WEBSTER FARMERS.

TWO RESIDENTS OF A PROSPEROUS TOWNSHIP.

Sketch of Elisha Cranson and W. C. Latson, Two Pioneers Who Have Done Much to Make This County What It Is.

The attention of a traveler over the smooth, well-graded roads of Webster is attracted by the general appearance of neatness and prosperity which marks nearly every farm in that township. The farms are nearly all large and in a high state of cultivation, the fences in good repair and the barns large and commodious. But the feature that most impresses itself upon the hungry traveler is the hospitality, intelligence and refinement of the farmers themselves. This is no doubt due, in a greater or less degree, to the influence which the meetings of the Webster Farmers' Club exert over the members. Among the large number of these farmers who are worthy of mention in this connection is

ELISHA CRANSON, who is a native of Madison County, New York. In 1830, when Elisha was 10 years old, his father decided to come to Michigan, where land was cheap, in order to make a permanent home for his family. They traveled by water to Detroit, the usual means of transportation to that point in those days, and thence by team to Ann Arbor, where they were housed and fed for a few days in a log tavern, built on the very ground where the Savings Bank now stands. Ann Arbor at that time was only a cluster of five or six log huts, built in the dense woods, but it was even then graced with its present name and dignified with the distinction of being called the "county seat." Leaving his family in Ann Arbor for about three weeks in a rented log cabin situated where the Franklin House at present stands, Mr. Cranson's father plunged into the woods toward the north and, after some prospecting, located a quarter section of wild land where his son is now living. Thereupon he built a log house, and when his family joined him they took up their abode in their new home and made it as comfortable as circumstances allowed. Here Mr. Cranson spent the part of his youth of which he has the most keen remembrance. He aided his father in clearing up the farm and during the winter months attended a small district school, made up of the two or six families who lived in Webster at that time. Indians were frequently seen in the vicinity, though they were rather mischievous than dangerous. Wolves and deer abounded, the former untiring in their nocturnal serenades, and bears were so unduly familiar as often to carry off squealing pigs hugged tightly in their powerful fore-paws. Amidst these incidents of pioneer life, Elisha lived until 1843, when he was united in marriage to Miss Heroine Dumon, of Ionia county. For seven years succeeding his marriage, he carried on a farm in Ionia county, but in 1850, owing to the death of a younger brother, he was called to the old homestead where he has been located ever since. To the original quarter section he has at intervals added tracts, until at present he owns a fertile, well-watered farm of 313 acres. The children of Mr. and Mrs. Cranson are four in number, two of whom are sons and farmers. Mr. Cranson is an influential member and supporter of the Congregational church of Webster, a Republican in his political views, and a regular and interested attendant upon the meetings of the Webster Farmers' Club. His home is about eight miles from Ann Arbor, and is one of the largest, neatest, and most attractive residences in Webster.

W. C. LATSON.

When the father of our subject came from York state to Michigan, there was not a mile of railroad in this state, and Ann Arbor was but a mere village. Little did the old gentleman suspect that Ann Arbor, the then mere country burg, where he got his mail and did the little trading which pioneers found it necessary to do—that in a few short years this same village would be familiar wherever knowledge and learning had a home.

Mr. Latson was born on the old homestead in the town of Webster, fifty-seven years ago, and as a result has seen many vast changes, both in Ann Arbor and in the country hereabouts. The first great change (and an important event it proved) which the then mere boy remembers, was the building of the Michigan Central through this part of the state. How we should all smile at the road if we could see it as it then was, with its "worm" track and "strap iron" rails. In those early times educational advantages were limited, and our subject was put to a still further disadvantage because of his father's poor health. As a result his schooling, even in the poor schools of his day, was limited. Mr. Latson has, however, gained a wide knowledge of people and of affairs by general reading and by close observation. At the age of twenty-two he started out for himself. At first he rented his father's farm. After two years he was married, and his wife remaining on the old homestead. Soon after this his mother died, and his father, though he afterwards married again, deeded his land to his first wife's children, who had aided him so faithfully in accumulating the property. Mr. Latson has finally bought out most of the other children's shares, and now has 223 acres of good farm land as one could well ask. Besides carrying on a general farming business, Mr. Latson has given quite a little attention to always keeping his stock of the purest blood, believing that such stock is easier kept and therefore far more profitable. His success as a farmer has proven his wisdom in this respect. Besides accumulating a comfortable property, our subject has also reared a family of twelve children, six boys and six girls. One of these, Frank A. Latson, has a position in the American Express office in this city. The oldest daughter is a teacher in the Lansing School for the Blind.

In politics, Mr. Latson has usually done his own thinking and has liberal views. He has, however, usually voted the republican ticket, as people who think for themselves generally do.

ADAMS-WRIGHT.

What the Port Huron Times Has to Say of Their Marriage, Which Took Place Last Week.

Prof. H. C. Adams, on Wednesday evening of last week, was married to Miss Bertha H. Wright, at Port Huron. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theo. R. Wright. The Port Huron Times speaks of the event as follows:

"The decorations of the parlors were in yellow, the large bow window being filled with golden rod and the mantel banked by the same brilliant blossoms, with sunflowers at the base. The dining room also displayed much taste in arrangement, and the prevailing color was prominent on the bride's table. At 6:45 o'clock the wedding march announced the appearance of the bride and groom, preceded by Miss Clara Wright and Marjorie Knowlton, as bride's attendants. The simple but impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. S. A. Beman, after which the assembled guests, to the number of fifty or over, pressed forward to tender their congratulations. The bride appeared to good advantage in the regulation white silk in train. Messrs. Harry Wright and Douglass Adams acted as ushers for the evening. The popularity of the bride and groom was evinced by the numerous rare and beautiful wedding gifts from friends at home and abroad.

"Among the guests present were the following: Profs. Pattengill and Knowlton, of the University; Mrs. J. C. Knowlton and daughters, Misses Anna and Marjorie Knowlton, of Ann Arbor; Miss Florence Whitcomb, of Battle Creek; Miss Bessie West, of Grand Rapids, and Douglass Adams, of Washington, a brother of the groom.

"After the wedding repast the happy couple departed on the 9 o'clock train for the east. The wedding trip will include the Thousand Islands and other eastern points. They will reside in Washington during the winter, where Prof. Adams is engaged as statistician for the inter-state commerce commission. This gentleman, who is professor of political economy at the University, has a leave of absence for one year, in order to assist in the United States census work of the commission. The bride, who has lived in Port Huron the greater portion of her life, has for two years past been a teacher in the Ann Arbor high school. She is also a graduate of the University of the class of 1888, and is a lady of excellent abilities."

THE PIONEERS' PICNIC.

Neurologist's Report Presented, Officers Elected and Address by William Ball.

LIMA, September 3, 1890.

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer Society was held in Nordman's grove, township of Lima, at 11 o'clock a. m. The meeting was called to order by the President, E. A. Nordman. The minutes of the last annual meeting were read and approved. A committee was appointed to present names for officers for the ensuing year and recommend their election by the society, the committee consisting of J. Q. A. Sessions, J. W. Wing, Daniel Hiscock, Nathan Sutton and C. H. Wines. C. H. Richmond, treasurer of the society, presented his report, which showed the society free from debt and balance on hand of $5.70, which was increased by payment of annual dues to $15. After dinner the committee presented the following report for officers for the ensuing year and recommended their election: President, Charles S. Gregory; secretary, J. Q. A. Sessions; treasurer, Charles H. Richmond; neurologist, William Lay; executive committee, Nathan Sutton, J. D. Williams, Florus Finley, E. A. Nordman; vice-presidents, Horace Carpenter, C. L. Spafard, Wm. D. Smith, John Feldkamp, Sampson Parker, Harrison Bassett, J. R. Moore, E. E. Leland, H. Preston, Myron Webb, George A. Peters, Chas. Fellows, Truman W. Baldwin, Johnson Backus, Albert Graves, Erastus Sampson.

The report of the committee was accepted and adopted, and the officers as recommended were declared elected. On motion, the constitution and by-laws were amended by an unanimous vote so as to provide that hereafter the annual meeting for the election of officers and the transaction of other general business of the society shall be held on the second Wednesday in June of each year.

The Hon. William Ball then delivered an excellent address on the life of the pioneers compared with the present time. Mrs. Bowen, of Sylvan, was invited to deliver an address at the next annual meeting.

The neurologist's report of the deaths of the old settlers during the past year was then read by Mr. Findlay, and contained 79 names.

Mr. Gregory, the president elect, accepted the position to which he had been elected, and invited the society to meet at Dexter at the next annual meeting in June.

The invitation was unanimously accepted. A vote of thanks was tendered to Mr. Ball for his able address and also to Mr. Nordman for entertaining the society in so hospitable a manner on his farm. The society then adjourned.

THE THIRD PARTY.

PROHIBITIONISTS MEET AND TALK POLITICS.

County Officers Nominated—Eloquent Addresses by Ex-Gov. St. John, of Kansas, and Mary T. Lathrop, of Jackson.

The prohibitionist county convention, held last Friday, was quite largely attended. Prof. Steere was elected chairman and O. R. L. Crozier secretary. The following resolution was unanimously adopted: "Resolved that we endorse and commend to the attention of candid voters the resolution adopted by the prohibition state convention at Lansing, as a comprehensive and honest statement of present political issues." Another resolution severely condemning the republican party for its alleged "fall from grace" and applying to Messrs. Quay, Dudley and Clarkson the name of "rascal" was very sensibly voted down. In its place the following resolution was adopted: "Whereas we do not approve of the course of the old political parties in regard to temperance measures and legislation, both state and national, and in view of the past legislation in the state by the party in power upon the liquor traffic, we think that all lovers of good order and effective legislation should support the prohibition party in state and nation." The county ticket selected by the convention comprises the following nominations: Clerk, Prof. Bailey, of Ypsilanti; treasurer, R. P. Chase, of Chelsea; register of deeds, R. C. Reeve, of Scio; sheriff, Chas. Boyan, of Ann Arbor; prosecuting attorney, D. E. Taylor, of Chelsea; coroners, John Folk, of Ypsilanti, and Jacob Bullock, of Salem; representative, first district, Wilbur Thompson, of Salem; representative, second district, A. B. Derbyshire, of Augusta.

Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, of Jackson, was introduced as the speaker of the afternoon. She said that there were two problems for Washtenaw voters to solve: the proper management of Michigan University and the satisfaction of the German element. She thought it a shame that liquor should be sold under the shadow of Michigan's greatest institution. The Germans themselves could be brought around to the prohibition side, if educated aright. They were not responsible for the license system. That was a Yankee trick, pure and simple. Mrs. Lathrop referred to the various questions now being agitated, such as temperance, the tariff, labor, ballot reform, finance and suffrage, and stated that no one of these questions could be settled without carrying the others with it. She found fault with the prohibition party because it was not aggressive enough. Nevertheless, it had made a splendid fight. The heroic and prophetic elements of the country, said the speaker, are with that party.

Leaving the temperance question, she branched out into a discussion of the tariff question, in the course of which she bitterly attacked the policy of protection. She asserted that the prohibition party was the only real reform party now in existence. The key to all the evils of government is found in the saloon traffic and the purchasable vote. In conclusion, Mrs. Lathrop attacked the supervisory local option law, recently passed, and urged the prohibitionists to make strong effort to elect members of the legislature this fall, which she believed they could do if they only tried hard enough.

John P. St. John followed Mrs. Lathrop with a few humorous remarks. Then the convention adjourned until the evening, when the ex-governor of Kansas delivered an address about an hour and a half long. He said that the prohibition party, like the old abolitionists, was forced to contend against ignorance and prejudice. The democrat says that prohibition "takes away the liberty of the citizen," and the republican says the same thing, only stated in different words. The churches are not much better than the political parties. The W. C. T. U., he claimed, had done more good than all the churches in the land. The speaker ridiculed the idea that it was a great sin to run politics into religion. The church is by no means always found on the side of morality. Unless things are changed, "the church, saloon and government will go down together, and God will raise up a new government." A careful analysis of all the opposition to prohibition, said the speaker, shows that it must come either from ignorance, prejudice or avarice. Mr. St. John then forgot all about prohibition and launched forth in a tirade against protection which would have pleased Roger Q. Mills immensely, had he been there to listen to it.

The following delegates to the congressional convention were elected: Congressional: Geo. Hathaway, York; Alexander Smith, York; J. K. Lamb, Sharon; C. M. Fellows, Ypsilanti; J. B. Lord, Augusta; A. B. Derbyshire, Augusta. Senatorial convention: R. P. Chase, Chelsea; A. B. Smith, Milan; Rev. Mr. Beale, Ypsilanti; B. J. Conrad, Ann Arbor; O. R. L. Crozier, Ann Arbor; M. C. Edwards, Milan. The county committee was organized as follows: C. M. Fellows, chairman; O. R. L. Crozier, secretary; E. B. Lewis, treasurer.

Beet Sugar in Nebraska.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Sept. 6, 1890.

MR. EDITOR:—One of the most enterprising cities in the state is Grand Island. Here is located the largest beet sugar plant in America and the second largest in the world. The actual cash invested is over $1,000,000, of which the citizens have donated $12,000, represented by eighty acres of land. The machinery was all made in France and Germany, except the tanks and boilers. The sugar palace, located at this city, the first in history, is now visited by thousands daily. It is built in close proximity to the U. P. R. R. depot, and is 184x194 feet, and 100 feet to top of the tower. The foundation and columns are made of barrels, on each of which is painted a sugar beet. Large white beets (sugar beets are white) are painted on the roof. They also form cornices and window caps. They decorate panels and ornament doorways. When we enter the palace and look north, the scene is most odd and beautiful. From the high ceiling cornstalks, with leaves of green and yellow, are hung between rafters of oats. The gallery railings are latticed with corn stalks, ornamented with wheat, oats and grasses. The pavilion is a splendid piece of workmanship, the foundation of which is cornstalks. Beets are used as ornaments in the most unexpected places. The bell is covered with oats and has a gigantic beet for a clapper, and when it rings it sounds as if the beet contained plenty of material for rock candy. On the base of one pillar is a hog in bas relief, and below it is the legend: "Nebraska hogs know a good thing when they see it." Above the arches are two pictures made out of corn, beets, etc., one representing Grand Island in 1890, the other its condition in 1890. The inscriptions are: "We raise corn and are prosperous; now we raise beets and are prosperous." No one can mistake this place for anything but a beet sugar palace. It cost the citizens nearly $25,000. In this place is on exhibition a miniature factory. Here the sugar beet will be seen as it goes into the mashing tank—five hours later it is transformed into sugar. It is estimated that there were 50,000 people in the city and in the camp grounds yesterday, and nearly all have passed through this palace. A new industry has sprung up in this great country, which has come to stay. It seems to me that Michigan can raise the sugar beet as well as Nebraska.

For Congress.

CAPT. E. P. ALLEN.

FREDERICK BRAASTED, of Ishpeming, received the democratic nomination for state treasurer.

All the democrats in the senate voted against the reciprocity amendment which came to a vote on Tuesday. What does it mean?

The district from which Clifton R. Breckinridge was elected (?) to congress gave 1,957 anti-democratic majority on the vote for governor last week.

CLIFTON R. Breckinridge has been ejected from a seat to which he was not elected. Now the democrats are raising a howl over the "tyranny" of the republican house.

The free-trade advocates of North Carolina voted against placing mica on the free list, because mica is one of the products of that state. Hancock was pretty nearly, right after, all when he said that the "tariff is a local issue."

THE "czar," "bully," "tyrant," "fat-witted" Reed has been returned to Congress by a majority of 4,000, much to the discomfiture of the democrats who believe in allowing every man to do what he pleases, unless he is a negro residing in the south.

In his speech delivered in Ann Arbor last Friday night, John P. St. John forgot that the friends of prohibition are indebted to the republican party for all the legislation they have ever secured in the north. Kansas, Iowa, North Dakota and South Dakota furnish proof of this assertion.

E. B. WINANS was nominated for governor yesterday by the democrats. He is a man of irreproachable character, a practical farmer and a courteous gentleman, and will undoubtedly poll a large vote. Of course he will be defeated, but not without hard work on the part of the republicans.

WITHIN two years, the democratic party has flatly contradicted itself. In 1888, politicians tried hard to prove that "tariff reform is not free trade." Now they are trying just as hard to prove that tariff reform is free trade. The extreme ease with which the bourbon party changes its mind would indicate that the word "democracy" must be of the feminine gender.

POLITICS in the city of Chicago must be a rotten mess, indeed. The Chicago Tribune speaks of the nominations, recently made by the democrats, in the following language: "Grog-wipe-keepers, political hustlers, ward wire-pullers, salary grabbers, corporation agents, broken down political hacks are deemed good enough by the democrats to represent this country at Springfield, and to help make laws for this great state of Illinois." "Hurrah for democracy and reform!"

THROUGH the watchfulness of our efficient mayor, who has insisted that his subordinates should carry out the law in this respect, the grave evil of bicycling on the pavements has been entirely eradicated. He deserves the hearty thanks of our good people for thus saving them from being continually frightened at the rumbling of these vehicles on the sidewalks and from having the pavements ruined by such usage. Now that the greatest of evils has been suppressed, we would suggest that our mayor turn his attention to some of the lesser ones, such as the opening of saloons on Sunday, the selling of liquor to minors, or at all hours of the night, and the breaking up of the one or more disreputable houses in our city. Of course such things are but small offenses, as compared with wheeling on the walks; yet they are certainly of sufficient importance to deserve some little attention from the officers. It is true that it will be very difficult for our officers to detect offenses of this kind; still something should be done, as it is exceedingly disagreeable to our law-abiding citizens to have such flagrant offenses against all law and decency continually and defiantly flaunted before their eyes.

RECIPROCITY with Canada has always been one of John Sherman's pet hobbies. Not long ago he expressed himself as follows on the subject:

I am more firmly of the opinion, the more I study the question, that the true interest of the United States and Canada is their ultimate union under one government. If this at present is not attainable, the interests of the two peoples demand the utmost freedom of commercial intercourse and a free exchange of productions. As to the best mode of bringing this about, there may be a difference of opinion. Diplomacy necessarily requires the assent of Great Britain as well as Canada—a triangular negotiation that experience shows is difficult if not impracticable. My own opinion is that the better way is by concurrent legislation of the two powers. Canada is invested by the mother country with full authority to pass tariff laws and commercial regulations. Congress could by law provide that Canadian fish, coal, coke, lumber, iron and other metallic ores be admitted free of duty, whenever the Dominion authorities should admit the free importation of our production consumed in Canada, and give to our fishing vessels commercial rights to the full extent allowed by both countries to ordinary commercial vessels. The difficulty of coming to a precise agreement of the articles to be admitted reciprocally free could only be overcome by an exchange of views between the law-making powers of the United States and Canada. How to bring about an understanding between the Dominion and the United States is a matter that all persons deeply interested in the free exchange of commodities should study and point out.

Resolutions of Respect.

At the last meeting, the Webster Farmers' Club adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, God in His wise Providence has removed from our midst an esteemed and beloved sister, Mrs. Sophia D. McColl;

Resolved, That we as members of the Webster farmers' club, while realizing our great loss, thank God for the example of her life among us, strong in faith, patient in the midst of cares, always hopeful.

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved husband and children our united sympathy, praying that the example she has left may act as a guide to lead us all to a nobler and better life.

Geo. E. LINCOLN, Mrs. IRA BACKUS, Mrs. C. M. STARKS, Committee.

Southern Exposition.

At the Washtenaw county fair, to be held at Ann Arbor, from September 30 to October 3, there may be seen in addition to the exhibits grown, produced and manufactured here, such southern products as cotton growing in full stock, figs as they grow on the fig bush, rice as it grows in the fields of the Carolinas and peanuts as they are taken from the ground in Virginia, the products of turpentine stills from Georgia, carpets made from leaves of the pine and the various kinds of southern woods, a great number of precious minerals, medical herbs, plants and barkers of the forests, wild nuts and other products of the field and garden, a living alligator from Florida, photographs showing the advancement of the colored race during the past twenty-five years and pictures innumerable, representing the best southern scenery.

MRS. WM. P. BROWN AND FAMILY.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Ladies' Library Association, held on Monday, September 1, a committee was appointed to prepare resolutions of respect in memory of Mrs. Mary E. Cooley, the following were submitted and adopted:

Resolved, That in this bereavement of our association, while recognizing the hand of our Heavenly Father, who doeth all things well, we wish to record our heartfelt sadness for our great loss in the death of our beloved friend and co-laborer, who from its first organization has given her hearty support to promote the interests of this association. Elected its second president in 1870 and 1871, by her wise counsel and excellent judgment she gave proof of her superior ability to fill the office. Recognizing the many qualifications which fitted her so eminently to take part in our deliberations, we mourn that her removal from us has deprived us of her bright and animating presence, ready as she was at all times to encourage us and to help us in bearing our burdens.

We would also avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing our most sincere gratitude for the generous remembrance of us during the last precious months of her valuable life.

The memory of her judicious counsel, of her noble liberality, and of the helpful and cheerful influence of her personal presence among us will ever remain a cherished legacy. To the stricken family we extend our heartfelt sympathy, and unite with them in grief for one who is dear to all.

By order of the Board.

The importance of purifying the blood cannot be overestimated, for without pure blood you cannot enjoy good health. At this season nearly every one needs a good medicine to purify, vitalize, and enrich the blood, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is worthy your confidence. It is peculiar in that it strengthens and builds up the system, creates an appetite, and tones the digestion, while it eradicates disease. Give it a trial. The Beautiful Guild.

ANN ARBOR, June 7th, 1890.

MR. WILSEY,
DEAR SIR:—I enclose the testimonial for which you asked. It gives me pleasure to send it to you, as I like my piano so much. When you can make it convenient, come out and see how it has stood the wear and tear of nine years.

Yours Truly,

LILLIE BAESSLER.

*** With regard to the Guild purchased of you nine years ago. *** Its tone is as mellow and sweet as ever, and in standing in tune I have never seen its equal. Any one contemplating the purchase of a piano, will find it to their interest to examine the Guild.

Respectfully,

LILLIE BAESSLER.

The Guild has stood "wear and tear" better, and held its own better than any piano I have ever sold. Over 25,000 have been manufactured, and sold very largely in Boston and vicinity. The great music publishing house of Ditson & Co has sold over 800 of them in the City of Boston. The simple (patent) tuning device is the greatest improvement of the day, and will save expense to the owner besides the satisfaction of having a piano constantly in tune.

The swinging music desk running the entire length of the piano is perfection. They please, they sell. Why? See them, and you will learn. Manufactured in Boston for nearly thirty years.

RAILWAY HORRORS.

Many Lives Lost in Various Portions of the Country.

An Electric Car Crushed at Cleveland—Collisions on the Denver & Rio Grande, Danbury & Norwalk, Danville & Richmond and Other Roads.

PASSENGERS CRUSHED.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 8.—A frightful accident occurred at the Wilson avenue crossing of the New York, Chicago & St. Louis railroad in this city about 7:30 o'clock Saturday night by which at least a dozen persons were terribly injured, some of them fatally, and one killed. The crossing is on a steep grade, down which runs an electric street-railroad line.

At the time the accident occurred a freight train was standing close to the crossing on the south track. An electric motor drawing one car was approaching from the south. The safety gates were up and the road apparently clear. Just as the motor had crossed the railroad track a locomotive running about twenty miles an hour dashed out from behind the freight train.

The pilot of the engine struck the electric train between the motor and the trailer, tearing them apart and hurling one to each side of the track. At least a score of persons were on the trailer and they were tumbled about in all directions, some being thrown a dozen feet away and others pinned under the car, which was demolished.

Following is a list of the victims as obtained from the various hospitals:

Minnie Mock, aged 24, crushed, died at hospital; J. A. Moore, 22 years, right arm crushed and left leg lacerated; Annie Niemann, collar bone broken, face cut; Louisa Mock, cut on head and arms; Edward Watson, Kent, O., right foot crushed; Charles Woods, body bruised; George Somers, leg cut; George Neff, severely bruised; Lizzie Cable, badly bruised; Lizzie and Eliza Bragg, cut on head and hands; Mrs. Mooney, leg sprained; Frank Rose, Kent, O., bruised about hip, arm and shoulder; Leora Howell, Kent, O., cut about legs and head.

RAILWAY HORROR IN COLORADO.

CANYON CITY, Col., Sept. 8.—A terrible accident occurred on the Denver & Rio Grande road at 5 o'clock Saturday morning near Florence. The train was running in two sections. The first section had two day coaches loaded with laborers, and had become derailed four miles below Florence. The second section dashed into the disabled train with terrific force, smashing the two coaches, and killing over thirty men and injuring a number outright. The bodies of five have been recovered and twelve are still missing. The wounded have been taken to the Rio Grande Hospital at Salida. Of the forty-seven men known to have been in the car five were killed instantly and thirty-seven wounded. Several of the injured are not expected to live till morning. The dead are:

E. L. Waters, Idaho Springs; Jonathan Falks, Pueblo; A. N. Mayer, Pueblo; James Donovan, Pueblo; C. B. Williams, Leadville. The most seriously injured are: James Faust, J. Porcetti, Ed Brown, John Walsh, E. L. Fish, John Palmer, Ernest Scott, Uraldo Maschutt, John Delduen, Ed Martin, Michael Burke, David Ashberry.

THIRTY PERSONS HURT.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Sept. 8.—The express train due here from Boston at 5:20 Saturday evening ran into a Danbury & Norwalk railroad commuters train at the junction in this city. About thirty passengers were injured and both trains were badly smashed. The engineer of the express train was unable on account of a curve to see the other train until too late to prevent the collision. The passengers on both trains were badly shaken up, but only those in the wrecked car were injured. Names of the seriously injured:

AN OPEN SWITCH.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., Sept. 8.—Near Summit, in the Cherokee Nation, a freight train on the Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway ran upon a half-open switch, killing the engineer. The fireman and three tramps were burned to death in the wreck, and a fourth tramp bruised to badly that he has become insane. Sixteen cars were burned.

STILL ANOTHER COLLISION.

LEXINGTON, Mo., Sept. 8.—A Missouri Pacific passenger train ran into a passenger car which was being run onto the main track. There were but a few passengers in the car, which was nearly totally demolished. The victims are: William Whitsatt, of this city, killed; Mrs. Law, of this city, fatally injured; Baby Law, killed.

WRECKERS AGAIN AT WORK.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., Sept. 9.—A desperate attempt was made last night to wreck the fast St. Louis and Chicago express which leaves New York on the New York Central at 6 p. m. The train was stopped for a danger signal south of Old Troy, which is 600 yards south of the New Hamburg draw-bridge. Two minutes previous the flagman had discovered several ties standing endways in the culvert near Old Troy, and when he took hold of one of them to remove it he was fired upon from the bushes from the east side of the track. Knowing that the fast express was nearly due he ran southward and set the danger signal which stopped the train. There were eight ties on the up main track. There were also two ties placed alongside of the rail toward the south so as to ditch the train.

Will Oppose a Strike.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 9.—A number of the richest corporations in the country have formed an alliance against strikes. The institutions named employ between 50,000 and 60,000 workers, and directly support some 250,000 to 300,000 people, exclusive of other interests depending upon the earnings of these people. It is claimed by these manufacturers that the action of their workers has forced the alliance.

TEMPERANCE NOTES.

AN IMPORTANT QUESTION.

Shall the Saloon or the Church Attract Young Men?

The Young Men's Christian Association of Minneapolis on a recent Saturday night stationed an inspector at the door of some two hundred of the saloons of that city. The purpose was to count the number of men and boys between the ages of sixteen and forty who entered these saloons between eight and nine o'clock. An actual count, together with estimates based upon it, indicated that eight thousand persons entered those places within one hour. Minneapolis is a city of between two hundred thousand and two hundred and fifty thousand people. Therefore, one person in every twenty-five or thirty in the entire population, including children and women, become inmates of saloons in this short time. This fact is of a significance most startling. We have often referred to the power of the saloon in politics. This power is great. But the power of the saloon over individual life is greater, more comprehensive and more intimate, than its power in political machinations. The fact is one which the social philosopher as well as the Christian philanthropist should consider well.

It is probable that many of these young men did not enter the saloon for the purpose of drinking liquor. Of course, hundreds of them did enter with this purpose, but other hundreds and probably thousands entered for the sake of the warmth and light, the music and the sociability which belong to the saloon. One saloon in Minneapolis which offers a concert had some five hundred visitors in this brief space of one hour. Every city has thousands of homeless young men. The place they compliment by calling it "home" is a room in an attic, bare, cold, cheerless; every evening turns them upon the street; for the street they drift into the saloon, which is at once morally pestiferous and socially congenial.

This fact carries with it a lesson of serious importance. It is this: The duty of the churches to open rooms either in their house of worship or to hire rooms where young men may under the best conditions find that godly fellowship which they desire. We believe the church is a spiritual institution; we believe that its methods should be evangelistic. But there are many men without the ordinary comforts of civilized life whom it may be able to reach through the agency of good fellowship. The Young Men's Christian Association, which represents the churches and through which the churches themselves work, should establish attractive centers of influence in all parts of the great cities. Let the saloon be fought on its own ground. We fear that too many associations are inclined to build expensive and elegant buildings which are, however, none too elegant or expensive, in parts of the town remote from the haunts of vice and the saloon-ridden districts. These associations, like the churches, should carry their noble and attractive agencies to those parts of the city where young men are found. The devil should be fought not with the devil's weapons when they are wrong; but the devil should be fought with those weapons which belong far more to God than to Satan, goodly fellowship, goodly cheer, and the warmth of social intercourse and the light of intellectual enlightenment.—Chicago Advance.

BREVITIES.

THE Dublin Freeman's Journal says Archbishop Walsh has organized a plan of Temperance reform, with the concurrence of his clerical brethren, by which he hopes at once to secure a free and sober Ireland.

A MILWAUKEE educator says that in the districts of that city where saloons are most numerous teachers complain that many of the scholars are so stupid from drinking beer that work on them is almost useless.

THE Bishop of Newcastle says that he is persuaded that in all atmospheres, in all work, in all relations of society, a man or woman is better without alcohol than with it. His lordship has been an abstainer for fifteen years.

OF the fourteen hundred and ninety-seven persons confined in the Hartford jail during the year 1888, only seven were temperate persons. Thirteen hundred and seventy claimed to drink in moderation and one hundred and twenty were excessive users.—Journal of Inebriety.

BAD ventilation of mines and workshops weakens the constitution and paves the way for beer and whisky. Let every Temperance advocate support the working-men in their efforts to improve the condition of mines and workshops. Measures like these are not something which Temperance people may feel free to support or not to support as they see fit. They are a real essential part of the Temperance movement.—Richard T. Elv.

A pair of shoes is one of most typical products of modern industry. To make them the Animal Kingdom contributes from the herds of the Western Plains; the Vegetable, from groves of oak and hemlock or from the great forests still left to us; great factories supply cloth and thread; mines, furnaces and forges combine to furnish nails or wire. Through scores of processes, the forty-two pieces of a pair of shoes require to bring them together, the co-operation of fifty men and women, whose division of labor is so thoroughly systematized that everything goes with the same regularity attributed to the works of a clock, until as a result, you, well shod reader, who wear the W. L. Douglas' shoes, can buy a pair from three to five dollars that would have cost your forefathers from six to twelve.—Ex 10

A Chance to Make Money.

MR. EDITOR:—I bought one of Griffith's machines for plating with gold, silver or nickel and it works to perfection. No sooner did the people hear of it than I had more spoons, knives, forks and jewelry than I could plate in a month. The first week I cleared $31.30, the first month $167.85, and I think by July 1st I will have $1,000 cash and give my first considerable attention, too. My daughter made $27.40 in four days. Any person can get one of these machines by sending $3 to W. H. Griffith & Co., Zanesville, O., or can obtain circulars by addressing them. You can learn to use the machine in one hour. As this is my first lucky streak, I give my experience, hoping others may be benefited as much as I have been.

Yours truly,

MAINE ELECTION.

The Pine Tree State Gives the Republicans a Majority.

Speaker Reed Re-Elected to Congress by an Increased Majority—Governor Burleigh and the Entire Republican Ticket Also Chosen.

THE VOTE IN MAINE.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 9.—Governor Burleigh and the four Republican Congressmen, including Speaker Reed, were elected yesterday by majorities larger than were expected. Mr. Reed's majority will be almost double that of 1888, and the vote cast all over the State was very much larger than was anticipated by either party. In this city four Republican legislators and one Democrat are elected—the latter on account of local dissatisfaction.

The following is the ticket elected: Governor, Edwin C. Burleigh. Congressman—First district, Thomas B. Reed; Second, Nelson Dingley; Third, Seth L. Milliken; Fourth, Charles A. Boutelle.

Two hundred and ten towns give Burleigh 40,855; Thompson, 27,427; Clark, 561; scattering, 958. The same towns in 1888 gave a Republican vote of 50,851; Democratic, 37,244; Prohibition, 1,876; scattering, 1,089. Republican plurality 13,508, against 13,007; Republican gain, 501. If the towns to hear from fall off in the same proportion the final vote should stand: Republican, about 64,500; Democratic, 45,500; scattering, 8,000; total, 118,000.

In 1886, the last of the year, the vote stood: Republican, 68,991; Democratic, 55,289; Prohibition, 3,808; scattering, 26; Republican plurality, 13,702.

This year the plurality will be about 19,000, a gain of 5,300 and 1,000 ahead of the Presidential year. The Prohibition vote comes united with the scattering or omitted, so it is classed as scattering and may be considerably larger. The members of Congress are all re-elected by large majorities. Mr. Reed's being doubled. The county officers are mostly Republicans. The Senators are probably all Republicans, as in the last Legislature, and the Representatives must stand fully as strongly Republican—namely, 125 Republicans to 25 Democrats.

Eight of the sixteen counties in the State go Republican by the following estimated majorities: Sagadahoc, 1,000; Androscoggin, 800; York, over 2,000; Cumberland and nearly as much as Hancock, 1,200; Oxford, 1,300; Lincoln, 500; Franklin, 600; Washington, 1,500. The Governor's vote is almost as great as Reed's in the First district, equal to Dingley's in the Second district, and larger than Milliken's or Boutelle's in the third and fourth districts.

Forty-eight out of fifty-three towns in the First district give Reed 16,091; Frank, 11,339. Reed's plurality, 4,752, against 2,439 in 1888. The remaining towns are small and will not materially change these figures.

VERMONT ELECTION.

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Sept. 6.—Verified returns from 243 towns in the State show a total vote of 33,318 for Paige, 19,214 for Brigham and 1,216 for Allen and others. These returns make Paige's plurality 14,104 and his majority 12,888. In 1888 Dillingham's majority was 27,682. The five towns not heard from gave in 1888 a Republican majority of 292, which will not be materially changed. The Senate will be made up of 29 Republicans and 1 Democrat. According to returns received here the House will consist of 177 Republicans, 58 Democrats and 2 Farmers' League.

ANOTHER TICKET IN WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 6.—The State convention of the Union Labor party met in this city Friday afternoon and placed the following ticket in the field: For Governor, Colonel Reuben May, of Virginia; Lieutenant-Governor, Nelson E. Allen, of Beaver Dam; Secretary of State, William M. Lockwood, of Ripon; State Treasurer, Alfred Mannheimer, of Manitowish; Attorney General, Kerellio Shawwan, of Milwaukee; State Superintendent, Joseph W. Stewart, of Brodhead; Railroad Commissioner, B. S. Bishop, of Wausaukee; Insurance Commissioner, Charles Hatch, of Chil-ton.

NATIONAL REFORM PARTY PRINCIPLES.

St. Louis, Sept. 6.—The National Reform party—for such it has been named—is the outcome of the convention assembled during the last two days. The platform favors the abolition of National banks, prohibition, Government control of railroads, uniform marriage laws, protests against the alien ownership of lands, favors tariff reform, the regulation of corporations and the restriction of pauper immigration. A National executive committee was appointed, consisting of W. W. Jones, Chicago; Mrs. F. E. Williams, president of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union; Mrs. S. E. V. Emery, of Lansing, Mich.; Edward Evans, of Tonawanda, N. Y., and Hiram Main, of Marion, Ind.

WEB FLANAGAN NOMINATED.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 6.—The Republican State convention placed a full ticket in the field, headed by Webster Flanagan, of "What-are-we-here-for" fame, for Governor. The platform favors Blaine's reciprocity plan, indorses the silver bill and the entire financial policy of the Republican party, and the Australian system of balloting.

NEVADA REPUBLICANS.

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., Sept. 6.—The Republican convention nominated a full State ticket with R. K. Colcord for Governor.

Ex-Senator Christianey Dead.

LANSING, Mich., Sept. 9.—Judge Christianey died last evening at 6:30 after an illness of many months. From 1857 to 1875 he occupied the bench of the Supreme Court of Michigan. He was also an ex-United States Senator and ex-Minister to Peru. He was 78 years of age at the time of his death.

Decline the Nomination.

MILWAUKEE, Sept. 8.—W. M. Lockwood, of Ripon, has telegraphed his declination of the nomination for Secretary of State on the Labor ticket, and K. Shawwan, nominee for Attorney-General, refuses to accept.

SPokane Falls, Wash., Sept. 8.—At 5:55 o'clock Saturday evening a premature blast killed fifteen men, and possibly many more. The full extent of the disaster is unknown. The petition goes on to say that the interests of the Nation and the honor of the State would be best subserved if Neebe were released, and closes by asking the Governor "in the name of humanity to put an end to this manifest injustice, and by giving this man his rightful liberty remove in some degree the stain upon the honor of this State."

This agreement was also called for six days' notice for settlement of a grievance before striking.

From the Cresco, Iowa, "Plaindealer" "We have never, as our readers for nearly thirty years in this country can testify, written a 'puff' of any patent medicine. Duty as well as inclination impel us to depart from this studied silence, to say to our readers and the public that, having been completely prostrated with a violent and distressing cold, after three days fighting it with ordinary remedies and getting no relief from their use, we obtained a bottle of Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Cough Cure, obtaining almost instant relief and a steady improvement under its use." Large bottles only $1.00. Ask for Clarke's Flax Soap. "Best on Earth," 25 cents. Both the above for sale by Eberbach & Son.

"Dearest Laura, don't cry so! If everything else vanishes we shall yet have left to us memory!" "Ah, dearest Emma then perhaps you will remember that I lent you $5 two years ago."

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequal record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

Be Your Own Doctor!

It won't cost you one-half as much. Do not delay: Send three two-cent stamps for postage, and we will send you Dr. Kaufmann's great work, fine colored plates from life, on disease, its causes and home cure. Address: A. P. Ordway & Co., Boston, Mass.

First Sweet Girl—

"Just think! The Czar of Russia has a throne that cost $10,000." Second S. G.—"Really? Why, that is not half as much as papa paid for his seat in the Senate."

What is the Use!

Of buying worthless medicines, and spending money on quack doctors whose only idea is to gull the public. Is it not better to buy reliable medicine like Sulphur Bitters? I think so, as they cured me of Catarrh after suffering three years.—F. P. Clark, Manchester.

An Eminent Doctor's Prescription.

Dr. C. P. Henry, Chicago, Ill., who has practiced medicine many years, says: Last spring he used and prescribed Clarke's Extract of Flax (Papillon) Skin Cure in 40 or 50 cases, and never knew a case where it failed to cure. "I know of no remedy I can rely on so implicitly." Positive cure for all diseases of the skin. Applied externally. Clarke's Flax Soap is best for babies. Skin Cure $1.00. Soap 25 cents. At Eberbach & Son's drug store.

When sin comes to see you, it always brings its brothers and sisters and cousins along.

To Nervous Debilitated Men.

If you will send us your address, we will mail you our illustrated pamphlet explaining all about Dr. Dye's Celebrated Electro-Voltaic Belt and Appliances, and their charming effects upon the nervous debilitated system, and how they will quickly restore you to vigor, and manhood. Pamphlet free. If you are thus afflicted, we will send you a Belt and Appliances on trial. Voltaic Belt Co., Marshall, Mich.

A Lady in Texas Writes:

My case is of long standing; it has baffled many physicians; have tried every remedy I could hear of, but Bradford's Female Regulator is all that relieved me. Write The Bradford Reg. Co., Atlanta, Ga., for further particulars. Sold by all druggists.

The man who is continually looking for an easy place will always have a hard one.

Advice To Mothers.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gum, allays all pain, cures wrenched colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Work for eternity must rest on a solid foundation.

An old adage says: "Remembrance is the only tie which lingers when all others die." A direct application to this truthful saying has made us persistent in our efforts to bring Loose's Extract of Red Clover to your notice. We are daily coming in contact with people who say to us: You remember what I was, how I looked and how I suffered before I was induced to try Red Clover. Ask any one who has taken Red Clover for any form of Blood Disorder and skin eruptions, for Indigestion and Rheumatism. Ask them, we say, what their recollection of Red Clover is, what it did for them, and they will convince you of the truth of all our statements. For sale by Eberbach & Son.

For Earache, Toothache, Sore Throat, Swelled Neck, and the results of colds and inflammation, use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil—the great pain destroyer.

It is not the tallest tree that bears the most fruit.

Adolf Lahoz, carriage manufacturer, 119 Carroll-st., Buffalo, N. Y., states: I was troubled with nausea of the stomach, sick headache and general debility. Burdock Blood Bitters cured me.

The first real step toward heaven is to decide to start now.

Veni, Vidi, Vici! This is true of Hall's Hair Renewer, for it is the great conqueror of gray and faded hair, making it look the same even color of youth.

The devil with a preacher's coat on is none the less a devil.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is in favor with all classes because it combines economy and strength. 100 Doses One Dollar.

THE FIGURE "9."

The figure 9 in our dates will make a long stay. No man or woman now living will ever date a document without using the figure 9. It stands in the third place in 1890, where it will remain ten years and then move up to second place in 1900 where it will rest for one hundred years.

There is another "9" which has also come to stay. It is unlike the figure 9 in our dates in the respect that it has already moved up to first place, where it will permanently remain. It is called the "No. 9" High Arm Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine. The "No. 9" was endorsed for first place by the experts of Europe at the Paris Exposition of 1889 where, after a severe contest with the leading machines of the world, it was awarded the only Grand Prize given to family sewing machines, all others on exhibit having received lower awards of gold medals, etc. The French Government also recognized its superiority by the decoration of Mr. Nathaniel Wheeler, President of the company with the Cross of the Legion of Honor

A number of the residents on S. State-st and vicinity have been circulating a petition asking that the time for the completion of the street railway south of Williams-st be extended to January 1, hoping that, in such case, the line will be laid on streets more satisfactory to the people. The company is quite willing to accept these conditions, provided the council sees fit to make the change. The road on Washenaw-ave will be completed by October 1, in any case.

Mayor Manly has vetoed the ordinance, recently passed, which changes the route of the street railway. He says: "That part of the ordinance, granting said company the privilege of extending a spur on any street southwesterly to the fair grounds, is indefinite and ought to be revised; said company should be required to select one of the highways leading to the fair grounds. I would further suggest that the council reserve the right to amend or repeal this ordinance or revoke the privilege granted under it."
