just closed, began his pastorate. Since the organization of the church, there have been received 1059 members, of whom 382 were received on confession of faith, 677 by letter. The whole number now on the church roll is 350.
