Proceedings and Doings of the Delegates and Visitors Now in the City—Bay City the Next Place of Meeting.

If a person were to come to Ann Arbor this week without previous warning he would conclude that the University city was celebrating the Fourth of July ahead of time. The store fronts on Main-st are almost entirely covered with bunting. On the court house flags and banners reach from cupola to cornice. The city building is equally well decked, and even private houses are decorated in a manner that shows the owners to be more than ordinarily patriotic. There is, however, no Fourth of July celebration. There is simply a meeting of delegates from the entire state, representing a great benevolent society to which many of our German Americans belong, and to which they apply the name of "Arbeiter Bund."

Twenty-three years ago a large number of local aid societies came together, united and held the first convention. Since that time the Bund has grown till its numbers at present nearly 7,000 members. Last year Ann Arbor delegates placed the charms of this beautiful city so clearly before the eyes of their brother delegates that they decided to hold the convention of 1891 in this city. There was additional appropriateness in this selection, for the reason that the Ann Arbor Unterstuetzung Verein has just passed its twenty-fifth birthday. Early Tuesday morning delegates began to arrive and at two o'clock they assembled in the rink to hear the ADDRESSES OF WELCOME. Shortly after two o'clock Alderman Christian Martin, president of the Ann Arbor Unterstuetzung Verein, called the convention to order and in German welcomed the delegates. He spoke of the great importance of the meeting, which was of interest not only to members of Arbeiter Vereins but to all the Germans of the state as well.

Mayor Doty extended a cordial welcome to the hearts and homes of Ann Arbor. The people had looked forward to the event with great eagerness. He knew that the delegates had come for work and not alone for pleasure, but he hoped that they would not fail fully to test the hospitality of the city. He invited them to visit the factories, municipal offices, University and other points of interest. In conclusion, he paid a high tribute to the "Bund," whose principles he considered worthy of great respect.

Prof. M. E. Cooley, president of the council, made a few felicitous remarks. He gave the delegates to understand that although he looked young, he was, in a certain sense, father of the "city fathers." If the mayor or any of the municipal officers did not do their duty by the delegates, he wanted them to report the offender to him and he would see that the proper rebuke was administered. In conclusion, he extended a hearty welcome on behalf of the city. He also read a letter from President Angell, inviting the delegates to visit the University.

President Carl Kaufmann responded, thanking the previous speakers for the hearty welcome they extended. He said that although the German Americans retained their love for the old country, they love still better their adopted land.

The business sessions of the Bund then commenced. The committee on credentials reported the names of 121 delegates, representing fifty-one associations in Allegan, Adrian, Alpena, Ann Arbor, Battle Creek, Bay City, Calumet, Chelsea, Coldwater, Detroit, East Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Hancock, Hastings, Ionia, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Lansing, Leesville, Ludington, Manchester, Marine City, Marshall, Maybee, Monroe, Mt. Clemens, Muskegon, Owosso, Port Huron, Reed City, Roseville, Saginaw, Saline, Salzburg, Sebawaing, Springwells, Sturgis, Three Oaks, Wyandotte, Ypsilanti, Petooskey and Frankenmuth. Cadillac, Grand Haven, Marquette, Niles, Sanguatuck, New Buffalo and St. Joseph sent no delegates. Those from Ann Arbor were Christian Martin, George Visel and G. J. Lutz.

The president's report was presented. It showed a total membership of 6,945, distributed as follows: Adrian, 145; Allegan, 16; Alpena, 128; Ann Arbor, 142; Battle Creek, 51; Bay City, 177; Bay City No. 2, 26; Cadillac, 15; Calumet, 102; Chelsea, 79; Coldwater, 60; Detroit No. 1, 424; No. 2, 260; No. 3, 106; No. 4, 90; No. 5, 14; East Saginaw—No. 1, 514; No. 2, 56; Grand Haven, 78; Grand Rapids, 200; Hancock, 50; Hastings, 7; Ionia, 45; Jackson, 171; Jackson No. 2, 64; Kalamazoo No. 1, 107; No. 2, 90; Lansing, 173; Leesville, 54; Ludington, 87; Manchester, 140; Manistee, 228; Marine City, 98; Marquette, 56; Marshall, 111; Maybee, 48; Monroe, 234; Mt. Clemens, 86; Muskegon, 150; New Buffalo, 46; Niles, 65; Owosso, 60; Port Huron, 126; No. 2

80; Reed City, 41; Roseville, 116; Saginaw City, 630; Saline, 62; Salzburg, 129; Sanguatuck, 24; Sebawaing, 60; Springwells, 121; Sturgis, 38; St. Joseph, 22; Three Oaks, 44; Wyandotte, 114; Ypsilanti, 54. The total membership last year was 8,658.

N. Schmid, of Manchester, treasurer of the Bund, made his financial report. During the year ending June 6, $45,047.90 was received. Of this $928.60 came from Ann Arbor. The disbursements were $42,625.25. The sum of $500.00 each was paid to the families of the following members who died in Ann Arbor last year: Jacob Dengler, Michael Weinmann, Wm. Exinger, John Weibrecht, August Mogg and August Kajuska. The treasurer now has on hand $7,650.64. Other business, less important was transacted in the afternoon.

THE CONCERT given at the opera house in the evening was even better than anticipated. A mixed orchestra, under the direction of Prof. Otto, rendered several fine selections. The "Gesangverein Lyra," organized only a few weeks ago by Prof. R. H. Kempf, was a revelation. "Zigeuner Leben" and "Mein Turteltaubchen" were both well appreciated. Another fine feature was the playing of the Ann Arbor Zither club, which is composed of Messrs. Martin Haller, Geo. Visel, Gottlob Stark and John Meyer, jr. They were enthusiastically encored. The Harugari Maennchenor, with sixteen voices, gave two patriotic selections. A duet by Mrs. R. H. Kempf and Walter Taylor, "Gern will ich schliessen das Aug;" an alto solo by Miss Annie Lutz, "Liebesbrief;" a duet by Miss E. Hazzard and Walter Taylor, "A Night in Venice;" and a soprano solo by Miss Hazzard, "O Schoene Zeit," were all encored. A large audience listened to the program.

THE PROCESSION started yesterday morning, shortly after eleven o'clock. The marshals were Frederick Schmid and Titus Hutzel. In advance was the fire department, followed by the Ann Arbor band. Then came the city and county officials and the members of the "Gesangverein Lyra" in hacks. The Jackson band and Verein followed. Farther back in the procession were the Belleville and Milan bands, both of which furnished exceptionally good music. The Ann Arbor German societies—the Harugari, Landwehr, United Workmen, Turnverein, Unterstuetzung Verein—appeared in the procession. The Jackson, Detroit, Saline, Lansing, Ionia, Ypsilanti Unterstuetzung vereins were all largely represented, as well as many from other cities. There were between four hundred and five hundred men in line all told. The line of march was as follows: From the rink on Huron-st to Division, to Ann, to Main, to Fourth, to Relief Park. The noon hour and early afternoon were spent in picnic fashion.

P. G. SUEKEY'S SPEECH. Shortly after two o'clock P. G. Suekey, editor of the Hausfreund, delivered a speech commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Ann Arbor Unterstuetzung Verein. Referring to the history of Michigan, he said that Steuben was the first distinguished German to visit Michigan, he having been sent in 1783 by Washington to take possession of the territory. The immigration of Germans during the days of the territory and early days of the state was small. Now thousands of industrious Germans are inhabitants of Michigan. Ann Arbor was from the first a favorite place of settlement.

Mr. Suekey hoped the delegates would return home with the conviction that in the Huron valley are American citizens who are not ashamed of the race from which they sprang, and who still cherish the old customs and traditions.

The speaker traced the history of the Ann Arbor Verein. In 1866 Franz Nebel, John Eisele and August Widemann agitated the foundation of an aid society. They were successful and in October 143 men signed the constitution. At the first regular meeting August Widemann was elected president, Hermann Schlotterbeck vice-president, G. F. Lutz recording secretary, Adolph Kemper corresponding secretary, John Eisele treasurer. In 1875 the Verein became part of the state Arbeiter Bund. Since 1876 340 persons have joined, 79 have died and 197 have been dismissed or discharged. The money paid relatives of each deceased member was at first $40; now it is $540. Since 1876 $9,500 has been expended in aid and $3,280 in life insurance.

Since 1875 $8,787.70 has been paid into the general state treasury, while $10,050 has been received from that source. Mr. Suekey showed how all this illustrated the truth of their motto, "In union there is strength," and with what wisdom the founders of the organization had selected the bee hive as their symbol.

BUSINESS SESSIONS were held both morning and afternoon yesterday. The Bund decided not to raise the treasurer's salary, as proposed, from $5 to $125. New members will hereafter be required to deposit $10 with general treasurer. The proposition to pay an organizer $500 a year was voted down. Bay City was selected as the place of next meeting.

A resolution was passed stipulating that hereafter members of the Lutheran church might be admitted if their moral character was approved. This was a sarcastic hit at the Missouri synod, which recently decided that no churchman could belong to the Arbeiter Verein.

THE FINALE. Last evening a bowery dance was given in Relief Park, which was brilliantly lighted with electricity. Most of the visitors returned home on the late trains. Today the business sessions are finished and the delegates will visit the University. The Arbeiter Bund will undoubtedly carry away with them pleasant memories of the Athens of the West.

How Did it Happen?

Saturday afternoon Frank D. Morse and Charles Conrad left their homes on Geddes-ave, just beyond the city limits, and went to the base ball game on the fair grounds.

In the evening they were down town. Shortly before eleven they took the Packard-st line, by mistake, with the intention of going home. When they reached the switch near Division-st the motor car left the trailer on one side and ran ahead.

Conrad jumped off while the car was still in motion, Morse calling out at the time, "Be careful." Shortly afterwards, it seems, the motor backed down the other side of the switch. Conrad saw no more of his friend until he was found lying in a mangled condition under the car. Chas. S. Fall, who was running the motor stopped it as soon as he felt the jar. No one saw precisely how the accident occurred.

Morse was terribly mangled, both arms being broken and the chest badly crushed. He died instantly. The remains were taken to O. M. Martin's undertaking rooms, where on Sunday morning an inquest was held by Coroner Clark. The street railway company was exonerated from all blame.

Morse was twenty-five years of age. He was the son of Jerome Morse, a fruit-grower. He himself had recently been employed as a laborer at the water-works.

The funeral took place Monday afternoon at the residence of his father on the Geddes-road. Rev. R. H. Rust conducted the services.

A Father and Child.

The spectacle of two officers conducting a young and pretty girl to the court house caused quite a sensation Tuesday morning. Minnie Davis, of Ypsilanti, has refused to live with her father, J. H. Davis, who is a widower, because he has been cruel to her. During the past year she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Lambert. Tuesday morning Mr. Lambert came with Miss Davis to the probate court to petition for the appointment of a guardian. While on the street the father attempted to take his child, but officers prevented. A large crowd followed them into the court house where, after the usual preliminaries, Mr. Lambert was appointed guardian.

Pioneer Society.

The annual meeting of the Washtenaw County Pioneer and Historical Society was held in Dexter yesterday. Judge Harriman delivered an able and appropriate address. The Dexter Quartette and Mr. Williams, of Webster, rendered excellent music. The ladies of Dexter furnished dinner for the old settlers who were present. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Rev. Thomas Holmes, of Chelsea; secretary, J. Q. A. Sessions, Ann Arbor; treasurer, Edward Treadwell, Ann Arbor; necrologist, Wm. H. Lay, Ypsilanti. A vice president for each township and city was also elected. The next meeting will be held in Chelsea.

A Story of Insects.

The other day a gentleman walking down Ann-st noticed something peculiar about one of the maples. A closer investigation disclosed the presence of a dozen or more formidable-looking insects. In shape and general appearance they somewhat resemble a small dragon-fly, but the body is longer and more flexible. They are armed with a drill between three and four inches long, which with incredible strength is driven, almost its entire length, into the wood of the tree attacked. It is certainly very interesting to watch them at work, but when one thinks of what will happen upon the hatching of the eggs thus laid, and of the worm-eaten branches that are so rapidly breaking from our beautiful maples now, a query arises as to a possible remedy. If some one could devise one he certainly would deserve the lasting gratitude of all who live in or visit the arbor city.

The Ann Arbor and Dexter nines will cross bats at the latter place tomorrow. The York mill property has been sold to S. M. Bixby, of Matawan, Van Buren county. Cut-worms are playing havoc with tomato plants in some parts of the county. The Crawford family having left, there is not one colored person in Chelsea. The Ypsilanti council is trying to ape that of Detroit. It has no Jacob but it has a Tern. James Geddes, of Chelsea, has a pair of Light Brahma fowls which weigh twenty-four pounds. Chas. L. Blodgett, U. of M., '91, has been elected superintendent of the Manchester schools. The only graduates this year from the Saline high school are Elmer Bassett and Daisy Humphry. There are 122 pupils in the Stockbridge schools, twenty-seven of whom attend the high school. The merry-go-round has left Saline and people no longer know how to while away the evenings. Miss Nellie Copeland, a graduate of St. Louis School of Fine Arts, will open a summer class in Dexter. Rev. M. J. Fleming of Gagetown, will succeed Fr. Kelly as pastor of St. Joseph's church in Dexter. The small children of St. Joseph's parish in Dexter presented Fr. Kelly with a purse of $95, last week. The Saline Observer calls the law graduates "dudes." Dudes! Why, most of them come from the wild and woolly west, and some are ex-cowboys. Rev. J. D. Spriggs will deliver the baccalaureate sermon before the high school graduates in South Lyon. M. T. Woodruff has taken complete charge of the Ypsilanti Sentinel. His father, however, still remains editor. The Chelsea Herald says that more than ten times as many beans are being planted this year as in any previous year. The picnic association of northern Lenawee and southern Washtenaw will hold their annual picnic next Saturday at Sand Lake. Wm. F. Hall, of Sharon, clipped from one of his merino sheep a fleece of one year's growth, which weighed over thirty-one pounds. Now is the time to pull the rye out of your wheat fields. A little rye will reduce the quality of wheat from five to fifteen cents per bushel.—Chelsea Standard. The Oakland Excelsior says there is "talk of an investigation into the drowning and the disposition of the body of the man Bush, drowned in McNally's lake, May 7." Supervisor Burlingame, of Ann Arbor township, proposes to prosecute people who may hereafter try to make the township a cemetery for dead horses. Hark, from the tomb!—Adrian Press. The lock-up at Stockbridge has been enclosed by a high board fence. The space between the building and the fence will be utilized as a pound. Vagrant men and animals will have the company which misery loves. Isn't it about time some one was talking up a fair for this fall? Now is the time to make arrangements. Let's have a fair by all means.—Chelsea Standard. Would it not be better for you to pitch in and help make the county fair one worthy of Washtenaw? There are parents in this village who need not be surprised if they hear that their boy has been arrested for disturbing a public meeting. Chelsea has a number of boys who should be in the reform school.—Chelsea Standard. Nonsense! Boys will be boys. Last Sunday morning a daughter of Herbert Hunt, who resides south of the village, found a dynamite cap and was playing with it when it exploded, carrying away the end of the first finger and a portion of the thumb of her left hand.—Manchester Enterprise. There is a wonderful piece of sidewalk patching on River-st, just north of North-st. THE CHASE ENDED.

The Chilean Vessel Itata Surrenders to Uncle Sam. Five Thousand Rifles Secured—Her Action Due to an Arrangement Between the Authorities—Judicial Proceedings Will Be of Interest. THE ITATA GIVEN UP. IQUIQUE, June 5.—The Itata arrived here Thursday morning with 5,000 rifles aboard. It was immediately surrendered to the American admiral—McCann. The commander of the Itata states that the arms were not embarked at San Diego, but at a point many miles at sea. The Iquique government claims that this circumstance modifies the situation considerably and will probably result in a speedy solution of the difficulties between the admirals and the junta. The authorities at the same time declare that the cargo of the Itata is of little importance, taking into consideration the small number of arms. The Itata's flight began about the 5th of May. She had taken to off San Diego, Cal., and there laid on a cargo of small arms for the Chilean insurgents or congress faction. Her action was discovered by the United States marshal, who seized her for violation of the neutrality law. In confidence that there would be no resistance to the seizure the marshal left a deputy and two men in custody of the ship. During the night the Itata put to sea, but after she had gone a short distance the marshal's posse and the pilot were sent ashore in a small boat. The matter was reported to Washington and the cruiser Charleston ordered to go in pursuit. The Charleston was at San Francisco, and before she could be coaled and provisioned the Itata had good five days' start of her. The Itata was conveyed at the outset by the Chilean warship Esmeralda, but the inability of the latter to obtain coal at Acapulco put her out of the race. The commander of the Itata had hoped to make some port in the hands of the insurgents, but the fact that he was out of coal and short of provisions, as well as the knowledge that he was closely pursued, drove him to Iquique. Ships of the United States navy that were here awaiting her coming promptly demanded her surrender, and the commander of the Itata, after a brief parley, complied. IQUIQUE, June 8.—There is great excitement here over the decision of the American admiral to take the Itata without allowing the discharge of her arms and ammunition. The press is very bitter and considers that the United States, the cradle of republican ideas, commits a grave error in thus indirectly assisting the dictator. WASHINGTON, June 8.—Information has been received in this city from Chili to the effect that the insurgent schooner Itata, before proceeding to Iquique from Teopila, landed at the latter place 5,000 rifles and a large amount of supplies. LAND FOR HOMESTEADS. Fifteen Thousand Acres of Railroad Land in Iowa Open to Settlers. DES MOINES, Ia., June 9.—On July 6 there will be open for entry in Iowa the forfeited lands within the indemnity limits of the grants for the Sioux City, & St. Paul, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, and the Cedar Rapids & Missouri River railroad companies. There will be probably about 15,000 acres of these lands opened for settlement. Inquiries have been coming in very fast since the announcement that they would be opened. A large part of these lands is occupied by settlers who have been innocent purchasers. Such settlers will be given the first opportunity to make entries on the land they hold. Several thousand acres of the land, however, is raw prairie, worth $10 to $20 an acre. All this will be open to the general public for entry. The land is some of the best in the world, situated in northwestern Iowa, and the effort to capture it will be tremendous. Unveiled His Own Statue. NEW YORK, June 8.—A statue of J. S. T. Stranahan, known as Brooklyn's foremost citizen, was unveiled Saturday at the entrance to Prospect park in the presence of a large number of distinguished citizens. LEBANON, Ind., June 8.—The jury in the case of Mont Mabbett, who was charged with having murdered his sister Minnie's child on the 19th of last November, brought in a verdict of not guilty. The utmost interest was manifested in the outcome of the case and the courthouse was crowded daily with spectators. Reward Offered for Marsh's Arrest. PHILADELPHIA, June 6.—The mayor has announced a reward of $5,000 for the arrest and conviction of Gideon W. Marsh for alleged violation of law while acting as president of the Keystone national bank. Burned to a Crisp. Many Killed in a Storm. LONDON, June 8.—The Standard's Vienna correspondent says that at least a dozen persons were killed in the recent thunderstorm there.

After She Sang.

Some weird and sacred sorcery Makes music's self appear to be An unexisting dream, apart From you, your life, and singing heart. Strange bits of fitful moods of sound Are in your aspects interwound. Your attitudes and movements own An overness of time and tone. Brief notes of rhythmic light arise Through the blue shadows in your eyes, Your each inbreathing seems to be A draught of silent melody. The room that holds your heart seems hung, With tapestries your soul has sung. A soft and gentle radiance falls From where your voice glows on the walls. And where your harmonies have shone A quiet warmth still lingers on, Like sunshine on an evening lawn, After your living self has gone. —Edward Lucas White.

Last Thursday took place the annual short-horn cattle sale on the farm of W. E. Boyden, one mile north of Delhi. C. E. Moore, of St. Clair, brought eleven head, which, added to Mr. Boyden's, made fifty-one. There were about 400 present from all over the state, who gathered in the barn, which Mr. Boyden had previously fitted up for the purpose, with seats that descended from either side to the front where a rope was stretched around to separate the spectators from the cattle ring. J. A. Mann, of Lansing, was the auctioneer. Geo. W. Pickett, of Kent Co., paid the highest price, $135, and Wm. Campbell, of Ann Arbor, the lowest, $25, for a five months' old calf. The latter carried off the highest number of cattle of any bidder, eight, which amounted to $470. Near the last of the sale one beast broke away and struck Supervisor Ball's little boy in the back of the head, throwing him to the ground. It did not hurt him much. At the end of the sale Mr. Boyden announced that he intended to have another sale on the first Thursday in June 1893. The sales amounted to $3,165.

The Scharf Tag and Label Co. business of Toledo, being now the property of H. P. Glover, the factory will be transplanted to this city, thus adding another valuable enterprise to our already well filled list. John Taylor has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be able to depart for Canada, in company with his mother, for a month's visit. Edgar Comstock is lying in a critical state at this writing and is not expected to live. While Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeMosh, together with their son and his wife, were riding Sunday afternoon, their horses took fright and tore down Washington-st at a frantic rate; both of the ladies lost their presence of mind and jumped, thereby nearly ending their lives for once and all. The other occupants of the carriage held the fort until the horses were quieted and were unharmed. One of the attractions of the lower grade at the Normal Commencement will be the juvenile orchestra in Miss Wall's room. There will be a small girl with a cornet, a diminutive lad with a violin, another youngster at the organ, while the jewsharp, tin horn, bass drum etc, will no doubt find willing, if not skillful, performers. About 150 guests were invited to Mrs. Otis Hall's, on Huron-st, Friday evening, to what has been styled a "twilight reception." The occasion was an exceedingly pleasant one. Huron-st business folks propose to have a stone walk laid across from the Occidental Hotel, about opposite the Bazarrette, to accommodate persons who can't wait to do the proper feat of walking around the block to get anywhere. Cement and stone walks are at last to be laid on Huron-st in front of the stores, and the loose boards and nails that so long have been the innocent cause of many a million swear-words, will be laid away among the relics of the past. It is surmised that a good share of Ypsi's downright wickedness will, at the final account, be attributed to those same unlucky boards. Many of our citizens are enveloping themselves in furs and other protections against a still more frigid zone than this, and departing for the north. Some of us, however, prefer to freeze right here among our friends and save expense.

The Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad will sell excursion tickets at greatly reduced rates to Middlesborough, Ky., that marvelous city, illustrative of southern progress. The tickets are good going June 17 and returning till June 22. On sale at C. H. & D. coupon ticket offices. For pamphlets and full information address E. O. McCormick, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Cincinnati.

The Burlington Route, C. E. & Q. R. R., operates 7,000 miles of road, with termini in Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, Omaha, Kansas City and Denver. For speed, safety, comfort, equipment, track and efficient service it has no equal. The Burlington gains new patrons, but loses none.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, causing distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet efficiently. It tones the stomach, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, banishes headache, and refreshes the mind. Sick Headache "I have been troubled with dyspepsia. I had but little appetite, and what I did eat distressed me, or did me little good. After eating I would have a faint or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble was aggravated by my business, painting. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla, which did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced." GEORGE A. PAGE, Watertown, Mass.

LITERARY NOTES.

The subjects that have had the greatest share of attention from thoughtful men for the past month have undoubtedly been Immigration, Our Currency, the Case of the Rev. Dr. Briggs, and the International Copyright Law, which will go into effect July 1. The June number of The Forum contains discussions of all these subjects. The Rev. Dr. Briggs himself contributes a criticism of the churches for insisting on non-essential parts of their creeds. Forum Pub. Co., New York, N. Y.

A never failing charm of The Ladies Home Journal is that it is always abreast of the season. This seems especially true of the June number, with its dainty pages for the Brides of June, Florence Howe Hall's "In Church or at Home?" Mrs. Mallon's suggestions for brides and their maids, and Ella Wheeler Wilcox's clever comparison between women and flowers. Quite as timely, also, are the portrait sketch of Lady Agnes Macdonald, the wife of Canada's premier; Sister Rose Gertrude's description of "Life Among the Lepers at Molokai"; Charles J. Dumar's article on "Women as Type-setters," and William H. Rideing's "Hints on House Building." Issued at one dollar a year, or ten cents a copy, by the Curtis Publishing Company, 435 Arch-st, Philadelphia, Pa.

With over 120 illustrations the Cosmopolitan for June sets a fast pace in the handicap for magazine honors. The frontispiece is a portrait of Madame de Pompadour, and pertains to a bright sketch of a summer spent in the home of that famous woman by Amelia Rives and her guests. A pleasant insight into the attractiveness of Japanese women is given in a paper by Henry T. Finck, illustrated by a large number of pretty faces. The art article of the month describes the work of Gustave Dore, with elaborate engravings, which illustrate very well the masterpieces of that wonderful artist. Perhaps the most valuable article of the number is that contributed by Mr. Abner L. Frazer to the literature of the farmers' movement. The Cosmopolitan prize of $200 for the best article on "the needs of the farmer, his hours of labor, and the national legislation necessary to his prosperity," was awarded by the judges to this gentleman. The article itself is brightened by a series of cartoons by the famous artists Attwood of Boston and Dan Beard of New York. Cosmopolitan Publishing Co., Madison Square, New York. Price 25 cents.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

"I've gone through a great deal," remarked the saw as it emerged from the log—Jester.

For bracing up the nerves, purifying the blood and curing sick headache and dyspepsia, there is nothing equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

"A foregone conclusion" sighed the dog, as he dug a hole in the ground, and buried the tail his cruel master had cut off.

One of my children having had a severe case of whooping cough, I was induced to try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, the child was entirely cured by the use of two bottles. In view of the above, I deem it a pleasure to forward this testimonial of its efficacy. JAMES BUCKLEY.

The North China News says the Chinese write most insulting remarks about foreigners on the backs of notes circulated by foreign bankers which come into their possession.

1936 Lombard St., Philadelphia, Pa. "I have found out a gift for my fair." Naturally it may be supposed it is a flower for her hair, a diamond for her finger, or a box of candy, but it is far better than these. It is a bottle of that famous Salvation Oil to cure her neuralgia, pretty dear.

The old shibboleth about "blushing brides" has been demolished by the ministers. They say that the bridegroom is always the most bashful at the altar.

The Songsters of the Groves.

How cheerful are the summer birds, How careless of life's ills, They sing away the sunny hours, Never thinking of their bills.

A Fool and His Money Soon Part. How true some of these old sayings are. A friend of mine paid a travelling quack $50 to cure him of Scrofula, from which he had suffered two years. He gave him a bottle of stuff which only aggravated the disease. When he went to consult the second time, the quack had left for parts unknown. Upon learning the circumstances I recommended Salsaparilla Bitters. Five bottles cured him.—Editor Journal and Courier.

A Back Action Defense.

The Squire—It's no use for you to deny your guilt, Johnson. The chickens were actually found in your coat tail pockets.

Br'er Johnson (stoutly)—I kain't help dat, sah. Hain't it pooty tough to hold a po' niggah responsible fo' what's goin' on behind his back?—Texas Siftings.

An Introduction to the Queen is an honor conferred upon only a favored few. But every lady of the land may have ready access to the Queen of Remedies—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Once known, always a valued friend. It promises to positively cure every form of weakness peculiar to women, and confirms this promise by a written guarantee of satisfaction, guaranteed in every case, or money returned. This Royal Remedy is prepared for women only, and its efficiency is vouched for by countless happy homes and countless thousands of testimonials. A trial will convince you that it is invaluable in correcting all irregularities and weaknesses for which it is designed

When not to Ask. You see a man take out his watch And look at it intently. His mind is centered on it from His manner, evidently. Then is your chance to ask the time? You'd naturally suppose so. You venture to inquire and find He seldom ever knows it. —Judge.

For Over Fifty Years Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world.

The Value of Occupation. Men blame the women for their talk Of fashion and of dress. And such like things that help to make Up human happiness. Perhaps if Eve had been engaged With matters that were going to be, She wouldn't have had time to take Such notice of the—Philadelphia Times.

Ladies Try Great French Remedy. Dr. Le Duc's Periodical Pills from Paris, France, act only upon the generative organs in females, and positively cure suppression of the menses (from whatever cause) and all periodical troubles peculiar to women. Established in Europe, 1839; England, 1850. Canada, 1878; United States, 1887. A safe, reliable remedy, warranted to excite menstruation, or money refunded. The larger portion of the ills to which ladies are subject is the direct result of a disordered and irregular menstruation. The American Pill Co., proprietors. Price, $2. Sold by Eberbach & Son, druggists, Ann Arbor, Mich.

A Natural Ambition. "Do you want a six shooter?" "Well, I'd rather have a nine shooter. I want to kill a cat."

Needed a Revival. There is a bright little girl in a Pittsburg boarding house who has lately recovered from one of the infantile ills necessary, apparently, to the full development of humanity. Her little temper suffered greatly, and in a peevish moment she did just what she ought not. "Why, Mamie," said her mother severely, "you said you were not going to be naughty again." "I did intend to be good," sobbed the culprit; then (with her late experience in view), "I guess you have to send for Doc; I had a relapse."

Always. You'll find it in all the professions, In pulpit, in court and in shop, As well as in straw berry boxes. The best always get to the top.

Pat's Great Wonder. We are surrounded by dangers all the way from the cradle to the grave. "The great wonder is," as Pat says, "that after getting out of our cradle, we live long enough to reach our grave." Thousands are out of health—more so, morbid and miserable, because they do not avail themselves of the remedy within easy reach of them. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery would cure them. For all chronic or lingering Coughs, Weak Lungs, Spitting of Blood, Bronchitis, Shortness of Breath, Asthma and kindred ailments, it is a most potent remedy. It cleanses the blood, invigorates the liver, improves digestion, and builds up both flesh and strength. Dose small and pleasant to taste. Large bottles, one dollar. Of all druggists.

Looks Like a Fake. A Toledo girl went to Chicago and while laboring under the impression that she was Mary Anderson, Magzite Mitchell and Anna Dickinson, proceeded to divest herself of her clothing and insisted on going upon the street. Had she been laboring under the delusion that her name was Sybil Johnston there might have been some excuse for her aversion to conventional apparel.—Buffalo Express.

Catarth in New England. Ely's Cream Balm gives satisfaction to everyone using it for catarrhal troubles. G. K. Mellor, Druggist, Worcester, Mass. I believe Ely's Cream Balm is the best article for catarrh ever offered the public.—Bush & Co., Druggists, Worcester, Mass.

An article of real merit.—C. P. Alden, Druggist, Springfield, Mass. Those who use it speak highly of it.—Geo. A. Hill, Druggist, Springfield, Mass. Cream Balm has given satisfactory results.—W. F. Draper, Druggist, Springfield, Mass.

Medical Literature. There appears to be rather more activity in the line of medical literature than in that of geology, fiction or history. In 1890, 143 new works appertaining to medicine and surgery came out.

He Also Causes Pain. "It takes Zola nine months to write a novel. He handles a pen as a laborer might a spade, and is a slow and painful toiler. The expression on his face when he is doing literary work is one of torment. That on the faces of his readers is one of agony."

Weak Women. The more sensitive nature of the female sex renders women much more susceptible than men to those numerous ills which spring from lack of harmony in the system. The nervous system gives way, sick headache is frequent, the appetite is lost, and other ailments peculiar to the sex cause great suffering. Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiarly adapted for such cases, and has received the most gratifying praise for the relief it has afforded thousands of women whose very existence before taking it was only misery. It strengthens the nerves, cures sick headache and indigestion, purifies and vitalizes the blood, and gives regular and healthy action to every organ in the body.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

EDITED BY MRS. ALLIE LUSE DICK, FOR THE W. C. T. U.

And by the University Prohibition Club—Facts and Arguments Pertaining to the Cause of Temperance

[EDITED BY MRS. ALLIE LUSE DICK, A. M.]

The seventeenth annual convention of the Woman's State Christian Temperance Union of Michigan was held in the city of Grand Rapids, June 2, 3, 4 and 5. A lengthy, but most excellent program had been prepared and was carried out enthusiastically. The state officers were all re-elected and are Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, Jackson, president; Mrs. Emma A. Wheeler, Grand Rapids, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lizzie M. Johnson, Flint, recording secretary; Mrs. Emma H. May, Clio, treasurer. The convention opened on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock. The mornings and afternoons were spent in business meetings, reports from all departments of work, discussions, symposiums and addresses, all of which were both entertaining and instructive. If we may be allowed to particularize we would notice especially the discussions on the questions "why we work" and the relation of the educational department, or scientific temperance, to the ultimate triumph of temperance reform. The parliamentary drill, by Mrs. A. S. Benjamin, del-sar-te gymnastics by Miss Lydia E. Newcomb and the mock school board by Mrs. Mary H. Hunt were made features of special interest. On Tuesday evening the president, Mrs. Mary T. Lathrop, delivered her annual address; it was a masterly production, delivered in her usual attractive manner. It dealt with every subject connected with the cause of temperance. We will endeavor to give the principal parts next week. Wednesday evening was devoted to the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union. The large platform was a scene of beauty. The elegant banners of many local and county unions, banners of the flower missions, the handsome banner of the state Y's nearly covered the massive curtains at the back and sides of the platform, while the tables were covered with choicest flowers. The Miletos Y. Quartette furnished the music, and there were brief but comprehensive addresses by Mrs. Lillian Hollister, state superintendent Y. W. C. T. U., and Miss Jessie Morgan, national organizer Y. W. C. T. U. On Thursday night we had the privilege of listening to Mrs. Mary H. Hunt, of Boston, national superintendent scientific temperance instruction. To those who have heard Miss Hunt it is not necessary to sound her praises; to those who have not, I would say, do not fail to hear her at your first opportunity. The last lecture was delivered on Friday night, by Mrs. L. S. Rounds, president Illinois W. C. T. U., on "Social Purity." Mrs. Rounds is a portly, fine appearing woman, intelligent, a fine orator, witty and an enthusiastic advocate of the department of social purity.

The mayor of the city, who was to have delivered the address of welcome in behalf of the city, on the first night of the convention, was prevented from being present, on account of the street-railway, which required his constant attention, but he made a few remarks on Friday night previous to the lecture by Mrs. Round. He expressed himself in perfect sympathy with the W. C. T. U. and said he felt a great honor to have the state convention held in their city. He expressed a great desire for our success in this grand undertaking and emphasized his good wishes by giving his check for $10, when the collection to pay expenses was taken. The convention was closed by singing "God be with us 'till we meet again," and the benediction.

ON WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10

WE PLACED ON SALE THE WAGNER STOCK

To be Sold Without Regard to Original Cost or Wagner's Prices.

It is conceded that Wagner & Co. were careful buyers, selecting only the best goods. Being Merchant Tailors they were competent judges both of material and manufacture. The stock was purchased from the best houses in New York and Boston and is largely of a staple character. When they decided to go out of the Ready Made Clothing Business we stepped in and bought it upon our own terms,—removed the stock to

THE STAR CLOTHING HOUSE

Re-arranged it on separate tables,—cut prices about half,—and now it all goes at unheard of figures.

NOTE THE CHANGES.

Childrens' Knee Pants,..... 19c and 34c. Boys' Pants— Wagner's price, $1.75 to $2.50,..... our price, 79c. 100 Men's Pants, " " $2.50..... your choice, $1.78. 75 " " " " $3.50 to $6.00.....
