To the Common Council of the City of Ann Arbor:
GENTLEMEN:—I herewith submit my annual report of the city finances for the year ending March 1, 1890.

Yours Respectfully,
W. W. WATTS, City Treasurer.

The council then adjourned, to meet again Tuesday evening, Apr. 1, at 7.30.

Shot Himself in the Head.

Sunday morning, Fred Ehnis visited the house of John Webber, on S. Main-st., near the toll-gate, and found the doors locked, Webber calling to him that he could not come in then and telling him to come around the next morning. Ehnis went again Monday morning, and peering through the window saw Webber lying on a couch, his face being covered with blood. A revolver laid on his breast and other appearances showed that Webber had undoubtedly taken his life.

Ehnis immediately notified the sheriff and John Muehlig, who went to the house, broke open the door and found Webber dead. The body was removed to Muehlig's undertaking rooms, where an inquest was held.

Webber evidently went to work deliberately to commit suicide. Sunday he spent in drawing his will, which was a unique document making disposal of $12 in cash and his personal effects. He then placed two pillows behind him on a sofa, placed the muzzle of an ugly looking bulldog revolver to his forehead, and pulled the trigger. Death must have been instantaneous as his head lay peacefully on the pillows with his hands dropped down. Dependancy and constant quarreling between himself and his children, who did not live with him, were probably the causes which led to this rash act.

The Adelphi Society will meet on Friday evening of this week, instead of Saturday evening as is customary.

A paper on "Ice Machines," by Prof. M. E. Cooley, will fill out the program of the Engineering Society meeting, Friday evening.

Prof. Freer will read a paper on "Madder and Alizarin Dyeing," which will be illustrated by experiments, before the Chemical Society, tomorrow evening.

The U. of M. ball team have made dates at Cornell, May 16, and Syracuse, May 17. On the same trip they will probably play teams from Madison, Rochester and Union colleges.

Miss Gertrude Breede, graduate of the University now teaching modern languages in the Lansing high school, is talking straight English this week, to her parents and many friends in this city.

The thesis on "Capital Punishment," written by T. Mogi, a Japanese student in the law department, has been published and placed on sale. The pamphlet is an interesting one and contains considerable valuable information.

The sophomores have made up their minds to be at the front in base ball circles this season. At a class meeting held Saturday morning, the following base ball directors were elected: A. F. Brown, N. P. Wood, F. C. Smith, W. C. Quarles and F. S. Porter.

To-morrow evening the literary and law classes in oratory will meet in the law lecture room for a joint discussion, the subject being "The Negro Question." Those representing the two classes will be: I. G. W. Roth, J. W. Freeman and M. G. McClung; laws, W. V. Rinehart, B. Cluff and L. Z. Caukin.

The Webster Society, last evening, had a discussion on the question of whether the adoption of the theory promulgated in Bellamy's "Looking Backward" would be better for the people of this country than the theory of Henry George. Either one would be fatal to the republic and it would be hard to choose between the two evils.

Prof. Stanley gave an organ recital at the Westminster Presbyterian church, Detroit, Saturday evening, of which the Free Press says: "The organ recital at the Westminster Presbyterian Church last evening, was listened to by a large and appreciative audience. That modest gentleman and fine artist, Prof. A. A. Stanley, presided at the organ, and was ably assisted by Mrs. Charles Wright. The program was made up of selections from Italian composers. Mr. Stanley played selections from Frescobaldi, Scarlatti, Boccherini, Fumagelli and Rossini. The minutet by Boccherini was a pretty bit and the fantasia in E major by Fumagelli was warmly applauded. The best work of Mr. Stanley, and that which showed him to best advantage, was the overture to William Tell, which was given with grand effect. Mrs. Wright sang a prayer, "O Gracious Lord," by Marchesi, and the aria "An quel giorno," from Rossini's Semiramide. In response to an encore she sang without accompaniment, "Hu h Thee, My Baby," in a manner to win enthusiastic applause. It was a test of the real artist and she was equal to it. The second recital will be given Saturday evening, April 12. The selections will illustrate the German school.

IN MEMORIAM.
The students of the law department held a joint meeting last Thursday, and adopted the following resolutions on the death of Judge Campbell:
Dept. of Law, University of Michigan.

March 27, 1890.
WHEREAS it has pleased Almighty God in the dispensation of an all-wise Providence to call from his labors in the midst of an active and useful life, the citizen, educator and jurist, in the person of Hon. James V. Campbell, and WITNESSES the field of his usefulness had become so broad that the state and nation now mourn his loss; yet we are reminded that his honored name was among those of the first instructors of this institution, and that it was his strong arm which helped bear up our Alma Mater in her infancy; therefore it is meet that we students of the Department of Law of the University of Michigan should manifest our deep regret at the loss of one who not only ennobled our profession, but left the impress of his strong personality and great and varied learning upon the students of his profession during a twenty-five years' labor in the Department of Law.

Therefore be it resolved, that we add our testimony of respect and grief to the universal expression of sorrow at the great loss to the bar and society of so able a jurist, so excellent an instructor and so pure a man.
Resolved that we extend our sympathies to the bereaved family.
Resolved that these resolutions be sent to the family and inscribed on our records, and a copy published in the news papers.

JAMES SWAN, Chairman,
J. C. PETHERBRIDGE,
J. P. FLOUNRY,
V. A. POWELL,
W. W. PHELPS,
W. E. THOMPSON.

Resolutions of the Senate.
The University Senate met on Monday evening and adopted resolutions to the memory of Justice J. V. Campbell, who for so many years assisted in the up-building of the law department of the university. From the resolutions, the following is taken:

"The senate is again in mourning. It has learned with sorrowful emotion of the death of one of its former members, Mr. Justice James V. Campbell, of the supreme court. Death came to him without warning on the morning of March 26, and in a moment the silver cord of life was loosed and his golden bowl was broken. Believing profoundly in the truth of his own words that 'there are few more profitable possessions for any learned institution than the memories of those who have made their lives a part of its history,' we desire to place this memorial on the records of the Senate as an expression of the esteem we entertain for one of the most distinguished names connected with the history of the University of Michigan. Although the veil of death has been drawn between him and the living, and we shall not look upon his face again, yet his fame and honor remain as imperishable. We enroll his name in that catalogue of names that in the future years shall serve to make the annals of the university resplendent. For while we rest from his labors, his works do follow him."

After following the early events of his life, the memorial continues:

"In 1839 the law department of the University was opened and Judge Campbell was made Marshal professor of law. On Monday, October 3, 1839, the work of the law school began, the opening address being delivered by Judge Campbell in the Presbyterian church before the law class and the public generally, his theme being 'The Study of the Law.' His associates in the faculty at that time, and for many years thereafter, were Thomas M. Cooley and Charles D. Walker, and together they constituted a splendid triumvirate. Under their guidance the school grew and prospered, and its fame spread throughout this and other lands. Thousands of students during the quarter of a century that Judge Campbell continued connected with the school, have sat under his instruction, been impressed by the profundity of his knowledge, charmed by the grace of his diction, ennobled by the purity of his life, and blessed by the beneficence of his countenance. The news of his death will carry sorrow to the bar of every state and territory in our country. In 1885 Judge Campbell reluctantly resigned his professorship in the law school, being compelled so to do by his advancing years and the pressure of his judicial duties, which were each year becoming more exacting.

"There but one man living to-day whose connection with the University antedates that of Judge Campbell, and his does but by a single year. In 1845-46 Judge Campbell was secretary of the Board of Regents. He was a man of such high character and such a noble mind, that the Senate most deeply sympathizes with the family so greatly bereaved, and implores for them the consolation that comes from knowing that it has been divinely written: 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.'

"This University will ever honor the memory of Mr. Justice Campbell, and while it mourns his death with deep sensibility, it is thankful that in the providence of God he was enabled to achieve so much. The Senate most deeply sympathizes with the family so greatly bereaved, and implores for them the consolation that comes from knowing that it has been divinely written: 'Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord.'

Dexterites are agitating the question of water works for fire protection, etc., on a small scale. A hydraulic ram, mill creek, a few rods of pipe, the public cistern and a watering-trough, constitute the full equipment asked for.

Sentinel: East siders are making an effort to secure a fountain. John Gilbert has a handsome residence lot on Cross street, which will be raffled off for $200, and by means of generous subscriptions it is expected enough will be raised to purchase a fine fountain.

Ypsilanti: Friends and neighbors last Friday evening celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Isaac Wertman, by a surprise visit at the Wertman residence on Hamilton street. Valuable presents and much social cheer characterized the occasion.

A spring meeting of the Western Washtenaw and Eastern Jackson Agricultural Society will be held at Chelsea, June 4 and 5. Full committees were appointed at a meeting held last week, and the names insure the success of the meeting.

The following from the Pinckney Dispatch speaks well for that prosperous, little village: "There is not an empty house in this village. A number of dwellings would readily rent. Who will be the first one to invest a little money in this business?"

Picket: Henry Matheson, of Green Oak, undertook to chop the head off a chicken last week and chopped off his knuckle. Dr. Brown, of Brighton, cut off the finger. Henry now wonders which was hurt the most, him or the chicken.

Excelsior: The G. A. R. entertainment by Stansell post, Tuesday evening, was well patronized and netted the post over $10. The program differed from the usual campfire held here. Although the "stars" in the program were scarce, the audience seemed tickled all over by the oddities of the entertainment.

Probably the finest flock of lambs sold in Brighton for years was that of Mr. L. Judson, which was purchased yesterday by Switzer & Ackley of Howell. There were 80 in the flock, mostly Shropshires, and when sold, weighed 8,740 pounds, an average of over one hundred pounds each. They came to $524.50—Brighton Citizen.

The state game warden says that the law allows the spearing of grass pike, mullets and suckers. These fish are beginning to run now. The old law prohibited the spearing of any kind of fish during the spring spawning months, and people have the erroneous idea that the old law is still in force. But it doesn't apply to the fish enumerated.—Ex.

LITERARY NOTES.

The second in the series of Shakespearean revivals conducted by Edwin A. Abbey and Andrew Lang is announced as one of the attractions of Harper's Magazine for April. The comedy selected for the purpose is "The Merchant of Venice." One of the ten illustrations from drawings by Mr. Abbey will form the frontispiece, and represents the moment when Shylock exclaims, "And for these courtesies I'll lend you thus much monies." Annie Trumbull Slosson, Mary G. McClelland, and Geraldine Bonner will contribute short stories. W. D. Howells has discovered a new humorist—"Ironquill," of Kansas, and quotes specimens of his poetry in "The Editor's Study." General Wesley Merritt, U. S. A., contributes an article entitled "Three Indian Campaigns," accompanied with maps and illustrations. Dr. Richard Wheatley contributes an article on the New York Maritime Exchange, which he calls "the marine sensorium of the Western Hemisphere." Charles Dudley Warner's essay in "The Editor's Drawer" discusses the responsibility of attractiveness. The series of comprehensive articles on "Great American Industries," will be continued with "A Suit of Clothes" by R. R. Bowker, richly illustrated. Harper Brothers, New York.

Marat Halstead will begin in the April number of The Cosmopolitan, the conduct of a new department called "Review of Current Events," in which he will discuss the leading topics of the day with a non-partisan touch. The same number will contain the first article by Miss Bisland upon her "Flying Trip Around the World." "The Fighting Forces of Germany," by Poutney Bigelow; "Princeton College," by Professor Marquand; and several other important articles, all elaborately illustrated. The novellette of the number will be "George Washington's Last Duel," by Thomas Nelson Page. The Cosmopolitan, New York.

It is not generally known that our Smithsonian Institution at Washington owes its existence to an Englishman, James Smithson, who half a century ago bequeathed half a million dollars to our government for its establishment. Wide Awake for April tells the story of Smithson and the Institution. It also contains Sallie Joy White's second and concluding article on "News-paper Workers" in the business series for girls. Mrs. White, President of the New England Press Association, writes from large experience. D. Lothrop & Co., Boston.

Messrs. Harper & Brothers have ready for immediate publication the second volume of "What I Remember," by the octogenarian novelist, Thomas Adolphus Trollope, the elder brother of the late Anthony Trollope. Harper & Brothers, New York.

Civil service reform has a champion in Mr. Oliver T. Morton, who, in a paper called "Some Popular Objections to Civil Service reform" which appears in the "Atlantic" for April, is not afraid to say that the spoils system "is at war with equality, freedom, justice, and a wise economy, and is already a doomed thing fighting extinction." Dr. Holmes, in "Over the Teacups," talks about modern realism, and says that the additions which have been made by it "to the territory of literature consist largely in swampy, malarious, ill-smelling patches of soil which had previously been left to reptiles and vermin." Houghton, Mifflin & Co., Boston.

David Starr Jordan, President of the University of Indiana, will open the April "Popular Science Monthly" with a vigorous and lively article on "Science in the High School." An article by Prof. Huxley, entitled "On the Natural Inequality of Men," deals with Rousseau's idea of the equality of men in the state of nature, with applications to the recent controversy on the land question. Another answer to Mr. Allen's article appears by Miss Alice B. Tweedy, who asks, "Is Education opposed to Motherhood?" and answers the question with a vigorous negative. Prof. C. H. Toy, of Harvard, contributes a thoughtful essay on "Ethics and Religion." $5.00 a year. D. Appleton & Co., New York.

The April St. Nicholas contains the first of several important papers entitled "Six Years in the Wilds of Central Africa," by Mr. E. J. Glave, one of Stanley's pioneer officers. The series will be illustrated by Kemble, Taber, and other artists, after sketches by the author. "Lady Jane," a new serial by Mrs. C. V. Jamison, begins. Another continued story of a different sort is "Marjorie and Her Papa," by Lieutenant Fletcher of the U. S. A. This story is for the little ones. Century Co., New York.

Spring Catechism for Family Use.

Science Made Simple—First Lessons in Physiology.

A Complete Explanation of the Disorders Peculiar to Spring-time Made Novel and Easy by Short Questions and Answers—Strictly Accurate in Every Particular.

SPRING CATECHISM.

You gave three sources of blood impurities, the second of which you said was digestive disturbances; will you explain why indigestion is more common in the spring? In the first place, it requires more food to meet the demands of the system during the winter months, and the digestive system has been taxed to their utmost and spring finds them exhausted and in need of a good tonic like Pe-ru-na. In the second place, the scarcity of fresh fruit and vegetables in early spring compels people to adopt a diet which damages the stomach, liver and kidneys, producing biliousness, dyspepsia, and kidney diseases. This condition requires a laxative, than which there is no better than Man-a-lin. In the third place, the prevalence of colds in the spring deranges the digestive apparatus by producing mucous congestions of stomach and liver requiring the tonic Pe-ru-na. Now, indigestion, whatever may be the cause of it, keeps the blood out of order, for it is on the products of digestion that the blood depends for its supply, and if digestion is imperfect the blood will be impure at once. Hence the frequency of bad states of the blood in spring-time.

The third source you mentioned of the blood impurities of spring-time was humors in the blood; what do you mean by that expression? It is meant by humors such constitutional diseases as scrofula, salt rheum, boils and other eruptions that are commonly thought to be due to impure blood. Why should they be more prevalent in the spring than any other season? There are several reasons why, a few of which I will mention. All of the unfavorable influences peculiar to spring already mentioned are, of course, calculated to develop any latent humor or blood poison that happens to be lurking in the system. In addition to them the in-door life which most people lead in this climate during the winter months greatly increases the slightest blood taint by inhaling the bad air of close, ily ventilated rooms. By the time spring arrives the system is thoroughly saturated with various contaminations which excite into activity any obscure blood disease which had escaped notice the other months of the year.

Why is scrofula more liable to make itself known in the spring? Because scrofula is a disease of lymphatic glands, and they are intimately connected with absorption of fatty foods, too much of which are eaten in the spring, consequently they become greatly overtaxed, and if there is the slightest tendency to scrofula it will be encouraged to break out at once.

What about the eruptions you spoke about? How do you account for the fact that they should occur with greater frequency in the spring months? The skin is the natural exit of much of the blood impurities which escape with the perspiration. During the cold of winter the skin has been dormant, but the returning warmth of spring increases the skin activity, and the accumulated poisons finding escape irritate the skin and cause the eruptions. Is there anything to prevent this? Yes, the skin can be artificially stimulated to extra activity by the use of La-cu-pi-a, and so prevent the blood accumulations, or, after they have accumulated, La-cu-pi-a will neutralize them or hasten their escape.

What is this La-cu-pi-a you refer to? It is a medical compound known as an alternative. An alternative is a medicine that has the power of curing constitutional diseases (usually called blood diseases), of which scrofula, erysipelas, and salt rheum are examples. Of what are alternatives composed? There are two classes of alternatives—vegetable and mineral. The mineral alternative ought only to be used with the utmost caution, as they are active poisons, like mercury, gold and arsenic. Vegetable alternatives are entirely safe, but it requires more skill and expense to properly prepare them for use than it does mineral alternatives. What are laxatives? They are compounded of vegetables that produce a natural movement of the bowels, but do not physic or weaken. Man-a-lin is such a laxative. Then, with the tonic Pe-ru-na, the laxative Man-a-lin and the alternative La-cu-pi-a, one would be prepared to meet every variety of the blood disorders of spring, do you mean to say? Exactly; and this can not be done successfully with less than three distinct remedies, and that Pe-ru-na, Man-a-lin and La-cu-pi-a are those three remedies no one who knows them will attempt to deny.

The effect of using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup is unlike all medicine containing opiates or poison, it being entirely free from them. It cures rheumatism by purifying the blood.

Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup cures rheumatism by striking at the seat of the disease and restoring the kidneys and liver to healthy action. If taken a sufficient time to thoroughly eradicate such poison, it never fails.

WILL VICTORIA ABDICATE? The British Queen Said to Be Thinking of Quitting the Throne.

LONDON, April 1.—It is said on the highest official authority, as well as being a matter of common gossip in Parliament and at the clubs, that the Queen is seriously considering the step of abdicating the British throne. The recent reception of the Prince of Wales by the German Emperor has had a great effect on the aged Queen, who is now convinced that her son ought to have a chance to play the leading role in England during the rest of her life, which is certain to be short. A special bill will be introduced into Parliament when she is willing to resign the actual throne, and the Prince of Wales will be crowned King of England and Emperor of India.

Along the lines of the BURLINGTON ROUTE in Nebraska, Colorado, Wyoming and northwest-ern Kansas, particularly on its new extension in that territory, there is still some Government Land awaiting settlement, as well as other cheap lands held by individuals. These lands are among the best to be had anywhere in the country for agricultural and grazing purposes. In the comparatively new districts are many improved farms which can be purchased at a very low rate of that class of restless pioneer-settlers who are ready at all times to move "further west." In the territory embraced by the BURLINGTON'S lines west of the Missouri River, there are in the vicinity of two hundred new towns which offer to manufacturers and business men an excellent opportunity to locate with profit. Send to the undersigned for descriptive pamphlets and other matter giving location and full particulars concerning these lands.

The House of Representatives have agreed to postpone the World's Fair until May, 1893. A better exhibition will be the result.

FRANK W. CLAPP, of Battle Creek, is a republican candidate for attorney general. He graduated at Olivet in '868, and at the law department of the university in 1870. He was prosecuting attorney of Calhoun county in 1875-8, and city attorney several terms.

ONE of the greatest moves towards a better control of our criminals is the securing of an extradition treaty with Great Britain, which will deprive the criminal classes of both countries of the convenient harbors of refuge that they have had heretofore. It must be very discouraging to them to have their chances of escaping from justice lessened in this manner, but it will be a source of satisfaction to honest people. The paradise of bank cashiers will be farther away than across Detroit or St. Lawrence river.

NA NONNA is the name of a new disease which has followed in some parts of Italy and Hungary in the wake of the influenza. Those who suffer from this complaint are said to fall into a death-like trance lasting four days, out of which the patient wakes in a state of intense exhaustion. Recovery is very slow; but so far no fatal case has been reported. All who have been seized with na nonna had had a most severe attack of influenza during the winter. It is to be hoped we shall have nonna of it in this country.

BROTHER Democrat, perhaps you will not find a man on your ticket you can conscientiously vote for at the election next Monday. You can easily remedy such a sad misfortune. Plainly printed republican tickets in great numbers will be found at every polling place. Take one, fold it gently, quietly slip it into the ballot box, and go home with a light heart and merry countenance, feeling that you have done your best. Or, if you think only half of the candidates on your ticket, (which is very apt to be the case) are capable of holding a public office in the way you think it should be done, do not hesitate a moment, but cover their unworthy names with republican slips, which you may easily find, and the same feeling of a duty well done will make every bone and muscle in your complex anatomy throb with excessive joy.

THE terrible disasters by cyclones in Kentucky and Illinois last Thursday, by which nearly 100 lives were lost and a vast amount of property was destroyed, adds another to the long list of fearful calamities of the past few months. It seems as if there was never a winter more disastrous to the life of man than that which has just closed, but the reader of history knows that the direful results of fire and flood and pestilence have fallen far short of many previous seasons of raging epidemics; and the rate of mortality has been much less, as the result of man's discoveries, inventions, and superior knowledge of the causes and prevention of disease. The examples and lessons of human sympathy and benevolence brought out by these calamities, were not characteristic of the olden times, and encourage our belief that the world is rapidly growing better as it grows older and more experienced. We are admonished almost daily by these sad occurrences that nothing is more certain than the fact that our lives are not our own hands, nor very enduring, and that it is wise to "so live that when our summons comes" we may go to the realms beyond "soothed and sustained by an unflinching trust" in Him who has control of the elements, and established the laws of our existence here and hereafter.

ADDITIONAL CITY.

On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, April 8th and 9th, Mr. Reynolds, a graduate from Yale in the class of '83, will deliver two addresses in University chapel. On Tuesday evening he will speak on "Life in European Universities;" on Wednesday evening, "Religious Work in European Universities." Mr. Reynolds has spent some time in Europe holding conferences of Christian students and is eminently well fitted to interest an audience on these subjects. All are cordially invited to attend.

On All Fool's day, Mr. and Mrs. Ludlum were given a very pleasant surprise at their residence in the third ward, it being their forty-first wedding anniversary. The party consisted of their neighbors. The most prominent feature of the repast was the "Bride's Cake" which was trimmed with myrtils and roses. It was a very beautiful looking cake and had nearly gone the round of the table when it was discovered to be made of shavings and saw dust. The "Old Wooden Jacket" played and sung by one of the ladies, was also a prominent feature.

On Tuesday evening next, Rev. J. M. Barkley, of Detroit, late sergeant in the confederate army, will deliver a lecture at University Hall, under the auspices of Welsh Post, G. A. R. The subject of his lecture will be "One Year in the Rebel Army," and as he has gained a reputation as an eloquent, pathetic and humorous lecturer, the evening will be well spent by those who attend. The Amphion Club will also render the cantata "The Norans," and the Caequeamegans will furnish some excellent music. The proceeds will be devoted to charitable purposes by the post.

Tired of Living Together.

Maria G. Sootney was granted a decree of divorce from James Sootney, by Judge Kinne, Thursday. The parties were married in Ypsilanti township, Dec. 16, 1852, and lived together until last May. The complainant charged that the defendant had treated her with extreme cruelty, striking and beating her and driving her from the house several different times. The parties have seven living children, ranging in age from 18 to 33 years of age. A stipulation was filed in this case wherein Mrs. Sootney agreed to accept $1,035, and give the defendant a quit claim deed of all his real and personal estate.

A decree was also granted Anna McCarthy, freeing her from the ties which bound her to Daniel McCarthy, on Friday. The parties were married at Menton, Wexford county, in October 1882, and lived together until last March. The complainant charged that the defendant was an habitual drunkard, besides which he had often struck her and had charged her with being unchaste, all of which were deemed sufficient cause for a divorce by the judge.

Mary A. Riggs was also granted a divorce from Dwight Riggs this week. The parties were married at Chelsea in 1860, and lived together in that village until the fall in 1887, having one son. She charged that at that time the defendant deserted her and failed to provide her with support thereafter.

Circuit Court Proceedings.

Elsie Harvey vs. Lauron Crane. Motion for new trial granted on condition that defendant pay costs within ten days from taxation of same, and that cause stand for trial during this term of court.

The People vs. August Tessmer. Sentenced to pay a fine of $100, and imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction for three months.

Maria G. Sootney vs. James Sootney. Divorce granted.

Joseph Dusenbeck vs. Wm. E. Bell and Chas. Sampson. Proceedings stayed, except taxation of costs, and defendant given until first day of next term to file bill of exceptions.

Clarence J. Wardle vs. Robert Trabillock. Judgment for costs taxed to defendant on discontinuance.

In re-petition of James Swan, James W. Goodwin, W. J. Emmons, P. O. Booth and A. J. Waters. Admitted.

In re-appeal of Hattie J. Campbell, et al., from order of the commissioners in the estate of S. Snider. Appellant allowed to perfect appeal in two cases.

Anna McCarthy vs. Daniel McCarthy. Divorce granted.

Court adjourned from Friday until Monday in respect to the late Justice Campbell.

George Lant vs. E. W. Morgan. Order granted allowing plaintiff to restore copies of files in the case as originals.

Court adjourned until April 5.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT.

A Japanese Student's Argument.

Torejiro Mogi, a student in the law department of the University, has written a thesis on the interesting and timely subject of Capital Punishment. It gives evidence of a great deal of faithful work on the author's part, in securing historical facts and opinions in support of his conclusions that the death penalty is an outrage upon justice, humanity and religion. He has not only searched the pages of penal literature, but has corresponded with many persons of eminent ability and long practical experience in dealing with the subject of crime in all its phases, and secured their opinions upon this topic. This thesis has been put in pamphlet form, comprising 44 octavo pages, and may be found at Sheehan & Co's. Price 25cts.

To the Citizens of Ann Arbor and Vicinity.

You will be called upon during the week by a committee of Sons of Veterans who will have tickets for sale to the G. A. R. benefit entertainment.

Please do not turn them away without buying at least two tickets and from that to ten. Price only 25c each.

Remember this is for charity and when you think how few calls have been made this winter in this way we should all be glad to respond to this worthy object and show our gratitude for not being visited by famine and storm as some of our sister states have been.

We hope to see two thousand people in University hall on the night of April 8th. Very respectfully,
J. T. JACOBS

A Wonderful Memory.

In speaking of the late Judge Campbell, M. R. Taylor, who has been orier in the supreme court for more than 10 years said: "He had a most phenomenal memory. In all the years I have served as orier I do not believe that I have brought him to exceed 50 volumes from the law library. He would read counsel's brief through from beginning to end without making a minute of its contents, and no matter how many references to decisions it contained, would, upon finishing it, walk into the library, and, relying wholly on his memory, take down volume after volume and examine the cases cited. Then, in innumerable instances, he would return to his desk and write his opinion without ever again referring to a paper or volume.—News.

OVERWHELMED!

The deluge of customers that flowed into our store the first day of our Sacrifice Sale of the

Wines & Worden Stock,

Simply overwhelmed us, as our force of sales people was too small to attend to the tremendous rush. We have doubled the number of salesmen and can now promise better service and a partial avoidance of those tedious waits which were the order of the day at first.

Many of the lots advertised by us have already been completely closed out, others fully as attractive are daily taking their places. The store is still crowded with bargains and each day sees a 'taking price' placed on some lines of goods. Thousands of dollars worth of new goods are pouring in to take the place of the time-honored goods already disposed of. This week you will find placed on sale the largest line of New Wash Goods, the finest designs in dress trimmings, the best things in Dress Goods, etc., ever found on the counters of a dry goods store in Ann Arbor.

The Carpet Department has been thronged for the past two weeks, and thousands of yards of Carpets have found delighted purchasers. Hundreds will visit this attractive room this week, why not see if you cannot find what what you want for Spring in this line, and while pleasing your taste by a handsome design in carpet, humor your economical ideas at the same time.

Allow us to request you to spend a few moments in looking over our offerings this week, our word for it you will not regret it.

THE SECRET

Many wonder why we have sold more goods in the past year than ever before in the same length of time, while our competitors and in fact most every other dealer in the State, are complaining about a falling off in trade. To make a long story short it is our Superior Advantage for Buying Goods.

We are connected with two of the best and largest manufacturers in the United States, thereby giving us a knowledge which other dealers do not have. This together with Fair Dealing and One Price to All, not only in Word but in Fact is what is making our business boom, in what are called hard times by others.

We haven't space to speak of what we intend to do this Spring, but a visit to our Mammoth Store will convince all that we are prepared to meet the wants of the people.

OUR SPRING OVERCOAT LINE

Will be the greatest ever seen in Ann Arbor. Winter Gloves and Mittens, Underwear and Winter Overcoats at greatly reduced prices until April 1st. We have a few odd Suits and some odd Pants which we will sell at one-half price.

SCROFULA

It is that impurity of the blood which produces unsightly lumps or swellings in the neck; which causes running sores on the arms, legs, or feet; which develops ulcers in the eyes, ears, or nose, often causing blindness or deafness; which is the origin of pimples, cancerous growths, or "humors," which, fastening upon the lungs, causes consumption and death. It is the most ancient of all diseases, and very few persons are entirely free from it.

How Can It Be CURED

By taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which, by the remarkable cures it has accomplished, has proven itself to be a potent and peculiar medicine for this disease. If you suffer from scrofula, try Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"Every spring my wife and children have been troubled with scrofula, my little boy, three years old, being a terrible sufferer. Last spring he was one mass of sores from head to feet. We all took Hood's Sarsaparilla, and all have been cured of the scrofula. My little boy is entirely free from sores, and all four of my children look bright and healthy." W. B. ATHERTON, Passaic City, N. J.

THIS IS MOVING DAY!

APRIL 1st.

STAR CLOTHING HOUSE

We are Bound to Move (not ourselves) but a Pile of Clothing.

WE START THE BOOM. CATCH IT ON THE WING.

FIRST--Our great Suit at $11.75 is still on. We closed an entire lot from Leland, Rice & Co., Boston, at less than cost of material, and open the fun with a $15 Suit at $11.75. Don't come two weeks from now and expect to find them, but come at once.

THIRD--Greatest Boom of all:

ONE CENT FOR SEED

BOOM SECOND--We bought an immense quantity of suits out of season in order to give customers extra value, and have bunched about 50 suits for men into one lot at the ridiculously low price of $12.75.

Travel the country over, examine all the so-called bargains, then compare with these two drives, and see how they loom up in comparison.

One Cent for Seed! One Cent for Seed!

People feel poor, some are poor, some pretend to be. Now we propose to take $11.00, $12.00, $12.50 and $13.00 Suits,—place upon one table—sell for even $10.00 but give you back ONE CENT FOR SEED. Your Suit costs you $9.99. One cent left for the next purchase. Your poverty, whether pretended or genuine, cuts no figure

SPRING OVERCOATS--The finest the market affords. All the latest fads. Top Coats, Box Coats, Cheviots, Meltons, Silk-lined, Velvet Collars, Strap Seams. We have them all. PANTALOONS---Yes, All Wool, yard wide, never rip, only $2.50. No fancy prices, but substantial goods at reasonable prices. These are great.

OUR CHILDREN'S PARLOR IS A GEM! Single Pants, 25c to 50c. Children's Suits, $1.25 to $5.00. Come to our Parlor, avoid the confusion of the other departments, take your time and see the handsomest garments ever in Ann Arbor.

OUR HAT DEPARTMENT is larger than some whole stores, and yet is crowded from floor to ceiling. Right prices make happy customers. WORKING MEN, We have about 100 dozen Overalls, recently bought from a bankrupt manufacturer, which we shall make as another leader for Spring. COTTON SOCKS, bought in Case lots at case prices, only 10c., elsewhere 15c, 2 for 25c.

HANDKERCHIEFS, direct from the importer. Our price, 10c, 3 for 25c. Importer says, "Sells for 15c apiece." SUSPENDERS, by the gross, only 25c. See them. This does not tell it all. The entire paper would be necessary. Last spring was the best in the history of our business. The spring of '90 must surpass it. We are aching for your trade. We are bound to have it. We have the goods. We can make prices.

START AT ONCE FOR HEADQUARTERS.

A BRUTAL ASSAULT.
A Young Girl at Au Sable the Victim of a Fiendish Crime.
The other evening Florence Nightingale, the 18-year-old daughter of A. O. Nightingale, of Au Sable, left the house to draw water from the well, and was seized by three men, Andrew Bennett, his brother Gilbert and William Flynn. Her throat was filled with paper, and they cut the clothesline and tied her fast. They then put her into a buggy and drove out of town, assaulted and left her. Her moanings were heard by a Mr. Black who, finding her insensible, carried her to his house, where she came to sufficiently to tell that she scratched one of the men's fingers. The flesh was still under her finger nails. Snow had fallen and the men were tracked to their hotel, then to a saloon, and all three were placed in jail at Tawas City.

LURED TO A DEN.
Terrific Story Told by a Girl Who Escaped from Worse Than Slavery.
The story of a girl whose parents are well-to-do in Woodstock, O., and who was lured from a Toledo hotel to the "State Road House," on the Ausable river, near Potts, Oscoda County, by Proprietor Murrin, was recently brought to light. In this infamous den, with her companion, she went last winter and was forced to see the rough lumbermen. With a companion she finally escaped. All the girls are kept in debt to the keeper and are never allowed to get out of his debt. They are guarded day and night, beaten, forced to drink and prevented from committing suicide. She says $100 a day is taken in from the lumbermen, who are made drunk and robbed. The authorities of Oscoda were moving in the matter.

Diphtheria was reported at thirty places, scarlet fever at forty, typhoid fever at seven and measles at fifty-five places.

Fire in the Agricultural College.
The botanical laboratory at the Agricultural College in Lansing was burned the other morning. Most of the valuable collections and apparatus were saved by the students. The laboratory was built in 1881 at a cost of $8,000. The Wheeler herbarium, purchased a few months ago by the college, was lost, as was Dr. Palmer's collection. The total loss aggregated $10,000. The fire was caused by a defective chimney.

To Investors and Home Seekers!

HAMILTON, ROSE & SHEEHAN'S

ADDITION to the City of ANN ARBOR

We believe Ann Arbor is the Best City in Michigan IN WHICH TO LIVE.
The Educational Advantages here are unsurpassed! The Streets are broad and well kept! Ann Arbor has a low rate of taxation! It has the best system of Water Works in the West.

Our Addition is just five Blocks from the University of Michigan; it has a front of One Hundred Rods on State Street, the best residence street in the city. Its location is unsurpassed for health and convenience. The levels taken by our Engineer, Geo. W. Sanborn, show the lowest point to be higher than Main Street in front of the Savings Bank. The slope of the ground is such that the drainage is perfect, having a fall of from six to ten feet.

We have filed our Plat and have given
8 1-2 Acres for a Park.
We have paid Fifty Dollars for a handsome and attractive plan for a Park.

Work will commence on the streets and Park early in April. Four new houses are already contracted for to be built upon our addition this year. New sidewalks will be laid, shade trees will be planted upon the streets and Park. Two professors in the University have already purchased Lots in this addition, and will soon build good houses on their lots.
All the Lots have an Alley 16 feet, Wide in the rear. We have made the price of the lots very low. If you buy a Lot we believe you will double your money in three years time.

The Investment is Safe
as a Savings Bank, and the gain much more rapid.
We will sell Lots for Cash.
We will sell lots on time Payments.
We will sell Lots to parties who wish to build houses at once, and will help them to furnish money to build.

Buy a Lot, Money Made!
Payments may be made by the week, by the month, or by the year as suits purchaser.

Call at Sheehan's Store, or at Hamilton Block to see the Plat. We have the Park Plans. We desire those intending to purchase lots to examine them. Call and see them.
The new buildings on State Street this year will amount to Fifty Thousand Dollars. Investigate what we have, then judge for yourselves. This is better than a Loan and Investment Association. Your money is kept at home.

THE SOUTHERN FLOODS.
Bursting Levees Submerge Several Towns and Plantations.

People Paddling in Boats at Greenville—The Surrounding Country Also Under Water—Skipwith Swept Away—The Situation at Other Points.

UNDER WATER.
GREENVILLE, Miss., April 1.—The protection levee north of this city gave way at noon Monday and the waters poured in upon a city which, since its existence, has been above the level of the Mississippi at its greatest height. The flood is a tremendous one and the volume of water that is pouring in from the three breaks above is spreading out in all directions, inundating plantation after plantation which in the flood of 1882 were above water. It is estimated by engineers that a large portion of the city will not be flooded and that the greatest height the water will reach in the lower part will be three feet. The telephone lines are all down above Greenville and nothing has been heard from the levees. It is greatly feared that the heavy wind and rain now prevailing will cause the levees to give way in new places. The water from the Austin break will have an outlet into the Yazoo river which will inundate a large section of country in Sunflower and Yazoo counties. The water has reached Washington avenue, one of the principal business streets, and the people are navigating in skiffs.

Two white men and one negro coming from Stoneville to Greenville in a skiff were drowned by the upsetting of the boat. Their names have not been learned. Many casualties have resulted from skiffs coming in contact with wire fences and other hidden obstructions. Every thing is afloat in Ashport. All houses are half filled with water. The levee is expected to give way.

VICESBURG, Miss., April 1.—The town of Skipwith, eight miles north of here, was swept out of sight Saturday by the waters from a big crevasse at the south end of Lake Washington. Only one residence remains, that of J. A. Root. The water is from four to ten feet deep in the stores, and all except the stone buildings are gone. Efforts to rescue stocks of goods proved futile and dangerous, and in consequence were abandoned. So sudden was the inundation that no one had more than time to make a hasty run for the intact portion of the dyke north of the crevasse. Few saved even a full suit of clothes.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 1.—The flood waters have now covered about all of the St. Francis basin west of here, its area being 4,200 square miles. The Tensas basin, of about the same area, is nearly all submerged, and about one-third of the Yazoo basin, with its 7,000 square miles, is threatened, a considerable part of it already being covered. Unless the flood soon abates it will be too late to replant ruined crops.

HELENA, Ark., April 1.—The tug C. B. Houston, which was sent by the citizens of Helena to the relief of the people of Laconia circle, returned Monday with 130 people on board, the majority of whom were rescued from floating houses and the tops of trees. The circle is a peninsula between the White and Mississippi rivers, and was entirely inundated last Friday night. The water is now ten feet deep all over the circle. The condition of the people is deplorable. The houses on the high ground, and there are only a few of them, contain upward of two hundred people each, all huddled in two or three rooms. A great deal of stock was lost and many houses have gone down with the flood. Only the people whose lives were in danger were brought here, but the tug will return and bring off all who desire to leave. The waters rose so fast the people had to get in the trees to save their lives. About 2,000 people lived in the circle. So far as known no lives have been lost, but the suffering has been extreme.
