THE NEW COUNCIL.

FIRST MEETING HELD MONDAY EVENING.

President Howlett Makes a Specch-Appointment of Standing Com-mittees-Fixing the Salaries-More Sidewalks Ordered-Rontine Business.

The new council assembled for the first meeting Monday evening. Before President Howlett's gavel sounded the aldermen were busily engaged in exchanging seats, the senior aldermen, as is the custom, taking the right of each table. All were getting ready for business except the new alderman from the sixth ward, who had lost himself under the hat of his colleague (size nine) and called for assistance to find himself again.

After calling the council to order, President Howlett made a few remarks to the members, although he said several times that this was not to be a speech. He said that all must fully realize the duty that they owed the city which they represented. He knew that the old members felt this responsibility and trusted that the new ones would feel the same, and all work for the interest of the city. President Howlett then made his appointments for the ensuing year, of the following

Ann Arbor Savings Association.

The third annual statement of the Ann Arbor Co operative Savings Association is published in another column, and is a record any organization might well feel proud of. The association is purely a savings association and not a speculation promising fabulous profits and untold riches to investors as do the large asso-ciations in the country. The stock is all owned in this city, the government of the organization is in the hands of our own people, and every member participates in the profits and shares in the benefits pro rata. This system of saving money is no longer an experiment, as it has been tried here for three years and many of its m-m bers now own pleasant homes of their own which they are paying for weekly, the payments being so small that the amount is not missed. The most economical methods of carrying on the business has been the policy of this association, and the tot has his proceeding the statement of the second day total sal ries and other expenses paid dur-

Stockholders in the Banks of Washtenaw County. List of Those who are Responsible for our Good Financial Condition.

In accordance with the statute, the banks of this city and county have filed lists of their stockholders on the second Monday in April, g ving the name and number of shares held by each. As it s always interesting to know who our capitalists are, THE REGISTER has compiled a list of those interested in the banks of this county. A peculiar fact is shown by the reports, that while Ann Arbor, Chelsea, and Manchester are each able to find home capitalists to take nearly all the stock in their banks, Ypsilanti finds it necessary to go to Detroit for capital, twofifths of the stock in Savings Bank being owned there.

Following is a list of the stockholders and number of shares owted by each, the shares being $100 each:

THE GLEE AND BANJO CLUBS.

Incidents of Their Trip-Enthusiastic Andiences-Pleasant Receptions and Delightful Drives are What Made the Trip Enjoyable.

A week ago last Friday morning the Michigan Central d pot presented a merry scene, the occasion being the departure of the U. of M. Glee and Banjo Clubs upon their long anticipated tour. The private car 'Saginaw," with sides draped with Uof M. banners and streamers of "Yellow and Blue," stood directly in front of the depot, and for an nour before their departure the boys were busy stowing away their b-ggage and delicacies, and showing their comfortable quarters to admiring friends Among other remembrances of thoughtful friends was a supply of "U. of M." eigars and eigarette tobacco for the trip, presented by Mr. H. J. Brown. Fruits and goodies of all kinds peeped out from every corner. At nine o'clock, amid strains of "The Yellow and Blue" and "Rah! Rah! Rah! U. of M!" the train pulled out of the depot with its jolly load.

At Kalamazoo they were royally entertained by the medical staff at the insane asylum, where they dined, and later in the day were given a reception at the resi-dence of Miss Miller, '91. through his attorneys, Huntsberger & Ashley and A. J. Sawyer, in which the business men of Ann Arbor should be greatly interested. The petition asks that the Toledo, Ann Arbor & North Michigan Railway Co., as the successor of the company which constructed the line, be allowed to abandon the branch running from Leland, to South Lyon. This branch when operated for the accommodation of the public was a benefit to this city and drew a large amount of trade here from South Lyon and along the line. For several years past the trains on that branch have run so that a person could not get from South Lyon to Ann Arbor and back again the same day, and as a consequence the trade from South Lyon and vicinity has nearly left Ann Arbor. Should the courts allow the branch to be abandoned, the small amount of trade which now comes from this section would be gone from this city entirely.

The petition recites the building of the road and its operation afterwards. Claims are made that it has been a constant source of expense for years and, al hough the strictest economy is now used and trains now run only as required by law, the income now is not nearly enough to pay the expenses. The company prays the court to authorize it to abandon the line, take up the tracks, ties, station houses, and remove all the property, ac cording to a statute which provides for such cases.

A singular councidence with the petition is the fact that for some time past a number of parties along the line have been engaged in circulating a protest against any proposed abandonment of the road and a petition asking that the road be put in g od, safe condition, and that trains be again run on this branch for the accommodation of the public. These papers signed by about 350 of the leading firms and citizens of Ann Arbor, S uth Lyon, and along the line were completed on Monday, and sent to Hon. James M. Ashley. The names on these papers represent men and firms who subscribed over $50,000 towards building the line to South Lyon, and they feel that they are entitled to some consideration. In the petition the claims are made that the road is in poor condition, even endangering the lives of those who travel on it, the fences will not turn stock, and that the train service is poor and insufficient, and Mr. Ashley is asked to see that improvements

UNDER WATER.

The Levee at Bayou Sara, La, Has Given Way.

Rushing Waters Invade the Town-The Mississippi Covers the Streets from Three to Seven Feet in Depth-The Situation a Bad One.

RUSHING WATERS.

BAYOU SARA, La., April 22 .- A most heroic struggle to save the city from the flood ended at 12:30 a.m. Monday. At that hour the guards reported that the levee had given way at the foot of Fountain street. A general alarm was sounded and the people responded promptly to the call. This break was closed, but on examination it was found that the rising river was running over the front levee. Every impromptu boat and raft was then brought into requisition and efforts were directed to saving property. Every house is flooded. Even the Fischer building, the home of Mayor Irvine, supposed to be the highest, is submerged. It is raining hard, which makes the outlook more gloomy. The water is also running over a large extent of the Pointe Coupee from the Taylor levee, which has given away, and the Fanny Yoor crevasse will probably prove a very serious one. The large levees from the last accounts are intact, but things look critical. The water in the town is from two to seven and one-half feet deep. The telephone exchange has four feet of water on the floor. No lives were lost. WASHINGTON, April 22.-In accordance with the request of Representative Coleman, of Louisiana, Secretary Proctor has transmitted to the House a report of Quartermaster-General Robinson in regard to the condition of affairs in the overflowed district of St. James and Ascension parishes, Louisiana. General Robinson says the sit-nation is deplocable, and hundreds of planters have lost their crops, while thousands of laborers will soon be thrown out of employment. Opposite the levee break at Nits numerous poor whites and colored people lost all but their lives. He recommends in-stant action tending to the relief of the sufferers by the United States. There is liable to be in St. James, St. John and Ascension parishes a total of 5,000 persons destitute within a month.

Wilson, was also arrested on a similar charge, as was Edward Major, who had succeeded to Wilson's pension business. The charge against Major is perjury. Ex-County Clerk Charles J. Fastlaben was also arrested, charged with making false entries of pension claims. All gave bond.

READING, Pa., April 18.-The sur-vivors of the Ringgold artillerists, better known as the "First Defenders," the first company of troops to respond to Lincoln's call for 75,000 men, celebrated the twenty-ninth anniversary of their departure for the seat of war Wednesday night. JOLIET, Ill., April 18.-Lena and Anna Kormly, rather comely German daughters years 23 and of Joseph Kormly, of Wheaton, Du Page County, were received at the prison Wednesday, sentenced for long terms for murdering their illegitimate babies. City speculators who hold land for an increase in value caused by the im provements made on surrounding property, and who will not put it on the market at reasonable prices, are not going to have such rare advantages hereafter, if the tendency of the times keeps on. In Detroit the assessors are putting up the valuation of such property for taxation, to twice and three times what it has been. This plan is also being adopted in other cities, and will undoubtedly, become general. If speculators will not place a reasonable price on their lots, they ought not to grumble if the corporations whose progress they hinder put on as high a price as the constitution and 'their consciences will allow. If any are to be favored it should be those who spend their money in beautifying the place in which they live and making it attractive and valuable to themselves and others Their taxes should be made as light as possible, that they may be encouraged to continue the work that adds to the material wealth and happiness of their community.

In its notice of the confirmation of E. E. Beal as postmaster, the Argus takes occasion to mention THE REGISTER in the following generous manner: "The appointment may not be the most pleasing one for our friends of the REGISTER, but then they will have to do what they have so often done in the past-lump it." What reason has the Argus for thus meanly going out of its way to discredit a rival? Does the Argus hope by this course to curry favor with the new postmaster and secure fair treatment from 80 him, perhaps to the detriment of THE REGISTER? It certainly looks so. We are perfectly willing to admit that we would have preferred some one else, but that is no reason why we should not acquiesce pleasantly to what we could not change. The chagrin, if such it is, of having to "lump it," is of course applicable to half of the patrons of the Ann Arbor postoffice, whose side of the case THE REGISTER espoused, and among them are friends of the Argus as well as THE REGISTER. Until they have found fault with the decision of the appointing powers at Washington, they are not entitled to such ungentlemanly treatment by the Argus. But what the Argus means by saying THE REGISTER has had to "lump it," whatever that elegant expression means, "so often in the past," we do not understand and cannot reply to until we do.

THE Detroit News agrees that Ex-President Cleveland has made a mistake. He "has only himself to blame if the notoriety into which his controversy with the New York Sun has been brought proves disagreeable." "When the expresident himself, a man regarded as a probable candidate for 1892, calls public attention to a personal controversy in which he is concerned, the public can be excused for giving it more careful attention than they did before." "Such a man as Mr. Cleveland cannot descend to calling names in public without suffering the fate of him who engages in a war of words with a virago. Cleveland called Dana yesterday, 'a senile old liar and thief.' Dana to-day calls Cleveland a 'cowardly liar, a half drunken deputy sheriff, a selfish poltroon, an unworthy husband and the stuffed prophet of William street,' and unfortunately for himself. Mr. Cleveland has so well advertised this tirade in advance that the country will read it even if Mr. Cleveland does not." Perhaps the News has not a correct diagnosis of this case. There are cer. tain symptoms that would lead the thoughtful physician in the school of politics to conclude that there is in Mr. Cleveland's case no "mistake" as the News terms it, but a well defined purpose to advance his prospects in a great "personal" contest for the next presidency. It will be remembered that Mr. Cleveland undoubtedly owes his greatest popularity to the personal attacks made upon him in his first campaign When a second contest was waged, and for a principle, Mr. Cleveland and his allies were thoroughly routed and he was retired to "William street." What could bring Mr. Cleveland's name before the country more prominently and emphatically than just such an attack as this by the Sun? Of course it would have looked better for it to have emanated from a republican paper, but none could be found which could manipulate the blackguard's dictionary more effectively than Mr. Dana. Judging from the results heretofore of such methods of political strategy in the career of the ex-president, one may readily believe that "Mr. Cleveland has so well advertised this tirade in advance" for the very reason that he wants the country to "read it," and "give it careful attention."

dole age and the effervesc nce of the American college students. A large number of the alumni of Michigan University, their friends, their families and their sweethearts were there to hear the adherents of the Yellow and Blue uphold the glory of their alma mater in song. Besides the gleemen were the banjoists, who thrummed out very tuneful music on their instruments. The classical selections were well received, but the comical and rollicking songs, that breathe the spirit of college life, awakened the greatest enthusiasm among the "old boys," among them the hat drill and chair dr.ll, the woeful tale of Romeo and Juliet, the warm experiences of Dives in sheol and the quarrels of Socrates and Xantippe. There are twenty-three students al ogether, fifteen in the glee club and eight in the b njo club. There was a vim and freshness about the singing th t called forth recall after recall. The banj club played with remarkable precision and expression and aroused much enthu-lasm.

Dear Sir:-We purchased a Guild Piano of you nearly (or quite) nineteen years ago. We also purchased a Boardman & Gray of you four years ago. If the B. & G. will do as good service as the Guild has we will be perfectly satisfied with it. Thus far, however, the Guild has stood better, and required less tuning than the Boardman & Gray.

Mr. W. F. Griffith, of Howell, (in the employ of Farrand, Williams & Clark, of Detroit), has just decided on a "Guild," after looking the field over pretty generally. Said a teacher of many years experience, "it is the best Upright Piano I have ever seen." It is the best selling Piano I have ever sold; for the reason that it is a PERFECT Piano at a REASONABLE price. Sold for cash or on easy monthly or quarterly payments,

I have sold a good many "Guild" Pianos. Every one without exception, has given complete satisfaction. They are EXQUISITELY finished and please the most fastidious customer. I say emphatically that I have never seen a more perfect piano in detail, AT ANY PRICE. BEARING ANY NAME. Finished in mahogany, walnut, rosewood, etc. See them before you buy. Prices reasonable. Over 25,000 in use. Have been manufactured in Boston nearly thirty years.

The Brewers' Association to Make a Test of Its Validity.

The validity of the liquor act passed by the last Legislature will tested by the Brewers' and Maltsters' Association of Michigan. The new law became operative last October and provided that on and after May 1 next the price of licenses to to retail malt or spirituous liquors shall be $500 and to wholesale $1,000. It is claimed it is unconstitutional because the act signed by the Governor is not the one passed by the Legislature.

Diph-theria was reported at sixteen places, scarlet fever at sixteen, typhoid fever at nine and measles at forty-five places.

Reinstated in Office.

Nedard Metevier, sheriff of Mackinac County, was last summer removed by the Governor for misconduct in office. Metevier carried the case to the Supreme Court, and that body decided recently that the charges which formed the basis of removal were not distinct and specific, as is required by the statntes and constitution, and directed that he should be given possession of the of-fice again. Metevier would therefore resume business at the old stand as sheriff of Mackinse County.

A Murderous Coachman.

George Freeman, colored coschman for A. C. Varney, a prominent Detroit architect, stabbed Mrs. Sidmore, Varney's mother-in-law, in the neck and left her for dead the other night. The cause was a fancied insult. She lay unconscious for a long time, revived, crawled to a window and attracted the attention of Judge Durfee who was passing the house. She was alone in the house at the time. The coachman made no attempt to escape and was arrested.

Murder and Suicide.

Alexander Cuddy, a well-to-do merchant residing in Detroit, murdered his wife, Margaret, and suicided by hang-ing the other night. The bodies were found the next morning. He was 63 and she 30 years of age. The murderer left a long, rambling letter addressed to the newspapers in which he incoherently detailed his troubles with his wife and his premeditated purpose to kill her and himself to end them.

An Old Soldier Kills Himself.

TRAGEDY IN MICHIGAN.

Mrs. Tells, of Berlamont, Mich., Cremates Herself and Two Children. KALAMAZOO, Mich., April 19.-A terrible affair happened in the little vil-lage of Berlamont in Van Buren County Friday, by which a whole family, except the father, met a fearful fate. As E. J. Post was walking along the street he saw that the house of Z. L. Tells, colored, was on fire. He ran to the house and found Mrs. Tells on the floor holding her two children, little girls aged 4 years and 1 year and 6 months, respectively. The whole interior was on fire and Post could not get the inmates out. He called to the woman, but she at once ran and jumped on the bed, and all were burned to death. We believe Ann Arbor is the Best City in Michigan IN WHICH TO LIVE.

The Educational Advantages here are unsurpassed ! The Streets are broad and well kept ! Ann Arbor has a low rate of taxation! It has the best system of Water Works in the West.

Our Addition is just five Blocks from the Univer-sity of Michigan; it has a front of One Hundred Rods on State Street, the best residence street in the city. Its location is unsurpassed for health and convenience. The levels taken by our Engineer, Geo. W. Sanborn, show the lowest point to be higher than Main Street in front of the Savings Bank. The slope of the ground is such that the drainage is perfect, having a fall of from six to ten feet.

We have filed our Plat and have given

81-2 Acres for a Park.

We have paid Fifty Dollars for a handsome and attractive plan for a Park.

Work will commence on the streets and Park early in April. Four new houses are already contracted for to be built upon our addition this year. New sidewalks will be laid, shade trees will be planted upon the streets and Park. Two professors in the University have already purchased Lots in this addition, and will soon build good houses on their lots.

Fifty Persons Injured, Several of Them Probably Fatally-The Structure Was a Rotten Affair, and had Been Condemned.

A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

SPRINGFELD O., April 21.-A frightful accident occurred Sunday afternoon at the Limestone bridge over Buck creek, by which over fifty people were injured, five of whom are not expected to The announcement that survive. baptismal services would be held by the Third Baptist Church (colored), near the bridge, attracted probably 2,000 people to the banks of the stream. The majority of those pres-ent were white people. The Limestone street bridge, which for four or five years has not been considered safe, was packed with people, probably 600 in all.

Elder B. Green, amid the singing of songs of praise, took his staff and marched into the water. He had just found a suitable place for observing the rite of baptism when a cry of horror went up from the assembled hund-reds. There was a loud crash and splash and 100 people were strug-gling in the water and on the banks below. The bridge runs over a race in addition to the creek. About 100 feet of the footwalk over the race had fallen. but fortunately the iron guard railing did not break. If this had broken probably fifty people would have been killed outright.

The authorities are severely censured on account of the rotten condition of the bridge. An attempt was made to repair it last summer, but nothing was done. The footway was braced by two-inch planks and some braces set into the stone wall. These braces pulled out of the wall like twigs when the strain came. A large number of damage suits against the city are expected to result.

The Lottery's Big Bid.

NEW ORLEANS, April 18 .- The bid of the Louisiana Lottery Company to the Legislature for renewal of its charter from 1895 is just made public. At the approaching session of the General Assembly of Louisiana, meeting May 5, a proposition will be submitted by John A. Morris to pay the State $12,500,000 for the purpose of maintaining a lottery for a period of twenty-five years.

Blown to Atoms.

CYGNET, O., April 19.-A wagon loaded with nitro-glycerine shells used in shooting oil and gas wells, exploded yesterday morning with terrific force. Two men who were on the wagon were blown hundreds of yards and nothing left of them but a few strings of their clothing. The horses were terribly man-gled and both killed, and the wagon reduced to kindling wood.

Killed by His Brother.

MILBANK, S. D., April 18. - Two brothers named Larsen were awakened by a noise outside their house Wednesday night. Arming themselves, one went out at the front door and the other at the back door to reconnoiter. They met, and, one brother thinking the other was a burglar, fired at him, the shot resulting in instant death.

Iowa Miners Locke 1 Out.
