

THE ANN ARBOR REGISTER.

VOL. xiv. NO. 12

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, THURSDAY, MARCH 22, 1888.

WHOLE NO. 691.

ON THE CAMPUS.

M. W. Hills, '87, was in town Saturday.

H. K. Hess, lit '87, of Bay City, was in the city last Friday.

The state board of dental examiners is in session at the dental building.

A. F. McEwan, lit '86, visited friends and fraters in the city this week.

Geo. Whyte will give the remaining lectures in metallurgy this semester.

Miss Elsie Jones, lit '88, has been obliged to drop her studies on account of sickness.

Mrs. Martha Foot-Crowe, principal of Iowa College, has been visiting in the city the past week.

Every freshman was given a rare treat last week of seeing his name in print in the new calendar.

Prof. Vaughan and F. G. Novy intend spending their summer vacation visiting the laboratories of Europe.

John Grant, a graduate of the U. of M., now practicing law at Manistee, spent last Saturday with his Beta Theta Pi friends.

The University closes tomorrow evening for a ten-days recess. Some of the work in the medical department will continue through the vacation.

Prof. Demmon and Hinsdale are on an examining tour, visiting various high schools of the state, and taking in now and then a teachers' convention.

I. W. Short, formerly an '88 medic of this school, but who graduated a few days ago from the Long Island medical college, was in town last Thursday and Friday.

The board of directors of the University of Michigan base ball club held a meeting Monday and elected D. K. Cochrane, of Manistee, manager for the coming year.

The senior ladies of all departments met last Saturday and discussed "what to wear" commencement. They will probably all dress alike, perhaps in white—a feature that would be novel and pleasing.

The U. of M. base ball club is billed for its first game, May 5 next. They will play with the Chicago college nine, and will have to fight against Packard and Hibbard, graduates of the literary department.

Prof. Hennequin's French courses in Detroit, and his special course of lectures on French literature, delivered before the French clubs of that city, will end Saturday. The professor has given instruction to over one hundred pupils.

Through the kindness of Judge Cooley the University was provided with about 150 copies of the report of the Inter State Commerce Commission and will be used by the students in political economy in their course. Unsettled questions.

Lea Brothers & Co. are at present publishing and will soon have upon the market a work on ptomaines which is bound to be the standard of all those works so far published on the subject. The authors are Prof. V. C. Vaughan and F. G. Novy.

Adrian, Albion, Hillsdale and the Agricultural colleges have united in organizing an inter-collegiate base ball association. Each team will play two games with each of the other colleges in the association. This will make no more games than the clubs have been playing during the past few years.

A gentleman, whose name President Angell has been kind enough to withhold, was asked to pack his things and leave the University Monday. He had brought a large amount of credit from an Indiana institution, and had entered upon advanced standing. It afterwards turned out that the credits were forged.

The University Glee club is now on its trip, starting with Jackson Monday. Agent Hayes, of the M. C. R. R., gave a special car for their use, and they are accompanied by George Haviland as manager. March 24, they will sing in Central Music Hall, Chicago. Tonight they are in Niles. April 2 they will be in Fort Wayne, when they will come home. Then they ought to give Ann Arbor people a chance.

Mrs. Prof. Stowell left Wednesday to attend the International Council of Women to be held in Washington the coming week. The council has for its aim the promotion of higher education among women, and will be attended by over 3000 of the representative women of America and Europe. On her return Mrs. Stowell will visit the University of Pennsylvania, Johns Hopkins, Bryn Mawr, and other eastern colleges, in the interests of her historical work here.

The new "Organic Analysis" of Prof. Preacott is now under review by the chemical journals. The American journal of Pharmacy says of it: "The work will prove to be a very valuable one for the laboratory. It is calculated to widen the views of the intelligent student in his endeavor to acquire a substantial knowledge of the carbon compounds; and the experienced analyst will find it a comprehensive and reliable work of reference on most questions which are likely to arise in analytical investigations."

The 33d annual meeting of the state dental association began Tuesday in Ann Arbor and probably will close tonight. The liveliest thing that has occurred is the expulsion of Dr. C. H. Land, of Detroit, from the association, which was done yesterday. Land is defiant, and even requested that his name be dropped. His offense is advertising contrary to the association's old code of ethics. He discovered some sort of porcelain preparation valuable to the profession, and advertised it in his business. This was considered unprofessional and undoubtedly did violate the code. Dr. Land, however, has many warm partisans who predict that the code will be changed and that he will be reinstated. Others say that he wants to pose as a martyr, and get notoriety. Yesterday afternoon, after special urging, Dr. Land gave a clinic before the association. Many valuable papers have been read.

Important Business Changes.

Furniture circles in Ann Arbor have been interested during the past week in important changes in furniture business firms. There have been no new furniture stores started; but last Thursday the firm of Koch & Haller was dissolved. Mr. Haller retaining the stock and business at the old stand on Main-st. Last Tuesday, Mr. Koch perfected his purchase of Richmond & Treadwell's furniture store at the old Keck stand.

Koch & Haller formed a copartnership about five years ago. Mr. Koch had been engaged with Mr. Keck for several years when, about 1881, he started a furniture store in the building now used by Werner & Brenner's grocery on Mainst. He held this store till he went into business with Mr. Haller. Mr. Haller formerly had been in the jewelry business with his brother, George Haller.

Richmond & Treadwell purchased the Keck furniture store in December, 1886, soon after the well-known failure, and have continued the business there till this time. Mr. Koch, who now assumes the business, unquestionably will make it a lively one. The old firm left a fine stock of goods, and the new proprietor will sustain its reputation.

Martin Haller, at the old stand of Koch & Haller, has a beautiful display of all that is useful and ornamental in the way of furniture. Ann Arbor has some fine furniture stores; there is no necessity of going out of town to fit a house or office in that respect.

Au Armenian on Armenia.

A very enjoyable entertainment and social was given by (he medical and dental departments of the S. C. A., in the University chapel, last Friday evening. After some good music, Miss Myra E. Pollard gave some most excellent recitations, after which Dr. Hagop B. Asadorian, resident graduate of Central Turkey College, Aleppo, Turkey, gave a very instructive lecture giving the origin and a brief history of the Turks; also their origin and a brief history of the Armenians. He explained how the Armenians were an altogether different nation from the Turks, and have nothing to do with the Turks whatever. The Armenians have been a Christian nation ever since the first century; they took an active part in the wars of the Crusaders, but their country was subsequently conquered by the Turks, and their last king was obliged to escape to France, and died there. As to the progress of the Armenians in education and literature he said there are about 17, daily, weekly, and monthly papers and magazines published in Constantinople belonging to Armenians, and they are progressing very rapidly in literature and science. He believed that the late progress of the Armenians was not attributable to the missionaries whose work has almost been insignificant during the past 50 years, they even discouraging a higher education by trying to prevent the Armenians from sending their sons to Europe and America.

Ann Arbor Art club.

To the Editor of THE REGISTER: SIB:—I thought your readers might be interested in hearing something about the Ann Arbor Art club, and what it has been doing since its organization about three years ago. Soon after that time Miss Alice Hunt, teacher of industrial drawing and design in the public school, was made director with full power to guide the work of the club. A few simple rules were adopted, to prevent degenerating into a decorative art society, one of which forbade any work from the flat, so that the work has been altogether from still life.

Miss Hunt has arranged a great variety of studies during her administration, and the club has worked faithfully and enthusiastically from them every Monday during the school year, in charcoal, water-color, and oils. We have an active membership of 18 or 20, which is as large as we desire. Sometime in May we hope to have a third annual exhibit of the work of the club in the Ladies' Library, where our friends may see what we are doing, and at the same time express their interest in a club which is certainly founded upon correct principles and is doing honest work.

MBS. W. S. PKRRT.

Reeves, Hunter Sc. Co.

The Ann Arbor boiler and engine works at the old Ann Arbor city foundry has lately been growing into a thriving industry under the management of R. Reeves & Co. This week another partner was taken into the firm, and the firm name is now as given above. Robert Hunter, the new man in the firm, is from Paris, Ont., and is an expert machinist, having worked in Erie and Oil City, Pa., and being thoroughly acquainted with automatic engines. Eight men are now employed at this place and the force will be increased. If the new engine mentioned by THE REGISTER a few weeks ago does only one-half of what is expected of it, a still larger force will be employed. Mr. Reeves thinks he will be running a force of 25 or 30 men before long. They are doing a good business now, he says, in the way of repairing and job work and they are doing the castings and machine work for the Kalamazoo capsule company. The two active men in the firm are experienced machinists and there seems good promise of their building up a flourishing industry here.

As Mr. Krueger left Randall's gallery, Monday morning, to open his own gallery over Brown's drug store, Mr. Randall has a new operator. He is R. W. Harrison, and hails from Landy's great gallery in Cincinnati, where he worked nearly three years. Mr. Harrison also has had charge of one of Notman's galleries three years.

Woman's Mental Development.

Unity Club has arranged for a great literary treat for the people of Ann Arbor early in April. George Willis Cooke, of Boston, the author of books on Emerson, George Eliot, Euskin, Carlyle and Browning, has been engaged to give a series of four lectures, in the Unitarian church, on "The Intellectual Development of Woman." Mr. Cooke has given these lectures in many of the large cities of the East, and everywhere they have been spoken of with the highest praise. He has just given them before the Peabody Institution in Baltimore. The specific subjects are:

1. The Literary Women of the 16th and 17th Centuries.
2. Dr. Johnson and the Literary Women of the 18th Century.
3. Harriet Martineau and her Contemporaries.
4. George Eliot and the Literary Women of Today.

<OIK>it Events.

The Boston Ideals will present The Daughter of the Regiment in Ann Arbor, March 26.

Next Sunday morning Rev. S. Haskell preaches his farewell sermon in the Baptist church.

Hon. Warren Chase, of Boston, Mass., will give a parlor conversation on the subject of Spiritualism, next Saturday evening, March 24, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Eli W. Moore, No. 3 Pontiac st.

Next Monday evening, Mrs. Sunderland will continue her series of talks, by giving one on Ruben's "Descent from the Cross;" Prof. Calvin Thomas of the University will give a paper on "Goethe, the Man and Poet," and Dr. Harold Wilson will discuss "German Universities."

Christfan Association Building.

Last Saturday plans were adopted for the new Students' Christian Association building. Spier & Rohns, of Detroit, the architects of our elegant depot, furnish the plans, which represent a building to cost, without furnishings, $20,000. It will occupy the lot directly west of University hall. The building will be two stories high, the first floor to be occupied by the ladies' and the gents' reception rooms, the secretary's room, library and three prayer-meeting rooms. The second story will contain the assembly room with a seating capacity of about 550, and living rooms for the janitor. The building will be built of our common boulders or "hard-heads" in a style of architecture entirely modern. The work will be begun next month, and it is expected the building will be enclosed by fall. There is already subscribed toward the building something over $18,000. The building committee consists of Profs. Prescott and O'Gea, and A. E. Jennings.

"The Daughter of the Regiment" will be presented in Ann Arbor, March 26, by the Boston Ideal Opera company. Of this performance, the New York Sun says: "The production of Donizetti's 'Daughter of the Regiment' at the Fifth Avenue theatre, last night, was completely successful. Mile de Lussau's presentation of Marie was at times somewhat exuberant, but scarcely too lively when the conditions amid which Donizetti's heroine was reared are taken into account. It had, moreover, the uncommon merit of uniting its dramatic excellence and contagious spirit of the positive worth of a lyric effort of a high order. The audience waxed enthusiastic over everything; there were four or five recalls after the first and second acts, and the final curtain had to be raised again before the crowd departed. The general representation of the opera was animated and remarkably smooth, Mr. Baxter proving an acceptable Tonio and Mr. Clark an appropriately brusque and sonorous Sulpice."

Probate notice. STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW. At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the city of Ann Arbor, Michigan, on Thursday, the 15th day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight.

Present, William D. Harriman, Judge of Probate.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Emelitte Cheever, Jennie E. Cheever and Laura E. Cheever, praying that administration de bonis non with the will annexed of said estate, be granted to Noah W. Cheever or some other suitable person.

Thereupon it is ordered, that Monday the 16th day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, and show cause if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said petition, and the hearing thereof by causing a copy of this order to be published in THE ANN ARBOR REGISTER, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.

Mlle ZELIE DE LUSAN.

The Boston Ideal Opera Company to VUit Ann Arbor with this Illustrious Star.

Nym Crinkle, the well-known dramatic critic of New York, wrote of Mlle Zelle de Lusan in January last as follows:

"I never heard Zelle in opera until she came here, but I always had a belief that when she did come in opera she would bring her intrinsic charm with her.

"I was not mistaken.

"The night that I heard her there was an overwhelming assemblage at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, and it was not friendly—only unprejudiced and willing to be won.

"When Marie came on with a rousade in the first act it saw a black-eyed and black-haired girl, modestly attired in vivandiere dress and little boots. Her narrow face was the vsharp-cut, intelligent and pretty face of a French brune. Her dark eyes had a Southern flash in them, her slightly Semitic nose was saucy and dermianative, her mouth, which opened vertically in the Italian and not Uterly in the German style, was pink and full of little, gleaming, white teeth. When it did open in the well-known strain, 'Il reggimento mio', there came forth a warm, round soprano voice of pure quality and of disciplined strength. Her method was apparent at once. Her intonation, her phrasing and her economy of force must have told every musician in the house, before she had sung five bars of the duet, hers was the self-confidence and the knowledge of a thoroughly trained vocalist.

"Her audience was not immediately won. It was not until she came to the singing lesson that, gathering herself up, she made full exhibition of her resources and set them in such a purely French by-play that the audience gave way and announced unanimously that it was satisfied."

LITERARY NOTES.

There are many good times in the world not less enjoyable because the "high world" would disdain to mix in them. Of these are the evenings of amusement indulged in by the poor of London in the theaters where their tastes are catered to exclusively—where points are not too fine, but where vice is punished awfully and virtue rewarded lavishly. All this is described in a charming way in Harper's Magazine for April in an article entitled "The Humors of a Minor Theater," written by F. Anstey, and illustrated with inimitable sketches by Frederick Barnard, whose pencil always works so deftly on subjects of this kind. The initial picture of the contribution is droll beyond description, and represents the heavy villain of the play waiting to be promoted. It must be seen to be appreciated.

The Magazine of Art for April has as its frontispiece a photograph after a painting by Luke Fildes, called "The Venturers," which shows that this talented painter is as much at home with the various types of Venetian character, as he is with those of England. The opening paper on the "Language of Line," by Walter Crane, takes "Outline" as its special subject, and is one that no student of drawing can afford to pass by without a careful reading. "The National Art, and the National Gallery," by James D. Linton, is another suggestive paper.—Caesell & Company, New York.

Before the March winds have done blowing, the April Quiver lies before us, and so full of good things that it may safely be called a red-letter number. There are two articles that will attract the particular attention of American readers. One is on the Rev. William Morley Punshon, LL. D., who is so well known in this country by his printed sermons, and the other is on the rise of special missions in the church of England, being in the form of an interview with the Rev. W. Hay M. H. Aitken. All who have followed the history of the line of mission work in this country will remember the notable work done by this revivalist in New York some two or three years ago. Accompanying the article is a picture showing the interior of Mr. Aitken's study, and another, a portrait from an excellent photograph. Still another shows us the revivalist as he appears on the platform of Guildhall.—Caesell & Co., New York.

Mr. Kennan's Siberian papers, illustrated by Mr. G. K. A. Frost, who accompanied Mr. Kennan on his trip through Asiatic Russia, will begin in the May Century. Their appearance has been deferred on account of the author's desire to group in preliminary papers—the last of which will be in the April Century—an account of the conditions and events in Russia directly related to the exile system. This system (now to be minutely described and elaborately pictured; and by way of preface to the first illustrated paper Mr. Kennan will in a brief statement, answer the question as to how he came to enter upon his arduous, and somewhat perilous investigations, and why he and his companion were accorded such extraordinary facilities by the Russian Government itself. In the April Century Mr. Kennan will write of "The Russian Penal Code."

High School Notes.

School closed today.—All regular students have already been classified for next term.—The standing in the different studies will be read tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in chapel.—The spring term will open on Monday, April 2, and the full line of study will be resumed on Tuesday.—The junior exhibition will be given tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.—The decorations by the senior class are very nice, and this will doubtless be a very pleasing entertainment. The Chequiquion orchestra will furnish the music.—On account of school closing today, the literary societies will hold no meetings this week, but will hold their next debate on April 6.—Some of the names for the catalogue have been posted in the session room to be corrected, and the catalogue will probably appear the early part of next term.

Truth About Los Angeles.

James Barker, who recently returned from Los Angeles, Cal., says that it is a good place for the rich man, but not for the man who works for wages. Since just fall there have been hundreds of men on the streets of that city every day looking for employment. The Los Angeles papers do not say anything about this distressing fact. Mr. Barker lived in London, Eng., some years ago, and he says that he never saw in an equal area in London so many unemployed men as he saw in the streets of Los Angeles.

"Why," he said, "there are plenty of Michigan boys there who would gladly come back if they could get money enough. Mechanics who save enough money to purchase a ticket for the east, don't wait a day. I am a painter and decorator, and found a job in Los Angeles, but in Ann Arbor I can get steady work nine months in the year, while in Los Angeles mechanics, even when they get a job, do not have steady employment and pay a high price for living. There are plenty of the best mechanics on the streets there eager for work, but can get none.

"Book-keepers and short-hand writers are also attracted to Los Angeles by the wonderful advertising and fictitious booning which that city gets; but they don't stand much of a show there, and soon get discouraged. I wish I had preserved some of the Los Angeles papers which I brought back with me, to show you the many advertisements for work which these poor fellows put in. Some of them are pitiful. One declares that California's climate is beautiful, but that he can't live on climate.

"Speaking of the climate, it may be wonderful—for rheumatism, catarrh, etc. It rained for a week after I got there, and I was soon sick with fever and ague.

"Trie land sharks in California are up to all sorts of dodges to enrip the 'tender-feet,' us they call the victims. They lay out imaginary towns among the cacti on the plains, and lie about the towns in a way that will endanger their chances of a good lime in the next world. They advertise one town as having street railways and other advantages, none of which it had.

"The Los Angeles Bureau of Information sends out circulars to attract people to that city. It puts the wages of mechanics too high, and doesn't tell the true state of affairs in regard to employment there."

Prof. Byron W. Cheever.

At a meeting of the faculty of the department of Medicine and Surgery, held March 6, the following minute was made in regard to the death of Professor Cheever:

"The Faculty of the Department of Medicine and Surgery learn with sorrow of the sudden death of Dr. Byron W. Cheever, Professor of Metallurgy in the University. Stricken from active college life, in the full tide of absorbing engagements, and falling after few days struggle with the shock of disease, his loss is one of the most afflictive to his friends. A graduate in medicine in this University in the year 1867, and since then engaged in pursuits of technical science, he has been loyal in all that does honor to this department.

"In the strength and steadiness of his industry, in the accuracy and faithfulness of his investigations, and in the worth of his honorable example, the record of his life describes into the University. His name is one honored in this Faculty, and one which was clearly written some years ago in the records of the best services of the medical profession, by another member of the faculty now again bereaved. And it only remains for us here to render honor to the memory of the departed, to extend our most heartfelt sympathy to the afflicted family, and to bow in humble submission to God who giveth and who taketh away."

Another Pioneer Gone.

Merritt Perry, one of Washtenaw's earliest settlers, died at his home in Perry, Shiawassee county, March 8, at the age of 77 years. He was born in Saratoga county, N. Y., June 12, 1810, where he lived until six years of age, when he removed, with his parents, to Genesee county, N. Y., where he resided ten years. At the age of 16, he came west to carve out his fortune in Michigan, arriving at Ann Arbor, Nov. 3, 1826. He selected as his home 80 acres on section two, township of Lodi. In 1834 he married Malona Whitcher, who died in 1843, leaving one child, now Mrs. John Herbert. In 1850 he married Lydia Jane Harmon, who, with two children, K. D. and Ellen U. Perry survive him. He resided on the same farm on section two, 54 years, when he removed to Perry, Shiawassee county where he has since lived.

172. Aaron W. Luckhaidt, Lodi; Rosa C. Lindemann, Lodi.

by local applications, as they can not reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way of curing Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucus lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucus surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that we can not cure by taking Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular, free.

Often the virtue of a woman may be very great, since it has to suffice for two.—Elizabeth of Roumania.

Honey-Moon.

"Say, Perkins, old boy, why don't we see you at the club any more? Has your mother-in-law shut down on you?" "No, Brown; the fact of the matter is, my home is so happy now that there is no inducement for me to leave it. You look incredulous, but it's a positive fact. You see, my wife used to suffer so much from functional derangements common to her sex, that her spirits and her temper were greatly affected. It was not her fault, of course, but it made home unpleasant all the same. But now, since she has begun to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, she has been so well and so happy that we are having our honey-moon all over again."

"Pa, did the Indians consider smoking the pipe of peace a religious ceremony?" "They did, my son." "Thank you. I know where the oath comes from now." "What oath." "Holy smoke."

of good health is found in the regular movement of the bowels and perfect action of the Liver. These organs were intended by nature to remove from the system all impurities. If you are consulted, you offer a "standing invitation" to a whole family of diseases and irregularities which will surely be "accepted," and you will have guests unwelcome and determined. All these unhappy conditions may be averted by the timely use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets. Powerful for the effectual regulation of the bowels and Liver, establishing a healthy action of the entire wonderful organism with which we are created.

Ladies will find relief from their Costiveness, Swelling in the Head, Colic, Sour Stomach, Headache, Kidney troubles, etc., by taking a dose of Simmons' Liver Regulator after dinner or supper. BO as to move the bowels once a day. Mothers will have better health and the babies will grow more robust by using the Regulator. If an infant shows signs of Colic, nothing like a few drops in water for relief.

O, woman! thou wert fashioned to be gentle; so have all sages said, all poets sung.—Jean Ingelow.

HIBBARD'S Rheumatic Plasters are of great merit for weak lungs and stomach, and should be applied over the parts affected.

Earth has nothing more tender than a woman's heart when it is the abode of pity.—Luther.

Throat ailment gets well sold of itself, but depends until it undermines the constitution, wastes away health, strength and flesh, and finally fastens itself on the lungs, completing the wreck and ruin of the whole man. Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure is the only safe, sure and speedy remedy for coughs, colds, and all throat and lung diseases. Sold by Eberhach & Son, at fifty cents and one dollar. Pleasant to take and safe for children.

Trust not a woman when she weeps, for it is her nature to weep when she wants her way.—Socrates.

An Excellent Investment.

The majority of men in middle life remember when Illinois or Wisconsin lands were thought dear at $250 per acre. Present value, $25 00 to $5000 an acre. Careful examination of the records has discovered a number of scattered pieces of the very choicest land in Minnesota included in original land grant lying near railroads recently built, and adjacent to market. These will be sold cheap, and in five or ten years will unquestionably be worth several times present price. A profitable investment. For future particulars, state quantity desired and address J. BOOKWALTER, Land Comm., St. P., M. & M. Ry., St. Paul, Minn.

"MAY GOD BLESS YOU!"

A Boston Paper-Hanger & Troublemaker HUH He Got Out of it—Plain Words from the Sunny South.

When we are in trouble we cry for help. When we are relieved we often forget to be thankful. But not always. Mr. W. W. Griffin, of Trout Creek, St. Clair Co., Ala., writes: "I had a bad attack of chills and fever. My system was full of malaria. For two years I was scarcely able to work at all. Some times my heart would palpitate for two hours at a time. My legs would growl into the knees, and I fully expected to die. In September, 1881, I bought a bottle of Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seigel's Curative Syrup, of your agent, Mr. R. M. King, and before I had taken the first bottle I felt better, and in a short time was able to go to work. May God bless you for the good you have done."

Mr. Wm. J. McCann, 99 Kandalist, Boston, writes: "Six months ago I began to throw up my food after eating. I thought I was going into consumption. I soon began to have pain in the chest, stomach and sides. I got little sleep and woke all tiled out. I once lost five pounds in four days. I began using Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seigel's Syrup, and when I had finished the sixth bottle I could eat three square meals a day, and go to sleep the minute I struck the bed. I am a paper hanger by trade, and have worked every day since I took the second bottle, and gained eighteen pounds. I ought to be thankful and I am."

This remedy opens all the natural passages of the body, expels the poison from the blood and enables nature to rebuild what disease has destroyed.

Shaker Extract of Roots, or Seigel's Syrup, is sold by all druggists, or sent to the proprietor, A. J. White, M Warren street, New York.

FURY OF THE ELEMENTS.

Lives Lost and Property Destroyed by Wind and Storm. The Snow Blockade in Eastern City* Broken—Nearly Thirty Persons Perished In the Blizzard—Vessels Wrecked—Storms Abroad.

NEW YORK, March 16.—The snow-blockade in this city was broken yesterday, and the steam and street railways were once more running. One of the incidents of the blockade was the building of immense bonfires in the middle of snow-drifts. Storekeepers liberally contributed boxes, and the big heaps were thus melted away. Reports are coming in of extensive loss of life. It is believed that twenty persons perished in Essex County, N. J. At New Haven, Conn., seven persons perished and there were over twenty deaths in towns adjacent to New Haven, while hundreds of people suffered from frost-bites. At Milltown, N. J., John Henrnan perished, and neighbors found his wife dead in bed and his children starving. Between Sandy Hook and Cape Charles many vessels were wrecked and the crews perished. On trains between New York and Philadelphia that were snow-bound the passengers suffered terribly from hunger and cold.

NEW YORK, March 17.—As New York, with its outlying suburban districts, slowly emerges from ice and snow further reports of the loss of life from the late blizzard comes in. Just how many people have met their fate in the icy blast of last Monday will not be known for some time. Nearly thirty deaths are, however, known to have occurred. The telegraph and railway companies are getting in good trim once more. The post-office officials are busily engaged in distributing the vast mass of mail matter hourly arriving. The milk famine is a thing of the past, as train after train loaded with milk have been coming in all the morning. All food supplies are now plentiful and prices have fallen to the usual figure.

Mount Holly (N. Y.) dispatch reports great loss among sheep and swine which were caught in the fields when the storm came on. In many instances whole herds of swine were found dead in a snow-bank a few feet from the barns.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 17.—The last drift in the blockade between Boston and New York was broken through yesterday afternoon, and communication by rail was restored. Direct telegraphic communication may not be restored until late Saturday, as many poles are down. In Massachusetts the storm was felt with great severity in every section, the Cape Cod district being the only one where traffic was possible. Immense snow-drifts filled the country roads, and even in the cities and towns put a long and immediate check on all traffic. The railroads all suffered very much.

In Connecticut the storm was severe indeed, in some places being more so than in any other part of that State than anywhere else in New England. Beginning Monday the railroads were blocked and telegraph wires were blown down for long distances.

NOBWITH, Conn., March 21.—Frank Hopkins, aged 60 years, and Mrs. Emeline Whitney, his housekeeper, aged 70, were found dead near their house in Putnam Monday. They had perished in last week's storm.

CHICAGO, March 21.—Storm, ice and high water damages were reported from various points in the West yesterday. In portions of Dakota and Minnesota the heaviest snowfall of the winter prevailed, and in Western Kansas and Nebraska heavy storms of sleet and snow had damaged fruit and live-stock.

LONDON, March 21.—A heavy blizzard is raging in the southeast of England. The storm is slight in London. The storms in France and Germany continue. In Spain the storm is very heavy, especially in the north. In the south of Spain floods are doing enormous damage. The rising of the Tiber, resulting from the recent fall of snow, has flooded the lower quarters of Rome. Floods are reported in Russia, caused by the melting of the snow. Sections of the Southwestern railway threaten to subside. Trains are compelled to go at half speed. The Emperor of Austria gives 8,000 florins to the sufferers from the floods in Galicia.

Murdered His Entire Family. BENTON, Me., March 16.—Darius M. Warren, under arrest for the murder of his wife, asked yesterday to see his two daughters, aged eight and three years respectively. He was taken into their presence by an officer, when he drew a revolver and shot them both fatally and then killed himself.

Many Boats Wrecked. STEUBENVILLE, O., March 16.—Coal boats collided yesterday in the Ohio river at Brown's Island, five miles from this city, and nine boats and eighteen barges were wrecked. Over 400,000 bushels of coal were scattered along the banks or buried in the bed of the river. No lives were lost.

Another Murder in New York. NEW YORK, March 17.—Mary Poans was found dead in her room yesterday morning with a bullet through her head. Her husband has been arrested. This makes the fourth woman murdered in this city within thirty-six hours.

Killed His Wife and Himself. BELLEVILLE, O., March 18.—John Dean, a retired farmer 70 years old and worth $50,000, killed his wife Friday night and committed suicide. Temporary insanity or a burst of passion are suggested as accounting for the crime.

Firemen Killed. MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 10.—A falling wall at a fire in this city yesterday which started in Atkins shoe-factory killed two firemen and injured five others. By the fire about $300,000 worth of property was destroyed.

WASHINGTON, March 21.—The total exports from this country of dairy products for the ten months ended February 28, 1887, were $8,342,040, while the exports of the corresponding period in 1888 were $10,113,171.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

Twenty-Two Persons Killed and Forty Injured in a Railway Wreck. SAVANNAH, Ga., March 20.—A terrible accident, causing the death of twenty-two persons and the serious injury of about forty more, happened on the Savannah, Florida & Great Western railroad at Blackshear Saturday morning. The vestibule fast mail called the "Cuban" train, which runs through from New York to Tampa, Fla., was on the trestle at Hurricane river and plunged forty feet to the ground beneath. The wreck was a fearful one, every car except the private coach of E. B. Wilbur, president of the Lehigh Valley road, being crushed to splinters. George Gould and his wife were on the train, but were not badly hurt. A son of President Wilbur was killed.

The trestle of Hurricane river is 800 feet in length, and the trestle at the west end of the west end, the tender and engine lodging against the abutment. The baggage-car left the track on the trestle, which accounts for the accident. The ties which were the wheels cut deep into them. It was this car that, by its strain, dragged the tender down, the engine having safely crossed over.

THE NEW CHINESE TREATY. It Is Ready for Action by the Senate—Prominent Features. WASHINGTON, March 19.—The President has sent the new Chinese treaty to the Senate, but it has not yet been laid before that body, as no secret session has been held since its arrival. Its main features have been published. It is understood that the President recommends in his message to Congress that the treaty be secreted but once removed from the treaty.

[The treaty, by its terms, runs twenty years. A Chinese laborer who has 11,000 worth of property here, or that amount due him, or who has a lawful husband or wife or a parent or child here may, if absent, return within one year, or if detained by illness, the time may be extended to two years. No other Chinese laborer may come in on any terms. Chinese merchants, scholars and students may come only when provided with certificates issued by an American Consul. The treaty binds this country to pay to the Chinese Minister 127,000 within one year, which sum shall be accepted as a full settlement of all claims against the United States or her citizens for loss or injury suffered by Chinese here.]

POWDERLY SCORED. Mayor Hewitt, of New York, Sits Down Bather Heavily Upon the Chief of the Knights of Labor. NEW YORK, March 20.—The Journal of United Labor publishes a three-column article which attacks Mayor Hewitt in strong terms. It alleges that the mayor is a friend, protector and a member of one of the "Life Supplying Trusts." Mr. Hewitt said Saturday:

"Mr. Powderly, the writer of that article, simply lies. I know that this is strong language to apply to any man, but it fits a man like Powderly, who could write such a scurrilous article. I am not a member of any trust, and I never have been. I am opposed to trusts, and have so said in public. I will thank Powderly for proof of his statement. This valiant knight also says that I have denounced combinations of labor but have been silent about combinations of capital. This is also untrue. I have said, and now say, that the acts of the ignorant and the ignorant poor to injure or paralyze the business interests of the country are in violation of the fundamental principles of humanity."

Drowned by Millions. SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—The steamer Oceanic arrived from Hong Kong and Yokohama Saturday morning. The China papers confirm the reports of the disastrous earthquake in the Provinces of Yunnan and Szechuen, but give few additional details. Several cities were destroyed and about 20,000 lives lost. Latest reports from the scene of the Yellow River floods six months ago state the number of lives lost by the inundation at between 1,500,000 and 2,000,000.

Condition of the Wheat Crop. WASHINGTON, March 20.—According to a summary of crop news received by the outlook for winter wheat is not favorable. Fields in Ohio, Iowa and Southern Michigan have been bare of snow in alternately freezing and thawing weather, and in those States the average condition is very low. Kansas, Wisconsin, Missouri and Illinois show the best prospects.

Horses Dying by Scores. KEW YORK, March 17.—Horses in this city have been attacked by a sudden and fatal malady, which is killing them by scores. The disease is called astasia, or uriemio blood-poisoning, and is attended with such fearful suffering that the most merciful treatment is to kill the poor brutes outright.

The Lessons of "Inger Fritz" Case.

The greatest doctor in Europe don't seem to know what ails "Inger Fritz." Thus are the Garfield and Grant episodes repeated, and public confidence in "expert" medical knowledge is a vain shaken. The effect is a revulsion. Since the fatal days of 1883, many of the doctrines of the schoolmen concerning extensive medication have been abandoned, and all schools of practice are more and more relying upon old-fashioned simple root and herb preparations and careful nursing—the only reliance known to our ancestor.

These methods and reliance are illustrated today in a series of old-fashioned roots and herbs preparations recently given to the world by the well-known proprietors of Warner's safe cure—preparations made from formula, possessed by many of our oldest families, and rescued for popular use, and issued under the happy designation of Warner's Log Cabin Remedies.

"My son," exclaimed a venerable woman to the writer when he was a boy, "my son, you'll yell and pale and weak like lookin', you'll needin' a good shaking up with some sarsaparil."

A jug of spring sarsaparilla was just as necessary in the winter supplies of fifty years ago as a barrel of pork and a famous medical authority says that the very general prevalence of the use of such a preparation as Log Cabin Sarsaparilla explains the rugged health of our ancestors.

While Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla is an excellent remedy for all seasons of the year, it is particularly valuable in the spring, when the system is full of sluggish blood and requires a natural constitutional tonic and invigorator to resist colds and pneumonia, and the effects of a long winter.

Phil M. Parsons, clerk of the City of Hartford, Conn., was prostrated with cold which, he says, "seemed to settle through my body. I neglected it, and the result was my blood became impoverished and poisoned, indicated by inflamed eyes. I was obliged to wear a shade over them. I feared that I would be obliged to give up work."

"Under the operation of Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla and Liver Pills," he says, "The sore and inflamed eyes disappeared. My blood, I know, is in a healthier condition than it has been for years. I have a much better appetite. I shall take several more bottles for safety's sake. Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla is a great blood purifier and I most heartily commend it."

A few bottles of Warner's Log Cabin Sarsaparilla used in the family now will save many a week of sickness and many a dollar of bills. Use no other. This is the oldest, most thoroughly tested, and the best, is put up in the largest sarsaparilla bottle on the market, containing 120 doses. There is no other preparation of similar name that can equal it. The name of its manufacturers is a guarantee of its superior worth.

While the great doctors wrangle over the technicalities of an advanced medical science that can not cure disease, such simple preparations yearly snatch millions from untimely graves.

A J-stints; Ushod Clergyman's Tutlmoajr, Rev. B. M. Pickens, President of the Methodist Protestant Church of South Carolina, writes from Greenville:

"About four years ago I was attacked with the physicians pronounced neuralgic rheumatism, accompanied with erysipela. My appetite failed me entirely, and I had an intermitting pulse and very irregular pulsations of the heart. A terrible pain soon came into my chest and shoulders, and I became so helpless that I could attend to no business at all. The pains were movable, and would sometimes pass from one part of my body to another. Finally the erysipelas broke out on my left hand and arm, and produced much swelling. I was for eighteen months afflicted in this way, and of course used a great many kinds of medicines, but nothing gave me relief. Friends finally persuaded me to try Swift's Specific. I noticed a decided improvement while taking the first bottle. I continued its use until I had taken about one dozen bottles, when I found myself sound and well again, with no sign of disease left except a stiffness in my hand, a result of the erysipelas. While taking the medicine I gained on an average two pounds of flesh per week. I think S. S. S. is a valuable medicine, and I frequently recommend it to my friend."

AFTER allowing for a reasonable amount of patriotism, it is yet true that both parties in Congress are largely playing for vantage ground in the presidential contest. This is really of more importance to them than reduction of the revenue or tariff reform. It is more largely true of the Democratic than of the Republican party. The Republicans already have their position chosen; the Democrats have yet to choose their ground. Some of them would do the best they could behind the weak fortification of free trade; others want a mixture in the make-up of the breast-works, and they probably will win. The Democrats will go into the campaign with mild free trade in some parts of Michigan, but with strong protection in the Saginaw valley. We should think that honest Democratic free traders and protectionists would gag at such methods of political warfare.

PREVENTION OF DISEASE.
 Sanitarians hope to be able to prevent the ravages of pneumonia and consumption; but they are already doing a great work in the prevention of typhoid fever, small-pox, diphtheria, and scarlet fever. In preventing typhoid fever, they pay special attention to securing pure drinking water. In preventing diphtheria and scarlet fever, they pay special attention to isolation and disinfection.

There is a vast amount of ignorance concerning these diseases. Even the expert sanitarians know little enough. In Ann Arbor we often hear it stated that we need sewers to prevent diphtheria. Now, probably the introduction of a first-class system of sewers into Ann Arbor would not have the slightest effect in preventing diphtheria and scarlet fever. Those diseases apparently are spread largely, if not entirely, by infected clothing, houses, persons, etc. The question as to the influence of sewers and general water supplies on the death-rates from diphtheria, scarlet fever, and typhoid fever has been worked out with great care for the leading cities of the world, and there can be no doubt that diphtheria and scarlet fever are not controlled by such things. In the absence of rigid isolation of patients and scientific disinfection, nothing can prevent diphtheria and scarlet fever from spreading in a country as thickly settled as Michigan. It has been amply demonstrated that those two diseases follow lines of railroad, and that towns like Detroit, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Jackson, and Ann Arbor are centers from which they spread into the country. We do not mean to say that diphtheria and scarlet fever cannot be conveyed by drinking water under any circumstances; it is possible that that may be one means of the spread; but in the absence of isolation and disinfection, the utmost care in regard to the purity of the soil and drinking water will not avail with those diseases.

Typhoid fever and Asiatic cholera, on the contrary, seem to depend almost entirely on the soil water. Typhoid fever seems to be spread almost entirely by water; and hence the purity of soil from which the water is drawn becomes of great importance. Hence it is that public water-supplies and public sewers, doing away with the well and privy draining into each other, are of the utmost importance. As Michigan has about 10,000 cases of typhoid fever each year, it is a large item. Then, if Asiatic cholera should ever visit Michigan, the town with the fewest privy-vaults, cess-pools, and wells would be the most likely to escape.

From these facts, it becomes the duty of our city government to provide for the best possible system of supervising outbreaks of diphtheria and scarlet fever. We ought to have a health officer for Ann Arbor so well paid that he could afford to give up his practice and devote himself to the health interests of the city. We do not mean to cast any reflection upon our present health authorities; undoubtedly they do as well as possible under the circumstances. It is also the duty of the city to provide for the abatement of the privy-vault and cess-pool nuisances in the city, and that can only be done by having sewers. As we suggested last week, it can be partially accomplished by the dry-earth closet system if carried on by the city.

TUB anarchists are at it again in Chicago. Last Sunday 1500 of them were stirred to great excitement by the speech that was made. Here is one of the passages:
 "Vive la Commune. Aye, Vive la Commune. This glorious sentence thundered upon the ears of the tyrants and money-grabbers 17 years ago. The world trembled at the sound. The thieves of the bourse, the pulp and the press shook like autumn leaves in a high wind.
 It is questionable how far such meetings should be permitted. Most of the anarchists are cowardly; but a few among them may be roused by these meetings to such a pitch that they will dare anything. Many others, by constantly brooding over the actual and fancied injustice in our social system, will become crazed and ready for blood. In the course of 50 years, Chicago will be in a dangerous condition, and in the meantime such incidents as the Haymarket tragedy may be expected. It is a gloomy outlook; but who is there that can give a good reason why it is not a correct outlook?

FARMERS AMITTIK I4BOB QUESTIONS.
 At a recent meeting of the Xorvell Farmer's club, an interesting paper on the Labor Problem was read by H. H. Raby. While he offers no solution of the difficulties, yet he showed a thoughtfulness and intelligence regarding the situation that is encouraging. The farmer, even though he hires others to work for him, is yet himself largely a hand laborer also, and unquestionably his returns, or his wages, are controlled in much the same way as the returns or wages of factory hands. It is the same with the merchant who stands behind the counter. High or low wages means large or small returns to the farmer and merchant as well as to the worker in mine and factory. The interests of all who live largely or entirely by productive labor, are the same. When the farmers come to see that their interests are identical with those of the strikers in east and west, one step forward will have been made. There are some exceedingly active and able farmers' clubs in and around Washtenaw county, which might do well to study the labor problem as the Norvell club is doing. In the discussion which followed Mr. Raby's paper, one gentleman is reported as saying: "Whisky is the great cause of trouble between capital and labor." Although the manufacture and sale of liquor are evils which should be prohibited, it cannot be true that whisky causes all the labor troubles. It is not responsible for the fact that hundreds of thousands of sober men and women cannot find employment. It is not responsible for strikes, for falling wages and for the low price of wheat. If the Xorvell and other farmer clubs would send delegates to the proposed labor congress in Detroit next summer, they would gain much solid information on the labor question.

MRI MORTGAGES.
 The fifth annual report of the Michigan bureau of labor has just reached us. It is given up to the subject of farm mortgages. The information was obtained from supervisors who gathered the data directly from the farmers at the time of taking the assessment of their respective townships during April, 1887. It is entitled to credit, because more than one-half of all the farms in the state were reported, sufficient for statistical purposes, and the figures are evidently under the truth. On the farms reported the mortgage indebtedness is $37,456,272, nearly 50 per cent of the assessed value of the farms mortgaged. This yields an interest of $2,701,609 annually, the average rate being 7.2 per cent. Estimating all the farms in the state on the basis of the reports received, and the mortgage indebtedness amounts to $64,392,580.80, with an annual interest of $4,636,265.81. Thus the farmers of Michigan are paying, annually, not far from five millions of dollars as interest, to say nothing of the principle.

In Washtenaw county only the townships of Augusta, Dexter, Lodi, Manchester, Pittsfield, Salem, Scio, Sharon, Webster and York were reported. The number of farms reported was 1,346; number occupied by tenants, 117; assessed valuation of farms occupied by owners, $5,912,945; by tenants, $596,480. Of the farms reported, 590 were mortgaged; their assessed valuation is $2,569,925, and mortgage indebtedness, $1,231,331. The total interest paid annually by these farms is $78,658.68, which is a fraction over $1.65 per acre on the improved land mortgaged. The number of mortgage foreclosures during the year was 30; redemptions, none. This showing for Washtenaw is pretty much like that of other counties of the same grade.

GENERAL MASTER WORKMAN POWDEBELV has very recently sent a letter to the Knights of Labor advocating the government ownership of coal lands. He also wants the U. S. government to operate the coal mines, placing coal at the door of every man who desires it. It is probably the result of his brooding over the recent unsuccessful strike. This letter will do much to confirm the impression now abroad that Powderly is not a very clear thinker and well-balanced man. His proposition is such a stupendous one that it will do no harm. Of course, it is a plea for state socialism. If the government should go into the coal business, it ought to undertake all businesses, and that is what the state socialist wants. We want no state socialism. But the coal monopoly must be broken up, or such socialistic ideas will surely gain ground. It is said that 13 men monopolize the coal of the United States. That isn't right. Everything in the shape of monopoly is wrong. But there must be some way to get rid of monopoly without having the government manage all industry. One good effect of Powderly's letter will be the discussion which it will excite in newspapers and in knights of labor assemblies concerning the land question and the labor situation generally.

Probate Order.
 STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WASHTENAW.
 At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Washtenaw, holden at the Probate Office in the City of Ann Arbor, on Thursday, the fifteenth day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight.
 Present, WILLIAM D. HARRIMAN, Judge of Probate.
 In the matter of the estate of Byron V. Oeever, deceased.
 On reading and filing a petition, duly verified, of Jennie L. Cheever, praying that a certain instrument now on file in this court, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, may be admitted to probate, and that she may be appointed executrix thereof.
 Thereupon it is ordered, That Monday, the sixteenth day of April next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and the devisees, legatees, and heirs at law of said deceased and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said court, then to be holden at the Probate Office, in the City of Ann Arbor, in said County, and show cause, if any there be, why the said account should not be granted. And it is further ordered that said Guardian give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency of said account, and the hearing thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the Ann Arbor REGISTER, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county, three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing.

COME TO HEADQUARTERS FOR OCEAN WING AND GEAR FURNISHING

COUNTY NEWS.

Saline hasn't an empty house. Henry Steigelmeyer, of Bridgewater, recently had his arm frightfully cut by a buzz saw.

Edward Easterly, of Saline, will go into the grocery business in Milan with his brother.

Clara, a 15-year-old daughter of Daniel Case, of Milan, died March 12, of typhoid fever.

A. N. Hodgeman, of Scio, has a lamb that weighed 15 pounds when one day old. The Dexter Leader says so.

Dr. D. W. Berdan, a former Saline boy, has been elected president of Cheboygan on the Republican ticket.

Miss Bond, of Pittsfield, has been engaged to teach the spring term of school in the Silver Lake district of Freedom.

Miss Myra Spafard, of Manchester, on account of poor health has been obliged to discontinue her course at Cooper's institute, New York city.

The Saline Methodists will have an anniversary service Sunday, March 25. A "large five-story pyramid fruit-cake" will be there to get in their work.

It is thought that the next winter will finish the stove and heading business at Milan. A. H. Hayden, who is interested in that business, will go south to look for a location to which to move the factory.

It is reported that George W. Ambrose, a graduate of the University, now a prominent lawyer of Omaha, has accepted an invitation to deliver the address at the annual Sharon picnic next August.

The Manchester Presbyterian ladies' society have elected as president, Mrs. C. J. Robinson; vice presidents, Miss Matie Short, Mrs. A. W. Holt, and Mrs. C. W. Case; secretary, Miss Matie Sanford; treasurer, Mrs. J. F. Neatell.

There were three tickets in the Milan election last week. Result: President, Dr. E. F. Pyle; trustees, J. S. Bray, A. E. Gardner, Robert Swazey, W. W. Whaley; clerk, C. A. Moore; treasurer, J. Henry Ford; street commissioner, P. M. Edwards; assessor, R. W. Trussell; constable, H. M. Dexter.

In the Saline charter election there was only one ticket. Result: Myron Webb, president; Lyman L. Kilby, clerk; trustees, Howard T. Nichols, C. C. Kink, G. J. Nissly; treasurer, O. M. Kelsey; assessor, John McKinnon; street commissioner, M. D. Wallace; constable, Frederick Jerry.

The State crop report for March is out. In Washtenaw county, 12 reporters said that wheat suffered during February, and 6 said that it hadn't. Two said that the ground had been well covered with snow during February; and 19 thought differently. The report indicates that Washtenaw county farmers yet hold 18 per cent, of the old crop of wheat.

The Saline people chased a supposed mad dog "all over town and a good share of the four townships," finally killing it. The Observer says: "The carcass has been hung from the top of the council hall tower, as a warning to all strange dogs that may enter the city gates, to conduct themselves in a proper and gentlemanly manner, that they may not follow in the path of this poor dog gone to the happy hunting grounds."

The Farmers' Vigilance association of the townships of Superior, Ann Arbor, and Salem now has officers as follows: President, Ira Crippen; vice president, Wm. Geer; secretary, F. P. Galpin; treasurer, John G. Rooke; executive committee, Superior, O. Lathrop, A. H. Collins; Ann Arbor, Fred. Braun, E. Popkins; Salem, T. Walker, H. Forshee. An adjourned meeting of the association will be held at Dixboro, April 10, at 1 p. m.

The Manchester charter election last week resulted in electing Amariah Conklin, president; Nathaniel Schmid, trustee; John F. Neatell, clerk; and Benj. G. Lovejoy, assessor, without opposition. Their names were on both the "Citizen" and "People's" tickets. Thomas J. Farrell, Citizen, was elected trustee, against William Koebbe, People. For treasurer, George J. Haebussler had 141, and Warren Kimble, 109. Street Commissioner, Norton S. Case, 160 votes, and Harvey L. Rose, 91.

Webster Farmer's club held its March meeting at G. W. Phelps. Mrs. Sears read a paper on "Where does economy in the home end and stinginess begin?" She thought it easy to draw the line when one brings such a reward, and the other a curse. Mrs. A. L. Olsaver also read a short essay on the same general subject of economy and stinginess. She said: "The practice of the housewife keeping a debit and credit account may be all right, but it has a tendency to make them try a little more every year to cut down expenses, and they will drift unconsciously into that detestable habit of stinginess." The question of "Best methods of preparing ground for spring crops" was discussed by O. W. Cushing, E. Cranon, E. A. Nordman, Amos Phelps, John Kenny, Ira Backus, and Wm. Ball. The next meeting will be held at H. T. Phelps.

Whitmore Lake.
The meat market is ready for business. The hotels are beginning to make preparations for the season of 1888. Miss Minnie Horner, of Cherry Hill, will teach the summer school. The social at Mrs. M. Stevens', last Friday evening, was well attended. The Free Press company have managed to get their papers here on the 7:45 train. Pray and Stiles are agents. Miss Anna Rane will attend the Ann Arbor high school next term. The law prohibiting spearing on Whitmore Lake will be rigidly enforced this spring. Howell saloon-keepers finding that they must flee, have been searching for a place to open a saloon here. Doubtful what success they will meet. They will probably make an effort to sell on the east side if they cannot on the west. Many in Whitmore Lake think it is a shame that our county should be made the place of refuge for the abolished nuisances of the adjoining counties. Fred. Roper and wife have returned to Ann Arbor. The ice-shiping project has proved a failure for this year. Dick Brown's house is nearly completed. The wheat crop has been considerably damaged about here. Mrs. H. Spiegeberg is recovering from a week's sickness. The new street making an opening to the T. A. & N. M. depot will soon be passable. A social will be given by the M. E. society at the residence of Geo. M. Field, on the evening of March 30. Worden Stiles visited at Fowlerville recently. Misses Addie and Bessie and Mr. Collie Stevens, of Ann Arbor, spent last Saturday at the Lake. Birkett.

Four inches of snow.—Robins look (times) sick.—Miss Fannie Bell returned from Detroit yesterday, sick with scarlatina.—The heirs of Geo. Howard, who died about four years ago, have petitioned for an administrator, and Geo. C. Page, of Dexter, has been appointed. Pittsfield.

Miss Addie Wilsey has been quite ill, but is better.—The young people held a surprise party at M. M. Hoving's last week.—Mrs. David DePue is spending a couple of weeks in Detroit with her daughter, Mrs. Hadzits.—Gus Aenus and wife, accompanied by John Barrenger, a brother of the latter, started Monday for Clarion, ten miles from Petoskey, where they intend to reside. Chelsea.

R. A. Snyder has opened a grocery store in Wood Brothers' block.—B. Parker will open a boot and shoe store in the McKone block, early in April.—Ice boats have been put upon Four-Mile lake, and several of our citizens have enjoyed some very fast and exciting sailing. There is lots of fun in it. Sail boats, in summer, are no where in comparison. As for danger no one has been able, so far, to discover where it could come in. Nodanger of drowning surely. Toboggan slides are not wanted here. The boats belong to Chas. Steinbach and Mort. Freer.—A meeting of the W. W. & E. J. fair association was held here last Saturday, to determine premiums and appoint judges for their next annual fair, to be held at this place.—The sun stood vertically over the earth's equator on Wednesday morning, March 21, at 4 o'clock and 1 minute, thus producing what is called the vernal equinox.—Next Sunday will be Palm Sunday, and the Sunday following, April 1, Easter.—The feathered harbingers of spring, except the swallows and the martins, are here.

Ypsilanti.
Mr. and Mrs. Max Pease will make their future home in Oscoda.—Suffering under temporary insanity, E. R. Forsythe took his own life, last Friday. He was to have been sent to Pontiac in a day or two.—Mrs. S. Rorison and sister, Miss Lenora Platt, have sold their little farm near the city, and will take up a temporary residence with friends in Detroit.—Mr. Norton, postal clerk on the Hillsdale branch, has laid his head on the official chopping block, and is succeeded by Mr. Underhill, of Kalamazoo.

W. S. Canfield has returned from Pontiac greatly improved in health and mind.—A number of ladies and children have recently been greatly frightened by meeting a "stalwart" ghost in the evening, whose salutation was generally a peculiar hissing noise through his teeth, which was very terrifying under the circumstances. Marshal Palmer has had his eye open and club ready for a number of weeks, and it is reported that he has caught the ghostly disturber of the peace, but for certain reasons refuses to give the man's name.—There must be a boom in the air somewhere; real estate is going up, rents are higher, workingmen busy, and the city seems in a general busy rush altogether.—F. S. Finley is moving back to his farm, and will rent his property on Huron-st. St. Patrick's Day at Chelsea.

The celebration in honor of St. Patrick, that was held last Wednesday evening at the Town Hall, the first of the kind ever held here, was an interesting and memorable event. The hall was beautifully and appropriately decorated. Over the stage on a half-raised curtain were the mottoes "Erin Go Bragh" (Ireland forever) and "Cead Mile Failte" (100,000 welcomes) with a papal banner bearing a gilded miter suspended from the lower edge. An Irish League banner, with the "harp of Erin" embroidered in the center, supported right and left by the stars and stripes, hung from the gallery front, while the chandelier was ablaze with the red, white and blue. A 6 o'clock ample banquet, such as Chelsea ladies know so well how to prepare, was served in the basement, after which the "feast of reason and the flow of soul" was served in the audience room to a congregation of nearly four hundred attentive and delighted listeners. Besides the performers, upon the stage were Fr. Savage, once a Chelsea boy, and Fr. Doherty, both of Detroit; Fr. Fierle, Sheriff Walsh and Postmaster Puffy, of Ann Arbor; Fr. Loughran, of Dexter; and Fr. Buysse, of Jackson. The program consisted of toasts, essays and songs, and was well executed from beginning to end, varied only by the occasional introduction of an amusing song by J. E. Harkins, of Ann Arbor. Of the toasts, "The Day we Celebrate" was responded to by Geo. B. Greening; "The President of the United States," by Hon. Jas. S. Gorman; "Gladstone," by T. D. Kearney, Esq.; "The Ladies," by Chas. V. O'Connor; "The Irish American," by M. J. Cavanaugh; "Home Rule," by H. V. Heatley. Miss Agnes McKone read an interesting essay on "The Poetry of Ireland," and Miss B. S. Greening, one on "The Exiles of Erin." All these performers have headquarters at Chelsea, except Messrs. Kearney and O'Connor, who hail from Ann Arbor. The speeches were excellent, without exception; filled with noble, patriotic sentiment for their adopted country, as well as loving, pathetic allusions to their father land. The songs were appropriate and performed in a spirited and tasteful manner, under the leadership of H. V. Heatley, who sang one himself, entitled "Home Rule for Ireland," which he also composed for the occasion. The handsome sum of $150 was taken at the door; and the whole affair was a triumphant success.

Dexter.
The Methodist society had a leap year social at the residence of L. W. Briggs, last Friday night. A novelty was the men taking the place of the women in waiting upon the table and washing dishes. Another laughable performance was the "humanophone." The Baptist people had a social at Mrs. E. K. Taylor's, last evening.—Miss Luella Sill will be married, Wednesday evening, to Mr. Edgar, of Detroit. The ceremony takes place in the M. E. church. Dr. Adams officiating.—Miss Mamie O'Brien and Miss Nellie Hoy "took the white veil" a week ago last Monday. Some of their friends went to Monroe to witness the ceremony.—Rev. Mr. Claffin gave a very instructive and entertaining lecture to the high school literary society last Friday.—Dr. S. L. Jenny was "down town" for the first time since his sickness, last Monday.—Prof. Arndt and family were in Dexter last Saturday.—A. R. Beal was in Detroit, Monday. While there he met Mr.

Vail, of the D. B. B. C., and discussed the base ball situation. Saline.

Jonas Bond on Henry-st is very sick.—The social at Orin Parson's was largely attended.—Martin Burroughs is confined to the house with a fever.—G. B. Willard and Mrs. R. H. Marsh received the prizes at the skating rink, March 16.—Jacob Lutz is around again after a long spell of sickness.—Miss Nannie Bond closed her school in the Judd district, March 16, with an exhibition.—The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Clark is on the sick list.—Pearly Jones, who has been sick for 2 years, with heart disease, died March 13.—Surprise party for Anna Cobb March 16.—Mrs. J. H. Warner is visiting at Charlotte.—Charles Miller is confined to the house with rheumatism.—Several couples attended a card party at Tobias Sutherland's, in Pittsfield, March 14.—A. M. Clark and wife, of Ann Arbor, visited friends in town, March 16 and 17.—Chas. Jackson, of Roscommon county, made a short visit with his brother, W. J., one day last week.—W. P. Carson is laid up with a bad hand, caused by running a nail into it.—John Gordon and his engine have kept several of our city gangs busy watching him saw fence-slats for Jacob Sturm.—Mrs. Adam Stang is very sick with inflammation of the lungs.—Fred. Kader, of York, was buried March 15.—Mrs. M. Reynolds has returned from her visit at Mason.—G. C. Lindsley, John Dunn, and Ed. Rogers, all old farmer, are moving into town.—Nettie Sanford closed her winter term of school in district No. 9, March 17.—Will Brown leaves next week for Minnesota.—Dr. H. A. Nichols has gone to Indiana under the physician's care.

March 11 the citizens of Saline were suddenly thrown into excitement by the flying report that Samuel Hartwell and Herbert Lindsley had been bitten by a mad dog. Almost suddenly there were 20 to 25 men and boys out with their guns, and after the dog had bitten 30 or 40 other dogs and had had a tussel with some of the would-be dog-killers, they succeeded in killing the mad dog at 11 o'clock, Monday, but not until the marshal asked a marksman to take his gun and destroy the pestilence. Since that time the village has been quarantined against dogs, and those that have not lost their lives are compelled to wear a muzzle by order of the village president.

Impure Food.
Exceeding caution should be exercised in the purchase of a new article of food. Many recent cases of serious illness have been reported from the use of the new patent foods for infants, from untested baking powders, and cheap flavoring extracts. The desire for rapid wealth induces unscrupulous manufacturers to place anything before the public that will sell at a large profit, without regard to its usefulness or healthfulness. At present there is a great raid upon the baking powder market, and so many impure and adulterated articles of this kind have been found peddled about the country that the authorities in several of the States have taken the necessary action to expose them. The report of the Ohio State Food Commission has shown that a large number of the brands sold here are made from alum, phosphates, or a cheap and adulterated cream of tartar. The danger to the public is made still greater by the unblushing effrontery with which the proprietors of these impure powders advertise them as perfect, claiming for them all kinds of false and impossible endorsements.

The official report of the Ohio State Food Commission gives the names of a number of these impure powders, and the amount of impurity and inert matter in each as follows:

NAME.	PER CENT. OF IMPURITIES, ETC.
Dr. Pierce's.....	12.60
Sterling.....	12.63
Pearson's.....	14.30
Scioto(alum).....	18.25
Forest City (alum).....	24.04
Crown (alum).....	25.09
Silver Star (alum).....	31.88
De Land's.....	32.53
Horsford's (phosphate).....	36.49
Kenton (alum).....	38.17
Patapso (alum).....	40.08
One Spoon (alum).....	58.68

The impurities in the powders above-mentioned were found to consist of various matters more or less hurtful. In Dr. Price's powder the principal impurities were lime and Rochelle salts, which were found in large quantities. The impurities in Horsford's powder were composed of phosphate of soda, lime, etc., but none of the "nutritious phosphates," without which its manufacturers claim life cannot be sustained. The impurities found in the other powders named were principally alum and lime.

From the report of the Commission it is evident that the Royal Baking Powder is of the highest degree of strength and purity.

In (no Cirrmit Court.

OQ Thursday, March 15, the bar ardy case against Geo. F. Gale was discontinued.

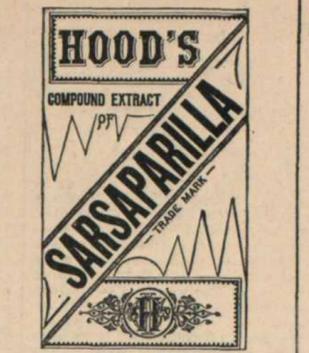

On March 16, Thomas Y. Kayne and John Deegan were admitted to citizenship. A decree of divorce was granted Eontna M. Minkley against George Minkley; and Carrie E. Jewell against Fletcher Jewell.

On Monday last the case of John W. Clark, administrator, vs. Hannah German, was taken up. The verdict was for the plaintiff; damages, 6 cents. This case was an appeal from a justice court in Ypsilanti, by the plaintiff. He claimed $100 damages, alleging that the defendant withheld certain property of her deceased husband which should be delivered to him as the administrator of the estate.

The case of the people vs. Charles Pierce and Joseph R. Oakley; larceny; pleaded guilty.

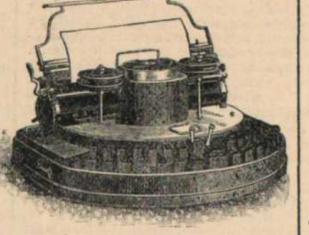

Jennie Westfall vs. Michigan Central R. R. Co. is occupying several days, and was not concluded this forenoon. Sawyer and Knowlton are for the plaintiff and Chas. R. Whitman and J. F. Lawrence for the company. There is another case just like it. On Jan. 26, 1887, Jennie Westfall, Maggie A. Ormsby, and John Hummell, of Lima township, drove to Chelsea. At the depot, the horses took fright and they were thrown from the carriage. She claims that the horses were frightened because of the fault of the company, and ask3 for $50,000 damages. The case is exciting much interest.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence. It is peculiar in that it strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. Give it a trial. Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold by all druggists. Prepared by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. 100 Doses One Dollar essay of Kinporor Frederick to Parliament—His Policy. BERLIN, March 21.—The royal message has read in the Prussian Landtag in united session Monday. It is countersigned by all the Ministers. It says: "We, Frederick, by the Grace of God, King of Prussia, hereby proclaim and make known that, it having pleased God after the demise of the Emperor and King William, our much-loved father, to call us to the throne of our ancestors, we have with us the Landtag our greeting, the sentiments and purposes with which we enter upon our government and the principles on which we would exercise our royal office have been proclaimed by us to our faithful people. Walking in the path of our glorious father we shall know no other aim than the happiness and welfare of the fatherland. By conscientiously observing the constitution, fully safeguarding all the prerogatives of the crown and loyally cooperating with the national representation, the King hopes, with God's help, to attain his object, which is the happiness and welfare of the country."

The condition of the Emperor's health prevents him from taking the oath personally. Desiring to declare without delay his position regarding the constitutional laws, although this could admit of no doubt, he now solemnly undertakes to adhere to the constitution firmly and inviolably and to rule in conformity with the law.

THE ENGINEERS' STRIKE.

CHICAGO, March 19.—The strike on the Santa Fe system ended yesterday and the engineers and firemen returned to their posts. This move was made in accordance with a request of Chief Arthur. The Burlington road was having very little trouble. Judge Oundy decided at Omaha that Union Pacific engineers were liable to arrest and imprisonment for refusing to handle Burlington business.

CHICAGO, March 21.—The only visible sign remaining yesterday of the great Burlington strike was the retention of their headquarters in this city by the Brotherhood. The contest itself was declared to be over, despite the rumors of a combination of switchmen and brakemen to help the engineers and firemen. The boycott on Burlington freight, which was the great stroke relied on by the engineers to win their demands, has been completely raised.

THE ROYAL BURIAL.

Funeral of Kuppel'or William at Berlin—Services in Other Cities.

BEKIN, March 17.—The funeral of the late Emperor William took place in this city yesterday, and was in all respects an affair of extraordinary splendor. Almost every civilized nation on earth was represented. Memorial services were also held in all the leading capitals of the world. Dispatches received here say services were held in Washington in the Concordia Lutheran Church, and were attended by the President and members of his Cabinet and officials connected with the foreign legations. In London the Queen attended private service in Windsor Castle private chapel, and similar marks of honor were exhibited by the Czar and Czarina at St. Petersburg and by the Austrian Emperor and Archdukes at Vienna.

PEARL RIVER HARBOR, HAWAII.

Will Be Ceded to the United States Forever—Cost of Improvements.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 21.—Information has reached here from Honolulu that an extensive examination of Pearl River harbor, in the Hawaiian Islands, has been completed by a force of United States naval officers. It is stated that estimates and plans which have been sent to Washington convey the information that it will cost $700,000 to make the entrance available for the new cruisers now being constructed by the United States. It is understood that Congress is urged to appropriate that amount Hawaiian papers speak well of the project. It is understood in Honolulu that the cession of the harbor is virtually forever.

A Set-Back to Chicago.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 17.—The State Supreme Court has decided the act of the Legislature to be unconstitutional under which several suburban villages were annexed to Chicago. Embarrassments almost without end will arise in consequence of this decision. All that has been done as regards the redistricting of the city and the addition of new wards goes for nothing, and the registration for the spring elections is completely nullified.

Reading strike Formally Declared Off.

PITTSBURGH, March 10.—The long and stubborn strike of the Reading employees was officially declared off Wednesday night by a convention of delegates representing the local assemblies in the Reading employees' convention, and the men were given the right to apply for their old positions as individuals.

Sale of an Express Company.

NEW YORK, March 20.—The Erie Railroad Express Company has been purchased by the Wells-Fargo Company, which heretofore has done no business east of Chicago except through other express companies. The Wells-Fargo will now control 33,000 miles of railroad, and is the largest express company in the world.

Death of a Cuban Patriot.

NEW YORK, March 20.—Miguel de Aldama, the Cuban patriot, who spent over $1,000,000 in the cause of the people, died Sunday after a short illness at his residence in Havana. The body will be brought to New York for burial at Greenwood Cemetery, where the other members of his family are buried.

Down an Embankment.

SALTILLO, Mex., March 16.—A train on the Mexican railway jumped the track yesterday near here, and one car containing thirty laborers rolled down an embankment, killing six and seriously injuring twenty.

Business Bill.

NEW YORK, March 17.—The business failures during the past seven days number for the United States 202, for Canada, 26; total, 228, compared with 251 last week, and 252 for the corresponding week in 1887.

Death of a Veteran of Balaklava.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 17.—John Reynolds, said to have been the only soldier of the "Light Brigade" on the American continent who possessed medals attesting his bravery at Balaklava, Sebastopol, Inkerman and Alma, was buried Thursday.

Prohibition in Michigan.

DETROIT, Mich., March 17.—Oscoda County voted for prohibition yesterday and closes the elections for the year. Thirty-five counties have voted and all but two went dry. Prohibition goes into effect May 1 and continues three years.

Logging in Wisconsin.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., March 17.—Estimates of the season's logging on the Black River and its tributaries, in this State, place the amount banked to date at 140,000,000 feet.

Accidentally Killed.

POME, Ill., March 17.—Thursday evening Mr. William Estes, coming home from a day's hunting, walking beside his daughter-in-law, slipped and fell, and his gun was discharged, killing Mrs. Estes instantly.
